Parking Banned on Henry Street by Council Vote

Artery Between State and Gorham to Be Widened

The parking of automobiles on North Henry street between Langdon street and Lake Mendota is to be prohibited following the passage of the street committee's recommendations at the meeting of the Madison common council Friday night. The widening of the street between State street and Gorham street was also approved.

These measures were both originally presented to the council April 29, following Mayor A. G. Schmedeman's veto of the plan to widen North Henry street from State street to the lake.

The fire hazard caused by the great number of cars parked in the block between Langdon street and the lake is given as the principal reason for prohibiting parking there.

Mayor Schmedeman approved the improvement of the block between State and Gorham, he said, because that block is a business unit. The remainder of the street is not important enough to warrant the removal of the trees for widening, he believes.

In the block to be widened, all trees will be cut down, the new street extending almost up to the present sidewalks.

100 Chemistry Students Return

Bacteriology Group Also Makes Observation Trip to Milwaukee

Students of bacteriology and textile chemistry in the department of home economics made their annual trip to Milwaukee this week, returning Friday night.

The students, about 100 in number, under the direction of W. D. Frost, professor of agricultural bacteriology, visited mills, stores, the sewage disposal plant, city health department offices, and other places in and around Milwaukee.

Leave on Special Car

The trip was begun Wednesday, when the group left Madison by special car on the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, and Pacific railroad.

The students were chaperoned by Prof. Trout and his assistants, Miss Elizabeth Griffing and Miss Myrtle Shaw, and two professors of textile chemistry, Miss Bess Tyrrell and Miss Cecilia Abry.

Required for Credit

A dinner was given at the Hotel Medford Thursday night.

For 20 years the Milwaukee trip has been required for credit in the textile and bacteriology courses in the university, according to Prof. Frost.

Haresfoot Players to Give Program at May Day Event

Several Haresfoot performers will entertain at the annual May Day supper which will be given on Lake terrace of the Memorial Union May 14 from 5 to 8 p. m. The affair is being sponsored by Mortar board, and the proceeds will go to the $100 scholarship which this organization awards annually to the five university co-operative houses.

The supper will be served from the Rathskeller soda fountain, but in case of inclement weather, guests will remain indoors. All students are invited to the supper and may arrive anytime between 5 and 7 p. m. There will be dancing in the Trophy room of the Union from 7 to 8 p. m.

Mortar board is a senior women's honorary organization, selection to which is made on the bases of scholarship, purpose, and character. Tickets for the May Day supper are on sale in the Union at the central desk and have been sent to all organized houses on the campus.

Petition to Defeat Tuition Increase Is Signed by 500

Approximately 500 persons have signed a petition asking for the defeat of the bill providing for a raise in resident and non-resident tuition fees which will be voted upon shortly in the state senate.

The petition is being circulated by a committee chosen by the Liberal club to work against the passage of the proposed increase. It reads:

"We, the undersigned, residents of the state of Wisconsin, request the members of the state senate to defeat senate bill No. 352, introduced by Sen. Markham, increasing the fees and tuition of resident and non-resident students of the University of Wisconsin, principally because such increase would cause undue hardship to the majority of the students at the university."

Bar Bill Is Killed Again in Assembly

The University of Wisconsin law school remains the only school whose graduates are not required to take the state bar examination before being allowed to practice law in Wisconsin, after a second attempt to put the law schools of Wisconsin on equal footings was defeated in the state assembly yesterday.

The bill provided that graduates of all law schools recognized by the American Bar association should be admitted to practice in Wisconsin without taking the state bar examination.

That graduates of recognized schools should be so admitted only if the school from which they were graduated meets the standards of the law school of the University of Wisconsin to the satisfaction of the state supreme court, was the provision of an amendment which was attached to the bill before it was killed.

Students in the course in humanities rank highest in grades for the first semester, with a grade point average of 1.826, according to figures published by the dean of men Wednesday. The course in humanities also led in scholastic standing for the second semester of 1927-28. During that time the 47 students enrolled maintained an average of 2.252.

Students in the normal course ranked second with an average of 1.741 and an enrollment of 44. The 41 normal course students were also second last semester with an average of 1.780.

The lowest average is held by the pharmacy III course, with a grading of .967 and an enrollment of 40. Last semester the 277 law students had an average of .720.

Final Rathskeller Dance to Feature Hy Rich Orchestra

The last dance to be held in the Trophy room of the Memorial Union this semester will be given tonight, with reserved tables in the Union Rathskeller. No other dances except private parties will be held in the building the remainder of this term.

Since this is the final dance to be sponsored by Men's Union board, the entire board has reserved a large table in the center of the Rathskeller. Tables of varied sizes are available for other groups.

Entertainment in the form of specialty dance numbers will be presented by Hy Rich, tap dancer, who is leader of the orchestra which will play tonight.

Advance reservations may be made at the Union desk today. There will be no extra charge for the use of tables in the Rathskeller.

Little Interest Shown in Forthcoming Special Election

In only one case will there be any semblance of a contest for Athletic board offices, while four posts, including those of president and vice-president, remain temporarily vacant for lack of candidates, it was revealed in petitions filed for the special election scheduled May 20.

That the number of candidates may be further reduced is a possibility inasmuch as names of contestants are being withheld for 24 hours in order that eligibility may be checked by the office of the dean of men.

One Fight Looms

The lone race will occur in the minor sports division where four men have signified their intention of competing for three vacancies. The group from which the representatives may come includes swimming, water polo, gymnastics, fencing, wrestling, boxing, hockey, golf, and tennis.

Offices which will go by default, provided eligibility of respective candidates is certified, are those of track, basketball, crew, and football representatives. One petition was on file for each of these posts at 5 p. m. Friday, the deadline hour.

Potter Cites Influence of Kellogg Pact

Between those who regard the Kellogg Peace pact as the salvation of mankind and those who think it absolutely ineffectual, Prof. Pittman B. Potter declared himself to be "in the middle of the road," in a talk before the International club Friday night in the Memorial Union.

Prof. Potter mentioned a number of current incidents in international affairs which he said might be attributed to the influence of the Kellogg pact.

Japan Withholds

The Briand-Kellogg treaty has been ratified by 14 of the 15 original signatory powers, according to Prof. Potter. Japan is the only major power that has withheld ratification. Until such time as Japan ratifies the pact, it will not be legal.

Prof. Potter pointed out that some slight effects have been produced by the mere existence of the pact, although it is not yet legal.

First, there was the activity commenced by former Secretary of State Kellogg soon after the signing of the pact, to revise the 30 or 35 arbitration and conciliation treaties which Root and Bryan had made. The first of these revisions was concluded with France in April, 1929, 150 years after the making of the first treaty with her. To date, 20 of these treaties have been improved, modernized and made broader.

Affects Disarmament

Second, he said, there was traceable a slightly improved attitude on the part of the nations participating in the discussions at the preparatory commission for the disarmament conference at Geneva. While there was, of course, no sweeping reversion from former disagreements, Prof. Potter said, nevertheless, in seemingly unimportant details, there was more agreement.

He pointed out that the pact has (Continued on Page 2)

Conscience vs. Law Is Topic for Discussion at Balboa Club

"Does conscience ever demand the breaking of law?" is the question which the members of the Balboa club will discuss Sunday at 9:30 a. m. at the Baptist Student house. Some of the laws to which the discussion will be applied are, the Sunday blue laws, traffic regulations, draft laws in time of war, and the prohibition law. A. T. Wallace's class will meet at 9:30 a. m. at the church to discuss the miracles.

Forensic Board Organization Is Changed by Ela

New Constitution Outlines Functions and Membership of Society

A new organization plan for a Forensic board to consist of one member from each of the four campus literary societies, one from Delta Sigma Rho, honorary speech society, two from the campus at large, and two from the retiring board was announced Friday by Walter Ela '30, president of the board, and Roland Kuckuk LL, retiring president.

The literary societies which will each contribute one member to the new board are Pythia, Athenia, Hesperia and Castilia. A faculty representative to be elected by the department of speech will be another member of the board.

Officers of the board, to be elected by the old board and the new sitting in joint session, will be president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. The faculty advisor of the board will sit as an ex-officio auditor.

NEW CONSTITUTION

The constitution adopted this week by the board follows:

Article 1

Section 1. The name of this board shall be "The Forensic Board of the University of Wisconsin."

Section 2. The functions of this board shall be:

Subsection a. To cooperate with the Department of Speech in the management and promotion of intercollegiate debates and speech contests at the University of Wisconsin.

Morphy Chosen to Judge Bands

Will Help Select Best High School Groups at Denver

Maj. E. W. Morphy, director of the university bands, has been chosen as one of the judges in the national high school band contest at Denver, Colo., Friday and Saturday, May 24 and 25.

John Philip Sousa, internationally known director and composer, will be senior judge. Others on the judging committee will be Dr. Will Earhart, director of music in Pittsburgh, Pa., public schools; Carl Busch, director of the Kansas City Symphony orchestra and composer; and Lieut. William C. White, director of the National Army Band training school at Washington, D. C.

Has Judged Many Contests

Maj. Morphy has been invited to judge state contests in Ohio, Wisconsin, and Indiana this year, but has been unable to take time from his university work to attend the contests. He has served as judge in five state band contests previously, including two years at the Empire State fair band contest at Syracuse, N. Y.

Participating in the Denver contest will be winners of all state high school band contests, competing in two classes, A and B, based on the school's enrollment. Contestants will play selections designated by the judges, including the "Chants of the Great Plains," composed by Mr. Busch, and will play in addition one composition of their own choosing.

Approves Band Contests

Maj. Morphy believes that band contests, far from having a musically degrading influence through the pitting of organizations against each other, are a benefit to participating groups, and he heartily appreciates his opportunity of hearing the best high school bands of the country.

The national contest, and also preliminary state contests, were sponsored by the committee on instrumental affairs of the Music Supervisors' National conference, in cooperation with the National Bureau for the Advancement of Music. C. N. Tremaine, secretary of the National bureau, is directing the contests.

Section 6. Members of this board shall at all times be eligible for extra-curricular activities according to the requirements of the faculty committee on Student Life and Interests, except that graduate students shall be eligible to membership.

Section 7. Before any member elect of this board shall succeed to membership, such member elect shall be approved by the faculty advisor and by a majority of the board then sitting.

Section 8. Members of this board shall be elected or appointed for a period of one year and shall succeed to membership on the first day of May of each year, but nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the reelection or reappointment of any member.

Section 9. Vacancies shall be filled by an appointment of the group in whose representation such vacancy may occur, except that vacancies which shall remain unfilled for a period of more than one month shall be filled by an appointment of the board upon the recommendation of the faculty advisor, which appointment shall expire on the first of May next succeeding.

Section 10. Upon the recommendation of the faculty advisor and the approval of seven members of the board, the chair of any member may be declared vacant, and such vacancy filled as prescribed in Section 9 of this Article.

Article 3

Section 1. The officers of this board shall be a president, vice-president, secretary, and business manager.

Section 2. These officers shall perform the customary duties of the respective offices, and such special duties as may be provided in the by-laws of this board.

Section 4. The faculty advisor of this board shall be ex-officio auditor and shall approve all disbursements from the funds of the board.

Article 4

Section 1. Proposed amendments to this constitution may be presented at any regular meeting.

Section 2. Such proposed amendment or amendments shall be presented in writing, and shall be ratified by a vote of seven members of this board at a regular meeting, but no such proposed amendment or amendments shall be ballotted upon at the meeting at which they shall be first presented.

Article 5

Section 1. The power of judicial interpretation of this constitution shall be vested in the faculty advisor of this board.

Effects of Kellogg Treaty Analyzed by Pittman Potter

had a negative effect on disarmament. Congress passed the cruiser bill which creates 15 new cruisers and a new aircraft carrier for the navy. He said that the pact has had no immediate effect on the United States armament policy or on the general international disarmament question.

Encourages Treaties

"Disarmament is a barometer rather than a lever in international progress," Prof. Potter said. He pointed out that the biggest drawback to a successful disarmament policy is a disagreement on technical details.

The pact has had an effect on the foreign policy of the United States, he said. At the Pan-American conference held at Washington in January two treaties were drawn up, the Pan-American Arbitration convention, and the Pan-American Conciliation convention. The pact has also had an influence toward reopening the United States adherence to the permanent court of international justice, Prof. Potter said.

Prof. Potter pointed out that The Briand-Kellogg pact in itself will not bring about world peace, but it must be used as the basis for further action. Facilities must be provided for pacific settlement of international disputes, and more cases must be secured for submission to arbitration, Prof. Potter said.

Board Posts Lack Nominees; Contest in Only One Office

the board failed to provide candidates, and as a result the choice will be left to members of the Athletic board following the election. Similarly, offices of president and vice-president, requirements for which are that the nominees be "W" men, went begging, and will also hold over until the first meeting.

All men, except freshmen, will be permitted to cast ballots, where the election will be other than a matter of formality. Whether or not the voting will take place entirely in the Memorial Union, in accordance with the referendum accepted at the regular election, could not be learned, as Lougee Stedman '30, chairman of the committee in charge, was out of town.

Due to the reorganization in the board's constitution, which was still under way March 15, the date of the regular spring election, the vote was deferred for two months. Changes made dealt with the representation to be allowed each sport or group of sports.

7-6 Victory Over
Phi Epsilon Kappa

Phi Kappa defeated Phi Epsilon Kappa Thursday in a hardball game on the intramural diamond by the close score of 7 to 6. Both teams scored four runs in the third inning, and each garnered 18 hits during the game.

Healy, Phi Kap pitcher, was nipped for a large number of hits, but tightened up in the pinches to prevent the losers from scoring. At the end of the fourth inning the score stood 6-5 in favor of the victors. Olson scored for the Phi Epsilon Kappa's in their half of the fourth frame, but Carney and Smith came back in the fifth with scores to win the game for the Phi Kappa nine.

Frosh Steps Through Shell;
Crew Rows, Swims to Pier

The freshman crew set a new time for the stretch between Picnic point and the university pier Friday afternoon.

Lake Mendota has not reached sufficient fahrenheit to accommodate comfortable swimming, and since shells are not being equipped with automatic bailers, the crew was very much in a hurry to get back to terra firma after a number 7 man put his foot through the fragile cedar bottom, while they were rounding Picnic point. The yearlings cleaved the water at a back-breaking speed, but even then they had to turn mermen before they reached the pier. Nearly a hundred yards off the end of the pier the shell settled, and the men, very much in a hurry to get out the water, displayed a brand of swimming that would have delighted Joe Steinauer.

It is not known just what size of shoe was worn by the unlucky shell-walker, but it is thought that if the men do not contract pneumonia, and are out again today, there will be considerable lighter stepping.

After Coach Lowman had definitely picked the first team, the "B" squad started work. Several men who made good at their con exams bolstered the seconds. With the final addition of Bill Momson who is now eligible, the "B" squad is quite complete.

At a special meeting held in Coach Levis' office Thursday noon, members of the University of Wisconsin golf team unanimously elected Homer Sheldon captain of the 1929 team. Sheldon was a member of the 1926 Varsity squad, and made such an excellent showing that he was chosen to lead the 1927 aggregation. He dropped out of school at the end of the semester, however, and matriculated to the University of Heidelberg, where he remained for two years. Sheldon re-entered school this fall, reporting to Coach Levis this spring for practice. He has consistently turned in low scores.

Jones Uncovers 'Find' in Oman for Javelin; Callendar Out

Coach Tom Jones has uncovered another new man in his efforts to find a good javelin thrower. Tury Oman of football fame is the new spear tosser who will compete against Northwestern at Evanston this afternoon.

Callendar's leg has failed to heal as expected from the wrench it got in the Minnesota meet, and the Badgers will be without his efforts today. However, Buechner, Kemp, Behr, and Purtell will take care of this event.

Thirty-two men will make up the Badger squad team which leaves for Evanston early this morning. Sullivan, who has formerly been competing only in the shot put, has developed ability in the hammer, and will compete with Frisch in that event.

Wisconsin men who will make the trip are:

100 yard dash: Larson, Diehl, Henke.
220 yard dash: Larson, Benson, Henke.

440 yard dash: Davidson, Paschong, Levy.

Half mile: Ocock, Cassidy, Moe.
Mile: Moe, Steenis, Follows.

Two mile: Dilley, Goldsworthy, Folson.

High hurdles: Brandt, Roden, Ziese.
Low hurdles: Eisele, Brandt, Roden.

Pole vault: Lunde, Lysne.

Theta Chi Leads Fraternities
in Badger Bowl Competition

Theta Chi continues to lead the pack in the competition for the Badger Bowl. Last year's winners of the coveted trophy have a comfortable margin of 37 points over their nearest rival, Pi Kappa Alpha.

The competition to date includes touch football, varsity football, indoor track, cross country, free throwing, basketball, hockey, bowling, and swimming.

Activities which remain, and which may mean the toppling off from their high positions of some of the leaders, are regular baseball, diamond ball, outdoor track, tennis and golf. All of these events are now in progress and rivalry is exceptionally keen.

Following are the new standings:

Theta Chi	588
Pi Kappa Alpha	551
Kappa Sigma	547
Theta Xi	481
Sigma Phi Epsilon	419
Delta Sigma Pi	361
Delta Pi Epsilon	342
Sigma Chi	331
Delta Theta Sigma	317

Sigma Chi's Rout
Beta's in Hardball
League Game, 5-0

Sigma Chi completely routed Beta Theta Pi in a hardball league game Thursday afternoon, winning 5 to 0. Poser, the winning pitcher struck out eight batters. Noyes, Beta Theta Pi twirler, also let down eight batters via the strikeout route, but his mates gave him little support in the field and at bat.

McCormick, shortstop of the victors, got a hit in each of his three trips to the plate and scored two runs, while Smith of the losers got two hits.

Lineups: Sigma Chi—Castle, lf; McCormick, ss; Gantenbein, 1b; Poser, p; Lynaugh, c; Larson, 2b; Chmielewski, 3b; Streeter, cf; Martin, rf.

Beta Theta Pi—Meyer, rf; Clark, 3b; Curtis, 2b; Lange, ss; Miller, lf; Noyes, p; Seymour, c; Smith, 1b; Goodnough, rf.

"Army-Navy"
Tilt Climaxes
Grid Practice

Football enthusiasts will have a taste of the gridiron sport next Tuesday afternoon when six weeks of spring practice draws to a close with a game of four regulation periods. This contest, an annual affair known as the "Army-Navy" battle, will be played on the gridiron north of Camp Randall, and not within the stadium as previously announced.

Glenn Holmes and Rube Wagner, two of the younger members of Glenn Thistlethwaite's coaching staff, will be in charge of the elevens. The entire grid squad, consisting of 75 players, was divided recently into two groups. Daily scrimmages, with constant shifting of candidates into the various line and backfield positions have aided the coaches in rating their material.

Graebner, freshman from Wausau, will be at quarterback for the "Navy," with Pacetti, Kenosha, Russell Rebolz, Portage, and Bach, St. Paul, Minn., slated to play the halfback positions. Halperin, former Oak Park star, and Katat, Milwaukee, will share the fullback duties. Sport, husky Texan back who played on the yearling team last fall, will not perform due to injury.

The "Army" backfield will be composed of Nelson, Madison, and Sheehan, Portage, quarterbacks; Exum, Gary, Ind., Oman, Chisholm, Minn., and Gustavel of Chicago at halfbacks; and Maurer, Wausau and Hal Rebolz, Portage, fullbacks. Jensen, Lake Forest Academy star, and Casey, veteran of last fall, will play ends for the (Continued on Page 7)

George Lott Aids
Chicago Secure
Easy Victory, 5-1Rain Ends Doubles Matches, Wisconsin Leading
First Set 5-1

Leading by a 5 to 1 score when rain called a halt to the remaining matches, the Chicago racqueteers led by George Lott, third ranking player, easily outplayed those from Wisconsin at the Varsity courts yesterday. A crowd of about 600 saw the matches.

The feature match between George Lott and Bab McMillan was no disappointment to the fans from the point of view of good playing. Lott, a top heavy favorite, did not have to extend himself appreciably in order to win, and several times the volleys of the two players had the spectators cheering lustily. Lott himself was wont to give praise to his less experienced adversary, several times exclaiming "pretty shot" or "well played" when McMillan smashed over an unreturnable ball. McMillan's backhand stood up surprisingly well when Lott directed his attack at Bob's port side. The Chicagoan won in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1.

Rexinger Defeats Freeborn

Rexinger of Chicago exhausted the husky Freeborn, to win after three sets had been played, in the best match of the day. Freeborn won the first set by virtue of his powerful service, which enabled him to come to the net and slam back the return. In the second set the steady forehand drive of Rexinger proved too clever for the overhead slams of Freeborn, who tired himself in a vain attempt to overcome an early lead of 3 to 0 which the Chicago netman had amassed. Freeborn brought the score (Continued on Page 7)

Delta Sig's Win
Behind Herber;
Get 7-3 Victory

Due mostly to the superb pitching of "Arnie" Herber, Delta Sigma Phi took a 7 to 3 victory over Phi Delta Epsilon Friday noon in an interfraternity diamond ball game. The losers had a 2 to 0 lead in the first inning, but this soon faded as the Delta Ep's put four men over the plate in the next inning.

Herber was invincible during the entire game. He was touched for only five hits during the innings that he worked, striking out eight batsmen. Radder behind the bat for the Delta Epsilon's, was a big factor in his team's victory.

Lineups, Delta Sigma Phi, 7: Radder c, Herber p, Schmidt 1b, Hamel 2b, Ackman ss, Teska 3b, Polney lf, Siren rs, Jess cf, Mumford rf.

Phi Delta Epsilon, 3: Margoles 2b, Vogel c, Shulak 3b, Sverdlin ss, Zubatsky cf, Mannis rf, Schutkin sc, Tonkovogy lf, Hiller 1b, Shapiro p.

Davidson, Homers,

Way to 15-3 Win

Scoring 15 runs in rather easy fashion, Delta Upsilon defeated Alpha Chi Rho Friday noon 15 to 3. The winners started their bombardment in the second inning when they scored five runs on the same number of hits, following this up with one more run in the next frame. The last inning proved to be the worst for the Alpha Chi Rho nine. The winners tallied nine runs in this inning, giving them a total of 15 runs on 26 hits.

Davidson's home run featured the day's hitting fest. It was one of the longest drives made in the diamond league this season.

Lineups, Delta Upsilon, 15: Ricker, Folsom, Seatou, Neuenfeldt, Paschen, Davidson, Bassett, Murphay, Budlong, Ramsey.

Alpha Chi Rho, 3: Pawlowski, Orth, Lufskin, Rather, Ramlow, Polmer, Bliffert, Tueloff, Kudolf, Shobart.

School for Workers

The "Wisconsin Idea" in Action—No Empty Phrase Here

WISCONSIN as a state has pioneered in many fields of human activity. As a state it has had a university which has constantly been a sturdy and courageous lieutenant. That is all a part of the "Wisconsin Idea." And with the recent decision to add a second year's work to the School for Industrial Workers in the regular summer session, Wisconsin is following precedent.

The school is not many years old. The whole idea of making a university's facilities available to workers in industry during the summer months is not old. To date the institutions of higher learning which have adopted this policy toward the education of industrial workers could be numbered on the fingers of one hand. But one other institution, Bryn Mawr, offers a second year of work.

The moving force in the development of such a policy at Wisconsin has been Prof. Don D. Lescohier. In the summer of 1924 Prof. Lescohier arranged that 18 girls employed in Madison be admitted to the regular summer school classes in the university. Remoteness of subject matter from practical experience and unfamiliarity of the students with academic work curtailed the success of the experiment. It was for these reasons that a local advisory committee, co-operating with the university summer session, evolved a course of study including special courses in economics, English, and physical education. The new arrangement was offered in 1925 and 41 girls enrolled. Content and presentation were especially designed to draw out latent abilities in the group.

Since 1925 the school has been perfecting method and curriculum. In 1927 men for the first time were admitted. Last year the enrollment was 44 women and two men, from 22 cities in five states. This year a field agent has been added to act as a liaison officer between the university and the various community organizations which furnish scholarships for workers. Besides the state communities co-operating in the plan, groups in St. Paul, Chicago, Cleveland, and Columbus, O., have shown interest in the project.

To Prof. Lescohier and his assistants, to the advisory committee of the school, and to the communities within the state who have made the idea a reality, The Daily Cardinal extends its most wholehearted support. It is in co-operative projects like this one that the University of Wisconsin consistently makes the "Wisconsin Idea" more than a smooth phrase.

Phi Beta Kappa Initiates

The Key of Gold May Mean More Than a Watch Charm

ALTHOUGH the golden key of scholarship which the 50 newly elected members of Phi Beta Kappa may now wear is not infallibly a mark of learning, the Wisconsin seniors and juniors who were initiated Thursday night are entitled to wholehearted congratulation from the student body of the university. Such reward and recognition of academic industry as Phi Beta Kappa membership implies is in this day all too rare in the American college scene.

Phi Beta Kappa and its key frequently have been the target of wags both on and off the campus. Smart facility of expression and varnish-like smoothness of manner are often held in greater respect. Scholarship—years of study, intimate acquaintance with special fields of knowledge—is more easily scorned than emulated. Indifference is easier than study, mental lethargy more common than true intellectual curiosity.

Yet this scholarship, of which the new members of Phi Beta Kappa have given initial promise, has contributed generously to the broadening of man's horizons. The Daily Cardinal extends its congratulations to this group of juniors and seniors, and wishes to express the hope that none will slacken the pace which he has set.

Student Independent Discredited

WE read with considerable satisfaction Prof. Alexander Meiklejohn's denial, as Chairman of the Experimental college, of the charges against Prof. Carl Russell Fish printed in the current issue of "The Student Independent" and quoted in The Daily Cardinal. We hope Prof. Meiklejohn's clear and emphatic statement will serve its purpose of discrediting the "Student Independent" story.

We are glad that The Daily Cardinal has been given the opportunity to circulate Prof. Meiklejohn's letter. We agree with him in believing that The Daily Cardinal, while not responsible for bringing the charges against Prof. Fish, is best able to publish its refutation.

Coming to the Point

When Roy Goodlad capsized in his speed-boat, "Cap" Isabell investigated the charge that the muffer was illegally off the engine. Lucky he rescued him first.

THAT OLD $1

"Roundy" of the State Journal doesn't believe Coach Allison when he says Big Ten boxing matches may be free next year. "Any time you get it into your bean these Big Ten schools ain't after that old $1 you struck out with the bases full," says the irrepressible columnist, with probably more truth than poetry—which isn't saying much.

NOT QUITE DEAD

W. S. G. A. votes that men may stay in registered women's houses until 12:30. Now the men will want to stay until 12:35. Will W. S. G. A. vote to allow them?

What a whale of a difference a few minutes make!

VERSATILITY

Dr. Lorenz is head of the Wisconsin Psychiatric institute and backbone of the Discipline committee, according to Dean S. H. Goodnight.

The Liberal club is circulating another petition. This statement has been set up in type and will henceforth be printed here instead of in the news columns of The Daily Cardinal.

Getting Out a Paper

Getting out a paper is no picnic. If we print jokes, folks say we are light-minded. If we don't, they say we are too serious. If we publish original matter, they say we lack variety.

If we publish things from other papers, we are too lazy to write.

If we are rustling news, we are not attending to business in our own department.

If we don't print contributions, we don't show proper appreciation.

If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.

Like as not some fellow will say we took this from another paper.

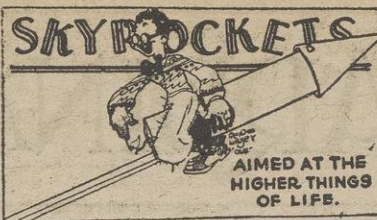

We did.

Do you want to be popular with your friends? That's right, of course. Follow this simple program: Monday—advertise in the Cardinal for a lost Phi Beta Kappa pin. This is impressive. Tuesday—advertise in the Cardinal for a lost "W" club pin. Hint that Lionel Strongfort is an old family friend. This is aggressive. Wednesday—announce in the Cardinal that your Cadillac roadster is for rent. This is the key to the front door of six sororities at least. Thursday—Play poker and win 30c. Friday—obtain date. This should be easy if the week's program is adhered to. Saturday—Break date and arrange for week-end in our sister institution across the lake.

It was 2 a. m. in Verona and the beautiful farmer's daughter was just bidding her boy friend farewell on the veranda when father's night-capped head appeared from above.

"Figh, Figh, Alpha!" was his exclamation in broken English.

"No, father, Phi Delta Theta," was the surprising reply.

Something has to be done about the peanut monopoly at Camp Randall. It's a terrible condition. We waited until the 8th inning of the ball game last Tuesday before sustenance could be procured. Never again will a wait be necessary.

Five Easy Ways to Obtain Peanuts

1. Display front row ticket for next year's Haresfoot show. This is a reliable lure. Follow immediately with an axe murder. Plead that you thought he was the umpire.
2. Obtain a date. Have her weep copiously for three innings. This softens the vendor's heart and encourages the team at the same time.
3. Poison his stock before the game. After a few deaths in the audience no one else will want any and the way is clear.
4. Bring your own peanuts.
5. Bring your own peanuts.

If all the old razor blades in Madison were piled in the rear of Bascom hall, many professors would cut their feet. If they were piled in the rear of Adams hall, it might be a good sign.

Rev. Miley to Offer Sermon at Luther Memorial Church

The Rev. George W. Miley of the Augsburg English Evangelical Lutheran church of Toledo, Ohio, will give the sermon at the Luther Memorial church on Sunday morning, May 12. The topic of the sermon is "Conquerors Through Christ." Donald Larson, organist, has arranged music in keeping with Mother's day. An anthem by West, "The Wood and Every Sweet Smelling Tree," will be sung by the choir.

Readers' Say-So

Mr. Meiklejohn Replies

Editor, The Daily Cardinal:

I can not allow to go unchallenged two statements which you quote [from The Student Independent] in this morning's issue relating to Prof. Carl Russell Fish and his connection with the Experimental college.

In my opinion it is absurd and untrue to say that Mr. Fish "sidestepped questions put to him by members of the Experimental college." Nothing could be further from the truth as a description of his attitude and action.

At the close of the discussion on the Constitution it was evident that there were further questions to be asked and answered. Mr. Fish told the students of his willingness and eagerness to deal with these and he has repeatedly urged me to find a place for their discussion in the program. As a matter of fact, during the past week arrangements have been made for five meetings for this purpose under Mr. Fish's leadership, and I am announcing them this morning.

Secondly, I know that Mr. Fish's decision that it was desirable for him to give his full time to his work on the hill next year was made prior to the incidents referred to in the story which you quote and could have had no possible connection with them.

—Alexander Meiklejohn.

Patriotic Shivers

Editor, The Daily Cardinal:

Mr. Wright's letter on R. O. T. C. parades was good; it seemed unusual. It was not expected that a member of the R. O. T. C. would write it. Whether Mr. Wright's change "from patriotic militarism to a sound philosophy of progressive pacifism" will insure him from fighting a foe against whom he bears no grudge is doubtful.

Mr. Wright wants to know why he should learn to march, to take commands, to fire a gun, and he is told that he is preparing to defend his country. He wants to know what it must be defended against; and he is told that someone would chase across the Atlantic or Pacific and just snatch it if there were no military defense.

Let there be thanks for the chilly breezes that blew off Lake Mendota the Thursday that Mr. Wright and the others of the R. O. T. C. held a spring review. They replaced the shivers of patriotism that "ordinarily" would be evoked by the strains of the band.

If one fights, one fights because he's sore or because he wants to get something that has been taken away. Not many actually fight because they like to. They're fighting because they have been led to believe they are fighting for honor, for reputation of the institution they attend, for country, or some other thing that might be taken away. Mr. Wright came to view as a strange spectacle the drill, the practice of using weapons, the parades of the R. O. T. C. There seemed to be no reason for all that extensive activity except the words: To protect our country in case of War; and they didn't seem entirely convincing.

—Ivan Rosenthal.

Editor, The Daily Cardinal:

Dean S. H. Goodnight says that only "minor peccadillos are left to the deans." And it is these peccadillos that the excitement is about. Trying a man for murder is left to the courts and the jury, but the "third degree" is left to the cops. "Often," we read in The Daily Cardinal, "the deans administer a spanking where spanking is due." Aye, sir, it is the nature of that spanking that we would like to question. To what limit is it frequently stretched?

—"It's a boy."

Euclid's Perfection

[Written for The Daily Cardinal]

By JOHN BRYAN

Subtract the strict hypotenuse
And add an angle on the ear!
Then, after that, with no excuse
Add minus one to make it clear.
Three times the cosign minus X
Will lend you minus minus five,
And then to that you may annex
A tangent if you're still alive.
Now intersect the tangent briefly,
And if your very good indeed,
I'll let you use a circle, chiefly
Because I think that it may lead
To some well rounded misconception
Of what the whole thing is about;
I wish to cloud your clear perception.
Sling in three zeros, pull them out
And still pretend you see them swimming
Within the thin circumferal rim.

Now, with an edge of thought still skimming

Along this line, dip down and trim
The angle of a leg. If he can't Stand up, just put it back again.
A darling, helpful little secant
You'll find will shoulder half your pain!
But O be kind to it—for secants
Are sensitive as pained antennae,
And they will scurry off with frequency
If they are burdened with too many Hypotenuses. Zero! Zero!
O sweet sweet music to my ears!
A thousand problems to the hero
Who by a sign assuaged my tears!

BY THE RAMBLER

Two bold lads shoved off from shore Thursday night at about 8 o'clock in a yellow canoe. Somehow or other the eyes of "Cap" Isabell and his companions on the dock at the boathouse were riveted on the Indian vehicle when it tipped over about two yards out and immersed its two unsuspecting passengers. A loud laugh went up from the dock and "Cap" Isabell felicitated them, "You saved the university about a gallon of gas that time, boys."

Art Stevens, the man behind the desk at the Memorial Union and also the telephone operator, received a letter the other day addressed to the "Telephone operator," which read in part: "I am going to send you if you only give me permission on the enclosed card something for your wardrobe. Four pairs of exquisite new . . . silk stockings . . . and four fair-spun vests, bloomers, or French panties . . . tailored to give an effect of a long slim line and lovely contour. Simple, but oh, so effective! . . . Yours for a pleasant surprise, Florence M."

A couple of the boys were playing baseball on the lower campus yesterday afternoon when a ball lodged itself in the crevice of a branch in one of the trees and refused to come down. Milo Lubratovich '31, came along with a pair of track shoes, but try as he might in throwing the "spikes" up in the tree, the sphere refused to budge itself. Mark Temkin '31, climbed the tree but he was unable to reach the hiding place. He did, however, shake it down with the aid of a huge piece of lumber.

The Frosh formal last night was a dance "for freshmen only." So all the leaders of the university's activities who were there are members of the class of 1932!

The apple of the eyes of the Sig Chis (it rhymes!) is the new 12-foot bar in the basement. Other embellishments are dilapidated card tables, and old furniture contrituted by fraters.

Every afternoon at 4 o'clock the Adams hall faculty baseball team may be seen practicing at their field in preparation for the game with the Experimental college freshmen. Among those who have been trying their skill recently are: Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn, and the Messrs. R. Agard, Douglas Orr, Ralph Crowley, John Powell, R. J. Havinghurst. It is expected, say the freshmen, that they will fill the rest of the line-up with ringers.

From the Pi Kappa Alpha domicile comes this rare intelligence. Ralph Richards '32, came home rather tired at about 7 p. m. the other night and decided to take a little nap before his 8 p. m. date. When he awoke he asked one of his brethren what time it was and received the reply, "Eight o'clock." Breathless, he rushed to shave and found it was 8 o'clock the NEXT morning.

When Phil Fox, Li, aroused himself yesterday morning at the Alpha Epsilon Pi house he found that the house cat had given birth to kittens in his room. Simultaneous with the news release comes the information that Lawrence "Bruiser" Grossman, Med 1, is offering the "college-bred kittens" to any one who will call for them and promise a good home.

Lougee Stedman '30, election chairman, must be afraid some of the campus politicians will shoot him or something. During the weekend when petitions for the spring campus elections were due, he was found to be out of town. This weekend with the petitions for the special athletic board election due, he is again out of town.

Did you ever use a bow tie as a regular long tie? Bill Payne '30, did so in order to comply with the rules of the R. O. T. C. during the review Thursday afternoon. He found that Steve Freeman '30, had borrowed the only black tie in the house and to avoid a reprimand, Bill tied the short black bow mechanism so that the front part covered the exposed part of his shirt. In back of the part that was visible was just the protruding edge of the other end of the tie.

Maroons, Rain Defeat Badger Tennis Squad

to 3 to 4 only to lose the set, 6-3. The third and deciding set found both men playing at their peak. The steady baseline game of Rexinger finally overcame Freeborn whose erratic play was fatal to his game. Rexinger won 5-7, 6-3, 7-5.

Meiklejohn Off

Don Meiklejohn was far off his game in losing in straight sets to Captain Callahan of Chicago. Scoring numerous double faults and over-driving the baseline continually was the main cause of Meiklejohn's defeat. Callahan, playing a steady game typical of his team, won, 6-1, 6-2.

Once again steady driving won for Chicago when Heymans beat Hewes, whose smashing was effective when within the court. The Wisconsin southpaw looked good in the second set which he won six to two but Heymans' steady drives won out for him, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2.

Segal Wins

Segal gave Wisconsin its only victory of the day when he earned a well-deserved win of 6-2, 2-6, 8-6. This was Segal's first varsity appearance, but by his style of play he looked like a veteran in disposing of Allison. Segal demonstrated an all-around game, having no apparent weaknesses.

Rain Halts Hostilities

The last singles match between Kaplan of Chicago and Gottlieb of Wisconsin was called during the third set after Kaplan had one the first set 6-3, and Gottlieb the second, 6-4. Gottlieb was leading 3-0 when rain called a halt.

The first doubles match was won by Chicago who was represented by George Lott and Callahan. McMillan and Freeborn fought valiantly and managed to win a set, only to lose out in the end. Lott was the big gun of the match, smashing over placements that had the Wisconsin team helpless. The score was 6-4, 2-6, 6-4 for Chicago.

The second doubles match was put to an end by rain when Wisconsin was leading in the first set, 5-1. Three matches were left unplayed but even if Wisconsin won all of them Chicago would still be on top. Chicago was declared the winner, 5 matches to 1.

"Army" crew. Simmons, New York city, a promising recruit forward, will be at center.

Conway of Madison and Smith, Freeport, Ill., are the probable starters at tackle on the "Army" eleven. Snieder, Wausau, Rottman, Milwaukee and Lutz, Chicago, will see some action in the line. Swiderski, Duluth, and Franklin, Milwaukee, are the outstanding guards on the "Army" squad, with the exception of Capt. John Parks, who will undoubtedly watch most of the game from the bench, while the new men are under fire.

Schmitz, a local boy, and Gantenbein, a "W" man on the 1928 varsity, will be at the wings for the "Navy." The forward wall will be made up of Tobias, La Crosse, and Krueger, Madison, tackles; Swenson, heavyweight wrestler from Ettrick, and Baer, Bloomer, guards; and Hansen, center. The starting time of the contest will be 4 p. m.

20 YEARS IS a LOT of TIME

Twenty years
is a lot of time—particularly in show business.

So when a Madison
showman comes right
out and says that
"SHOW BOAT" is the
BEST PICTURE MADE IN TWENTY YEARS
it makes you stop
and think.

And when thousands upon thousands of Madison theatre-goers
agree with him it makes you think even harder. But when you see "SHOW BOAT" doing three times the business that any previous attraction
at the CAPITOL THEATRE
—or any other theatre
in Madison—has ever done before, then it begins to look as though that showman and those theatre-goers have hit
the nail on the nozzle.
"SHOW BOAT" IS the BEST PICTURE MADE in TWENTY YEARS.

And 20 years is all there is in motion picture history—there isn't any more!

Wisconsin Nine Faces Minnesota at Camp Randall

undisputed second place, after being jolted from a tie for the lead when they dropped a ten-inning contest to Northwestern Tuesday.

Since the Wildcats six-hit-five-run rally in the tenth inning overtook the Cardinals for their first loss this season, Wisconsin has been tied with Indiana for the second rung of the conference ladder. The Hoosiers and Wisconsin have a record of three victories and a single defeat.

Minnesota in Cellar

Minnesota is alone in the cellar. They have dropped two games to Ohio State, and although they put up a stubborn fight against Iowa last week, and forced the Hawks to work their best pitcher, Twogood, the Gophers lost their third game 5 to 3.

Ossell will probably go to the mound for Minnesota, although there is the possibility that Bjorgum will also take charge of the hurling. For Wisconsin, either "Ted" Thelander or Ray Ellerman will pitch. Ellerman stopped Notre Dame here May 1, and is a pitcher of some experience in Big Ten competition.

Thelander pitched a good brand of ball when Wisconsin encountered Northwestern Tuesday, and held the Purple to eight hits, well scattered, until he was jerked in the tenth inning in favor of Farber.

Save Farber For Illinois

Farber, sophomore, will be held over for the Illinois game next Monday. He recently stopped the Suckers in his second three-hit game this season. Farber went in for Thelander in time to meet the tenth inning rally of Northwestern Tuesday, and he was nicked for six hits that brought in five runs.

With Evans catching, the remainder of the line-up will probably remain the same, although Harry Ellerman, who plays at second, has slowed down lately because of an ankle injury which he received last fall. Werner is the alternative at the keystone sack.

Conference Rules of Southern Loop to Be Determined

Austin, Tex.—Rules to govern the Southwestern conference next year will be determined at the spring meeting of conference officials in Dallas Saturday, May 11, according to Dr. D. A. Penick of the University of Texas, president of the conference.

The conference medal in track will be awarded to the winning school in that sport at the banquet to be held for the officials following the conference meet at the Southern Methodist university Saturday afternoon.

At the business session of the conference Saturday morning, various rules applying to eligibility of athletes will be discussed. Among these will probably be consideration of whether or not summer session work will count toward eligibility requirements and whether or not a student from the junior colleges entering a member school of the conference shall be eligible to participate in conference sports during his first year in that school.

WINGS of WAX

A Novel by JANET HOYT

"Can this be true?" is the question asked by all who read this powerful novel of co-educational college life in America today. It is written by a former member of the faculty of a great co-educational university under a non-de-plume.

"Portrays the social life of a great Co-University with a superb vividness—Daring in its exposure."
—Columbia Spectator.

"'WINGS OF WAX' is sufficient evidence that our Universities would stand investigating."
—Oberlin Review.

"There isn't a thing in 'WINGS OF WAX' which does not happen many times in every college."
—Brown Daily Herald.

You who know, read it and see if it touches you on the raw.
