The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Joe

Long ago my friend and I made Joe mad. We heard him coming yelling riding on the road. He must have been coming by what used to be the deaf man's place and he yelled in a clear voice. We were by David Jordan's place. So there were these poles for making fences and we used them to put across the road where he would be coming. Then we went off to bed.

So in a little while we are upstairs and nearby he was yelling. Pretty soon all of a sudden he is riding flying by - he must have been drunk - and every time he bumped on the pole that had been placed across there he acted badly and kept swearing various swears. But we just kept quiet. It wouldn't have been good for us to laugh because then right away it would be revealed who had done this.
