GREGORY ACCEPTS

GOES TO IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY NEXT YEAR.

Announcement Made by President MacLean To-day—His Career as Lawyer and Educator.

Special Dispatch to Daily Cardinal. Iowa City, Ia., April 15.—President MacLean to-day announced the appointment of Charles Noble Gregory of the University of Wisconsin to be Dean of the Law School of the University of Iowa. Announcement was also made of Mr. Gregory's acceptance of the position.

When seen by a Daily Cardinal representative Mr. Gregory affirmed the report but had nothing more to say except that the change would be made at the beginning of the next school year.

Mr. Gregory's Career.

Dean Gregory, who is a son of the late Hon. J. C. Gregory, was born at Unadilla, N. Y., August 27, 1851. When he was seven years old his parents came west, locating at Madison. He graduated in the classical course at the University of Wisconsin, in 1871, taking the honor of Latin salutatory. Graduating later from the College of Law, he received the degree of L. L. B., and subsequently, that of A. M. He practiced his profession in the city of Madison, as a partner of his father and the late Hon. S. U. Pinney of the Supreme Court of Wisconsin. Following this, he practiced alone until about six years ago, when he was, without solicitation on his part, called to the position of associate dean of the College of Law of the University of Wisconsin. The college has, during the period of his incumbency, greatly increased its attendance and its requirements for entry, and has added materially to its course.

Dean Gregory served for three years as an alderman of the city of Madison; one year as a member of the Board of Education; one year as president of the Alumni Association of the University of Wisconsin; for many years as member of the general committee of the National Civil Service Reform Association; as curator of the Wisconsin State Historical Society; and Vestryman of the Grace Episcopal church. He has been for three years a member of the Executive Committee of the American Bar Association, and is serving his fourth year as a member of the General Council of the American Bar Association. He served last year as chairman of the section on Legal Education of the American Bar. His law articles have appeared in the Law Quarterly Review of London; The Law Magazine of London; the Law Times of London; The American Law Review; The Harvard Law Review; The Law Register Review; and in the publications of the American Bar. He has had literary articles in Littell's Living Age; the Nation; the New York Evening Post; the Independent; Overland Monthly; Outing; Old Scribner's Magazine; Harper's Weekly; Youth's Companion, and many other publications.

He was formerly a democrat, but has voted the republican ticket for four years. Last summer he gave an address before the Georgia bar, and also before the Virginia bar. He is now under engagement to give the annual address before the Tennessee bar. He is a member of the International Law Society.

Dean Gregory is president of the Madison club, and of the Wisconsin Society of the Sons of the Revolution. He is a member of the Psi Upsilon fraternity and also a Phi Delta Phi.

MONROE'S MONROE DOCTRINE.

Professor Hart Will Begin His Series of Lectures To-morrow Afternoon.

Professor Albert Bushnell Hart who has been engaged to deliver a course of lectures on the Monroe doctrine will arrive to-morrow noon. While here in the city he will be the guest of Secretary R. G. Thwaites.

Dr. Hart will deliver his first lecture to-morrow afternoon in room 16, Main Hall at 5 o'clock. This is the most convenient hour which could be selected.

The lecture to-morrow afternoon will be on Monroe's Monroe Doctrine—Protection of the Weak. These lectures are open to the public and coming as they do from a lecturer who is well qualified in his work they cannot help but be interesting and instructive to all.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Indoor Circus Promises to be a Gigantic Carnival of Gymnastics, Side Shows, Trained Animals and Hawkers.

Preparations for the big indoor circus are well under way and the prospects for a great show are bright. All the performers are working hard and are fast reaching perfection in their various stunts. The literary societies are taking up the side show feature and will make this an important part of the show. The different societies have appointed committees to work the matter up and great rivalry exists between them. Athenae and Forum have taken a step which the other societies will have to follow. They have, after the manner of all sideshows, decided to have fakers to announce the events of their performances. Robert Knoff will be Athenae's "hawker" and William S. Kies will spiel for Forum.

Among the special attractions of the side shows will be a band of Zulus in Philomathia's show. Athenae will have the famous Irish bat, the hairless horse and a trained rooster among its attractions. The other features of the various exhibits have not been announced but such rivalry exists among the societies that all will do their best to make the entertainment attractive. The prize for the best show is a bust of Abraham Lincoln.

The menagerie in which the various fraternities will compete will also be an attraction. As a prize for the best trained animal the management offers a handsome loving cup.

Aside from the regular acrobatic feats, for which gold, silver and bronze medals are to be awarded, there will be a number of farce acts introduced. "Norski" Larson will be one of the main attractions giving his famous Buffalo Bill stunt.

A number of handsome new posters will be put up tomorrow. These posters are gotten out at a large expense, and the type will be destroyed as soon as they are printed. The issue will therefore be limited and the management will sell the posters to those who desire them at a nominal price. The admission to the circus will be fifty cents, including in this one price admission to all the sideshows. The concert will be ten cents extra. Those desiring reserved seats for the circus can obtain them of Pickarts & Company for ten cents extra.

FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP

MICHIGAN VS. VARSITY THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Maize and Blue Especially Strong This Year—Defeated Illinois Team Last Saturday.

On Thursday comes the first college game of the season for Wisconsin, when the Badgers go against Captain McGinnis' pack of Wolverines. The home team has been steadily at work at Camp Randall for the past week and the practice games with the professionals and Lawrence University have brought them into good form for so early in the season. Michigan is even better than last year. Of the last season's regulars over half are back and playing on the Varsity. At the head of this list come hard-hitting Captain McGinnis and left-fielder Snow. Davies and Blencoe are playing again and are reported up to their usual standard. Utley, the star pitcher of last season, is again in the box for the maize and blue and is ranked well up among western twirlers.

The Wolverines opened their college season at Champaign Saturday when they downed the Illini in a close game by a score of nine to eight. Although both teams made generous errors, the game of the Michiganders was the cleaner of the two. Utley pitched an effective game, and although touched up for numerous hits, he kept them so well scattered that the suckers were unable to make them count. The principal weakness of the Wolverines seemed to be in Mathews, who caught for them. He was scarcely able to hold the swift curves of Utley though his throwing to bases was worse than miserable.

Wisconsin's line-up is almost definitely decided on. Ware, Haskins, Brobst and Schreiber will form the infield which will more nearly approach a stone wall than any basemen Wisconsin has had of late years. Captain Pierce will officiate behind the bat while Reedal who was so effective last year, will again be on the central slab. The outfield will probably comprise Leighton, Love and Erickson.

This game will mark the declaration of independence by Wisconsin against the National League as the game will be played under last year's rules which are now used only by the American League. Michigan has already established a precedent and it is almost certain that the authority of the National League as a rule-making body will not be regarded.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION.

Class of 1901 Entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Birge.

The members of the senior class were entertained royally by Acting President and Mrs. Edward A. Birge Saturday evening. The attendance on the part of the seniors was very general, exceedingly few of the class failing to respond to the invitation. A considerable number of faculty members were also present. The auditorium of Libray Hall had been decorated in a very artistic manner with profusions of cardinal bunting, flags, tropical palms and cut flowers. The chandeliers were festooned with strings of smilax and the great punch bowl was surrounded with smilax and cardinal carnations. The platform, from which music was discoursed by Professor Nitschke's orchestra of seven pieces, was screened with a high bank of palms, in the center of which was a large bouquet of Easter lilies. The class numerals in incandescent lights were placed above the platform.

The guests were received by Dr. and Mrs. Birge, assisted by Dean J. B. Johnson, Miss Mayhew, Professor Olson and Professor Daniels. An introduction committee of seniors, among whom were Misses Clara Stillman, Katherine Regan, Elsie Sawyer, May Foley, Wilcox, Dorothy Curtis, and Messrs. L. H. Tracey, F. C. McGowan, F. Hook, Clarence White, A. G. Krembs, R. A. Maurer and C. R. Rounds, did excellent service in helping the members of the class to become acquainted with each other.

Dancing commenced after nine o'clock and dainty refreshments were served in the music lecture room, where Mrs. Eaton and Mrs. Professor E. T. Owen presided at the table. The lecture room was beautifully decorated for the occasion, being domed with cardinal bunting. The refreshment table was strewn with yellow narcisses, smilax and Meteor carnations one of which was given to each guest partaking of the refreshments.

At half past eleven the seniors having spent a most delightful evening reluctantly left the hall.

RETURN BATTLE FLAGS

Historic Banners to be Replaced in State Capitol To-morrow with Imposing Ceremonies.

The military exercises of tomorrow afternoon promise to be very novel and interesting. It will be the occasion of escorting the colors, borne by the Wisconsin regiments in the late wars, back to their former place of deposit in the capitol. These flags were removed from their place in the capitol last fall to the rooms of the Historical Society but upon the petition of the old army veterans the state legislature passed a law requiring their return to the capitol. The honor of escorting the colors being given to the U. W. regiment.

The order of parade is as follows: U. W. band, Dep't Commander of G. A. R. and staff, Post No. 11 and visiting guests, company G. of the national guards, first battalion of U. W. regiment, then the two or three hundred flags to be transferred will be carried by old veterans in front of the second U. W. battalion.

Upon arriving at the capitol Senator O'Neil will speak to the assembled companies from the steps of the capitol. Mr. O'Neil is an eloquent speaker and will have an address relative to nationality and patriotism. The afternoon's exercises will be concluded by the singing of America to which the U. W. band will play the accompaniment.

Mandolin Concert.

Professor Hjalmar Anderson of the University School of Music announces a concert by the renowned Anderson Mandolin and Harp orchestra to be given next Monday evening. Seats will be on sale to-morrow at eight o'clock at Pickart's for those who have signed the guarantee list and two o'clock for others.

—J. Bartow Patrick, '02, Managing Editor of the Cardinal, who has been seriously ill for the past week at the Chicago Homeopathic Hospital, is recovering rapidly and it is hoped he will soon resume his duties at the University.

The Senior Reception.

The success of the Senior reception Saturday night has called forth the question "Why not extend these receptions also to the other classes?" There was a time when the Freshmen and Sophomores each had their receptive parties, but class feeling ran too high and these parties became only a thing of the past. But there still remained the class ball games and rushes, and elections, and the loss of the parties, though felt was not a serious blow.

But gradually the class games, elections and rushes have been forgotten or lost in interest, and the average student now goes on his way without the knowledge that he belongs to a class as a class until he becomes a Senior, when Badger pictures, theses, and caps and gowns suddenly bring the truth home to him. But it is then too late. He has been a student too long and the sudden knowledge that at last by a Senior Reception he can personally meet his fellow class-mates, young men and women who in a good many cases he has been waiting for years to meet, this sudden opportunity although soothing to his abused spirit, only makes him say that "it might have been" different.

There may be objections to class spirit, but the Cardinal believes the advantages far outnumber the evils, and that it should rather be encouraged than frowned upon.

The Cardinal believes that the Senior Reception is a move in the right direction; but if it is an acquaintance maker for Seniors why not extend the same idea also to the under classmen? Are Seniors the only students who should meet as a class and personally become acquainted with one another? Is it not better to know good and popular young men and women of your class four years, than only one, or to speak the truth, for only ten weeks? The arguments that make the Senior Receptions popular, apply equally as well to other undergraduates.

A Loss to Wisconsin.

The announcement of Professor Gregory's acceptance of a deanship at Iowa means the loss to the Wisconsin law school of an able and experienced member of its faculty. Professor Gregory's career as a lawyer and educator has been an honorable one and his many friends in the city and throughout the state, though rejoicing in his good fortune, will regret the necessity of his departure.

Professor Hart Tomorrow.

No student should miss the lecture tomorrow by Professor Hart. He is an eminent teacher and author and will well repay the time spent in attending the lecture.

Mr. Smith's Address.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather a goodly number gathered yesterday afternoon to hear Mr. J. B. Smith speak before the Y. M. C. A. meeting. Mr. Smith spoke very impressively on the subject, "The Undertow of Life."

The association has secured Mr. Grant Showerman to address next Sunday's meeting. Mr. Showerman is an association man and at one time was General Secretary of the University Association.

Saturday's Game.

The boys from Appleton were entirely outclassed by the Varsity being beaten by a score of 22 to 3. The work of the regulars was full of vim for the first four or five innings when they eased up in their work, allowing Lawrence to score.

The score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Wisconsin	3	5	3	8	0	2	0	0	1	—22
Lawrence	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	2	—3

The batteries—Wisconsin: Pierce, Reedal, Richardson and Erickson. Lawrence: Dafter, Pride and Bigelow.

Lowden Unable to Preside at N. O. L. Contest.

Mr. Frank O. Lowden, who was asked by President W. F. Carr of the Northern Oratorical League to preside at the League contest at Iowa City next May, has sent notification that he cannot accept the honor as he is to deliver the Phi Beta Kappa address at Iowa State University and cannot leave his law business in Chicago for two trips.

Mr. Lowden is the man who so generously provided a fund of $3,000 the income of which is to be used as prizes in the annual Northern Oratorical League contests. This fund he has deposited with the Board of Regents of Iowa and in addition thereto he has donated $150 to be awarded as the prizes for this year.

WATCH! WAIT! !!

In the vast annex tent will be exhibited real scenes from the people and tribes of all nations. One of the most important is the unrivalled bunch of Barabobies, hired for a time from the Ringling Bros., whom they have made famous.

The Omahas and the Waterhuhu occupy a prominent position here.

Another important group is the Green Baybies, beautiful laughing sprites who fill the air with the music of their laughter.

The Brodheads, wild Indians of the Diggertype, are exhibited in all their rarity.

But undoubtedly the gem of the collection is the large aggregation of Janes-villians who are exhibited by special permission of the Governor, the Supreme Court and the Board of Control. They are confined in a vast cage in the center of the magnificent annex tent and three times a day, three times, remember, are fed before the assembled multitude.

A wilder scene than all these make is not to be found. Here, in the midst of the highest civilization of this jeune de siecle decade, are brought in wild tribes, barbarians, unbarbered, and savage, who, before the very eyes of the spectators perform their daily tasks. Bring the children to see the living geography lesson.

Swing Out, April 25.

The senior Swing Out, which was to have occurred to-morrow evening has been postponed one week on account of counter attractions to-morrow night, but will take place in Library Hall on the evening of April 25th.

The senior Swing Out is the occasion on which the class of 1901 first don the cap and gown. There will be a short program after which the rest of the evening will be spent in dancing.

The speaker of the evening will be Professor M. S. Slaughter, who will deliver the regular address to the seniors. His subject has not yet been announced. Lynn Tracy, the president of the class, will deliver a short address. The music of the evening will consist of a selection by the University Quartette and one by the Girls' Glee club.

'02 to Challenge '04.

The '02 basket ball team will, probably challenge the '04 team, winners in the game last Saturday, to a match game sometime within the next two weeks. The juniors have not been beaten yet but the freshmen have shown themselves a match for the older team and the contest is likely to be the closest and most hard-fought struggle the girls' gym has ever seen. The game on Saturday was less wild and much more orderly

Order of Speakers.A jury has been chosen for the Wisconsin-Iowa debate consisting of Prof.
Bogart of Oberlin, Judge John Barton
Payne of Chicago and Professor Henderson of the University of Chicago. It is not yet known whether these gentlemen will be able to serve.In compliance with the agreement, each side submitted a list of ten prominent men, none of them residents of either state or connected in any way with either university, and then each team selected one juror from the list submitted by their opponents. Wisconsin lost the toss of the coin, and therefore had to choose the third juror from Iowa's list. Prof.
Henderson is the only juror submitted by Wisconsin, but if either of the other two can not serve Iowa will choose another from Wisconsin's list.No inter-collegiate debates have been held at Madison for two years past, and consequently everybody is looking forward to the Iowa debate with considerable interest. Last Friday evening all the literary societies ratified the two year agreement.
According to its provisions the debate will be held this year at Madison on the tenth day of May, and next year at Iowa City. The question—Should the United States Construct the Nicaragua Canal?—although old, is of considerable contemporary interest and promises to be closely contested. Wisconsin has the affirmative, and is slightly handicapped by the fact that Iowa used this same question in their joint debate this year and have therefore had a longer time for preparation.The representatives of Iowa have excellent records. F. W. Moore is a joint debater and will probably close.
F. S. Merriam captured second honors in the final oratorical contest, and C.
C. Converse took fourth place.The debate is to be judged on strength of argument rather than finish of oratory. Wisconsin's men are not distinguished as orators, but they have had excellent training both in literary societies and public debates. W. E. Smith will speak first, Peter Tscharnier second, and A. V.
Smith will close. W. E. Smith will have the four minute rebuttal.—The Hills boarding house team was fortunate in winning a game of baseball from the Lounsbury Club Saturday with a score of 15 to 9. On next Saturday the latter will meet the Excelsior Club.
