Verse 1.*

In County Kildare
 On Hibernia's shore
 Lived a family of John McIntyre's.
 There was Mike and Tim the twins,
 And they stand upon their pins:
 We're the elegant bold McIntyres.

Verse 2.

There's the Rellys
 And the Kellys
 And the ocean and the sea,
 There's the Cases and all the McGuires,
 Oh bow down to us low as walking we go:
 We're the elegant bold McIntyres.

Verse 3

There is old Uncle Pat
 With his high beaver hat
 He could wheel any braggard McGuire.
 There were Mike and Tim the twins,
 And they stand upon there pins:
 We're the elegant bold McIntyres.

HST notes:

In the Professional Papers series:

Sung by Arthur (Happy) Moseley, Black River Falls.

The elegant bold McIntyres, so Mr. Moseley told us, were real Wisconsin people. He knew some of the family.

The song was sung in the lumber camps along the Black and Chippewa rivers.
