200 PAY HONOR TO BABCOCK ON 79TH BIRTHDAY

Dean Russell Extends Tribute to Scientist At Banquet

More than 200 university students, faculty members, farmers, and county agents gave a standing ovation to Dr. S. M. Babcock when Ralph Peterson, toastmaster, welcomed the assemblage to the banquet held in honor of the scientist's seventyninth birthday in the city Y. M. C. A. last night.

Tribute was paid to Dr. Babcock by Dean H. L. Russell who reviewed the dramatic circumstances in relation to the invention of the Babcock milk test.

"Another means of testing the butter fat in milk had been found by Dr. Babcock," Dean Russell declared. "Dean Henry, Governor Hoard and others urged Dr. Babcock to publish his results."

Test Completed in 1890 Then followed Dr. Babcock's notable reply:

"There is one cow in the university herd whose right test I cannot get, and I'll never publish my test until I can give an accurate test to the world."

More work was necessary to perfect the test until in 1890, the Babcock milk test was given to the world.

Addressing the representatives of the boys and girls of the state, Dean Russell said, "If we can take the lesson of this man into our homes as a model, see what it will mean to the state of Wisconsin."

Youth Presents Book

In appreciation of the idealism exemplified in the life of Dr. Babcock, a book was presented as a birthday present by Alfred Cairns, Sun Prairie, representing the boys and girls of the state of Wisconsin. The little boy said,

"Dr. Babcock, we, the representatives of the boys' and girls' clubs wish to present this book to you in honor of your birthday."

Dr. Babcock responded by saying, "Dear boys and girls, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for this present."

Addresses were given also at the banquet by the following: Prof. G. C. Humphrey, E. H. Parker, president of the Wisconsin Live Stock Breeder's association, Reid Murray, secretary of the association, Prof. F. B. Morrison, Prof. E. B. Hart and Prof. E. S. Savage.

Boys' and Girl's club members continued to enter their dairy calves for the boy's and girl's dairy calf show to be held today.

University Obtains Land Title After Long Fight

After many years, the university has obtained by a jury appraisal, the title of the strip of land in front of the Agricultural hall. The land has belonged to an estate which the university had been unable previously to procure in order to complete the contemplated open green which is to connect University avenue and Agricultural hall.

The small brick dwelling which impeded the view from the new Hoard memorial to University avenue is being torn down.

This green, with the memorial at one end, is to commemorate the work of William Dempster Hoard, one time governor of Wisconsin, who encouraged the study of agriculture and was one of the first agricultural journalists. A magazine, Hoard's Dairyman, published at Fort Atkinson, was founded by the man whose name it bears.

DENY REPORT OF NO GAME SEATS AT HOMECOMING

Rush of Applications For Chicago and Minnesota Games

Reports that tickets for the Illinois Homecoming game here on November 11 have been all sold, were denied by Paul F. Hunter, manager of athletic department ticket sales, in a statement made to The Cardinal yesterday.

"Reports have come to us from three different sources that certified checks with applications for tickets to the Homecoming game have been returned," Mr. Hunter declared.

"If the athletic department has returned any checks and applications, it was because they asked for something we could not grant, such as specific location in the stands or for more than four seats. We positively have not notified anyone that the tickets were all sold."

Begin Filling Orders

Hunter said that his force was just beginning to fill the orders and would have no way of knowing how many tickets have been asked for until the work is completed.

"Judging by those in the first 2,000 orders we have filed, I would estimate that applications have been filed for approximately 20,000 tickets, we expect to seat about 27,000 persons.

"If anyone has issued any statement to the effect that all tickets have been sold, it is without authority," the ticket manager concluded.

Many Minnesota Tickets Sold

Approximately 2,000 tickets for the Minnesota game at Minneapolis on November 4 were received at the gymnasium yesterday afternoon. Filling of mail orders was started last night and will be completed this morning.

Those tickets which have not been applied for by mail will be placed on public sale from 12 to 5 o'clock on Friday and from 12 to 2 o'clock on Saturday. Tickets which are not sold at that time must, under contract be returned to Minneapolis Saturday night.

ASKS $25,000 IN LOVE BALM

Graduate is Sued By Nurse For Alleged Breach of Promise

Claiming that she became a nurse and gave more than $700 in order to put Adolph Emerson '22 through the university last year, Miss Rose August, age 21, former La Crosse girl, has brought a $25,000 suit for breach of promise against Emerson, according to news dispatches from Chicago late yesterday.

Miss August alleged in her complaint that her romance with Emerson began four years ago when she was a high school girl at La Crosse and that her betrothal to Emerson was made some time later.

The defendant is now a student at the Rush Medical college in Chicago. He was active in track and other athletics while a student at the university here, and was a member of the Phi Beta Pi medical fraternity.

"He was working his way through school," Miss August alleged. "I became a nurse and gave him all my earnings—more than $700—to complete his education."

Two weeks ago he confessed to me that he did not love me and told me he was engaged to another girl," she claimed. "I have learned that he has a wife from whom he is not divorced."

STUDENT FUND TO BUY ORGAN

Lutheran Memorial Church Fund Increases as Campaign Continues

The total contribution of the students to the Luther Memorial fund for the building of Lutheran Memorial church is $7390, to date.

This sum is to be set aside for the furnishing of the $18,000 organ for the new church. Two thousand dollars will be added to this sum in the immediate future as a pledge from the group as a whole. The students' campaign, headed by Mr. Wittenburg, ended officially last Monday.

The balance of the $18,000 will be raised within the next few years by various plans not yet fully decided upon. There will, however, be no more personal solicitation of Lutheran students.

In the main campaign, carried on outside of the university, the state as a whole has yet to raise $13,575 of its quota of $25,000. Two weeks will be given for this. The Madison workers under their chairman, Professor Olson, have raised about $77,310.

FOOTBALL FANS TURN ATTENTION TO TIGER GAME

Chicago - Princeton Tilt Features in Grid World This Week

When Chicago and Princeton meet on Stagg field tomorrow in one of the greatest inter-sectional football struggles in history, each team will present a powerful offensive against defenses which are dopesters are still puzzling over.

Chicago is expected to represent a more open attack than the Tigers. The Maroons have an excellent passing machine, their off tackle plunges and end runs, the line must be reckoned with by the Tiger men.

The Princeton teams have never made a great deal of use of the aerial route, and a game of off tackle plays and slanting end runs is more likely to be a feature in their offensive.

Stagg Works on Defense

Coach Stagg is developing several new plays, and the frosh are kept busy wondering what the next trick play will be. The varsity has been busy on the defensive against the freshmen who are using eastern formations. Final signal practices and drill on the new plays which Stagg has originated for this game characterize the last practice.

The Tiger varsity defeated the scrubs by six touchdowns in their last practice, before starting the trip to Chicago. It is almost certain that Johnnie Gorman will take the quarterback position for which he has been so much competition on the Tiger eleven.

The Princeton aggregation which travels to Stagg field will carry 35 squad men, 14 coaches, a manager, and two assistant managers.

Notre Dame Plays Georgia Tech

Notre Dame left yesterday for Atlanta where it will meet Georgia Tech for another big inter-sectional match. Georgia Tech is playing excellent ball this season, and promises to give Notre Dame a hard tussle.

Another feature of Saturday's football will be a clash between the Army eleven and Yale in the Yale bowl.

Other Saturday games are Penn State vs Syracuse at the Polo grounds in New York, Navy vs University of Pennsylvania at Pennsylvania, Harvard vs Dartmouth at Cambridge, Michigan Aggies vs Indiana at Bloomington.

CHICAGO RECTOR TALKS AT U. W. MEET THURSDAY

Will Speak in Music Hall On Evolutionary Subject

George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, Evanston, Ill., will be the speaker at the first all-university religious convocation next Thursday night in Music hall. The Rev. Stewart will come to Madison at the invitation of the Campus religious council.

The subject of the address will be "Evolution. A Witness to God," the text of a booklet published recently by the Witness book company and consisting of five chapters. Each of the points which Reverend Stewart will discuss in his lecture is a separate chapter in the booklet. The titles of the chapters are "The Great Fact," "The Scientific Point of View," "The Scientific Point of View," "The Bible and Evolution," "The Process of Evolution" and "Creative Evolution."

"Since there has been so much interest of late in the discussion of theism, atheism and evolution, I am sure the student body will be glad to know that the council has obtained the Reverend Stewart to be the speaker at the first convocation next week," Walter Coutu '24, president of the Campus religious council, declared yesterday.

RICE, SPORT EDITOR, PRAISES "BIG JAWN"

Coach John R. Richards, Wisconsin mentor, is mentioned as one of the best football coaches in the country, in an article written by Grantland Rice, who conducts "The Sportlight" column in the New York Tribune.

Rice accounts for the strong western teams by the excellency of their coaching.

Here's what he says in the Tribune for October 24.

"How do you account for the strength of mid-western football?" inquires R. H. K. First, exceptionally good material, usually big, strong and fast. Second, such coaches as John Richards, Bob Zupke, Knute Rockne, "Hurry-up" Yost, Jack Wilce, A. A. Stagg, Howard Jones, etc., who are not only great leaders, but who, in addition, know football all seventeen ways—up, down and across. No one section has ever known a greater cluster of instructive genius."

Bowling is rapidly becoming a popular sport at the Michigan Agricultural college. Leagues have been organized, and inter-society games will be played during the winter months.

FROSH PREPARE FOR SOPH GAME

November 17 is Date Set For Annual Underclassmen Tilt

The freshmen-sophomore football game will be staged at Camp Randall on Friday, November 17.

Indications forecast a real scrap again this year. Both teams are working hard to round into shape. The determination bids for an interesting game. As three more weeks remain for practice new plays will be developed during that time.

The frosh squad is developing into a very clever machine. Since Williams was injured, the quarterback job has been given to Reuland. If Williams returns to the lineup before the game, it is possible that Reuland will be shifted to halfback to fill the place left vacant by Wallace who broke his leg as Tuesday night. Coach Drive is working his men hard and with a reasonable break in his favor will put out a strong frosh team.

The sophs are still weak. Although O'Brien is showing up very well at quarter and Stipek at full, the team needs much polishing. Sykora at center is a strong lineman and Collins at end will cause some trouble for the frosh. The sophs will probably use the Illinois style this year. A great many more men can be used, however, and all soph football merged to come out.

The proceeds of this game will help defray the expenses of the frosh and sophs that make the trip to the Chicago football game. Every man who makes a creditable showing from now on and makes the team will be given the trip to Chicago with the Varsity November 25. It is up to every man to do his best and make the team.

The probable lineup is as follows:

Sophomores	Freshman
Collins	R. E.
Christenson	R. T.
Wiggers	Blackmar
Sykora	R. G.
Hosmer	C.
Eschweiler	L. G.
Teckmeyer	Strauss
O'Brien	L. T.
Stipek	McCormick
Friedl	L. E.
Schroeder	Simmons
	Reuland
	R. B.
	Ralph
	Coleman
	L. H. B.

400 ENROLL IN TRACK MEET AT CAMP RANDALL

Largest Annual Fall Meet Will Be Held Tomorrow

Present indications point to the fact that the annual fall track meet tomorrow afternoon at Camp Randall will be the largest ever held. While it was thought at first that the number of entries would reach 250, the entry blanks already show that at least 400 men will be signed today for the meet.

The fall track meet at Camp Randall is an annual affair. It is open for every man in school except those who are on the Varsity squad or who have won their "W's" in track in former years. This eliminates the best competition in school, and makes it possible for any man to enter and to have a fair show in the meet.

Many men from the freshman and sophomore track classes have entered the meet. As the meet is the only one during the fall season, it is the one chance for men to show up against competition. There is much good material in the track classes which has not been given yet a chance to develop. Through the meet Saturday, it is expected that men will be discovered of heretofore unknown ability.

Entry sheets are posted in the gymnasium. The meet will start promptly at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, in order that it may be completed in time for the entrants to witness the football games which will be held later in the afternoon.

MANY APPEAR ON INDIANA'S LIST OF CASUALTIES

Four Players Hurt at Madison Will Not Play Tomorrow

(Special to The Cardinal) BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 26.—With the coming of the Illini only a few days off, Coach Yost is leaving nothing undone to whip the Wolverines into best condition possible when the Zuppke meet them in battle on Ferry field Saturday.

There is no over-confidence in the Michigan camp. On the contrary the Yostmen are expecting one of the hardest battles in years when Zuppke brings his rejuvenated Indians into Ann Arbor.

Reports of Illinois prowess, as shown against Iowa, has stirred the entire Wolverine squad.

Illini Team Strong

"The first battle is won but now we must face the future and realize that Zuppke is invading Ann Arbor next Saturday with a very strong team," Coach Yost asserted.

"No football game can be won by the efforts that are past. The result of this Saturday's game will depend upon what Michigan does this week in preparation."

In a sense Michigan must rebuild and replace lost forces. The line has been Michigan's main problem all year. Vandervoort, a star tackle, is out for the season. This fact makes the line problem more difficult while Roby's loss in itself is a severe one. Johns and Blannik are putting up a hard fight for the position left vacant by Vandervoort, while Steele is competing with several other men to draw the assignment at guard in case Johns should be used at tackle.

Michigan Line Weaker

There is no question but that the line will be weaker, for Vandervoort was the heaviest man in the forward wall and knew how to use his extra poundage.

Steger is showing up well in the backfield, but he is inexperienced and has never been under Big Ten fire except for a part of the Ohio game. He is a different style player from Roby and it may be that he will perform as well.

Steger's best work is done on the offense while Roby is a big cog in the secondary defense as well as being a great line plunger. Whether Steger can fill his place will not be known until he has been in action Saturday.

ber 4. This is an annual gridiron battle, usually played in Indianapolis, which is known as the Hoosier gridiron classic.

Indiana's Homecoming game is Nov. 11 with the University of West Virginia at Bloomington. Two weeks later on Nov. 25, the annual grudge battle between Purdue and Indiana will be played at Lafayette.

GOLF FOR CO-EDS IS NEW WINTER SPORT

Golf may be taken by ambitious co-eds as regular, full fledged gymnasium work.

Arrangements for this latest addition to the physical education curriculum were completed Thursday. Golf may now be elected as a regular winter sport for the winter season opening December 4.

Indoor lessons will be given in the basement of the University Co-operative store by a golf professional from Chicago. The course will include two half-hour private lessons a week for 12 weeks. The price of the course is to be $20.

Mr. Grady of the co-operative store is in charge of the arrangements. Those anxious to take this new course should sign up for it in Lathrop at once as only a limited number can be accommodated.

Miss Brownell, physical education department, in speaking yesterday of the new course, declared:

"We have always wanted to offer golf in some way to the women. These arrangements could not be made before on account of the great distance, the difficulty in taking roll, and the great expense of memberships in the local clubs."

YOST POLISHES MICHIGAN LINE

Prepares For Hard Battle Tomorrow With Zuppke's Suckers

(Special to The Cardinal) ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 26.—With the coming of the Illini only a few days off, Coach Yost is leaving nothing undone to whip the Wolverines into best condition possible when the Zuppke meet them in battle on Ferry field Saturday.

There is no over-confidence in the Michigan camp. On the contrary the Yostmen are expecting one of the hardest battles in years when Zuppke brings his rejuvenated Indians into Ann Arbor.

Reports of Illinois prowess, as shown against Iowa, has stirred the entire Wolverine squad.

Illini Team Strong

"The first battle is won but now we must face the future and realize that Zuppke is invading Ann Arbor next Saturday with a very strong team," Coach Yost asserted.

"No football game can be won by the efforts that are past. The result of this Saturday's game will depend upon what Michigan does this week in preparation."

In a sense Michigan must rebuild and replace lost forces. The line has been Michigan's main problem all year. Vandervoort, a star tackle, is out for the season. This fact makes the line problem more difficult while Roby's loss in itself is a severe one. Johns and Blannik are putting up a hard fight for the position left vacant by Vandervoort, while Steele is competing with several other men to draw the assignment at guard in case Johns should be used at tackle.

Michigan Line Weaker

There is no question but that the line will be weaker, for Vandervoort was the heaviest man in the forward wall and knew how to use his extra poundage.

Steger is showing up well in the backfield, but he is inexperienced and has never been under Big Ten fire except for a part of the Ohio game. He is a different style player from Roby and it may be that he will perform as well.

Steger's best work is done on the offense while Roby is a big cog in the secondary defense as well as being a great line plunger. Whether Steger can fill his place will not be known until he has been in action Saturday.

ber 4. This is an annual gridiron battle, usually played in Indianapolis, which is known as the Hoosier gridiron classic.

Indiana's Homecoming game is Nov. 11 with the University of West Virginia at Bloomington. Two weeks later on Nov. 25, the annual grudge battle between Purdue and Indiana will be played at Lafayette.

The Wisconsin-Minnesota game on Saturday, November 4, is the first of four Homecoming contests that Wisconsin plays. The Wisconsin-Illinois game here November 11 is the second. The Badgers will also be the big attraction at Ann Arbor, Mich., and at Chicago on November 25.

Conference coaches realize that Wisconsin's teams, which are strong every year, are the biggest attractions that can be booked for Homecoming games.

VARSITY LEARN NEW PLAYS FOR GOPHER BATTLE

Coach Richards Drills New Formations; Practice Game Tomorrow

The Varsity football team learned some new plays yesterday afternoon. Coach John Richards handed out a few new formations for the regulars to work on before they stack up against Minnesota on November 4 and Illinois on Nov. 11 in the big Homecoming game here.

Football fans can expect to see a slightly changed line-up when the Varsity meets the All-Americans and the freshmen in a regular grid battle at Camp Randall tomorrow afternoon. It will be the first open practice in several weeks. An admission price of 25 cents will be charged. Coach Lowman's All-Americans are slated to work for the first half and "Keg" Driver's yearlings will take their punishment in the other two periods.

Jack Harris was used in the Varsity backfield yesterday. He and Gibson will probably alternate a right half during the remainder of the season, with Gibby getting first call for the position. Capt. Rollie Williams is a fixture at left half, and Barr and Taft complete one of the best backfields in the country.

Taft Shows Up Goal

Taft has developed into a dependable fullback. He is hitting the line with all the drive and power of a veteran. The tall one is learning to exert pressure after the impact with opposing lines and when the "carry through" idea becomes an instinct, he will be one of the hardest fullbacks in the Conference to stop.

Taft is a clever punter. He gets the ball away in plenty of time and boots it high enough to enable the forwards to get down and nail the ball-carrier in his tracks.

Although he did not get exceptional distance on his kicks in the Indiana game, it was because he kicked out of bounds without giving the Hoosier backs a chance to return the punt or permit it to roll over the goal line and be put into play on the 20-yard mark.

Drill In Tackling

Richards drilled his men in tackling yesterday. He is dissatisfied with the way the men hit the opposing backs and is training them to exert pressure after they hit the ball-carriers. The men formed in two lines and each Varsity player carried the ball while another regular tackled him.

The team is in fine shape with one or two exceptions, and it is expected that it will reach top form before the Minnesota contest.

While the Badgers rest tomorrow, Minnesota will probably wreck one or two men in its struggle with Ohio State. The Buckeyes put Michigan on the blink, putting out Vandervoort for the rest of the season and Roby for several weeks.

Homecoming Attractions

Coach Spaulding, new Gopher mentor, is developing a team worthy of representing the Gopher institution after its recent lapse in athletics. Although the northmen were held to a 7 to 7 tie by Northwestern, it must be said that the Purple touchdown was a lucky break which came in the last half when Chuck Palmer sprinted 101 yards for a score.

The Wisconsin-Minnesota game on Saturday, November 4, is the first of four Homecoming contests that Wisconsin plays. The Wisconsin-Illinois game here November 11 is the second. The Badgers will also be the big attraction at Ann Arbor, Mich., and at Chicago on November 25.

Conference coaches realize that Wisconsin's teams, which are strong every year, are the biggest attractions that can be booked for Homecoming games.

OUR MR. CARY

UCIAN CARY '08, has added recently to his notable list of contributions to American literature.

Mr. Cary has found as have other authors, that the co-ed and the flapper are good "material" for stories. The dear public likes to read of their escapades.

In fact, the reading public is more interested in reading of the escapades than of the sterling qualities that these same girls possess.

Mr. Cary is a good journalist. He knows what the public likes to read. He knows there is always an open market for stories that border on the sentimental. And Mr. Cary, being an obliging and genial sort of author, pleases his readers and enriches his pocket book, by diligently furnishing that sort of co-ed story that his gratified public want.

He visits his alma mater, Wisconsin, and assisted by alumni friends and the Commerce Magazine questionnaire, he is able to find abundant material, evidence and experiences for not only one story but two.

His very saleable stories have found market in McCall's magazine.

Mr. Cary, as we have before noted, is a very capable journalist. What he looks for he appears to find. What his public wants they shall have.

Certain upperclassmen have been searching for many years for the very type of co-ed that Mr. Cary so easily found. One of those good scouts that will smoke and drink, go auto riding with perfect strangers on a "blind" date and frankly show their pleasure at being able to share in men's wilder escapades.

Those men who have been looking for that type of co-ed should learn Mr. Cary's secret of successful search.

For he found, presumably without trouble nor delay, a "typical" co-ed flapper who nonchalantly broke all of the major S. G. A. rules, who told him where and how to get moonshine, and frankly told him when she felt the urge for a cigarette.

In fact, the escapades that this "typical" co-ed shared with our respected alumnus, Mr. Cary, furnished him with very saleable stories.

We enjoyed reading the stories. But a few questions bother us. Is a co-ed always a flapper and is a flapper always a co-ed? We have never supposed the two terms to be interchangeable but Mr. Cary so uses them. We, of course, bow to Mr. Cary's superior choice of words.

Another question, if you do not mind, Mr. Cary.

What does the word "typical" mean?

From your use of the term we would infer that the majority of the Wisconsin co-eds also smoke, drank, and broke S. G. A. rules a did your "blind date" friend.

Either we misunderstand the term "typical" or else we fail to know Wisconsin women. We have never met the "typical" co-ed of which you write, Mr. Cary. Are we not envious of your good fortune in finding her.

And the other question, Mr. Cary? After writing so colorfully and entertainingly of the co-eds of your alma mater, is your conscience entirely salved when you quite generously conclude that, in spite of your experience, the modern co-ed is fundamentally all right? That her astounding deviation from the path of her predecessor's merely her "way of getting where he can out of life?"

Strange conclusions for you to reach in view of your story, but we hope it clears up any little question of conscience.

WHY AID THE "Y"

THE spirit of the Y. M. C. A. is service.

Spiritual service is not the only way in which the university "Y" ministers to the students.

When a freshman enters the institution, it is to the "Y" that he is directed by upperclassmen. Those who have been here during a scholastic year know that the "Y" ever holds out a welcome and offers of aid.

The new student is aided in securing a room; the first directories are always those that are prepared by the "Y" and kept there for us by everyone; reading rooms, loan funds, employment bureaus, and the cashing of checks—these are only a few of the personal services that our university "Y" is daily giving.

Many a discouraged student has found in "Dad" Wolf a ready comforter, a willing guide.

Many a sick student who is lying in the infirmary has had no other visitors than those who were sent by the "Y". The books that he reads and the friends who stay with him through his trouble are his because the Y. M. C. A. has made them possible.

These services need funds to keep them going, to insure that other needy students may secure assistance and comfort.

In the annual drive now being made by the Y. M. C. A. The service that it renders should not be forgotten. The Y. M. C. A. must not be handicapped by lack of funds.

Students of the University of Nebraska must pledge $90,000 in one week in order for the proposed $430,000 stadium to become a reality. The remainder of the amount will be raised in the cities of Lincoln and Omaha and by a state pledge.

THAT DRUM MAJOR

Editor of The Cardinal:

By what stretch of the imagination could one phantasm that an editorial in a supposedly representative student newspaper would boast of Wisconsin dignity and prestige at length, and then in the same breath criticize openly and without apology left, and then rip the drum major visiting band?

What are the ethics of some of Wisconsin's writers when the student body out of courtesy and respect for another school, gives the visiting band a big hand on the field, and then they, the writers, turn around after the visitors have up and down the back, using phrases that are far from courteous.

It is plainly stated that the man who took charge of The Indiana band between halves at the football game last Saturday was an "unplumed and jazzy dignity chaser". A few lines farther down this same visitor is called "a jazzy contortionist".

In answer to the question of the editorial referring to our organization, it must be remembered, that Wisconsin has only one band, which is used for three distinct and separate functions, military work, concert work, and work in connection with athletics.

It is indeed unfortunate that Wisconsin has not enough musicians to make up three bands—one for military work; one for concert work; and one for athletic work. However, when one band is called upon to perform three distinct parts, let the organization enter heart and soul into that activity which it is, at the me, called upon to enter into.

I might say, with due apologies to the exponent of conservative and moderate actions on the football field, that the band is out there either to amuse nor to entertain. T IS OUT THERE TO HELP WIN THE GAME.

To pep up the crowd it must show activity and lots of it. Whether this be in the form of "minstrel shows" or "Jazzy contortionists", is of comparative insignificance. The point at issue is the necessity of the band doing that thing on the football field, for which it is put there.

Far from criticizing the Indiana band, I would say that it was far more successful in stirring up enthusiasm than our band was. "In keeping with the dignity and prestige that Wisconsin bands always have, let us give the visitors their just dues, rather than use our influence to knock the methods of our opponents.

S. HARWOOD GREGORY '23

IN APPRECIATION

Editor of The Cardinal:

On behalf of the Indiana football squad and the students and myself I wish to express, through you, our sincere appreciation of the gentlemanly and sportsman-like treatment received at your hands.

As a Wisconsin man, I was most anxious that Indiana should form the correct opinion of our school. I have spoken long and often at Indiana of the Wisconsin spirit, and it was with real satisfaction and pride that I witnessed your kindness and sportsman-like attitude.

It is not unusual for Wisconsin to win but to create the feeling of good-will and respect in the visiting team in the manner which I was accomplished last Saturday makes me all the more proud that I am a Wisconsin man.

With kindest personal regards I wish to remain,

Very truly yours,
GEORGE W. LEVIS,
Acting Director of Athletics.

German Club Sees Slides
Of Oberammergau Play

Slides of pictures of the Passion Play which is given every ten years in Oberammergau, Germany, were shown at a meeting of the German club in Lathrop parlors.

A summary of his impressions of various countries visited while on a tour through Europe last summer was given by Prof. A. R. Hohlfeld, head of the German department of the University. He stated that a careful observer of conditions in Germany would see that only a small proportion of the people do not have to fight for a living, while to a casual observer the majority of the people appear prosperous.

While conducting one of the tours through Europe last summer, B. Q. Morgan, professor of German in the university, visited Oberammergau, and witnessed the Passion play.

CONVO ADVISES ACTIVITIES FEE

Student Conference Suggests Blanket Tax For University Organizations

Subjects of blanket tax covering all university activities and the importance of massmeetings in uniting student spirit were points taken up by the Mid-West Student conference, according to Robert B. Stewart '23, secretary of the convention, who has published recently the minutes of the convention at Lexington, Ky.

"Such a fee would admit students to all activities on the campus such as athletic contests, dramatic performances, musical entertainments, and debates," Stewart declared.

"This fee would then be distributed proportionately among the organizations on the campus. This would more than solve the problem of the lack of funds which some organizations on our campus have experienced."

Blanket Tax Proposed

"A blanket tax could be added to the incidental fee. Taxes of this nature, however, are controlled by state law and the board of regents. If the regents would consent to this tax, the problem of financing the university's activities would be solved."

"Several universities and colleges of the Mid-West Student conference have installed this system of financing campus organizations, and it has proved successful."

That the university is not promoting student spirit, and is actually behind many of the other universities in this respect, were facts pointed out by Stewart.

Campus Problems

"All campus problems should be presented at massmeetings," he continued. "Problems on elections, hazing and student government must be presented to the students at massmeetings if we are to get a unanimity of opinion on these vital questions of student life."

"Several schools dismiss classes in order to hold such massmeetings. Such action, however, would necessitate co-operation between the faculty and students."

"Noted speakers are often procured for massmeetings in other universities. The first fifteen minutes are then used to present problems of student life. In this way, students are able to learn both sides of their campus problems."

Essays Must Be in Nov. 1 For $1,000 Prize Contest

November 1 is the time limit in the $1,000 prize essay contest on the subject of "Contribution of the Jews to Hygiene," it was announced yesterday.

The sum of $1,000 was placed at the disposal of the Jewish Publication society of America by Jesse W. Gitterman of Boston, and Joseph Y. Gitterman of New York, as a trust fund in honor of their parents. From time to time the society offers a prize for the best essay or study of the Jews or their contributions to the general purposes of modern civilization.

The competition, which started in March, 1921, is open to the members of the faculties and the students of the Jewish Theological seminary of America, of the Hebrew Union college, the Dropsie college for Hebrew and Cognate learning, and members of faculties and graduate students of the universities of the United States.

De Pauw students will have ice skating as a winter recreation this year. A dam is being constructed so that an artificial lake will be formed. The work will be completed before winter.

to Annual Soph Semi-Public Contests

Preparations for the annual sophomore semi-public debates will be started tonight by the three men's literary societies. Philomathia and Athena will hold tryouts today, while Hesperia sets November 3 as the formal tryout date.

Philomathia has set no definite subject, any debatable question being acceptable. Speeches are limited to five minutes in length and there will be no rebuttal. Six men will be accepted. New members will be initiated after the debate tryouts.

Hesperia Has Debate

Hesperia presents a regular program. Erling Ylvisaker '24 will talk on "An Historical Contest" and Ben White '23 will speak on "Cancellation of War Debts." The question for the debate is that the eighteenth amendment to the federal constitution be repealed. The negative team consists of H. A. Cranefield '25, E. F. Hamlin '26 and S. R. Thorson '24, closer. The affirmative team is composed of B. Walczak '23, D. Sinclair '24, and R. E. Axley '23, closer.

The question, Resolved, that the eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States be repealed, has been set by Athena as the sophomore debate tryout subject. Speeches are limited to six minutes with a two minute rebuttal.

Identify Slayer of Church Rector, Singer

NEW BRUNSWICK — Mrs. Jane Gibson, farmer, who claims to have witnessed the murder of Rev. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills today, declared that she had identified the man who shot the rector as well as identifying the woman, who she asserts was with the murderer.

Mrs. Gibson, who was on the Phillips farm the night of the double murder looking for corn thieves and who claims to have heard the murderer's name called by his woman companion, said she did not know the identity of the slayer at the time but that she recently had recognized him in the prosecutor's office in New Brunswick.

Mrs. Gibson said she had once met the murderer's woman companion at a rummage sale and instantly had recognized her at the scene of the murder on the Phillips farm. She added that she had seen her since the double killing and was sure of her recognition.

Judge Mott, the new special state prosecutor came to New Brunswick today and summoned every principal in the case to the court house so that he might personally hear their stories.

Wisconsin Alumni Mag — 4

That the "sun never sets" on Wisconsin's alumni is evidenced by the membership circulation of the Wisconsin Alumni magazine.

The magazine is mailed to every state in the union, our island possessions, the more important European countries, China, Japan, and India, and some parts of South America.

At present there are about 8000 subscribers. For the past three years the graduating classes have joined the association as a unit, by class action, according to Robert S. Crawford '03, general secretary. Mr. Crawford expressed the hope that the association would have more than 1000 life memberships by the end of the year.

THE HUB

MADISON'S FOURTH COMMUNITY
Music Memory Contest

Conducted under the auspices of the Madison Community Music Committee

A movement to increase the knowledge of good music through learning to recognize from hearing twenty-four of the best musical compositions. Four are assigned to each of six weeks. At the end of the period, a contest is held, in which parts of the compositions are played and the listeners attempt to write down the titles and composers. This year in evaluating the papers, no additional mark will be given for correct spelling.

Review of the first eight selections—We are a third of the way through our fourth contest. It will aid us in remembering the selections already studied, and will avoid confusion with those to come if we make a hasty comparison of these first eight selections.

The Composers

America has been represented by Edward MacDowell, our greatest composer, and Victor Herbert, one of the cleverest modern day writers; Germany has appeared in the work of Ludwig van Beethoven, than whom no one is greater, and Felix Mendelssohn, wonder child and wonder man.

France likewise has two representatives, Ambroise Thomas, known almost entirely by his opera of Mignon and Camille Saint-Saens the veteran who died only last December. Finland and Russia have each a place with Jan. Sibelius and Peter Tchaikovsky. Many critics feel that the latter is a giant who can stand beside the greatest of the world's composers. All of the eight composers thus far presented are comparatively recent, Beethoven, who was born in 1770, being the earliest of the group.

Kinds of Composition

Three marches, two overtures, and a waltz, all six for orchestra—a cello solo, and a double number for the piano, well indicate the relative importance in the field of great music of the orchestra. The introduction of such numbers also shows how much the phonograph has done to place even the most complicated music in our homes. While there are three marches, they are by no means similar.

The Turkish March is a strange, whimsical piece which suggests foreign lands; The March of the Toys is apparently mainly good fun throughout; The March Slav seems the expression of a burdened people struggling toward the light. The cello solo, The Swan, in comparison with this great march seems like a bower of quiet in a woodland nook after being out in the hurly-burly of conflict. This idea is reinforced by the two lovely piano pieces, To a Wild Rose and To a Water Lily.

Points of Comparison

The interested listener may, if he desires, study the various rhythms, comparing for instance the effect of the double rhythm in To a Wild Rose and The Turkish March; the differences that may be produced by a triple rhythm in To a Water Lily, The Valse Triste, and the Polonaise in the Overture Mignon. He may also try to make sketches of the various melodies, comparing the wide leaps in some with the closely related tones in the others.

He may notice the different tonalities, only two of the six pieces being in the minor mode. He will be interested in studying out the way the various composers have used the idea of repeating parts of the compositions in order to avoid having too much strange and new material. In fact, the more these eight pieces are heard, the more beauties they will reveal.

BRITISH SEEK FAVOR OF U. S.

King Dissolves Parliament
General Elections to Follow

LONDON—Andrew Bonar Law as leader of the Unionist party in a manifesto issued this afternoon, declared one of the tasks of that party, if it is returned to power, will be to make good the Anglo-Irish treaty both in letter and spirit and to coopearte with the Irish government.

The manifesto declares it will be the governments earnest aim, if returned to give wholehearted and practical support to the League of Nations, to fulfill the obligations Great Britain has undertaken abroad but not to extend her commitments but preferably to curtail them, and to maintain friendship and good understanding with the United States.

Mr. Bonar Law in the manifesto said it was the Unionist party's purpose, if the self-governing dominions approved, to summon an economic conference in an effort to discover how the vast trade which the resources of the empire made possible, could best be developed by mutual cooperation.

DISSOLVES PARLIAMENT.

LONDON—A proclamation dissolving parliament was signed by King George this morning at a privy council held at Sandringham the Royal estate in Norfolk. The proclamation will be gazetted this afternoon. The general election of a new parliament will follow shortly.

No Relief in Sight For Shortage of Rail Cars

The Wisconsin railroad commission today brought all of its machinery to bear upon the car shortage in the state, which threatens potato and cabbage growers and stock shippers with severe losses. Louis Gettle and H. R. Trumbower, the two commissioners in Madison took personal charge of the commission activities directed toward obtaining rolling stock to haul Wisconsin products to market.

As the first move hundreds of telegrams went to all railroad car distributing points in the state, asking information on the number of cars on hand and the possibility of obtaining "empties."

Mr. Trumbower has telegraphed the interstate commerce commission asking that more empty cars from the eastern railroads be directed to Wisconsin.

A clamor is being raised by shippers throughout the state due to their inability to get cars. The commission is receiving calls daily from individual shippers and from branch railroads, all asking for rolling stock.

"There is little we can do under present circumstances," Mr. Trumbower said. "The shortage is general and the commission can only aid by urging the interstate commerce commission to get equipment to the state and by seeing that cars are equitably distributed."

The marketing department says that farmers are digging all of their potatoes despite prevailing marketing conditions. Shippers are reported to be tied up with stocks which they are unable to move. Cabbage growers in several sections of the state are holding stocks which they say must be moved within the next week.

Pattern Company Will Build New Shop Here

A new brick pattern shop will be erected by the Madison Pattern Works at 2019 W. Menabago st. The cost is estimated at $4,500 in a building permit issued today. The building will be 36 feet by 67 feet. Another permit was issued to Victor H. Ham for a $5,000 frame residence at 2526 Gregory st.

Green Bay Contracts Approved by Morgan

Gov. Blaine was advised by the attorney general today that he might legally authorize the letting of contracts for plumbing fixtures in 186 cells at the Green Bay reformatory. The work might legally be done with authority from the governor, board of control and state engineer, the attorney general held.

EXCHANGE HITS LOWEST LEVEL

Slump to Lowest Point Reached in Entire Year

NEW YORK—French, Belgian and Italian exchange rates dropped to their lowest prices of the year today. French francs dropped 6½ points to 6.91c; Belgian francs yielded 14 points to 6.35c, and Italian lire sold off 2½ points to 3.99½c.

The par value of each of the allied continental currencies is 19.3c. Several reasons were assigned for the further depreciation. Speculative selling has been influenced by the huge French government deficit, and the latest developments in the German economic crisis have given rise to reports of a possible default in reparations payments.

Cable dispatches on Wednesday reported that the British were buying dollars to pay the interest on their debt to the United States with French currency, which also would have a tendency to depress the Paris rate.

The student loan fund at Northwestern university has reached $24,000. Thirty students have been given financial aid since the opening of school.

Are You Short of Money?

Read what Guy Harris says about making money selling Simpson Tailor Made Clothes:

"I worked my way thru school selling Simpson suits and overcoats.

"Last spring I found myself in a position of being compelled to earn extra money to pay my expenses or leave school. Thru the employment manager at school I learned of J. B. Simpson, Inc., and succeeded in making a connection with them. Altho I had never in my life before sold a suit or overcoat, I have earned, an. average of $27.00 per week by using my spare time to take orders for Simpson suits and overcoats.

"I did not depend only on the college students, but each afternoon I went out and called on from ten to thirty men. As Simpson values are exceptionally good and I could save the men from $10 to $20.00 on every suit or overcoat I nearly always succeeded in getting from one to five orders a day. The opportunity to do this work was a Godsend to me and I can think of no better way to meet expenses than by getting the agency for Simpson clothes. The firm is 100% on the level—a big, reliable, honest institution and I cannot speak too highly of them. This season I will do even better as I have several hundred satisfied customers whom I can resell.

GUY C. HARRIS.

If you are looking for a means of making money you can find no better or more profitable way than by making application for the Simpson agency at your college. All our suits and overcoats are made to order and sold for the flat price of $29.50. In fit, style and quality, they are equal or superior to the average garments retailed at $50.00. We are one of the largest tailoring organizations in the United States and stand back of every garment with an honest guarantee of absolute satisfaction. ## ASK REMOVAL OF ATTORNEY

C. B. Ballard Files a Petition With Governor Against C. A. Ingram

C. B. Ballard, state treasury agent, yesterday filed a petition with Gov. Blaine, asking for the removal of Chas. A. Ingram as district attorney of Pepin Co. The petition filed by Mr. Ballard and others makes the following allegations:

"THAT on the Pepin County fair grounds, and during the fair, when C. B. Ballard went on the fair grounds to see if any persons were there doing business without a license, where they were liable for violation of the law in not having a license to sell goods as a hawker and peddler, and when I undertook to arrest certain persons: R. E. McKenzie and Wm. Silberman, they resisted my efforts.

"I secured the assistance of the sheriff of Pepin County to aid me, when the said C. A. Ingram appeared, and ordered the sheriff to release said McKenzie and Silberman, and stated further he would hold the sheriff liable and responsible on his bond, if he did not do as he directed. He stated further that he and the Fair Association would defend them and make a test case of the law in Pepin county; and further told the sheriff he would be required to put up more bonds if he persisted in aiding Mr. Ballard; and the defendants repeatedly said Mr. Ingram had told them to pay no attention to Mr. Ballard as he would protect them. That he thus rendered no service to Mr. Ballard when he needed it, and did not give him aid to enforce the laws of this state in Pepin county, but did aid those who were violating such laws and opposing petitioner."

Council Will Hear Plans For City Zoning System

Definite reports on the city zoning plan will be submitted to the council tonight at a meeting with the city plan commission. The reports have arrived and will be discussed by Harland Bartholomew, zoning expert of St. Louis.

Perspective drawings of the city, as it will appear when zoned, will be on display. The zoning ordinance will be discussed this evening, and brought before the city council at the regular meeting Friday night for passage. This ordinance provides for the regulation of the heights, type and location of residences and industrial plants throughout the city.

Extension of University ave. from W. Gorham st. to W. Washington ave. will also be taken up as a part of the zoning plan now contemplated. The plan considers purchasing a 300 foot strip of land, 100 feet to be used for the avenue with a strip of land averaging about 100 feet on each side for sale. The returns of this would partially finance the extension.

The excess condemnation system is being used in Milwaukee and other cities to cut costs.

Mr. Bartholomew states that the proposed University ave. plan was recently used by the state of Missouri in drafting a new constitution and may be drafted into the laws of that state.
