RECORDS BOOK 1969-70

The Wisconsin State University Conference presents the third edition of its Records Book as a means of informing the educators, writers, broadcasters and staff of the excellence of athletic competition displayed by teams and individual student-athletes of member institutions. This booklet will be published annually to provide a record of all sports in the Conference-sponsored program.

It is the function of the Wisconsin State University Conference to encourage intercollegiate athletics on an amateur basis, with institutional control, and under the instruction of coaches who have faculty status, in order to assure maximum educational benefit from intercollegiate athletic contests among the member institutions.

Fred Jacoby
Commissioner of Athletics

FRED JACOBY, COMMISSIONER OF ATHLETICS

Fred Jacoby was appointed Commissioner of Athletics for the Wisconsin State University Conference in July, 1966, following a highly successful coaching career that included eight years as assistant football coach at the University of Wisconsin.

Jacoby, a 42-year old native of Logan, Ohio, had his plans for a football career at Ohio State University shattered during his freshman year, when an injury ended his playing days. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Ohio State in 1948 and a master's from Wisconsin in 1953.

His nine-year record of high school coaching at Bremen and Washington Court House, Ohio, and Madison West shows 63 victories and 13 defeats with five championships and three runner-up finishes. During his tenure at Wisconsin, the Badgers won two Big Ten championships and were runner-up once.

As WSUC commissioner, Jacoby coordinates the athletic program at nine schools which sponsor a program of ten sports that include approximately 100 coaches and in excess of 3,000 participants. Fred and his wife, Marcia, live at 301 Glacier Drive in Madison with their three sons -- Tom, Robert, and Steve.

TOM BUTLER, SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR

Tom Butler joined the WSUC staff part time May 1, 1967 to assist the commissioner with the dissemination of sports information. The 45-year old native of Madison graduated from East High School in 1942; and after a semester at the University of Wisconsin, entered the Navy on January 25, 1943, serving until February 18, 1946.

He re-enrolled at the University of Wisconsin and received a B.A. degree in journalism in January of 1950. After working as sports editor of the Stevens Point Daily Journal and the Daily Jefferson County Union (Fort Atkinson), Butler joined the Wisconsin State Journal as a sports writer on February 1, 1953. His duties there include covering University of Wisconsin football and basketball.

Butler was named Sportswriter of the Year in Wisconsin in 1964 and 1965 and was nominated for the honor five straight years. He and his wife, Bonnie, have five children -- Terence, 17; Kathleen, 16; Jeffrey, 11; Jayme, 9; and Peggy, 8. They live at 636 Sheldon Street in Madison.

GENE CALHOUN, SUPERVISOR OF OFFICIALS

Gene Calhoun, a veteran Wisconsin athletic official, became supervisor of Wisconsin State University Conference officials in 1966. He has more than 20 years experience in officiating, including the last five in the Big Ten Conference, where he is now a football referee.

Calhoun, 44, graduated from Madison East High School in 1941, served in the Army Corps during World War II and currently is a Major in the Air Force Reserve. He earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1947 and his law degree in 1950. He is a practicing attorney in Madison.

Formerly freshman baseball coach at the University of Wisconsin, Calhoun also has represented many Badger athletes pursuing professional careers. He began officiating in 1947 and started in the Big Ten in 1963. He was the referee in the 1968 Rose Bowl game between Indiana and Southern California. Gene and his wife, Louise, live at 4014 Zeno Street in Madison with their two children -- Gary, 12 and Kim, 4.

PREVIEW 1969 FOOTBALL SEASON
WISCONSIN STATE UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

Defending co-champion Oshkosh appears strong again on paper, but Wisconsin State University Conference opponents remain wary of Whitewater in the 1969 football race.

The Warhawks boast a winning tradition — five championships in the last 10 years — and an impressive contingent of returning lettermen.

Oshkosh, which shared the title with Platteville last fall, builds its 1969 hopes around four returning all-conference performers — center Pete Gabrielson, halfback Ron Cardo, fullback Brian Burbey, and defensive guard Clair Rasmussen.

Cardo, who returned from service a year ago and led conference rushers with 772 yards and a 4.5 average, will be abetted in the offensive backfield by Burbey, halfback Carl Alberti with a 4.9 rushing average, and quarterback Jim Goeckerman, the league's third ranked passer in 1968.

Halfback Greg Jones heads Whitewater's returnees. He was the conference's No. 6 rusher last fall with a 4.3 average and No. 4 pass receiver with 31 catches.

Among other Warhawks back are halfback Bruce Rasmussen, the league's second ranked rusher with 587 yards and a 5.6 average, quarterback Dennis Zander, fullback Leif Fredricksen, and end Mike Fox.

Three new coaches will make their debuts in the Conference — Gil Krueger at Platteville, Pat O'Halloran at Stevens Point, and Roger Harring at La Crosse.

Krueger formerly coached at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minnesota. O'Halloran was a defensive coach at Oshkosh State and Harring head coach at Wisconsin Rapids-Lincoln High School.

Platteville will try to retain its championship standing with a team headed by all-conference quarterback Chris Charnish and linebacker Tom Barth. Charnish led all backs in total offense and passing. Also on hand will be end Rich Smigielski, his principal target and the league's top receiver with 41 receptions.

La Crosse, which shared third place with Whitewater last fall, will build around all-conference end Dewey Stendahl and defensive back Gary Gardiner, plus halfback Gary Klug, a 5.2 rusher, and John DeMerit, who led the league as a freshman in both punt and kickoff returns.

Eau Claire starts defensively with two all-conference performers, 225-pound end Tom Clark and 220-pound tackle Terry Strand. Its chief offensive weapons is halfback Terry Weinberger, a 200-pounder who ranked third in rushing with 578 yards and a 4.1 average.

River Falls' ace returnee is all-conference defensive back Brian Kreibich, who set a record last fall with 14 pass interceptions (11 in WSUC games) and had a string of 11 straight games over two years with one or more steals.

Also prominent in Falcon plans are No. 3 receiver Tim DeLawyer (33 catches) and second ranked quarterback Jerry Trooien.

Stevens Point, Stout, and Superior face enormous rebuilding jobs. O'Halloran must start almost from scratch at Point, although Stout still has quarterback Rocky Maxson and halfback Nick Misch, while returnees at Superior include all-conference defensive back Rick Jurcsak and a 240-pound tackle, Doug Sutherland.

Veteran coaches back at their old stands include Eau Claire's Link Walker, Oshkosh's Russ Young, River Falls' Gwynn Christensen, Stout's Max Sparger, Superior's Mertz Mortorelli, and Whitewater's Forrest Perkins.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

Eau Claire will try to improve on its 3-4-2 record of last fall with some strong running and a defensive forward wall and linebackers, who should be a hard-hitting group.

Link Walker, starting his second year as head coach, has 28 lettermen back, seven on defense and seven to run his winged-T and pro-T formations.

Terry Weinberger, who ranked third in conference rushing last fall with 578 yards and a 4.1 average, bolsters the ground attack. End Tom Clark and tackle Terry Strand, both all-conference last fall, are key men on the defensive unit.

Ends Dave Cizek and Dave Bong, guard Greg Kinart, and halfback Al LaMovec must be replaced. Bong caught 22 passes in 1968 and ranked seventh in the WSUC.

Lack of overall speed and depth is a worry to Walker as he ponders the Blugolds' rise from a fifth place finish last fall. Finding a consistent quarterback and establishing a stronger passing attack remain big tasks.

"Our team should be improved, but so will the other teams in the league," Walker commented. "We're rated somewhere near the middle of the conference."

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

Bill Vickroy has given up coaching to devote full time to his athletic director duties. His successor is Roger Harring, former head coach at Lincoln High School in Wisconsin Rapids.

Harring begins his tenure as Indian chief with 22 lettermen back from the 1968 squad, which shared third place in the conference and finished 5-5 overall. Among them are eight regulars from the offensive and defensive platoons.

Missing is quarterback Rocky Falaschi, second in conference total offense last fall. Harring must find a replacement to run the winged-T offense, whose nucleus includes end Dewey Stendahl, tackles Greg Madsen and Bob Beaurain, halfbacks Tom Gorski and Craig Kusick, and fullback Gary Klug.

Leading quarterback candidates are junior Randy Trollop and sophomores Chuck Gouge and Gary Schmitt.

The team strength is on defense, led by All-conference guard Dan Meinert, linebacker Gus Mancuso, tackle George Grbich, end Tony Gelina, and halfbacks John Kuehn and John DeMerit, who led the conference in kickoff and punt returns last fall as a freshman.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

Coach Russ Young guided Oshkosh to a co-championship in his sixth year as head coach last fall, but insists, "We will be hard pressed to repeat last year's performance in a stronger-than-usual league."

Three all-conference performers head the list of returning lettermen, including halfback Ron Cardo, the league's leading rusher with 772 yards gained and a 4.5 average. Also back are all-star center Pete Gabrielson, fullback Brian Burbey, and defensive guard Clair Rasmussen.

Young has nine regulars back from the offensive platoon and five from the defense, where linebacker Frank Orzel and halfback Dan Buhr must be replaced. All-conference offensive tackle John Saletri also has graduated.

The Titans run their offense out of a winged-T with variations, and Young's squad is blessed with experience, good speed, and fair size. The problem area is defense, where lack of depth is a drawback.

Jim Goeckerman, the conference's third ranking passer last fall, should provide the Titans with experienced leadership in his senior year at quarterback.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

New Coach Gil Krueger inherits a defending co-champion at Platteville, but some of the key names from the 1968 team will be missing, including NAIA All-American defensive tackle Bob Bergum.

Returning, though, is quarterback Chris Charnish, the conference's leader in passing and total offense. Also back is all-conference linebacker Tom Barth.

Krueger, former Stoughton High School mentor, takes the Pioneer helm after several years as coach at Macalester College in St. Paul. He cites experience and a good defense along with Charnish and Barth as strong points. Other assets include strong receiving with end Rich Smigielski, who led the league with 40 pass receptions last fall, Bob Faherty, and Tom Kohr.

Krueger is concerned about the lack of speed and quickness and the natural problems when a new coach takes over....such as time to know the players and to change the system. He will feature "shifty-I" and pro slot offensive formations.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

River Falls finished in a three-way tie for sixth place last fall and Coach Gwynn Christensen is hoping for a first division berth in this his seventh season as head coach.

The former University of Wisconsin halfback has 19 returning lettermen, including six regulars from the offensive unit and eight off the defense.

The Falcons should have good passing from quarterback Jerry Trooien and excellent receiving from end Tim DeLawyer. Trooien ranked second in conference passing last fall, throwing for 10 touchdowns and averaging 144 yards a game through the air. DeLawyer was third in receptions with 33 catches for 392 yards.

Also on the plus side is the defensive secondary, anchored by all-conference halfback Brian Kreibich, who set a WSUC record last fall with 11 pass interceptions.

Major problems Christensen must solve are in the interior offensive line, and outside linemen and linebackers on defense. Lack of depth also concerns the veteran coach.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

Pat O'Halloran, former defensive coach at Oshkosh, welcomes 26 lettermen as he starts his first season as head man at Stevens Point. Six of the returnees are offensive regulars from last fall and seven played on the No. 1 defensive unit.

The Pointers shared sixth place last fall and yielded 237 points to the opposition. Only Superior gave up more. So, the new coach has his work cut out to refurbish the defense.

"We hope to be improved," O'Halloran said, "but it will be very difficult to improve enough to be in contention for the crown."

Making the job even more difficult is the fact that among the missing this fall will be Bob Rhode, a fine offensive back, as well as linebacker Mike Counsell and guard Dan Bay. Rhode was the conference's fourth leading rusher last fall and the Pointers' most valuable player.

Much of Point's hopes for improvement rest with quarterback Bob Main, who is expected to get the first crack at engineering O'Halloran's power-I and pro set offense.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

Stout will be struggling to escape a second division finish again, but Coach Max Sparger, starting his sixth year as head man, says, "We are hoping to be a much improved team over 1968."

Those Bluedevils shared sixth place in the conference and finished 3-6-1 for the season. Sparger has 31 lettermen back, including nine offensive regulars and seven from the defensive unit.

The coach lists the defensive interior line and the offensive backs as team strengths. A major problem area is the offensive line.

Quarterback Rocky Maxson, halfback Nick Misch, and tackle Jerry Hermann head the list of returnees. Maxson passed for seven touchdowns last fall and ranked fourth among conference passers, averaging 116 yards per game through the air. Misch finished among the scoring leaders with seven touchdowns.

Sparger took a philosophical "out" when asked for any pertinent comments on 1969 football prospects. Citing an "old Chinese proverb," he said, "A closed mouth gathers not foot."

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

Mertz Mortorelli, a veteran of 15 years coaching Superior gridders, gives his team a good shot at surprising a few opponents this fall.

Veteran end Bob Peck, tackle Frank Verbos, and end Tom Moritz have graduated, but Mortorelli still has 36 lettermen returning, including 10 offensive regulars and seven defensive starters from 1968.

Superior failed to win a game last year, but some promising returnees could make the Yellowjackets a much improved outfit. Among them are all-conference defensive back Rick Jurcsak, and Doug Sutherland, a 240-pound guard and linebacker who could rank with the best in the circuit.

Also back are quarterback Paul Hammerbeck and halfback Dennis Mertzig, who gained 541 yards rushing last fall and ranked fifth in the conference among running backs.

Experience, size, and better-than-average speed are team strengths Mortorelli is confident will help this fall. The coach, though, wants a breakaway runner to bolster his offensive unit.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969

Quarterback is a major problem area as Warhawk Coach Forrest Perkins begins his 14th season as head football coach at Whitewater, which shared third place last fall after winning consecutive championships in 1966 and '67.

Among the missing are NAIA All-American linebacker Al Equi, quarterback Bob Dorn, end Neil Hansen, guard Jim Perkins, and all-conference defensive end Jerry Mahoney.

Some 25 lettermen are back, including all-conference halfback Greg Jones, who with fullback Leif Fredricksen will begin their fourth year as starters. Offense is a major strength and includes halfback Bruce Rasmussen, who was second in conference rushing yards last fall with 587 and led in average gain per carry with 5.6 yards.

Most of the defensive line is back, but the offensive forward wall must be rebuilt almost from scratch. Perkins will rely on newcomers to a great extent in the line as the Warhawks try to rebound after being ousted from the throne room last fall.

PREVIEW 1969-70 BASKETBALL SEASON

Eau Claire, the surprise team of 1969, could be even more shocking in the 1970 Wisconsin State University Conference basketball race.

Blugold Coach Ken Anderson probably sounded a warning a few days after the 1968-69 season ended when he remarked, "We're looking forward already to next year."

Stevens Point, which shared the 1969 crown with Stout, also appears strong on paper. Platteville, too, figures to find a spot among the contenders.

Eau Claire (11-5) shared third with Platteville and the Blugolds jolted the more highly regarded quintets with a predominantly freshman squad.

Four top Eau Claire returnees are sophomores, including guard Jim Lindsey, who led the Blugolds in scoring with a conference average of 14.2 points per game.

Steve Johnson and Mike Ratliff each averaged 11.6 and Tom Jackson 10.1. Ratliff also averaged 11.5 rebounds a game and Johnson 10.3 retrieves.

Included among Anderson's veterans are senior Larry Sturz and junior Jerry Hughes, both of whom averaged 10 points a game.

Stevens Point will miss 6-9 rebounding star Mike Hughes, but Coach Bob Krueger still has juniors Tom Ritzenthaler and Quinn Vanden Heuvel, 16.5 and 13.8, respectively, as well as senior sharpshooter Ken Ritzenthaler (10.6), who compiled the best field goal shooting average in the conference the past two years.

Senior Dan Tinnon (10.9) as well as juniors Jim Lawinger (13.7) and Rich Ludka (13.3) head Platteville returnees. A replacement must be found for all-conference Doug Knutson (15.1) who is now in the service.

La Crosse boasts a promising group of veterans, including sophomore Len Sullivan, who came on strong for the Indians in the latter half of the 1968-69 season. He wound up averaging 14.9 points and 10.6 rebounds per game.

Also back for the Indians are seniors Mike Heideman (15.0), LeRoy Young (10.4), and Dave Aller (9.4), along with junior John Selbo.

Superior will build around sophomore Win McGriff, a 16.1 scorer and 11.8 rebounder, and Hank Solomon, who scored 11.1 points a game and grabbed 10 rebounds. Also back are juniors Bob Boettcher and Jim Brandt.

Junior Jeff Stang, the sixth ranking conference scorer with 16.4 last season, is the chief hope as Oshkosh hopes to recapture its championship groove of a couple years ago. He will be abetted by senior Rick Rehm, the team's leading rebounder, and junior Ken VerGowe.

Two of Stout's big three are missing as Coach Dwain Mintz searches for another winning combination. All-everything Mel Coleman, who scored more points (338) and accounted for more rebounds (242) than anyone else in the conference, is gone along with Bill Heidemann, ninth ranked scorer in 1969 and co-scoring champ in '68.

Junior Cal Glover, fourth ranked conference scorer (18.3) is the lone returnee from the Bluedevil triumvirate. Also back is senior guard Greg Ebsen.

Whitewater is confident of escaping the conference cellar by building around seniors Jerry Stelse and Don Paulsen, and River Falls must start almost from scratch except for sophomore Bob Parker and junior Joe Acotto.

Returning all-conference performers include Glover, Lindsey, Paulsen, Tom Ritzenthaler, and Vanden Heuvel.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969-70

The Bugolds were the surprise of the conference last season when they fashioned a third place finish with a predominantly freshman team. They should become even better during the coming campaign in Ken Anderson's second season as head coach.

Sophomore Jim Lindsey, an all-conference guard as a freshman, along with strong rebounders Steve Johnson and Mike Ratliff form the nucleus. Only four-year letterman Roy Campbell will be missing from the 1968-69 club.

Bolstering the youthful veterans will be transfers Frank Schade from the University of Texas at El Paso and John Sleizer from the University of Minnesota.

The Bugolds possess size, strength, quickness, and depth but need more scoring, especially from inside men. "I definitely feel that we should have a shot at the championship," Anderson commented. "I would be disappointed if we are not a major contender."

PROSPECTS FOR 1969-70

The Indians will be aiming at the first division after finishing a disappointing sixth last season, Phil Hey's second as head coach. He will have nine lettermen back for his third year, including four who saw considerable action.

Missing will be Joel Hafner, who has graduated, and Len Sullivan, the team's leading rebounder who was a victim of scholastic ineligibility. Hafner and Sullivan also shared the team scoring lead in conference competition.

Mike Heideman, a high scoring 6-2 forward, should be a major asset to Hey after the Appleton senior played only half the season in 1968-69.

Offensively, the Indians will fast-break and run patterns. Hey lists defense as the area which needs most improvement. The normal progress from the maturity of 6-4 Dale Aller, 6-1 John Selbo, and 5-9 LeRoy Young will be helpful.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969-70

Oshkosh hit the skids last season, finishing in a tie for seventh place after winning two straight championships. Coach Bob White hopes to brake that slide with normal improvement of his veterans, a transfer, and some service returnees.

Jeff Stang, a 6-1 guard, played only the second semester but averaged 16.4 points for eight games. Veterans Ken VerGowe at 6-6 and Rick Rehm at 6-5 should provide some rebounding strength, which White lists as a weak spot.

Help should come from 6-2 Pat Fitzgerald, former Appleton Xavier star who transferred from Florida State; 6-4 Jack Washington, a Schenectady, N.Y., high school all-American who returned from service in January; and 6-5 Oshkosh freshman Greg Seibold, a Vietnam veteran.

White's blueprint for boosting the Titans this season includes finding some team speed, improving rebounding, and bolstering the scoring, which lagged with only 37 percent shooting in 1968-69.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969-70

Like most basketball coaches, Dick Wadewitz of the Pioneers is looking for a big man who can score. This is understandable, though, with big, strong Doug Knutson now in the Army.

Knutson, two-time all-conference, was Platteville's leading scorer and most valuable player last season. Wadewitz also must replace Mike Leone, a dependable guard from last season's squad which shared second place with Eau Claire.

Eight lettermen are expected back, the biggest being 6-6 Dennis Nodolf. Wadewitz might have to look for a newcomer who can provide the muscle and scoring punch under the board which Knutson exhibited. The Pioneers do have quickness.

Leading among the returnees are Jim Lawinger and Rich Ludka, who averaged 13.7 and 13.3 points in conference competition last season. Also back is Dan Tinnon, who compiled a 10.9 average.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969-70

Coach Newman Benson has the "help wanted" sign out at River Falls, where he must replace Steve Gustafson, Bill Van Dyke, and George Voss in his starting lineup. Gustafson earned all-conference honors and ranked third in scoring with a 19.8 average.

The coach also is in dire need of some rebounding strength. "A team in our conference has to have a big man or they won't survive," Benson reasoned. "We hope to get one."

Leading returnees are the three lettermen Dennis Burich, Bob Parker, and Joe Acotto. The latter averaged 10.8 points last season. The Falcons expect to have a good shooting team again.

"We are going to have to depend a great deal on incoming freshmen," Benson said. Among them are Bruce Wisse, Todd Prink, and Mike Krisik. "If we get a couple good freshmen, we could be respectable the second half of the season," he added.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969-70

Veteran Coach Bob Krueger welcomes nine lettermen back, including three starters from last season. But, he must find replacements for Mike Hughes, Palmer Clements, and Russ DeFauw. Hughes, a 6-8 all-conference performer, was the league's second best rebounder in 1968-69 with a 14.5 average.

The Pointers shared the championship with Stout, but lost a berth in the NAIA tournament by two points in a playoff with the Bluedevils. Back from that fine Pointer team are two other all-conference stars, Tom Ritzenthaler and Quinn VandenHeuvel.

Tom Ritzenthaler averaged 16.5 points a game last season and VandenHeuvel 13.8. Also back is Tom's brother, Ken Ritzenthaler, who fashioned the best shooting average of the season, hitting 53 percent of his field goal attempts.

Krueger could weave some newcomers into his lineup this year, so he isn't quite sure yet about his offensive plans. He will have good shooters and experience, but needs more depth and speed among the Pointers.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969-70

Coach Dwain Mintz enjoyed a banner season in 1968-69, sharing the conference championship, winning a playoff against Stevens Point, downing Lakeland in the District 14 showdown, and then splitting in the NAIA tournament at Kansas City.

This is a tough act to follow, especially with Mel Coleman, Bill Heidemann, and Tim Domke no longer around. Coleman was Mr. Everything in the conference, including most valuable player and NAIA All-American.

Despite the losses, Mintz isn't Destitute, however. Among the five returning lettermen are Cal Glover, a 6-foot forward who ranked fourth in conference scoring last season with an 18.3 average, and Greg Ebsen with an 11.1 average.

Lack of experience will hurt at the start, but Mintz said, "The team probably will be a slow starter, but should finish strong the second half of the season barring misfortune." He has some likely looking freshmen, including 6-8 Dale Magedanz of Neenah.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969-70

Coach Dom Moselle sees no reason why the Yellowjackets can't improve on last season's record, which was 4-12 in the conference for a share of seventh. He expects a better than average offensive punch.

Four starters from last season are among the six returning lettermen, including Windy McGriff, a 6-4 sophomore who averaged 16.1 scoring and 11.8 rebounding as a freshman.

One of Moselle's biggest jobs early will be finding a replacement for graduated Don Hartlund, an all-conference performer who compiled the best scoring average in the league last season with a 21.7 mark.

Guard Bob Boettcher and forwards Jim Brandt and Hank Soloman with McGriff are returning starters, but the quartet doesn't possess exceptional height. Moselle is looking for some rebounding strength and a better defense.

PROSPECTS FOR 1969-70

The Warhawks finished dead last in the conference last season and Coach Fritz Plinke and his five returning lettermen, especially, aim to atone for that 2-14 record.

"We must find some outside shooting along with better defense and rebounding in order to be an improved ball club," Plinke assessed. It figures he will start from scratch with no special priorities.

Lettermen gone are Bob Buchholtz and Jerry Griffin, but Plinke can build around all-conference Don Paulsen, who ranked eighth in scoring last season with a 15.9 average. Also back are Terry Hayes, Paul Palesse, Jerry Stelse, and Bob Schlitz.

Plinke looks for better scoring balance this season and expects help from Jay Langhurst, Tom Kursel, Dave Cox, and Dennis Zielski. The latter stands 6-7.
