The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

for the Standard Oil Co. & is doing well.
I do hope you will be coming to La Crosse again next summer & that I may see more of you. We are all quite well. Mr. Moll is not quite as smart as I would like to see him still he is better than he was in the Spring & Summer. Wishing you all Julia & Family, Agnes & her family a merry Christmas & most happy & prosperous year & am as always Your very dear friend

My Dear Mrs. Abbot
Just to wish you and all your dear ones a merry Christmas & most happy New Year. I did so enjoy your little visit this summer & Mr. Moll & I are both in town with Christmas, how very happy I shall be with the family, one way or the other

At Madison this winter, my youngest son Norman is there taking the Agricultural course, he enjoys it very much - but has to work hard.

The last I heard from Mrs Fannie Moll she was planning a Trip around the world - she surely has the wander lust Mrs Jacob Meyer is quite well again - did you know that she fell down stairs & was quite seriously hurt, they feared for her recovery - she is quite a wonder,

My Cousin Mary & husband are very well, many wishes to be remembered to you. My brother's wife Mrs Lussing & family are well, she has three nice children that any mother could be proud of, her son travels
