WINNERS

Gordon Hall South received first place for the Christmas decorations at WSH. The winner was announced at the weekly Sing-and-Swing Dec. 27th, at the Canteen.

Richard , social chairman, made the presentations. Second place was awarded to Sherman Hall Wards 3-4, and third place to Sherman Hall 5-6.

The best decorated cafeteria was Gordon Hall, with Sherman Hall receiving second.

The awards were plaques, which were hung on the walls.

Issues & Answers

HOW DID YOU CELEBRATE THE HOLIDAYS?

On the ward. We had a good time considering it was in a hospital.

Louis

With my family and had such a good time.

David

I went to Dr. Bloom's house for dinner.

Ann

I went home for five hours and drank all the time to celebrate for everyone in the hospital.

Debra

I was working here.

Bob

At the Deck.

Anonymous

On my sister's farm.

Anonymous

I don't want anything about them.

Fred

I don't feel to want one of them.

Marco

Took it easy.

Anonymous

I didn't like the food.

Anonymous

Yes, I did.

Anonymous

I didn't.

Anonymous

I still keep trying to get outside.

Anonymous

I enjoyed the holidays in a convolt manner. Happy New Year.

Anonymous

I don't fail to dislike Christmas..

Anonymous

Didn't want anything to do about them.

Anonymous

I didn't. All I did was sit around and do nothing.

Clay

On Wards 7-8 we had a Christmas party. We had lots of good food and nice presents. Lots of fun was had by all. We even had mistletoe.

Rosemary

On Ward 7-8. It was one of the best Christmas's I have had. Everyone was in the Christmas spirit and that made it great for being away from home.

Ann

Thinking about being home with my daughter.

Carol

I spent the Christmas holiday at home with my family and thanking God for all He has given me.

Kathy

It was alright.

Williams

Went downtown for a steak, went bowling, got a letter from my mother, had a ward party and lots of fun.

Durana

Went tobogganing.

Anonymous

It was the best Christmas I've ever had - I went home with a girl from Hughes Hall and we had a lot of fun.

Barbara Renne

Nothing special - we worked (transportation).

Leo

I had all kinds of good fun - but was short on sleep.

John- Transportation

We even had to work transportation on Christmas.

Joe

My co-workers enjoyed transporting your Christmas dinner to you and will be doing the same on New Years.

Anonymous

I stayed on the ward and watched the Packers lose the NFC playoffs.

Tom

Same as any other day.

Roger

I went out for dinner.

Chris

Religious Views

An appropriate Word of our God to ponder upon and to cling to as we begin a New Year is St. Paul's blessing spoken to the Philippian Christians: "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all." We could desire no better and no greater blessing than the grace which our Redeemer merited for us through His Holy, precious blood, and His innocent suffering and death upon the cross. Throughout the three hundred and sixty-five days of the year many things will be written on our records in which we will find no delight yes, of which we will be ashamed. This is evident to us from our sordid past. If we were to keep a diary of our thoughts, words and deeds, we would have to acknowledge with humble and penitent hearts that we failed to do the good we wanted to do and we did the evil which we really did not want to do. It is because of this that the Christian will close each day with the prayer "Jesus, Savior, wash away all that has been wrong today." When we think of this our hearts are heavy.

But let us dwell on the brighter side of our lives. If the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ is with us, and it most assuredly will be, then we will be able to draw near to our heavenly Father, in the name of our Mediator and Redeemer, saying: "Heavenly Father, forgive us our sins and failure, and shortcomings for the sake of the bitter suffering and death of Thy dear Son," for He has given us the assurance: "Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out," and "the blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth you from all sin."

If we are cleansed through the blood of Jesus Christ we can launch out into the New Year without fear and foreboding. Even though the year lies before us shrouded in darkness; even though we may have new and more tribulation; even though this might be our last year upon this earth; even though the sands of time will have run through the hour-glass and earth and sky shall pass away, we need not be afraid. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ shall be with us. That is all that is necessary! This assures us of security in time and hope. Hence we pray: "A-

What You Should Know

WILL I RECEIVE MEDICATIONS?

This varies with each patient. Oftentimes your doctor may withhold medications for a few days upon your arrival to observe your behavior.

If and when you do receive medications, the nurse on duty will tell you the time of day such medications are issued. It may be three or four times a day.

Be sure you're on time to take your medications.

Your doctor will tell you the type of medications he's prescribed for you if you ask him.

WHO DETERMINES WHEN I AM RELEASED?

Your doctor will determine when you should be released. Pay no attention to "wild tales" you might hear. He is happy when a patient improves. You will not remain in the hospital any longer than necessary.

WHEN ARE MEALS SERVED?

Meals are served three times a day in the cafeteria in your building. You'll be notified as to the time by aides on the ward. On some occasions you may eat on the ward. If you do, a food cart will come before the regular meal is announced.

WILL I BE ALLOWED TO BUY CANDY, CIGARETTES, GUM, ETC.?

There are vending machines on each unit where you may purchase candy, cigarettes, soda pop, etc. Your aide will notify you regarding the times you can utilize this service.

Also, once or twice a week the Canteen cart will come to your ward. At this time you will be allowed to buy personal articles such as deodorant, lipstick, hand lotion, etc. The cart also carries a wide selection of candy, cigarettes, gum and snacks.

MAY I GET MY HAIR CUT?

There is a barbershop on each unit and you will be called for a haircut if needed. If you don't have a razor on the admission unit, an electric one will be furnished when you want to shave.

If you're a woman, take advantage of the beauty shop in your unit.

WILL I BE PERMITTED TO ATTEND CHURCH SERVICES?

Yes. Both Protestant and Catholic services are held regularly in the new All-Faiths Chapel.

Time of services is announced over the public address system.

STATE BUILDING PROJECT

Sixty inmates from Waupun State Prison will be housed in a new building, which is being built in the large tract of land to the north of Kempster Hall.

This information was furnished in an interview with Paul Thies, business administrator of Winnebago State Hospital.

The building project involves WSH, because the sewer and water systems are being hooked into this hospital's. The immediate digging going on is for the pipes for these systems.

The project is called "Inmate housing Unit, Winnebago State Camp, Oshkosh."

The building, approximately 2 1/2 feet long and 50 feet wide, will have total program facilities and will be a operating unit. The building will have all individual rooms and the 60 inmates will be involved in a work release program, Mr. Thies said.

The State Bureau of Facilities Management is the state agency in charge, and the architects are Bowen and Kana-zawa.

DEAD RIGHT

Under this tombstone lies Timothy Grey, who died maintaining his right of way. Oh, he was right, dead right, as he sped along, But he's just as dead as if he were wrong...

SCORE ON THE LESSARD DECISION

On December 15, 1972 I went to the Winnebago Co. Court House at Oshkosh and sat in on a state-wide telephone hookup that was part of the University of Wis. educational program. Present in Madison were a panel of 10 state officials who are a part of the forces involved in carrying out the mandates of the Lessard vs. Schmidt Ruling concerning citizens in the mental institutions of Wisconsin. The basic group of professionals in Oshkosh were social workers. There were two lawyers also in attendance, Mr. Nolan and Mr. Fink, both from a law firm in Oshkosh. Services Dept. here at Winnebago State Hospital represented the hospital and the State of Wis. at this meeting. I represented the Wisconsin citizen in Wis. mental institutions.

Granted, this does not sound like much of a representation for 12,500 citizens when our adversaries had hundreds around the state to express their side of the issues at hand. But at least it was the first voice heard from our side of the fence in 7,000 yrs. Those who have spoke for us in the past were on the outside looking in. Now there is a voice from the inside speaking, though at this time it is but one voice. However, Rome was not built in a day and our God-given dignities as American Citizens and human beings will not return overnight. Let patience and forgiveness be our motto during this crucial, transitional period.

At this meeting, state officials submitted voluntarily to include citizens at Northern and Southern Colony as part of the over all decision. They also include SS 51.13 (3) as no longer being in effect. This is the Statute that deals with the (1) year conditional release discharge procedure. According to a member of the panel, no longer can a Supt. of a State Hosp. notify the Sheriff to pick up a Wis citizen solely because a letter or telephone call was received from some unknown party saying they "thought" another, ex-nut should be locked up again, without having a hearing or anything whatsoever before it is done.

Man is a wonderful animal. If hit hard enough with common sense and intelligent knowledge, he eventually gets the point in contest and can proceed in an intelligent direction.

We, the ill of mind, must now be patient and see if he has consumed any wisdom from past actions and more important, uses this wisdom to make an improved future for his fellow humans' posterity.

HALLS GALORE

We are in the basic ripple,
As we are interest into triple.
It is variety in the ratio,
Base concern know Alpha Omega,
Laugh to the individual lie,
Be certain to remove your tie,
It is basic to exodus,
While we agree note with us.

Gary

I would rather have a little rose
From the garden of a friend,
Than to have the choicest flowers
When my stay on earth must end.
I would rather have the kind words
And a smile that I can see,
Than flattery when my heart is still
And life has ceased to be.

I would rather have a loving smile
From friends I know are true,
Than tears shed round my casket
When this world I bid adieu.
I want the flowers while I'm here,
Be they pink or white or red;
I'd rather have one blossom now
Than a truckload when I'm dead.

A FRIEND

A friend is more than
A treasured gift.
They brighten up the Little rifts.
In solitude moments
That one recalls,
There like foot steps down
Through school day halls.

Robert

I bargained with life for a penny,
And life would pay no more,
However I begged at evening,
When I counted my scanty store.

For life is just an employer,
He gives you what you ask,
But once you have set the wages,
Why, you must bear the task.

I worked for a menial's hire,
Only to learn dismay,
That any wage I had asked of life,
Life would have willingly paid.

Jim

What, when, where and how? Can these questions ever be truly answered to the satisfaction of our unhealthy but anxious desires? Or must they remain a mystrey to the Aeons of Age and eternity, forever on man's mind and lips, but never satisfaction.

The higher power realizes the man is curious but makes no everlasting effort to quench this horrid burning thirst for knowledge.

Why is it that man is chained to the rock of his undeniable ignorance in light of modern advances in physics, chemistry and related subjects. It is as if to say that we are still wallowing in the filth of our own ignorance!
Laying, albeit, no great eggs of unholy magnitude we still suffer cosmic difficulties in our rapport with fellowman which must be overcome before life can have any true meaning on the third stone from the sun, that is as if to say--

THE END

YEA, THE TIDES BE ROLLING IN

You aren't too far away? to reach
Your sea, isn't it from them say, save hope?
Do you let hope have it's way?
All of you'll see the day, when?
Let tides be rolling in, let tides be rolling in.
Say yea? ya say you've said yea.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Happy friends surrounding us in friendliness and warmth and trust.
A circle warm and true,
A touch of we must,
A sign of memory one of another,
And bitterness cannot break through.

So I will throw you a friendly kiss.
A hint of mistletoe.
Wishing for a Happy New Year
With wishes for love to grow.

JOKES

A few weeks after Pearl Harbor, all Hollywood was repeating the story of the star who began worrying about her Japanese butler. She summoned him and quavered, "Hoshir, after all these years in my employ, I hope you're not going to gumshoe in here while I'm asleep and slit my throat." "No, miss," the Japanese assured her. "Me no do thing like that. Gardener probably. Me just burn down the house."

An English squire was showing Kenilworth Castle to some soldiers from the Bronx. "For hundreds of years," he proclaimed, "not a stone of this edifice has been touched, not a single thing repaired." "Say," observed one of the soldiers, "we must have the same landlords."

Mrs. Poore heard a crash in the kitchen. "More dishes, Francesca?" she called with an air of resignation. "No ma'am," came the voice of Francesca, "loss."

An irate member accosted the secretary of a London literary club and said "Give me your advice, John. I have been deliberately insulted by Colonel so-and-so. Without preamble he said to me, "Sir, I will give you fifty pounds if you resign your membership in this club. What do you think I ought to do about it?" "That's obvious," said the secretary tartly, "Hold out for a better offer."

An English lord was taken to one of the first Army-Navy football games ever played. It was a bitter struggle, and a lot of players were hurt. "I say," commented the Englishman after a scrimmage that left two men prostrate on the field, "wouldn't it be simpler if they gave each team a ball?"
