NEW CATALOGUES

WILL BE DISTRIBUTED TOMORROW.

A COMPARISON WITH LAST YEAR.

An Increase of 233 Students—New Courses Offered.

Copies of the catalogue for the present year will probably be ready for distribution tomorrow. The new catalogue is of particular interest as the change from terms to semesters, necessitates a great change in the courses.

In the matter of attendance the new catalogue shows a total of 1520 students, as follows:

	'93-'94	'94-'95	Gai
Letters and Science...	702	787	85
Engineering	201	225	24
Law	169	266	97
Pharmacy	42	41	— 1
Agriculture	173	213	40
Total.....	1287	1520	233

The graduate students enumerated in the above table numbers 90, a decrease of 2, from last year.

The faculty numbers ninety-four, sixty-six professors and twenty-eight instructors. There will also be eight in the faculty of the school of music next year. Last year there were sixty-two professors and twenty-five instructors. This increase is brought about by the following new professors: Lieut. Chynoweth, Dr. Elsom, Mr. Farrington, Mr. Fortenbaugh, Dr. Laird, Dr. Smith and Mr. McKerrow, superintendent of farmers institutes. In addition Mr. Sober has been promoted from instructor to assistant professor. The following who were in the faculty last year do not appear in this year's catalogue. Lieut. Mc Grath, Mr. Morrison and Dr. Van Cleef. The following are the new instructors: Miss Bauer, Mr. Everett, Mr. Fischer, Mr. Mead, Dr. Saunders, Dr. Thwing.

There are twenty-nine special lectures announced in the catalogue, many of whom have already appeared here.

The fees for next year will be raised somewhat over those of this year. The tuition is increased from $6.00 a term, to $15.00 a semester, the general expenses from $12.00 to $20.00 a year in the college of letters and science and to $40.00 a year in the college of mechanics and engineering, and the school of pharmacy. The fees in the college of law will be $205.00 for the three years course instead of $100.00 for the two years course.

New courses in Sociology are offered, under Prof. Ely and Dr. Sharp, assisted by special lectures. Courses in the Principles of Administration, Municipal organization and Municipal Administration will be offered with an instructor to be appointed.

In the college of mechanics and engineering a new course in Municipal engineering is offered, under Profs. Turneaure and Whitney. This will include water supplies, sanitary engineering, sewerage system etc.

The college of law is arranged for the three years course instead of two years as at present.

In the school of Pharmacy a Prof. Kramers and Mr. Mead will give a new course in Pharmaceutical Technique and Mr. Fischer a new course in practical Pharmacy.

The announcement of the School of Music shows courses in the collegiate department in piano, organ and violin playing and voice culture. The Theoretical studies in this department are Musical Theory and Choral practice and Harmony and Counterpoint. An Academic course is also offered in this school.

The summer school will begin July 8 and close August 16, of this year, with Prof. Stearns as director. The faculty will consist of seventeen members. ATHLETIC WORK

TRAINING OF THE BASE BALL TEAM.

MEETING OF THE ATHLETIC DIRECTORS.

H. J. Noyes, Assistant Manager of Tennis—Other Business.

The baseball men are practicing faithfully every day at Camp Randall, they being given about two hours hard work daily. Base ball enthusiasts who have seen the teams of the previous years say that with only a week's outdoor practice the present team shows up better than any they have seen. The game last Saturday is no indication of the strength of the team, for every day shows great improvement in accuracy of throwing and the real art of the game. The management has endeavored to secure a coach, but has failed thus far. The team is at the point where a coach is very much needed. George, who played with Yale last year as sub-catcher, took charge of the coaching for a while yesterday before the regular game between the first and second nine.

The men should get a little more snap in the practice games and play as if they meant to win. They need also to study the proper plays to be made under certain circumstances. They have not learned to follow the ball and back up the basemen. The fielders should determine more readily who the ball belongs to when it is knocked into the field. The errors in catching and throwing are few and usually excusable. No regular team has been selected as yet. About thirteen men have suits and these will be used for regular players and substitutes. The following is the list:

Capt. Kummel, Runkel, George, Falk, Gregg, Wheelihan, Fowle, Freeman, Ford, Dudgeon, Hayden, Carroll, McCabe.

Runkel and George, Falk and Gregg will make up the batteries for the season. Freeman will probably hold down third. Kummel will be at his old position at short, and Fowle in center field; as to the other positions it is uncertain.

The second nine is composed of the following:

Oleson, Wasson, Butte, Hill, Haagenson, Hagerman, Fabrick, Manson, Scott.

The first nine defeated the second nine by a score of 11 to 0 yesterday.

ATHLETIC DIRECTORS.

The board of directors of the Athletic association met at the gymnasium yesterday. H. J. Noyes, '96, was elected assistant manager of the tennis department. The managers of baseball, track athletics and tennis, and the commodore of the navy reported to the board. It was decided to secure a coach for the nine if a good man could be secured in a short time. The manager of track athletics was instructed to secure medals for the winner of the indoor championship and for those who broke records in the indoor meets. Considerable routine business in regard to the various departments was also transacted.

THEFT FROM THE GYMNASIUM.

The locker thief has been at work again in the gymnasium. This time the victim is Chas. A. McGee, whose locker was completely rifled yesterday. As the openings for ventilation, through which the previous thefts have been made, were recently closed, the thief must have made use of a duplicate key in this instance. A clue, which may lead to the detection of the criminal, has been discovered by the occupants of the neighboring lockers, and will be followed till the offender is brought to justice.

PRESS CLUB.

All members of the Press club should be on hand at the meeting to be held in the State Historical society rooms in the Capitol. Miss E. H. Blair is to read a paper and will make use of the old newspaper files by way of illustration.

WASHBURN OBSERVATORY.

The observatory will be open this evening if the sky is clear.

ANCIENT EGYPT.

Mrs. Wayne Ramsay to Give a Talk on That Subject.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church have in prospect a most delightful entertainment for the people of Madison. Mrs. Wayne Ramsay has very kindly consented to give a talk on Ancient Egypt as seen today in the valley of the Nile, illustrated by sixty or more stereopticon views collected during her travels in that historic country. Mrs. Ramsay has made a special study of Egypt and its people and is well fitted to give a most instructive and entertaining talk on the subject. The admission has been put at the low price of twenty-five cents that all who so desire may have an opportunity of attending.

Christ Presbyterian church Thursday evening, April 18, at 8 o'clock. Tickets to be had at Miseley's and at Menges' drug store.

W. C. Leitsch, law '96, is on the sick list.

The drill hour has been changed to 5 o'clock, on Tuesdays and Thursdays. This hour is much more convenient to the majority of the students than the old one.

A Library social will be held at the Congregational church at 7:30 Thursday evening. All are invited.

Misses Martha Pound and Helen Palmer are visiting in Milwaukee today.

F. W. Winkler, of Milwaukee, U. of M., '96, is visiting H. J. Noyes, '96.

Mr. J. J. Esch, '87, of La Crosse, is in town in the interests of that city for the new normal school.

Chas. J. Summer, ex '96, of Delavan, who has been in town the past few days left this afternoon.

This evening's meeting of the Press club promises to be one of unusual interest. As it is the first meeting this term all old members should make a special effort to attend. Much business is left over from the meeting last term and ought to be settled this evening by the votes of a large proportion of the members. The programme is one of particular interest, not only to members nor merely those giving time to newspaper work, but any student will be glad of an opportunity of examining the remarkably fine collection of newspaper files in possession of the State Historical society. These various files often go back continuously to an early date and comprise issues of all parts of the country. Miss Blair has made a thorough study of her subject "Early Journalism" and is eminently qualified to give an interesting as well as profitable talk on it. The club is always glad to see as many outsiders as can to be present and the meetings are in no wise restricted to the members or those doing work in the line. This collection above mentioned is frequently consulted by lawyers and journalists of the state and it is to any one's advantage to learn how to get access to the files, whether they intend using them often or not.

The appearance of the annual catalogue this week shows many marked changes, most of them of a progressive nature. To begin with, the summary of students indicates that we have an increase of students greater for the past year than any preceding year. This is seen in every department except that of Pharmacy and here there is only a slight falling off. It is customary in most state institutions to include in the enrollment students attending summer school. It was decided here not to number these among the other schools making up the university. Had this school been included as the others it would have brought the entire number up to the neighborhood of sixteen hundred. Contrary to expectations the changes in courses are not of great importance. All studies that heretofore ran through the year continue on the same days. Classes extending over one term are now held for one semester. The different courses in one subject alternate now by semesters. The list of accredited schools is considerably enlarged for all the courses, showing that our high schools are maintaining the standard set for them by the university, and many schools heretofore not accredited for more than one course are now preparing their students for different ones. The civic historical course now requires branches equivalent with those of the modern classical and hence is placed where it deserves to be in rank. The musical department is much more extensive than it has ever been, by the addition of many prominent local musicians to the faculty. A new course in administration has been established so that the school of political science and history will be much more comprehensive. This is a branch that has long been needed and its organization will be gladly received. The graduate courses in all lines are more definitely marked out and there is no doubt but that it will be the means of building up the department the coming year.

CONTEMPORARY CLUB.

Interesting Subjects to Be Discussed
This Evening.

The Contemporary club meets this evening at 8 o'clock in the parlor of the Unitarian church. The Present Crisis in Norway and Sweden will be discussed by Prof. J. E. Olson, and Prof. C. R. Van Hise will speak of The Southern Appalachian Mountains, with maps to illustrate his subject. All are cordially invited to attend.

INCREASE IN FEES.

The general increase in University fees which will be made public in the new catalogue is creating considerable adverse comment. There has been talk of some such a change for the last two or three years but few were prepared for the very radical increase that the Regents have now seen fit to make. The increase in the general fees of the academic colleges, from $12 to $20 is the least obnoxious of the changes. In the law school the increase from $100 to $205 for the full course certainly more than makes up for the added year of study required. Do the regents imagine that they can keep the attendance of the Law school anywhere near what it is now with such an increase? When the would be lawyers of the northwest look around for a place to get their education it will not take them long to decide to go to some college where they can get their instruction cheaper than at Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota and Northwestern are too near at hand not to be taken into account in thinking of such things. And even if the expense is of not such vital importance still when a western man can get his professional education at an eastern school for little more than at a western one he is likely to do so. Turning to the colleges of Engineering and Pharmacy we find the increase even more out of proportion; being over two hundred per cent. There is no doubt but that we have a splendid engineering department but it seems hardly right to tax our most popular course in this manner. With the increase fees, the laboratory fees and the extra fee of $30 for a non-resident a student in these colleges would pay altogether almost as much as the charges at Harvard and Yale. We may be wrong in the prediction but if popular sentiment is any criterion there will not be such an increase in attendance next fall as we would naturally expect. It will be queer indeed if some of the present students do not finish their work elsewhere and the attendance from outside the state is sure to fall off considerably. No doubt the Regents carefully considered the move before it was decided, and any criticism of their action would be out of place here but the sentiment seems to prevail that the increase is a little radical. The University of Wisconsin has not yet attained a position where she may act regardless of consequences in such sweeping changes in its policy.
