The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Wednesday even 9 O'clock Sir I want to know if you heard any firing last evening the boys built a fire with the shavings in the street here & in few minutes the fowl began to come ducks of every description brant & wild geese gulls &c I shot at the geese once & J. M. Ford shot twice at the brant and then our fire was gone it was fine sport I assure you
