The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

“I will impart this Art by precept, by lecture and by every mode
of teaching,
not only to my own sons but to the sons of him who has taught me...”

Hoechst is proud to have contributed nearly 100 years of patient-centered research, in the name of a long and honorable tradition to the service of medicine.
