SOPHOMORES HOLD FROSH TO 7 TO 7 TIE

Both Teams Score in First Quarter—Yearlings Use Minnesota Shift

The freshman and sophomore football teams battled to a 7 to 7 tie at Camp Randall Saturday afternoon, with the frosh having a slight edge in yardage gained. Both elevens used the line plunging game throughout the greater part of the contest. The yearlings, using the Minnesota shift, consistently tore great holes in the sophomore forward wall. The soph defense stiffened each time the youngsters neared their goal line and stopped the frosh offensive twice within the five yard mark.

Within 10 minutes after the first kick-off, the freshman shift had worked the ball down the gridiron to a position in front of the posts, from where Stone carried it over for the first counter of the contest. Stone kicked goal.

The sophomores countered in the same quarter with their lone touchdown, the result of steady line plunging and the successful execution of a short pass. The heave was intercepted by a yearling who allowed the ball to bound from his arm, and Hume, sophomore captain, captured the pass, carrying it to his five yard line. Goetz plunged over for the score, and O'Neill tied up the game by kicking goal. Neither team scored during the remainder of the period, with the play see-sawing up and down the gridiron.

Frosh Penalized Often

Frequent penalties for offside handicapped the first year men who were tearing through the porous sophomore line at will. The youngsters threatened near the end of the half, when a successfully executed pass was good for 25 yards. Short gains through the line brought the ball to the one foot line, but the sophomores held on the fourth down just before the whistle sounded the end of the period.

The freshmen kicked off in the third period, and the sophs, unable to gain through the line, punted. The remainder of the quarter was mainly an exchange of kicks with the upperclassmen having the edge. In the last period, the sophomores outplayed their opponents and made frequent gains through the freshman line, with McCreary, Goetz, and Hartlett carrying the pigskin.

Sophomores Prove Surprise

The sophomores played a surprise game, especially on the offense. They battered the freshman grid-ers with steady gains through the forward wall and kept the ball in freshman territory during the greater part of the second half. The Minnesota shift, which the

KREISLER CONCERT TICKETS ALL SOLD

No more tickets to the Fritz Kreisler concert can be sold. Every seat in the house has been purchased.

All persons who have season tickets but have not yet exchanged the Kreisler coupon for reserved seats should mail these coupons with a return addressed, stamped envelope to G. L. Gilbert, university bursar. All orders are filled in the order in which they were received.

Every coupon holder is assured of a seat, but preference as to location can no longer be given.

FRESHMEN TO BE TOLD METHOD OF STUDY AT CONVO

Prof. W. H. Kiehofer to Out- line Plan for Getting Work

Freshmen students who have just had their first encounter with university examinations will learn how to strengthen their methods of study when Prof. William H. Kiehofer speaks to an all-freshman convocation at Music hall Thursday afternoon at 3:30.

The student-faculty committee on convocations feels that most freshmen come to the university inadequately prepared to meet the problems of college work and that inadequate training in methods of study has caused many failures in the past. The purpose of the convocation is to show freshmen how to get the maximum of benefit and enjoyment from study with a minimum of effort.

Professor Kiehofer's talk will give fundamental suggestions of how to outline a definite workable plan of study; will tell what the university has to offer and how to get it. The committee believes that all students realize where they fell down in the recent examinations and that with this in mind will be able to use the suggestions to advantage.

The convocation will be supplemented later on by similar convocations held by different departments of the university at which the work in individual departments will be considered.

CITY TO DECORATE IN BADGER COLORS HOMECOMING DAY

Committees in Charge Promise Many Novel Effects in Elaborate Display

New features and effective handling of old features are the aims of the Homecoming decorations committee, under the chairmanship of Jack Bigler, which is already at work on the plans. The work has been divided into three sections, house decorations, field decorations, and the decorations of the town, including streets, stores, and the capitol.

The house decorations will be run on a contest basis with two cups offered, one for the most attractive sorority house and the other for the best decorated fraternity. This committee is headed by Bob Harris, assisted by Martha Castles and Helen Patter. Houses deciding to enter the contest are asked to notify Bob Harris, Fairchild 200, as soon as possible. The judging will be done Friday evening, Nov. 12.

Prizes for Store Display

Prizes will also be offered for the best store display and a committee of business men will help judge this contest. The streets will be decorated with banners and red lights, and an unusual effect is promised in the lighting of the capitol. The committee in charge of town decorations is headed by James Torbett and includes Rhea Hunt, Pearl Hirsig, and Helen Snyder.

The plans for field decorations are both startling and original, according to Charles Hawks, who is in charge of that part of the decorations. He will be assisted by Vivian Seiber and Adeline Thayer.

The goal posts and stands will be decorated, the blue and gold of Illinois being used as well as the Cardinal. The wooden stands will be topped by a combination of all the conference colors.

Be Able to Sell Anything is Requisite of Initiates of Advertising Club

The new members of the Advertising club will attempt to show their ability as salesmen and advertisers at the luncheon which is being given for them at the city Y. M. C. A. Tuesday, November 2, at noon.

All their ingenuity will be called into service, for Robert Lindsay, in charge of the initiation stunts, has decreed that the initiates must be able to plan campaigns for selling ginger ale in the South Sea Islands and for creating a demand for rain-coats in the Sahara Desert.

Most of the new members have either worked on campus publications or studied advertising on the hill, so they won't be entirely helpless; but it will be a hard job to convince the old members of the worth of their persuasive powers.

Every year the club brings successful advertising men to Madison to talk to the members and give them the benefit of their past experiences. After every meeting there is a round table discussion and research in advertising is stimulated.

All members, whether they will be able to attend the luncheon or not, should call Walter Neisser, club secretary, Badger 1222, some time before Monday noon.

BICYCLES SCARCE FOR OUTING TRIP

Scarcity of bicycles kept all but six girls from going on the Outing club bicycle hike Saturday morning. Besides the four machines that were supplied, only two could be obtained, and many girls were disappointed.

The hike began at 10 o'clock, and was over before noon. The course was along the Middleton road, five miles out, and back. Florence Miller was in charge of the trip.

COMMERCE MAG OUT THURSDAY

The Commerce magazine, the official publication of the course in commerce, will make its first appearance next Thursday, according to the editors.

Timely advice from the faculty, articles by noted men in the commercial and professional world, along with articles by students in the course have made the coming number an attractive one.

40 PIECE BAND TO GO TO MINNEAPOLIS

200 Tickets for Minnesota Game on Sale at Gym- nasium

The university band of at least 40 pieces, will accompany the football team and rooters to the Minnesota game next Saturday. The necessary funds for the expenses will be secured by some form of popular subscription, probably a tag day.

Tickets for the game are now on open sale at the gymnasium and are selling at $2.50 and $3.50 straight. Coupon books and fee cards have no effect on the price of the tickets. Of the 200 tickets put up for sale, 90 had been sold by yesterday noon, according to Robert Quick, who is in charge of the sale.

A private car can be secured in case 120 people go. It will leave Madison at 10:30 Friday night and arrive in Minneapolis at 7:30 the next morning. Those taking the regular train Friday night will leave at 9:30.

MAROONS EASY FOR CARDINAL DISTANCE MEN

Badgers Take All But One of First 8 Places— Wall Wins

Wisconsin opened her cross-country season yesterday afternoon with an overwhelming defeat over the invading Chicago team. The Badgers were not forced to open up at the finish, most of the men crossing the line in fresh condition. But one Chicago man finished in the first eight places. Wall led the field during the entire race and crossed the line 15 seconds in advance of Moore, the Maroon star.

Fourteen runners started, seven entered from each institution. The Chicago men offered little competition, all trailing the Badgers with the exception of Moore. The final score of 19 to 44, gave Bresnahan's men a 25 point margin. The course was four and seven-tenths miles in length, and the time for the race was 25 minutes, 54 3-5 seconds.

At the end of the first mile Wall was at the front, but Moore was pushing him hard. In the course of the next mile the Badger runner had increased his lead to 20 yards. Dennis and Captain Brothers were running 25 yards behind Moore. Wall passed the three mile mark 100 yards ahead of the Chicagoan, and at the finish was well out in front. Dennis crossed a good third to Moore. Captain Brothers came in fourth, Wade fifth, and Noble sixth.

Run North of City

The course took the runners north on the lake drive to the marsh, where they crossed to the university drive. From that point the course turned in the direction of the city, and the runners returned to the gymnasium, the starting point.

Coach Bresnahan was well pleased with the showing made by his men. Commenting on the result, he said, "They were not forced to exert themselves to win today, and deserve considerable credit for the showing they made. With the exception of Moore, every man on our squad outclassed the Maroons."

Minnesota Next

The results of the race are as follows: Wall, W, first; Moore, C, second; Dennis W, third; Brothers, W, fourth; Wade, W, fifth; Noble, W, sixth; Powell, W, seventh; Wille, W, eighth; Roberts, C, ninth; Dooley, C, tenth; Swift, C, eleventh; Highland, C, twelfth; Walkins, C, thirteenth; Pearce C, fourteenth. Time 25:54 3-5.

On next Saturday the cross-country team will make the trip to Minnesota with the football squad. The annual Gopher-Badger meet will be held in the morning.

C., M. & ST. P. TO RUN NO STOP TRAIN HOMECOMING DAY

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway will operate a no-stop Homecoming special train from Milwaukee to Madison and return on November 13.

The train will leave Milwaukee at 9 a. m. and will arrive at East Madison at 11:45 a. m.

On the return trip, owing to the anticipation of cold weather, passengers desiring to go back can catch the train at Camp Randall immediately after the game. The train is scheduled to leave Camp Randall at 4:30 p. m., West Madison 5 p. m., and East Madison at 5:30 p. m. and will arrive at the union depot in Milwaukee at 8:15 p. m. The train will carry parlor cars and diners.

COMPARED with Friday next Tuesday has no thrills for us at all.

The Curious Cub

Question asked: "What do you think of student elections?"

Joe Holbrook: The vital question in student elections should be, "Does the present system elect the one best qualified for the job?" For a fulfillment of this purpose I advocate the present system. The campaigns of the present lay great stress upon the abilities and qualities of the various candidates. This enables the fair minded student voter to use discretion. However, the present rules are too strict to allow publicity for the candidate. These facts are essential to the fair minded voter of the university.

Kenneth L. Ede: Student elections are excellent means for building up school spirit in that they serve to organize the student body. Class officers, student senate members, Union board members and the Prom chairman, should, without doubt, be elective officers. There is a question, however, about the Badger editorship and business managership. In my opinion both of these offices should be appointive. Very often the best men for the positions do not get the offices because they have not the support. Appointment by the Badger Board of Control is the logical method by which the positions should be filled. Then the men that have had the experience and have spent two years working with previous staffs will be the ones that will get the positions.

Don Marvin: I am heartily in favor of student elections, but I am not in favor of the method employed. I would suggest that the election be carried on in exactly the same way that the city, state and national elections are conducted. Corruption takes too big a role in the present system. I also believe that the elections should be run by older men who have had experience and will not allow corruption. A man should also be given more publicity and thus be able to present his good qualities. With these changes it will be a case of the best man and not the one with a "pull."

Walter Schwinn: Student elections doubtless arouse the greatest amount of spirit and enthusiasm of any inter-class activity. The best men are usually chosen for office, although it is entirely possible for a clever politician with no ability to gain a place. However, student voters are too much of a thinking body to allow this. I believe greater leeway could be given the candidate in presenting his claims for office, although a limit should be plainly and rigidly fixed.

yearlings have been employing in their scrimmage against the varsity, worked to a nicety in the initial part of the melee, but the latter part of the game saw the shift fail to conquer any ground for the freshmen and they were forced to use an aerial attack.

Stone, the heady little frosh quarterback, played a stellar game for the yearlings, running back punts for long gains and showing an aptitude for calling the correct plays. Taft, newly elected yearling captain, handled his wing position in faultless style and smeared any end runs attempted around his territory.

For the second year men, Hume, who did the kicking, and McCreary, Hartlett, and Goetz, gained the most ground for their team.

Monkeys, clowns, knights and chorus girls were among the group of imaginary spirits that were represented last night at the annual S. G. A. costume party in Lathrop gymnasium. More than 300 women in costumes ranging from overalls to ballet dancers made up a group of revellers who frolicked until the spirits of Hallowe'en bade them disperse at 11 o'clock.

Three prizes were awarded for the best costumes. The first prize, for the prettiest costume, went to Agnes Samuels. Betty Thorkelson won the award for the funniest costume. A group costume consisting of a witch and five pumpkins received third honors. The witch was Irene Groth and the pumpkins Edna Groth, Janette McKee, Mildred Morgan, Alva Groth, and Dorothy Thompson.

Among the stunts which opened the party was that of W. A. A., whose clever musical comedy, the "Bachelor's Dream," won much applause. Twelfth Night and Red Domino produced a charming Doll act which was composed of all the queens of doll land. Pythia's pantomime act brought forth many laughs and Castalia's gypsy dance was enthusiastically received.

The feature of the evening was the Grand march—an extravaganza from which the judges found it difficult to choose the winners. The march was followed by dancing, the music for which was furnished by Thompson's orchestra.

THE SPOKEN WORD

ONE week from next Wednesday Wisconsin's intercollegiate debating season will be under way. At that time the all-university forensic dinner will be held at the Belmont hotel for all persons interested in trying out for the team; and exactly as the turnout runs beyond expectations or falls below the mark just so will we be able to gauge the season's success.

When the toastmaster announces plans for the year it will be noted that an unusually excellent schedule has been arranged. It includes such rivals as Illinois, Michigan, Columbia, Southern California, and possibly Minnesota and Ohio State. To meet these schools on the platform in no less prepared a fashion than we do on the gridiron, cinder path, diamond, or basketball floor is more than a direct challenge to Wisconsin. Preparations must begin at once.

A man who wants to represent his Alma Mater in debate or oratory need not be a forensic "ace" at the outset. The only requirement is a genuine and sincere interest manifested by a desire to benefit oneself and the university. For, as a contemporary has so aptly remarked:

The benefit of debating as an activity is an old story. And yet undergraduates may not too often be reminded that they are missing an opportunity when they fail to make use of the training in public speaking which debating affords. The power of the spoken word is vast, but oratorical ability is a thing which few persons come by naturally. It is the product of training. The benefits of college debate are very much more lasting than the benefits of college football—the glory not so great.

Two things are necessary for debating—the men to form a team, and rival teams to meet. The rivals are waiting: the men need only buckle on their swords.

Give the public speaking department the advantage of working with all the potential material within Wisconsin's walls. Sign up for the forensic dinner NOW.

STUDENT VOTERS

DURING the past two weeks there have been political speakers of all factions in Madison, speaking for the benefit of university students as well as the citizens of Madison. It would be interesting to know how many students availed themselves of the opportunity to hear these men.

If a democratic form of government is to succeed, every citizen must vote, and if the government is to be well conducted, that vote must be intelligent. The university man is supposed to be a student of men and things, of peoples and nations. He should be mentally equipped to vote for the best good of the country. He should be informed on such important political matters as the league of nations. Every man and woman eligible to vote is in duty bound to study and to understand the important things that are to be decided at the election Tuesday.

The best way to learn politics is to listen to the speakers that are sent out for information. Yet, at some of the recent meetings, men students, and more particularly the newly enfranchised women, left the hall before the speaker had even started the argument of his speech. This is not fair to the student himself or to the vote he represents.

MRS. BLEYER WILL SPEAK ON SUFFRAGE

Passage of National Woman's Voting Amendment to be Celebrated Monday

Mrs. W. G. Bleyer will give a talk on "The Woman Voter's Outlook," and Miss Sonya Forthal will discuss "What the Working Woman May Do With Her Vote" at the informal celebration of the passage of the national suffrage amendment to be held at Lathrop hall Monday night, at 7 o'clock.

Preceding the discussion there will be a cafeteria dinner at 6 o'clock. Each woman is asked to wear the name of the party which she is supporting.

The talk by Mrs. Bleyer will be followed by an informal discussion in which every women student, qualified to vote, is asked to participate.

Women in all sororities, Barnard and Chadbourne halls, and large boarding houses are asked to discuss the prospects of women in politics at the dinner hour, in order that this forward movement in American political life may not pass unnoticed and uncelebrated on the university campus.

SOUTH AMERICAN CLUB ORGANIZED

A club for the study of South America is being organized by the Y. W. C. A. for all students who are interested in the social and economic conditions of that country.

A poster has been placed on the Y. W. C. A. bulletin board, Lathrop hall, which students, desiring to belong to the club, are requested to sign as soon as possible. The committee in charge expects to start the weekly meetings about the middle of November. The date of the meetings will be set after 20 people have signed, and a regular course of study will be carried out, probably conducted by a university professor.

SELL 1,500 COPIES OF FIRST OCTOPUS

Approximately 1,500 copies of the Octopus were sold to students on the hill last week, according to the editors. About 800 year's subscriptions have been sold, and a number of these go out of town. The circulation is much larger than last year.

"We wish to apologize for the delay in the delivery of the mailed copies," said Elizabeth Chandler, circulation manager. "It was due to a mistake in the post office and we are quite certain that it will not happen again."

The next Octopus will be published the week of November 22.

"TAKE IT FROM ME" ON WAY TO FULLER THEATER

Comes to Madison Direct From Six Months' Run in New York

"Take It From Me," the three-ring circus of musical comedy, direct from its six months' run at the 44th Street Theater, New York, will open a two days' engagement at the Fuller, November 12 and 13 (Homecoming) with a Saturday matinee. It is the work of Will B. Johnston, a well-known New York newspaper cartoonist, who has completely succeeded in transferring to the musical comedy stage a number of real characters which he discovered and elaborated out of the droll incidents of everyday life. Such delightful music, such delicious comedy, such magnificent stage pictures, are seldom combined in one musical piece, and the exceeding attractiveness of it all is enhanced by the excellent company in the various roles and the beautiful "Kiss-Me" chorus girls.

"PERFECT WOMAN" IS COMING TO GRAND

All that is loveable in a young boarding-school miss and all that provides hours of agony to her parents and teachers is intermingled with the very perplexing situations which result sometimes through her headstrong determination to set things upside down in Constance Talmadge's latest First National production, "The Perfect Woman," which opens today. Admirers of the chic star are treated to something new in romantic stories. From the pen of John Emerson and Anita Loos, "The Perfect Woman" tells of a young girl who makes up her mind to enter upon a business career no matter how she may obtain a position. In freakish disguise she secures the job of secretary to the man she secretly adores, and proceeds to turn things upside down. The new Talmadge comedy is pure romantic picture joy from beginning to end.

TOLEDO—Frank Fleck, believed to have been America's last survivor of Custer's band of Indian fighters, was killed by an automobile.

A breezy story of a perfect woman
Who fell in love with a hating man,
Tried to vamp him into submission
By applying for a steno's position,
But she was too alarmingly pretty.

"A fool he was, and he made a prayer
To be able to resist this baby fair,
Even as you and I"—Maybel

Miss Talmadge sets a high water mark in this feature for humorous portrayals and wonderful artistry.

Theater-Goers of Madison

THE undersigned respectfully crave your indulgence for a few minutes to call especial attention to the following facts:

On Friday and Saturday, Nov. 12 and 13 (Homecoming Week), we are bringing to the FULLER THEATER "America's Gayest Musical Show"—"TAKE IT FROM ME," written by Will B. Johnston and Will R. Anderson.

In bringing this brilliant musical success here we are not making any experiment, for it comes with a record of five months in New York, six months in Chicago, four months in Philadelphia and four months in Boston.

This is the original company and production that made theatrical history at the Studebaker Theater, Chicago. There is no other company.

THE SPIRIT OF JOYOUSNESS

A BEAUTY CHORUS FROM BROADWAY

The scenic production of "TAKE IT FROM ME" is especially gorgeous and all the gowns are the very latest models, setting a new standard for smart and up-to-date Fifth Avenue effects. Every effort has been put forward to make this the finest possible presentation of a musical comedy.

Because of the numerous inquiries already received and the anticipated heavy demand for reservations for the attraction, seats will be placed on sale at the Fuller box office immediately at the following prices:

EVENING—50c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50
SATURDAY MATINEE ONLY—50c to $2.00

The Wonder Play Of The Year "HUMORESQUE"

From Fannie Hurst's Cosmopolitan Story of Real Mother Love, Featuring

ALMA RUBENS AND GASTON GLASS

Sad at times, humorous at times, always looking for the silver lining—and always finding it.

A thing alive, human, breathing, smiling, crying.

The bitter sweet melody of life, human, real.

A story that cries to hide its laughter and laughs to hide its tears.

The pathos of "The Music Master."

The comedy of "Potash and Perlmutter."

The mother love of "Madame X"—

All rolled into one supreme dramatic achievement.

The song in a mother's heart made visible; the dream of a mother's life come true. A melody of love and tears and laughter, played silently on the screen.

"Humoresque" will live in your mind forever.
