RESOLUTION NO. 2, A.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, MADISON, Wis.

January 10, 1861.—Introduced by Mr. Frisby; laid over under the Rules.
“ 11, “ Considered and adopted.

“ Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of this House be directed to prepare an edition of the Blue Book, for 1861 :

“ That the same be immediately published by the State Printer in the same general style of the Blue Book of 1861 :

“ That 1,000 copies thereof be published : and

“ That they be distributed in the usual manner.”

P R E F A C E .

THE MANUAL, or "Blue Book," compiled by the undersigned, for the Legislatures respectively, of 1859 and 1860, has been found so useful and acceptable, that the Assembly of 1861 has ordered a new edition for its use, and that of the Legislature of 1862.

This Third Annual Edition is submitted, with corrections and additions.

It comprises the following topics :

1. Statistical list of Members and Officers of the Assembly.
2. Statistical list of Members and Officers of the Senate.
3. Committees of the Assembly.
4. Committees of the Senate.
5. Organization.
6. Drawing of seats.
7. Compensation.
8. Duties of Officers.
9. Stationery.
10. Newspapers.
11. Public Documents.
12. Post Office arrangements.

13. Process of passing bills.
14. Proceedings in Committee of the Whole.
15. Forms for Reports, Resolutions, &c.
16. Investigations by the Legislature.
17. Table of Quorums.
18. Post Offices in Wisconsin.
19. Members for 1857, 1858, 1859, 1860 and 1861 with apportionment.
20. Senatorial Districts, and List of Senators since 1856.
21. Congressional Districts, and List of Congressmen.
22. State Offices. Courts.

Joint Select Committee on the Re-Appportionment of the State into Congressional, Senatorial, and Assembly Districts:—
 Senators Worthington, A. I. Bennett, and Decker—
 Messrs. Kribs, Palmer, Lain, Clark, Pullen, and Reed.

V.—ORGANIZATION.

The Assembly convenes at 12 o'clock M., on the second Wednesday in January in each year.

Custom, so prevalent and so ancient as to have the force of law, has made it the duty of the Chief Clerk of the previous Assembly to call to order, and to conduct the proceedings generally, until a Speaker is chosen, unless it happens that the Clerk is politically opposed to the majority of the Assembly, when, sometimes, a Speaker pro tempore, is selected, in which case the Clerk acts only as Clerk until his successor is selected.

The Secretary of State furnishes to the Clerk a certified statement of the names of the members elect, which is read. The members then advance to the Clerk's desk, generally, the delegation of each county by itself, and subscribe the oath of office.

It often happens, that, by neglect of the proper county officer, to return the proceedings of the County Canvassers, some members, find their election not to be of record in the Secretary's office. In such case, the certificate held by the member himself, should be produced to the Clerk. This answers every purpose, and should always be secured by members elect, from the Clerk of their County.

The oath of office is then administered to the members elect. It may be administered by the Speaker, the President of the Senate, the Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, or any of the Judges of the Supreme Court. It has been administered in this State, usually, by one of the Judges. Members coming in after the first day of the session are sworn in by the Speaker.

After all are sworn, the roll is called, when, if a quorum is found present, the Clerk declares the House to be qualified and competent to proceed to business.

If the parties in the Assembly have determined their choice for officers, the election proceeds forthwith; if not, an adjournment is had until the next day.

The election for Speaker, Clerk, and Sergeant-at-Arms, is required to be viva voce, and these are the only offices which the Assembly can fill.

The roll is called, and each member announces audibly the name of the candidate of his choice.

The Clerk announces the result, and names a committee to conduct the Speaker elect to the chair; the other elections proceed in the same manner, except that when the result is announced by the Speaker, the officer elect advances to the Clerk's desk and is sworn in by the Speaker.

A committee is then appointed to wait on the Senate, and inform them that the Assembly is organized; or the Clerk is directed, by resolution, to inform the Senate of the fact.

A Joint Committee of both Houses is then appointed to convey a like message to the Governor, and inform him that the Houses are in readiness to receive any communication from him.

The Senate and Assembly have usually assembled in Joint Convention, in the Assembly Chamber, upon some day and hour suggested by the Governor, during the first week of the session, to hear his annual message.

The message has been read sometimes by his Private Secretary, and sometimes by his Private Secretary, and sometimes by the Clerk of one of the Houses.

At the first opportunity after the hearing of the message, it is considered in Committee of the Whole, and the various recommendations therein contained, are referred to appropriate Standing Committees, or to Select Committees.

Standing Committees are appointed by the Speaker at as early a day in the session as is possible. They consist of five members to each committee, except that on Railroads, which consists of nine members, the Joint Committee on Printing, which consists of three, the Joint Committee for investigation, which consists of two members, and the Joint Committee on Local Laws, which consists of three members.

VI.—DRAWING OF SEATS.

The drawing of seats by lot, has been first observed since the Assembly first took possession of the new Assembly Chamber.

The method heretofore pursued, is as follows:

The members leave their seats, and take places in the open area behind the seats.

The Clerk having placed in a box, slips of paper containing the names of members respectively, a page or messenger draws them therefrom. The Clerk announces each name as it is drawn, and the member named selects his seat, and occupies it until the drawing is completed.

It is suggested that it would be better if the members would withdraw to the lobby, instead of the area, and if members were required to occupy the seats chosen by them, until the drawing is completed.

VII.—COMPENSATION.

“Each member of the Legislature shall receive for his services, two dollars and fifty cents for each day’s attendance during the session, and ten cents for every mile he shall travel in going to and returning from the place of the meeting of the Legislature, on the most usual route.”—Con., Art 4, Sec. 21.

“The Speaker of the Assembly shall be entitled to receive for every day’s attendance during the session of the Assembly, two dollars and fifty cents in addition to his per diem as a member of the Assembly.”—R. S., Page 120, Sec. 10.

It is customary to pay the mileage of members both ways, at the commencement of the session, upon the certificate of the Speaker and Clerk, as to the proper sum to which each member is entitled.

During the sessions of 1858, 1859 and 1860, members received their per diem certificates from the Clerk, every ten days. This course was found preferable, on many accounts, to the former method of drawing certificates only when demanded by members, and it is recommended for future observance.

During the sessions of 1854, 1855 and 1856, the compensation of the Chief Clerk was $1,600, out of which he was required to pay the entire clerical force, and index the journals.

Since that time the clerks have received a per diem as follows :

CLERKS.	1857.	1858.	1859 & 1860.
Chief Clerk, ..	$6 00	$6 00	$5 00
Ass't Clerk, ..	5 00	5 00	4 00
Other Clerks	4 00	4 00	3 00

In addition to duties during the session, the Chief Clerk is required to perform various duties after the adjournment, and previous to the commencement of the Assembly, for the first of which $200 to $300 has, of late years, been the usual appropriation, and for the other duties, $50 or $75 has been the customary allowance.

The following Table will show the Officers employed in the Department of the Sergeant-at-Arms, and their rates of compensation per diem, for the last six years :

Extra compensation is sometimes granted by the Legislature to such officers as have performed usually arduous duties.

The Legislature of 1860, in order to save the time which is usually expended in discussing the question of compensation, provided, that the rates for that year, should thereafter be the regular rates of compensation, for all officers.

VIII.—DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

CHIEF CLERK.—This officer, before entering upon his duties, must take the usual oath of office, and execute a bond, running to the Treasurer of the State of Wisconsin, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, with two sureties, who shall severally testify that they are worth the sum of five thousand dollars, over and above all debts and liabilities; and conditioned that he shall honestly and faithfully perform all the duties required by Chapter 110 of the Session Laws of 1853, or any other law of the State, relating to said office, without fraud or delay.

The bond must be approved by the Speaker, and filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

It is his duty to prepare and furnish to the Public Printer, an accurate record of each day's proceedings, and a copy of every bill, report and other thing ordered to be printed, "on the same day such orders are made;" to officiate in person at the reading desk; to keep the pay accounts of members and officers, and issue his certificates of per diem to them; to deliver the messages of the Assembly to the Senate; to sign subpoenas; he can "permit no records nor papers belonging to the Assembly to be taken out of his custody, otherwise than in the regular course of business;" and "shall report any missing papers to the notice of the Speaker; and generally, under the supervision of the Speaker, manage the internal machinery of the Assembly.

It is his duty to prepare an index to the Journal, at the close of the session and to be present at the opening of the next session, and attend to such preliminary business as may be necessary, and conduct the proceedings therein until a Speaker is elected, and perform the duties of Clerk thereof until his successor is chosen and qualified.

It is his duty, within ten days after the close of each session, to furnish to the State Printer a correct copy of the Journal of the Assembly, together with a copy of all reports made to the Assembly.

He is by law responsible for the conduct of his subordinates, for the safe keeping of all bills and other documents in possession of the Assembly, and for the proper registry of all proceedings; and is required, at the close of the session, to deposit all papers in his possession as Chief Clerk, properly classified and labelled, with the Secretary of State. He must systematize the labor of his department, and carefully arrange and classify the business of the House.

THE ASSISTANT CLERK.—Is the Deputy of the Chief Clerk, performing his duties when absent from illness or any other cause, and charged specially with the making up of the Journal.

THE BOOK-KEEPER.—Has charge of the Assembly books, in which he enters the title of every bill, resolution or other paper received by the Assembly, and opposite to such title all action taken and proceedings had, with regard to such paper.

THE TRANSCRIBING CLERK.—Copies the record of the proceedings of the Assembly into a book prepared for that purpose.

THE ENGROSSING CLERK.—Copies all bills of the Assembly which are passed to a third reading. This rule, however, is not always strictly adhered to. The object of engrossment is mainly to ensure the proper placing and security of amendments adopted on the second reading. In cases, therefore, where a bill is legibly written, and passes to a third reading without amendment, it is unnecessary to have it engrossed.

THE ENROLLING CLERK.—Is charged with the duty of making clear, legible copies of all Assembly bills which are concurred in by the Senate. The enrolling is done upon paper procured for that purpose, of uniform size and appearance, and with sufficient margin to allow of binding for preservation.

In addition to these duties, the several clerks are to make themselves useful in any branch of the clerical department, under the direction of the Chief Clerk, whenever it becomes necessary, and they are in all cases to notify him of any interference by members or others with their duties, and of all improper approaches or requests to them by any person. They are not to exhibit to any person any bill or other document in their official possession, without leave of the Chief Clerk. They are to maintain a courteous and gentlemanly demeanor to all, and are not, under any circumstances, to interfere with legislation.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS.—This officer is the executive officer of the House. He has charge of the post office and other appurtenant conveniences of the Assembly. He controls the police regulations, attends to the warming of the chamber, serves the subpoenas and warrants of the Assembly, announces messages from the Governor and from the Senate, provides rooms for committees, receives from the Superintendent of Public Property all public documents ordered, or coming in due course, and distributes the same through the post office or otherwise, to members and officers entitled thereto. He is to organize his department with such system, that each of his subordinates shall know his precise duties, and he is to see that each performs his duty promptly, thoroughly and courteously. He is required to keep the Assembly open from 8 o'clock A. M., to 10 o'clock P. M.

He should have the printed bills and other documents in his possession so classified and arranged that he can at once answer any call upon him for them. His assistant assists him generally in the discharge of his duties, and takes his place when he is absent.

THE POSTMASTER.—Attends to the receipt and delivery of all mail matter coming to members and officers of the Assembly. Each member has a box in the Assembly post office, in which his mail matter is deposited; and the Postmaster must, by himself or assistant, be at his post from 8 o'clock A. M., until 10 o'clock P. M., and until the adjournment of the Assembly for the day. He receives and forwards all mail matter deposited in his office by members or officers, in time to be mailed from the Madison post office. He is to prominently post in the Cloak and Hat room (which is the members' side of the post office) a notice of the hours of closing the Assembly mails. He is entitled to the exclusive use of the post office, and no one ought to be admitted thereto except the Sergeant-at-Arms and the Speaker.

THE ASSISTANT POSTMASTER.—Brings the mail to and from the Madison post office, and assists the Postmaster generally in his duties.

THE DOORKEEPER.—Attends to the principal door; opens and closes it for the entry or exit of all persons; maintains order in the lobby and vestibule; sees that visitors are seated, and that the regulations of the House, in his department, are strictly enforced. For the proper discharge of this office, both patience, courtesy and firmness are required.

THE ASSISTANT DOORKEEPERS.—Each at their respective stations, are to discharge the same duties as the principal Doorkeeper.

They must be in attendance as well during the recess as the sessions of the Assembly, to keep out intruders, and maintain order.

THE FIREMEN.—Attend to the warming and ventilation of the Assembly Chamber, and, under direction of the Sergeant-at-Arms, make themselves generally useful.

The Postmasters, Doorkeepers and Firemen are appointed by the Sergeant-at-Arms, and are responsible to him. He is to see that they perform their duties faithfully.

THE MESSENGERS.—Are appointed by the Speaker. They must be present during every session, and two of them, in rotation, must be in attendance from 8 o'clock A. M., until 10 o'clock P. M., every day, whether the Assembly is in session ring the morning hour, except upon or not. They have a certain num- leave of the Speaker or Clerk. They ber of members each, whose wants will bring all bills, resolutions, they are to attend to. They receive &c., from the several members to the Journal and printed bills from the Clerk, when presented; they the Sergeant-at-Arms, and arrange will fold newspapers, run on er- them in order on the file of each rands and make themselves gener- member. They are not at liberty ally useful. to leave the Assembly Chamber du-

IX.—STATIONERY.

The Superintendent of Public Property furnishes to each member of the Assembly, and to the Chief Clerk and Sergeant-at-Arms, a uniform outfit of stationery, comprising foolscap, letter and note paper, envelopes, a gold pen and case, a pocket pencil, a good pen holder, and several common pen-holders, a box of steel pens, an ink-stand, a mucilage bottle, an eraser, a pocket knife, a ruler, &c., &c., for which a receipt must be given.

Whatever else a member or officer desires, must be ordered, in writing, of the Superintendent, who charges the order to the person making it and report the same, when required, either to the Governor or Legislature. But, under the law of 1859, no member can order more stationery than will amount to $15.

X.—NEWSPAPERS.

Each Assembly provides newspapers in such quantity as is deemed desirable. They are ordered by resolution. At the Sessions of 1858 and 1859, newspapers were ordered for members and principal officers, at the rate of seven dailies or forty-nine weeklies, for each one. The order of each member was filed with the clerk in the following form :

“ To the Clerk of the Assembly :

“ I have ordered the following newspapers:

A. B.,
 Member of Assembly.”

At the session of 1860, members were limited to fifteen dollars, as the minimum value of newspapers taken. The form of the order was, as in 1859, except that the price of each paper for the session was stated.

Newspapers published out of the State are obtained of the news-dealers in Madison, who, as well as publishers in the State, present their accounts to the Secretary of State, who audits them, under a law authorizing such auditing, which is always passed when newspapers are so ordered by the Assembly.

XI.—PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

The Superintendent distributes by the State, to each member and through the Assembly Postmaster, officer. If any member desire more two or more copies of all reports, copies, they can be had by application and other public documents printed to the Superintendent.

XII.—POST OFFICE ARRANGEMENTS.

The Assembly post office is in charge of a Postmaster appointed by the Sergeant-at-Arms. Each member has a separate box; and all mail matter deposited with the Postmaster is sent to the Madison post office by the Post Office Messenger, at regular hours, corresponding with the hours of closing the mails at the Madison office. It is the custom for members to prepay all their mail matter, with postage stamps, which the Assembly orders, from time to time, by resolution, from the Superintendent.

XII.—PROCESS OF PASSING BILLS.

Some diversity of practice exists herein, but the ordinary method in the Assembly is as follows:

A member having prepared a bill and endorsed the title thereof, together with his name, upon the back of it, rises to his feet, at such time as the introduction of bills is in order, and says:

“Mr. Speaker:”

If recognized, the Speaker responds:

“The gentleman from ——”

The member announces:

“I ask leave to introduce a bill.”

The bill is then sent to the Chief Clerk by a messenger. The Clerk then reads the title of the bill, and the Speaker announces:

“First reading of the bill.”

If no objection is made, the Clerk reads the bill at length, if it is a bill appropriating money; if not, by its title only; when the Speaker announces:

“Second reading of the bill.”

And refers the same to some standing committee, suggested by the member, or, if desired, to a select committee, or to the general file; or, as is usual, the Speaker, of his own motion, makes the reference to such committee as seems to him appropriate.

This bill is, in due course, reported back to the Assembly, by the committee, when it is placed in what is called the general file.

Bills in the general file are considered in committee of the whole in the exact order in which they are placed upon the file. Proceedings in committee of the whole will be elsewhere considered.

After the committee of the whole has completed its action upon the bill, and reported the same back to the Assembly, and any recommendations made by the committee passed upon, it is taken up in its order, when the Speaker puts the following question :

“ Shall this bill be engrossed, and read a third time ? ”

If decided affirmatively, the bill is sent by the Chief Clerk to the Engrossing Clerk, for engrossment. Upon its return, engrossed, the original and engrossed bills are placed in the hands of the committee on engrossed bills, who compare them, and correct any errors which they may find. When found correct, or made so, the Committee report them to the House, as correctly engrossed, when the original is filed by the Chief Clerk, and the engrossed bill goes into the order of “ Bills ready for a third reading.”

When, under the order of business, the bill is reached, the bill, (unless it appropriate money) is read by its title, when the Speaker says as follows :

“ This bill having been read three several times, the question is, shall the bill pass ? ”

If the bill passes, it is taken to the Senate, with a message announcing its passage by the Assembly, and desiring the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Going through with a similar process in the Senate, it is returned with a message announcing their action upon it.

If the Senate concurs, the bill is sent to the Enrolling Clerk; who makes a fair copy thereof, as is elsewhere described. When enrolled, it goes to the Committee on Enrolled Bills, who compare it with the engrossed bill; when found or made correct, they report the bill to the Assembly as correctly enrolled; the engrossed bill is filed by the Chief Clerk; the enrolled bill is then endorsed by the Chief Clerk as having originated in the Assembly, (for the information of the Governor, in case he vetoes it,) then it is signed by the Speaker, and taken with a message to the Senate, desiring the signature of the President of the Senate thereto. The committees on enrolled bills of the two houses, acting jointly, then present the bill, duly signed, to the Governor, for his approval, and report that fact to the House. The Governor, if he approves the bill, informs the House in which it originated, of that fact, and that he has deposited it with the Secretary of State.

This is the ordinary process of a bill through all its stages, until it becomes a law. A bill of great interest or importance, or one which is warmly contested, may, by reason of majority and minority reports, special orders, re-commitments, amendments, substitutes, committees of conference, and various other parliamentary appliances, pass through a vast variety of stages not before enumerated.

Senate bills, coming into the Assembly after passing the Senate, are read twice by title, (unless they appropriate money, when they must be read at length,) and go at once into the general file.

After consideration in Committee of the Whole, the recommendation of the Committee is acted upon in the Assembly—the question being, after recommendations are disposed of,

“ Shall this bill be ordered to a third reading ? ”

If this is decided affirmatively, the bill passes into the order of “ Bills on third reading; ” and when reached in that order, the question is,

“ Shall this bill be concurred in ? ”

If concurred in, the bill is returned to the Senate, with a message, informing it of that fact.

If it is desired to hasten the passage of the bill, it is done by motion, as follows:

"I move to suspend all rules which will interfere with the immediate passage of Bill No. —, Assembly, entitled "A Bill to —,"

If this motion prevails, which requires an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present, the member who desires the immediate passage of the bill may at once move that the bill do pass; and if passed, it may go at once to the Senate.

XIV.—COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

The Committee of the Whole is an expedient to simplify the business of Legislative bodies. No record is made of its proceedings, and it has no officers, except of its own creation for temporary purposes. It is liable to instant dissolution in case of disorder, when the Speaker takes the chair to suppress it,—in case of lack of a quorum—when the Speaker takes the chair for a call of the House, or an adjournment—and in case of a message from the Senate or Governor, when the Speaker takes the chair to receive it.

The House may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, upon some particular bill, resolution or subject, or it may go into Committee of the Whole upon the General File of bills. In the first case, the motion is,

"That the Assembly do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole upon [Bill No. —, A., a bill —] or, [Joint Resolution No. —, A., providing —, &c.] or [upon all bills relating to —] as the case may be."

In the second case it is,

"That the Assembly do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole upon the General file of bills."

Bill, resolutions and general matters which have been once considered in Committee of the Whole, and in which progress has been made and leave granted for further consideration, have the preference. The motion for the Committee of the Whole for their further consideration must be made under the head of "Bills in which the Committee of the whole has made progress and obtained leave to sit again;" and in which case the member who presided when the same matter was previously considered in Committee of the Whole, resumes the chair.

The motion for the Committee of the Whole upon the General File, must be made under the order of "Bills not yet considered in Committee of the Whole."

When the Assembly resolves itself into Committee of the Whole, the Speaker selects a Chairman, as follows:

"The gentleman from —, Mr. —, will take the Chair."

The appointed Chairman advances to the Speaker's Desk, and having taken the Chair, receives from the Clerk the papers indicated by the motion for the committee, when the chairman announces,

"GENTLEMEN:—The committee have under consideration Bill No. —, A., entitled —, (reading the title from the back of the bill,) Or, in case of consideration of the General File, (The committee have under consideration the General File of Bills; the first in order is bill No. —, A., entitled —.)

"The first section is as follows:

The Chairman then reads the first section, and asks—

"Are there any amendments proposed to the first section?"

If none are offered, the Chairman says:

"No amendments being offered to the first section, the second section will be read."

This process is continued through the whole bill, when, at close of the reading, the Chairman says:

"The —th section and the whole bill have now been read, and are open to amendment."

At this point, after the friends of the bill have perfected it, it is customary for the opponents of the bill to open their attack.

After the discussion of the bill to such an extent as may be desired, the final vote is generally upon a motion

"That the bill be reported back to the House, with a recommendation that it do pass."

If any other bills are before the committee, they are proceeded with in the same manner. If it is desired to have further consideration of any matter before the committee, or if the General file has not been gone through with, the motion is,

"That the committee rise, report progress, and ask leave to sit again."

If the committee has completed its duties, the motion is,

"That the committee rise, and report."

Which, being analagous to a motion to adjourn, is not debateable.

The Chairman states the motion as follows:

"It is moved that the committee do now rise and report [or otherwise, as the case may be.]"

"Is the committee ready for the question?"

GENTLEMEN:—Those who are of opinion that this committee do now [rise and report.] say Aye; those of a contrary opinion, say No."

In case of doubt a division must be had, as the ayes and noes cannot be called in Committee of the Whole.

When the committee rises, the Speaker resumes his seat, and the Chairman, in his place on the floor, reports as follows:

"Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker answers,

"Mr. Chairman."

Who reports—

"The Committee of the Whole have had under consideration Bill No. —, A., entitled —, and have instructed me to report the same to the House, with the recommendation that it do pass, [or, as the case may be.]

When the General File has been under consideration, the report is as follows:

"The Committee of the Whole have had under consideration the General File of bills, and gone through the same, and have directed me to report to the House the bills contained therein, with sundry amendments and recommendations, as follows, to-wit: [Here follows the titles of bills considered, with the action taken upon them.]

In case the file has been left unfinished, the report is—

"The Committee of the Whole, have had under consideration the General File of bills, and have made some progress therein. I am directed to report back the following bills, with the amendments and recommendations hereinafter specified, and ask leave for the committee to sit again." [Here follows the report of amendments, &c., as above.]

On the latter report the question is—

"Shall leave be granted?"

When, upon a count, it is ascertained that a quorum is not present, the report is—

"The Committee of the Whole have had under consideration —, and after some progress therein, find that there is no quorum present: that fact I herewith report to you."

In case of confusion or disorder, the Speaker, of his own accord, resumes the chair temporarily, and without any formality, for the purpose of suppressing it. When order is restored, the Chairman resumes the chair, and the business proceeds.

Upon the coming in of a report, the recommendations are at once acted on by the Assembly.

When, in Committee of the Whole, any member desires to offer an amendment, it must be reduced to writing and sent to the Chairman, who reads it, and asks—

"Is the committee ready for the question upon the amendment?"

And, if no further amendment or debate offer, he puts the question in the usual manner.

After a section is once passed, with an unsuccessful effort to amend it, no further amendments are in order. The strictness of this rule is, however, not always adhered to—an amendment once made, may, however, be reconsidered. Such motion is—

“That the amendment offered by the gentleman from —, to the —th section, be reconsidered;”

And is stated as follows:

“The gentleman from — moves that the amendment of the gentleman from —, to the —th section, be reconsidered.

“Is the committee ready for the question?”

“Those who are of opinion that said amendment be reconsidered, say Aye; those of a contrary opinion, say No.”

In case the amendment is reconsidered, the Speaker says:

“The motion is carried. The amendment is reconsidered. The question now recurs upon the adoption of the amendment. Is the committee ready for the question?” &c.

The Assembly of 1861 has, after discussion, decided:

1st. That it is not in order for a Committee of the Whole to report a bill to the Assembly with a recommendation that it do pass.

2d. That no appeal from the Chairman can be taken in Committee of the Whole.

XV.—FORMS.

OF TITLES:

“No. — A., a bill to —.”

A peculiarity of Wisconsin legislation has been to insert the words “for an act,” after the words “a bill,” in titles. It is respectfully suggested that the custom would be more honored in the breach than in the observance.—These objectionable words have no signification, and are clumsy and pedantic.

Repealing Bill:

“To repeal chapter — of the Revised Statutes, entitled ‘of —.’”

Appropriation Bill:

“To appropriate to —, the sum of — dollars.”

Titles should be written inside the bill, and endorsed upon the outside, as follows:

No. —, A.

A BILL to change the name of Andrew Jackson, to James Madison.

MR. GORDON.

the mover endorsed upon them.—The same rule applies to amendments.

Resolutions are of no special form; the following may serve as a general Guide in such matters:

“Res. No. —, A.,

“Resolved, That three thousand copies of the Governor’s Message be furnished by the Public Printer, to the Sergeant-at-Arms, for the use of the Assembly.

“MR. TUCKER.”

FOR REPORTS, the following form is mostly used:

“The committee on —, to which was referred Bill No. —, A., a bill to —;

“Respectfully report the same back to the House with an amendment, and recommend its passage when amended;” or,

“and recommend that it do pass;” or

“and recommend that it be indefinitely postponed;” or,

“and recommend that it be referred to delegation from —;” or,

“to a select committee.”

Or, if a committee report by bill:

“The committee on —, to which was referred —, respectfully report by “Bill No. —, a bill to —;

“And recommend its passage.”

AN ENACTING CLAUSE must precede the body of the Bill—

It must invariably be in the following form:

“The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:”—Cons., Art. IV, Sec. 17.

RESOLUTIONS should not be entitled, but should have the name of

XVI.—INVESTIGATIONS.

When an investigation is required into any matter, the person most interested in having the inquiry made, should move the appointment of a committee to take the subject in charge. This is done by resolution. The resolution should be so drawn as to state the precise subject to be investigated, and to give the committee all the power which the mover may deem necessary to a thorough examination into the subject matter to be laid before them; this should be done to prevent any misapprehension as to the intention and extent of the inquiry to be made. In case of the adoption of the resolution, the mover, together with other members, will be appointed a committee. They have power to send for persons and papers. The form of a subpoena is as follows:

"THE STATE OF WISCONSIN,

To _____,

"You are hereby commanded, that, laying aside all business and excuse, you personally appear and attend before Messrs. _____ on the part of the Senate, and _____ on the part of the Assembly, a joint committee appointed under a resolution of the Senate and Assembly, to investigate _____ at the room of said committee _____ in the city of Madison, the capital of the State, on the _____ day of _____ A. D. one thousand eight hundred and _____ at the hour of _____ in the _____ noon, then and there, and from time to time, as required by said committee, to testify and give evidence upon the matters of inquiry before said committee.

"Hereof fail not, under the penalty in such case made and provided.

"Given at the Assembly Chamber, in the city of Madison aforesaid, this _____ day of _____ A. D. 18—

"Speaker of the Assembly.

"Attest:

"Chief Clerk of the Assembly."

In case of a refusal to appear, or a refusal to testify, the following form of certificate has been used:

To Hon. _____,

"Speaker of the Assembly:

"I, _____, chairman of the joint committee appointed to investigate, _____ do hereby certify that _____ has been duly subpoenaed to appear before said committee, as will fully appear by the writ served and affidavit of service accompanying the same on file with the Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

"I further certify that said _____ has failed to appear before said committee according to the exigency or mandate of said writ or subpoena.

"Dated Madison, _____, 18—, at _____ o'clock, P. M.

Upon which a warrant in the following form may be used:

"The State of Wisconsin to the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Assembly:

"It appearing that a writ of subpoena directed to _____ commanding him to personally appear and attend before Messrs. _____ on the part of the Senate, and _____ on the part of the Assembly, a joint committee appointed under a resolution of the Senate and Assembly, to investigate _____ at the room of said committee, in the city of Madison, the capital of the State, the _____ day of _____, A. D. 18—, at the hour of _____ in the _____ noon, then and there, and from time to time, as required by said committee, to testify and give evidence upon the matter of inquiry before said committee, has been issued, and that the said writ of subpoena was duly personally served upon the said _____ on the _____ day of _____ A. D. 18—, and returned as proviced in section 1 of an act entitled "An act concerning evidences and witnesses," approved February 3d, 1858; and it further appearing by the certificate of the chairman of said joint committee, that the said _____ has failed or neglected to appear before the said committee in obedience to the mandate of said subpoena; Therefore, You are hereby commanded, in the name of the State of Wisconsin, to take the body of him, the said _____, and bring him before the Assembly, so that he may testify and give evidence before the said committee, and answer for his contempt of the Assembly, in not obeying the mandate of said subpoena. Hereof fail not.

"Given at the Assembly Chamber, in the city of Madison aforesaid, this _____ day of _____, A. D., 18—.

"Speaker of the Assembly.

"Chief Clerk of the Assembly."

To which the return, in ordinary cases, would be:

"By virtue of the within process, I did, on the — day of —, 18—, arrest the body of —, and took him before the committee within named, and the said — having refused to answer interrogatories propounded by said committee, I have him, by direction of said committee, now before the Assembly.

"Assembly Chamber, —, 18—.

"Sergeant-at-Arms of the Assembly.

A resolution declaring the defaulter to be in contempt, is the next proceeding.

The following form for such resolution was used at the session of 1858:

"Resolved, That the neglect or failure of — to appear before the joint investigating committee, composed of Messrs. — of the Senate, and —, of the Assembly, in compliance with the mandate of the writ of subpoena of this Assembly, served upon him on the — instant, as fully appears by the said writ, and the affidavit of the service thereof endorsed thereon, now on file with the Chief Clerk of this House, be and the said neglect and failure is hereby declared a contempt of this House."

This is followed by an interrogatory, as follows:

Interrogatory 1.—Why did you not appear before the joint investigating committee, as required by the mandate of the subpoena served upon you on the — inst.?"

To which the defaulter pleads before punishment is inflicted.

Another form is as follows:

"Resolved, That the refusal of — to answer the questions put to him by a member of the joint investigating committee on the — inst., and which questions were certified to this House by —, chairman of said committee; and are now in writing on file with the Chief Clerk of this House, be, and the said refusal is hereby declared a contempt of this House."

Followed by the corresponding interrogatory:

"Why did you not answer the questions put or propounded to you on the — inst., by a member of the joint investigating committee, of which — is chairman?"

In case the answer is satisfactory, the offender is discharged; if otherwise, he is punished by reprimand, fine or imprisonment, or both; but such imprisonment cannot extend beyond the session of the Legislature.

The report of a committee of investigation should consist of three parts:

- "1st. The testimony taken;
- "2d. A statement of the facts proven thereby, or conclusions derived therefrom;
- "3d. Resolutions, or a bill providing for the action which the committee deem proper to be taken in the premises."

RULES AND ORDERS OF ASSEMBLY.

1. The Assembly shall choose, viva voce, one of their own number to occupy the chair. He shall be styled Speaker of Assembly. He shall hold his office during one session of the Assembly. He shall take the chair at the hour to which the House is adjourned, and call the members to order; and if a quorum be present, he shall direct the minutes of the preceding day to be read, and mistakes, if any, corrected. He shall preserve order and decorum, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the House. In committee of the whole, he shall call some member to the chair, and may debate any question before the committee; in the House he may also call a member to the chair; but such a substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment. He shall, unless otherwise directed by the House, appoint all committees. He shall vote on a call of yeas and nays. In the absence of the Speaker, the House shall elect a Speaker pro tem., whose office shall cease on the return of the Speaker.

Duties of Speaker.

2. A Clerk shall be elected at the commencement of each session, to hold his office at the pleasure of the House; he shall keep a correct Journal of the daily proceedings of the body, and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him; he shall superintend the recording of the journals of proceedings; the engrossing, enrolling, transcribing and copying of bills, resolutions, &c.; shall permit no records or papers belonging to the Assembly to be taken out of his custody, otherwise than in the regular course of business; shall report any missing papers to the notice of the Speaker; and generally, shall perform, under the direction of the Speaker, all duties pertaining to his office as Clerk.

Duties of Clerk.

3. A Sergeant-at-Arms shall be elected at the commencement of each session, to hold his office at the pleasure of the House. It shall be his duty to execute all orders of the Speaker or House, and to perform all the duties they may assign to him, connected with the police and good order of the Assembly Chamber; to exercise a supervision over the ingress and egress of all persons to and from the Chamber; to see that messages, &c., are promptly executed; that the requisite fires are kept up during the appropriate season; that the hall is properly ventilated, and is open for the use of the members of the Assembly from 8 A. M. until 10 P. M., and to perform all other services pertaining to the post of Sergeant-at-Arms.

Committees.

4. The standing committees of the Assembly shall consist of five members each, except the committee on Railroads, which shall consist of nine members, and the committee on Public Printing, which shall consist of three members, and the committee for Investigation, and the committee on Local Laws, which shall each consist of two members; and shall be as follows:

- 1st. On Judiciary.
- 2d. On Ways and Means.
- 3d. On Education, School and University Lands.
- 4th. On Incorporations.
- 5th. On Railroads.
- 6th. On Internal Improvements.
- 7th. On Roads, Bridges and Ferries.
- 8th. On Town and County Organization.
- 9th. On Militia.
- 10th. On Privileges and Elections.
- 11th. On Agriculture and Manufactures.
- 12th. On Expiration and Re-enactment of Laws.
- 13th. On Legislative Expenditures.
- 14th. On State Affairs.
- 15th. On Contingent Expenditures.
- 16th. On Engrossed Bills.
- 17th. On Enrolled Bills.
- 18th. On State Lands.
- 19th. On Mining and Smelting.
- 20th. On Charitable and Religious Societies.
- 21st. On State Prison.
- 22d. On Medical Societies and Medical Colleges.
- 23d. On Banks and Banking.
- 24th. On Federal Relations.
- 25th. On Swamp and Overflowed Lands.
- 26th. Joint Committee on Claims.
- 27th. Joint Committee for Investigation.

28th. Joint Committee on Public Printing.

29th. Joint Committee on Local Laws.

5. No member or officer of the Assembly, unless, from illness or other cause, he shall be unable to attend, shall absent himself from the sessions of the Assembly during an entire day, without first having obtained leave of absence; and no one shall be entitled to draw pay while absent more than one entire day, without leave, except he be confined by sickness at the seat of government.

Leave of Absence.

6. No committee shall absent themselves by reason of their appointment, during the sitting of the House, without especial leave, except a committee of conference.

Absence of Committees.

7. Any committee required or entitled to report upon a subject referred to them, may make a majority and minority report; and any member of such committee, dissenting in whole or in part from either the conclusion or the reasoning, of both the majority and minority, shall be entitled to present to the Assembly a brief statement of his reasons for such dissent, which, if decorous in its language, and respectful to the Assembly, shall be entered at length on the journal, in connection with the majority and minority reports.

Majority and Minority Reports.

8. Contestants for seats shall have the privileges of the House until their respective cases are disposed of; the privileges to extend only so far as access to the Assembly Chamber during time occupied in settling the contest.

Contestants for Seats.

9. The following classes of persons, and no others, shall be admitted to the floor of the House during the sessions thereof, viz.: 1st. Governor and Lieut. Governor; 2d. Members of the Senate; 3d. The State officers; 4th. The Regents of the University; 5th. Members of Congress; 6th. Judges of the Supreme and other courts; 7th. Ex-members of the Wisconsin Legislature; 8th. All editors of newspapers within the State, and reporters for the press; 9th. Such other persons as the Speaker may invite.

Admission to the floor.

10. Whenever any disturbance or disorderly conduct shall occur in the lobby or gallery, the Speaker (or the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole) shall have power to cause the same to be cleared of all persons except members and officers of the House.

Disturbance in Lobby.

Reading newspapers and smoking prohibited. 11. No member or officer of the Assembly shall be permitted to read newspapers within the bar of the House while the House is in session; nor shall any person be permitted to smoke in the Assembly room at any time.

Quorum. 12. A majority of all the members elected to the Assembly must be present to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; a smaller number, however, can adjourn from time to time, and shall have power to compel the attendance of absent members.

Call of the House. 13. Any fifteen members may make a call of the House and require absent members to be sent for; but a call of the House cannot be made after the voting has commenced; and the call of the House being ordered, and the absentees noted, the doors shall be closed, and no member permitted to leave the room, until the report of the Sergeant-at-Arms be received and acted upon, or further proceedings in the call dispensed with by a majority of the members elect.

Mr. Speaker to be addressed. 14. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall arise from his seat, and respectfully address himself to "Mr. Speaker," and shall confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid personality.

Speaker to decide who has the floor. 15. When any two or more members shall arise at the same time, the Speaker shall name the member who is first to speak.

Speaking twice or out of place prohibited. 16. No member shall speak except in his place, or more than twice on any question, except on leave of the House.

Order, while the Speaker, or a member is speaking. 17. While the Speaker is addressing the House, or putting a question, no member shall cross the floor, or leave the House; nor while a member is speaking, walk between him and the chair.

Motions. 18. When a motion is made, it shall be stated by the Speaker, or read by the Clerk, previous to debate. If any member require it, all motions (except to adjourn, postpone or commit,) shall be reduced to writing. Any motion may be withdrawn, by consent of the House, before division or amendment.

19. All questions shall be put in this form: Questions, how put.
 "Those who are of opinion (as the case may be,) say aye. Those of contrary opinion, say no." And in doubtful cases, any member may call for a division.

20. Every member present, when a question is put, Each Member to vote.
 or when his name is called, shall vote, unless the House shall, for special cause, excuse him; but it shall not be in order for a member to be excused after the House has commenced voting.

21. When a member is called to order, he shall sit Call to order down, and shall not speak, except in explanation, until the Speaker shall have determined whether he is in order or not; and every question of order shall be decided by the Speaker, subject to appeal to the House by any member; and if a member be called to order for words spoken, the exceptionable words shall be taken down in writing, that the Speaker and the House may be better able to judge.

22. Any member offering a resolution in the House, Resolutions.
 may read the same in his place before sending it to the chair. It shall then be read by the Clerk, and when so read shall be considered to be before the House; but it shall not be acted upon by the House on the same day on which it is offered, without leave.

23. Petitions, memorials, communications, and other papers, addressed to the Assembly, shall be presented by a member in his place; a brief statement of the contents thereof shall be made verbally, and endorsed thereon, together with his name, by the member introducing the same. Petitions &c. how presented.

24. It shall be competent for one-sixth of the Ayes & Noes when taken.
 members present, when a question is taken, to call for the ayes and noes, which shall be recorded by the Clerk.

25. Any member may call for a division of the Division allowed.
 main question, when the same will admit thereof.

26. Every bill shall be introduced by motion for Introduction of Bills leave, or by order of the House on a report of the committee.

27. The first reading of a bill shall be for infor- First Reading.
 mation, and if objections be made to it, the question shall be, "Shall the bill be rejected?" If no objections be made, or the question to reject be lost, the bill shall go to its second reading without further question.

Motion to adjourn.

28. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when the House is voting. A motion to adjourn, to lay on the table, and a call for the previous question, shall be decided without debate.

Precedence of motions.

29. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn; to lay on the table; for the previous question; to postpone to a day certain; to commit; to amend, or to postpone indefinitely; and these several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged. A motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall not be again allowed on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

Previous question.

30. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present, and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate, and bring the House to a direct vote upon the pending amendments, and then upon the main question. When, on taking the previous question, the House shall decide that the main question, shall not now be put, the main question shall remain as the question before the House, in the same stage of proceedings, as before the previous question was ordered. On a motion for the previous question, and prior to the seconding of the same, one call of the House shall be in order; but after proceedings under such call have been once dispensed with, or after a majority shall have seconded such motion, no call shall be in order prior to a decision of the main question.

No amendment on 3d reading.

31. On the third reading of a bill or resolution, no amendment, except to fill blanks, shall be received, except by the unanimous consent of the members present.

Recommitments and amendments thereon.

32. A bill or a resolution may be re-committed at any time previous to its passage; if any amendment be reported upon such commitment, the question shall be upon concurring in the amendment, and the question for its engrossment and third reading may then be put.

33. In filling blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall first be put; and when the House is equally divided, the question shall be lost.

Filling blanks.

Tie vote.

34. When a motion or question has been once made and carried, in the affirmative or negative, it shall always be in order for any member of the majority, or where the House is equally divided, for any member who voted in the negative, to move for a re-consideration thereof, on the same or succeeding day. A motion to re-consider being put and lost, shall not be renewed.

Reconsideration.

35. All bills and resolutions brought into the House by any member or committee, shall be endorsed by the member or committee bringing in the same.

Bills to be endorsed.

36. The second and third readings of all bills appropriating money, shall be at length; and a suspension of this rule shall not be made without the unanimous consent of the House.

Appropriation bills.

37. Every bill shall receive three several readings previous to its passage, but no bill shall receive its second and third readings on the same day.

Three readings of bills.

38. All bills, resolutions, memorials, &c., requiring the approval of the Governor, shall, after the second reading, be considered by the House in committee of the whole, before they shall be taken up and considered by the Assembly. The final question upon the second reading of every bill or other paper originating in the Assembly, and requiring three readings previous to being passed, shall be, "Shall it be engrossed and read the third time?" and upon every such bill or paper originating in the Senate, "Shall it be read a third time?" No bill or resolution that requires three readings, shall be committed or amended until it shall be twice read; and all joint resolutions which will require the signature of the Governor, shall take the same course as to their reading, as in the case of bills, unless otherwise ordered by the House. And every bill and resolution ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, shall be re-written in a plain hand, with all amendments, before being read a third time, except as is provided for in Rule 43.

Committee of the Whole

Ordering to 3d reading.

Engrossment

- Amendments of Committee of the Whole 39. Amendments made in the committee of the whole, shall not be read by the Speaker on his resuming the chair, unless required by one or more of the members.
- Report on enrolled bills 40. It shall be in order for the committee on enrolled bills to report at any time, except when questions are being taken, or a call of the house is being had.
- Enrollment. 41. The Committee on Enrolled Bills shall not report any bill as correctly enrolled, that has any words interlined therein, or when any words have been erased therefrom.
- Bills to be transmitted to Senate. 42. After examination and report, each bill shall be certified by the Clerk, and by him transmitted to the Senate; the day of transmission shall be entered on the bill books of the Clerk.
- Engrossment of Bills. 43. Whenever an Assembly bill, which is fairly written, without interlineation or erasure, is ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, without amendment, the committee on engrossed bills may report such bill back to the House as the engrossed bill.
- No debate on Fridays and Saturdays. 44. On Friday and Saturday of each week, bills and resolutions which do not elicit debate, shall be considered in their order on the calendar of business in preference to all other business, and this rule shall govern the order of business when the House is in committee of the whole.
- Signature of Speaker and Clerk. 45. All acts, addresses and resolutions, shall be signed by the Speaker; and all writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the House, shall be under his hand and seal, and attested by the Clerk.
- Hour of meeting. 46. The hour for the meeting of the Assembly shall be at 10 o'clock, A. M.
- Rules in Committee of the Whole. 47. The rules observed in the Assembly shall govern, as far as practicable, the proceedings in the committee of the whole; except that a member may speak more than twice on the same subject, and that a call of the ayes and noes, or for the previous question, cannot be made in committee.
- Bills to be printed. 48. Two hundred copies of every bill shall be printed after a second reading, unless otherwise ordered. And all bills, resolutions, and memorials that shall be printed, shall remain at least one day on the files after being printed, before being considered.

49. No standing rule or order of the House, shall be rescinded or changed without one day's notice being given of the motion therefor. Nor shall any rule be suspended, except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present. Nor shall the order of business, as established by the rules of the House, be postponed or changed, except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present.

50. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Jefferson's Manual, shall govern the Assembly in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with these rules, and the orders of the Assembly, and the joint rules and orders of the Senate and Assembly.

REGULATIONS FOR THE DAILY TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS.

After the Journal shall have been read, and an opportunity given to correct it, the order of business shall be as follows :

1. Letters, petitions, memorials, accounts, remonstrances, and accompanying documents, may be presented and referred.
2. Resolutions may be offered and considered, notice of leave to introduce bills may be given, and bills may be introduced on leave granted.
3. Reports of committees may be made and considered ; first from standing committees, and next from select committees.
4. Messages and other Executive communications.
5. Messages from the Senate.
6. Bills and resolutions from the Senate on their first and second readings.
7. Bills on their third reading.
8. Bills ready for a third reading.
9. Bills reported by a committee of the whole.
10. Bills in which a committee of the whole has made progress, and obtained leave to sit again.
11. Bills not yet considered in committee of the whole.
12. After one hour shall have been devoted to the consideration of business under the first, second and third heads, the Assembly shall proceed to dispose of the business on the Speaker's table, and the orders of the day.

XXVII.—JOINT RULES AND ORDERS

OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY.

- Messages. 1. When a message shall be sent from the Senate to the Assembly, it shall be announced at the door of the Assembly by the Sergeant-at-Arms, and shall be respectfully communicated to the Chair by the person by whom it may be sent.
- Messages. 2. The same ceremony shall be observed when a message shall be sent from the Assembly to the Senate.
- By whom sent. 3. Messages shall be sent by the Chief Clerk, or his Assistant, in each House.
- Reject'd bills and resolutions. 4. When a bill or resolution which shall have passed in one House, is rejected in the other, notice thereof is to be given to the House in which the same may have been passed.
- Reject'd bills and resolutions. 5. When a bill or resolution, which has been passed in one House, is rejected in the other, it shall not be again brought in during the same session without a notice of five days, and leave of two-thirds of the House in which it shall be renewed.
- Papers to go with the bills 6. Each House shall transmit to the other all papers on which any bill or resolution shall be founded.
- All papers claiming money to be preserved. 7. All petitions, claims, bills, accounts, or demands, asking for an appropriation of money, shall be preserved by the committee to whom the same may be referred; and such committee shall endorse on every such petition, claim, bill, account or demand, whether they report in favor of allowing or disallowing the same; and if in favor of allowing a part thereof only, then the sum so reported. After such committee shall have reported upon the same, such petition, claim, bill, account or demand, and every of them, shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk of the House in which the same was first presented, to be filed by such Clerk, and delivered at the close of the session to the Secretary of State.

8. No account presented shall be acted on, unless verified by affidavit of the person in whose favor the same may be. Accounts to be verified.

9. The committee of the two Houses on Claims, on State Affairs, on Enrolled Bills, State Prison, Legislative Expenses, and Local Laws, shall act jointly. Joint Committees.

10. When a bill, resolution or memorial, shall have passed either House, and requires the concurrence of the other, it shall be transmitted to said house without the necessity of entering an order upon the journal of the House, in which it passed, requesting the concurrence of the other House. Order requesting concurrence.

11. It shall be in the power of either House to amend any amendment made by the other to any bill, memorial, or resolution. Each House may amend.

12. In all cases of disagreement between the Senate and Assembly, if either House shall request a conference, and appoint a committee for that purpose, the other House shall appoint a similar committee, and such committee shall, at a convenient hour, to be agreed upon by their chairman, meet in the conference chamber, and state to each other, verbally, or in writing, as either shall choose, the reasons of their respective Houses for or against the disagreement, and confer freely thereon; and they shall be authorized to report to their respective Houses such modifications or amendments as they may think advisable. Committees of conference

13. After each House shall have adhered to their disagreement, a bill or resolution is lost. Adherence to disagreement fatal.

14. After a bill shall have passed both Houses, it shall be duly enrolled by or under the direction of the Chief Clerk of the Senate, or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, as the bill may have originated in one or the other House, before it shall be presented to the Governor for his approval. Enrollment of bills.

15. When a bill is duly enrolled, it shall be examined by a joint committee of five, two from the Senate and three from the Assembly, appointed for that purpose, who shall carefully compare the enrolled with the engrossed bill, as passed in the two Examination of enrolled bills.

- Houses, and correcting any errors that may be discovered in the enrolled bill, and make their report forthwith to the House in which the bill originated.
- Signing of Bills. 16. After examination and report, each bill shall be signed in the respective Houses, first by the Speaker of the Assembly, then by the President of the Senate.
- Presentation to Governor. 17. After a bill shall have been thus signed in each House, it shall be presented by the said committee to the Governor for his approval, it being first endorsed on the back of the roll, certifying in which House the same originated; which endorsement shall be signed by the Chief Clerk of the Senate or Assembly, as the bill may have originated in the one or the other House; and the said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor, which shall be entered on the journal of each House.
- Resolutions to take the same course as bills. 18. All orders, resolutions, and votes which are to be presented to the Governor for his approval, shall also, in the same manner, be previously enrolled, examined, and signed, and then be presented in the same manner, and by the same committee, as is provided in case of bills.
- Repealing & amending acts. 19. All bills for repealing or amending an act, shall, in the title and body of the bill, designate the true title of the act proposed to be repealed or amended.
- Printing of reports. 20. Whenever any report of a joint committee, or other document, shall be presented to both Houses of the Legislature, the House first acting on the same, if it shall be thought necessary to have it printed, shall order a sufficient number of copies for both branches, and shall immediately inform the other House of its action upon the subject.
- Joint convention 21. Whenever there shall be a joint convention of the two Houses, the proceedings shall be entered at length on the Journal of each House. The Lieutenant Governor shall preside over such joint convention, and the Chief Clerk of the Senate shall act as Clerk thereof, assisted by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly; Provided, That the Lieutenant Governor shall not act in said convention except as presiding officer, and in no case shall have the right to give a casting vote.

22. Neither House shall adjourn during any session thereof, without the consent of the other, for a longer period than three days. Adjournment.

23. Resolutions involving the appropriation of money, for the printing the Governor's Message, or other public documents, shall receive the joint concurrence of the two Houses. Appropriation of money.

XXVIII.--RULES AND ORDERS OF THE SENATE.

1. The Lieutenant Governor of the State, who, by the 8th Section of the 5th Article of the Constitution, is constituted ex officio, President of the Senate, shall, when present, take the chair at the hour fixed for the meeting of the Senate, when he shall immediately call the members to order, who shall thereupon take their seats, and continue with their heads uncovered, while the Senate remains in session; the Clerk shall call the roll of members, and as soon as a majority is present, the journal of the preceding day shall be read, to the end, that any mistake may be corrected. Calling Senate to order.

2. The President shall preserve order and decorum; he may speak to points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide points of order, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any member. Duties of President.

3. The President shall have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair temporarily, who shall be invested, during such time, with all the powers of the President; but no member shall be excused from voting on any question by reason of his occupying the chair; nor shall such substitute's authority, as presiding officer, extend beyond a day's adjournment of the Senate. Temporary President.

4. In the absence or inability of the President, except as provided in rule three, the Senate shall appoint a President pro tempore, who shall possess all the powers and prerogatives of the President of the Senate for the time being. President pro tem.

Committee of the Whole.

5. Whenever the Senate determines to go into committee of the whole, the President shall name one of the members as chairman, who shall, for the time being, be invested with all the authority of presiding officer of the Senate.

Duties of President.

6. The President shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise directed; he shall sign all acts, memorials, addresses and resolutions; and all writs, warrants and subpoenas, that may be issued by the Senate, shall be signed by him, and attested by the Clerk.

Disturbances in Lobby.

7. Whenever any disturbance or disorderly conduct shall occur in the lobby, the President (or chairman of the committee of the whole,) shall have power to cause the same to be cleared of all persons except the members and officers of the Senate.

Questions—
and decided.

8. Questions may be stated by the President while sitting, but he shall rise to put a question, and shall use this form: "As many as are of the opinion that [as the question may be,] will say aye;" and after the affirmative voice is expressed, "As many as are of a different opinion, will say no." If the President doubt as to the voice of the majority, or a division be called for, the Senate shall divide—those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise and be counted; and if there still be a doubt, or a count be called for, the President shall appoint two tellers, one from each side, to make the count and report the same to the President, who shall declare the same to the Senate.

Quorums.

9. A majority of all the members elected to the Senate, must be present to constitute a quorum for the transaction of ordinary business; three-fifths of all the members elected to the Senate, must be present to constitute a quorum for the passage of appropriation bills, as provided by the constitution of the State; a smaller number, however, can adjourn from time to time, and have power to compel the attendance of absent members.

Leave of absence.

10. No member or officer of the Senate, unless from illness or other cause he shall be unable to attend, shall absent himself from the sessions of the Senate during an entire day, without first having obtained leave of absence.

Reports of Committees.

11. Any committee required or entitled to report upon a subject referred to them, may make a majority and minority report: any member of such committee, dissenting in whole or in part, from either the conclusions or the reasoning, of both the majority and minority, shall be entitled to present to the Senate a brief statement of his reasons for such dissent, which, if decorous in its language, and respectful to the Senate, shall be entered on the journal in connection with the majority and minority reports.

12. A Clerk shall be elected at the commencement of each session, to hold his office at the pleasure of the Senate; he shall keep a correct journal of the daily proceedings of the Senate and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him; he shall superintend the recording of the journal of proceedings, the engrossing, enrolling, transcribing and copying of bills, resolutions, &c.; shall permit no records nor papers belonging to the Senate, to be taken out of his custody, otherwise than in the regular course of business; shall report any missing papers to the notice of the President; and generally shall perform, under the direction of the President, all duties pertaining to his office as Clerk. Clerk, election of, and duties.

13. A Sergeant-at-Arms shall be elected at the commencement of each session, to hold his office at the pleasure of the Senate. It shall be his duty to execute all orders of the President of the Senate, and to perform all duties they may assign to him, connected with the police and good order of the Senate chamber; to exercise a supervision over the ingress and egress of all persons to and from the chamber; to see that messages, &c., are promptly executed, and the requisite fires are kept up during the appropriate season; and to perform all other services pertaining to the post of Sergeant-at-Arms. Sergeant-at-Arms, election, and duties.

14. The following Standing Committees shall be elected by the Senate at such time as may be designated, unless otherwise directed. Committees.

The Joint Committees on Investigation, Local Laws and Printing shall consist, on the part of the Senate, of one for the former, and two for each of the latter. The Committees on the Judiciary and Railroads shall consist of five members each, and all other committees of three members each. Joint Committees.

Reporters,
persons privileged to floor of Senate.

15. Reporters for newspapers can have seats assigned them by the President, within the bar of the chamber, for the purpose of taking down the proceedings, but not so as to interfere with the convenience of the Senate. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General, Senators and ex-Senators, and Members of Congress, Judges of any Courts, Members and ex-Members of State Legislatures, and Members of the Assembly of this State, and all editors of newspapers in the State, may be admitted to seats within the bar of the Senate.

Reading of Journal, order of business.

16. After the Journal shall have been read, and an opportunity given to correct it, the order of business shall be as follows:

1. Letters, petitions, memorials, remonstrances and accompanying documents may be presented and referred.
2. Resolutions may be offered and considered, notice of intention to introduce bills may be given,

- and bills may be introduced on leave granted.
3. Reports of committees may be made and considered; first from standing committees, and next from select committees.
 4. Messages, and other Executive communications.
 5. Messages from the Assembly, and amendments proposed by the Assembly to bills from the Senate.
 6. Bills and resolutions from the Assembly on their first and second reading.
 7. Bills on their third reading.
 8. Bills ready for a third reading.
 9. Bills reported by a committee of the whole.
 10. Bills in which a committee of the whole has made progress, and obtained leave to sit again.
 11. Bills not yet considered in committee of the whole.

17. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to "Mr. President," and shall confine himself to the question under consideration, and avoid personalities.

18. When any member is called to order, he shall sit down until it shall be determined whether he is in order or not, except he be permitted to explain; and if a member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the exceptionable words shall be taken down in writing immediately. Call to order

19. When two or more members happen to rise at the same time, the President shall name the member who is first to speak.

20. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question during the same day, nor more than once on a motion for commitment without leave of the Senate.

21. While the President is putting any question or addressing the Senate, no member shall walk out of or across the room, nor entertain private discourse; nor whilst a member is speaking, shall pass between him and the chair. No member or other person shall visit or remain by the Clerk's table while the ayes and noes are being called, or the ballots counted.

22. No member shall vote on any question in any case where he was not within the chamber of the Senate when the question was put, unless by leave of the Senate; nor shall any member be counted, upon a division and count of the Senate, who shall be without the chamber at the time.

Every Senator to vote unless excused.

23. Every member who may be within the Senate chamber, when the question is put, shall give his vote unless the Senate shall excuse him from voting. When a question is being taken, or about to be taken, it shall be competent for any member to call for the ayes and noes, which shall be entered on the journal. All motions to excuse a member from voting shall be made before the call of ayes and noes is commenced; and any Senator wishing to be excused from voting, may briefly and pertinently explain his reasons therefor, before the call of ayes and noes is commenced; but when the ayes and noes are being taken, the call shall not be interrupted for any purpose whatever.

24. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the President, or, being in writing, it shall be handed to the chair, and read aloud before debated.

Motion to be in writing.

25. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the President or any member desire it.

Motion made in possession of Senate.

26. After a motion is stated by the President, or read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Senate, but may be withdrawn or altered at any time before a decision or amendment, on leave of the Senate.

Motions, order of.

27. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be in order, except to adjourn, to send for papers for reconsideration, to reconsider, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, to amend, to strike out the enacting clause, or postpone indefinitely; and these several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they herein stand arranged. But a motion to postpone to a day certain, to strike out the enacting clause, or postpone indefinitely, shall not again be in order on the same day, or at the same stage of the proposition.

Adjourn.

28. A motion to adjourn shall be always in order, except as restricted by the "previous question." A motion to adjourn, lay on the table, or take a recess, shall be decided without debate.

29. The "previous question" shall be in this form: ^{The previous question.} "Shall the main question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when sustained by a majority of the members present, and shall preclude amendments and further debate, until the main question shall have been disposed of. The "main question" shall be the original proposition and pending amendments.—When the Senate shall have determined that the main question shall not now be put, the pending subject shall be considered as remaining under debate. When the Senate shall have determined that the main question shall now be put, its effect shall be to bring the Senate to a direct vote—first on pending amendments in their order, and then on the main question, without debate or further amendment. But after the previous question has been sustained, and prior to the Senate having determined that the main question shall now be put, a motion to adjourn, and a call of the Senate shall each be once in order; but no further motion or call shall be in order, except to receive the report of the Sergeant-at-Arms, or dispense with proceedings under the call; and all motions and proceedings authorized by this rule shall be decided without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise.

30. It shall be in order for any member who voted ^{Reconsideration.} in the majority on any question, or for any member who voted in the negative, when the Senate was equally divided, to move a reconsideration of such vote, on the same or next succeeding day that the Senate shall be in session; and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn, and a motion to recall from the Assembly the proposition on which the vote is proposed to be reconsidered. But no motion to reconsider shall be in order, unless the paper, on which the vote is proposed to be reconsidered, is in possession of the Senate. A motion to reconsider having been put and lost, shall be deemed a finality on that question.

31. Any member may call for a division of the ^{Division of question.} question, when the same shall admit of it. A motion to strike out being lost, shall not preclude an amendment, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

32. In presenting a petition, memorial, remonstrance, or other communication, addressed to the Senate or Assembly, the member shall only state the general purport of it.

Papers to be read before presented.

33. A member offering a resolution, or an amendment to a bill, resolution or memorial, shall first read the same in his place, before presenting it to the President; and every petition, memorial, remonstrance, resolution, bill and report of committee, shall be endorsed with its appropriate title; and immediately under the endorsement, the name of the member presenting the same shall be written.

Call of the Senate.

34. Any three members may make a call of the Senate and require absent members to be sent for, but a call of the Senate cannot be made after the voting has commenced; and the call of the Senate being ordered, and the absentees noted, the doors shall be closed, and no member permitted to leave the room until the report of the Sergeant-at-Arms be received and acted upon, or further proceeding in the call be suspended, or the Senate adjourn. Previous to the reception of such report, further proceedings in the call shall not be suspended, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

Rules to govern in Committee of the Whole.

35. The rules observed in the Senate shall govern, as far as practicable, the proceedings in committee of the whole, except that a member may speak oftener than twice on the same subject, and that a call of the ayes and noes, or for the previous question, cannot be made in committee.

Amendments in Committee of the Whole.

36. Amendments made in committee of the whole shall be entered on a separate piece of paper, and reported to the Senate by the Chairman, standing in his place, on the floor of the Senate. All amendments and other propositions reported by the committee of the whole, shall be disposed of in the same manner as if proposed in the Senate.

Introduction of bills.

37. All bills and resolutions shall be introduced by motion for leave, after one day's previous notice, or upon reports of committees. And all bills, when introduced, shall be endorsed with the name of the member or committee.

38. Every bill, memorial, or joint resolution requiring the signature of the Governor shall receive three several readings previous to its passage. But no such bill, or memorial, or joint resolution, shall receive a second and third reading on the same day.

Bills to be read three times.

39. No bill or joint resolution shall be committed or amended until it has been twice read. If objections are raised to the bill on its first reading, the question shall be "Shall the bill be rejected?" If no objection be made, or the question to reject be lost, the bill shall go to its second reading.

Commitments.

40. All bills and joint resolutions, requiring the approval of the Governor, shall, on a second reading, be considered in committee of the whole, before they shall be acted upon by the Senate; and those originating in the Senate, except resolutions not requiring the approval of the Governor, and except appropriations or local bills, before being considered in committee of the whole, shall be printed, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate.

Committee of the Whole to consider all bills.

41. Two hundred and forty copies of every bill, joint resolution or memorial of a general nature, shall be printed after the second reading, unless otherwise ordered; and no bill of a private or local nature shall be printed unless ordered; and all bills, resolutions and amendments, after being printed, shall remain at least one day on the files before being considered.

Copies to be printed.

42. The final question upon the second reading of every bill or other paper, originating in the Senate, and requiring three readings previous to being passed, shall be, "Shall it be engrossed and read the third time?" and upon every such bill or paper originating in the Assembly, "Shall it be ordered to a third reading?"

Engrossment of bills

43. After a bill has been read a third time, no amendments shall be in order, except to fill blanks, without the unanimous consent of the Senate, unless, on commitment, such amendments shall have been reported by a committee, in which case, after amendments so reported shall have been disposed of, the question shall be the same as was pending before the reference, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate. A bill, resolution, or memorial, may be

Amendments on 3d reading:

- committed at any time previous to its passage,
- Bills to be engrossed. 44. Every bill, joint resolution, or memorial originating in the Senate, shall be carefully engrossed before being transmitted to the Assembly for concurrence.
- Clerk to transmit bills to Assembly. 45. Immediately after the passage of any bill or other paper, to which the concurrence of the Assembly is to be asked, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to transmit the same to the Assembly, unless some member of the Senate shall make a motion to reconsider the vote by which the Senate passed said bill, or other paper, in which case the Clerk shall not transmit said bill or other paper, until the motion to reconsider has been put; and on the concurrence in any bill or other paper of the Assembly by the Senate, or on the concurrence or disagreement in any vote of the Assembly by the Senate, it shall also be the duty of the Clerk to notify the Assembly thereof.
- Memorials to Congress. 46. Memorials to Congress, to the President of the United States, or the head of either of the departments, shall be considered in committee of the whole before being adopted.
- Committees not to be absent unless leave be granted. Enrollment. 47. Committees shall not absent themselves from the Senate by reason of their appointment, unless special leave for that purpose be first obtained.
48. It shall be in order for the committee on enrollment to report at any time.
- Executive sessions. 49. The proceedings of the Senate on executive business shall be kept in a separate book of record, to be provided by the Chief Clerk of the Senate, and published with the proceedings of the Senate. When an amendment of the Constitution, or any bill requiring the concurrence of more than a majority of Senators present, is under consideration, a mere majority may decide all questions arising thereon, except the final question.
- Jefferson's Manual. 50. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Jefferson's Manual, shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with these rules and the orders of the Senate, and the joint rules and orders of the Senate and Assembly. Upon the final passage of any bill or proposition in which the concurrence of more than a majority of Senators present is required by the Constitution of this State, the question shall be taken by ayes and noes, which shall be entered at large upon the journal, and it shall be the duty of the Chief Clerk to certify on the back of every such bill or proposition, the number of Senators voting for and against the passage of the same.

Ayes and noes to be called and certified.

51. The President is authorized to administer all oaths prescribed in the foregoing rules.

President to administer oath.

52. The standing hour for the daily meeting of the Senate, shall be 10 o'clock in the morning, until the Senate direct otherwise.

Hour of meeting.

53. No standing rule or order of the Senate shall be rescinded or changed without one day's notice therefor; nor shall any rule be rescinded, changed or suspended except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present.

Rules not to be rescinded without notice.

54. All resolutions introduced shall, if objection be made to the consideration thereof, remain on the files one day before being considered, and all resolutions involving the expenditure of money, shall, on their introduction, be referred to an appropriate committee and reported upon before being considered.

Resolutions to lie over, if objected to.

55. All bills for repealing or amending an act, shall, in the title and body of the bill, designate the true title of the act proposed to be repealed or amended.

Title of laws amended to be in bill.

56. No bill or resolution shall be amended by substitute, otherwise than by striking out all after the enacting or resolving clause, and inserting the substitute without an enacting or resolving clause.

Amendment by substitute—how made.
