

STATE OF
NORTH-CAROLINA.

In Convention, November 23, 1789.

RESOLVED, unanimously, that it be recommended and enjoined on the representatives of this state in Congress assembled, to make application to Congress and endeavour to obtain the following amendments to the constitution for the future government of the United States, agreeable to the second mode proposed by the fifth article of the said constitution, which, when ratified agreeably to the said article, shall become a part of the constitution, and that the executive of this state be directed to transmit a copy of the said amendments to each of the United States.

AMENDMENTS.

1st. That Congress shall not alter, modify, or interfere in the times, places, and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives, or either of them, except when the legislature of any state shall neglect, refuse, or be disabled by invasion or rebellion to prescribe the same, or in case when the provision made by the state is so imperfect as that no consequent election is had.

2d. That Congress shall not directly or indirectly, either by themselves or through the judiciary, interfere with any one of the states, in the redemption of paper money already emitted, and now in circulation, or in liquidating and discharging the public securities of any one of the states; but each and every state shall have the exclusive right of making such laws and regulations for the above purposes as they shall think proper.

3. That the members of the senate and house of representatives shall be ineligible to, and incapable of holding any civil office under the authority of the United States, during the time for which they shall respectively be elected.

4. That the journals of the proceedings of the senate and house of representatives shall be published at least once in every year, except such parts thereof relating to treaties, alliances, or military operations as in their judgment require secrecy.

5. That a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public monies shall be published at least once every year.

6. That no navigation law, or law regulating commerce, shall be passed without the consent of two thirds of the members present in both houses.

8. That no soldier shall be enlisted for any longer term than four years, except in time of war, and then for no longer term than the continuance of the war.

8. That some tribunal, other than the senate, be provided for trying impeachments of senators.
