CHICAGO BALL GAME TODAY AT RANDALL

Williams to Open Maroon
Contest at 1:30 This Afternoon

"Bill" Williams will pitch his first conference game of the season when the Wisconsin baseball team meets Chicago this afternoon at Camp Randall. The contest is scheduled to begin at 1:30.

Coach Guy S. Lowman has decided to start Williams today, reserving Arthur Christianson '23 and Forrest G. Paddock '23 for the two games with Purdue on Saturday and Michigan on Monday. Allan C. Davey '21 will be behind the bat. The Badger infield will remain the same as that which has played in previous games. J. Williams '22 will play first base, Carson Lyman '21 is slated to field at the second sack, Edgar Farrington '22 will be short stop, and George Ruediger '23 handles the far corner.

In the outfield, Captain "Rowdy" Elliott '22 and William Snow '21 are sure to start. Left field is the only doubtful position. If the rains of this week have made the outer garden soft and muddy, Rolland F. Williams '23 will start in left field. Carl F. Ceaser '22 is handicapped by an injured ankle, which was hurt in the Illinois game, and as a result Williams has the edge because of his superior speed.

Chicago Has Strong Team

Although Chicago was defeated by Northwestern in a 10 to 9 combat on Tuesday, the Maroons have a strong nine. Northwestern benefited by the breaks in the Chicago game, and aided by some weird baseball on the part of the Maroon infield, the Purple team was enabled to squeeze out a victory.

"Chicago has a dangerous combination," said Coach Lowman yesterday afternoon. "They have been saving their best pitcher to beat us, and when they scored ten runs against Northwestern, the Maroons displayed hitting power. Comparing the Purple nine with Chicago on the basis of their showing against

ATHLETIC REVIEW COMES OUT TODAY

The Wisconsin Athletic Review is out today. Copies of the last and largest number of the year may be purchased at Randall field during the Northwestern track meet and the Chicago baseball game this afternoon. The price is 25 cents.

Of special interest is the Review this week-end because it contains a complete program of all the attractions for today and tomorrow. Since it is intended to be a track number, there are also articles concerning Wisconsin's spring athletic teams and particularly the track team.

MAMSELLE!

Petite Demoiselles in Canoes to Sell Ice Cream and Eats
Venetian Night

"Popcorn, chewing gum, ice cream cones, root-beer, candy—everything to eat!"

If a pretty girl in an Alsacian costume comes up to you in a motor boat Venetian night, when you are floating languidly around in your canoe on the lake, and offers you an ice cream cone, pay her your dime and say "Merci, mamselle!" for it will be a petite demoiselle from the French house.

Captain Isabel has given the French house women all the privileges of the university boat house dock. There they will establish a gay and jolite booth—tiny second Paris, one has said. In addition to the booth, les belles mademoiselles will go through the crowd with trays, vending all manner of good things to eat. Also, there will be canoes and motor boats for them to use to sell things on the lake. All Venetian day and night, too, ma chérie!

And don't forget that the French are famed for their choice cookery, and there things will undoubtedly have a French zest of flavor!

CINDER MEN MEET PURPLE

Prospects Good for Last
Dual Event of Season
Today at 3:30

Every varsity track and field man will enter the last dual track meet of the season with Northwestern at 3:30 this afternoon on the Camp Randall track. Coach Thomas E. Jones has decided to give every Badger athlete a chance in the final home competition against the Purple.

Northwestern, which lost the first two meets of the season to Purdue and Iowa, showed a sudden reversal of form on Tuesday and decisively trounced Chicago by a 79 1-2 to 59 1-2 score. The Methodists have just rounded into condition and are expected to give Wisconsin a close battle. Poliak, the Northwestern big point winner in the dashes, has run 100 yards in 10 1-5 seconds. Grausnick if another Purple "speeder" who is entered in the dashes.

Good Competition

Szold, quarter miler, will furnish stiff opposition to Paul D. Kayser '21 in his event, and Daley, Brewster, and Telford have hung up records in the half mile which compare favorably with the time made by Capt. Clyde Nash '21. Townley and Blackwood are Northwestern's mainstays in the weights. Townley has entered the discus throw, shot put, hammer throw, in addition to the high jump, pole vault, and broad jump. He has been defeated in the weights by Guy M. Sundt '21 in previous meets, but the Badger's

ALL VENETIAN NIGHT ENTRIES DUE TODAY

Officials Anticipate Finest Lake Display Ever Held on Mendota

"There is still an opportunity for organizations and individuals to enter canoes and floats in the Venetian night parade tomorrow night," said Arthur Kinnan '22, manager, yesterday. "We will continue to take entries until tonight at B. 5365."

The canoe tournament tomorrow morning at 9:30 has brought out a great many entries, and all the events will be run off on schedule time.

There are still opportunities to enter the tournament by calling Gordon Wanzer '24, at B. 191. "There are comparatively few entries in all the girl's classes," said Wanzer yesterday, "and we are especially desirous of getting a large number of entries for this event." Contrary to a statement issued two days ago, the girl's singles race will be run.

20 STATE ORATORS TO COMPETE TODAY IN DECLAM EVENT

Forensic Board Will Hold Reception This Afternoon for Visiting Students

The state oratorical and declamatory contests, in which 20 students from high schools all over the state are entered, will be held today at 2:30 p. m. and 8:15 p. m. at the Wisconsin high school. No admission will be charged. Members of the Forensic board will welcome the contestants at a reception in Lathrop parlors this afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30.

Every section of the state will be represented. New Richmond, Platteville, Darlington, Shawano, Eau Claire, Green Bay, Onalaska, Grantsburg, Reedsburg, are some of the cities which are sending representatives to the contest.

The judges for the contest will be: Oratorical, Prof. J. M. O'Neill, Miss Gertrude E. Johnson, Miss Gladys Borchers, Robert Williams, David Edwards; declamatory, Miss Gertrude Johnson, Mrs. Homer Sylvester, Mrs. Robert F. Seybolt, Mrs. George F. Potter, Davis Edwards.

The preliminary contests in which the winners from the various districts throughout the state were chosen were held in the Normal schools of each district.

Various organizations on the campus will entertain the high school students while they are here.

RESERVED BADGERS MUST BE CLAIMED

About 200 one dollar Badger reservations have not yet been claimed and those who wish their Badgers are advised to get them immediately as the open sale is disposing very quickly of the remaining copies.

Approximately 300 Badgers have been sold in this first day's open sale. Only 15 of the $4.50 stubs have not been checked. Office hours at Music hall tomorrow are between 12 and 5.

FLOAT PARADE OPENS DISPLAY ON MENDOTA

Many Elaborate Features
Planned for Venetian Night Celebration

Fifteen brilliantly lighted and decorated floats will swing into line at 8:30 tomorrow night in front of the hydraulics laboratory, and proceed along the lake front amid a play of lights from a power barge with a 10-piece orchestra on the tow boat playing its gayest tunes, and Wisconsin's bi-annual Venetian night spectacle will be in progress.

No effort has been spared by the committee in charge and its chairman, Arthur Kinnan '22, to make the celebration an elaborate and interesting one for the high school track men who will be here tomorrow to compete in the annual Inter-scholastic meet.

Starts at Eight

The evening's entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock with a concert by the University band on the platform on the lake shore behind the gymnasium.

The parade will follow the concert immediately at 8:30. Every float will appear electrically lighted, with current supplied from a 20 horsepower generator on a floating barge at the end of the parade. Fire extinguishers will be distributed on the floats by "Cap" Isabel and Gus Tuckerman '23, who are superintending the parade, to prevent accidents by fire.

Individual Decoration

The floats will be individually decorated by their owners, and will be judged during the parade by Gertrude Johnson of the dramatic department, Frances E. Tucker '21, and Major John S. Wood. The prizes to be given are silver cups for the best decorated canoe and pier and a traveling cup now held by Gamma Phi Beta for the best decorated float.

Fancy diving from the Sigma Chi pier and an exhibition by the university gym team on a floating platform in front of the gym are features planned to follow the parade at 9 o'clock. Both stunts will

"Credit for the pictures of Miss H'Doubler's dancing classes appearing in the Women's section of the 1922 Badger belongs to the Bell studio," Tom Coxon '22 stated yesterday. "Due to an oversight on the printer's part, the copyright on these pictures was omitted. With the copyright on the pictures and the book itself, no person under any circumstances can copy the pictures."

Mr. Bell has developed this special type of diffused photography. In applying it to dance groups, he has devoted much of his time to Miss H'Doubler's dance group.

HOROSCOPE FOR TODAY

THIS is no joke, writing the HOROSCOPE for today the day before. But some of these people just die trying to find out what is to become of them on this earth. And that would well fit all those born on this day, we mean "passing" out. The most peculiar thing noticeable among the men born on this day is that very few of them live to be old maids, in fact, it is of very rare occurrence. As to the women, it is the rule that none born on this date will ever play baseball of a proficiency great enough to allow them to get into the big leagues, although many of them will become experts with the baseball bat in later life. Also, a fair percentage of the people born on this date will adopt the peculiar custom of celebrating the event on May, the twenty-seventh, of each year. This custom has grown into a national habit.

IT has been suggested that we right this column on tissue paper, that you might see through the jokes. Not a half bad idea, is it?

NO, on second thought, it isn't half bad. It is all bad.

But there is one thing. Writing them on tissue paper would not mean that stale ones might not slip by. Anything that slips by here is not guaranteed to be absolutely fresh, nor do we redeem the remarks made herein.

LOST fourteen cents in a game of solitaire just now. Also two hours of valuable time. How can we ever get those fourteen cents back?

ISN'T the lake just too wonderful.....for anything but swimming?

WENT in yester aft, and with the aid of an ice pick and a small bonfire, finally managed to get the bathing suit off again; it was a one-piece suit when we went in, but after it was off we counted up and found that it was about a five-piece one.

GYM FIELD DAY TO TAKE PLACE ON LOWER CAMPUS

Jones Will Present Medals to Highest in Men's Classes

Gymnastic field day program presented by the entire men's general gym classes will take place on the lower campus next Tuesday afternoon at 4:30.

One of the features of the program will be the presentation of the physical efficiency medals to gym students who have ranked highest as being all round physically fit and capable. The selection is made on the basis of 12 tests which have been held throughout the year. The tests are made for the purpose of determining the student's ability to handle his body skillfully as well as his general physical fitness. Coach Thomas E. Jones will present the awards.

The purpose of the gymnastic field day and the awarding of medals to the best products of the general gymnasium classes is to foster an interest in athletics among students who are not taking part in varsity athletics but are interested in athletics and keeping physically fit.

The program will be opened by the Second Regimental band under the direction of John Morphy of the School of Music. The program which consists of six events will include an inter-class mass race in which 100 men will run and a mass drill by 500 gym students under the direction of Prof. F. E. Schlatter, director of the general gym classes.

NO ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES

Owing to the fact that there was no eligible candidate for the office of president of the student body of the University of Southern California, nominations were postponed for a week. All those contemplating running for the office either withdrew of their own accord or were declared ineligible by the student executive committee. Two of the most prominent candidates were rejected because they will not have senior standing at the end of the semester.

HIGH SCHOOL W. A. A. PRESENTS 2 PLAYS

The W. A. A. girls of the Wisconsin high school will present two one-act plays in the open air theater Friday night at 6:45. The two plays to be given are "Gringoire — The Ballad Monger," taken from the French of De Banville, by Arthur Sherley, and "The Knave of Hearts."

The plays are to be given in order to raise funds for the Wisconsin High School W. A. A. Admission price is 25 cents.

"A JEWEL OF CHICAGO" Is Title Applied to Wrigley Building

Wrigley's new office building in Chicago is at the new Boulevard Link Bridge, Michigan avenue and the river and heads the vista looking north on Michigan avenue, so Mr. Wrigley chose a beautiful design which makes the building a decorative feature of the Chicago lake front and harmonizes with the Chicago Beautiful plan.

Wrigley Building

The main building is 16 stories high, surmounted by a tower 42 feet square and rising 398 feet from the street level. This tower will contain a clock with dials on four sides, each 20 feet in diameter and will be surmounted by a searchlight lantern 9 feet in diameter.

The building is covered with enamel finish terra cotta on all four sides. It is regarded as one of the most beautiful buildings in Chicago and people and press are enthusiastic about it. The Chicago Tribune published a picture labeling it a "A Jewel of the Link."

Wrigley also recently completed new factories at Chicago and New York.

All this new construction work in the space of a few years is certainly a tribute to the power of advertising and the accumulative effect of a multitude of 5-cent sales.

THE REVIEW

THE year's military activities will reach a high-water mark this afternoon when the annual ogvernment inspection of the cadet corps takes place on lower campus.

In past years some students have been want to regard the military branch of university life as an unnecessary feature of educational makeup. They have discounted the real benefits accruing to the participants; they have failed to adequately comprehend that the regular routine of the department helps to make for regularity in the classroom; they have also, in some instances, belittle the military department on general principles.

Fortunately, opposition to military training of a limited degree when it is encouraged not to make soldiers, but rather to help mold men, has dwindled to a minus quantity.

The military department at Wisconsin has aided materially in overcoming the opposition to its form of physical training by making it in every way agreeable without in any manner sacrificing any essential discipline, and as a result the Badger corps was last year awarded a distinguished rating by the war department.

This significant honor is conferred only on fifteen schools throughout the United States, and those attaining it have every reason to be proud of their accomplishments.

The review this afternoon will determine whether or not Wisconsin is again to be ranked among the leaders. The student body can aid materially by turning out to witness the event.

THE WISCONSIN ORATORIAL CONTEST

THE university has always supported with great enthusiasm the various athletic contests among the high schools and normal schools of the state. It would vitally reflect upon the narrowness of our interests if we did not equally support the less spectacular but no less worthy state oratorical and declamatory contest that will take place today in the auditorium of the Wisconsin high school.

We should not only go to welcome the silver-tongued orators to Madison but by an encouraging attitude make them feel perfectly at home. All the contestants are winners in the several Normal districts of Wisconsin; so we feel sure that they will make a creditable showing.

Forensics at Wisconsin need new, vigorous blood. To encourage these young orators today may mean that we shall have the benefit of their merit when they graduate from their respective schools.

Ten boys are scheduled to compete this afternoon at 2:30 and ten girls will compete at 8:15 this evening.

Let us have a good representation at this contest. Let us show these young orators and declamers that the university is behind them.

Those who are unable to attend both contests should at least attend one, either in the afternoon or evening. Admission is free.

Squad in Good Shape

Every Wisconsin runner is in good shape. The Badgers took light workouts during the past week, as Coach Jones intends to let the men taper off in their work for the Big Ten meet on Friday and Saturday, June 3 and 4.

"Northwestern has a coming squad," said Coach Jones yesterday. "The Purple got off to a bad start this season, but their decisive defeat of Chicago showed that they have a good team. I expect Wisconsin to win, but the meet should be close."

SHE LIKES KNICKERS BOTH FOR GOLF AND RIDING NOW

Each year the number of girls who adopt the knickerbocker costume for sports wear becomes larger. This year not only riding but golf and hiking also demand the knicker costume. It is just a guess that these knickers are a bit more dashing and far more comfortable than the old-fashioned skirts, and that is why the girls are taking to them with such enthusiasm. Pictured here is a smart tweed riding habit which would be suitable for spring and fall wear or summer wear in the mountains. It is a smart mode to have made up in linen also. White gabardine makes the knickers at the right. The neat golf stockings and mannish shirt complete the outfit.

JUNIOR VARSITY CREW IS GIVEN HARD WORK-OUT

Four Men Declared Ineligible in Race With St. John's Crew

In preparation for the race at Sunday with the St. John's Military academy, the junior varsity crew was given a chance by another day of belated spring weather to stretch out over a mile and a quarter course yesterday afternoon.

The old ineligibility bugbear and inclement weather have combined to handicap the crew's possibilities. Within the last two days four of the junior crew have been declared ineligible. The line will be shifted because of the change.

In spite of these drawbacks, "Dad" Vail is instilling confidence in the men as well as continuing with good stiff workout. The line for the two crews in the race Saturday will be as follows:

Wisconsin Junior Crew

C. E. Nelson, H. F. Hagemeister, E. O. Scheuneman, J. O. Baenoch, F. J. St. Amorr, R. O. Richards, A. S. Barn, O. J. Freckman, and M. A. Pollard.

CLOUDBURST

Students Don Bathing Suits and Go Canoeing on Langdon Street

Swimming and canoeing on dry land is ordinarily a paradox. Last night after a heavy cloudburst from rain-laden skies had flooded Langdon "river" in front of the "Y" and Lake street near the lake front, this stunt was literally made possible.

The rain, which came down in torrents, rapidly collected in great pools on these streets. By 9:30 o'clock the street in front of the "Y" was completely flooded, and the excess water was approaching the steps of the building.

Students abandoned their green lamps and their books to don bathing suits and frolic riotously in the miniature river. Canoes were safely launched. Paddling down Langdon and Lake street was no dream last night.

HARDING BANQUETS WITH FINANCIERS TO DISCUSS BUSINESS

Question of Foreign Loans Stressed at Dinner in White House

WASHINGTON—The administration's policy of promoting exportation as a means toward restoration of normal business conditions was discussed at a white house dinner Wednesday night attended by Secretaries Mellon and Hoover, J. P. Morgan, Paul Warburg and a number of other prominent financiers. President Harding was said to have talked over the whole subject with his guests.

It was understood that the discussion served to cement the belief of administration officials that one of the best measures available would be active cooperation between the government and business men for revival of export trade.

Others attending the dinner were James A. Alexander of the National Bank of Commerce; Charles A. Sabin of the Guaranty Trust Co., New York; Gov. Benjamin Strong, New York Federal Reserve bank; C. E. Mitchell, National City bank, New York; William Kent, of the Bankers Trust Co., New York, and H. C. McEldowney, Union Trust Co., Pittsburgh.

It is understood that one of the president's purposes in calling the conference was to discuss the contemplated loan of American private capital to foreign governments and the effect of a loan on the resumption of industrial conditions at home and on American export trade.

At The Theaters

AT THE GRAND

Stories of brotherly love have oft been repeated upon pages of books, the stage and the screen, but so nearly does "Not Guilty," now showing at the Grand, approach everyday life in its emotional intensity that the spectator forgets that it is repetition and only sees its realism.

The story, which is adapted from Harold MacGrath's Saturday Evening Post story "Parrot and Co." concerns two twin brothers, Paul and Arthur Allison. The former, industrious and home loving, supporting his sister and mother, the other an habitue of gambling resorts and cabarets. Arthur becomes mixed up in a shooting affair. In order to shield his brother Paul assumes the name of Arthur and flees the country. He lives under an assumed name in India for five years, and while traveling through a nearby city he meets his sweetheart of former years, who has become engaged to Arthur, thinking he is Paul. A deathbed confession from the real author of the crime, for which Paul was being sought, clears matters and Paul returns to America with the girl he loves. Richard Dix, matinee idol, plays a dual role, impersonating both brothers. Sylvia Bremer, Mollie Malone and Herbert Prior are in the supporting cast.

AT THE STRAND

Those who have enjoyed reading Robert W. Chambers' society stories as they appear in magazine and subsequently in book form will welcome the news that his recent brilliant story, "The Restless Sex," has been picturized and is now being shown at the Strand theater. Pretty Marion Davies is the star.

"The Restless Sex" centers around Stephanie Cleland, a vivacious society girl with an ambition to experience life to the full. Her love of excitement leads her into several thrilling adventures and an unfortunate marriage. However, true romance finally asserts itself, and the ending is a happy one.

Carlyle Blackwell and Ralph Kellard have the leading roles in support of Miss Davies.

The added attractions are a comedy cartoon and a Prizma natural colored picture.

BILL-O-FARE AT ORPH EXCELLENT

"Location," a satire on the movie, was one of the best acts in a show full of original acts at the Orpheum last night. The lines of the playlet and the music in the prologue were clever and lively, and the characters, the handsome young director, the girlish lead with the big ears, and the attractive little campfire, were all very well taken.

Willie Hale and Brother gave an act in which juggling and humor were more equally combined than usual. Willie Hale was really funny, and used his sleight-of-hand tricks for comic effect.

The sweet-tongued and anxiously-obliging canary, presented by Lorraine Evon, formed the center of a charming scene in which Miss Evon sang, and played the violin, accompanied by the "Golden Bird," in which number both she and the canary mimicked bird calls.

Men in Prison Buy Wreath for Dead Judge

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A wreath with a message of sympathy was sent by 281 prisoners at the district jail on Wednesday for the funeral of Ashley M. Gould, justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia. Many of the prisoners had been sentenced by the judge, but, remembering his fairness, they joined in contributing amounts ranging from pennies to quarters with which the tribute was purchased.

Blake, was the usual funny dialogue sort of scene, but both performers had enough personality to make it very successful.

Remarkable feats performed by a moniped formed the attraction of the Novelty act given by Bennington and Scott.

WELLS-FARGO STAGE COACH DAYS ARE BROUGHT BACK BY ARMED POSTAL GUARDS

Armed guard watching loading of mail car at Boston.

Postoffice employees in most of the larger cities of the country have been supplied with shotguns and small arms by the department to protect the mail from bandits. The presence of these men with shotguns where mail is loaded into trucks, wagons and trains recalls the "old days" when guarding of the Wells-Fargo chests on the mail coaches furnished thrilling chapters in the country's history.

ROGERS '93 TO GIVE ADDRESS MEMORIAL DAY

Program Arranged for Holiday May 31 by
Prof. Olson

Charles B. Rogers '92, a prominent alumnus of the university and at one time president of the Wisconsin Alumnae association, will return to address the students at the Memorial day service to be held on the campus Monday, May 31, at 11 o'clock.

The program, arranged by Professor Julius Olson, will be opened by a procession of wreath-bearers through the columns of honor, and President Birge will give the introductory speech.

"Their Service," the main address, will be given by Mr. Rogers and then the gold star roll and the wreath-bearing ceremony will take place. This last has been directed by Major George S. Bryan.

Mrs. Charles Post, patriotic instructor of the Woman's Relief corps, will make the presentation of the colors to the university post of the American Legion, and Lieutenant John W. Brann, commandant of the post, will accept them.

It is unfortunate that, on account of the holiday coming over the week end, a good many students will be out of town and this will interfere with the attendance at the exercises, but the university hopes very much that the students will be well represented.

Smoking camp fires and delicious odors of cooking food coming from along the bank of Oak creek attracted the attention of many passers along the Philomath road recently. The class of 40 members in camp cookery for men was cooking its first meal over a camp fire.

HIGH SCHOOL MEN ARRIVE FOR MEET

More Accommodations Needed for Athletes for Interscholastic Week-end

With the arrival of the majority contestants for the twenty-seventh annual Interscholastic track meet tomorrow, plans for the largest high school meet in the state are practically completed. Accommodations for many of the men are still lacking and the interscholastic committee urges every group that has arranged to take care of men to try to arrange to take several more. "We want to show these men Wisconsin at its best," said Meade Burke, Interscholastic manager yesterday, "and for that reason we do not want to give any of the men any other accommodations than the best the best the university can offer."

Anyone who can arrange to take care of these men should call Paul Fischedick '22, B. 191.

The Interscholastic contestants will be the guests of the university at the baseball game between Chicago and Wisconsin this afternoon at 1:30, as well as the Minnesota-Wisconsin dual track meet at 3:30.

Plans for tomorrow include the crew race between the Lincoln Park Boat Club of Chicago and the Varsity eight, as well as the race between the St. John's eight and the Junior eight, at 10:30.

The Interscholastic tennis preliminaries will start today, with the finals played tomorrow.

Venetian night will close the entertainment of the high school guests tomorrow night.

GUN AND BLADE PICNIC SUNDAY

Gun and Blade will hold its annual picnic Sunday at Bernard's park. The picnic party will leave the park street pier at 2:30 and will return at 9:30.

A ball game between the crippled men and the ladies will be one of the features of the afternoon. There will be potato and spoon races for the more fitted ones.

All members of Gun and Blade who wish to attend the picnic will please telephone their names to the office of Mr. Tiege, Union building, at once, in order that there be plenty for all.

GLEE CLUB GIVES COLONIAL RECITAL

Dressed in quaint costumes of the colonial period, the Girls' Glee club gave a very unusual recital last Tuesday evening. The title, "Wayfaring in Song," was given to the program which represented England, Scotland, Ireland, France, and our own country in the time of Old Black Joe.

The softness and delicate manner of the recital typified the simplicity of the various countries. The lighting blended with the costumes offered a pleasing effect.

Under the untiring efforts and training of Miss Madelon Willman, director of the club, the program was a great success and one of the best recitals ever given in the university by the Girls' Glee club.

CO-EDS PROTEST

A recent article published in the Pennsylvanian, which urged a separate college for women, failed to meet the approval of the Penn women students. One junior stated that the granting of the franchise to the women of the country raised them to an equal plane with the men. "To distinguish us from the male student by the term 'co' is insulting. I think that a nation-wide campaign should be conducted by all co-educational institutions to abolish the word."

NO PARTIES WILL BE SANCTIONED FOR EXAM WEEK-END

No parties or dances for the week end, June 10 and 11, preceding final examinations, will be sanctioned by the dean's office. This is not a new ruling, but a custom which is held to every year.

It is suggested that as few activities as possible be held the week end of June 3 and 4. The purpose of the action is not only to give the students extra time for study, but also to give them the opportunity to secure a maximum amount of rest in preparation for the examinations which begin on Saturday, June 11.

The ruling in regard to the last week end refers to both student and social activities.

CANADIAN STUDENT COURT

Plans for a student's court to try and punish offenders against student laws have been submitted to the faculty by the student council of the University of British Columbia. Justices, sheriffs, clerks, counsels for the defense, and other officers will be chosen from the student body.
