SUMMER ENGINEERING

SUMMER SESSION ANNOUNCED
IN THAT COLLEGE.

Intended Primarily for Artisan Class
—Very Little Mathematics Required
—An Innovation.

In a few days announcements will be out for a summer session of the College of Engineering. This course will be six weeks in length like the summer session of the College of Letters and Science. It is intended primarily for the artisan class—such men as now avail themselves of correspondence schools; apprentices who wish to learn trades or men already in employment.

There will be lectures, laboratory work and shop work. The only mathematics taught will be simple algebra and numerical valuation of formulae. Instruction will be given in combustion of fuels, generation of steam, steam engine and boiler management and the running of pumping machinery and various kinds of electrical machinery. Regular instruction in all departments of the mechanical shops will also be given.

Special courses will be offered to fit men to take charge of pumping stations and electric light plants for large cities and power plants for private corporations.

Laboratory instruction will be given in the steam laboratory, in the various electrical laboratories and in the laboratory for testing materials. Mechanical drawing will be taught, and some elementary machine design. Courses will be given to suit applicants.

Besides giving to the artisan class such instruction, theoretical and practical, as they may desire, our own engineering students will have the privilege of performing required shop work during this summer session. High School students, also, who expect to come to the College of Engineering will be permitted to take shop work in advance. No work, however, belonging to the professional courses in the College of Engineering will be given in this session except the shop work and such work as can be taken in the summer session of the College of Letters and Science.

The announcements for this work will be out soon and may be had on application to the Dean of the College of Engineering.

This work is strictly an innovation in American Engineering colleges, and is in the nature of an experiment. If successful the School will be continued every summer.

Communication.

To the Editor—

An incident occurred this morning, in a literature class, which has caused considerable comment, and which cannot be passed over as an occurrence of no consequence. The circumstances are probably well-known by this time as the report of such an unusual action is not slow to spread.

A stranger entered the class room about five minutes after the hour had begun. He came in quietly and looked around for a seat. The instructor stopped abruptly in his lecture and expressed his annoyance at the interruption and the stranger politely explained that he had come to visit the class. Whereupon, the instructor, without explanation and without ceremony ordered the man to leave the room. There was nothing in the manner of the stranger or in the nature of the class room work to warrant such an action. Inevitably it has aroused the indignation of all who have heard it.

YOU SHOULD SEE IT.

The writer was not present in the class room, but having heard the incident from various sources, has taken the liberty to give expression to the opinion which has been generally expressed.

If the visitor happened to be a stranger at the University, the impression which he would be justified in carrying away with him, would be such a one as both faculty and students would regret to have spread abroad. The spirit of the University would never tolerate the repetition of such an action. Every student in the class room felt it as a personal disgrace and would be glad of an opportunity to apologize to the stranger for an insult which reflects so strongly on the University.

A Student.

Patronesses for Haresfoot Play.

It is not generally known that Abbey Sage Richardson the author of the play "A Colonial Girl" was at one time a resident of Madison. She is still well remembered by many of the older residents of the time before she went to New York to begin her career as a writer.

The people outside of University circles are taking a lively interest in the Haresfoot Play of Feb. 8. The following have consented to act as patronesses:

Mesdames David Atwood, Frank Brown, Fred Brown, Lucius Fairchild, Wm. F. Vilas, L. S. Hanks, Robt. La Follette, J. C. Spooner, Judge Winslow, J. M. Olin, Geo. Raymer, Conover, E. A. Birge, F. C. Sharp, Paul Reinsch, S. U. Pinney, F. H. Edsall, B. W. Jones, Dr. Sheldon, Scribner, W. H. Hobbs, Ferguson, D. B. Frankenburger, M. G. Ford, Stanley Hanks, Brittingham, Ogilvie, Curtis, W. F. Allen, Misses Gregory, Bright, Mayhew, Verplanck.

The Weather.

Fair and cold to-day; northwesterly winds, brisk on the lakes; to-morrow fair.

—By the unanimous vote of Columbia at a special meeting last evening, Peter Tscharner, law 1901, was elected, as Columbia's candidate for the Iowa intercollegiate debating team.

You will have very few opportunities to enjoy a high class play like the one to be presented at the Fuller Opera House Friday, Feb. 8.

—R. C. Barklie of the province of Ontario, Canada, has just entered the University. He will take advanced special work in Dairy Bacteriology.

A Swimming Tournament.

A swimming tournament will be held in the Varsity natatorium during the latter part of February. This unique entertainment, the first of its kind ever held in the University, will be open to all. The tank is 80 feet long so that a straightaway course of twenty-five yards can be provided while lap races can easily be arranged. Class relay races will be arranged if possible while special stunts such as walking on greased pole, rings and bar exhibition and fancy diving will be added to the list of events. The coxswain's race is sure to be interesting. There are 12 candidates out for that position this year and as it is almost a necessity that they be able to swim, a large field is sure to start.

Coach O'Dea desires that all entries be handed in as soon as possible as he will then give all candidates instructions as to daily work, training, etc.

Notice to Students.

All students in the College of Letters and Science, Engineering, Pharmacy, and Long Agricultural Course are required to register for the second semester. They are urged to do this, and to pay their fees at the office of the secretary, before or during examination week in order to avoid the delay and annoyance of standing in line on Registration Day, Monday February 11th. The regular work of the second semester will begin Tuesday morning, February 12th. Class cards will be issued on Monday by class officers, and students failing to arrange their work at this time cannot receive their cards until the following Saturday.

W. D. Hiestand,
Registrar.

John Marshall Day.

I desire to call the attention of the University to the celebration of John Marshall day, the 100th anniversary of his appointment to the position of Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court. This anniversary of one of the great events in the history of the United States is to be extensively celebrated throughout the country. A meeting is to be held in the Assembly Chamber at half past two o'clock Monday afternoon, which will be addressed by Professor Howard L. Smith of the College of Law. All members of the University who are not actually engaged in examinations at that time are urged to be present at this celebration.

E. A. Birge,
Acting President.

After exams are over you will want to enjoy a pleasant evening. You can get seats Thursday, Feb. 7, at 2 p. m. for "A Colonial Girl."

Official Notices.

Economic History.

Those who were unable to be present at the quiz in English Economic History held on Thursday, Jan. 24, may meet me on Friday, Feb. 1, in room 122 of the library building, for the purpose of making up this work.

Allyn A. Young.

The Remains of Ancient Rome.

The two-fifths course on The Remains of Ancient Rome will be continued through the second semester, and will also include studies of Greek and Graeco-Roman art and architecture and of Pompeii. The work will consist of illustrated lectures and reports, with some reading of ancient authors. The course will be open to all students who have an ordinary reading knowledge of Latin, whether they have had the first semester's work in the course or not. Those wishing to take the course are requested to meet for consultation in room 44 U. H., Thursday, Jan. 31st, between 4 and 5, or to leave their names.

Grant Showerman.

Courses in the Department of Hebrew and Hellenistic Greek.

1. History of Israel—From the establishment of the Monarchy to the Babylonian Period. A one-fifths study for students of all courses.

First lecture, Wednesday February 13th, at 5 p. m. Professor Williams. The hour is subject to change if so desired.

2. Historical Geology of Palestine. Archaeology and Recent Discoveries. A one-fifths study for students of all courses. Mr. Kelly.

3. New Testament Greek for Beginners. A two-fifths course. Professor Williams.

4. Hebrew for Beginners. A two-fifths course. Mr. Kelly.

5. New Testament Greek for Classical students. Two-fifths course. The class will read I and II Corinthians. Professor Williams.

Mineralogy.

The Blowpipe Analysis and Determinative Mineralogy required of Civil Engineering students of the Sophomore class will be given as a four-fifths study during the first half of the spring semester in the new laboratory on the second floor of the north wing of Science Hall. The class will meet Monday, February 11th, from 9-11 o'clock and on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9-11 and on Saturdays from 9-1 thereafter until the Easter recess. Quite unexpectedly one and perhaps two of the forty desks may be available for students desiring to elect the work, and I would therefore request that those students who have been refused admission to enter the class because of lack of available desks make a new application.

An elective course in the same study will be given during the second half of the spring semester between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock daily with the option of making the work either a two-fifths or a five-fifths study.

Petrology.

Students desiring to elect work in this course should confer with me soon. The course will comprise a two-fifths study the hours being 8 to 10 on Tuesdays and Thursdays unless other hours should appear to be practicable.

Wm. H. Hobbs.

CARDINAL DURING EXAMINATION WEEK.

The Cardinal will be published on Friday only of next week. All official notices for that issue must be left with the Registrar or the Librarian not later than 9 o'clock on that morning. All notices dropped in the boxes should be marked "official."

Register Early.

Students will help the administrative authorities of the University if they will register and pay their fees immediately after exams or some time during examination week. This will obviate the usual great rush on registration day and assist very materially in the adjustment of matters at the opening of the new semester.

John Marshall Day.

Attention is called to the celebration of John Marshall Day to be held in the Assembly chamber next Monday. The Madison bar is planning to hold an interesting tribute to the distinguished jurist. Professor H. G. Smith will speak and the exercises promise to be well worth the attendance of every student. A special celebration of the day is being held by many law schools throughout the country but our own law school has decided to join in and assist the Madison Bar Association in its memorial.

ALFORD BROS., STEAM LAUNDRY.

It may not be an act of charity, but it certainly is not an act of economy to patronize fourth grade laundries. If you are looking out for "Number One" you should certainly patronize us. 113 and 115 N. Carroll street.
Phone 172.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We wish to announce to our many old and new student friends a fine assortment of iron and brass beds, dressers and chiffoniers, book cases and desks, rockers and chairs, etc., at prices to suit everyone. Give us a call and let us show you over our assortment.

Student Notices.*SENIORS!

Have you had your picture taken and filled out your summary blank for the Badger Board? If you have not kindly do so at once. By February first every picture and summary blank should be in the hands of either the

If you haven't received a blank notify the Board at once. This includes all students graduating in 1901, whether in June or in Summer School.

Odd Jobs.

Men who have made application for odd jobs at the Employment Bureau of the Y. M. C. A. would do well to call occasionally to the office, as jobs go, for the most part, to the men most available at the time.

Oratorical Contest.

The attention of those intending to enter the oratorical contests this year, is called to the following: The sophomore preliminary will be held on the 3rd Friday in February; the Junior
Ex. on the fourth Friday in February; the junior preliminary, on the Wednesday succeeding the Junior Ex.; the senior preliminary on the Monday preceding the junior preliminary, and the annual final contest of the oratorical league, on the second Friday in March.
Contestants should present their orations to Prof. Frankenburg at least three weeks prior to the date of the contest which they are to enter.

RUSH MEDICAL COLLEGE.

In Affiliation with the Univ. of Chicago.
Organized 1837.

The academic year of Rush Medical College is divided into four quarters, corresponding with those recognized with the University of Chicago, beginning respectively the first of July, first of October, first of January and first of April, each continuing for twelve weeks. A recess of one week occurs between the end of each Quarter and the beginning of the next following.

The general course of instruction requires four years of study in residence with a minimum attendance upon three Quarters of each year.
A student may begin his college work on the first day of any Quarter, and may continue in residence for as many successive Quarters as he desires. Credit will not be allowed, however, for more than three consecutive Quarters. At least 45 months must elapse between the date of a first matriculation and the date of graduation. For further information, address
