ALL VARSITY OUT TO BACK BIG PEP MEET

Massmeeting Monday Will Launch Drive for Memorial Building

To show that the whole university is backing the big drive to raise $100,000 of the $1,000,000 fund for the new Memorial Union building, presidents of all organizations on the campus and captains of all campaign teams will sit on the platform at the all-university massmeeting which is to be held at 3:30 p.m. Monday in the men's gymnasium. All classes will be dismissed for this convocation.

Speakers at the meeting will represent alumni, regents, faculty and students and will explain the project in all its phases.

"We wish to correct a mistaken idea about the memorial purpose of the building," said H. L. Ashworth of Milwaukee, executive secretary of the Memorial Union building committee, yesterday afternoon.

"The entire rotunda of the building will be set aside exclusively as a memorial to the Wisconsin men who died in the service of their country, and not merely a lobby which would also contain other university trophies. Another place will be reserved for the trophy room, so that those of the faculty and Wisconsin people who have lost their sons in the war will have no cause for dissatisfaction on this ground."

All members of canvass committees are to meet in the gymnasium Monday before 3:30. Final instructions will be issued to all workers at this time.

Trench Flavor Vogue at Gun and Blade Ball Militaire

"Puis j'avoir le plaisir de la dance prochain?"

"Oui, monsieur."

The above expressions with many others of like nature will be common at Gun and Blades first ball militaire, which will be staged in Lathrop hall tonight.

This is to be an all-university affair, but will be entirely different from anything ever staged in Madison before. The committee has just received a communiqué from G. H. Q. stating that the trenchiest weapons from the warehouses in Washington have been shipped and are expected to arrive early today. It is understood that everything, excepting the gas mask, will be used to make the affair a thrilling one.

"A fellow doesn't have to have two arms or legs to dance the way they do now-a-days," said one of the prominent members of the society. Judging from this the vets have planned a peppy session, with something doing every minute from the time the first note from the jazzy saxophone until it's time to line up with mess kits for chow.

Badgers Upset Maroons In Sizzling Scrap, 26-17

Varsity Tossers Start Scoring and Keep in Lead

In a great game, the last of the season, Wisconsin decisively defeated the conference champion Maroons last night by the score of 26 to 17. The victory gives the Badgers a final standing of fifth place in the somewhat erratic season. The postponement of Indiana-Michigan game to March 18 upsets conference dope. If Indiana loses in this tilt Wisconsin will then rank fourth place in conference.

Chicago had the lead only once during the entire game and that for only a minute at the start when Birkhoff dropped in the first counter, a free throw, and Williams shot a long one from the floor. It was only a second before the Badgers had tied the score and grabbed off the lead, which they never lost, and from then on the Maroons were outclassed in every department of the game.

Chicago Makes Few Goals

The close guarding of Caesar and Weston held the Maroon forwards to four field goals, a record of which no other team in the conference can boast. Vollmer, ordinarily the big point winner, was shut out without a point by the Badgers for the second time this year. Caesar duplicating the performance of Frogner in the first contest against Chicago. Birkhoff was the only Maroon with half a shooting eye and he was able to score only one marker from the field. His free throwing, however, counted for nine of the Maroon points. He missed only six out of 15 free throws.

Taylor and Knapp Star

Taylor and Knapp did all the scoring for Wisconsin with a total of five field goals each. Taylor had a better eye than usual for free throws and succeeded in caging six out of 10 attempts. Knapp, although closely guarded, missed very few shots, and many which he caged were from hard angles. Taylor played his best game of the year and besides scoring the majority of the points played a strong floor game. Practically every time he broke away from his guard he contributed a basket.

Zulfer, Weston, and Caesar spent most of their time in keeping the Maroon forwards from shooting, and took few shots themselves. They gave the champions few chances at close range, and as usual the Chicago team resorted to long, wild shots, which, peculiarly, did not find the basket as often as usual.

To an onlooker who knew nothing about the standing of the two teams, it would have appeared that the Badgers were the champions and the Maroons fourth place occupants, for it was a victory for the Cardinal all the way. The kind of basketball displayed last night made the crowd feel as though, had it not been for a little hard luck or perhaps carelessness in losing to three of the

TRACK TEAM MEETS PURPLE

First Indoor Track Meet of Season with Northwest- ern Today

Groomed to top condition, Coach Tom Jones' track men will face the Northwestern cinder squad this afternoon in the first indoor track meet of the season in the gym annex. This will also be the last such contest before the conference indoor meet to be held at Evanston March 27. The first event will start at 2 o'clock.

Yesterday afternoon the men were permitted to go through only a light work out, just enough to prevent any stiffness of the muscles to set in.

Brothers and Ramsay have been training hard for the past week and it is a question which will put up the best race against Captain De Swarte of Northwestern in the two-mile run. De Swarte is the best distance man the Evanston squad has, and recently in a meet with Purdue he footed the distance in 10:08.

Dayton, the Badger's star miler, one of the best men in the conference, should have no trouble in taking his race. A place in the shot put is practically assured with the entrance of Sundt who has been unable to compete before because of his position on the basketball team.

Captain Andrews can be depended on to place in the hurdles. His speed in this event was disclosed in the relay races at Illinois when he won second place in the 75-yard hurdles. Spetz, Knollen, and Kelsey will probably enter in the 40-yard dash, and Endres, and Wilder in the pole vault. Donaldson and Spetz will be strong contenders for first in the 440-yard run.

The lineup of both teams follows:

- 40 yard dash—Wisconsin: Spetz, Knollen, McCandless, Kelsey; Northwestern: Poliack, Spray, Gordon, Stevenson.

Mile run—Wisconsin: Dayton, Crump, Ramsay, Knappen; Northwestern: De Swarte, Blocki.

40 yard high hurdles—Wisconsin: Andrews, Knollen, Spafford, Stolley;

DEBATERS WIN AT OHIO; LOSE TO MINNESOTA

Wisconsin Gets Unanimous
Decision at Columbus;
Close Contest Here

COLUMBUS, Ohio—Decision unanimous for Wisconsin. Judges were Prof. T. C. Trueblood, Michigan; Prof. Frank H. Lane, Pittsburgh; Prof. W. J. Kay, West Virginia. President Thompson of Ohio State acted as chairman. Ernest Abram, Markley Frankham, and John BeBout composed the Ohio team. "Chic" Harley was a front seat rooter.

By a decision of 2 to 1, Wisconsin lost a closely contested battle to Minnesota in the inter-collegiate debate held in Music hall last night. A large and enthusiastic audience was present to support the team.

The question under discussion was "Resolved, That in each industrial corporation in the United States the employees, as such, should be permitted to select from among their own ranks at least one-third of the board of directors; all directors to have equal rights and privileges." The affirmative side was supported by Wisconsin, represented by I. Arnold Perstein, Keats S. Chu, and Harold M. Groves. Minnesota's upholders were Robert R. Gibson, Max Shapiro, and Walter B. Heyler.

The constructive speeches were opened by Perstein, who proceeded to build up a series of points whereby the affirmative assumed the burden of proof. Gibson, who followed him began an attack on the affirmative interpretation of the question, which attitude was maintained by succeeding speakers for the negative.

Chu presented a clear set of propositions on the argument for increased industrial efficiency arising out of the representation of labor on the boards. His points were met squarely by Shapiro, who then sought to limit the question to the Veteran debaters dressed as molycoddles, and literary, musical, and dramatic artists clad in stern masculine attire are a few of the thrills promised for the Pythia-Philomathia party to be held in S. G. A. room at Lathrop hall tonight. At the last moment the party has developed into a masquerade.

PHILO-PYTHIA PARTY AT LATHROP TONIGHT

Dame Rumor has it that Tony Pesch, social chairman of the men's argue artists society, will be clad in maid's attire with blue apron and sunbonnet, and that Vira Winchell, head of the women's society, will be dressed as a sea nymph. But to tell more would be to divulge secrets of the party.

The major portions of the evening will be devoted to dancing, but there will be other entertainment provided for those who do not dance.

If you want a man,
I'll do what I can.
And charge nothing at all
For the leap year call.
Just be at the dance
And give me a chance.
Then I will explain
And give you my name.
Just drop a line to the Ed.
He'll tell what you said.
I'm a keen dancer:
I'll prove that to you.
Herein you have hope.
You'll not need a rope.
With kisses in advance
And more at the dance,
A MAN.

WE trust that the university will receive very few visitors this week, or until we get all these freshmen shaved and in clean clothes again. The Phi Psi chapter has had a guard on the roof for six days now, rain, fog, and shine. The Deltas prefer to run their men as chimney sweeps, while Alpha Gamma Rho is using the messenger boy method. One young feller nearly woke all Iota court tryin' to find Bill Walker to sign a petition for him. Red Domino had a blind man's buff game all up and down State street regardless of the fog. We even hear that the Indianapolis club had several good ones to pull last night. S. G. A. will start initiations soon.

INTER-COLLEGE BOUTS TODAY

Wrestlers and Boxers Compete for Honors; Coach Picks Varsity Squads

Inter-college wrestling and boxing meets will be held this afternoon on the third floor of the gymnasium. The wrestling bouts are to start at 2 o'clock and the fistic contests will immediately follow. Coupon 23 may be used for admission.

Because of the fact that a week from today wrestling meets with both Minnesota and Lawrence are to be held, it is necessary for Coach Joe Steinauer to select two teams to represent Wisconsin and the results of today's bouts will aid him in choosing the squads. All men who have signed up for this sport are to report at the meet.

The boxing bouts will be the finals of a series of preliminary fights which were held the fore part of the week. Unless a bantamweight and a heavyweight man show up, the bouts in these weights will be forfeited to Miller and Holmes, Commerce men, respectively, for at present they have no opponents. Any man in the university is eligible to enter the ring with these men providing they are of the proper weight.

The following bouts will be held: Bantamweight—Miller, Commerce, vs. Any entry.

Featherweight—Lupton, Agric., vs. W. Jones, Commerce.

Lightweight—F. Kojis, L. and S., vs. J. Dawson, Engineer.

Welterweight—Friedricks, Engineer, vs. Lyons, L. and S.

Middleweight—Kelley, Engineer, vs. Wolberg, Commerce.

Light heavyweight—Koons, Commerce, vs. Murdoch, Agric.

Heavyweight—Holmes, Commerce, vs. Any entry.

DANCERS OFF FOR EXHIBITION TOUR

The advance class in interpretative dancing which is instructed by Miss M. N. H'Doubler, left yesterday for a short exhibition tour to Columbus, Ohio. Fourteen women were in the party chaperoned by Miss H'Doubler and Mrs. M. A. Trumpl. From here they went to Chicago where they are to be entertained by Bertha Oschner, '19, well known here for her fancy dancing, who will join them on the remainder of the tour.

The class will present the building of dancing, tracing it from the simple fundamentals up to the more complicated movements. This particular kind of dancing is original with Wisconsin and the tour is intended to present the art to other universities in order that similar classes may be established elsewhere. Besides the simple steps, special artistic interpretations have been worked up by the women in groups and individually.

The dancers who went are: Gladys Hawthorne, Elizabeth Waterman, Dorothy Schaper, Elizabeth Sehon, Eleanor Riley, Julia Bridge, Mary Aid, Leah Sutcliffe, Catherine Meyer and Adelin Briggs.

Drink and Be Merry; Snif's Special is New Octopus Highball

Not exactly intoxicating, but as tantalizing as the quips in the coming Octopus, is "Snif's Special," the new Octopus drink at the Candy shop. When you finish one, you just can't wait to order a second, or third, or whatever number you have reached.

We couldn't spoil its mysterious tang by telling what its contents are, but we will say that it is a little like grape juice, but fizzy, with something white and fluffy mixed in, and something else that clinks. And take Mr. Sniffen's word for it, "It is some drink."

Morgan's Hinkson's and the Chocolate shop are also taking advantage of the Octopus' popularity to name delicious creations after it. Try one some time, and you will find that it has certainly given you a "New Thought,"—that you never knew how good drinks could be before.

VARSITY TOSSERS DEFEAT MAROONS

weaker teams, the Badgers, not the Maroons, should have been "Big Ten" champions.

Every Wisconsin substitute was used except one, and he was all ready to report when the final gun sounded. Frogner replaced Weston in the second half, and when Frogner hurt his knee Pease took his place. Sundt substituted for Caesar and Fanning went in for Taylor in the closing minutes of play. McCartney would have gotten in had not the half ended when it did. Hinkle, regular Maroon guard, was unable to make the trip to Madison on account of sickness.

The Maroons are scheduled to play three games with the University of Pennsylvania five, eastern champions, for the national inter-collegiate championship. The first game will be played at Chicago, March 22, the second in Philadelphia, March 25, and the third in the Princeton university gymnasium, March 27.

ENTERTAIN WISCONSIN VISITORS

FOR the first time in its history the university will be the scene of the championship tournament between the leading high school basketball fives of the state next week, starting Thursday. Nine teams, winners in the normal school tourneys, will decide the state title in the series of battles at the gym.

The athletic department can be depended upon to manage the tournament in usual top-notch fashion. It also plans to provide for the entertainment of these high school men while they are visitors on the campus.

Here is where the student body comes in. High school students are prospective university students. In the case of the athletes who will visit the university next week, it is to the interest of Wisconsin to make preparations to receive them and entertain them in the right way.

Every student should consider himself one of a committee to act as hosts for the high school men. The team should be given the heartiest of welcomes and individual members shown the kind of hospitality that Wisconsin can give. There must be real effort made to create a favorable impression among the players.

Wisconsin can do herself proud when occasion demands. The state tournament opens the way to attract desirable athletic material to the university in the next few years.

Let's have some real signs of co-operation with the athletic department. The attendance at the tourney games should be large. Give the visitors the right kind of Badger welcome. It's another way to help boost Wisconsin.

THOSE RESOLUTIONS

HOW many students are there who didn't solemnly promise themselves at the beginning of this semester that they would set a new goal and aspire to do better work than in the last semester?

Awakened to their senses by the reports of last semester, there were few who didn't make that familiar vow, "This semester I am going to work and get something out of school."

But a few weeks of the new semester have elapsed and many students have already fallen back into slovenly habits. They realize the folly of their waste of time, they know that when they neglect their studies they are defeating the very purpose that is supposed to have brought them here.

Carelessness and laziness gets them. Loafing becomes chronic. They become nuisances to that part of the student body that seriously endeavors to accomplish something worth while. Unwittingly they block the way of those students who have a real desire to learn, who are conscientiously aspiring to a goal.

His neglect is not always willful. Often it comes from some take on too much work and in consequence all studies suffer. Then there is that not small number whose love of frivolities makes them forget studies almost entirely.

But no matter how many diversions there are those resolutions should not be forgotten or disregarded. The primary purpose of the university is not to furnish a sociable loafing place, but to instruct and to train mentally.

COMMUNICATIONS

CORRECTIONS FOR "MY DEAR"

To the Editor of The Cardinal:

In regard to the story in the recent literary publication which has been causing so much comment—pro and con—may I rise to state that in my opinion, which has been corroborated by good authority, the author of the satirical dissertation entitled "My Dear" shows a keen lack of the ordinary observation commonly attributed to the male sex. Did not the "Lit" staff wonder why the author neglected to have Mildred display the conventional "henna-ed" marcel instead of a hat that was old enough to belong to the present season. Surely any Wisconsin co-ed can afford a marcel—and perhaps a menna rinse or two!

Then again, did he not realize that sheer georgette waists are decidedly passe? Even the most unobserving of males must have seen that the chic serge model has totally supplanted the breezy blouse of crepe.

Must it be left to us to inform Monsieur Kinne that spearmint has departed with the georgette waist? But perhaps fond memories still make him stick to spearmint, while the weaker sex has advanced to lime drops and life savers.

Wisconsin women can stand many accusations but there is the co-ed of today who would not rebel at being accused of extracting her per from an immense muff? Can it be that here is a man who has failed to observe that the age of fur coats it at hand?

Wisconsin women are nothing if not up-to-date!

HIGHWAY SCHOOL HERE NEXT WEEK

The Wisconsin Highway commission will hold an inspectors school in the state capitol March 16 and 17, 1920, for the purpose of assisting inspectors on concrete road and bridge construction, to a better understanding of their duties and responsibilities, thereby increasing their efficiency.

It is believed that a great deal of good will come from these schools. All who expect to enter this kind of work on 1920 construction in this county as well as others who may be willing to accept positions in other counties of the state, should attend the school.

Men attending these meetings, qualify as inspectors and are later employed on state or federal construction, will be allowed a reasonable amount of extra time to offset the expense incurred. At a later date, an examination will be held to determine the applicants qualifications and give them a rating.

High School Basketball Teams Will be Entertained by Fraternities

Final arrangements have been made by Coach Lowman and the athletic committee of the inter-fraternity council for the entertainment, by fraternities, of the members of high school basketball teams coming to Madison for the state tournament March 18, 19, and 20.

At the request of the coaches the teams have, as far as possible, been placed where two neighboring fraternities can entertain a complete team, because it is not desirable to separate the teams during the tournament. Preference has been given to organizations which are able to handle the largest number of men. Since the number of requests from fraternities exceeds the number of men to be entertained, the groups who are left out of this list will have first choice for the interstate tournament scheduled for March 26 and 27.

The following is the list of fraternities with the teams for which they are to provide:

Superior—Acacia, 5; Alpha Sigma Phi, 5.
Menon'nee—Sigma Alpha Epsilon 2; Delta Tau De'ta, 6.
Eau Claire—Beta Theta Pi.
Racine—Alpha Delta Phi, 2; Sigma Nu, 6.
Neenah—Delta Upsilon, 4; Delta Kappa Epsilon, 4.
Monroe—Kappa Sigma, 5; Phi Delta Theta, 4.
La Crosse—Phi Psi, 4; Sigma Chi, 5.
Stevens Point—Theta Xi, 3; Sigma Phi, 3; Alpha Gamma Rho, 3.

The committee has requested that the fraternities take particular note of the foregoing list and communicate with the school immediately, extending their invitations to the teams. Arrangements should be made with Coach Lowman regarding the arrival of the men so that they can be met at the station.

The fraternities are urged to keep in mind that it is only through special arrangement of Dean Goodnight and the athletic committee of the Inter-fraternity council, of which Allen Spafford is the chairman, that they are allowed to entertain these visiting athletes, because the rushing rules now in effect state that there shall be no rushing of men while they are still in high school. The same arrangements also hold for the inter-state tournament, March 26 and 27.

Fraternities are urged to make immediate arrangements with Coach Lowman about the entertainment of men for the inter-state meet. As far as possible, groups are urged to entertain entire teams, which consist usually of eight or nine men.

The "W" club made plans at their meeting Friday for a "W" dinner to be given Saturday evening, March 27, in honor of the visiting athletes. The dinner will be held at 3:30 at the city Y. M. C. A. immediately after the final game. Cups and trophies will be presented to the winners of the tournament, and "W" sweaters will be given to the football and cross country men.

The "W" men are emphasizing the importance of this dinner to future Wisconsin athletes and all "W" men are urged to make arrangements to be there because this is the only occasion that the university will have to entertain these men officially. Further plans will be made at a later meeting.

VARSITY WOMEN EARN OWN WAY THROUGH SCHOOL

More Than 135 Women Supporting Themselves Here at University

More than 135 women are earning their way through the university.

sity, either wholly or in part, according to Miss L. F. Douthart, assistant to the dean of women. One hundred of these have been placed in positions by the university employment office, and thirty-five have been placed by the alumni office. In addition there are a few students who hold their positions from year to year, the actual number of which has not yet been figured.

"A university town affords varied opportunities for making money," said Miss Douthart. "A large number of girls are employed in stenographic work, while others work at the Capitol, care for children in the afternoons, serve at parties, do ironing on Saturdays, take care of apartments, mend, make candy, and pose for art classes. One girl with a free afternoon uses it to discover how many children who are employed outside of school hours are spending the remaining hours in school.

"It has been estimated that a girl who earns her board and room works 26 hours a week extra. Of course, anyone with so much outside responsibility can not be expected to take full work on the hill. The university makes special provisions for those who wish to do extra work.

"I think the experience of earning one's education is a splendid thing," said Miss Douthart. "It is very often a great strain upon one's physique, but we require that every girl who applies for outside work shall present a certificate of good health before a position will be granted her. Upon the whole, it is broadening and teaches that much-to-be-desired asset, a knowledge of the value of money."

TICKET SALES SHOW STUDENT SPORT INTEREST

Chicago and Illinois Games Pull Largest Attendance With Total of 2,240

Figures on the attendance at the six Western Conference basketball games played on the gym floor show how the students have followed the team throughout the season.

The attendance at last night's game with Chicago was 2240, claiming first honors with Illinois gate receipts. The first conference game, with Iowa, was witnessed by a crowd of 1721 persons. At the next game, that with Michigan, the attendance slumped to 1346, probably due to our previous defeat. Victories, however, stimulated the student body, for when the Illinois warriors invaded Wisconsin territory, 2240 supporters were present to watch the team win. The Ohio State game drew 2233.

As the team has met with victory or defeat, the gate receipts have varied. The figures, however, show the interest which this sport has created on the campus.

The owners of coupon books which were sold last semester have enjoyed seeing the games for about 23 cents, according to the figures compiled by the Department of Physical Education. This has kept down the receipts considerably, and without a doubt all the seating capacity could have been sold at the regular prices.

NEW RED DOMINO MEMBERS PERFORM

"The Wonder Hat," a play by Kenneth Sawyer Goodman, was given by the five electees to Red Domino from last semester, at the Red Domino initiation, Thursday night. The society was entertained at the home of Julia Hanks.

The cast was as follows: Harlequin—Dorothea McLaurin. Pierrot—Edith Royce. Punchinello—Esther Guerini. Columbo—Dorothy Shaner. Margot—Miriam Doane.

After the entertainment a banquet was given. The new initiates to the society are: Olivia Fentress, Alma Fenn, Rinette Douglas, Mary Lindsay, and Mildred Downie.

Next Thursday night Red Domino, Twelfth Night, and Edwin Booth will hold a joint meeting in Lathrop parlors.

KAHLENBURG SPEAKS TO ILLINOIS MEDICS

Prof. Louis Kahlenberg of the chemistry department, lectured before the Medical Research club of the University of Illinois at Chicago yesterday on the subject, "Results of Experiments on the Passage of Substances through the Skin by Osmosis," with special reference to topical applications. He was entertained at dinner by the Research club at the Chicago City club. The subject of Professor Kahlenberg's lecture is one upon which he has done a very considerable amount of research work.

BOYS' EXPERT HERE SUNDAY

Ted Schroeder of Norris Farms Will Talk to Agrics and Badger Club

Ted Schroeder, superintendent of the Norris farms for Milwaukee's juvenile delinquents will be the guest of the short course Y. M. C. A. here Sunday and will speak Sunday morning at the College of Agriculture and Sunday evening at the Badger club.

All boys who fall into the hands of the courts of the city of Milwaukee, instead of being sent to reform schools or what is worse, back to the environment which started them on their criminal careers are turned over to Mr. Niel Norris, who has established a model farm where the boys are given the finest care and training.

Every boy is furnished clothing, and given a good home. The opportunity of getting a good education is also offered. In return for this, the boys work some hours each day on the farm. The atmosphere of the place, however, is more that of a playground than a factory.

Mr. Ted Schroeder, well known throughout the state to the younger men and boys, is superintendent of the farm. He will speak Sunday morning at the College of Agriculture. This meeting will close the short course Y. M. C. A. work for the year.

In the afternoon there will be a reception for all Phantom Lake men at the Zeta Psi house. They will be the guests of Wesley Travers, who last summer, had charge of the Norris farm in the absence of Mr. Schroeder.

Sunday night, at the Badger club, Mr. Schroeder will give an address on the work of the farms. Mr. Niel Norris expects to accompany Mr. Schroeder to the city. Both men and women are invited to the meeting, and light refreshments will be served.

LITERARY CLUBS GIVE PROGRAMS

Pythia and Castalia held interesting programs last night in Lathrop. Pythia's meeting was opened by a discussion of current events, led by Doris Lucas. Ima Winchell read a paper on "The Humor of Mark Twain." The feature of the evening was a whistling solo by Estelle Stone. Mildred Downie gave a reading from "Trojan Women," and Delphine Wood completed the program with a vocal solo.

Castalia took up the subject of Romain Rolland. Selections of his work were read as follows: "Jean Christopher," by Elizabeth Markham; "Above the Battle," by Harriet Hammond; and "Colas Breugnon, Burgundian," by Markham.

HORSE SHOW AT STOCK PAVILION BILLED TODAY

Co-eds Ride Prize Mounts;
Special Attractions to Feature Stock Event

Co-eds who will take part in one of the feature classes of the Horse show at the stock pavilion tonight are Margaret Pope, Frances Drake, Margaret Green, Virginia Breazeale, Lucille Chase, and Mary Richey.

Margaret Pope has the honor of handling "Fillis," one of the three splendid animals entered by C. A. Johnson. Frances Drake will ride "Babe" who is owned by Dr. Evans of the university clinic and is one of Madison's premier pieces of horse flesh. The mounts of the other riders have not yet been definitely decided upon.

The following university men have qualified for mounts in the feature classes: Paul Wright, H. E. Baker, Brown, Lousdorff and Edmund Thwaites, G. E. Brandt and Brown, former members of the famous Culver Black Horse troop, will appear in some of the feature riding stunts which have made that organization nationally famous.

Among the other selected attractions are an Irish buggy polo and a greased pig contest, steer roping and riding, and a tug of war between first and second year short course men. The university band will be on hand.

The following is a detailed program of the various events and classes:

Afternoon
Stock exhibits and judging from 1:30 to 6.

Evening
Music by the University band, University Draft teams in harness.

Feature riding — Brandt and Brown — Black Horse troop, Culver academy.

Parade of Beef cattle and sheep, Ladies Riding class. Special features — Irish buggy polo, Greased Pig contest.

Exhibition riding — A. O. Young's prize — Winning Gaited saddlers at 1920 Wisconsin state fair.

Madison light deliveries. Steer roping and riding. Parade of dairy cattle.

Selection — Agrie Triangle quartet. Pure-bred draft horses at halter. Madison light draft teams.

Madison heavy draft teams. Tug of war — First year Short Course men vs. second year Short Course men.

Gentlemen's riding class. Hackney at halter — George Hutton.

Music by the University band. Judge of all classes — Prof. J. J. Yoke, University of West Virginia.

BONUS STUDENTS AT UNIVERSITY NOW TOTAL 1,480

Figures for the enrollment of bonus men for this semester have risen until they now equal the complete attendance of last term. About 120 men either were graduated or dropped for various reasons, and an equal number increased the roll until the total is now 1480. Of these 53 are short course students who will leave next week and 59 are members of the Milwaukee branch, leaving 1370 bonus students in residence.

The Milwaukee branch of the university under the direction of the Extension department offers freshmen work in commerce and engineering to residents of Milwaukee. Professor F. C. Blood is at the head of this division.

The first pay roll for this semester is expected to come out Monday as usual, provided a delay in the state treasury does not prevent it. All men who will receive their checks at this time must have turned their blanks into 151 Main hall, either today or Saturday, the time having been extended from Wednesday as originally stated.

All men who registered late will receive the full amount for February but their pay checks will be delayed for a few days in all probability.

mere participation of labor in matters related to wages, hours and working conditions.

Groves' presentation favoring an adoption of the plan as an antidote for radicalism was delivered in an emphatic manner that sent his points home. Heyley, discredited the seriousness of the situation as pictured by Groves, and closed the long speeches forcefully.

Platform work of both teams was about equal until Wisconsin rallied in the rebuttals and exhibited an ability that surpassed anything shown previously.

Prof. Frank Chapman Sharp of the psychology department acted as presiding officer. The judges were: Prof. R. D. T. Hollister, University of Michigan; Prof. G. N. Merry, University of Iowa; and Prof. C. H. Woolbert, University of Illinois.
