BADGERS HOPE TO REPEAT WIN OVER SUCKERS

Meet Illinois for Second Time on Urbana Floor Tonight

Determined to repeat their victory over Illinois, the only defeat the conference leaders have suffered this year, the Badger basket men left at 5:30 yesterday afternoon for Urbana. Rested after the final hard workout Thursday, the team is in perfect condition for the game tonight.

Nine men, besides Coach Meanwell and Manager Reynolds, made the trip. The probable lineup follows:

Wisconsin	Illinois
Taylor (capt.)	R. F. Walquist
J. Williams	L. F. Mee
Ceaser	C. Reitsch
R. Williams	L. G. Carney
Frogner-Tebell	R. G. Vail
McIntosh, Horne, and Gage	went as substitutes.

Illini Are Strong

The Illinois team, although Wisconsin has defeated it once, is as formidable a combination as the Badgers will meet; and playing on its own floor with Carney in the lineup, it should put up a real fight tonight.

The Illini have a defense as well as an offense, as their air-tight work against the Gophers showed; but it is expected that Wisconsin's short pass offence will do the work Minnesota's dribbling game failed to do.

GREEN BUTTON TO GIVE DANCE TODAY

Freshman Women Will Hold First Get Together in Lathrop

A matinee dance for all freshman women will be given this afternoon in Lathrop parlors from 3 until 6 o'clock by Green Button, freshman women's organization.

"This is the first opportunity Green Button members have had to come together," declared Lila Ekern '24, president of the organization, "and through the medium of a good time for everyone we want to make this affair a success in promoting a feeling of class unity."

A special pep meeting was held by all committees and their chairmen yesterday noon at which final plans were completed and arrangements made for notifying all members of Green Button of the dance. Freshman commission is cooperating with officers, chairmen, and committeemen in making these arrangements.

"No tickets have been sold in advance," said Ruth Jones, social

OLD-FASHIONED

Wisconsin Believes in Home-making as Profession for Women, Says Dean Nardin

"We preach an old fashioned doctrine at Wisconsin, for we have an optimistic belief in the profession of home-making for women," said Dean F. Louise Nardin, in commenting upon the vocational conference for women, which is to be held February 24, 25 and 26.

"We recognize that the aim of a woman's education should be to make her a success as a woman, and the aim of our vocational conference is not to determine every woman, or to choose all of her courses with a view of preparing her for one type of service.

"We feel that a vocational conference for women is of greatest value because it increases their earnest

LAW EXAM BILL WINS FIRST STEP IN LEGISLATURE

Assembly Passes Measure to Require U. W. Men to Pass Bar Exam

By a vote of 50 to 37 the state assembly yesterday placed the bill requiring University of Wisconsin law graduates to take the state bar examination upon the calendar for final action. This final action will be taken the first of next week.

The bill has been asked for by the faculty and students of Marquette university law school, more than 100 of whom have been working for its passage during the past week. Assemblyman N. F. Lucas, Milwaukee, championed the bill, and declared in its behalf that "special privilege had been extended to university law school graduates."

Assemblyman A. E. Matheson, opposing the bill, declared that it was aimed at the University of Wisconsin and if passed would be heralded as a slap at a state institution.

An attempt to send the bill back to committee failed and after a flood of oratory, for and against the bill, it was sent to engrossment.

Chairman J. B. French of the judiciary committee which recommended the bill for passage said that he was opposed to the bill. Assemblyman H. W. Sachtjen, Madison, also spoke against the bill.

Upon a call for question and roll call the bill was engrossed by a vote of 50 to 37.

ALL BUT FROSH CAN TRY FOR HAREFOOT

Requirements for the Haresfoot tryouts for the musical comedy, "Miss Quita," are limited only by the fact that those trying out must be sophomore men or upperclassmen in the university. The great number of parts requires all types of characters from Mexican generals to dainty, demure, dancing damsels.

Preliminary tryouts are to be held Wednesday evening at the Wisconsin High school, and it is imperative that all those wishing to take part in either the cast, orchestra, chorus, or production staff be present at this time.

MANY TEAMS RUN TONIGHT IN FIFTEENTH RELAY CARNIVAL

CRIPPLED TEAM MEETS ILLINOIS IN SWIM TODAY

Exam Casualties Leave Only

Four First-string Men on Tank Team

With only four first-string swimmers remaining on the Wisconsin varsity squad, a badly riddled team will meet Illinois in the first conference dual meet of the season in the gym at 2 o'clock, this afternoon. Eleven swimmers became ineligible during the semester examination period, and Coach Joseph C. Steinauer has been forced to build up an entirely new squad within the last week.

Out of a total of seven plungers who were available for Big Ten competition, only one, H. S. Rubel '23, will be eligible for the Illinois meet. Two men in the important relay event have been lost through ineligibility, and Coach Steinauer will send a second-string team against the Suckers. Most of the men have had no previous competition in swimming meets, and, consequently, will not be at their best in the Saturday meet.

PLAN 12 RACES FOR ICE FEST

Fraternity and Sorority Relays Will be Feature Events

A card of 12 events for both men and women skaters will give opportunity for every ice enthusiast in school to take part in the races of the fifth annual Ice carnival, scheduled for next Saturday afternoon and evening.

Handsome prizes to be awarded the winners in all events are being donated by Madison merchants. They will be on exhibit some time this week.

The inter-fraternity and inter-sorority relay races, won last year by Sigma Chi and Kappa Kappa Gamma, will be the featured events of the afternoon. These races have created much interest in past carnivals, and teams are already being formed to race this year. The Norwegian house and Y. M. C. A. and Barnard and Chadbourne halls will compete in these events.

The individual events which any student may enter will include quarter and half mile races for men and women, a mile race for men, backward races for men and women, a mixed doubles race, and a men's doubles race in which one man will skate backward. There will also be a broad jump for men.

A hockey game will be played during the races; and, if there is snow, there will be a ski tournament.

Individuals Also Compete for Trophies in Special Events

More than 250 men are entered in the Fifteenth Annual University of Wisconsin Relay carnival to be held in the gym annex at 7 o'clock tonight. Never before has such a large card of entries been listed with the athletic department, and it is expected that the 1921 carnival will be the biggest which has ever been promoted by the University of Wisconsin.

Six relays, in addition to a number of special track and field events for trophies, comprise the carnival. While the inter-collegiate relay for the "Little Five" championship of Wisconsin will undoubtedly be the fastest race in the meet, the other runs will be closely contested.

Other relay races are: Military Academy, Inter-Fraternity, Inter-Sorority, Inter-Military R. O. T. C. company, and High school relays. The special events will be 40-yard hurdles, 40-yard dash, 45-yard low hurdles, Military Academy high jump, Military Academy shot put, running high jump, running broad jump, all-university shot put, and pole vault. Trophies will be awarded to the winners of each of the events, and cups will become the property of relay winners.

College Relay is Feature

The feature of the carnival, which is the Intra-State College relay for the secondary college championship of Wisconsin, has four teams entered. Ripon, Lawrence, Beloit, and Carroll colleges have sent teams for this relay. Four men will run for each college, each man traveling two laps. Gold medals will be awarded to the members of the winning quartet. None of the colleges entered have engaged in any dual meet during the 1921 indoor season, but all have been preparing for this contest.

Ripon appears likely to cop the race, with Usher, Jerdee, Caccia, Harvey, and Trantow carrying the Ripon baton. Usher played on the 1918 University of Wisconsin S. A. T. C. football squad, and is considered one of the fastest men in the little colleges. Harvey holds the half-mile distance record at Ripon, while Jerdee gained a reputation for speed on the Ripon football team last fall.

Lawrence, represented by Mitchell, Doering, Shaw, and Hooley, will put a veteran team on the track. Not much is known of the Beloit and Carroll entries except that both colleges have been strenuously preparing for the relay.

Military Academies Race

Two military academies have entered teams in the Inter-Military Academy relay. Shattuck and Culver will run in this relay, but St.

CHINESE TO SELL ORIENTAL TRINKETS AT LATHROP TODAY

Money Raised by Students Will Go Toward Famine Relief Fund

The Chinese bazaar which opens in Lathrop hall this afternoon at 1 o'clock and closes at 7 promises to be one of the biggest affairs put on by Chinese students in the university. Light and colorful trinkets from the Orient will be sold, ranging in prices from chop sticks and incense at 10 cents to silk embroidery work at $3.50. "Old original" Chinese tea will be served in the corner set aside for refreshments. Proceeds will go toward the Chinese Famine Relief fund.

M. H. Chou, chairman of the committee, is conducting the affair for the Chinese Students' alliance, a country-wide organization of which he was elected president at Ann Arbor last year. Mr. Chou says that he expects the proceeds from the bazaar to exceed those of the one held in December, at which $500 was realized.

The committee for the event is as follows: M. H. Chou, chairman; Henry H. Choo, vice-chairman; H. C. Tu, Chinese bazaar; C. C. Hsu, Chinese tea; Alfred T. Sun, Chinese dinner; C. C. Tu, advertising.

Other members are H. C. Lu, Muller L. H. Kung, Chausen T. Tsing, S. T. Huo, T. P. Pi, C. H. Kau, Y. L. Yeh, Y. C. Sheu, and T. Cheu.

Talks 11 Days As Physicians Fight
Strange Disease

Miriam Ruben.

Miriam Ruben, eight-year-old Waukegan, Ill., girl, has stopped her incessant talking after carrying on a conversation for 11 days while physicians, osteopaths and masseurs labored in vain to stop her. She had talked for nine days before a Waukegan chiropractor discovered a dislocation of the second and third vertebrae of her spine. When he remedied this she slept a few hours, then resumed her talking. It is believed that a valentine received from a playmate, by causing intense joy, finally stopped the flow of words.

WOLF TO TALK ON PRE-WAR GERMANY

"Germany Just Before the War," will be the subject of an illustrated talk by Secretary F. E. Wolf, of the university "Y," before the Badger club next Sunday night.

Mr. Wolf was in Europe during the months preceding the war, being caught in London at its outbreak. He had completed a tour of the principal Continental cities, and had paid visits to some of the more important places of historical interest in Germany, acquiring the complete collection of illustrated slides which he will use in his talk.

By a vote of 16 to 5, the upper house passed Sen. Buck's bill providing for an extension of time up to July 1 of this year only for persons who may find it hard to pay taxes because of unemployment. The bill is aimed to relieve persons who are paying for homes on the installment plan and have been hit by unemployment.

The house resolution providing for adjournment from Saturday to Wednesday for the reason that Tuesday is Washington's birthday was killed by the senate. Sen. Kuckuk said that the members ought to be on the job on Monday, but could observe Washington's birthday on Tuesday if they cared to.

Several other senators said it was time for the legislature to get down to real work. Sen. Lange said that he had never done less work than he has been called upon to do since he came here.

"Although little is known of the Illinois swimming squad this season, the Wisconsin team is shot too badly to have any chance of coping the dual meet. We have only four regulars who will be able to swim tomorrow. The men are Captain Koch, Davies, Collins, and Koch. All the rest of the team will be made up of substitutes who have had no previous experience in conference meets, and who, as a result, will be handicapped.

"While the Badgers' chance of beating Illinois are slight, the team may have recovered enough by next Saturday to put up a good exhibition against the Northwestern conference champions, who come to Madison, February 26."

The Illinois squad has not engaged in any dual meets this season, and little is known of its strength. Three men who have earned a national reputation are swimming for the Illinois squad. These men are Dvorak, a diver, McNally, who is especially strong in the sprints, and Dennett, 150-yard swimmer.

Entries for the various events follow:

Relay—Wisconsin: Bach, Davies, Halderman, Baker. Illinois: Royal, McNally, Postle, Dennett, Corits.

Dives—Wisconsin: Collins, Koch. Illinois: Dvorak, Lyons.

40-yard swim—Wisconsin: Davies, Bach. Illinois: Royal, McNally, Postle.

Breast-stroke swim—Wisconsin: Koch, Collins, Pabst. Illinois: Olson, Lasset.

Senate Judiciary Committee Recommends the Severson Measure

Repeal of the secrecy clause of the state income tax law was recommended on Thursday by the senate judiciary committee. The bill will probably come up in the senate for consideration on Wednesday. Only one member of the judiciary committee dissented, Sen. Theodore Benfey, Sheboygan. Adoption of the bill was moved by Senator Henry Bennett, Viroqua, who declared that legislation of this kind was needed.

Sen. Severson declared that the passage of this bill would result in putting many hundreds of thousands of dollars upon the tax rolls of the state. He read the report of the state tax commission which declared that with a small additional appropriation an additional million dollars in taxes could be placed on the tax roll. Severson pointed out that as a result of tax commission inspection of about 150 corporations in this state hundreds of thousands of dollars of additional taxes had been collected. He said that if the present secrecy clause of the tax law was repealed fear of discovery would result in an honest income tax report. The bill was also favored by Charles Stewart.

THE DAILY CARDINAL

MANY TEAMS RUN IN RELAY CARNIVAL AT ANNEX TONIGHT

Johns, which agreed to enter, has been scratched at the last moment. Culver is given the edge over its Minnesota rival by virtue of having defeated the strong Crane high school team, Chicago.

Each academy team will run four men, the first runner to go one-half mile, the second one lap, and the last two to run one-quarter, and three-quarter miles, respectively.

Alpha Sigma Phi, Alpha Chi Sigma, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Phi Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Theta Chi, Theta Xi, Zeta Phi have entered teams of six men each in the inter-fraternity relay event. The total distance of the relay will be one-half mile, with each man running one lap for his fraternity. Silver trophy cups will be given to the societies which win one of the first five places.

Sigma Nu, represented by Stolley, Phillips, Dorries, Sallentine, McCandless, Wolfe, Mainland, and Brothers, is conceded to have an excellent chance of finishing high in the inter-fraternity event. Pi Kappa Alpha, running Spetz, McClure, Wille, Dennis, Scott, Newell, Niehaus, and Howell is also looked upon as a contender for first place honors.

Sororities Have Teams
A crowded field of 20 sorority entries will face the starter in the Inter-Sorority relay. Each sorority has chosen four men to run, the distances being a half-mile, two laps, 440-yards, and one mile. Barnard won the event last year, represented by Captain Dayton, Jones, Felton, and Spetz. The 1921 Barnard team, led by Saul Shapiro '21, is bent on repeating the victory for the dormitory. Alpha Chi Omega and Kappa Alpha Theta captured second and third, respectively, in the 1920 inter-sorority race and both have entered strong teams for the 1921 carnival.

Madison high school and University high school have entered the inter-high school race. The two schools are bitter rivals in every branch of sport, and the result of this contest will go far to determine which is supreme on the track. Otto Endres, Wisconsin pole vaulter and winner of many points in conference competition last year, has developed a strong quartet for the Wisconsin-Illinois game is the only one in the conference tonight which will change any positions in the percentage column. If Wisconsin wins, a tie will be held with Chicago for fourth place. Indiana would rank first; Illinois, second; Purdue, third. An Illinois victory would leave the Suckers in first place and Wisconsin would be tied with Michigan for fifth place.

After the Ohio game the Badgers will at least be in fifth place. If two victories are annexed, Wisconsin would probably jump into third place, as the Boilermakers have not shown themselves to be capable of winning over Illinois.

Madison high school. Coach Ira C. Davis, University high, has been drilling his baton carriers strenuously in order that the "little Badgers" may chalk up a victory over their Madison rivals, and the Inter-High school relay may turn out to be the best contested event of the evening.

R. O. T. C. companies of the University of Wisconsin unit will run in the Inter-Company race. No forecasts can be attempted in this race, for every company has at least one man who has distinguished himself in freshman or varsity track.

Compete for Mucks Trophy
Arlie Mucks, Badger track and football star, and holder of the world's discuss record, has offered a cup for the best shot putter entered. Guy Sundt '22 won the cup in the 1920 carnival with a heave of 39 ft. 11 inches. He will be closely pressed this year by Joe Liskovets '21, Malcolm Mecartney '21, and Hans Gude '22.

Another cup for which there will be spirited competition is the Bob Wahl trophy for the best high jumper. Wahl is a former Wisconsin high jumper and holds the annex record with a leap of 6 ft. 1½ inches. His cup will be awarded to the winner for a period of one year and will be contested for in each succeeding Relay carnival.

Officials for the carnival are: Referee, McEchron; starter, Thomas E. Jones; manager, Earle S. Hirschman; clerk of course, Burt White; clerk of track, Marshall Lee; clerk of field, Eugene Clark; scorer, Emos Jones; assistant scorer, Charles Lewin; announcer, Horace Wetmore; head timer, Warner Taylor; head judge, Bob Duncan; head inspector, Professor Babcock; marshal, Ralph Scott.

ACTRESS WILL WED BELGIAN VISCOUNT

Miss Laurine Friend.

Miss Laurine Friend of Oakland, Cal., a pretty little actress and dancer, is soon to be married to Viscount von Metzger of the Belgian nobility. Von Metzger is twenty-one years old and at present is in southern California. Miss Friend is a graduate of Notre Dame convent and speaks several languages. She is seventeen years old. Her father was a direct descendant of the Earl of Angels of England. The couple expect to be married in San Francisco.

WOMAN SUGGESTS PLAN FOR HOUSING SCHOOL TEACHERS

Miss Agnes Howe.

Miss Agnes Howe, superintendent of schools of Santa Clara county, California, has hit upon a plan to relieve the housing situation. She suggests that funds be set aside to build additions to the various school houses, these additions to be used as teachers' dwellings. She asserts that the small sum which the teachers would have to pay for the upkeep of such dwellings would be more in keeping with their small pay than the ordinary high-priced rooms and apartments.

DEAN NARDIN SAYS HOME MAKING IS WOMEN'S VOCATION

ness and sense of responsibility, and we realize the desirability of a free education pursued earnestly and enthusiastically. If one must enter a vocation, electives should be chosen with a view to making the girl wise in general human affairs.

"At a national conference of placement secretaries and vocational advisors which I attended a year ago, all recognized the difficulty of arranging a conference that would present a balanced view of opportunities. There was general repentance of the type of conference which had taken as its slogan 'Why teach?' thus discrediting one of the professions in which women serve most happily. Much interest was expressed in Wisconsin's plan of presenting a comprehensive view of what the university offers by speakers from the faculty."

Carrying out this plan, the committee has arranged for only two speakers outside the university faculty for this year's conference. Miss Helen Bennett, director of the Chicago Bureau of Collegiate Placement for Women, and Miss Florence

Marshall, head of the Manhattan Trade School for Girls, New York City, will speak and hold individual conferences during the three days. The rest of the program will consist of talks and round table discussions by professors in the various departments, emphasizing the possibilities to which specialization in their subjects lead.

Torrens System Bill is Again Introduced

One of the most important bills which has only been presented by title thus far is one of Assemblyman George Oakes, New Richmond. It will provide for the establishment of the Torrens Land System. Mr. Oakes was a member of the special committee of the assembly which investigated this subject during the past year. It is understood that the committee is divided on this question and that part of the committee is opposed to the introduction of the Torrens Land System. A bill similar to this has been introduced at every session of the legislature during the past 15 years and has always been defeated by a decisive vote.

Stage Farewell Party for "Chief" Tronnes, Who is Leaving

STOUGHTON—Stoughton court, tribe of Ben Hur, and friends will give a farewell party this evening at the Woodman hall for their chief, Hans L. Tronnes, and wife, who leave next week for the south where they will make their future home. Ladies are requested to bring picnic lunch.

The local highs, Wednesday evening, for the second time this season, decisively defeated the Edgerton highs, the score being 28 to 16. Although it was a good game, the outcome was at no time in doubt. In the preliminary game, our second team was beaten by the Edgerton second team. A delegation of more than 150 fans from here accompanied the local teams on the afternoon train.

The S. A. F. lodge will hold its regular meeting this evening. Grand Secretary P. J. Smith, of Eau Claire, will be present. All members are urged to attend. The ladies are requested to bring a picnic lunch.

All new members of the W. C. T. U. are invited to a reception to be given in their honor at the First Lutheran church this evening. All old members are invited to come, and bring refreshments for a picnic lunch.

The Rebekahs will give a valentine party this evening, followed by a picnic lunch. All members are urged to be present.

Milwaukee is Stern With Auto Thieves

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — A thorough investigation as to why rates for automobile theft insurance are 50 percent lower in Milwaukee than in Chicago was opened when five representatives of bonding houses of Chicago called upon District Attorney W. C. Zabel for a conference. "Automobile thieves in Milwaukee" said the district attorney "are treated as criminals. There is no bickering when the cases come to our attention. An automobile thief is brought to court and is sent to jail for that crime." The committee will endeavor to remodel the court procedure of Chicago along lines of the Milwaukee plan.

Drag River for Man Who Sought Ford

DETROIT — At the request of Henry Ford, Detroit police today began to drag River Rouge in their search for M. Henry Potter, editor of the American Publishing Association of Philadelphia who is missing following his visit here to interview Mr. Ford. It is believed he may have fallen through the ice in the river in an attempt to reach the Ford estate. Mr. Potter has been missing since Sunday. Denied entrance to the Ford company property by guards, according to Ford employees, Potter is said to have remarked that he would "Get to Henry Ford if he had to swim the river."

EVERYBODY MUST HELP

THE time is now at hand when the attention of the student body must be turned seriously to the University Exposition. The decision to hold this Exposition was made with great hesitation because its success involves a world of work and sacrifice. It was only after the indications pointed to 100 per cent support from the students that the decision was finally reached.

It is needless to point out the importance of the Exposition and its bearing on the relation of the university to the whole state. The Exposition will be regarded as a true representation of what the university is really doing. Whether or not all the possibilities of the Exposition are realized depends on the response of the student body.

Therefore, it becomes a matter of university patriotism and pride for every student to put every ounce of energy into this proposition.

There is work for everybody to do. No committee alone can hope to put the affair across. An organization must be whipped into shape that will enlist every particle of talent in the university.

Finally, the work must get under way at once. There is not a moment to lose. It will be fatal if the students wait until the eleventh hour to respond.

The chairman or some of his representatives are in the Union building every afternoon. They are asking for workers now. Don't wait. Be a volunteer today.

THINGS OF THE SPIRIT

WISCONSIN is soon to have the annual religious conference. Elaborate preparations have been under way for months to make the conference this year one of great inspiration and value to the university.

Sherwood Eddy, who has achieved an international reputation as a spiritual leader of power, will be the principal speaker. This fact alone means that the conference will achieve its aim. Sherwood Eddy is close to university life. He knows the problems that beset the spiritual life of university men and women. He speaks a language that is especially intelligible to university students. He views religion from the point of view of those who are consciously striving after the highest mental and moral values.

The speaker comes in the fullness of time, when spiritual unrest seems to be the order of the day and when every principle and tenet of religion is in a state of uncertainty. Chart and compass seem to be lost.

Surely with conditions like these obtaining, the men and women in this institution should gladly hear a man who has a definite program to bring order out of confusion. This does not mean that his hearers are to agree with the speaker. It does mean that the students hear him with an open mind, firmly resolved that they will get everything of value from his message.

Above all, the conference should inspire thought along the lines of spiritual rehabilitation without which the world stands in danger of a return to Chaos and Old Night.

HONOR SYSTEM

Editor Daily Cardinal:

To me it just seems natural to rebel against being watched by a professor during examination. Just the idea of having them pacing the floor, trying to detect any one with his eye any place other than on his paper, is enough to convince me that the honor system is the system.

Some times I wonder am I a robber, thief, or prisoner. Then I say "No," because even some convicts are known as trusties and are not continually watched by the prison warden. Not so of Wisconsin students, however; for in some professors' minds we are all crooks. Others pretend we are honest but keep the eagle eye on us honest students during exams.

We aren't all crooks. We won't all crib. I venture to say that at least 97 per cent of the students of Wisconsin will do the right thing if their honor is at stake. Now if the honor system works at other schools, cannot it be worked here? Are the Wisconsin students morally below the students of other universities and colleges? I should say not, and most of them will do the right thing if placed on their honor. When a professor tells us we are all crooks and will cheat if we have the chance, the psychology of the thing is to do what he expects us to do. Most students don't look upon cribbing as dishonorable, they think they are going good if they can do it and get by.

To best describe a very successful honor system is to describe the system in vogue at the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va. A freshman convocation is held the second day of school, and all freshmen are required to attend. The president of the senior class describes the honor system to the freshmen. He tells the freshmen that the Virginia Military Institute is proud of its honor system.

When each student registers he is placed on his honor not to crib and to report any fellow student he sees cribbing. Cases where the students violate their honor are brought before the honor committee. This committee is composed of the presidents of the four classes and three seniors, three juniors, two sophomores, one freshman, they being elected by their classes.

Whenever a student violates his honor he is dealt with by the honor committee. The professors, and officers of the school know nothing of it until he is tried before this committee. Then the honor committee instructs the superintendent the action they have taken.

Some say that it is ideal, utopian, and all right in theory but that it will not work. They say a student will not report a fellow student. I know it does work at Virginia Military Institute. The year I attended a senior was reported for cribbing by his own room mate. They had been the best of friends and had roomed together for three years. But it was a question of his honor, and he came across.

Conditions are almost intolerable at Wisconsin, for one who loves justice and self government. Now shall we be put on our honor and conduct the examinations ourselves, or be watched like prisoners by professors? Which do you prefer?

HUGE LOSS COMES TO LIGHT IN BIG WASHINGTON GALE

8 Billion Feet of Timber Are Wiped Out by Cyclone of Jan. 29

WASHINGTON—Eight billion board feet of timber was destroyed by the cyclone that ripped a 75 mile path, 30 miles wide, through the forests of the Olympia peninsula, Washington state, Jan. 29. Reports today from the forest service class the storm "as the greatest disaster ever recorded in the annals of forestry and lumbering."

The wind registered 132 miles an hour before instruments at the weather bureau were destroyed. It is estimated to have reached 150 miles. Practically all standing timber over 2,250 square miles went down in a tangled mass, obliterating roads and telegraph lines. No lives were lost but buildings were destroyed and many animals perished including elk.

It Was His Walk But Sam Had to Pay $10

WINONA, Minn.—"It's my walk, judge; I'm used to walking that way on the ice so as not to slip," Sam Cichosz, a river man, told Judge Fitzpatrick when arraigned on a charge of intoxication. "You may take a seat in the rear," said the judge. Cichosz walked spryly to the last bench. "I don't notice anything peculiar in your gait now," said Judge Fitzpatrick. "Ten dollars."

PRESS CLUB "MELODRAMMA" MAKES BIG HIT AT ANNUAL PI-NITE

BY P. C.

"Don't get mixed up in any dirty politics. No newspaper man ever made money on it," says Patricia Tait, the reporter, played by Rosemary Lyons, '23, in the Press club "melodrammer" "A Dirty Case," given by a strictly scoop-hound cast, at Lathrop hall last night, to feature the celebration of the annual Pi-Nite. Her speech is the keynote to the plot, which thickens and thickens, culminating in a hand to hand battle, in which the villainous managing editor is completely routed. Two clinches make a twice-happy ending.

Rosemary Lyons, as the reporter, was one of the high spots. She was most flippantly charming, and held the center of the stage whenever she appeared. Playing opposite her was "Dave" Lacey '21, as Barney O'Shea, the managing editor. In the difficult part of the villain, Lacey was distinguished for his vigor of action, and the convincing ease with which he gave the character of the harassed editor.

Wyman Smith, grad, as Dick the Police reporter, supplied such of the comedy with his extremely remarkable necktie, and his red nose.

James Weston, the star reporter, played by George Geiger '23, was possessed of good looks, a good voice and the ability to make love. Mildred Gerlach '22, as Phyllis Hale, the society reporter, with the star reporter, supplied most of the love interest. Her portrayal of her boredom with newspaper work was very good.

The C. J. 2 student, Margaret Daly '22, deserves honorable mention here. In a small part, she was clever, naive, and natural, as she supplied "gore" about C. J. students. Her acting was especially bright and interesting.

Others in the cast were Russell Frost '21, John Baker '21, William Bloecher '22, Helen Smallshaw '23, Martin Halling '23, Dorothy Crook '21, and Richard Lowe '21. All the characterizations were remarkably well done, and the atmosphere of the newspaper office was almost too ably given. The play was written by a C. J. student, Martin Halling, and directed by E. Marion Johnson, instructor in the course in journalism, to whom much credit is due for the general peppyness of the production.

After the play came dancing to the music of Al Thompson's, and later, pie-a-la-ode, and two "tragic" skits, given alone and unaided by William Tannevitz '23, followed by more dancing, in order that everyone in the course in journalism might learn the toddle.

Russia Not Invited to Treaty Conference

LONDON — Premier Lloyd George explained in the House of Commons today why Russia will not be represented at the London conference on the Turkish treaty. The prime minister said: "Russia having foolishly declined an invitation to the conference of the allies in London last summer to settle all outstanding questions because acceptance would have involved arresting the march of her invading armies in Poland, we do not propose to renew the invitation."

ACQUITTED AS NIGHT RIDERS

Deml Case at Appleton Results in Favor of Defendants

APPLETON, Wis.—John Deml, Grand Chute, is unable to secure damages against Outagamie county "night riders" alleged to have injured him at his home late in the evening of October 19, 1918, while attempting to secure his subscription to the Fourth Liberty loan.

The jury brought in a verdict for the defendants at 10:05 o'clock Thursday night in circuit court here, after nearly four hours deliberation. Eight ballots were taken, the first standing 9 to 3 against the plaintiff.

Deml brought suit for $25,000 against Dr. J. D. O'Connor, Dr. A. E. Rector, Albert West, Stephen Balliet, John Balliet, and George T. Prim, claiming that he had been dragged about his yard with a rope around his neck after refusing to purchase Liberty bonds.

Testimony relative to alleged depredations committed by the visitors in making "calls" on other farmers the same evening, was excluded by the presiding jurist. Judge James Wickham, Eau Claire, sitting in the case for Judge Edgar V. Werner. Judge Werner declined to preside, although no affidavit of prejudice had been filed against him.

The jury considered the proposition of an unlawful assembly by the defendants and an attack upon Deml without legal justification, as charged by the court.

The questions of which, if any, defendants were guilty of the act and the amount of damages were also submitted by Judge Wickham in the charge of the jury.

The case was given to the jury at 5:30 o'clock, after the entire afternoon session had been devoted to arguments.

Throughout Attorney Martin's presentation of the case to the jury, C. B. Ballard, Grand Chute, was the object of a vituperative attack. So bitter did Martin become in his denunciation that it was necessary for the court to admonish him as to his language, and to caution the attorney to confine his address to the matter in question.

Ballard received considerable recognition despite the fact that he testified scarcely five minutes and was not a material witness.

Assailing passionately the patriotism of the prosecutions witnesses, Martin delivered a notable address on the duties of citizenship and the boys "over there."

Attorney Cochems decried attempts to paint the acts of the "night riders" in the livery of patriotism, declaring that by their deeds the committee offended every sense of patriotic service.

"It was a posse to compel submission, a committee of violence, committing cheap acts of outlawry," said Cochems.

The attorney painted the picture of the visit to the Deml home in the dead of night, the insistent rapping and continuous conversation despite Deml's refusal to confer with the twelve or fifteen men present, and his entrance into the yard, where he was pushed about and injured in the altercation that followed.

"The fact is that these men went out to put the fear of God into the hearts of those they called on, and to force them to subscribe," Cochems said.

Cochems emphasized the testimony offered by the defense in which none of the defendants were able to recall a member of the party who fell, as they claimed, into the ditch with Deml.

Testimony introduced in rebuttal showed the ditch only six inches deep.

"Imagine six or seven men falling, without any apparent reason, into a ditch six inches deep," said Cochems.

Wisconsin, with more than half of its population of the nationality which counsel so bitterly arraigned, led all the states of the United States in discharging obligations of the war, Cochems declared.

CLUES LOST IN DOUBLE CRIME

No Trace Found of Slayer of Two Teachers in Ohio

(By the Associated Press)

CLEVELAND—No trace of the murderer of Miss Louise Wolf, aged 37, principal of the Parma Heights high school, and Miss Mabel Foote, 24, a teacher, was found when officers and a posse of more than 200 farmers armed with shot guns and revolvers gave up their search last night. Two German police dogs failed to pick up the trail.

The two women were clubbed to death while on their way home from school Thursday, but their bodies were not discovered until yesterday. The skulls of both women were fractured and their garments torn to shreds.

WILL ENFORCE BLEACHING LAW

Emery Notifies Flour Men Artificial Bleaching Will Be Prosecuted

Dairy and Food Commissioner J. Q. Emery has served notice to the manufacturers of and dealers in flour, that the sale in Wisconsin for use and consumption in this state, or artificially bleached flour is prohibited by law.

"The use of the euphemistic term artificially 'aged' flour to camouflage artificially 'bleached' flour does not nullify Wisconsin's bleached flour law," said Mr. Emery.

"During the period of advancing prices of flour, no complaint of lack of adequate capacity for the storage of flour for the requisite aging of the same was heard from the manufacturers of flour. That the falling prices of flour should operate to shrink the storage capacity of the mills seems to have a mystic meaning."

Lower House Against Anti-Jew Sentiment

A joint resolution by Senator Hirsch, Milwaukee, against anti-Jew sentiment, as sponsored especially by Henry Ford, was passed by the house. The E. H. Johnson bill for the taxing of jewelry as personal property was engrossed and advanced to a third reading after a motion for killing was lost, 75 to 10. The assembly advanced the Jordan bill providing against the spread of contagious diseases.

200 Bills Are Presented by Title

Over 200 bills are now in committee on revision of the assembly and will not be reported until the measures have been drafted for them. The bills have been presented only by title and measures which are to come in under these titles have been as yet not drafted. Assemblyman F. W. Ploetz, Waushara county, promises the introduction of a resolution which will promptly compel the drafting of these bills upon presentation to the house. If this is done, committees will have these bills within the next 10 days.

UNUSUAL PROGRAM

ORPH SHOW IS UNUSUAL
 By far the best of an unusual program at the Orpheum last night was Hershel Henlere, with his beautiful mop of hair and his clever performances on the piano. The whole audience tried to follow his rapidly shifting popular airs, but he left the whistlers behind, time after time. Not the least of his attractiveness was his companion, Madame Skiddikadinski, who attempted to sing, but entertained many difficulties, mainly her voice.

"Spilling the Beans" sent the entire audience into hysterics, and kept them there throughout the act. One of the Jackies showed a true sailor's capacity for beans, but apparently could not keep them himself.

An exotic scene for the Orpheum stage was presented by Aurora and Company, who gave "high class popular songs" in "would-be-operatic" costumes. The singers were too evidently chosen for the quality of their voices, but that was unimpeachable. The little dancer was exceptionally graceful, and her personality was most appealing.

Epigrammatic episodes in different hotels, presented by Lewis and Norton, made a somehow disappointing result out of a clever idea. The Amaranth sisters gave a "dance revue" with great versatility and originality, and ran the gamut from the dainty to the grotesque with aesthetic ability.

The most commonplace piece on the program, otherwise so original, was the act of Dunham and Williams. A tea-hound with a touch of spring fever contracted day before yesterday probably, and a terribly foolish fat man, told jokes that might have come over in the Mayflower, and sang insipid songs.

AT THE STRAND

An interesting drama of love, and hate, in Civil War days, is "Held by the Enemy," the Paramount picturization of William Gillette's famous play, which will be shown at the Strand theater for the last times today.

There is just enough of the Civil war flavor about "Held by the Enemy" to make it relishable. The story has to do with Rachel Hayne, a Southern girl, who is supposedly a widow and who lives with her family in an old manor, which is in possession of the Federal troops commanded by Colonel Prescott. That officer loves Rachael and he is about to avow his reciprocated love when Captain Hayne, the husband turns up. A rascally surgeon is the Colonel's rival and when Hayne is captured as a spy, he accuses Prescott of having trumped up the charge against Hayne so as to rid himself of an encumbrance.

Hayne escapes after being sentenced to death but is re-captured. After several stirring incidents he commits suicide.

"Life of the Bee" and a comedy cartoon will be the added attractions.

Wallace Reid in "Always Audacious" will be the feature picture at the Strand Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday.

WOMEN DEBATE DISARMAMENT

Resolution is Defeated at National Woman's Party Meet

WASHINGTON — A proposal that the national woman's party thro wits full support to the fight for world disarmament was overwhelmingly defeated at the organization's convention here today after a sharp debate.

Mrs. Harriet Brown of Iowa urged its adoption.

"Unless you adopt it and go forward quickly," she declared, "you have nothing else but purely feminist programs for the rest of your lives, for here will be none but women left on earth. And that next war they talk about is coming soon unless you women prevent it. You go a long way towards preventing it if you pass resolutions giving notice of your intention to defeat in the next elections all congressmen who will not pledge themselves to disarmament.

"You women who have never borne a child, who have never lost a child, what do you mean by telling us who have that, that the question of disarmament is not a feminist question?"

Mrs. John Rogers of New York attacked the statement that women could prevent war. She declared the world could not be saved from wars until women had saved civilization.

"Let us keep our organization to free women and get women advanced to the point where they will have to stop war and vice and keep it stopped," said she.
