WISCONSIN WINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP!

Haughty Minnesota is Compelled to Give up Her Honors:

THE SCORE IS SIX TO NOTHING IN OUR FAVOR.

Lyman Hurt, but Plays on-Minnesota Clearly Outplayed-Ball in Minnesota's Territory Most of the Time-Wisconsin's Strong Aggressive Play-Minnesota Punts Well.

Ours is the pennant of champion-ship! The one doughty antagonist has Stipp, of Grinnell, umpire; Gould, of at last been varquished, and Wisconsin | Amherst, referee; Root, of Illinois, now stands the gridiron champion of lineman. The men lined up as folall western colleges!

Such was the result of the game with Minnesota this afternoon. The scor which decided it was 6 to 0.

A finer day for football could no have been hoped for. The two ex tremes which had been feared-a day so cold as to keep the people away, o one so warm as to make the campu muddy—were happily blended, making a day thoroughly agreeable both t spectators and contestants. All day long the game was the only topic o conversation, The libraries were alconversation. Seldom has Madison seen so much cardinal bunting as today. Dwellings, fraternity houses, shops, stores, delivery wagons, and street cars, all were profusely decorated with the university color; and every student who appeared upon the street got it on downs. Karel the ball was steadily advanced to the Minnesota 30 yard line, when Wisconsin lost it on downs. After two downs Minnesota was given 10 yards on an off-side play. Minnesota, however, was unable to advance the ball at all and Wisconsin again student who appeared upon the street got it on downs. Karel then Score-Wisconsin 0, Minnesota 0. Richards kicked off for Wisconsin in the second half. Walker caught the ball, and carried it back ten yards when he was downed by Sheldon. In the fall however Sheldon's arm was broken and Major was substituted. Minnesota kicked but an off side play was called and Wisconsin given the ball and 15 yards on an offside play. Karel and Nelson each advanced the ball five yards and then Wiconsin was given ten yards on another offside play by Minnesota. Then Karel made a dash of forty yard down the field for Wisconsin's first eleven minutes after the play began. Lyman kicked goal. Score, Wisconsin 5, Minnesota 0.

Parkyn was here substituted for Cutler as full back. Wisconsin caught Minnesota's kick off and Nelson advanced it tweny yards. Minnesota got the ball and Parkyn tried a kick at the goal from the field. It failed however, and Richards punted up the field. Parkyn punted back again and Wisconsin advanced the ball steadily until Karel took it for a forty yard dash up the field. Then by successive gains the ball was advanced into Minnesota's territory. Minnesota got were unsteen yards behind, And their golden hair was hanging the ball on downs but Wisconsin was in their eyes; given it back on a foul. Before

Wisconsin lost the ball on a foul and Minnesota advanced Harding and Southworth. Minnesota was given twenty-five yards on an offside play and then advanced to Wisconsin's five yard line. Minne-sota here lost the ball on downs and then Wisconsin was given 10 yards on an offside play. Wisconsin advanced the ball steadily and Nelson carried it around the end for a 15-yard gain. Karel followed by a good gain of 10 yards and another of 6 yards. Alexander took the ball forward for sander ander took the ball forward for seven yards and Karel followed with two gains of 8 and 10 yards, when time was called with the ball at Minnesota's 25 yard line

Score-Wisconsin 6. Minnesota 0.

"AND THEIR GOLDEN HAIR."

the wooly west,

And their golden hair was hanging in their eyes;

They came to meet Wisconsin and to put her to the test, And their golden hair was hanging in their eyes; When they trotted out upon the field they smiled in conscious pride, Proud victors they for many a year, with none to turn the tide, But later that eventful day, their fortunes took a slide,— And their golden hair was hanging in their eyes.

Chorus.

But, Oh Jane! They didn't look the same!

When they left their mater they were

But alas! and alack! They've gone back,

With their golden hair all pounded in their eyes.

When they lined up for the scrimmage they were victors in their mind, And their golden hair was hanging were unsteen yards behind, And their golden hair was hanging in their eyes;

They piled the remnants in a heap and left them there for dead,

And their golden hair was hanging in their eyes.

Now if ever you should meet those Gophers dont' you be afraid, When this golden hair is hanging in their eyes;

They're really not so terrible—they wouldn't scare a maid,
When their golden hair is hanging in their eves:

Have pity on their downcast hearts—don't ask them of the game, Don't say, "How was it?" or "Who won?"—your language will give

But as they pass you sadly by—just sing them this refrain,

Oh, your golden hair is hanging in your eyes. Chorus.

The club now includes nearly all of the freshmen in the different enginering courses and indicates the country of the country years. He came to the United States in 1868, having been elected president of Princeton college. His administra-tion there was remarkably successful, and in 1887 he offered his resignation, to take effect April 18, 1888, desiring to be relieved of the cares of office on account of advancing years. He received the degree of LL. D. from Aberdeen in 1850, and from Harvard in 1868, also D. Lit. from Queen's university. He has been a voluminous writer.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

Philomathia met last night with Lucas in the chair. The attendance was not as large as at some of the previous meeting this term, but what the meeting lacked in attendance was ammeeting lacked in attendance was amply made up by enthusiasm. In the first debate, "Resolved, that church property should be taxed," Compton, '8, led the affirmative and Willetts, '98, the negative. Urness, '95, put up his usual strong debate for the negative. tive and Giddings argued earnestly for the affirmative. The jury decided the question in favor of the negative. The recess was spent in singing college songs.

The second part of the meeting was opened with a declamation by Muenzer, '98, which was well applauded. The second debate was on the ques tion, "Resolved, that United States senators should be elected by popular vote." The leader on the affirmative was Butt, on the negative Graham Lucas and Wilson, '98, argued well for the negative as did Shuart for the affirmative. The question was finally decided in the affirmative. After the debate, J. E. Davies, '98, was voted into the society and initiated.

One of the most pleasant features of Hesperia's meeting is the frequent attendance of its old members.

Last night's meeting was enlivened by rousing and pithy volunteer speeches, for and against the Michigan system of electing presidential electors, by J. F. Doherty, G. Kroencke, C. B. Rogers and E. J. Ohnstead, all of whom are now in the law school. Mr. Montgomery, a prominent lawyer of Hesperia twenty-five years ago, also spoke of the pleasure it gave him to attend a meeting of the society and to listen to the efforts of its youthful members. The first debate of the even ing, Resolved, that the free coinage of silver would be for the best interests of the United States, was decided unanimously in favor of the negative.
