VOL. XXXIII. NO. 64

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN, MADISON, SATURDAY, DEC. 2, 1922

PRICE 5 CENTS

COURT DECREES SCALPERS MUST PAY HEAVY FINE

Judges Show Leniency Toward Callen; Fine Charney $60

The Student court fined Harry Callen '25 $30 and Sidney Charney L 3, $60 for scalping tickets to the Illinois-Wisconsin football game at a special meeting which followed the judiciary proceedings Tuesday night. The two plaintiffs pleaded guilty to the charge imposed upon them.

According to the decree placed upon Charney, he will be suspended from the university from January 5, 1923, for the remainder of the current semester providing that on January 5 he has failed to pay a penalty of $60 to Dean Goodnight.

Callen's attendance will be suspended on December 10 for the remainder of the current semester if he has failed to give written notice to Dean Goodnight to the effect that he will pay the fine of $30 on or before June 1, 1923. If, after having given such notice, he fails to pay the fine, his credits for the current year will be withheld from him.

According to the statement drawn up by Justice M. R. Paulsen, secretary of the Student court, the two defendants were given different penalties in lieu of the differences surrounding the two cases. In the first instant the defendant is "an individual of mature judgment and well aware of the necessity of a rigid enforcement of university rules and regulations," while in the second case, the student is of "immature years."

Callen is working his way through the university practically single-handed, it was said. The two tickets which he scalped were sold for $5 each only after he had been offered the job of ushering at the game. Charney sold two tickets at $10 apiece.

"As a student court we are interested in maintaining football as a clean, wholesome college sport," Paulsen's report reads. "Any rules and regulations tending to that end will meet with favor in the eyes of this court. We believe that to commercialize the game by ruthless scalping of tickets places the very fundamentals of its existence at stake."

The judges sitting on the cases were C. F. Dull L 3, chief justice, G. L. Geiger '23, E. W. Anderson '23, H. J. Gregg '24, W. A. Hartman '23, M. N. Hanson '24, M. R. Paulsen '24, J. S. Packard '24, and R. S. Philips '23. Clifford G. Mathys L 3 acted as prosecuting attorney.

CHILDS ARRIVES FOR WEEK'S STAY

Jack Childs, Wisconsin's representative in China, arrived in Madison last night and will remain at the university for about 10 days.

Childs will conduct several discussion group meetings among the faculty during his stay in addition to several lecture engagements at clubs and student organizations.

The topic of Childs' talks will be his work in China and some of the problems he faces there as Wisconsin's representative. On December 11, he will address a mass meeting of students in Music hall.

Childs graduated from the Journalism school here in 1912. He was appointed to his present post in China in 1916 as a result of the observations of several university professors who visited China and saw the need of work among the returned foreign students.

500 to Attend 5th Annual Haresfoot Vodvil Spree; Tickets at Door

Tonight the Fifth Annual Haresfoot follies and dance, antidote for midsemesters, and biggest social function of the semester, will hold sway in Lathrop gym and concert room. More than 250 couples will attend.

Tickets for the dance may be purchased for $2 at Lathrop hall tonight, Porter F. Butts '24, general chairman, said last night. A few will be on sale at Morgans' and the University pharmacy early today.

Dave Chudnow '25 and a special 10-piece orchestra with Bud Buel '24, Bob Talley '26, Nate Grabin '24 and Eddie Kehl will present a complete feature dance program from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Vodvil entertainment will be held in the concert room during intermission beginning at 10:30 o'clock. The Haresfoot quartet featuring Martin Below '24 and Russell Irish '24 will introduce the Haresfoot follies fox trot, "Winter Moon," written by Cecil Brodt '23 and Willard Sumner '23 of dance orchestra fame. The quartet will complete their act with harmony and dance.

The Sigma Nu potpourrie of musical comedy will follow immediately with Frank Wolfe '23 and Willis Fanning '23 taking the song and comedy leads. The Sigma Nu orchestra of seven pieces with Rolie Ische '26 at the piano will accompany the entire act.

Bell-hop costumes imported from Chicago for a chorus of six will brighten the setting for the act. Lighting effects for the vodvil and subdued colored floods for the dance floor have been prepared by Sidney Thorson '24.

SOPH PRESIDENT APPOINTS CLASS COMMITTEE MEN

Finance Committee Facing Biggest Problem, Tuhtar Says

Seventy-five members of the sophomore class have been selected by Eugene W. Tuhtar, president of the class of 1925 to serve on various committees. The appointments were made public last night.

The committees plan to start work immediately. A general class meeting is scheduled after Thanksgiving.

Class Owes $150

It cost $170 to run the dance and approximately $70 was cleared. A barber pole used for the bonfire on Cap Night is yet unpaid for.

Contest Awards Will Be Made at Session This Afternoon

With every train bringing large delegations and with every meeting and session well attended, the opening day of the third annual convention of the Central Interscholastic Press association closed with 557 registered. The count was taken at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Nearly 100 were expected to arrive later. The convention is the world's largest press meet.

Records of the sale of coupon books showed that nearly 80 Madison high school people are attending the convention sessions and that approximately 150 university students attended the opening events, including the banquet and the ball.

"The expectations of the convention officials are passed by far," Fred L. Kildow '23, director, said last night.

"We didn't expect so many in early, and as a result, it was difficult to handle all of them. We are grateful to the delegates for bearing with us in all the hurry and rush. We feel sure that everything will run much smoother the second day."

A total of 486 railroad certificates entitling delegates to half fare on the return trip were collected by 5:30 o'clock. Only 250 were needed to secure the reduced rates for the passenger associations.

"The certificates will be validated by the railroad agent and will be returned to the delegates," Harold E. McClelland '23, director, said.

"Announcements will be made at the general sessions in order that everyone will know when and how to get their certificates."

The history and future of C. I. P. A. will be presented at a general session in Music hall at 8:30 o'clock this morning. George W. Greene '22 of the Milwaukee Journal, first director of the organization, will discuss its history.

better high school annuals will be given by Edward W. Hill, engraving expert of Jahn and Ollier company of Chicago, at the session.

Announcement of contest awards and election of officers for the year will occupy a general session in Music hall starting at 2:30 o'clock. Contest awards will be made by Prof. G. M. Hyde of the Course in Journalism, and John R. Wolf of the Milwaukee Journal will tell why the winners won. Earl Fisher, president C. I. P. A., will act as chairman of the meeting.

Round table discussions beginning at 10, 11, and 1:30 o'clock will present problems of high school publications of interest to newspapers, magazines, annuals, business staff members and advisers.

A special conducted tour of the Print Shop for those interested in the making of etchings and halftones will be announced at the first general session.

An official photograph of delegates will be on sale at the Photo-art House and at convention headquarters. Copies of The Cardinal may be obtained at the first general session today.

American Boy

Editor Draws Crowd

"The school paper is the voice of the school, reflects the thought of the school, and can, when properly directed, control the thought of the school," asserted Walter P. McGuire, editor of the American Boy, speaking before nearly 500 delegates at the convention banquet last night in Lathrop hall.

Miss Elizabeth K. Adams of New York, head of the national Girl Scouts, was the other speaker of the evening. Prof. E. M. Johnson of the Course in Journalism was the toastmaster.

"If you are community-minded, if you take an active interest in the politics of your school, if you make use of your influence to correct the wrongs which exist and to foster the projects for good which are suggested, you can be good editors," McGuire declared.

"Where does the girl come in?" Miss Adams asked, in starting her talk.

"I believe in co-education, not only in the classroom, but also in the activities and recreation of student life."

It is through working together in small groups that we are learning the best that there is in community life. Girls and boys who are trained to work and cooperate in groups become the leaders of the nation."

At the start of the banquet, each delegate in turn arose and announced his name and his city at a suggestion from Professor Johnson.

Vaudeville Entertains After Banquet

The vaudeville entertainment in Lathrop concert room last night took a tumble from the sublime to the not-quite-so sublime when a breezy one-act play, "Straight From Broadway," followed the "Hungarian Phantasy Number 13," by Jeanet Breitenback '23, and two violin solos, "Consonata" and "Minuet in G," by Jean Budley '25, accompanied by Constance Maclean '25.

Lucile Curtis '23, a most convincing Rodolph Valentino, and Anna Clifford '26 gave a thrilling Spanish "Vamp" dance, accompanied by Margaret Wolcott '24.

Shortly after the entertainment the convention ball was held in Lathrop gymnasium, and was attended by more than 600 delegates, convention officials and students in the Course in Journalism.

Double Last Year Attendance Mark

Nearly 450 delegates, twice the number present last year, congregated at Music hall at 9 o'clock yesterday morning for the initial meeting of the convention.

The high school visitors were divided into groups and directed by university students toured the campus, and Madison and ended the inspection excursion at the Strand theatre where a special showing of Charles Ray's newspaper picture, "Smudge," was given exclusively for the delegates.

The excursion route which began at the United States Forest Products laboratory, lead to the Historical museum in the State Historical Library, the state capitol, and to the Print Shop, where methods of printing and engraving were demonstrated for the visitors.

The morning session was intended primarily to get the delegates acquainted, give them a chance to become familiar with the town and start off the round table discussions for later meetings.

KILDOW AND McCLELLAND ARE PRESS ASSOCIATION DIRECTORS

HAROLD E. McCLELLAND

Fred L. Kildow '23 and Harold E. McClelland '23 are joint student directors of the Central Interscholastic Press association, which is holding its third annual convention in Madison yesterday and today.

Kildow and McClelland, together with Professors E. M. Johnson and H. L. Birdsong, procured the speakers and arranged for 36 round table discussions. All convention activities are under their supervision.

President Birge Welcomes Delegates

The success and wide influence of C. I. P. A. was evidenced in the sentiment expressed by speakers and representative delegates from various high schools throughout the country at the first general session of the convention at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Music hall auditorium.

President Birge gave the address of welcome before approximately 500 delegates. He expressed gratification at seeing the large number of delegates in attendance and hoped they would be benefited greatly by their visit here.

President Birge gave a rough comparison of early and modern college education, pointing out that, formerly, students were taught to "reason for reason's sake," but that now reasoning is merely a means to an end—the acquiring of knowledge and self expression.

Carl Fischer of South Division high school, Milwaukee, president of the association, outlined the growth of the organization since its origin three years ago and expressed the hope that it would continue to grow in the future.

Following the convention, Kildow will edit the Scholastic Editor, official organ of the association, and McClelland and Professor Birdsong will handle the critic service.

Chairman Fred L. Kildow, '23 director, announces that Attorney General William J. Morgan and Edward W. Hill were unable to appear on the program. Telegrams from Henry Ford and Senators Irving Lenroot and Robert M. LaFollette expressed regret at not being able to speak at the convention, also were read.

Prof. E. Marion Johnson, called upon delegates from various high schools to give their opinions of the work of C. I. P. A. and to tell of the work that was being done in their respective schools.

Delegates from Las Vegas, N. M., Delta, Colo., Rochester, N. Y., Johnstown, Pa., Fort Wayne, Ind., St. Paul, Minn., Harvey, Ill., Minneapolis, Minn., and Milwaukee and Monroe, Wis., were among those who spoke.

Moving pictures of the group were taken by Pathe as the delegates left the building.

Cardinal Writer Talks on Sports

"Writing sport news is a regular study and necessitates as much work as any academic course," Charles J. Lewin '23, editor of The Cardinal, asserted at one of the five 2:30 o'clock round table discussions yesterday afternoon.

Prof. Paul W. Kieser, chairman of the Department of Journalism at South Dakota State college, addressed a group on "Business Manager's Problems."

Staff organizations were discussed by Miss Edith M. Penney, adviser of the west High School Weekly of Minneapolis, winner of the All-American contest last year.

That a high school magazine should publish articles of interest to every student was the opinion stated by Prof. E. M. Johnson of the Course in Journalism.

"The Community Paper as an Opportunity for the Small High School," was outlined by H. E. Birdsong of the Course in Journalism.

Tegmeyer Talks On Magazines

Gember F. Tegmeyer '24, editor-in-chief of the 1924 Badger, at one of the five 3:30 o'clock round table discussions, yesterday afternoon, spoke on "New Ideas for Annuals," and discussed the problems arising in the high schools.

Magazine make-up was the subject considered by Rodney C. Welsh '22, former editor-in-chief of the Octopus. Prof. Johnston of the advertising department of the Extension division, addressed the delegates on "The Advertising Field for School Publications."

"Women are able to hold any position in journalism," Miss Ruby Black Little of the Course in Journalism, asserted in a talk on the opportunities journalism, as a profession, offers to women.

Prof. G. M. Hyde of the Course in Journalism spoke on news gathering and Miss Cora B. Vaughn, an instructor in high school journalism showed the relation of publications to class work.

Geiger Explains Editor's Problems

"Problems of Printing a High School Paper," was the subject of the 4:30 o'clock round table discussion led by George L. Geiger '23 managing editor of The Cardinal.

How an annual should be financed was explained by W. C. O'Connell of the Department of Journalism at Kansas university. "Problems of Running a Quarterly," were discussed for the benefit of another group.

"That publicity news should play an important part in every high school paper was the central theme of a discussion led by H. E. Birdsong of the Course in Journalism."

Prof. Johnston of the advertising department of the Extension division explained the various systems of advertising rates and rate cards, using the rate card published by The Cardinal as an example.

Blaine Urges New Form of Taxation

The time has come in Wisconsin when there must be an entire change in the character of taxation to raise funds for highway construction and maintenance, Gov. J. J. Blaine told Mayor Daniel W. Hoan of Milwaukee today in a reply to the Milwaukee executive's recent attack on the financial program sponsored by the legislative committee of the county board's association.

While refraining from a definite expression of attitude toward the county board proposals, which include a gasoline tax, a 2 per cent highway privilege tax on automobile valuation and a graduated license fee based on weight of power vehicles, Governor Blaine said that there "must be a new system of raising money for highway purposes, and the adoption of any provincial system of highway tax will not meet with my approval."

NEWS OF CONFERENCE SPORTS

GOPHERS PLAN GRID COMEBACK FOR NEXT YEAR

Team Will Lose But Two Veterans From This Year's Ranks

(Special to The Cardinal)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 1.—With the Minnesota football season for 1922 over, every enthusiastic Gopher is looking towards a glorious year in '23. Not that the past season has been a failure, but because prospects for next year are exceedingly bright. Every student at Minnesota is thoroughly convinced that Bill Spaulding is a real coach, and the results he obtained from a squad of green men has started Minnesota out on her road to recovery from an athletic slump.

But two men are lost from the Varsity squad which witnessed service under the Maroon and Gold this year. McCreery, the Gophers dependable running mate to Earl Martineau, graduate in June and is consequently lost to the squad. Captain Aas may graduate in the spring, but under Conference rulings he is eligible for another year of service on the Gopher eleven. As yet he has not made his decision as to which course he will take.

Fresh Supply Material

At ends the Gophers will have Eklund and Schjoll back with a year of experience to their credit. Eklund is one of the most promising wingmen in the Big Ten. He is a good punter, drop kicker, and can pass. At tackles Ted Cox, Louis Gross and McDonald from this year's Varsity will be back in uniform, while Gruenhagen, Mathews, and Hagen from the freshman eleven will be eligible to make a bid for these positions. Gay, Abramson, and Rollitt will be ready to answer the call for guards when the 1923 season rolls around.

Swanbeck from the freshman squad is one of the most promising centers produced at Minnesota for years. He is a strong man both on the defense and on the offense. In case Captain Aas does not appear next fall Swanbeck will be on hand to fill his vacancy.

Martineau to be Back

Fred Groose played his first year of conference football this year, and the experience he gained will be of great benefit to him. He will be forced by Guzy and Foote of the freshman squad, as these men have been showing up in remarkable style this fall. Guzy weighs but 127 pounds but is fast and an excellent field general. He is also an accurate passer and can punt consistently around 40 to 50 yards.

Earl Martineau will be back in harness at half and in all probability will be elected captain of the Gophers for next year. The election will take place next week. Carl Lidberg has been groomed by coaches all year to fill in at the opposite half vacated by Otis McCreery. Lidberg is a freshman but has consistently ripped the Varsity line for long gains.

Plan 1923 Comeback

Oster and Peterson will return to fight their battle for the fullback berth. There is also another Gopher athlete, Van Duzee, who will be eligible when Coach Spaulding again sounds his call. Van Duzee was the most promising fullback candidate to report for practice last spring but he slipped up on his studies and was accordingly kept off the squad. By next year it is generally expected that he will have all of his delinquencies cleared and will be out on the job.

On paper the Gopher prospects for next fall are exceedingly bright. A wealth of material will be on hand for Coach Spaulding to work with and the entire school is behind him. Minnesota expects to complete her comeback in football in 1923.

Khoorshid Ardeshtir is Student From India

Khoorshid Ardeshtir, graduate, who spoke at President Birge's open house for foreign students on Wednesday night, is a student from India, and not from Turkey, as was announced in the Thursday issue of the Daily Cardinal.

Rollie Williams, left halfback, and Marty Below, right tackle, Wisconsin football stars, are among the number selected by Joe Godfrey Jr., sporting editor of the Daily Illini for the first and second all-conference teams respectively.

Besides the two Wisconsin men, the following are selections on the all-conference first team.

R. E. Goebel, Mich.
R. T. Penfield, N. W.
R. G. Pixley, Ohio State
C. Aas, Minn.
L. G. McMillen, Ill.
L. T. Lewis, Chicago

SOCCER TEAMS FINISH TODAY

Tigers and Periods Compete in Finals on Lower Campus

The final of the inter-class soccer tournament will be played at 1:30 o'clock today on the lower campus.

The two teams, the Tigers and Periods, are both strong and a fast game is expected, according to Coach Linden. Both teams have stuck through the preliminaries not losing a game to the various teams they have eliminated. The winning team will have its picture in the 1924 Badger.

Captain R. A. Teschan, leader of the Period team, said that his men were in good condition and are prepared to give their utmost to defeat the strong Tiger aggregation. The outstanding men on the Period team are Captain Teschan, Porter, Jones, and Haigh. The Tiger's have their claws sharpened and intend to rip the Periods to shreds. The Tigers have also gone through the season without defeat. The Tiger opponents will attempt to place their Period at the end of the season and cop the coveted picture in the Badger.

Lawrence Prepares For Basketball Season

With one of its most successful gridiron seasons in history to its credit, in which it won the "Little Five" title for the third year in succession and also a share in Mid-west conference titular honors, Lawrence college athletic mentors have turned their attention to basketball as the next major sport.

This year's quintet will fashion about Captain "Myrt" Basing, all-time forward; W. Smith, guard, and Collinge, forward last year letter men.

Practice has been started in earnest now for the opening game of the season which comes early in December, if games can be arranged. The schedule is as follows:
Jan. 18—Lawrence at Ripon.
Jan. 19—Carroll at Appleton.
Feb. 2—Lawrence at Beloit.
Feb. 8—Beloit at Appleton.
Feb. 25—Lawrence at Carroll.

Miller is Probable 1923 Captain For Hawkeyes

Glenn Miller of Waterloo, Iowa, the star backfield man of the Iowa university football team is the probable 1923 captain. The "Hawkeye" eleven, which is tied with Michigan for conference honors, loses most of its team by graduation. Miller is the only holdover who will be a senior on next year. This year he was second to Capt. Gordon Locke as a line plunger.

Third Annual Meet to Be Held at Stag Field

Coach T. E. Jones, J. L. Griffith commissioner of athletics of the conference, and A. A. Stag, chairman, managing committee of the National Athletic association, have decided to hold the third annual track and field meet on Stag field on June 15 and 16. Because the Chicago University alumni have priority rights to the use of the field on June 9, it will be impossible to have the meet a week earlier as planned.

BASKETBALL IN OHIO SPOTLIGHT

New Coach and Veteran Squad Makes Things Look Promising

(Special to The Cardinal)

COLUMBUS O., Dec. 1.—Basketball interest at the threshold of a new season, is higher than it has been for years at Ohio State University, with five out of seven letter men from last season's sixth-place Western Conference team back and a new coach in charge.

For six weeks, Buckeye basketball candidates have been mastering a new system under H. G. Olsen former Wisconsin captain and All-Western Conference guard, who comes to Ohio State after having turned out state championship quintets at Ripon College in Wisconsin.

Several cuts have brought the squad down to 15 men, the nucleus being formed by Captain Dudley Robinson of Columbus, Frank (Tee) Young of Toledo and Harlan (Jeff) Lewis Dudley of Columbus, star forward. Curtis Taylor, of Crooksville who has had varsity experience, is getting the call at center. Howard (Red) Blair one of the best forwards in the West will be available now that football season is over, as will several members of last year's freshman squad.

The Buckeyes open a 15-game schedule at home on December 15 with the annual Ohio Wesleyan encounter. Other games scheduled are: Dec. 19, Wittenberg; Dec. 30, Vanderbilt; Jan. 8, Illinois; Jan. 13, Northwestern; Jan. 19, Chicago at Chicago; Jan. 20, Iowa at Iowa City; Jan. 27, Michigan at Ann Arbor; Jan. 29, Northwestern at Evanston; Feb. 10, Purdue; Feb. 12, Iowa; Feb. 17, Chicago; Feb. 22, Michigan; Feb. 27, Purdue at Purdue; March 5, Illinois at Urbana.

Chocolate Shop Presents Candy Football to Team

The Chocolate Shop candy football team will be presented to the football team as a whole. "Although no individual player has won it by crossing Illinois or Chicago's goal line, we feel that the team has played great football and deserves the award," said Mr. Danial, manager of the Chocolate Shop.

Entire Coaching Staff Attends Chicago Meet

The entire Wisconsin coaching staff, with the exception of Edward H. Borgelt, boxing mentor, left yesterday for Chicago where it will convene with other Big Ten coaches and arrange sport schedules for the coming year.

Athletic Director and Track Coach Thomas E. Jones, Dr. Walter E. Meanwell, basketball mentor, Mead Burke, cross-country coach, George E. Linden, tennis and gym coach, Joseph Steinauer, swimming coach, baseball Coach Guy S. Lowman and George Hitchcock, wrestling instructor, formed the vanguard of the Badger invasion.

Prof. J. F. A. Pyre, representing the Wisconsin faculty, will leave today to attend the convention of Big Ten faculty representative. Coach John R. Richards has been in Chicago since the contest with the Maroons last Saturday.

The Wisconsin football schedule will call for five conference games, the only one in doubt being that with Illinois. If the Badgers and Illinois are unable to get together on a date, Iowa will replace Coach Zuppke's team on the card.

PURDUE CHAMPS GET GAME WITH BADGER CAGERS

Boilermakers Lose But One Man From Team

(Special to The Cardinal)

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Dec. 1.—With the football season over the Boilermakers have turned their attention to turning out another championship basketball team. Due to the recent ruling Purdue was able to get 12 games. Wisconsin plays Purdue for the first time in a number of years. Indiana, Illinois, Chicago, Northwestern and Ohio are the other teams on the schedule. For one of the three games with teams outside of the conference, Purdue will play Notre Dame. The other two teams will be selected in the near future.

Four of the five members that composed the championship five of last season are back in school. Miller, star guard graduated last June. Captain Masters and Eversman, forwards; Gullion, center and Holwerda, floor guard are Coach Lamber's regulars. Robbins, a sophomore will give Holwerda a hard battle for the floor guard position. Treat and Hawkins members of the squad last year will be tried in Miller's place at back guard. Wellman and Stewart, who played with the Freshman last year are two

1922 FOOTBALL SEASON ENDED ON TURKEY DAY

Nebraska Defeats Notre Dame in Exciting Game

The 1922 football season was laid in its grave Thursday afternoon as the few remaining games were played off.

The Nebraska-Notre Dame game at Lincoln, held the spotlight in this section of the country, and its outcome was somewhat of a revelation to many followers of the game.

Notre Dame arrived home yesterday with a 14 to 6 defeat added to her otherwise clean slate. The straight line smashing style of play offered by the Nebraskans was too much for the Irishmen.

When the Cornhuskers carried the ball to the one foot line and lost the ball on downs they immediately started another field march which put the oval across for six points.

Pass Wins Game

Coach Rockne's men opened up in the third quarter with a forward pass attack as had never been seen before in the Corn country. When gain after gain was made by the Catholics and when Layedn threw a 13-yard pass to Miller who ran 45 yards to a touchdown, the Nebraska stock fell heavily.

Again with the ball on the Westerners 3 yard line, Stuhldreher, Notre Dame quarterback was tackled for a loss in the midst of an effort to throw a forward pass.

How the comparatively weak Syracuse team ever slipped over a other candidates for the position. Eversman, Holwerda, Wellman, Stuart and Howkins were members of the football squad will not report for another week. The other candidate have been working out under Gullion, in the absence of Lambert, who has been helping coach the football squad.

The basket schedule for 1922-23 is as follows:

Jan. 9, Notre Dame at Purdue.
Jan. 15, Northwestern at Purdue.
Jan. 20, Illinois at Illinois.
Jan. 24, Indiana, at Purdue.
Jan. 27, Chicago, at Chicago.
Feb. 6, Wisconsin, at Purdue.
Feb. 10, Ohio at Ohio.
Feb. 17, Illinois, at Purdue.

WELCOME C. I. P. A.

TO the high school editors and delegates of the Central Inter-scholastic Press Association convention we extend a sincere and hearty welcome.

The Cardinal frequently has had the pleasant duty of extending thought its editorial columns a welcome to visiting high school students.

On no other occasion than the present has The Cardinal received greater pleasure in the performance of that duty.

It is not that we love basketball or track tournaments the less but C. I. P. A. the more.

We may be, doubtless are, selfish when we admit that our editorial fingers never pushed with more vigor or warmth on the letters that spelled out welcome.

The Cardinal takes an especial interest in the C. I. P. A.

It does so because it understands what a great work the association is doing in the furtherance of good journalism in prep school papers. More than that it provides for an interchange of ideas, of personalities between high school editors of all parts of the country.

The high school press will be individually and collectively better for the work of the C. I. P. A.

When we extend the hand of welcome to the delegates of C. I. P. A. we extend also the hand of journalistic brotherhood.

SCALPING THE SCALPERS

THE student court has returned the verdict.

Scalpers who capitalized on the zeal of students supporting the university has been judged and sentenced.

The field at Wisconsin for scalpers has been considered unusually profitable. When the teams of some close schools lose, the demand for tickets decreases. Wisconsin's record in this respect has been contradictory.

The defeat on the grid field has not been a gauge of the student loyalty.

Wisconsin's fighting spirit knows no defeat.

And the scalpers have been aware of it. The field was rich, for the demand never dropped.

Profiting on the loyalty of the students is an ignominious profession.

The treatment accorded the scalpers is none too severe. We hope that it will serve however, as a warning against future violations.

PAGING MR. COMINGS!

WISCONSIN has long been noted for the many progressive laws and movements which it has originated.

Among the leading features has been the College of Agriculture, declared by authorities in agriculture to be one of the leading institutions of its kind in the United States.

In this age of progress and enlightenment the challenge of Lieutenant Governor Comings that the College of Agriculture has been of no relative assistance to the farmers of the state stands out in strange contrast with the state's progressive record.

Has the College of Agriculture become conservative and reactionary?

The position of Governor Blaine in the issue is noteworthy.

The governor's attack upon the income tax dodgers has attracted attention. His policies of economy have been endorsed.

Certainly Mr. Blaine has not identified himself with policies of reaction.

The governor's statement of the College of Agriculture then is important in consideration of his assistant's recent vicious attack.

"Under the leadership of large visioned men, OUR COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE, the dairy organizations and dairy cattle men, Wisconsin was able to carry out one of the most significant revolutions known in the history of agriculture."

The Cardinal does not need to revive the past to prove the present.

This mention of praise for the college's contribution to the state was not made four years or even one year ago. Governor Blaine uttered those words October 12 in addressing the National Dairy exposition at St. Paul on "Wisconsin Day."

A leader in making the state of Wisconsin one of the foremost agriculture commonwealths has been the College of Agriculture.

The sacrifice which its scientists have made has not been in vain. Babcock has added millions in wealth to the welfare of Badger farmers. And Babcock is only one.

The allegation of Lieutenant Governor Comings is apparently an appeal to prejudice. Politics is politics.

Looking Back On Wisconsin

IN THE CARDINAL FILES

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

A Mandolin, Banjo, and Guitar club will soon be formed.

The pictures of the football team have been finished and can now be gotten from the manager. "This is an elegant picture and one that every student may well feel proud of."

The committee on a college pin received a number of designs and have selected that of the state with the letters "U. W."

A suggestion is made that all students mark umbrellas and rubbers in order that such property will be less easily lost.

20 YEARS AGO TODAY

Over a hundred students plan to attend the stock show in Chicago. The editor of the Wisconsin Agriculturist invites all the Wisconsin students to a theater party.

Four members of the faculty are to address the annual meeting of the Dane county teachers association.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

The Big Ten conference is emphatically against professionalism. The $8,000 painting by Edwin Bashfield, an allegorical representation of Wisconsin, which is to be placed in the eye of the new capitol dome, has arrived here.

The Chicago Daily News announces its all western first and second football teams naming five U. W. men.

Did you see all those little boys playing foot-ball on the lower campus yesterday? Weren't they having fun? Oh! But the language! Naughty! Naughty! Mamma spank. Papa kick 'em down the cellar stairs!

Of course, their older brothers would say—"Who cares if he gets kicked down the cellar stairs?"

Thank Heaven, the little shavers still know naught of the wicked world. They will know still more or more still when they are older.

Communications

Editor The Cardinal:
I have noted, from time to time, your editorials for an intersection game.

I am glad to note that the students feel the same way as the alumni do. Any student, alumnus or faculty member who comes East once sees, from this angle, the desirability of an intersectional game.

The Iowa-Yale game did Iowa a world of good. The Princeton-Chicago game brought Chicago to the fore. Wisconsin, which can't get fame through her football teams because of unsuccessful coaching, certainly ought to come out of her isolation.

Go to it, Daily Cardinal, and know that the alumni are with you. Maxson F. Judell, '17.

The turn for the worse came Wednesday night, a few hours after she had been reported improved.

Miss Booth contracted a cold last Saturday at the open air dedication of the new headquarters of the central territory of the Salvation Army, and at the unveiling of a tablet marking the spot where the army first began work in Chicago.

CREW KILLED IN HEAVY SEA

Canadian Ship Maplehurst Sinks at Portage Lake Canal

DULUTH, Minn.—Captain Nason Bernard and ten members of the crew of the Canadian steamer Maplehurst perished during a severe gale early today when the ship after being beaten against the lower part of the breakwater at the west end of the Portage Lake canal, Lake Superior, sank in 25 feet of water according to a telephone message to the Associated Press from the Calumet (Mich.) News.

Nine others of the crew were rescued one at a time, jumping from the bridge into a lifeboat.

According to the coast guard service, Captain Bernard and the ten others lost their lives because they declined to jump from the bridge.

The rescue was effected in the teeth of a gale of a hurricane proportion. The lifeboat ran alongside the ship time and again only to be washed back. The men were taken off one at a time jumping from the bridge into the lifeboat.

The Maplehurst, 200 feet long, with an iron hull, was bound from Lorain Ohio, to Port Arthur with 1,800 tons of coal. She sank in 25 feet of water and this forenoon only her funnels are visible above the surface.

TEN APPOINTED TO RIFLE TEAM

Club Takes Steps to Have Shooting Recognized as Minor Sport

Tentative members to compose the university rifle team were announced yesterday by Sergeant Shire, executive officer of the rifle club. "The men selected were chosen on a basis of competitive scores," said Shire.

The men forming the team are: J. C. Bode '23, capt., C. Meyer '24, L. O. Long '24, W. A. Rorison '25, F. Preu '24, L. W. Ross '25, H. J. Sporer '25, W. J. Kalpatrick '26, L. S. Drake '26, and C. H. Swetil '26. They will shoot a match with Lehigh university this week.

Drastic measures have been enacted by the rifle club to prevent laxity on the part of individual members. Fines are to be imposed for failure to shoot assigned targets. Those who do not pay their fines will be automatically dropped to provide room for new members.

Steps are being taken by the club toward the recognition of rifle work as a minor sport by the university. An investigation undertaken by the University of Nebraska proved that thirty-two universities throughout the country recognize rifle shooting as a minor sport. The university rifle team is well worthy of such action, since it won the Sixth Corps area match last year, and also twenty-one matches out of a total of twenty-seven engaged in.

Humanities Courses to Give Examinations Today

A test in reading and translating French and German passages which have not been studied in advance will be given today to all candidates for the degree of bachelor of arts in the humanities course. The committee in charge consists of Prof. Carl Russell Fish, chairman, Professor Dodge, secretary, and Professors W. H. Kiehofer, M. S. Slaughter, and M. E. Guyer. R. B. Sharpe, committee member, and instructor in English, is on leave of absence.

Ten students took a similar examination last year in May to get their degree in June. To give these reading tests at appointed times during the year is the aim of the committee members.

OPPOSE EDISON EDUCATION IDEA

Ohio Faculty and Students Represent New Outburst Against College

(Special to The Cardinal)

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 2.—College students impugned by Thomas A. Edison, electrical wizard in a new outburst of opinion relative to things educational, are not unappreciated by all members of the electrical engineering profession.

They have two staunch friends in C. A. Wright and F. C. Caldwell, professors of electrical engineering at Ohio State University.

"No one likes dirty work, but the majority of men do it when they have to," Professor Wright contends. "It is my experience with students in electrical engineering that college men do have imagination, and they continually show good ideas," he declared. "I agree that it is necessary for a man to go to college to succeed, but as a rule the college man gets ahead faster."

There are two reasons for Edison's statements in the opinion of Professor Francis C. Caldwell: first Edison is probably prejudiced against the college man because he himself has risen through his own efforts; second, the college men he has had experience with might be sons of business friends who graduated from college merely because it was the thing to do, and were given positions in which they failed.

Two Recommended to Take West Point Exam

Governor Blaine recommended that Private Arthur Edwin Solem, 166th field artillery battalion of Superior, and Private Jacob C. Korman, Service company, 128th infantry of the Wisconsin national guard be admitted to the final examination for West Point. This amounts to appointment to the national military academy, according to the adjutant general. Alternatives recommended in case the Wisconsin guard is allotted more than two candidates were chosen. They are Private Donald Kurz, Co. D, 127th infantry, Appleton, and Private Harold W. Greb, Battery B, 120th field artillery, Stevens Point.

Call of Wild Attracts Five State Officials

The call of the wild attracted a party of five distinguished state officials and judges today to the Devil's Lake region for a week end outing. Chief Justice A. J. Vinje of the Supreme court, Justice E. Ray Stevens, of the Dane county circuit court, E. B. Lester, secretary of the state library commission, Carl Jackson, member of the railroad commission and Dean H. L. Russell of the College of Agriculture, make up the party which set out to spend three days in the woods. The men plan to "rough it" cooking their own meals and tramping through the region of the Baraboo range.

17 Die in Mexico City Riot; City Hall Ruined

MEXICO CITY—Federal troops guarded a badly battered municipal building today while the city counted the casualties of a pitched battle between the police and a mob which attempted to storm the building last night. The death list as a result of the fighting stood at 17 early today while 18 persons are known to have been seriously injured and 33 slightly hurt. The trouble started when a crowd marched to the city hall to protest against the aldermen who are held responsible for conditions leading to the water famine. The demonstration was intended by the labor unions that organized it as a peaceful protest.

Chief Heyl Warns Against Xmas Fires

"Keep inflammables out of the store windows when doing your Christmas trimming," is the warning of Fire Chief Carl W. Heyl today in speaking of the coming holiday season.

"In the past it has been the mark without caution who has caused most of the fires during the Christmas season. The tinsel and easily combustible trimmings that are used in the windows are dangerous unless the proper precaution is taken to guard against fire loss."

FRESHMEN CAPS PUT ASIDE FOR WINTER MONTHS

The freshman cap has been laid aside for the winter, and will be donned again next Easter Sunday, in accordance with the recent legislation passed by the Student senate. The removal of the green cap came as the culmination to provide a special toque for the winter months, which did not meet the favor of the senators.

James Flickinger, president of the freshman class, recently said that there was no great feeling against the present cap, but that it was not an adequate protection against the cold and wind, because it lacked a brim.

"I feel quite sure that the freshmen will accept the cap next spring in the same manner and will don it in the same numbers as they have this fall, if they are permitted to abandon it during the winter," he said.

THEOLOGIAN TO SPEAK DEC. 14

Religious Council Secures Dr. Ozora Davis For Address

Dr. Ozora Davis of the Chicago Theological seminary has been secured by the Campus Religious Council to speak at the second monthly conference to be held December 14.

Members of the council will be the guests of the St. Francis society Thursday night at the first of a series of informal social meetings to be given by the council. The plan of meeting once each month for the transaction of business and once for recreational and educational purposes was decided at the regular meeting of the council in November, and the St. Francis society extended an invitation to the members to be their guests.

The council also passed resolutions in favor of the Wisconsin China movement and invited Jack Childs to be present at the meeting Thursday. Sunday has been set aside as a day for special contributions to the relief of Smyrna fund, and the council voted to urge congregations in their respective churches to contribute to the fund. It is the intention of those in charge of the relief to avoid the necessity of driving to obtain money.

Knights Plan Pinner, Better Annual Banquet

OHIO DECLARED SELF-RELIANT

Students Make Crop Census and Find Production Margin

(Special to The Cardinal)

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 2.—If Ohio should ever be cut off from outside aid by strike, disaster or invasion, the state could just feed itself, according to an estimate made by a class of students in rural economics of Ohio State University.

Led by Prof. C. G. McBride, the class members have gone to the census and authoritative food-consumption tables and find that Ohio produces more than it consumes of mutton and poultry products, and that there is a tremendous surplus of pork, amounting to 415,000,000 pounds a year. The consumption of cereals, potatoes, beef, veal, and fruit in the state, however exceeds home supply.

If pork production were reduced 312,000,000 pounds annually, this would still leave enough pork, and turn enough corn from hog to cattle feeding to take care of the beef deficit. It would also divert enough corn acreage to other crops to take care of the small grain, the potato and eventually the fruit deficit.

With these necessary changes in crop schemes the state could just feed its present population 5,759,394.

DROP DEBT IS HIBBEN'S PLEA

Princeton Professor Seeks Cancellation of War Loans

"America should cancel at least allies," President John Grier Hibben of Princeton university said in a public address at Houston, Texas, Thursday. Dr. Hibben spoke at the tenth anniversary services of the Rice institute.

"A great toll," he said, "was paid by the allies in the year when we were in preparation to enter the war. If we exact further payment in money, we will be demanding that the allies pay the debt they owe us twice over. It may be said by some that while this a generous solution on our part of some of the difficulties of Europe, it is not right that the nation should forego a contractual debt, that the government is the trustee of the funds of its people and must safe guard the financial interests of its citizens. "Such an action now on our part would not only give new courage and hope to Europe, but would ring to our American people again the same elevation of spirit, which we experienced in the year of 1917 and 1918 during the world war. It is a great day in the history of mankind when a powerful nation shall rise up and prove to all the world that it has a soul."

CITY TAX RATE TO BE HIGHER

Increase Seen as City
Revenue Declines;
Submit Budget

The 1923 tax rate for the city of Madison will reach and possibly exceed 28 mills in 1923, it is estimated from tentative figures of the finance committee.

The rate last year was slightly over 23 mills. A determined attempt was made by the committee this year to hold the rate down to 25 mills but due to the falling off in various sources of revenue and the expected revenue derived from the state and county taxes, it could not be done.

A meeting of the city finance committee has been called for Monday evening at 7 o'clock at which time final discussion on the 1923 budget will be held.

The budget will be submitted to the city council as a committee of the whole with the committee to fix the tax rate Tuesday night. According to law the rate must be fixed at a special meeting either on or before Dec. 8.

Governor Shows Leniency to Kenosha Bootleggers

Four members of the alleged Kenosha liquor ring uncovered by a grand jury investigation in 1921, and sentenced to prison for long terms by Judge E. B. Belden in circuit court Jan. 20, 1922, were accorded executive clemency Thursday by Gov. Blaine. Two Racine liquor law violators were also given reduced sentences.

The six-year sentence of Harry S. Gordon, said to be the leader of the ring, was reduced to expire Thursday and his fine of $4,500 was cut to $1,800 by action of the governor. Edward Minkowski, Julius Klouss and Ben Loefer were the other Kenosha men released from prison Thursday.

"In acting on these cases, I have taken into consideration the McOven case, in which the court, instead of imposing long term sentences of imprisonment as such, running consecutively, imposed 60-day sentences running concurrently, and the imprisonment for failure to pay the fine ran concurrently, not exceeding six months," Gov. Blaine said. He declared the sentence to be excessive.

Perri in Superior court on Jan'y 19, 1921, yesterday, walked from the prison a free man. The pardon of Stewart was signed by Gov. J. J. Blaine on Nov. 29. Herbert C. Ryan, 31, alias "Joe Kinsella" alias "Wisconsin Mac" alias "Chi Louie," the third member of the alleged bandit gang who confessed to participation, was sentenced to 30 years at hard labor by Judge Perrin.

52 FRATS MEET AT CONVENTION

Goodnight Unable to Attend;
Many Prominent Men Present

The Interfraternity conference, representing 52 fraternities of American colleges and universities, was in session yesterday and today at Hotel Pennsylvania, New York. Dean S. H. Goodnight, who was to represent Wisconsin, was unable to attend the meeting.

The Interfraternity conference was founded at Chicago in 1909, and has grown steadily until today 52 fraternities are represented. The conference is the result of a realization on the part of college fraternities of their common ideals and tasks, and through their efforts mutual jealousies and rivalries have been diminished.

Five college presidents, a chancellor, and numerous deans attended the meeting. Other distinguished men at the conference were Senator George Wharton Pepper, Ex-vice President Thomas R. Marshall, and Ex-Secretary of War, Newton D. Baker.

Orph Presents Interesting Bill For This Week-end

"The Rounder of Old Broadway," presented by Dave Ferguson and his players, is one of the hits of the week end bill at the Orpheum. This comedy skit depicts night life as seen along the gay white way in the late hours of the night. Times Square portrayed by Ferguson in a special scene.

The Werner Amoros Trio are novel in their presentation of musical divertissement.

A marvelous display of intelligence is furnished by Pickard's trained seas. These educated actors of the sea have been schooled in performance entirely different from those usually taught to creatures of their kind.

Sidney Landfield billed as "A Boy and a Piano," offers a few moments of talking singing and piano playing.

Driscoll and Earl present a comedy hit called "Back to Summer-ville."

Ishikawa Brothers demonstrate their skill as hand balancers.

The motion picture part of the entertainment consists of special pictures of the Chicago-Illinois football game; the latest Pathe News, and Aesop's Fables.

1922 SEASON ENDS ON TURKEY DAY

win on the Nebraskans is a problem to more than one sport writer. The Thanksgiving Day game clearly showed that Nebraska is far superior to any other team in the Missouri valley conference.

In the East Cornell strengthened the general belief that they are nearly on a par with Princeton as far as football is concerned.

Pennsylvania Defeats Penn State. Pennsylvania's 7 to 6 win over Penn State and Cornell's 9 to 0 win over Pennsylvania places them in the top rung with other football teams in the section.

A goal from field and a touchdown did the trick for Cornell and after celebrations of the Ithicans lasted far into the night. It was the second consecutive year that Gilmore Dobie has perfected a system that would crush the powerful University of Pennsylvania machine.

Penn State went down in defeat for the second time this year when the University of Pittsburgh launched an attack that won the game 14 to 0.

The two years before the Pitt Panther and the Penn Lion emerged equal terms, neither side being able to score.

Straight line plunging and an unexpected break were important factors in the Pittsburgh victory.

In the far West the Washington-Oregon contest held the greatest interest for followers of the game. The two teams battled to 3 to 3 tie.

Washington Defeated

At Los Angeles the University of Southern California smothered Washington State under a 41 to 3 defeat. The line smashing of the Trojans overpowered the Northern-ers and the best they could do was a goal from the field.

With the close of the season Princeton and Cornell are claiming the championship in the East while Iowa and Michigan finished the season on equal terms. In the South Vanderbilt is the champion while in the Missouri valley Nebraska is the undisputed champion as has California on the Pacific Coast.
