A Latin Post-Prandial—Program by the Ladies.

Andrew A. Bruce, '90; Paul Reinsch, '92; Theodore Kronshage, '91; Warren Tarrant, '90; W. E. Marcher, ex-'95; Fred. S. Osgood, ex-'96; Charles E. Allen, '93; Spencer Beebe, '93; Burt R. Shurly, '94; A. C. Bell, '94; Thomas A. Polleys, '87; Charles O. O'Neill, ex-'96; Charles Hunner, '93; Dr. Edward Kremers, '87; Dr. Rodney H. True, '90; Walter M. Smith, '90; Charles F. Hawley, '94.

ANNIVERSARY BANQUET.

Saturday, the twenty-seventh anniversary of the founding of the Pi Beta Phi fraternity, Wisconsin Alpha gave a banquet at the home of Mrs. Smith. The house was beautifully decorated with carnations and the fraternity colors. After the banquet the following program was given:

Anniversary Song—Chapter.

The Day We Celebrate—Mrs. Sober.

The Old Chapters and the New—Pauline Houghton.

Our Greek Brothers—Genevieve Smith.

Our Goat—Alice Dacy.

Song—The Pi Phi Goat—Chapter.

The Neophytes—Mae Church.

Initiation Song—Chapter.

Among those present were Mesdames Barnes, Daniels, Smith and Sober; Misses Robinson, MacGregor, Elisabeth MacGregor, Steenberg, Smith, Genevieve Smith, Craig, Houghton, Perry, Dacy, Huntington, Church, Mashek.

A NEW SHELL.

The crew yesterday received a shell to add to its outfit. This boat which will be used for practice, as the regular shell can not be finished for some time, was obtained from Harvard, where it was used by the crew of '92. It is of cedar, weighs 220 pounds, and is in very good condition, having been very carefully used. It took one of the largest cars in use, a New York Central baggage car, to transport the shell. It will be used for the practice of the Varsity crew until the arrival of the new shell. The Pabst shell will also be used and it is expected that the racing practice which can be obtained from the two boats will be of great benefit to the crews. It was this practice that they were deficient in last year. It is expected that in the race with the Delaware crew, on Lake Monona, there will be four crews. The university will be represented by the Varsity, the second crew, and the freshman crew. This number will make a very interesting race.

PRESS CLUB.

The University Press club will meet in Prof. Rosenstengel's room, North Hall, at 7:30, Wednesday evening. Several important amendments to the constitution will come to final vote, and the question of giving a banquet will be considered. But a few more meetings can be held this term, and it is imperative that all members turn out.

The following program has been prepared: "The Illustrated Newspaper," by A. R. Hager, '96, and a sketch by Zona Gale, '95.

FRATERNITY BASEBALL.

The baseball teams of the Sigma Chi's and Delta U's crossed bats at Camp Randall last Saturday afternoon. A five-inning game had been decided upon, and it proved sufficiently long to allow the Sig's to run up a score of 20 to their opponents 9. The former's strength lay in their battery, while the D. U. nine did good work in the field.

AND RIPON, TOO.

BEATEN BY THE UNIVERSITY BASEBALL NINE.

A CLOSE GAME, WITH THE SCORE 7 TO 6.

Heavy Battery Work—Piled up Runs on Burns.

After a closely contested and well played game, the Varsity team won from Ripon last Saturday by a score of 7 to 6. Hayden and Gregg batted for Wisconsin, and Blencoe and Burns for Ripon. The game was exciting throughout, but not brilliant. Burns' pitching was weak in the first inning, and Madison piled up five runs. Ripon failed to score in the first inning but made three runs in the second and shut out Madison. Madison secured a score in the fifth. Each team made a run in the seventh, and Ripon scored twice in the ninth. In the last inning the crowd went wild with excitement. Blencoe made a three-base hit, bringing in Reed and scoring himself, making the score: University of Wisconsin, 7; Ripon, 6.

Ripon got three men on bases, Hayden threw three balls, but Temple fanned out and Ripon lost.

The features of the game were the strong battery work on both sides and a brilliant double play by Fuller. Following is the summary:

CHEMICAL CLUB.

The Chemical club will meet at the chemical laboratory on Tuesday, April 30th, at 7:30 p. m. The reading of Schorlemmer's History of Organic Chemistry will be continued.

—E. A. O'Neill, '98, who has been spending part of the winter in California was in the city Saturday last. He will resume his studies on the hill next fall.

CORNELL LETTER.

Ithaca, April 25.

From the present outlook it would seem as if Cornell was to be well represented abroad this year. The Glee, Banjo and Mandolin clubs have followed the good example of the crew and have definitely decided to make a concert tour through England, Scotland and Ireland. The clubs will sail from New York June 19, on the Paris and give their first concert in London July 4. After a series of concerts at London the boys will go to see the Henley races. About six weeks are to be spent abroad. Thirty men will take the trip and, judging from the preparations being made, Cornell will be as creditably represented on the land as on the water.

The first baseball game of the season was played a week ago Tuesday. The Varsity won over the Syracuse league team by a score of six to four. The team showed up very well and the victory was a result of good, steady work throughout the game. The second game was not as successful as the first. Thursday the Toronto League team defeated the Varsity 2 to 0. In general the nine seems to be deficient in batting and the playing lacks that snap which has always characterized Cornell's work on the diamond. Last year's captain, "Eddie" Young, is back and with the coaching the boys will receive this week and next, much improvement must be shown.

The track athletic authorities are very well pleased over the work done by the relay team at Philadelphia Saturday. The defenders of the carnelian and white were pitted against representatives from Columbia over whom they won by 100 yards. The time was 3 minutes, 51 4-5 seconds. The Cornell team was Startford, Gignoux, Stebbins and Capt. Rulison and the Columbia team was De Salazar, Clark, Weil and Kingsley.

The crews have been greatly benefited by rowing on the lake for the past week. The launch has been put into the water and is now used by Mr. Courtney following the crews. There are two Varsity crews on the water and in the several scrub races and little "brushes" they have had, the light crew has come out victorious. R. L. Shape has been elected captain of the Varsity crew. Mr. Shape has been acting captain since the crews have been in training and he fully deserves and merits the honor which has been shown him.

There are freshmen enough rowing to use two boats. From the excellent work that is being done it will not be surprising if one or two freshmen are amongst those who take the trans-Atlantic Trip.

Cornell Daily Sun.

—Orin E. Crooker, '96, will be unable to leave his room for at least two weeks.

—The Hesperia freshmen have postponed their blowout from May 3 to May 10.

—Ernest O'Neill, '98, who has just returned from a trip to California, is in Madison visiting university friends.

—The engagement is announced of John F. Donovan, law '95, to Miss Annie Gallagher, of Chicago.

—Edward Andrué, a student at Lawrence university, is under arrest for complicity in the murder of his sister's child.

It was said of the girl in bloomers who got killed while riding a bicycle, that she met death like a man.It has been stated, though on what authority we know not, that Wellington said he learned to win Waterloo on a college football field.Next Friday occurs the Intercollegiate Oratorical contest at Iowa City, Iowa. For a long time Wisconsin has been able to secure nothing better than second place, but this year she has a representation who was last year successful in the local junior Ex. contest and whose experience as an orator bespeaks a better showing for Wisconsin than usual. Whatever the result may be there is much confidence felt now in success for the Badger state.In justice to the management of the tennis association for the slowness in getting the courts in shape, we must say that they have been greatly handicapped for many reasons. While we are far from believing that the work should have been so much delayed as to cause the excellent weeks to be lost, we are informed that there are obstacles which could not be overcome. Difficulty has been experienced in securing the hose and roller for the time required, as they have been in use on the lower campus. The coming week, however, will see the work progress and with a heavy rain to favor us there is no reason why the sport cannot be running full blast inside of a week.The Illini of the University of Illinois says editorially:"The fees at Wisconsin University have been considerably increased, making them almost as large as those charged by the larger eastern institutions. It is meeting with not a little opposition on the part of the students. In this connection it might be asked, is not one of the objects of a state university to give a first class, liberal education as cheaply as possible? Is not the nominal tuition of our universities a great factor in lowering the cost of an education? While we do not presume to criticise Wisconsin, she has evidently forgotten, or disregarded, one of the chief objects of a state university. In any case other universities should be cautious in following her example."The above is only one of the numerous criticisms of our western college press.
It is sincerely to be hoped that they will not profit by our loss but there is of course every reason to believe that other western institutions will make a strong bid for students next year by a comparison of their fees with ours.

Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Crosse, Wis.:

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible raving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly,

COLLEGES TO COMBINE.

Chicago, April 28.—Baptist colleges and academies are preparing to come under the wing of the University of Chicago. Dr. Harper's plan of offiliation is gaining favor and foothold in the northwest. There is a strong probability that as many as a dozen institutions will affiliate with the university this year.

Presidents of the leading Baptist colleges and academies in the northwest held a conference at the university last week. They did not meet solely to consider affiliation, but this was discussed in detail. The presidents went away with a most favorable impression of the scheme. The conference appointed a committee, which returned a favorable report.

The colleges and academies represented at the conference were: Franklin college, by President Stott; Des Moines college, by President Stetson; Kalamazoo college, by President Slocum; Shurtleff college, by President De Bois; Grand Island college, Nebraska, by President Sunderland; Ottawa college, Kansas, by President Colgrove; Wayland academy, Wisconsin, by President Burchard; Pillsbury academy, Minnesota, by President Abernethy, and one or two others.

Whatever Chicago university does in the Baptist line is apt to be imitated in a large degree by Northwestern university among Methodist institutions.

OXFORD IN THE "EIGHTS" WEEK

"The 'Eights' are a series of boat races rowed evening after evening over the same course, by the same boats' crews, each crew representing a different college or college club, some colleges having more boats on than others. The only difference in the make-up of the races from night to night is that of the position in which the boats start. This is determined on the first night by the position they left off in last year, and on each succeeding night by whether or no they have succeeded in maintaining that position. The problem of how to race some thirty boats in competition at the same time on a river not wide enough for even two to row abreast, has been solved by what, to the outsider, is so profound a mystery that it has never yet been comprehended by mortal man from any verbal description, but it has, nevertheless been accomplished.

"The races are rowed in two divisions. The boats at the start are stationed in a long line, one after the other, about twenty yards apart. As soon as the starting gun fires, each boat tries to overtake the one before it, and if successful in touching it, it has made a 'bump.' Both boats then go to the bank-side and are out of the race for that night. Next day the boat which made the bump takes the place of the 'bumped' boat, and the boat that is bumped goes down one place. The boat that made the bump having gone up one place for that, then tries to overtake the one next above it; if it is bumped in its turn, it has the next night to retreat backward."—Outing

THE DARTMOUTH, WILLIAMS AND AMHERST CONTROVERSY.

Dartmouth college students have backed down from the square stand they took last fall with regard to playing medical students on their athletic teams and have voted to ask Williams and Amherst to stay in the leagues with them and have consented to bar medical students off all teams if they will consent to this arrangement. Dartmouth has also sent delegates to Amherst and Williams who will make this proposition: To form three triangular leagues in baseball, football and track athletics; to abide by the four year limit and year residence rule, and to throw Dartmouth medics out of athletics entirely. —Harvard Crimson.
