UPPER CAMPUS IS SCENE OF SENIOR SWINGOUT TONIGHT

Mortar Board Elections Will Be Announced After Ceremony

Promptly at 6:30 this evening the junior women, dressed in white and carrying the daisy chain, will come from behind Bascom hall, and walk down the upper campus in opening the procession for the senior swingout.

Seniors will be at the walk by North hall and South hall, half at either place. Juniors will be behind Bascom hall, and Sophomores at the walk by North hall in the rear of the seniors. Freshmen will be stationed at the walk by South hall behind the seniors.

The juniors will walk down the green, one line on either side, as far as the arch on the knoll on the upper campus. They will turn to face each other, come through the arch and form a line about 12 feet apart, making an aisle through which the other classes pass.

Seniors March in Gowns

The seniors, wearing their caps and gowns for the first time, and lead by Dean Nardin from North hall, and Margaret Callsen from South hall, will go in double file through an arch at either side of the campus, turn and walk down the hill as far as the lower arch, face each other, and go by fours through the aisle made by the daisy chain.

The sophomores, lead by Margaret Wegener '26, president of Red Gauntlet will come from North hall in couples and the freshmen lead by Elysbeth Gilmore '27, president of Green Button, will come from South hall directly behind the seniors.

The daisy chain procession will be lead by Clara Hertzberg '25, and Mary Devine '25, co-chairmen of the swingout. The two university bands, assembled around Lincoln's statue, will play throughout the procession.

Girls Glee club to Sing

When the march has been completed, the women of all the classes lead by the Girls' Glee club will sing a class song as a farewell to the seniors. Next on the program is the maypole dance, to be given by 16 sophomore women under the direction of Ruth Klinger '25.

The torch ceremony will be given, in which Josephine Snow '24, hands the torch, symbolical of power of the senior class, to Dorothy John '25, president of Blue Dragon for the coming year.

Distribute Programs

Announcement of Mortar board elections will then be made by Margaret Callsen, president of Mortar board. The ceremony will close with the singing of "Varsity" and then the "Senior Echo."

Programs have been printed and will be distributed by the police-women. The upper campus has been roped off and three police-women from each class carrying swagger sticks decorated in their class colors, will take charge of the crowds.

Enthusiasm Runs High For Women's Athletic Contest

"If enthusiasm and co-operation are any reliable indicators of the success of an undertaking, Field day this year will be a great event in the culmination of women's athletics," said Alice Drews '26, general chairman yesterday. "Nothing like the support of the sororities, dormitories, and the four classes of this spring has ever been shown before."

Each sorority has agreed to make candy for Field day. Marion Bigelow '26, chairman of the food committee, will be notified and will arrange for the transportation of these donations to Camp Randall, Saturday noon.

The representatives also are in charge of selling the Field day programs within their chapters. All the money will be turned over to the W. A. A. cottage fund.

Burning of Green Caps Opposed By Class Presidents

"Burning the green caps during the bonfire ceremony which ends the activities of Varsity night, is entirely inconsistent with the ideas of university and class loyalty which bring about their voluntary wearing during the year," James Flickinger '26, last year's freshman president said yesterday. Virginia Sinclair, president of the freshman class this year has expressed the same sentiment in regard to the green caps.

"Let the freshman caps be kept as relics of days to be remembered, and as symbols of freshmen loyalty to the class, college and university," Miss Sinclair said yesterday.

The bonfire is to be lighted at 8:30. Members of the four classes will gather in the one corner of the campus designated by a sign bearing the class numerals, according to Fred Gustorf '25, interscholastic chairman.

When the snake dance is ended and Varsity has been sung around the embers, the freshmen's welcome into the brotherhood of the university will be complete, Gustorf said.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY DIRECTED BY ORTH

Sid Thorson Heads Production Staff; Sharp is Business Manager

The production staff for the senior class play, "Rollo's Wild Oats" which will be presented at the open air theater Thursday and Friday nights June 19 and 20, consists of 14 workers.

Olivia Orth '24, is in charge of the directing of the play and will be assisted by Alpha Roth '24, in the coaching work. Vesta Ritter '24 is taking charge of costumes and Alethea Smith '24, who is also a member of the cast, will direct the make-up.

The production staff is headed by Sidney Thorson '24, who has held that capacity in Haresfoot for the last two years. Under his direction will be Robert Moore '26, property man, and Oscar Elkins '27, and William MacDonald '25, who will assist with the property work. Harold Hastings '26 and Perry Newton '27, are electricians.

All the scenery, four sets for the four different acts, will be made under the direction of Thorson. In fact, the entire performance as far as the production staff is concerned will be the work of the members of that staff.

Eliot H. Sharp '25 has been made business manager for the play with Gordon Brine '26, ticket manager; Paul McGinnis '25, publicity manager, and Curtis Billings '26, assistant.

The tickets will be placed on open sale the second week in June. Mail orders can now be sent to Sharp at the Union building, or to Brine at the Phi Gamma Delta house. Special accommodations will be made to reserve blocks for large parties. The tickets are $1 and $1.50. Although Thursday night has been made senior night and Friday alumni night there are no restrictions on the attendance.

1925 BADGER WILL BE GIVEN OUT NEXT WEEK

The 1925 Badger will be distributed next week, although no definite date has as yet been set, Ellis Fulton '25, declared yesterday. Labor troubles in the shops that have been handling the printing and engraving have caused a considerable delay completing the book. It is now being bound, the last step in the process. The date of the debut was first set as June 2, but it is feared that it will be a few days later.

UNIVERSITY PAYS TRIBUTE TO LATE PROF. SLAUGHTER

Birge, Showerman, and Tracy, Eulogize Educator at Memorial Services

Tribute was paid to Prof. M. S. Slaughter of the classics department, who died in Rome, yesterday, at a memorial service in the auditorium of Music hall. Prof. Grant Showerman, Sterling Tracy '22, and President Birge gave eulogies. Many students and faculty members were present.

"Prof. Slaughter was an individualist as well as a humanist," Professor Showerman said. "The real Professor Slaughter was not a conformist to a system. He was not intimidated by the authors of the classics; he made them human, rejuvenated them and brought them home to his students. He had all the knowledge of a philologist and still he remained a humanist."

Tracy Speaks

Professor Slaughter's nature was an instrument, sensitive to every impulse, nor were the feelings all his own. He felt the sorrows of the race.

Sterling Tracy '22 present member of the staff of the "Commercial Appeal" a publication of Memphis, Tenn., and a student for several years under the professor, spoke of him as an instructor.

"Professor Slaughter had the happy faculty of entering into the spirit of the beauty of his work," he said. "It was impossible for his students to sit under the spell of a love like his without being influenced by it. It made the technical part of the class seem like an incident to an end. He leaves a thousand happy memories in the minds of his students, and lives in legacies he has left to his students, one, an impression of his great learning, and the other a memory of his gentle character. To learn with him," said Mr. Tracy, "was more than to learn the classics, it was seeing life in the beautiful."

Virtues Go On

President Birge said, "It would be difficult to overrate his contributions to the university. The man and his subject were one. His virtue is one which death cannot destroy."

Professor Slaughter, who was on

MOTIVES SIMILAR IN KLAN, FASCISTI

—FLYNN

Italian Party Compared With Knights in Lecture Last Night

"Liberty is a dead issue, and I will walk over her prostrate corpse any time to promote the cause of the Fascisti," declared Benito Mussolini, present dictator of Italy, according to a statement of Miss Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, in her address on "The Fascisti and the Ku Klux Klan," last night in the men's gymnasium.

Miss Flynn cited several instances where Fascisti organizations in the United States caused the arrest of Italian newspaper editors who opposed the Fascisti in their columns, and she gave out information which showed that Fascisti organizers in this country were attempting to remove Italians from those industries in which they are most firmly bound by American labor organizations.

"We do not need Fascisti in America," said Miss Flynn, "we have their like home grown. There is too much of the same spirit in this country with a resulting limitation of free speech."

It was implied in Miss Flynn's address that the Ku Klux Klan had in it a great portion of the Fascisti spirit of which, she said, we are in no need.

People in the United States were left thirsty for excitement. The Klan furnished the new outlet for that desire for excitement.

Captive Owl Wails and Looks Scared; Shows No Wisdom

"As wise as an owl" is a favorite way of expressing the height of sagacity, but the fluffy little gray owl that peers out between the wires of his cage in the lobby of the Biology building this week, never heard it. He's just plain scared—that's what he is, and at intervals he gives vent to his feelings in long, drawn-out wails that resound through the building and cause cold chills to travel up and down the spines of the timid.

Mr. Owl is the latest exhibit of a series that has attracted attention and interest throughout the school year. These exhibits have been varied, ranging all the way from minnows and frogs to mounted butterflies.

Between classes there is always an audience gathered about the cage or aquarium, as the case may be, poking at the unfortunate object of attention, and venturing wild speculations as to what it might be.

HONOR MEMORY OF 140 SOLDIER DEAD

City and University Join in Tribute to Madison Veterans Tomorrow

One hundred and forty Madison veterans who died in the World war, will be honored tomorrow, when 140 university women place wreaths at the foot of the Lincoln statue as part of the memorial services.

As the audience sings "America", the women, dressed in white, each carrying a green wreath, will start from both sides of the campus, and filing around North and South halls, will meet on the campus below. Two by two, the women will march up the hill between the files of the President's guard. As the name of each of the hero dead is called, a woman will place a wreath on the memorial.

"This is the most impressive parts of the program," said George Chandler, who is in charge of the services. "It is an annual feature performed in a different manner every year."

"The upper campus will present a beautiful sight," said Mr. Chandler. Behind the statue will be the colors and standards of all the units taking part. Behind this, hanging from the balcony on Bascom hall, will wave the service flag.

The program for the day is as follows:

8:30—Cadets assemble on lower campus. President's review. Confering of commissions and awards.
9:30—Parade leaves Wisconsin avenue. March around square, up Wisconsin avenue, down Langdon street to Lincoln terrace.

10:30—Girls in wreath ceremony assemble at Lathrop.

11—Memorial program. Invocation, Rev. H. C. Hengel. Introduction, President Birge. Address, Michael B. Olbrich. Introduction, Major J. H. Mathews, O. R. C. Address, Brig-Gen. Amos B. Fries. "America," Assemblage. Wreath-bearing ceremony, directed by Charles I. Corp, O. R. C.

EKERN, FROTH TRACK MANAGER, IS INJURED

George Ekern '27, freshman track manager, was accidentally injured yesterday, when a javelin struck his leg and pierced the calf. The bone was not touched, and although he will be unable to continue his duties for some time, there is no immediate danger of infection the attending doctor said.

CARS CRASH; DRIVERS SHAKE HANDS; FINIS

Two Chevrolet cars crashed on Langdon street, in front of the Tri Delt house, last night at 9 o'clock. The front left wheels were ripped off both the cars but the occupants were uninjured. The drivers shook hands and agreed to let the matter rest. The cars bore the license numbers B-54-953 and B-76-561.

CAUTION ADVISED FOR SAFETY ON MENDOTA TONIGHT

Rescue Boats Will Be on Duty For Venetian Night; Rules Issued

To insure the safety of the large number of people who will be on Lake Mendota, Saturday night, watching the many events of Venetian night, cards have been printed with a number of regulations that will be in force during the evening.

The following statement by Fred Gustorf '25, general chairman, regarding the matter of insuring safety, was issued last night:

"Any success that the Venetian night program may have, will be counteracted if any serious accident occurs during the water events, with the several hundred lighted canoes and boats on the lake it is necessary that every precaution be taken to avoid mishap.

Rescue Boats on Duty

"Both the Cardinal and the Isabel will be prepared to take care of any emergency that may arise. We are issuing printed cards of warning to all persons taking part in the program and if everyone will cooperate by keeping in mind the instructions on the card all the events will run off without any congestion or accident."

During the rescue drill, the Cardinal and Isabel will carry green flags, but if at any time these two boats should put out from their slips carrying red flags they must be given the right of way on the lake.

Another feature that has been added to the evening's program will be the event "The Lost Ship," which will take place during the setting off of the 107 pieces of fireworks from the center of the lake.

Aquaplane Features

Louis Rutte '24, who will do aquaplaning stunts behind the fastest boat on the lake owned by E. T. Nesvig, going 35 miles an hour, will be dressed in costume and spot lights will be focused on him during the ride.

Lighted letters standing 8 feet high will be placed along the lake front and will form the word "Venice." The 20 spot and flood lights that have been provided, with green and red flares on the piers will turn night into day during the event.

Persons who plan to use canoes on the lake that night are asked to stop at the boat houses where they will be provided with two

Large Program is Planned at Annual Glee Club Banquet

Determination to make next year the most active concert season in the history of the club was expressed at the sixth annual banquet of the Wisconsin Glee club, held in Lathrop hall last night. Following the concert, the club went on its annual serenade in the university district.

Edgar S. Nethercut '89, president of the Intercollegiate Glee clubs contest of Chicago, and Dr. C. S. Sheldon, in whose room the first glee club in America was formed at Yale, were speakers at the banquet.

Prof. Grant Showerman, Prof. James T. Rood, and Leon L. Ittis, recently appointed members of the advisory board, also addressed the members of the club. Other speakers were Harold Sharp '21, and Harry Carswell '22, former presidents of the club, Oswald A. Krebs, W. Norris Wentworth '24, Robert Nethercut '24, Oscar Christianson '24 and Richard Lund '26.

Edgar S. Nethercut and Professor Rood declared the activities of the Glee club had aroused the interest of alumni all over the country. More Wisconsin people heard the recent contest in Chicago than any group representing any other school, and every alumnus who attended has expressed his intention of hearing every contest that is held, Mr. Nethercut said.

BUILDERS BID FOR SOUTH HALL JOB

Plans to Rebuild Whole Interior Completed; Work Starts Soon

Bids have been received for the complete remodeling of South hall, it was announced today at the office of the secretary of the faculty.

The plans call for the installation of fireproof terrazzo floors in all halls and corridors, new steel stairways to replace the present rickety wooden ones, and complete redecoration of all the offices and recitation rooms in the building.

Work will commence as soon as bids are closed, presumably with a Madison contractor. The work is one that has long been pending and is very much needed, due to the run down condition of the building. North hall, the sister building of South hall, was remodeled three years ago.

The installation of the new stairs in a slightly different location will necessitate the changing of nearly every door in the building. The second floor hallway will be extended through from end to end of the building, a change that will be much appreciated by students who hitherto have had to go down one flight of stairs, out one entrance of the building, and up the stairs on the other end in order to get from end of the political science department to the other.

The stairs will be extended to the fourth floor at the north end of the building, leading to the state hygienic laboratory. Toilets will be installed on the second and fourth floors.

South hall contains all the offices and class rooms of the course in journalism and of the political science department, as well as the offices of Deans Sellery, Goodnight, Glicksman, and Roe. The entire fourth floor is occupied by the state laboratory of hygiene.

Splash—Women Pass Off Swimming Tests in Lathrop Pool

Sounds of splashing and plaintive cries of "I can't do it" are issuing from the swimming pool in Lathrop hall these days as senior and sophomore women try frantically to pass their swimming tests. About 100 women took tests last week.

No women students can graduate without having passed a swimming test, which consists of swimming once around the tank in good form. About 30 seniors have not yet taken their tests which must be passed by next week.

Sophomores who do not pass the swimming test receive an incomplete in gymnasium which must be made up in their junior year.

Heldner Paintings Attract Comment; Continue Exhibit

A display of 36 pictures by Knute Heldner at the studio of Karl Nobel on the second floor of the Union bank building, will be held over for exhibition until next Sunday, and possibly later, Mr. Heldner said last night.

Of his works, the Chicago Herald-Examiner said, "A surprise and a compensation is the exhibition of the works of Knute Heldner, Norwegian by birth, who created a local sensation at the Minnesota state fair, and in Milwaukee, where he was induced to give a one man show."

"Heldner seems to be five or six artists wrapped up in one," said the Milwaukee Telegram. "His subjects are too broad, and his treatment too varied to know how to put a finger on his style. Of this we are certain, Heldner will not be shackled."

Referring to Heldner's works, the Milwaukee Journal says "they are nature in their variety and truth, according to her mood."

"Lake Minnetonka" was purchased last week by Mrs. H. O. Morse of Madison. This picture is one of the softest color ensembles in the exhibit. It expresses a misty hot summer day, and received favorable comment for its soft and dainty color harmony.

America

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing,
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong!

Our Father's God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing.
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

VARSITY SONG RECORDS PROVE POPULAR MUSIC

Records of varsity songs and familiar serenades sung by the varsity quartet are selling fast at the University, and Hook Brothers music stores, although they have just been on sale a short while. It is expected that the sales will increase considerably toward the close of school.

The sale of "Haresfoot Sweetheart," the new Haresfoot serenade song, is going well. The words were written by Porter Butts '24, and the music by Jesse Cohen '24.

Varsity Nine Leaves Today For Championship Tilt

MICHIGAN CONTEST
WILL DETERMINE
CONFERENCE RACETeam Plays Aggies Friday
and Wolverines Saturday;
Title at Stake

The varsity nine put in a strenuous afternoon in preparation for the coming tilts with the Michigan Aggies on Friday and with Michigan the following day yesterday afternoon and set sail on its northern foray this afternoon.

The outcome of the conference baseball race hinges on the Wolverines tilt, as a victory by the Badgers will give them a clear field to the title.

Christianson Against Michigan

Coach Lowman, while confident of a win, is bending every effort toward perfecting his team for its final test, and the nine will be in the pink when it steps onto Ferry field.

Herb Christianson, who had the Wolverines eating out of his hand during the entire game here, will face Jack Blott and his gang again, and if the weather is hot he should be in shape to repeat his success.

Infield Hitting Well

The infield has been functioning in big league style, with the exception of Steen and Freuchtwanger, who have been pulling several bones on the initial sack. Tangen, Ellingson, and Goss, however, are fielding and hitting at the top of their form, the latter especially having struck his stride.

Emanuel and Dugan in the outer garden are poling out consistent hits, and have handled every chance so far this season without an error. The left field position is still open, and may be filled by Servatius or Johnson.

COMMITTEES PLAN
FOR HOMECOMINGHilberts Calls Meeting For Next Week to Lay
Foundation

Plans for the 1924 Homecoming on November 15, will be discussed at a meeting of all of the committee chairmen to be held the middle of next week.

"We will round up our plans before we go home for the summer vacation so that the new ideas that we are working out for Homecoming next year will start with the beginning of the school year next fall. The committee chairmen have all been doing preparatory work for next year," said Bert M. Hilberts '25, general chairman, yesterday.

Letters have been sent to fraternities on the campus asking them to call the attention of their alumni to Homecoming when the annual alumni banquets are held this spring. During the first week in September letters will be sent to the alumni and notices will be mailed to the clubs of graduates just before the classes begin in the fall. A committee under Norton V. Smith '26, chairman of the alumni committee, is working on the letters at the present time.

2 Beloit Men Missing
After Volcanic Blast

WASHINGTON — War department reports from General Summerall, commander of the department of Hawaii, show that Privates Orin M. Simmons of Beloit, Wis., and Edward J. Simmons, Oswego, N. Y., who were missing since the recent eruption of the volcano Kilauea, were listed on army records as "absent without leave." Two service men were seen near the mouth of the volcano when the first big explosion occurred ten days ago but have not been seen since. The two were members of a company stationed far from the volcano.

Interscholastic Day Lacking
Student Support Say Chairmen

"Students do not seem to realize the importance of the state high school track meet which will be held in Madison on Saturday, May 31," declared Eugene W. Tuhtar '25, assistant general chairman of Interscholastic day and Venetian night.

"I have heard of several instances where high schools which have track and field work as their main athletic activity did not enter the state meet this year because of the little interest shown by university students.

With more than 450 high school tracksters coming into Madison the co-operation of the fraternities in housing them has been disappointing, according to Paul Faust '26, who is chairman of the committee. Provisions have been made for about 250 men, and unless there is a better response, rooms will have to be rented and Madison residents will have to be called upon to assist the committee chairmen.

At 4:30 o'clock Friday, May 30, the high school tracksters will be the guests of university students, professors of the extension division, members of the Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary and Optimist clubs, who will take them for a sight-seeing trip around the places of interest in Madison.

"I would like to see a large crowd of university students at the track and field meet on Saturday," said General chairman Fred Gustorf '25. "While these high school boys are here, students should want to entertain them and make them feel that they are welcome here. I do not want any visiting high school athlete to leave Madison with a blank impression of the university at large."

"It is one of the few chances that high school athletes have to become acquainted with undergraduate life at Wisconsin, and future track teams at the university will be benefitted if students really get out and back the meet," concluded Tuhtar.

STUDENT OVATION AND SEND-OFF
PLANNED FOR CREW MONDAY

The crew will leave Madison for Poughkeepsie Monday at 1:00 o'clock from the West Madison station of the St. Paul road. A mass meeting will be held on the lower campus at 12:30 o'clock Monday and will follow the crew to the station. The crew will be pulled on the red wagon by students and they will be led by the frosh band.

It is Coach Jones' opinion that in as much as the crew is a major sport the student body ought to be out in full force and give them the kind of send-off that they usually give to the football squad. He is also anxious to see a big turn out because it has been so long since a crew was sent to row on the Hudson.

"Dad" Vail is more anxious to see the student body turn out because he believes it will help the crew when it gets way down east to remember that the school is behind them every minute and that they are doing their best on the Hudson. "It is a new thing for most of the people at the university to see a crew off," said "Dad" "and it would make me and my boys feel mighty happy when we get on the train to know that we are not going away alone but that the spirit of the school will be with us."

"Shorty" Walstead is also anxious to have a big turn out to see the boys off. "The crew should receive the same kind of a send off as any of the other teams that represent the school. I expect to see every loyal student down on the lower campus to give the crew a good old send off."

All the letter and numeral men will wear their sweaters to show the crew that they are right behind them. Lower campus 12:30 Monday, "VARSITY OUT."

Versus

This is going to be a busy week end for Wisconsin athletes. We will meet Michigan at baseball in a game that will practically decide whether or not we have any chance of bringing home the bacon. The outcome is a tossup despite the fact that we have beaten the Maize and Blue once.

The final announcements of the interscholastic entries shows that the present meet will, in point of numbers, be the greatest ever held here. With this taken care of it only remains for the students to come through and support this in the same way that they did the state basketball tournament. Once there you will be glad you have come, so be there.

Remember way back when Harper, a Minnesota guard, was dropped just before the Wisconsin game for professionalism. He won ten dollars in a fat men's race.

A bundle of papers belonging to Horace H. Holcombe Jr. of Hinsdale, Illinois, have been found in "the alley" and the finder is anxious to return the same. You're welcome.

The launching of a new sail boat at the foot of Lake Street drew a crowd that would put to shame any crowd at one of our baseball games.

We will confess to a feeling that somehow this column is not so brilliant as it might be, as the "Wake of the News" for instance. Be that as it may you would not feel so brilliant either if you had worked

GYMNASIUM CLASSES
FOR ALL WOMEN END

Today is the last day of gym classes for women students. During the last two weeks physical examinations have been held for all sophomore and freshmen women. The tank has been full of girls passing off the swimming tests required of all women before graduation. Sophomores who fail to pass off their test this year are graded with an incomplete in the course. Juniors failing to pass the test are given a failure in gym. All girls failing to take the physical examination are given two cuts. The department advises all who possibly can to pass off swimming tests this week. No classes will be held in any sports next week.

Fish Crop Decreased In State By Bad Weather

Wisconsin's crop of fish this year will be materially decreased over previous years, due to unfavorable weather conditions this spring, B. O. Webster, superintendent of state fisheries, reported. Mr. Webster has just returned from inspection of several of the state hatcheries and declared that the cold weather has prevented hatching and growth of fish to such an extent that the department's supply of spring fish for restocking streams has been greatly decreased.

as hard as we had—who said horse-radish?—or had worried as much as we have, never mind over what. We have tried oh so hard to think up something funny to attribute to Joe Steinauer, but it was no use, the only thing we could think of would not even get by Sky-rockets.

VERSUS BLUFF
MAC AND BOBMORE FRATERNITY
HORSESHOE MEET
ENTRANTS WANTED

More teams are wanted for the fraternity horseshoe pitching tournament. A meeting was held at the gym yesterday with the result that five fraternities signed for the competition, but a number of other teams are still wanted.

Another meeting will be held to-day at 12:45 o'clock in George Berg's gym office to receive registration for more teams and to arrange the schedule of play. It will be determined at this meeting whether a fee shall be charged for entrance.

Squads now signed for the barnyard golf are the Tekes, Phi Psi, Phi Deltas, Theta Delta Chi, and the Alpha Chi Sigma. Six-men teams will play in the tournament.

Juniors Trounce
Frosh 24 to 5 in
Co-ed Ball Game

In a baseball game so long-drawn out that the final score was held after the fourth inning, the juniors rapped the freshmen to a 24 to 5 defeat, yesterday afternoon.

Rugen, the junior twirler, showed poor form. Although she had all of her usual speed, she was unsteady. Her drops and corner pitching continually turned into balls, so that she fanned fewer and walked more players than she did in the junior-sophomore game.

The fact remains that the frosh failed to score. Had Rugen been up to par, the defeat would have been a slaughter. Fumbling on the part of the losers told in their failure to stop the juniors from scoring.

The opening inning with the juniors at bat spelled the outcome. Ury walked. Lowe smashed to the right with a three-base hit. Robertson walked. Hunt and John hit and were safe at first. The first pretty fielding display by the frosh came when Butler, right fielder, stopped Weingandt's ball. Rugen walked. Three outs came in quick succession with Weingandt out a third in a steal and Burdick's and Parker's strike outs.

The juniors kept the freshmen but a short time behind the bat. After a one-base hit by Butler, a walk by Rhode, Winter struck out, Schwartz was put out at first by Robertson, second baseman, and Reck struck out. The score stood 5 to 2.

The second inning showed nothing unusual in either batting or fielding. Rugen struck three out in quick succession with three players on base and no outs. The freshmen made no runs, the juniors scoring two.

The third inning with the juniors at bat was the longest and slowest this season. The victors batted around twice and netted 12 runs and held the victims to one. The third inning found the juniors with five more and the frosh with two. That ended the game with the score standing 24 to 5.

The final game will be between the juniors and the seniors on Field day Saturday. Both teams will walk upon the field with no defeats to their name. With such records the match promises to be one of keen competition and will decide the championship which will net another 40 points to the winner toward the all-year championship place which will be announced at that time.

Gossip Links Wales

LONDON—Gossip connecting the names of the Prince of Wales and Princess Mafalda of Italy was revived when the pair attended a Guild Hall luncheon Tuesday.

Examinations for physiotherapy aide, teacher of home economics, and principal in the Indian service, will be held June 18 at the federal building here, it was announced Wednesday by H. H. Van Wageningen, local secretary to the U. S. civil service commission.

CREW WORKS IN PREPARATION FOR
'KEEPSIE REGETTALeave Monday to Spend Two Weeks of Practice on Hudson

Three more days to go and then to Poughkeepsie where the vagaries of a shifty lake stirred by changing winds will no longer keep daily workouts an uncertainty. Such seems to be the spirit that prevails around the varsity boat-house these last few days before the big trip.

The varsity took their shell out for a long row yesterday despite a rather rough lake. That every hour spent on the water now means a better showing at the regatta seems to be the opinion of "Dad" Vail.

Line-up Changed

The line-up in the first boat still remains the same and chances are that at this late date it will not change. Schuetz, captain, Johnson, Bentson, and Jones are on the starboard side. On the port side are Plettner, Sly, Schuman and Teckmeyer. This line-up with one exception, is the same as when the season first began.

For the coxswain's position in the first boat there seems to be some warm competition. Kitchen who has been coxing the first boat since the opening of the season has given away in the last few days to Kohler who has been in the second boat. But Coach Vail is still uncertain as to his choice for the Poughkeepsie trip.

Due to an inadvertent mistake, yesterday's Cardinal gave the impression that the crew would leave for Poughkeepsie Saturday instead of Monday, June 2, as was announced before. Monday still remains the date for leave-taking and a big send-off is being planned, details of which are elsewhere on the page.

Bad Weather Hinder

As to the condition of the crew and their possibilities "Dad" Vail says, "Give us some weather and we will make a crew." Whether the crew will get to row over the three mile course before they leave depends on the weather, according to Vail.

The second varsity and the freshman intercollegiate crews are getting ready for their respective races on the Venetian program Saturday.

CO-ED CLASS ARCHERY
TEAMS ARE SELECTED

Women's archery teams for each class have just been announced by the gym department. Seniors, Josephine Keech and Ethel May Smith; juniors, Helen Mahany, Genevieve Brown, Dorothy Haskins, and Erma Schroeder; sophomores, Romona Bachuber, Eunice Dvorak, Volunta Dine, and Margery Schultz; freshmen, Laura Gatterman, Marie Kroner, Gertrude Majstad and Senta Schultz. Members will meet at 12 o'clock Thursday noon in the reading room on the fourth floor Lathrop hall.

LA FOLLETTE BEATEN IN STUDENT ELECTION

President Coolidge was nominated as a presidential candidate over Senator Robert M. LaFollette, by the University of Minnesota student body in a mock election last Thursday night, when he received two votes majority on the fourth ballot.

The outcome was the climax to a hot fight lasting four hours in which the two-thirds majority rule was suspended.

The convention, which started with 1,100 students seated, had little excitement over adopting a platform recommending a "no bonus" policy, rigid enforcement of the eighteenth amendment, entry of the United States into the league of nations, and passage of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Today the State of Wisconsin celebrates its 76 birthday. On May 29, 1848 Wisconsin was admitted into the Union, having been a territory since 1836, for 12 years.

This date is an important one in the history of the university. It is significant because on July 26 of that same year, 1848, the necessary legislative acts providing for the organization of the university were approved, and the first board of regents met in Madison in October. Since it had become a territory the state had been working to establish a university. In 1839 the National Congress granted to the territory two townships of public land "for the use and support of a university." In 1848, moreover, when Wisconsin was applying for admission to statehood, provisions for the university were written into the constitution laid before Congress.

So in a way the university was born with the state, and could not have been born until the state had come into existence. It is consequently fitting and proper that those connected with the university should not pass over this day as they would any ordinary one.

THE SEASON OPENS

The first near-serious accident of the season took place Tuesday when two cars collided at the corner of Henry and Langdon streets. Now it can not be said authoritatively here that the cars were speeding. But whether the accident occurred because of infringements of the traffic regulations or not is not the question. The accident should serve as a warning to motorists.

There are certain editorials which must appear every so often. One is the editorial on studying for examinations, one is the editorial exhorting students to be careful on Mendota, another is the editorial on speeding. Much though all concerned would like to do away with these editorials, it is almost impossible to discard them entirely. The Cardinal must at least perform what is obviously its duty in this regard.

Every one knows that the speed limit is exceeded over and over again on Langdon street, University avenue and the various other "speed-ways" in the vicinity of the Latin Quarter. In the main the local police have been efficient in cutting down the number of violations. They sally forth every so often and make a clean sweep.

If motorists can be made to realize their folly in speeding only by playing up to their own selfishness, then that can be done. For there is a reason for the selfish person to beware the speed laws, and that is that just as a sudden clean-up of arterial law breakers was made several weeks ago, so may another clean-up of speed law breakers be made. There is no telling when it will be made, and motorists would do well to beware lest they have the weight in their pockets lightened. Perhaps they are rich enough not to care. In that case all that can be done is to say that there is a limit to the number of times they can be fined beyond which it is not healthy to go.

The dangers of a serious smash-up furthermore, are not pleasant, and not even the pedestrian wishes such hard luck on the speeder.

But remember the pedestrian, motorists, and use a little of that noble quality known as altruism.

TO THEE WE SING

One of the worst feelings which Americans can experience is that feeling which they are constantly experiencing when called upon to sing praises to the glory of their country. You know how it is. The toastmaster, or the cheerleader, or the leader of Fourth of July celebrations faces the audience and calls out for our national anthem. You rise slowly to your feet, start off bravely with "Oh say can you see?", commence to wonder just you what can "see" and what you are going to do next, stutter over a few words and finally decide that you will try to listen to your neighbor and parrot him. Then you find that your neighbor has already decided that he will parrot you and you listen in vain for the words, catch one or two now and then from some distant members of the audience and finally come to the conclusion that the best thing to do is simply to make your lips move and pretend that you are singing the right words.

A helpless feeling, one which makes you rather disgusted with your country's national anthem, and you wonder why some one has not written a national song that human beings can sing.

Tomorrow morning "America" will be sung. That at least is the plan. Whether it will be sung or butchered is still the question. For the benefit of those thousands who will take part in the celebration on the upper campus, who do not know "America" any better than "the Star Spangled Banner" and who wish to be spared embarrassment, The Cardinal is printing in another part of this issue the words of "America" so that you may be able to memorize them.

If in doubt, pause. If still in doubt, seek advice. If the doubt persists, prepare an alibi and go ahead.

After perfection, the next stage is decay.

We wish some people who live to be a hundred would tell us why, instead of how, they do it.

Other Editors Say—

APPRECIATION OF NATURE

Spring has been rather long in coming this year, but one can hardly blame her for her late appearance when the tendency of certain persons to abuse her is considered.

Spring is a shy and coy maiden. She must be lured and coaxed from her winter hiding place and treated kindly if she may be expected to give freely of her warmth and beauty to atone for the fierceness and cruelty of winter's reign. But how few are the persons who show her the kindness she most certainly deserves!

Spring always comes to us adorned with garlands of flowers—flowers that are a part of nature's wonderful gift to man—flowers that have the power to substitute happiness for sorrow, hope for despair. Flowers are expressive—expressive in a clear but inarticulate manner that lends enchantment to all those things which possess it. Music and art have this same expression.

It is deplorable how few persons realize that flowers cannot be really beautiful except in the setting for which nature has designed them. Many so-called nature-lovers delight in gathering spring flowers and taking them home to become wilted and unattractive heaps in a few days. As soon as the first warm days come, city dwellers flock to the country to ravage and despoil nature's wonderful gifts of beauty. Can we blame spring for being reluctant to hurry toward her fate?

Let us realize that nature's beauty is real beauty only in natural environment. Instead of taking home bunches of flowers to wither and die, let us merely look at them, filling our souls with the wonder of their beauty, and take home with us the vision of nature's gifts—a vision that will not wither and die.—Columbia Missourian.

It seems that the so-called Latin Quarter was invaded by the Hunchback of Notre Dame a few evenings past, when a person of very questionable looking character was seen to be lurking around the vicinity of the "Sorority Alley." Several of the houses had guards on duty at all windows and doors. For any information on this call Badger 232.

"Foolishness, my dear! It must have been your shadow!"

Seeing that they are going to have an air unit here makes us think that if the air ever gets as

THE FROG

What a funny little bird the frog are, for he ain't got no tail almost hardly. But when he hops he skips, and when he skips he jumps, and when he jumps he sits on his little tail he ain't got almost hardly. His ears aren't, and his eyes that stick out, stick in. He dies once only, but croaks all day long.

SAYING IT WITH MUSIC

The One I Love, none other than Hula Lou, has been dating quite a bit with the Shiek known as Dancin' Dan, and this leads me to say that Somebody Stole my Girl. The last time I asked her if she loved me she said, "You're having a Dream Daddy," and left me flat. I said "I Love You," and asked her to Linger Awhile, but she Snapped Her Fingers At Care, and replied, "I'm Headin' South," and at this I became provoked and sneeringly said, "Don't Think That You'll Be Missed," but now I say, Who's Sorry Now?

Diplomas will be distributed at the commencement exercises by schools so that individuals in the various schools will either find the owner of the diploma they are given, or return it to the registrar's office where the owner can call for it, according to information given out at the registrar's office yesterday.

The diplomas have not yet arrived, but will be here about examination time. Those seniors who are not certain of graduating can be sure of getting a diploma, for the man who does the freehand drawing of the names on the diplomas, will be in town during commencement to do last minute work.

If there are not enough diplomas at the time of the exercises, officials have planned for blanks to be used as substitutes.

JUNIOR ADVISERS MAKE FALL PLANS

New System Will Be Used to Welcome Freshmen Women
Next Fall

Everyone of the 900 girls expected to enroll as freshmen this fall will have a junior woman to advise her and help her get acquainted with the school and the upper-classmen, under the junior advisory system, as worked out this year.

"Final plans have been made and we are now ready to assign advisers as fast as the freshmen girls sign up at the office of the dean of women," Genevieve Ellis '26, chairman, said yesterday. "The prospective advisers showed a deep interest in their responsibility at the recent mass meeting, and I am sure no freshman girl will have reason to complain."

The plan of having a chairman for each S. G. A. district used last year to promote efficiency of the junior advisory system and to relieve the general chairman is being employed again this year. Freshmen girls whose addresses for the fall are known, will be assigned by the chairmen to advisers within her district.

The district chairmen, who will have charge of distributing the freshman girls to their respective advisers, are Mary Snyder, Miriam Inglis, Margaret Wegener, Alice Drews, Edith Norris, Roberta Odell, Louise McNaught, Gwendolyn Drake, Rena Grubb, Barbara Beatty, Lillian Twenhöfel, Julia Peet, Elizabeth Ellingson, Janet Clark and Margaret Campbell.

The first social function for the freshmen girls this fall will be the Y. W. C. A. tea September 23 at the home of President Birge. Only freshmen are invited.

Junior advisers are invited to bring their advisees to the annual S. G. A. party to be held this year on the evening of September 23, in Lathrop hall. The following Sunday, advisers and advisees will be guests at a S. G. A. tea in Lathrop parlors.

STUDENTS INJURED IN CRASH MUCH IMPROVED

The two students who were injured in an auto accident on Langdon street, Tuesday are very much improved and no internal injuries have developed as was first feared, according to information received from the infirmary yesterday.

The two victims, Edna Walter '25 course in journalism, and Grover Bruns '27, course in commerce, were in a Ford touring car which collided with a Ford roadster at the corner of Henry and Langdon streets. Miss Walter who was cut about the head and had several front teeth knocked out and Bruns, who suffered severe scalp wounds were taken to the infirmary where they are receiving medical attention.

MUSIC OF "VARSITY" COMPOSED FOR MASS

When students sing "Varsity" at the end of the program on Varsity night they will be singing part of a mass by Gounod. Few students know that the strains which thrill them at a football game and which bring tears to the eyes of loyal alumni, is sacred music. The sonorous, dignified music was intended to induce a feeling of reverence in worshippers at church, not to thrill a crowd of hoarse Wisconsin rooters at a football game.

Prof. Grant Showerman, of the classical department, wrote the words of "Varsity" in 1895, when he was an undergraduate and a member of the Glee club. The strains of mass music were discovered by the president of the Glee club, who suggested that Professor Showerman write some words to accompany it.

HOLD DECLAMATION MEET HERE TODAY

Contest Will Be Held at Wisconsin High; Award Silver Cups

Thirty-six high schools will compete in the state interscholastic declamatory, recitation, reading, and extemporaneous contest which will be held today in the Wisconsin high school, according to an announcement made last night by the Forensic board.

The order of speaking is extemporaneous contest, 9 o'clock, reading, 11 o'clock, declamatory, 1:30 o'clock, recitation, 3 o'clock. The contest will be judged by members of the staff of the speech department.

The high schools sending the winning representative in each of the four contests will be presented with a silver cup by the Wisconsin High school Lyceum league. The four winning speeches will be broadcast at 7 o'clock from station WHA.

"The contest should be well attended because the speaking will represent the best in Wisconsin high schools," declared Harold J. Sporer '25, president of the Forensic board. "This is the largest and most important contest of its kind held in the state."

Some 37 library students from the Wisconsin Library school, Madison, were assigned to 28 Badger libraries for field training this year.

Angela Hope '18 Engaged to Marry L. G. Schlinggen

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Sullivan Dubuque, Iowa, announce the engagement of their daughter, Angela Hope, to Lucian F. Schlinggen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schlinggen, 340 West Washington avenue. Miss Sullivan graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1918. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta. Mr. Schlinggen, who is associated with his father in the Schlinggen Monument Company, attended the University of Wisconsin and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Boston. He is a member of Theta Delta Chi. The wedding will take place the latter part of June.

The members of Delta Sigma Phi held their annual banquet for their alumni last night. The banquet was given at the chapter house. About fifteen alumni were present. C. E. Brown of Chicago, district deputy of Delta Sigma Phi was a guest.

Japs Protest Ban On Aliens in New Immigration Laws

TOKIO—Deep regret that the U. S. has enacted the immigration bill including a clause barring Japanese is voiced in an official statement issued late today by the foreign office.

"The Japanese government remain unshaken in their opposition to this discriminatory legislation against Japanese and they have instructed the Japanese ambassador at Washington to lodge a solemn protest with the U. S. government on this occasion," concludes the communique.

The document describes the immigration bill and its effects upon Japanese entering the United States, and continues:

"Since the introduction of the Johnson immigration bill, the base of the present act, into the house (The American house of representatives) last December, the Japanese government have frequently and earnestly called the attention of the United States government to the Japanese exclusion provision. The Japanese government therefore deeply regret that this provision had been enacted in spite of their representations and the vigorous and repeated efforts made by the president and secretary of state of the U. S. to prevent the inclusion of the discriminatory provision in question."

The statement was issued late in the day, after an extraordinary cabinet session had approved the form of a protest whose framing was completed yesterday and after, the foreign Minister Matsui had asked and obtained the sanction of the Prince Regent to the forwarding of the document. The latter step is extraordinary and was interpreted as indicating the importance with which the matter is regarded here.

The protest was cabled to Ambassador Hanihara at Washington before the foreign office issued its statement. Afterward the foreign minister appealed to the Japanese press to exercise moderation and restraint in handling the exclusion matter.

Tony Musso, proprietor of a pool hall at 808 Regent st., site of the old Belvedere cabaret, was fined $5 and costs for violation of the arterial highway ordinance by Judge O. A. Steten in superior court on Wednesday morning. R. P. Longfield and S. Ethun, were arraigned with Musso, were ordered to pay similar fines for the same offense.

INTERPRET DANCES IN DRAMA TONIGHT

Cast of 25 to Participate in Affair at Open Air
Theater

The traditional dance drama will culminate today's activities when the annual production is staged at 8:15 o'clock in the open air theater. A cast of 25 dancers will participate under the direction of Miss D'Houbler. Plans have been directed by the committees in charge to make this the most effective interpretation of dances ever presented by the group in creative dancing.

"We expect that all reserved seats will be sold long before the performance tonight," said Dorothy Dodge, '24, in charge of tickets, "but a few will be placed on sale in Main hall and the University pharmacy today. It was also decided to put 200 rush seat tickets on sale tonight."

An impressionistic background of drapery will be used as a setting for the dancers. Costumes will be in colorful shades to contrast with the stage. Names of dancers will not be announced in connection with the parts they take, in order to maintain the artistic effect of the drama. A series of 18 dances will precede the first part of the program. "Fantastique" taken from Oscar Wild's "Infanta," will be the drama itself.

A total of 1,489 separate classes in 794 different subjects were given by the 75 departments of study of the University of Wisconsin this year.

FROSH SCHOLARSHIP CUP AWARDED TODAY

The awarding of the freshman scholarship trophy will take place at senior swingout tonight when Lois Jacobs, retiring president of S. G. A., will present a silver loving cup to the freshman woman who has attained the highest scholarship in her class during the first semester.

The cup stands 10 inches high. It is gold lined and bordered at the rim and base with an engraved leaf scroll. The title of "Freshman Scholarship Award" is engraved on the cup and beneath this is the year, the name of the freshman woman who has won the cup and the scholastic average which she has attained.

U. S. STAMP COLLECTION ON EXHIBITION TODAY

A collection of postage stamps especially prepared by the post-office department for the international stamp exhibition, held at London in May, last year, will arrive in the city today and will remain here until June 5.

"A worthy exhibit of a great country" is the opinion of the late President Harding, to whom the beauty and originality of design appealed. Among the collection are two perfect specimens from the originally erroneously printed sheet of airplane stamps which have been sold by stamp collectors for as much as $1,500.

King George made a personal inspection of the exhibit and expressed his high appreciation of the collection. It was awarded the special prize for government exhibits.

The exhibit will be placed in some public place that as many persons as possible will be able to see it.

HOLD BOAT RACES ON VENETIAN DAY

Men and Women Will Contest in Canoes, Sail-boats and Launches

Nine different race events are scheduled for Venetian day, according to Lincoln Frazier '26, chairman of Venetian day, Saturday.

There will be a canoe race for men, both single and double; a canoe race for women, both single and double; a canoe sailboat race, and a sail boat race. An outboard motor boat race is also being scheduled.

The second varsity crew will race St. Johns Military academy crew and races between the four college crews will be held.

The events are to start at 10 o'clock in front of the university boat house. Joe Steinauer will act as announcer for the races.

"We are planning on having a large number of entries for Frazier '26 the different events and are making arrangements to have a number of feature races," Frazier said last night.

Students who are planning to enter the various events are asked to call Ross Kitchen, F. 1489, so that the approximate number of entries will be known, and arrangements can be made to handle the entries.

A car race among university auto enthusiasts has been also arranged according to Frazier. This will be held in the forenoon before the water events and will take place in the university district. Any parties interested are asked to call Frazier at B. 2761.

Prizes for the various events will be given by the merchants of Madison in the form of merchandise.

imported Japanese lanterns and candles apiece for lighting.

Movies Will be Taken

Moving pictures of all the events of Venetian day and night will be taken by Mr. Diemer of the photographic laboratories, and will be shown at one of the local theatres.

Further arrangements have been made by the electrical decorating committee whereby fraternities and sororities entering barges in the parade can obtain batteries and lights so that they can furnish their own lights for their barges in addition to the light from the numerous spots. All houses that have floats scheduled for the parade and wish the lighting facilities should call Robert Moore '25, at B. 192, or Perry Newton '27, at F. 136, regarding the price of the lights and batteries.

PROF. A. B. HALL GIVEN DEGREE FROM FRANKLIN

The degree of LL. D. has just been conferred upon Prof. Arnold Bennett Hall, of the political science department, by Franklin college, Indiana, because of his pioneer work in laying a sound and constructive basis for civic training and for eminent leadership in working out the new methods of political research. "This was evidenced by your founding the national conference on the science of politics and directing its initial efforts to the end that it has become firmly established upon a sound and enduring basis," President Goodell said in conferring the degree.

CUP TO BE AWARDED AT FRATERNITY SING

The Interfraternity sing to be held at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening, on the upper campus, will be a part of Varsity night. Twelve fraternities will take part, each singing two fraternity songs, or one college and one fraternity song. A silver loving cup, donated by Sinfonia, is to be awarded to the best group. The judges will be Prof. P. W. Dykema, Prof. E. B. Gordon and Prof. E. E. Swinney.

The committee in charge of the sing is Ralph Smith '25, chairman, Robert Nethercut '24, Carroll Robb '24 and Frederick Nimmer '24.

LEWIS PRIZE WON BY G. C. JOHNSON

Awarded $25 For Best Freshman Theme; Helen Wicks Takes Second

"A Sketch of Life at Kvillsfors, Sweden" by George C. Johnson, Kenosha, was awarded the Lewis prize of $25, for the best freshman theme, yesterday. R. B. Sharp, instructor in the English department, chairman of the committee in charge, announced the award.

Helen J. Wicks, Chicago, won second place with her theme, "Closed Doors."

Honorable mention was given by the committee to "Where the River Ends" by Jessie E. Corrigan, "A Critical Examination of Capitalism" by Robert Schaller, "Closed Doors" by Eileen Norton, "My Friend" by Louisa J. Neitze, and to "The Dark Age" by Clark C. Richardson.

The Lewis prize is awarded annually to that member of the freshman class taking full work and regularly enrolled in freshman English who writes the best theme under the conditions named by the committee. Other members on the committee this year besides R. B. Sharp, chairman, are J. R. Caldwell, and Miss Ethel M. Thornbury.

The fund for the Lewis prize was started in 1865 by a contribution of $100 from Gov. James T. Lewis. The first award was given in 1905. The fund now amounts to about $600.

Jane Gray Cleveland, won the Lewis prize last year with her theme, "A Conversationlist."

ALGOMA—Harry J. Rydahl, who has been acting as student director of the Cshkosh Normal School band for two years, has been engaged to teach manual training and direct the high school and city bands here.
