The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Print the complete address in plain block letters in the panel below, and your return address in the space provided. Use typewriter, dark ink, or pencil. Write plainly. Very small writing is not suitable.

Dearest Betty:

I didn't get any mail again today. There was supposed to be quite a storm somewhere around here, so I imagine that's why we aren't get our mail. When it does come thru, maybe I'll get enough to last for awhile.

Started getting the Reporter. The first copy was dated Dec 14th. They'll probably come in bunches pretty regular from now on. It's good to get it again tho.

Well I haven't much more I can write about.

Give my regards to everyone, and take good care of yourself.

Love
Elhart
