Boy Scout Log Cabin

Ground was broken last Monday for the foundation of the Log Cabin to be erected on the Boy Scout Camp east of the village. A number of volunteers have generously offered to do their share of the work. Mr. Eric Werner supervises the job. The following men have already been wielding the pick and shovel: Andrew Anderson, Art Stenstrom, Pete Gates, Albin Johnson, Theodore Imega, Ivar Nicholson, and also Ude Imega who was sent down by Carl Ridell. Alfred Johnson sent his tankwagon for the water supply and Dan Blad offered his cement mixer and his help in pouring the cement. After that the work will be mostly up to the carpenters, several of whom have declared their willingness to help. With such all-around cooperation it is hoped that the work will be completed in a short time.

According to the recently taken school census, which includes all children between 4 and 20 years of age, no matter if they attend school or not, there are this year 240 children in the district against 220 last year. For the village of Williams Bay alone the total of this year is 184, an increase of 13 over last year.

Jack Vilas and family from Miami have been stopping in to see Frank Walker and other friends here. With all the recent talk of "Flyers", it is of interest to know that Mr. Vilas was the 4th person in the United States to fly a plane, being the sixth to receive a pilot's license. Twenty years ago he accomplished quite a feat for that time when he was the first to fly across Lake Michigan. He made it in two hours.

Betty Lynne Stoddard has returned from Chicago where she has been visiting since July 4th.

HOPKINS & WALKER

Elmer H. Hopkins and Frank W. Walker formed a partnership in 1923 to buy out the business of George Van Velzer. At that time there was only a small brick garage on the corner. Elmer Hopkins was an experienced mechanic, having served in France as an air service mechanic. Before coming to Williams Bay he worked in Hebron and Sharon. Frank had the business experience.

As Williams Bay kept on growing it became necessary to expand by rebuilding and enlarging the Garage to its present size. Then the lot was purchased and the boat storage part was added. It is a garage any resident can point to with pride. The bright lights extend a welcome to all who enter the village.

That brings up the public service the garage renders. One need only to stand in front of the garage a few moments on a busy evening to see how important a place it fills. Now one stops to inquire how to get to this place or that; then one asks where Mr. Blank lives; another to ask where he can buy this and that. Thus the evening goes on. Every effort is made to give pleasing service even at the cost of considerable time. Through the garage service station Elmer and Frank get to know nearly every one personally, but often inquiries are made for newcomers in the Bay. Thus, if you are expecting visitors, it will be well to stop in and tell the garage owners where you live so they can direct your friends quickly.

From this you see that the Garage on the Corner is not open just to fill your tank with good gas your engine with oil, your radiator with water and your tires with air, or to start a balky engine or take out a knock or squeak here and there, but to be of real service as good citizens in a friendly town.

Would you like to know more about the stars?

An interesting editorial appeared in the Deloit Daily News recently entitled "A Land Mark Passing." It tells of the important place the little red school house has held in American life but it also warns of the changing world and shows how we must have better schools in the rural sections to meet the new conditions.

Here in Williams Bay we have met the conditions and have a grade A A 1 school serving the village and rural district around us.

Marquette Healy, Jr. from Phoenix, Arizona is visiting his many friends around the Lake and stopping with Caryl Ripley.

Mrs. M. Magelssen of Chicago and her friend Miss Dagmar Larson of Los Angeles, California are for a time occupying one of the Ch. Olsen cottages at Camp Norway. Miss Larson came up here partly to take in the Century of Progress exhibition and partly to see her many old friends in Chicago and Williams Bay.

Rev. F. G. Kenny, Pastor First Baptist Church at La Porte, Ind., Mrs. Kenny, and daughter Miss Grace Elizabeth have been occupying the Watner Cottage next to the Library. They report a wonderful vacation renewing old acquaintances. La Porte is the new home of Adjutant Martin Watner of the Salvation Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson and daughter Lorraine of Chicago are stopping at Capt. Hansen. Rev. & Mrs. V.E. Ryding of Negaunee, Michigan are visiting them. Mrs. V.E. Ryding is a sister to Mrs. Nelson.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Ley of Canary Islands (Spain) have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. Percival Bailey at the Clarendell.

Summer Resident Passes Away

Mrs. Al Christianson was taken suddenly ill Monday afternoon and was rushed to Walworth County Hospital where she lived only a few hours. Mr. & Mrs. Christianson have been more than just summer residents. They came early to their home on the Lake next to Oakwood Estates and stayed late. They were friendly people and therefor made friends. The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Christianson and his daughter.

Little Paul Huffer who was reported as seriously ill last week was not able to pass the crisis of peritonitis infection after an operation for appendicitis. His father, Prof. Huffer of Beloit College, has been a graduate student at the Observatory for several summers. The sympathy of the Village goes out to the parents.

Mrs. W. I. Grimes and daughters Geraldine and Joan, Miss Eloise Grimes and Miss Fay Fuller of San Bernardino, California spent last week at the home of their sister Mrs. Ralph McDonald and family.

Permit

No. 188

At the special meeting of the Village Board last Monday night the formal order was given to extend water mains to Cedar Point Park and adjoining and intervening property. The contract with Jos. Diagi of Elkhorn was approved and signed, making him the engineer on the project. It is expected that it will be financed as a part of the government relief work and thus give employment to many of our men this Fall.

W. S. Shields who has been doing the preliminary work on the water and sewer to the Camps and intervening property will be retained as engineer on that work as soon as it seems best to proceed with it.

Shuffle Contest--Thurs. Night

Rain interferred with the Contest scheduled last Friday night at the new courts at Day Shore Inn. It is planned to hold it tonight (Thurs. night). This is held under the auspices of the Men's Community Club who will get a part of the proceeds. Prizes will be given for both men and women. Come at 7:30 and play or look on.
