ALPHA PI DELTA AND THETA ARE FIRST IN MARKS

Chi Phi, Achoth Are Second in Standing For Past Semester

Alpha Pi Delta and Chi Phi have the highest scholastic averages for the second semester 1921-22, among social fraternities, and Kappa Alpha Theta and Achoth lead social sororities, according to the report issued by the office of the Dean of Men yesterday.

Both the active chapter and the pledges of Alpha Pi Delta rank first among the fraternities. The active chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta stands first, but the pledges of Achoth lead the pledges.

Record Average of 2.145

The highest average was made by the pledges of Alpha Pi Delta. This is higher than the average of the Farmhouse pledges who led the list in the spring semester with an average of 2.05.

The active chapter of Alpha Pi Delta has an average of 1.77; Kappa Alpha Theta, stands 1.81; Achoth is second among the sororities with 1.690; and Achoth pledges lead with 1.406.

The averages of the professional fraternities are not yet ready for publication but will be printed in a few days.

These reports are based on the grade point system. Three points are awarded for an excellent, two for a good, and one for a fair. Grades below fair merit no grade points.

Tables showing the averages are as follows:

NIGHT EDITORS AND ASSISTANTS TO MEET

Cardinal night editors and assistants and all men interested in trying out for such positions will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the editorial offices in the Union building, 752 Langdon street.

Green Lids Scarce As Frosh Throng Stores

"Give me a green lid," echoes across the counter; there is a jingle of a dollar and a quarter; and another Frosh joins the ranks of the many who will don the official Freshman insignia at the Varsity Welcome on Friday.

Clothing stores on State street report encouragingly to the question, "How are the Frosh lids selling?" The Co-Op claims to have sold 400 or 500 previous to Tuesday noon, and the store has as many more in stock.

Rupp's and The Young Men's shop however, are not carrying the caps. They report that the demand has been negligible at their shops.

Speth's have nine caps left out of a supply of four or five dozen. Four more dozen are being shipped to them from the makers. The report from the Hub is the same,—nine left out of four or five dozen, and more on the way.

'22 HOMECOMING LETTERS GO TO 8,000 GRADUATES

Event Falls on Armistice Day, Nov. 11; Expect 30,000 Spectators

To stage the biggest alumni Homecoming ever held at the University of Wisconsin is the aim of Worth Shoultz '23, Homecoming chairman for 1922, and it is towards this end that more than 8,000 letters are being sent out to alumni this week. Homecoming will be held this year on the day of the Illinois football game, November 11.

To insure the return of the greatest number of alumni, the committee chairmen are working in direct cooperation with alumni headquarters here. After the first 8,000 letters have been sent out, second letters will be issued giving fuller details concerning the scheduled events.

The fact that this year's Homecoming falls on Armistice day will bring a larger number of people to Madison and offer opportunities for a more elaborate celebration than ever before. Preparations are being made to entertain 30,000 persons the capacity of the grand stands. Further plans will be developed at a meeting of the Homecoming committee chairmen this week.

BANK'S PLAN MAKES CHECK CASHING EASY

If the plan offered by the Branch Bank of Wisconsin, located at the corner of State and Gilmore streets, is taken advantage of by the new students, the matter of getting a check cashed will be very much simplified.

The new students finds it very hard to find a merchant who will take his check. Under the new plan, any merchant would be willing and safe in cashing the check.

The plan is very simple. The bank gives to students upon entering an account with them an identification card. The student signs the acid proof card and carries it with him. The merchant in cashing the check can compare the genuine signature on the card and the one on the check and protect himself against forgery. It does not guarantee the merchant that the student has enough funds to cover the amount of the check but the laws of Wisconsin protect him when the signature is genuine.

B. R. L'Hommedieu, manager of the bank, who worked out the plan, is enthusiastic and hopes the student body will avail themselves of it.

PREDICT RECORD ENROLLMENT BY CLOSE OF WEEK

6,500 Now Registered; Rooms Are Plentiful; Steady Jobs Scarce

With approximately 6,500 men and women registered at 5 o'clock last night, indications are that last year's total of 7,440 students will be passed before the end of the week, and that there probably will be 8,000 students on the campus this year.

Although unofficial figures show that only 249 freshmen registered yesterday, the 813 men and women from the upper classes who turned out made the total registration about equal to Monday's total. Exactly 708 men were registered yesterday, which would indicate that about 350 women went through the lines.

The total number of freshmen registered to date is approximately 2,015 which compares favorably with the 2,176 freshmen enrolled by Friday of last year. More than 4,440 men and women have registered in the three upper classes, which is close to the total of 4,955 upper class men registered by Thursday of a year ago.

The University Y. M. C. A. reports that there are still 300 rooms on its list. There are plenty of double rooms, but not so many singles, for which the demand is not so great.

There is a large demand for employment at the Y. and permanent jobs are at a premium. There are a large number of short-time jobs listed which will serve to help until more permanent jobs can be located.

TO FILM FROSH PARADE FRIDAY

Will Show Pictures of Third Annual Welcome to Yearlings Throughout Country

"The Varsity Out to Welcome the Freshmen" will be the slogan of the student body of the University of Wisconsin Friday. At 11 o'clock Friday morning the third annual Varsity Welcome will be held on Lincoln terrace, in front of Bascom hall.

Motion pictures of the Varsity Welcome will be taken by photographers from a moving picture company of national repute and will be shown throughout the country.

Parades by the classes, speeches by men prominent in university and state affairs, and music by the First Regimental band will comprise the program for the welcome.

Speeches will be made by President Birge; Dean George C. Sellery, of the College of Letters and Science; Prof. William H. Kickhofer of the Economics department and Wayne L. Morse, '23. Gov. John J. Blaine has been asked to address the students on behalf of the state.

Freshmen will meet at the foot of the hill in front of Bascom hall, sophomores in front of the Engineering building, juniors in front of the Law building, and seniors, graduates and law students in front of the Biology building. The seniors, grads and law students will march through the arch at Bascom hall and down the hill, dividing into two lines and passing the Lincoln statue on either side. Freshmen will march up the hill to the statue, followed by the juniors and sophomores.

Pan-Hell Limits Cost In Sorority Rushing

A limitation of cost must prevail during the sorority season, according to a decision made this year by Pan Hellenic, inter-sorority governing body. The reduction in cost will be accomplished this year by Pan-Hellenic, inter-sororities instead of three, as in previous years.

The sororities will entertain Saturday with their usual formal teas. On the following Wednesday informal parties will be held. Thursday is given entirely to informal rushing. They will entertain Friday with formal dinners.

Pan-Hellenic will hold its first meeting at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the S. G. A. room at Lathrop hall. Questions concerning the interpretation of rushing rules will be discussed at this time.

NEW RULE MAKES TWO GROUPS OF UPPERCLASSMEN

Grade Points Will Determine Writing of Thesis, Says Faculty

Division of upper classmen into "upper group" and "lower group" students, a classification passed by the faculty committee last year, has been incorporated into the catalog for the new year.

The classification, as approved by the faculty committee and explained in the catalogue, affects only upper classmen of the College of Letters and Science.

The division is made on the basis of grade points earned during the freshmen and sophomore years. Students who have earned more than 50 per cent more grade points than credits are to be classified as "upper group" and are required to write theses. With others, called "lower group" students, the writing of the theses is optional with the major department.

The new classification has been designed by the faculty committee to create the impression that thesis work is a distinct privilege and not an assigned task, according to Dean George C. Sellery.

"Upper group" status continues throughout the entire college as long as the student maintains the requisite grade point lead. The student can establish his superior status at any time, Dean Sellery said, by acquiring and maintaining the lead.

FREE CANDY DRIVES FEE PAYING BLUES

There's many a sweet thing about a college campus, and some of it is free and some of it is not. Students paying their fees at the administration building today got a distinct but pleasurable surprise, however, when they were confronted by a heavy set angel who insisted on giving to each and all a bar of chocolate.

The angel had been engaged for the occasion by the Eline Candy company of Milwaukee, and was handing out what appeared to be a weeks output of their $6,000,000 plant.

By noon yesterday he had given away three cases containing 1440 bars each. At 4 o'clock he was still going strong, and bets were being laid as to how soon he would go broke. He has a stock of 7,000 bars yet to be given.

Many offered to pay for the bars, but he would accept nothing, refusing pennies, dimes, pants buttons, and washers. Students who heard of the phenomenon found many excuses for going to the administration building.

"SHORTY" BARR HAS UNOFFICIAL ELIGIBILITY O. K.

Committee Hands Down Final Decision Today; Badger Hopes Leap

By CHAS. J. LEWIN.

Wallace A. "Shorty" Barr, premier forward-passing quarterback, is unofficially eligible to pilot the Wisconsin eleven in its struggle for the Conference football title this year.

Dean H. S. Richards, of the Law school, declared yesterday afternoon that Barr had passed his examination in Equity, and the quarterback himself announced that his grades at the University of Michigan summer school were passing marks.

Final official decision lies with the eligibility committee which will probably meet today to reckon weighted averages and find "Shorty" has attained the required 77 grade.

With Barr prepared to execute the feat of kicking or passing and with a speedy, hard-hitting backfield to carry the ball for him, Wisconsin rooters may now begin to build castles in the air.

Backfield Snaps Into Form.

What is a possible occurrence with the present backfield was shown yesterday afternoon during scrimmage between "Rollie's" regulars and the reserves. Williams had run the pigskin to within scoring distance on the Camp Randall practice field. Employing the screened forward pass over the line Barr hurtled one to Gibson and the halfback carried the ball for a counter. Despite their knowledge of the play, the second string men were unable to stop it.

Coach John R. Richards drove his men through the hardest work-out of the year. Varsity and the second squad battled up and down the gridiron, each showing flashes of form and each showing glaring weak spots. The reserves seemed to have little difficulty in piercing the center of the Varsity line and but for the effectiveness of "Marty" Below at tackle, they might have gained more ground.

Yesterday's Lineup.
Here's the way Richards lined up

TITLE SCRAP TO GIVE BADGERS WRESTLING DOPE

Demetral and Meyers Both in Condition for Championship Struggle

Candidates for the Varsity wrestling team will be able to get a few pointers on the mat game when they attend the bout for the world's lightweight championship, to be held between "Jimmie" Demetral, Madison hope, and "Johnny" Meyers, present champ, next Sunday afternoon. The bout will be staged at the Monona Athletic club, with the first match on the card starting at 2:30 o'clock.

After a surprising series of victories, Demetral challenged the champion to a title match and secured it. He has been working daily for several months in an effort to attain the best possible condition for his match. It is the one chance in a life-time for the Madison Greek and he is fit after miles of hard work and hours of practice wrestling.

Meyers in the Pink.

Meyers is also in the proverbial pink of condition. The doughty champ recently defeated Paul Prehn, coach of the Illinois Varsity squad. He has lost few matches since his rise to the top flight of lightweight grapplers and betting odds will favor him in the Sunday bout.

Demetral came here last year from Chicago. Finding favor with Madison wrestling fans, he remained and won match after match. Contenders for the title were bowled over in order by the local wrestler and he found himself alone in a class with Meyers. The two men met once before—this before "Jimmie's" rise to fame, and Meyers was unable to throw Demetral then.

Referee Bothers.

The question of a suitable referee is a sore point with the matmen. Demetral wants a Madison man, while Meyers is holding out for Ed Smith, sports editor of the Chicago American. A decision will be reached soon and Madison will witness its first championship match.

CROSS COUNTRY HARRIERS TAKE HARD WORKOUTS

Only Twenty Out For Squad; Burke Calls For New Candidates

Undaunted by rain and cold the Varsity cross country squad is now training daily to get into condition for the strenuous work mapped out by Coach Mead Burke for the coming season.

With dual matches against Minnesota and Chicago, the conference meet at Purdue, and probably a three and one-half mile race with Iowa or Michigan to look forward to, the harriers are set for a month of heavy drill before the first combat.

Fit for Out.

Because of injuries sustained in track this spring by Captain Finkle Coach Burke will build his team around Ramsey, last year "W" man, and Wade award winner in 1920. Moorhead, Rossmeisel, and Daniels, all "aWa" winners from last year, will also be depended upon to repeat their former creditable performances. Schneider, a runner who made excellent time in the distances this spring in track, is expected to run away many a conference harrier.

According to Coach Burke the number of men reporting for practice at this time, about twenty, is not enough to assure the development of a winning team. He is urging all sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are interested in the hill and dale sport to report to the men's gymnasium to begin training with the Varsity squad.

Wisconsin's standing in the conference this year is as yet uncertain, but the Badgers are sure to find their stiffest competition in Illinois, Ames, and Iowa. Illinois and Ames finished first and second in the conference meet last season and are reputed to have good chances of holding their high ratings.

BONUS REGISTRATION SHOWS 500 ENROLLED

The registration of Bonus students is coming along slowly, according to C. O. Brown, in charge of this registration. Although about 1,100 men are expected to register, the number had reached only about 500 at the closing of the registrar's office yesterday.

"BIG JAWN" AGAIN AT BADGER HELM

COACH JOHN R. RICHARDS

The mighty "Big Jawn" Richards will again lead a Wisconsin football squad into the Big Ten fray. Fresh from his European travels, Wisconsin's gridiron coach is driving his men in another attempt to cop the coveted title and rout strong rivals which appear mainly in the forms of Michigan and Chicago.

Richards is one of the best present-day exponents of the short pass and his teams work the play to perfection. With a small squad of men from which to mold his team and with only five of last year's regulars back, "Big Jawn" will have his hands full from now until the season ends with the Chicago classic. That he will whip into shape an eleven which will rank with the best is not doubted by Badger followers.

Prep School Satellites Register at University

High school athletic stars from several nearby state are now registering at the University. Many of these crack men are passing up attractive inducements of their own state schools to take advantage of Wisconsin training in both studies and sports.

Bud Walsh, well-known boy from Madison high school, and Coleman, from Lake Forest Academy, Janesville, are among the most notable Badger athletes to enter thus far.

Minnesota loses a promising man in Orin W. Wold, versatile player from East High, Minneapolis. Seldom it is that Ohio furnishes Wisconsin with a real football player, but Dean Cummis from Columbus comes here with a good record. Donahue from Helena, Montana, also looks good.

CADETS WILL BEGIN CLASS WORK TODAY

All classes in the military department will begin at 8 o'clock this morning," according to Maj. John S. Wood, commandant. Cadets with uniforms will be expected to appear wearing them, he stated.

Freshmen classes will be conducted at 8 and 9 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, according to the schedule of the department. Sophomore classes will be held at 10 and 11 o'clock every day in the week. No one will be permitted to take drill on consecutive days, however.

Tailors begin taking measurements Monday," Sergeant Major William G. Atkins said yesterday.

OHIO PREPARES FOR AUTOS AT STADIUM OPENING

Columbus Looks For Greatest Influx of Cars in History

Anticipating the greatest invasion of automobiles in the history of Columbus when the new Ohio stadium at Ohio State University is dedicated, university and city police officials are laying plans to meet the incursion at the city gates and direct it into an orderly parade to adequate parking grounds.

Parking space for 5,700 automobiles is being zoned out in the Ohio State University district. One plot of 20 acres on the south side of the campus will be lined into 15 parking lanes. Ohio field, scene of previous gridiron classics, will also be utilized as parking space. Its gridiron gates already having been transferred to the open end of the stadium horseshoe, while the east stands are being razed for delivery to Ohio Wesleyan University. One-way parking on campus drives, in city streets in the university district and on the river road west of the stadium entrance will supplement main parking plots.

Officials are urging Columbus north side residents to do the act courteous by leaving their cars at home. Stadium signs will guide motorists as they approach Columbus. Maps showing parking zones will also be sent out with tickets to out-of-town purchasers.

Almost 5,000 students were enrolled in the College of Letters and Science of the university last year.

Williams tore off a 35-yard run during the set-to, squirming and worming his way along the sideline. Gibson hit the line off-tackle with projectile-like force, but Taft was slow in starting. On defense, "Rollie" played safety, Taft was stationed at left half and "Gibby" at right.

Kiessling replaced Alton, Bentson went in for Below, and Carlson spelled Gibson before the workout was finished. Millman and Sid Eagleburger called signals for the second team. Saari worked well in a halfback position.

Tebell and Barr attempted field goals and the quarterback dropped several over the bar. "Gus" place-kicked while Captain Williams held the oval for him.

"SHORTY"

THE campus thrills with the unofficial report that "Shorty" Barr is eligible for football.

Today the student body will await anxiously the news that the eligibility committee has given the final glad word.

For Wisconsin needs Barr. Veterans are scarce on the Varsity squad, and the addition of a strong quarterback will increase infinitely the Badger chances for the Conference championship.

But the students are not only anxious for the prospects of the team; they are anxious for Shorty.

For they know "Shorty". They know that all last year, when his ineligibility kept him out of varsity games, he gave all his energy to leading the "All-Americans," working day after day with scant recognition to give the team the completion it needed.

Wisconsin is proud of men like that, who don't know how to quit.

A WISE MOVE

THE decision that the freshman caps will be officially donned at the Varsity Welcome on Friday morning is one that will do more than anything else to eliminate the yearlings' usual aversion to green headgear.

The freshmen will don the caps voluntarily.

They will put them on to show that they accept the spirit and traditions that inspire the Varsity Welcome.

They will continue to wear them because they will be proud to stand for that spirit and those traditions.

During the recent turbulent discussion of the green cap question, students suggested that the Varsity Welcome be made a "green cap welcome," and that the old skull caps be donned at that time to signify admittance to the student body and to show acceptance of Wisconsin ideals.

Faculty members rejected the idea.

They felt that the old cap was a source of discord which could not be officially sanctioned by the university.

They felt that the old cap carried with it an undercurrent of physical menace that had no place at the Varsity Welcome.

They were right.

A green cap of the old style, worn voluntarily or from fear, would always suggest lake parties. It would always suggest the mob spirit.

Sophomores never would have absorbed the idea that the cap was not a part of hazing.

It would have taken a lot of persuasion to make the freshmen feel that the green cap was not a badge of shame.

With the new cap the old associations will be cast aside.

A new meaning will be attached to the verdant headgear.

It is to be expected that the student body as a whole will welcome the new idea.

JUMP TO THE POLE

WHEN the starter's gun sounds on the cinder track, the runners dash for the "pole". They know that if they can get into the lead on that first turn, the race will be easier.

An inexperienced runner may allow himself to lag behind on the start, counting on gaining when the straightaway is reached.

When he reaches the straightaway he finds it hard pulling to regain lost ground. It takes more energy to gain than it takes for the leader to hold his own.

This morning the starter's gun sounds on the hill.

Some students will settle down to their subjects in the first few days, and they will have a comparatively easy time to hold their own for the rest of the semester.

Others will continue their vacations for a few weeks more. They will strive in the months of the future to catch up in their class work.

The ones who settle down to work immediately are either experienced or well advised. They know that an instructor's first impression counts for a lot, that a subject is comparatively easy if the first principles are mastered.

They will succeed.

Among those who postpone their work will be many freshmen. Fresh from easy high school work, they will imagine that a good bluff and a little bit of study at the end of the month will pull them through.

They will find it hard to change an instructor's opinion.

They will find that things they missed this month are essential to next month's work.

By intense effort, some will manage to stay on throughout the year.

Others will go home at Thanksgiving, defeated.

ACTIVITIES CENTER.

The center of university activities is the Union building on Langdon street. At present the building contains the rooms for Wisconsin publications. The first floor, however, has been given over to the Federal Board students. Besides a general office, there are three lounging and reading rooms for their general use.

The editorial and business offices of the Daily Cardinal, together with those of the Badger and Octopus, occupy the second floor.

On the top floor of the three story structure are the offices of Union board, the Wisconsin Literary magazine, and the Campus Religious council. Edwin Booth and Haresfoot are also to be found there.

The Memorial union building, which is soon to be started, will provide new and spacious offices for all those now housed in the Union building.

Paintings are Added

To Museum Exhibits

The historical museum at the library has had a number of articles of interest added to its collection during the summer months. Chief among these are twenty-two large canvases illustrating the work of leading American mural painters. They are of great variety, being brought to the auditorium of the museum for the use of university students, and they have been pronounced especially fine.

Another subject of great interest in the auditorium are the three cases of service newspapers issued by the American army during the World war.

An old dulcimer standing unobtrusively in one corner is of keen interest. It was made at Kingscorners, near Prairie du Sac, Wis., in 1866, and is reported to be a very fine example of this type of Pioneer instrument.

A case of vari-colored service ribbons completes the list of new articles in this room. They were collected by Lieutenant A. Mortimer Van Ostrand in Germany after the war, and have been presented to the museum by the alumnae.

In North hall of the museum is a case of colonial knick knacks presented by the Wisconsin branch of the National Society of Colonial Dames of America. In this same room are, also, two cases of interesting articles pertaining to the late World War. One is a collection of airplane photographs taken by both the Allies and the Germans. The other contains movement of guns, etc. The latter contains articles of interest that were used in the medical service. The latter have been presented to the museum by Dr. Smiley Blanton, member of the University of Wisconsin faculty and a former captain in the United States Medical Corps.

There are two new cases in South hall. One contains the most complete collection in America of United States army insignia. The other contains a silk flag presented by President McKinley to the 21st U. S. Infantry in 1898. It has been loaned to the museum by Capt. W. G. Atkins of the military department of the University, who was formerly a member of the 21st infantry.

On the stair landing, but belonging to the museum, is a white marble statue of Crouching Venus. It is a replica of the one in the Vatican in Rome, and has been presented by W. G. Schufeldt of Oconomowoc, Wis.

30,000 Will Register

For Extension Courses

More than 30,000 students will be enrolled this year in the 400 courses offered by the University of Wisconsin Extension division, it is estimated. Out of an approximate total of 38,000 students who will be enrolled in the various departments of the University this year, only 7,500 will be in residence.

"We have students of every type taking our courses, from the illiterate to those who have the highest scholastic degrees," said Prof. William H. Lighty, of the Correspondence-Study department. Wisconsin is the only state in the union to have an extension division of this type."

Among the 28,400 students enrolled last year in correspondence courses, were men and women from every state in the union and from practically every foreign country. Two men in Shanghai, China, are enrolled.

A letter has been received from a student in Cairo, Egypt, according to Professor Lighty, requesting all university papers and magazines in order that the writer could participate more fully in the college life. An illiterate bricklayer is taking a course in mathematics that he may advance in construction work. His wife wrote his lesson sheets. A high school graduate, who will work a year in a drug store, called yesterday to arrange elementary correspondence courses in pharmacy.

Professor Lighty pointed out the immense practical and cultural value of correspondence study to students, who in the majority of cases seek no university credit. A lawyer is studying a business phase of his profession. The head of the economics department in a certain college is studying an angle of economics by mail from a recognized authority here. A mother of four small children is taking a course in genetic psychology and child training. The majority of students are adults.

We are somewhat agitated as we sit down and try to collect our thoughts.

For Buster Zimmerman just tripped by in a 40 inch skirt. That is, we think it was Buster's face.

Judging from the new coiffure, we opine that the Phi Psi's will soon start rushing her.

STUDENTS MET BY MANY NEW CAMPUS STORES

A number of new business houses in the university district, catering to student trade in particular, greet returning students this fall. Probably the most conspicuous is the Campus restaurant on State street, the first building south of the lower campus. Construction on the building was begun last May, and it was completed in time for the formal opening last Friday. Carl A. Pfeiffer and W. T. Grosshuesch are the proprietors of the restaurant. The building has its own refrigerating plant, pastry department, and laundry. The cost of the building was about fifty thousand dollars.

Another eating place erected during the summer is Chili Al's restaurant at 613 State street. A. H. Felly, a restaurant owner for twelve years, is the proprietor of this new venture, a building modern in every respect with a seating capacity of forty. Construction on the building which cost thirty-five thousand dollars was hurried along to have it completed in time for the fall opening as work was not started until July 1st.

The Campus Clothes shop which replaces the building formerly occupied by the Wisconsin barber shop at 827 University avenue operates a cleaning, pressing and tailoring establishment in addition to carrying a full line of men's furnishings and clothing. The store opened about two weeks ago.

Mintz Bros., another clothing store with cleaning and pressing business is now located at 1307 University avenue. The same firm formerly operated a similar business in the same block but now has several added improvements.

New Information Bureau
Maintained by Masons

Among the various bureaus and information headquarters operated for the benefit of incoming students at registration time is a new one this year, the service bureau of the Wisconsin square of the Square and Compass. The bureau is housed in a tent erected on the grounds of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity on State street and is at the service of all Masons, sons of Masons, and members of the De Molay.

Through the bureau, the Wisconsin square hopes to see that every Masonic student who needs any help in registering, finding a room, or any sort of personal service will be cared for. About eighty Masons and thirty-five De Molays had registered at the tent up to Tuesday afternoon. It is the intention of officers of the Square to have the service bureau in operation every year at registration time.

The program will be broad enough to appeal to every body, according to announcements contained in invitations sent to more than 100 Agric and Home-Ec freshmen.

The Co-Op
The Student's Store

For the past few years our Men's department has needed more space for the amount of stock carried and a great many of our customers have asked us to put in clothing and hats.

A few months ago we started building an addition and remodeling our entire store. We had to have more room to take care of our trade. We are not going to say a great deal about our new store, but we do want you to stop in and see it. You will find as fine a men's clothing store as there is in the state.
