THE
DEAR LITTLE SHAMROCK,
Irish Ballad,

"There's a dear little plant that grows in our Isle,
'Twas Saint Patrick himself sure that set it;
And the sun on his labour with pleasure did smile,
And with dew from his eye often wet it.

It shines thro' the bog, thro' the brake and the mireland,
And he call'd it the dear little Shamrock of Ireland,
The dear little Shamrock, the sweet little Shamrock,
The dear little, sweet little, Shamrock of Ireland."
