FUND IN DRIVE FOR MEMORIAL NEARS $17,000

Returns Coming in From Sororities and Fraternities

Exactly $16,939.54 is the total pledged at the end of the third day of the $100,000 student drive for the Memorial Union building, with only three of the 11 chairmen of the canvassing committees bringing in returns. The results for the second and third day are $3,000 and $7,939.54 respectively. Estimates from the teams whose reports are not included show that the drive is well under way and that students are responding liberally in raising the quota.

Kappas Give $1,200

The only sorority heard from is Kappa Kappa Gamma, which pledged $1,200. Red Domino, Edwin Booth, and Twelfth Night turned over in cash $156.54, the proceeds from their recent joint production, "The Marriage of Kitty."

Fraternities heard from are as follows:

Chi Psi	$1,700
Sigma Nu	1,139
Psi U	1,139
Theta Xi	885
Zeta Psi	798
Delta Tau Delta	768
S. A. E.	720
Phi Delta Theta	629

The bigger part of the campaign will be over by Saturday, but canvassing will continue until every person in the university is reached.

Women Also Benefit

It is pointed out that the use of the Memorial building will be as great for the women as the men. It will fill the need for headquarters of publications and societies, offering a theater for student dramatics, and a dance floor for social functions.

The need for a Union building has never been so imperative as now when there are approximately 5,000 men in residence, yet the chance for obtaining legislative appropriations for buildings were never more discouraging. The enormous increase in taxation which will be necessary to meet the soldier bonus bills, the road bills, and the greatly increased cost of maintaining instructional work of the university make the prospect of obtaining new buildings for this purpose remote. Hence the project of a Mémorial Union building at Wisconsin, to be erected on university property by subscription of alumni, students and friends of the university.

HARESFOOT WILL PLAY IN 8 CITIES ON LONGEST TRIP

"Mary's Lamb" Cast to Tour
Illinois and Wisconsin
in April

Touring eight cities in Wisconsin and Illinois and making one or more performances in each city, the Haresfoot 1920 trip will be one of the most comprehensive yet attempted by that organization. The cities in which "Mary's Lamb" will show are:

Waukesha—Friday, April 16.

Milwaukee—Saturday, April 17.

(Two performances)

Oshkosh—Monday, April 19.

Fond du Lac—Tuesday, April 20.

Kenosha—Wednesday, April 21.

Rockford—Thursday, April 22.

Madison—Friday, April 24, (for-

SPILL THRILLS IN NEW CIRCUS

Big Varsity Show Returns
on Interscholastic Day,
May 22

The university circus has come back.

The week-end of May 22 will see the return to the campus of an institution which has been dormant since the spring of 1916, when the last great university circus was held in the stock pavilion. And with it will come a genuine carnival week-end of athletic contests and other feature events.

The afternoon of Friday, May 21, will see a varsity baseball game at Camp Randall. That evening will probably bring special dances at all of the available emporiums.

Aquatic Events Varied

Saturday will be celebrated all day long. The morning will be occupied with aquatic events on Mendota behind the mens' gym and the Y. M. C. A. All of the old sports such as canoe tilting, canoe racing, and possibly an inter-class crew race will be there.

In the afternoon, the state high school track teams will compete at the annual inter-scholastic track meet. The inter-scholastic banquet for the visiting athletes will take up the early evening.

And then the circus. Wild west riding, shooting, steer throwing, fancy rope throwing, and bronco busting with all the western trimmings will furnish the thrills.

Gymnasts to Perform

Famous athletes will disport themselves. Already Joe Steinauer and the university gym team have been sought and it is almost a certainty that they will contribute their own private thrills to the crowd under the "Big top."

Other acts too numerous to mention will be on hand. And all of the trimmings of a regular P. T. Barnum circus will be found. There will be pink lemonade for the tea hounds—and cider for the others. Hot dogs, cracker jack, and pop will hold sway outside the main show.

The whole week-end will be so planned as to boost Wisconsin—incidentally Wisconsin athletics. Practically every organization in school will be in some way represented in the activities, from the debating clubs to the agric rough riders.

Some acts for the circus have been planned already. There are room for about 15 more. Those desiring information can call Vincent O'Shea, circus manager.

"Y" STARTS CLASSES FOR WORKINGMEN

The American committee of the university Y. M. C. A. offers to students an opportunity to be of service to the community and to profit by practical experience as well. The committee has obtained permission from a large manufacturer in Madison to organize classes in his plant.

These classes will be started under the direction of Robert Lindsay, who has experience in this work among the mill workers of Massachusetts. The classes in English will be under the direction of James Blauvelt, who learned to speak several languages when in service with the Y. M. C. A. in Russia. The Peter Roberts' method of conversation instruction will be used. Text books will be furnished by the U. S. Bureau of Americanization, which is part of the Department of the Interior.

All students who wish to teach classes in English or in American history can notify Robert Lindsay, B 186, or James Blauvelt, B. 3058.

POLITICAL BEES BUZZ WITH TIME FOR FILING NEAR

Petitions for Spring Elections
Must be Made Out by April 2

With the date for filing of petitions for the spring election only about two weeks away, there has been very little evidence that there will be any degree of scrapping for the various offices to be filled. At present, no candidates for any office have come openly into the field, and there is no indication that the political ring will have great allurements this spring. The student senate has set April 2 as the last day for filing all petitions.

The most important offices to be filled at the election April 23 are those of Badger editor and business manager. Last year the scrap for business manager of the yearbook was one of the bitterest that has been fought out in years, but there are no signs now that there will be a duplication of that campaign.

There are two sophomore vacancies to be filled on the Badger board and also one freshman to be elected from the class at large.

On the Athletic board there are ten positions to be filled. Besides the office of president and vice president of the board, which are only open to "W" men, there are vacancies as representatives of each of the major sports and also a minor sport representative to be filled. Two non-"W" sophomore men are to be elected to the board.

For the Cardinal Board of Control, there is one junior member to be elected and two sophomore members. Two of the three elected must be men.

On the Union board, there are to be two junior positions vacant, one experienced and one inexperienced. There are also two sophomores to be elected for two years, one to be experienced and one inexperienced.

The Forensic board has vacancies to be filled by two members of the junior class and one from the sophomore class.

VARSITY TEAMS TO DEBATE AGAIN WITH OLD RIVALS

Meet Illinois Here and Go to Michigan Friday for Arguments

The Mid-west Debating league consisting of Wisconsin, Michigan, and Illinois will hold its annual triangular debate March 26. The question for debate is the same one used in the contest against Minnesota at Music hall last Friday night. It reads, "Resolved that in each industrial corporation in the United States the employees, as such, should be permitted to choose from among their own ranks at least one third of the board of directors; all directors to have equal powers and privileges."

A Badger affirmative trio composed of Melbourne Bergerman, '22, Goodwin Watson, '20, and Clyde Emery, '21, will meet Michigan at Madison. At the same time the Wisconsin negative, whose personnel is Sydney Moody, '20, Charles Assofsky, '21, and Joseph B. Beach, '20, will meet Illinois at Urbana. This will be the first time the league has convened since 1918 when war activities caused a suspension of inter-collegiate debating in a number of western universities.

The Wisconsin teams are being coached by Professors J. M. O'Neill and A. T. Weaver of the public speaking department. They have been at work since last semester when the teams were selected. Last Friday a Wisconsin negative debating this same subject against Ohio State achieved a unanimous victory while the affirmative here lost to Minnesota by a 2 to 1 decision.

STATE TOURNEY OPENS TONIGHT WITH 2 GAMES

Madison, Stevens Point, Superior and Menomonie
Clash in First Round

GAMES TONIGHT
Menomonie vs. Superior, 7:15.
Madison vs. Stevens Point, 8:15.

The Wisconsin state basketball tournament will officially open tonight with two games on the armory floor, the first at 7:15 and the second at 8:15.

In the first battle, which will doubtless be the faster game of the two, Menomonie and Superior will clash. The second contest, however, will be of the most interest locally, because Madison is scheduled to meet the five from Stevens Point.

Madison Has Good Season

The comparative strength of these four teams is unknown, but all have earned the right to compete in the state tourney by virtue of their victories in the districts in which they competed. Madison has had a very successful season after the first few weeks during which time she suffered defeat at the hands of Watertown and won her other games by only a small margin. The local team, however, has grown better as the season has progressed and Coach George Levis is confident of placing near the top. Stevens Point is an unknown quantity as far as strength is concerned.

Superior Central has one of the strongest teams in the state and has the edge of Menomonie in the first game. The Menomonie five, got away to a bad start early in the season and lost the first three games, but since that time has gone undefeated.

Fraternities Provide Entertainment

Each team as it arrives in Madison is being met by representatives of the fraternity of which it will be the guest, and entertained during leisure hours. The amount of interest manifest in this contest for the state championship can best be measured in terms of the number of rooters accompanying each five, and the teams from the farthest distance are bringing large numbers of supporters with them.

No seats will be reserved and 50 cents will be the admission price for each set or period of two games.

The lineup of the first contestants follows:

Superior	Menomonie
Nevers	rf Setter (Capt.)
Trettin	lf Olson
Hancock (Capt.)	c Snider
Nelson	rg Smith
Christmas	lg Lotwin

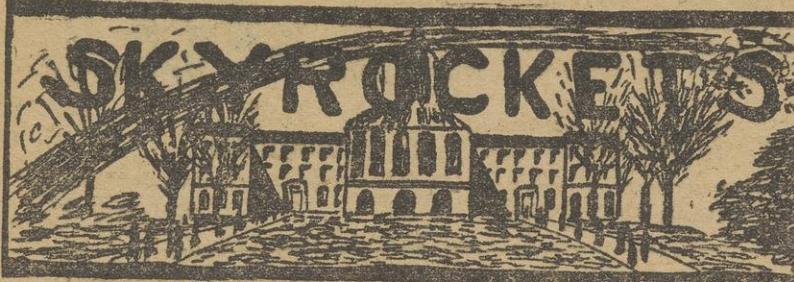

The next two teams will line up as follows:

Madison	Stevens Point
Walsh	rf Hubbard
Gunderson (Capt.)	lf Spraska
Schulz	c Wilson
Diebold	rg Summers
Kessenich	lg Oster (Capt.)

ILLUSTRATED TALK FOR ENGINEERS

Mr. H. S. Osborne, transmission engineer for the American Telegraph and Telephone company, will talk on "Telephone Transmission and Inductive Interference" in the auditorium of the engineering building, Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

The lecture will be illustrated and a number of oscillograms are to be shown. As the subject of inductive interference is being very extensively investigated in some of the best known research laboratories of America the lecture will prove to be very instructive to all those present.

With so many complications coming in about yesterday's column, we feel it our duty to inform the readers that the Engineers, they done it all.

Prof. Bleyer: Unquestionably the greatest piece of work of its kind since I edited (secretly) "The Blackbird."

Prof. Kiekhoefer: It illustrates perfectly Greshamstein's law—that the demand for good humor is inversely unequal to the solar system, and vice versa. I liked that picture of Freddie Frosh and his new room the best of all.

A. B. Hall: Great. Next time I shall send them a picture of myself and an extract from my 'ta'k before the Philatelist's society of Stoughton.

BADGER GRADUATE
WINS $1,000 PRIZE
IN ESSAY CONTEST

Forrest R. Black, a graduate of the class of 1916 at the University of Wisconsin, has just received word that he is the winner of a $1,000 prize offered by the National Industrial Conference board of Boston in a nation-wide essay contest.

The contest which was open to anyone was announced early last spring. The conference board submitted ten subjects, and the best essay on any one of the subjects was offered a $1,000 cash prize. Mr. Black, whose home is in Tiffin, Ohio, submitted an essay on the subject "Should Trades Unions and Employers' Associations Be Made Legally Responsible as Such?" He had forgotten the matter until informed that he was the prize winner.

Mr. Black will be remembered by the faculty and many of the alumni here as the captain of the team that debated Michigan in 1916 and also as the Hamilton orator representing Wisconsin that year at Chicago. After having received his A. B. degree at the university he attended Columbia university where he studied law for two years. In 1919 he received an M. A. degree at Columbia. He is now completing his law course at Ohio State university, where he will receive his L. L. B. degree late in May.

TO COACH LOHMAN AND THE TEAM

CONFERENCE basketball coaches are sighing with relief at the close of one of the most uncertain and keenly fought "Big Ten" seasons in several years. From start to finish the annual scrap see-sawed back and forth and upset the dope bucket at least an even dozen times.

Wisconsin boosted its standing far ahead of last year's record and finished in the first division.

To those who have been inclined to criticize the coach and the team, we have this to say: Wisconsin had as good a team and completed as successful a season as any university in the conference.

No team defeated the Badger five that was not in turn beaten by Wisconsin. All the old rivals—Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, Chicago—can claim no higher honors than Wisconsin, for defeat was balanced by victory in each case. Two victories over Ohio State give sweet revenge for the 3-0 football loss last fall.

The wind-up of the season with an overwhelming victory over Chicago makes it rather pleasant to refer to the Maroons as the conference champions. There was a satisfied look on every rooter's face after the Badgers had trounced the Midway five.

There is always a collection of carping critics with us every year. One week they "ride" the coach; next week the team; and on occasions they try to censure the entire athletic department. When the team wins they are jubilant. When it loses they are the first to chirp up that the whole squad is due for the bow-wows. If there is one critter we would like to see extinguished and exterminated more than the tea-hound, this is the variety.

To the coach and the team we need only say that we judge them by their record. That record will stand the test along with any other in the conference.

THE NEW OCTOPUS

THE Wisconsin Octopus, appearing yesterday as a monthly publication, gives the university the representation of a creditable humor journal.

Wisconsin supports a number of activities that have won distinction off the campus, but there has long been a real need for a comic magazine that could take its place alongside those that have contributed to the fame of other large universities.

The literary content of The Wisconsin Octopus is on a par with any of the leading college contemporaries, and the art work is above the average standard maintained in undergraduate magazines.

Wisconsin now has a representative humorous publication. It deserves the best contributions from the student body to keep it representative, and, more important, to keep it alive at Wisconsin. We're after a firm foothold in the field of college humor.

U. S. A., are really considered worthy of the tribute that those of us who were fortunate enough to recross the Atlantic had supposed was due them.

Apparently not, if the present show of interest on the part of Wisconsin students toward erecting a memorial to those brave men is any answer to the question.

From the viewpoint of one who served with the A. E. F. and was fortunate enough to return home practically whole, I believe that we are not emphasizing strongly enough the memorial feature of the proposed building. True enough, we need a Union building, that is agreed to by all students. In fact that was generally granted to be a pressing need even before we entered the war. So why haven't the students come across stronger in backing the proposition? Is it merely because selfish interests and unlimited opportunity to spend all available cash for pleasure has dimmed the issue, or is it because they really have not enough respect for the memory of Wisconsin's soldier and sailor dead, to sacrifice for a lasting memorial?

The project will not fail, I am sure of that, whether or not the students respond with whole-hearted moral and financial support. The loyal alumni, and the parents and brothers and sisters of those who did not return, will not allow it to fail.

But any student who fails to contribute now, be it $1 or $100, and who, when he returns five years hence, and looks upon the Memorial to real Wisconsin men erected by contributions of people imbued with real Wisconsin spirit, then does not experience an inward feeling of regret and self-contempt—well, he must have a mighty thick hide.

H. J. BRANDT, '20.

WHEN TWO DISAGREE

To the Editor of The Cardinal:

"Contra ignorantiam dei frustra pugnant," but, when the communication of March 16 fell under my gaze I saw by its leit-motif that the literary shillalah of its author was pounding the bag instead of the donkey. The dust of sophistry ensuing was dense, and at one or two places even I (in the capacity of bag) smiled at the adroitness of the gentleman with the shillalah who was pounding the grit and leaving my ideal in perfect comfort. It is, dear editor, one of the most brilliant examples of circumnavigating the point which has ever come to my attention.

I do not wish to go into detail on the various points, but advise the gentleman with the shillalah to read my communication of March 12 on the Religious conference, again. He will find that he has over-strung his lute, and if his intellectual temper is keen enough he will blush—at least, he ought to.

I wish to congratulate Mr. Burke, however, on stepping into the arena in defense of the principles which he cherishes. I think it should be one of the leading idiosyncrasies of

DR. GRENFELL TO LECTURE ON LABRADOR LIFE

Pictures to Show Work of His Organization in North

Life in Labrador and the perils of the Grand Banks where deep sea fishers secure their catch of cod and herring, will be described by Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell in his lecture in Music hall tonight. Pictures of the hospitals, schools and co-operative stores will be given on the screen in order to give the audience an accurate idea of the work of the International Grenfell association.

This organization attempts to better the physical and economic conditions among the people of Labrador and to provide for their religious needs. It does not undertake a purely charitable work; the government of Newfoundland supports the work in part and the people themselves contribute to the expense.

The first attempt to help the deep seamen was the establishment of a hospital at St. Anthony. Medical aid is rendered to the people in Labrador by the steam ships "Strathcona," "Northern Messenger," and "Prospero," which reach the settlements farther north. In the winter Dr. Grenfell and his assistants travel from station to station in dog sleds.

The most urgent need in the work of the association at present is a new orphanage at St. Anthony. Funds for this purpose are contributed on a basis of 25 cents for each brick. Children in all parts of the world are buying bricks to provide a warm shelter for the homeless children of Labrador.

Tickets for the lecture which is given under the auspices of the Fellowship committee of the university Y. M. C. A., are on sale at the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., and at Hook Brothers music store. Students' admission is 25 cents, public 50 cents. The hall will be reserved until 8 o'clock for ticket holders. The proceeds are to go to the International Grenfell association which maintains five hospitals, as well as hospital ships in Labrador.

Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Greeley, who helped establish the hospital at Pilley's Island in 1911, will give a dinner for Dr. Grenfell at the Madison club this evening.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR MILITARY BALL

Cadet Corps Dance Open to Anyone Whether in Service or Not

After an unprecedented sale among the members of the cadet corps, in which the majority of the tickets for the Military ball were disposed of, the open sale will begin today.

The Military ball this year will be open to anyone wishing to attend, whether or not he was ever connected with the military department. This includes former members of the army, navy, and marine corps, members of the cadet corps, both officers, non-commissioned officers and privates, as well as civilian members of the university faculty and student body.

Capt. John S. Wood, commandant, has issued an official statement regarding uniforms which may be worn the evening of April 9, and great latitude is permitted. Any person who is at present in the service, or at any time was in any form of the service, may wear any uniform to which he has at any time been entitled. The members of the cadet corps who have not seen service in the regulars may wear the uniform of their rank in the corps. Any person not desiring to wear a uniform may appear in formal evening dress.

Tickets may be obtained from Alex Field at the Beta house, or may be reserved by calling Badger 8. The price has been set at $3, includ-

WILLIAM A. WHITE TO GIVE LECTURE ON NIAGARA FALLS

Slides Will Illustrate Installing of Largest Generator in World

William M. White, formerly professor of engineering at Tulane university and at present manager and chief engineer of the hydraulic department of the Allis-Chalmers company of Milwaukee, will speak tonight at 7:30 in the auditorium of the Engineering building, upon "Power Development at Niagara Falls." The lecture will be illustrated with motion pictures showing the scenic features that have made the falls famous.

An interesting feature will be the views showing the installation and putting into operation of the largest hydro-electric unit in the world, a 32,500 K. V. A. generator that was manufactured in Wisconsin, and put into commercial service last December. The lecture will be open to the public and the lecture committee of the College of Engineering has extended an invitation to all Madison engineers and their wives to be present.

Mr. White is expected to arrive in Madison at noon, Thursday, and will return to Milwaukee Friday morning. During his stay in the city he will be a guest at the University club.

AT THE FULLER
In the new play with music, "Head Over Heels," in which Henry W. Savage is to send the gay little Mitzi to the Fuller, Friday and Saturday, with Saturday matinee, she is praised as the sauciest of characters in the tights and spangles of a little foreign acrobat. In pursuit of a lost love she comes to America with the troupe of "brothers and sisters," who all had different "papas and mammas."

"Head Over Heels" is announced to come with the supporting cast of metropolitan players that has received much praise. Among the principals are Joe Keno, who played the leading comedy role in "Have a Heart" last season. With Rosie

Green, he formerly was a vaudeville headliner billed as "Keno and Green" and in addition to playing their roles, they will present their whirlwind dance specialities. Edward Sells, well remembered as the jovial and vivacious Italian singer of "Twin Beds," and in other comedies; Ruth Oswald, the lyric soprano; Rebekah Cauble, Boyd Marshall, the grand opera baritone, Dorothy L. Mar, Neil Moore, Joseph Daniels, Harry Child, a troupe of five acrobats and an ensemble of girls much praised as unusual in beauty and intelligence.

The music of "Head Over Heels" is by the favorite Jerome Kern and a half dozen of the numbers have become widely known since the first success of the work early last season, "The Big Show," "Funny Little Something," "Head Over Heels," and the "March Militaire," being the best known.

Alpha Gamma Rho Banquet

Alpha Gamma Rho held a banquet at the Capitol cafe last night in honor of the Stevens Point high school basketball team which is here for the state tournament.

They were in the lead and so confident that they changed their lineup, taking out some of their best players. The sophomores went at it with a rush, and in spite of the seniors changing to their original team, the sophs could not be stopped.

A good crowd attended, although the men were conspicuous by their absence. The next two games in the tournament will be held March 24, in Lathrop gym, at 7 p. m. The juniors will play the sophomores, and the seniors will clash with the frosh.

FROSH AND SOPH
WOMEN WIN CLASS
BASKETBALL GAMES

The underclassmen both times succeeded in downing their opponents in the women's interclass basketball tournament at Lathrop gym. Tuesday night, when the freshmen beat the juniors, 18 to 16, and the sophomores defeated the seniors, 35 to 32.

Both games were close, but to make things more interesting, in both games the upperclassmen led by a good margin at the end of the first half.

In the sophomore-senior game, the

Welcoming Spring With New Apparel

Springtime is filling our store with a multitude of merchandise messages. Never were assortments more complete and interesting than now. See these new clothes here tomorrow.

New Coats for Women More Graceful Than Ever

The Sports note dominates the style—the easy comfort from which smartness is never missing. There is sufficient length for full protection. There is height to the collars that will laugh at March winds, but there is a lightness of effect that is most charming.

We present an interesting group of Sport Coats which exemplifies the styles of the season. They are of Polo Cloth, Jerseys, Reindeer Tweed, Peachbloom and mixtures. The cuffs are particularly interesting and may be worn either straight or bell shaped. The shape is regulated by means of a wide or narrow wrist strap buckled loose or snug as desired. Prices are

$25.00 to $79.00

Sport Skirts

Take on the hues of Spring in plaids and checks. Many beautiful color combinations are presented and when worn with short Sport Coats they lend a desired touch of color very pleasing. A skirt must be pleated, some have only box pleats, others the graceful accordion pleats. Girdles, belts and novelty pockets add a smart note. Prices are

$17.50 to $39.50

Tailored Blouses

Such as these of fine white dimity go well with Sport Skirts. Here in large and varied assortments these attractive blouses are most interesting. They are simply tailored for the most part with Buster Brown, pleated and pique roll collars. Some have smart black bow tie. Prices are

$3.75, $5, $7.50

BADGERS LEAVE TOMORROW FOR BIG TEN MEET

Indoor Event to Last Two Days Due to Large
Entry List

Wisconsin track athletes will leave tomorrow morning for Evanston, Ill., to compete in the conference indoor track meet against a collection of all the track stars in the "Big Ten." The scene of the races will be Patton gymnasium, Northwestern university.

Due to the large number of contestants entered, two days will be devoted to the meet. The events will start Friday night at 7:45 and will be finished Saturday night.

Having had a successful season so far, with victories over Northwestern and Notre Dame, the Badgers to come out in the on-cenSHRDL hope to come out in the final tilt with enough points to place them among the first in the conference. Under the supervision of Coach Tom Jones the men have been training carefully for the past week and are in the best condition that they have been in during the entire season.

The lineup is practically the same as that entered against Northwestern last Saturday. Dayton will run in the mile, Brothers and Crump in the two mile, and Captain Andrews will try for honors in the hurdle races. These are probably Wisconsin's strongest events, although places in most of the other events are expected.

The lineup:
40 yard dash—Spetz, Qnollin, Kelsey, Hall.
Mile run—Dayton, Ramsey, Crump.
440 yard dash—Spetz, Donaldson, Keyser, Cox, Nash.
Hurdles—Andrews, Spetz, Knollin, Stolley.

Shot put—Sundt, Kelsey.
Half mile—Nash, Wall, Pickard, Cox.
Two mile run—Crump, Brothers, Meyers, Ramsey.
Pole vault—Endres, Wilder.
High jump—Edwards, Knollin.
Mile relay—Donaldson, Kayser, Spetz, Nash, Cox, Knollin.

BANK TO BUILD $60,000 HOME

Security State Bank to Erect
Modern Building

The Security State banks will make its new home in a $60,000 bank building to be erected at Schenk's corners, Winnebago and Railroad streets it was unofficially announced last night. Definite building action is awaiting the recapitalization tabulation by the banking commission. It is probable that the number of stockholders will be increased on reorganization.

Plans for the new building will be put into the hands of architects as soon as the state commission makes its report.

Directors of the bank voted, to make application to the state banking commission to increase its capital stock to $50,000 at a meeting held Monday. The capital stock of the bank is now $10,000.

Residents On Lake Street in Plans to Beautify Block

Would Make Thoroughfare
Leading to Lake One of City's Finest

Residents of the 400 block on N. Lake st., will meet Thursday evening at the home of Prof. and Mrs. John L. Haussmann, 438 N. Lake st., to consider plans for improving the appearance of the street. The movement was started by Mrs. Karl Young, wife of Prof. Young of the English department of the university. Prof. F. A. Aust will address the meeting.

North Lake was formerly one of the most beautiful streets in the city in point of large, well kept trees and orderly, green grass plots. The trees which formerly met in a perfect arch over the middle of the roadway, are now scraggly and unkept, and many of them have been cut down. The street, it is felt, could be one of the finest in the city, as it leads down to the lake.

METEOROLOGISTS CALLED TO FIGHT THE INFLUENZA

Red Cross Makes An Appeal
Through the Red Cross for Prevention Work

BUDAPEST—Meteorologists are called upon to fight influenza in an appeal issued by Prof. Detruss of Budapest university. He asserts the influenza germ is the smallest encountered by scientists and because of its light weight it is caught by air currents and carried hundreds of miles to other districts.

He appeals to meteorologists to organize a system of notifying the world during influenza epidemics of the direction of the air currents so that endangered districts in the supposed path of the microbes may take adequate precautions to prevent infections.

ROUND TABLE NEW DEPARTMENT ADDED TO COMMERCE MAG

Commerce Round Table has been added as a new department to The Commerce Magazine. It is the student's own department, created to further commerce spirit, to bring student problems and opinions to the front, and to give the magazine a greater personal interest for every student.

Contributions from 25 to 250 words are wanted on any of the following subjects: problems in student life, what you do or do not like in commerce, topics of campus interest, your pet college peeve, commerce athletic activities, your experiences that may help and interest others, and your ideas on subjects of interest. Names must be signed to contributions, but these will not be printed if so desired.

All material for the next issue must be in this week. Because of the limited time of the new section, commerce students are urged to contribute immediately. Contributions may be dropped into the box on fourth floor of the P. E. P. building or mailed to Harvey G. Meyer, 931 West Dayton street.

SHORT COURSE GRADUATES 53 IN 1920 CLASS

Commencement Program to Close With Today's Exercises

"Now we'll raise a lot of dickens Among the cows and chickens, Back on the farm." It's an old song, but this afternoon it may be sung after 53 second-year Short Course men receive their graduating certificates from the College of Agriculture.

The closing day program will start this morning at 9 o'clock with the class day exercises in the Agricultural auditorium. The program is as follows: March—Short Course orchestra. Class History—Henry M. Auby. Selection—Short Course Glee club. Class Prophesy—Raymond J. Kra. Address—Dr. A. S. Alexander. Idyll—"Wood Nymphs" — Short Course orchestra. Class Will—Stanley A. Williams. First Year Response — Cleveland Woodward. Song—"On Wisconsin"—Audience.

The afternoon exercises will also be in Ag. hall auditorium, starting at 2 p. m. Certificates of graduation will be awarded and honorary recognition given to 3 Wisconsin farmers. Wisconsin was the first state to pay tribute to the men of the field and the furrow. The program is as follows: Overture—Short Course orchestra. Invocation—Rev. E. W. Glakeman. Class Oration—Willis E. Lockwood. Piano Solo—Harold E. Lott. Address—R. A. Pearson, president of Iowa State college, "Education and Service."

Selection—Short Course quartet. Address to Class—E. A. Birge, president of the university. Awarding of certificates.

S. G. A. Dance Open to Fussers and Mixers Both

Fussers as well as those who come mixer style will all be welcome at the big dance to be given under the auspices of the S. G. A. for the Co-operative house benefit Saturday afternoon, March 27, from 3 to 6 in Lathrop gymnasium.

"This dance is to be distinctly an all-university affair," said Mary Farnum, general chairman of the dance, yesterday, "and it is not to be limited to those who do not like mixers. The Co-operative house is available to all university women who need support, and everyone who is interested will want to help in any way he can whether he comes himself or gives a ticket to someone else."

A special entertainment is to be a feature of the affair, but plans for this are not yet being given out. A 7-piece Thompson's orchestra will furnish music for the dancing, and refreshments will be sold at small booths.

Committees appointed for the dance are as follows: Mary Farnum, chairman of the dance; Helen Sackett, music; Florence Kelly, refreshments; Eleanor Riley, entertainment; Virginia Conklin, tickets; Hildegard Wipperman, Elizabeth Rinder, Leona Ruder, Dorothy Dietz, Emma Klosterman, Helen Conway, floor committee; Dorothy Ware, chaperon; Margaret Wuerpel, Aline Morton, Olga Smith, Katherine Stoppenbach, Maude Clay, Eulalia Emmanuel, Dorothy Klots, posters; Frances Jackman, Katherine Beebe, Addella Boise, Mae Smith, Dorothy Cremer, Louise Fritsche, Isabel Capps, Carrie Winter, publicity.

M. Harrison, Wilton; Howard L. Helmenstine, Blue Mounds; Robert W. Hiff, Alma Center; Jos. G. Jilek, Antigo; Gordon Jacobson, Taylor; Elmer Kindschi, Prairie du Sac; Fred Ketchum, Osseo; Maurice P. Kittel, Amery; Raymond J. Kral, Antigo; B. M. Knight, Ceflax; Willis E. Lockwood, Racine; L. V. Lashua, Northland; Arthur Magnusson, Augusta; Harvey J. Michels, Peebles; Herman J. Mullen, Bloomer; Harry McNally, Lenz; Clarence E. Ness, Mondovi; O. Nymo, Dallas; Elona P. Nichols, Jr., Milwaukee; Andrew H. Noller, Colgate; August John Paul, Milwaukee; D. A. Weihing, Black Creek; Martin Wieland, Lancaster; Stanley A. Williams, Bear Creek.

The Short Course in agriculture consists of 15 weeks of school for a period of 2 winters. The course was started in 1885 with an attendance of 19 students, and since the beginning, 5,540 have taken this course.

The present first year course (1919-1920) is the largest in the history of the Short Course. Its members represent 14 states and nearly every county in the state of Wisconsin.

RECORD SALE OF OCTOPUS TOTALS 2,800 FIRST DAY

A record in hill magazine sales was made yesterday, when 2,800 copies of the Octopus were sold, more than of any university periodical up to this time. The magazines were bought as fast as they could be supplied, and by 3 o'clock the edition was exhausted.

To satisfy those who failed to secure the magazine, and to give students a chance to send it to out-of-town friends, a new edition will be on sale today. These copies will be sold at the set price of 25 cents, although, by a misunderstanding, several vendors charged only 20 cents until the mistake was righted yesterday.

Those who subscribed to the Octopus will receive their numbers today.

LONDON — The new government at Berlin held a cabinet council last night which was attended by Gen. Ludendorff.

FIRST TRYOUTS FOR UNION VODVIL TO BE HELD THURSDAY

More Than 20 Acts Listed to Compete for Headline Honors

First tryouts for Union Vodvil will be held Thursday afternoon. Over 20 acts have been listed and tryouts this week will determine which shall be among the 10 big headliners for the show which will be staged April 2 and 3 at the Fuller theater.

The schedule of tryouts is as follows:

Thursday

Ray Holcombe and cast, 1:30. Alpha Gamma Delta, 4:00. Ruth Pointer, 4:30. Dave Mahoney, Don Marvin, and Pearl Stuart, 5:30. E. H. Prett, 7:00.

Friday

Edwin Booth, Red Domino and Twelfth Night, 3:30.

Saturday

Chadbourne act, 1:00. Delta Gamma, 2:00. Alpha Chi Omega, 3:00.

Tryouts will be held at Music hall, Madison high school and the Candy shop. Acts will be notified by the production manager where they are to appear. Any acts which have not yet made arrangements for tryouts are requested to communicate with Jack Bigler, production manager, at once. Acts should appear for tryouts as nearly complete in costume and libretto as possible.

Several acts appeared before the production staff for tryouts earlier in the week. The caliber of vodvil material is exceptionally strong this year. Everyting points to the keenest competition for places on the bill and the production staff are certain that this year's Vodvil will be one of the biggest events of the year.
