DANCE RECITAL

1. Apollo's Chariot	Arranged
2. Pas Seul	Lack
3. The Fairy Thorn	Sibelius
	Suggested by Sir Samuel Ferguson's Ballad.
4. The Milkmaid	Meyer-Helmund
	From a dance theme by Roshanara

It is a story of Radha, a milkmaid, and Krishna, the thief of hearts. She goes to milk her cows. She hears his flute, and says to herself, "That must be Krishna", and she describes his actions and his beauty. She milks her cow and sets off to the market. But Krishna takes a little pebble, and shatters the bowl, and while she wipes away the spilt milk, he catches her by the wrist. But she breaks away and dances off, unscathed. For the time she has escaped!

5. The Whirlwind	Krantz
6. Danse au Clair de Lune	de Boisdeffre
7. Pan and the Hamadryads	Arranged
	Pan with his magic piping calls forth the tree spirits to dance with him. Their play causes them to forget the care of their trees until the ringing stroke of an ax resounds through the forest. Madly they rush back—all but one, whom Pan has begged to stay. Again the wood chopper's ax breaks in upon their dancing, but alas! the dryad has tarried too long. With the crash of her tree, she falls; for it is so ordained that trees and their guardian spirits must die together.
8. La Capricieuse	Finck
9. Ballet D'Action	Strauss
