THE WISCONSIN UNION TERRACE: THE PLACE TO BE ON A HOT SUMMER NIGHT.

For many years, you've been enjoying bands, brats, ducks and quiet moments on the Terrace. Sure the Terrace is great, but the Wisconsin Union offers much, much more. You can glance at the artwork in one of our galleries, savor a dish of Babcock ice cream or a slice of the Union's own fudge bottom pie, catch a film or lecture, bowl, rent a canoe, or see what's happening at the Travel Center, the Craftshop or in the world of Mini Courses. This summer we again invite you to enjoy the Terrace, but while you're here we encourage you to try something new. After all, it's your Union!

Whether your preference is coffee, tea, beer or wines of the world, Mini Courses has lined up noted Madison area experts to guide you to enjoyment this summer.

Gourmet Coffees & Teas will be presented by Victor Allen Mondry, owner of Victor Allen's Coffee and Tea. The course will include one evening sampling coffee, one evening concentrating on teas and conclude with a tour and in-class roasting at the west side roasting plant and warehouse.

You may also take The World of Beers with Kirby Nelson, the Brew Meister at Middleton's Capital Brewery. This one-evening class and sampling session is guaranteed, by Nelson, to make you swear off light beers forever!

Finally, for wine lovers, there are a number of summertime options. Bob Wollershiem of Wollershiem Winery in Prairie Du Sac will present his popular Wine Appreciation 1. The wines of France, Italy, Germany and the United States are featured in four evenings of tasting and learning.

Or hook up with Kent Harris, one of the "Wine Guys" and learn more about the great wine producing regions of the world: Italy, Germany, Spain, France, North America, Australia and New Zealand. Each course offers tasting finer wines of each region. Sign up for your favorite region or take them all and go around the world in wine!

There is sure to be a course that interests you in the Summer '93 Mini Course catalog. Courses begin June 21. Call (608) 262-3156 today for your free catalog!
