BADGERS DOWN ILLINI FIVE, 33-29

SKI JUMPERS IN DUAL MEET WITH GOPHERS

Intercollegiate Contest at Muir Knoll Tomorrow

Ski jumpers of Wisconsin and Minnesota will contest for intercollegiate honors tomorrow afternoon at Muir knoll in the first meet of its kind ever held west of New England. Five Gopher stars will compete with five jumpers of the Badger Ski club.

The Minnesota men, who are in charge of C. R. Roemer of the Gopher athletic department, are Kean, Goodridge, Swenseth, McKay, and Langson. The Badger ski jumpers who will oppose them are Ihlen, Taylor, Gude, Norberg and Isdahl. Strome, who won the state championship of Illinois at Cary last week, may replace Taylor in the lineup.

Hill in Fine Shape

The hill is in better shape for ski jumping than it was a week ago, making better marks possible. There will be an exhibition of ski and twin jumping at the close of the meet, which will start at 2:30.

The judges will be Erling Landvig, of Stoughton, and Aksel Hendrickson of Mt. Horeb, professional skiers who judged the last meet here. Landvig will be seen in exhibition ski jumping.

Tickets 25 Cents

To meet the expenses of bringing the Minnesota team here admission tickets will be sold for 25 cents. Two ticket booths will be located at the foot of Park street and one at the scaffold. Spectators are asked to stand at the bottom of the hill during the competition.

OVER 50 IN TRYOUTS FOR HARESFOOT CAST

Preliminary tryouts for places in the chorus of "Mary's Lamb," the 1920 Haresfoot show, were held yesterday afternoon in the Lathrop concert room. Over 50 men participated in the tryouts, which consisted of dancing and singing.

Men competing for places in the cast of the show and who received cards notifying them of further tryouts, will appear Tuesday night at 7:15 in rooms 35 and 36 of Music hall for more complete tryouts. Chorus candidates receiving cards for further tryouts will rehearse on Wednesday night at 7:15 in the same place. Other men who have not previously appeared at any Haresfoot meeting and who wish to compete for places in the cast and chorus of "Mary's Lamb," will appear on Wednesday night also.

From the candidates appearing at these tryouts the club will pick two men for each part, leaving the decision on the final cast to rest with the coach. Two choruses of 20 men each are also to be picked. Orchestra men responded liberally to the call for candidates and over 20 men were tried out on Saturday. The director, "Jean" Juster, urges all men who play instruments to apply to him personally or leave their names with Richard Tyrell, manager of this year's production, at the Haresfoot loft in the Union building.

Fierce Fighting Wins For Varsity in Overtime Game

20,000 Malted Milks Consumed Monthly by Students

Twenty thousand malted milks mixed in one month!

According to statistics gathered yesterday, that is the average monthly achievement of the 28 mixing machines working in the immediate vicinity of the campus, where practically all the trade is with students. Approximately 1,200 pounds of malted milk, 1,500 quarts of ice cream and 3,600 quarts of milk, not to speak of gallons of rich chocolate flavoring, go every month into the concoction of the students' favorite drink.

At this rate, 8,500 gallons of the beverage will be consumed by students during the school year.

EXPAND VARSITY MUSIC WORK, IS CLEF CLUB PLAN

New All-University Society Will Include All Branches of Music

Realizing the need of an all-university musical society, representatives from Clef club have conferred with Dr. C. H. Mills, director of the Music school and honorary president of the club. Dr. Mills suggested that Clef club should meet this need and plans have been made to make the club a vital factor in the musical life of the university. The club will represent not only the vocal ability of the university, as do the glee clubs, or the instrumental talent, which is made a specialty in the orchestra, but will include all branches of music.

The program which has been planned for the year includes a study of the simple song forms, current events in the music world, and lives and works of the composers who have played a prominent part in the development of music from the sixteenth century up to the present time. After a careful study has been made of the development of these forms in the larger works, such as Beethoven's sonatas and symphonies.

Desirous of obtaining the best musical ability of the university, the club will co-operate with the Music school, and upon recommendation of the faculty, will automatically admit all upper classmen registered in the Music school to membership. Tryouts for other upper classmen have already been held. A special tryout may be arranged if there are enough application.

Additional upper classmen and freshmen tryouts will be held Thursday evening, March 4, at 7:30, in Music hall. All those wishing to try out must mail their names, selection and account of previous musical experience to Georgina W. Smith, 1034 Spaight street, before Feb. 28.

NO CARDINAL TUESDAY
Because of the legal holiday Monday, there will be no issue of the Daily Cardinal Tuesday morning.

Fouls Called on Crowd Nearly Wreck Chances

Wisconsin fight and come-back won the hardest fought basketball game on the armory floor in years, when Coach Lowman's men battled their way to a 33 to 29 victory over Illinois last night.

The five men on the basketball floor were not the only ones in a fighting mood, for the largest, most noisy, and most excited crowd in years packed every available seat and almost lost the game for their team by their over display of enthusiasm in the last minute of play.

Foul Almost Loses Game

With the score 29 to 26 in favor of the Badgers, and less than a minute of time until the end of the game, Referee Schommer called a technical foul on the crowd for unnecessary noise at his decision in calling a foul on Taylor only a moment before. When the crowd failed to quiet down, that very moment, Schommer did not give them a chance but lost his head and called another foul, amid the frantic efforts of the men on the team and the cheerleaders to quiet the crowd.

When the smoke had cleared away, a Wisconsin player had been fouled once and the crowd twice, just enough times to give the Illinois free thrower a chance to tie the score if he made every shot. In this pinch Carney, who had missed only three free throws out of eleven attempts, came through with three clean baskets and tied the score just as the timekeeper sounded the gun for the end of the game. It was then necessary to extend the playing time five minutes. The Wisconsin crowd and the referee, both equally to blame, had given the opposing team a chance to win, the only possible way in which the score could have been tied.

Taylor Stars in Overtime

After a minute's rest, during which time the cheerleaders and players begged the crowd to keep as quiet as possible, the two teams lined up for their last chance. Again the Badgers demonstrated their superiority, and with both teams fighting like mad, Taylor dropped in a beauty basket from a long shot. He followed that shot with a similar one a moment later giving his team a four point lead, enough to win. During this five minutes the Suckers were shooting desperately on account of the close guarding of the Wisconsin defense, and consequently could not score.

From the moment Weston dropped in the first ringer, there was not a moment's let-up in the furiousness

SUCKERS DEFEAT TANK MEN

URBANA, ILL., Feb. 23—Illinois tank men defeated the Wisconsin swimming team here last night by a score of 35 to 33. Illinois won the relay race in the time of 1:53. Collins of Wisconsin won the fancy diving contest by one point.

TRACK VICTORY AT NOTRE DAME BY 48-38 SCORE

Badger Runners Win Seven Firsts, Tie in Two Others

(Special to The Cardinal)

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—Wisconsin's track team defeated the Notre Dame runners in a hard fought meet Saturday afternoon, 48 to 38.

The Badgers won firsts in seven events and tied for first place in two others. In the mile relay the Cardinal runners won handily in 3:30.4.

The summaries, in part, follow:

40-yard dash—Spetz, Wisconsin, and Mohardt, Notre Dame, tied for first. Time 4:3.

Low hurdles—Andrews, Wisconsin, first; Knollin, Wisconsin, second. Time 5:3.

Quarter mile—Donaldson, Wisconsin, first; Kayser, Wisconsin, second. Time 50:4.

Half mile—Meehan, Notre Dame, first; Wall, Wisconsin, second. Time 2:0:2.

Mile—Dayton, Wisconsin, first. Time 4:28:1.

Two mile—Brothers, Wisconsin, first; Meyers, Wisconsin, second. Time 10:6.

Shot put—Herzfeld, Wisconsin, first; Distance 37 feet 6½ inches.

High jump—Hoar, Notre Dame, first; Edwards, Wisconsin, and Douglas, Notre Dame, tied for second. Height, 5 feet 10 inches.

Pole vault—Merrick, Wisconsin, and Powers, Notre Dame, tied for first; Endres, Wisconsin, third. Height, 11 feet.

Mile relay—won by Wisconsin. Time 3:30:4.

SORORITIES PICK TEAM CAPTAINS FOR RELAY RACE

Classic Event to Take Place in Gym Annex
Friday

Captains and teams have been chosen for the inter-sorority relay race, the classic event of the annual Relay Carnival to be held at the gym annex Friday night at 7:15.

Each team will wear the colors of the sorority for which it runs and the sororities will be grouped on the sidelines to root for their representatives. After the relay the sororities will give dinners at the chapter houses for the teams.

The prize given to the winning sorority last year was a mahogany plaque with a brass cover with the name of the sorority engraved upon it. Alpha Omicron Pi took first place last year and Chi Omega second. With the exception of three all the sororities have chosen their captains. They are as follows:

Kappa Kappa Gamma—Henry Dennis.

Delta Gamma—Wayne Ramsay.

Chi Omega—Bernard Meyers.

Kappa Alpha Theta—Wellington Brothers.

Pi Beta Phi—Earle Hardy.

Alpha Chi Omega—Gordon Crump.

Gamma Phi Beta—Clyde Nash.

Alpha Phi—F. B. Gombard.

Alpha Gamma Delta—Mark Wall.

Achoth—Archie Schardt.

FAMOUS WEEDS

Fatimas.
Milk.
Widow's.

NOW that the Haresfoot cards are out, another suspense has been ended.

AT the request of the Deans we are submitting today the letter that comes in answer to their statements. Attendez-vous!

Neewaneenah, Wis.,
Feb. 23, 1920.

Dear Bean Rumpus:

I just got your letter telling about my son's failure to keep up in his work. We ain't got no place for him here in Neewaneenah, except as ribbon clerk in Pettigrew's Lingerie Palace, and my son would have too many distractions from his work to hold that job. If you can I'd like to have you fix it up with the Big Bugs at the university and try to get my boy in some classes where he'll get some real education, not this book stuff some advocate, such as Philosophy, Animals and Mother Nature, Contemporary Movies, and such like.

Can't you arrange a course in log-sawing, or mathematical theory of grocery handling, or some such like? If you can't get him back in school, I wish you'd get him a job in some nice refined establishment, like the Gisholt or Northwestern Machine shop. I'm enclosing a stamped envelope for your collection, and oblige,

Hiram Rackstraw,

Owner and Proprietor of the Bow Knot Logging Camp.

WE was real hurt today. We visited the periodical room of the libe, and here we met Lizzie, who just came back to finish her course in Money and Beekeeping. We was just havin' the fine old chatter, when the sobbing susan who has charge of that end of the building comes back behind the stacks, hands us the twelve-pound look, shakes her head, and tells us tea is being served at the Kopper Kettle from four to six. With that we sneaks away. We suggest that if there is ever a vacancy in that position, the students in Shakespeare and Milton be given preference over all others.

CO-OPERATION

Prof.—"I want to see you get an excellent mark from this course."
Stude.—"Alright, old boy, let's pull together."

WEEK-END SASSIETY ITEMS

Delta Tau Delta entertained in their usual genial and generous manner Friday night at the lodge in the court. Red candles and raisins decorated the mantle-piece.

Taw Baita Pie slipped out of the oil-stained mechanics overalls long enough on the same evening to entertain several lady friends.

Flu precautions in the form of silk handkerchiefs and menthol tubes were given at the door at the mixer last night.

Maud Miller and her hay-wagon are planning for a square dance in the barn-yard for Washington's birthday.

Thompson's hall and the Candy shop will close for the Theta dance next Friday night.

Outing club, chaperoned by Eliot Kiser, gave a coasting party down in Mr. Comstock's back yard Saturday afternoon.

Many students are leaving town this week-end.

Milwaukee eye, ear, and nose specialists will accept appointments by telephone.

THIS is one of the days when we feel like crawling around hid under a veil.

No doubt the devil grins

As seas of ink we splatter,
God forgive our literary sins,
The other kinds don't matter.

'GOD AND EVOLUTION' IS DISCUSSION TOPIC

Continuing his "Religion and Life" discussion series for students at the First Congregational church, Dr. D. S. Robinson of the University department of philosophy today will talk on "God and Evolution." The series of discussions, held from 12 to 12:30 are being marked by increasing attendance. On previous Sundays, Dr. Robinson has presented the philosophies of Nietzsche and Hegel, and the problem of God in relation to the mechanical theory of creation.

TURNOUT FOR CREW SETS NEW RECORD AT HARVARD

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—A new record in the number of candidates for the University crew was made by the 180 men who reported to Coach Haines at Newell boathouse recently. Of recent years the largest squad was that of 108 men, 1916. Since that time the number had dwindled under 100. Promise for a very successful season is given by the spirit shown by the men reporting and by the fact that all but six of the members of last year's university crews are eligible for a seat this year. Seven men of last year's swimming eight are also on hand.

JORDAN LEVELS HEAVY FIRE AT "TEA DANCING"

Speaker Raps Spirit That Puts Jazz Ahead of Athletics

Three hundred men and women who gathered at Main hall Friday afternoon to hear Edward S. Jordan, '05, president of the Jordan Motor company, Cleveland, speak on the automobile industry, got a thrill which they did not expect and saw a revelation of the real old Wisconsin spirit when Mr. Jordan, in the midst of his address, stopped suddenly and challenged his audience?

"How long," he shouted, "will the red-blooded men of Wisconsin, fine brawny fellows who went to bat for the United States in the war, stand for the substitution of tea dancing for football? How long will the jazz melody displace the two-fisted song 'O n Wisconsin,' and when will that inspiring song of our alma mater take the place of the 'Pistachio Wiggle'?"

"Men of Wisconsin," he said, "have told me today that they left Wisconsin to go to war, knowing that the spirit was there. They came back to find the university drinking tea and jazzing."

"The men and women of Wisconsin who knew the traditions of this great university and what its future must be are in a mood for action. They recall the days when the student body went en masse to bid the team good-bye, and stood in ecstasy or in tears as the battling eleven see-sawed up and down the field."

"Shades of Phil King—when Music hall shook with cheers for Pat O'Dea, and a day later 30,000 happy people roared approval of the team."

"How long will the healthy minded women of Wisconsin hold tea dancing above manly sports when all the successful men we know are such horrible dancers?"

Mr. Jordan was instrumental in bringing about clean athletics at Wisconsin and was connected with numerous activities during his university career.

JEWISH STUDENTS HEAR NOTED RABBI

Rabbi M. J. Merritt of Chicago will speak Sunday, Feb. 29, at 7:15 p. m., in the Woman's building under auspices of the Wisconsin Jewish Students' association on "The Four Wells." Rabbi Merritt is an authority on subjects pertaining to the near east and the orient, and is the author of books on Palestine. He formerly was a member of the faculty of the University of Chicago. Other speakers who will be brought to Wisconsin by the Jewish Students' association in the near future include Rabbis Abram Hirschberg, Emil J. Hirsch and Ger-shum Levy of Chicago.

CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT SPILLS THE THRILLS

GRINNELL, Ia.—Suspense in the hot stove league that has been at fever pitch among indoor sportsmen of Grinnell has ended with the close of the college cribbage tournament, which has been won by J. Daubenberg and Falkenhainer. Enthusiasts now propose organizing an inter-dormitory cribbage league.

WISCONSIN MEN FROM LAWRENCE

Varsity Team Wins Five Out of Seven Wrestling
Bouts

The varsity wrestling team walked away with their first match of the season held with Lawrence college yesterday afternoon in the gymnasium. Out of seven bouts the visitors won two.

On the whole the contestants were well matched, but the skill and aggressiveness of the Wisconsin wrestlers was too much for the visitors. The most spectacular event of the meet was when Atkinson, after wrestling two rounds with Snyder in the lightweight bout, which he won, took on Herb Weeks, the Badger heavyweight. Although the Badger star won his bout the plucky Lawrence lightweight never stalled a second and repeatedly slipped out of the strong holds of Weeks. Many times it looked as though Weeks would crush his opponent, but the latter stood a lot of punishment and remained on the mat for two and a half minutes in the first round and three minutes and 55 seconds in the second round, before he was thrown.

The match between Sponholtz of Wisconsin and Nowak of Lawrence was closely contested, with a fall to each man at the end of the second round. The Badger, however, entered the third round with a determination to avenge his fall and pinned his man in two minutes and 35 seconds. Nienaber won his bout by default. In the first round his opponent was laid out and failed to appear to finish the match.

The results of the series of bouts follow:

First bout—Snyder, W. vs. Atkinson, L., won by Atkinson.

Second bout—Kirst, W. vs. McCourt, L., won by Kirst.

Third bout—Cirlin, W., vs. Swanton, L., won by Cirlin.

Fourth bout—Peterson, W., vs. Windrow, L., won by Windrow.

Fifth bout—Sponholtz, W., vs. Nowack, L., won by Sponholtz.

Sixth bout—Weeks, W., vs. Atkinson, L., won by Weeks.

Seventh bout—Nienaber, W., vs. Allison, L., won by Nienaber.

POSTOFFICE WILL CLOSE AT 10 A. M.

Washington's birthday will be observed by the Madison postoffice on Monday, Feb. 23, according to Postmaster W. A. Devine. The main office and the university station will be open to the public until 10 o'clock in the morning. There will be one delivery of mail by city and parcel post carriers in the morning, and delivery to hotels at 8 o'clock in the evening.

TO GIVE TALK ON MISSIONARY WORK

Dr. John Springer, missionary from Africa, who is now traveling in this country for the Inter-church World Movement, will give an illustrated lecture on his work in the region of Johannesburg at 7:30 to-night at the University Methodist church. The student public is invited.

TRUSTEES ASK PRESIDENT TO WITHDRAW RESIGNATION

BELOIT, Wis.—It is learned that the trustees of Beloit college have voiced their desire to retain President Brannon in a resolution. While the full text of the resolution is not available it is known that it contained these clauses, that "we express our unanimous confidence in his management and policy," and "urgently and strenuously request that Dr. Brannon withdraw his resignation."

OHIO WILL HAVE TWO NEW WOMAN'S BUILDINGS

COLUMBUS, O.—Original plans for the new Woman's Union at Ohio have been changed, and two buildings will be constructed instead of one. This change was necessary that the costs of construction might be brought within the appropriation of $240,000. One building is to be a modern woman's gymnasium, while the other structure will be the Woman's Union.

Y. W. C. A. IN DRIVE FOR $500 BUDGET FUND NEXT WEEK

Delegates to be Sent to National Conference
in April

The canvass for the Y. W. C. A. budget fund began yesterday afternoon in the S. G. A. rooms of Lathrop hall when Janet Lindsay, in the presence of the various workers who will take part in the campaign, extorted from Prof. Benjamin W. Snow a healthy check. The check may have been bogus; but at any rate Miss Lindsay managed to demonstrate clearly the methods which are to be used by co-eds during the next week in soliciting money from professors to increase the budget fund for the Y. W. C. A.

The meeting of the teams was held to decide upon unified plan of action for the four days of canvassing which will be carried on from Feb. 24-28. Prof. Carl R. Fish talked on the methods of procedure to use in approaching the faculty for money.

A small portion of the money raised next week will be used to send delegates to the national Y. W. C. A. conference in Cleveland from April 13-20. This is the first national conference which has been held for five years and an interesting question is to be settled at this session. It has long been a national law that no woman can be an active member of Y. W. C. A. unless she is also affiliated with a church. Wisconsin has for some time favored the idea of personal membership by which a woman need not be a church member in order to take an active part in Y. W. C. A. work. A vote on this is to be taken at the conference.

The drive is for $500 to be raised at this time. On Friday at noon the returns of the campaign are to be handed in, and the workers will celebrate the end of their labor with a luncheon in Lathrop hall. Immediately afterward an open meeting of Y. W. C. A. is to be held in which officers for the coming year will be nominated.

The captains of the teams which are to carry on the active work of the campaign are Orpha Coe, Auta Lyman, Louise E. Finch, Janet Lindsay, Mary Maxwell, and Virginia Jackson.

JEOPARDIZING A VICTORY

THEY wouldn't be stopped. They smashed the Illinois offense from the start. They came from behind and forged into the lead, only to have a referee's decision against the crowd tie the score. They fought the Illini off their feet in the overtime period. And they won.

The progress of the game and the score tell how the team pushed uphill with real Badger fight. More need not be said in their praise.

But the crowd deserves to be censured for action that almost cost us the victory. Perhaps the referee lost his head when he called the second foul against the crowd. But it is also true that the crowd lost its collective head in the noisy demonstration that followed the referee's action. Therein lies a lesson for Wisconsin rooters. Unless you can keep your senses at a time of intense enthusiasm, don't jeopardize the team's chances of winning by your presence. The new conference rule must be impressed in the mind of every student. It is now a case of the crowd playing a real part in helping the team to win. Experience always proves a dear teacher—and last night's game serves as a warning to guide the conduct of rooters in future games.

BOOST THE SKI TEAM

TOMORROW'S ski jump meet with Minnesota is significant as opening intercollegiate competition in this sport in the west. The Wisconsin men have made an enviable record this season and have pushed skiing to the front in a way that has put it in the front rank of winter sports.

The Badger Ski club has expenses to meet in bringing the Minnesota team here tomorrow. Student financial support must be given to make the meet a success and encourage future competition. Because the meet is held outdoors it is not an easy matter to collect the admission price from all who come out to view the jumping. Those who follow the creed of good sportsmanship will not attempt to avoid paying their share. Make your support count. Get your ticket and be a real booster for the Badger ski team.

DISCUSSING MILITARY TRAINING

THE university military training bill has passed the House military affairs committee by a vote of 11 to 9.

This marks a turning point in a fight which waged in this committee since May, 1919, and indicates that the verbal battle will be continued in the House. For a time the committee was dead-locked with a vote of 10 to 10.

At the University of Wisconsin there are 180 disabled soldiers and about 1,300 bonus students. All these students have opinions about military training. Just what the viewpoint of these discharged soldiers is upon the universal training bill is more or less of a mystery.

What should be done with this bill is now a vital question to every reader of The Cardinal. The communication column is a medium through which former soldiers and others can express their views on the subject.

CHORAL UNION

The Choral Union will meet in the concert room of Lathrop hall at 6:45 p. m. Tuesday evening. Every student who wishes to become a better singer and become acquainted with the most beautiful choral music should attend this meeting. The best singers in the university belong to the Choral Union, but any student who can carry a tune is eligible to membership. The chorus is conducted by Prof. Peter W. Dykema.

CONGREGATIONAL STUDENTS

Dr. D. S. Robinson of the department of philosophy will continue his "Religious and Life" series at the First Congregational church at 12 m. today, presenting the subject "God and Evolution," which will be followed by discussion.

STATISTICS EXAM

Examinations for the removal of incompletes incurred in statistics 130a during the first semester will be held on Saturday, Feb. 23, at 1:30 p. m., in the statistics laboratory, 312 P. E. P. building. All taking this examination should see the notice posted in Mr. Krueger's office.

At the meeting of the Badger club tonight at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building, Harry W. White, who has recently been with the allied forces in Egypt and Palestine, will speak on "The Challenge of the Changing World." Both men and women are invited to hear him.

The Sunday morning study groups will meet at the Y. M. C. A. under the leadership of Secretary Wolw at 9 o'clock.

Short course Y. M. C. A. will meet at Ag hall at 9 a. m., and will be addressed by Dr. Eaton.

'Y' DEPUTATION TEAM GOES TO DELAVAN

The Y. M. C. A. Deputation team went to Delevan this week end to assist at the older boys' conference of Walworth county. Secretary Wilf will join the team Sunday night. Students who represent the university are: William Rubert, '21; Roy Sorenson, '20; and Leo Cole, '20.

What the College Editors Say

FIRESIDE CYNICS

A cynic is one who refuses to credit good motives, believe in sincerity, or exhibit enthusiasm and give support in worthwhile causes.

A blanket definition, you say? Think it over. Does it apply to you? If you are an average person—four out of five cases you are—it does. Four persons out of five are ostensible cynics. Not real cynics, for their number is fortunately small. But pseudo-cynics—the kind that take a shroud of cynicism because they have not the energy or self-confidence to take any other attitude—are a great majority.

This cynicism, we repeat, is not real. It is the outgrowth of the modern fear of self-expression. It is worn as a veil instead of as a true indication of thought or belief. Appreciation, in the eyes of the average person, is a sign of juvenile simplicity or rank sentimentality. In order to prove his omniscience this average person must, he thinks, deprecate and sneer, else he will lack caste in the sight of his fellows. He fears to exhibit his emotions, his likes, his dislikes—and he seeks to hide them by his fireside cynicism.

This is not imagination, it is a sober fact. But it is not irremediable. The cultivation of a habit of self-expression, of reasonable freedom from the conventions of criticism, will break away the shackles. It will do more. It will lead to a more wholesome attitude and a healthier frame of mind. Fireside cynicism is a sham. The sooner we throw it off, the better.—University of Washington Daily.

UNION BUILDING IDEA FAVORED BY MANY COLLEGES

Union buildings are becoming more and more common and necessary on university campuses. Minnesota and Michigan are both using new union buildings and Iowa is now having a campaign to raise $1,000,000 for a building.

The Minnesota union was formerly an old chemistry hall and was remodeled. It is similar in appearance to the Law building here.

Michigan built its union very recently so that it contains all the modern arrangements such as cafeterias, bowling and billiard rooms, and barber shops. This building is one of the best in the country and is of brick construction with a tall tower.

Iowa will have an immense white marble building with pillars. Old Grecian architecture is the plan of the building.

The campaign for the Wisconsin Memorial Union building is now being carried on in Wisconsin counties and in various large cities outside of the state. The building is designed to harmonize with the State Historical library and is similar to the Pan American building at Washington. There will be a memorial and trophy room, reading and social rooms, various student activity rooms including offices for The Cardinal, Badger, Literary Magazine, billiard and bowling rooms, faculty rooms, and a theater.

Pictures of these four buildings are being framed and may be seen any time after Monday in Dean S. H. Goodnight's office.

SEEK PICTURES FOR NAVY RECORD BOOK

Pictures of Naval Auxiliary Reserve men who were on ships that were sunk, pictures of destroyed craft and published stories bearing on the work of the N. A. R. are being sought by the reserve book committee which was appointed to publish a volume dealing with the work of the reserve during the war period. Only two weeks remain to get this material in.

Wisconsin was represented in the reserve by more men than any other inland university and should occupy a prominent place in the publication. If you have any interesting material, send it to "Bill" Walker at 145 Iota court, who has been appointed by the committee to handle Wisconsin copy.

BRITON TO TALK TO BADGER CLUB AT OPEN MEET

HARRY W. WHITE

Harry W. White, formerly with the British Army in Sinai desert beyond the Suez canal and occupied in Palestine at the time of the capture of Jerusalem, will speak to the members of the Badger club on "The Challenge of the Changing World." When war broke out in the United States, he was with his family off the coast of Singapore on a German ship bound for China. Shortly after, he returned by way of Manila to the United States, and later at the request of Dr. John R. Mott helped in Y. M. C. A. work among the British Australians and the New Zealand troops in Egypt.

Mr. White has traveled in China, Japan, the Philippines, England, France, and for five years was doing Y. M. C. A. work in India.

Mr. White is a graduate of the University of Nebraska.

BADGERS DEFEAT ILLINOIS, 33 TO 28

and intensity of the game, except when time out was called. This basket of Weston's was the first of the game and was followed almost immediately by a ringer from the hands of Captain "Mike" Knapp, giving the Badgers a four point lead before Illinois could score.

Knapp's Shooting Feature

Knapp's shooting from then on was an outstanding feature of the game. He tied his record of ten field goals made against Michigan last week, garnering a total of 20 points single handed. This record stands as the largest number of field goals scored in any one game by any one player in the conference. He hit the basket from every angle, seldom resorted to long shots, and many times sneaked down along the side, received the ball, dribbled under the basket, and shot with his guard hanging on from behind.

To Caesar goes most of the credit for the close guarding which held Carney to four goals. He was disqualified for four personal fouls during the second half. He watched the big center like a hawk, and many times kept him from scoring by his intercepting of passes and hanging on tactics. Frogner, who took his place played the same kind of a game, and time after time in the closing minutes of play got the ball away from both Carney and Felmley when it seemed certain that one of them would score.

Zulfer played a strong defensive game, with his eye on both Taylor and Felmley, and consequently had few chances to score. He did not shoot more than four times during the game, but played the ball well, and showed the best basketball he has displayed this season.

Teams Show Up Well

Taylor, who was unable to locate the basket in the first half came back in the second and scored three field goals, two of them giving his team the necessary points to win during the overtime period. He played a good floor game as well.

Weston contributed to the scoring with three field goals and showed his usual fight on the floor. His guarding was almost as close as that of Caesar and Frogner, although his

PROTESTANTS GIVEN WARNING

Madison Man Tells Dodge
Co. Ministers of Present Decline

Rev. A. Roscoe Barnes of Madison, associated with the interchurch work movement, in an address before the Dodge County Ministerial association stated that the Protestant churches were meeting with a decline in rural communities, and predicts their eventual discontinuance unless they join together in the interchurch movement, and assist each other in combating the falling off of church attendance. Dr. Barnes pointed to the Evangelical and Catholic churches, and their increase in attendance with the state as an example, and during his talk said that the Protestant churches must awake to their peril, and build up the belief in Christianity among the younger set from childhood on.

running guard position kept him playing the ball more.

The first half ended 15 to 14 in favor of Illinois after the lead had gone back and forth from one team to the other. At one time during this period Wisconsin had a 10 to 4 lead and this was the most any team was ahead at any one time.

Illini Lead in Second Half

The second half started off with Illinois scoring five points before the Badgers had one. Carney began with a free throw, followed by a field goal by his team-mate Taylor. Walquist shot a long one which hit the basket, bounded high into the air, but dropped back down straight through the hoop. With a lead of six points to overcome, Knapp scored two and Taylor followed with two more reducing the lead to two points. Taylor fouled and Carney, as usual, made the free throw. Knapp dropped in another ringer and the Badgers were only one point behind.

Caesar made his fourth personal foul, for which he was removed from the game, and Carney again scored. Frogner took Caesar's place at guard. Carney scored another free throw, which he followed a moment later by a field goal. Taylor made his first free throw of the game, Knapp added two points, and the score stood 25 to 23 in favor of Illinois. Carney missed his first free throw of the half, and Weston rung in two points, tying the score. With three minutes to play Taylor fouled and Carney made the throw. The Badgers were fighting desperately and Knapp broke loose long enough to ring the hoop for two points and to give his team the lead for the first time that half. A few seconds later he gathered two more and with less than a minute to play it did not seem that the Suckers had a chance, until the crowd was fouled and gave Carney a chance to tie the score.

street Friday night. After the dinner the entire chapter attended the show. The leading man, who is an alumnus of the university of Michigan, is a member of Theta Delta Chi.

Theta Dance

Members of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority will entertain with a dancing party at the Park hotel Friday night.

Mixer Big Success

The Forensic board mixer, held in the gymnasium last night, started the new semester with enthusiasm. Owing to the fact that the doors were closed at 10 o'clock, the crowd was not so dense as it usually is at all-university mixers, and dancing was more nearly a pleasure than the customary acrobatic accomplishment. Bobby's best orchestra furnished the music for dancing.

Plenty of pop and big fresh doughnuts were the refreshments served to the dancers. The bleachers along the sides were crowded with on-lookers, so that the crowds around the edges of the dance floor did not obstruct the dancing.

LECTURE SERIES WILL DELVE INTO OCCULT SYSTEMS

Ghosts, Telepathy, Mesmerism and Kindred Topics to be Treated by Jastrow

In response to a general expression of interest, the Department of Philosophy and Psychology announces a series of eight lectures on "Psychical Cults and Systems: Past and Present." The lectures will be given by Prof. Jastrow in 165 University hall on Tuesdays at 4:30 p. m., beginning Feb. 24. The lectures will be addressed primarily to the student body, but will be open to the public.

The topics will be substantially as follows:

Lecture 1.—Feb. 24, "Occultism and its Survivals." An historical view with modern instances; mysticism; superstition; wonder-working; pseudo-science.

Lecture 2.—March 2, "The Prediction of Fate." Astrology, alchemy augury and their kin.

Lecture 3.—March 9, "Mental Traits and Bodily Signs." Physiognomy, palmistry, phrenology.

Lecture 4.—March 16, "The Reading of Character." Fortune-telling, graphology, face-analysis and the newer pretensions.

Lecture 5.—March 23, "Systems of Mental Healing." Exorcist, faith healing, mesmerism and their descendants.

Lecture 6.—March 30, "The Supernatural." Premonitions, ghosts, clairvoyance, telepathy.

Lecture 7.—April 6, "The Revival of Belief in Spirits." The types of evidence and their interpretation.

Lecture 8.—April 13, "The Sub-conscious." Trance, automatic writing, multiple personality.

It is the purpose of the course to present in simple manner the varied attempts to solve personally interesting problems by methods outside the pale of accredited science. The tendency to credit such solutions is as interesting as the solutions offered. They deal both with general questions of the nature of the forces by which we are surrounded, and with the control of fortune, health, success, and capacity in an attempt to give them practical value. False reasoning and hyper-

Slippers to Hair Net Go in Luxury Tax List at Prom

Whazza luxury tax on a glob of perfume? Or a nice coat of powder?

Prom fluffly fluffles, the experts say, are going to net a luxury tax of $2,000 for Uncle Sam's war bills. Her chic gown and slippers, his dress suit, strictly necessary, out taxed—would you believe it—as luxuries.

Shoes, hats and haberdashery; powder, dast we mention—rouge—and le Frifle Incarnat—all taxed. 'Sawful. The modest estimate of our friends the experts is $2 per person. Well, we've got to have 'em, and anyhow, the money goes for a good cause, but oh, how the shekels roll out!

And then there's $350 that the revenue collector is going to get on the 10 per cent tax on admissions, if 500 couples attend. Someone ought to point out how patriotic the Prom-goers are.

stition abound in attitudes toward such personally engaging questions: hence the need to consider them from the point of view of science.

A MIXER'S CERTAINLY REG'LAR CONCOCTION

What's in a mixer?

One co-ed answers: "Why, there's fun, and excitement, refreshments and stunts, but best of all, there's the thrill of the unknown, the romance of suspense. Who knows? Your next partner may turn out to be SHE. (or, perhaps, HE)"

All these thrills will be furnished by the "Pre-Prom Prom for All," the Y. W. C. A. mixer to be staged in the man's gymnasium, Friday, Feb. 27, according to Dorothy Carlock and Betty Thorkelson, in charge of stunts and amusement.

"It's an economic question," stated June Gray and Katherine Ely, finance committee. "Would you rather have a Denver and a cup of coffee or a whole evening of dancing with the ladies of your choice to zippy music with refreshments and stunts thrown in?"
