The 1951 EMERALD

DEDICATION

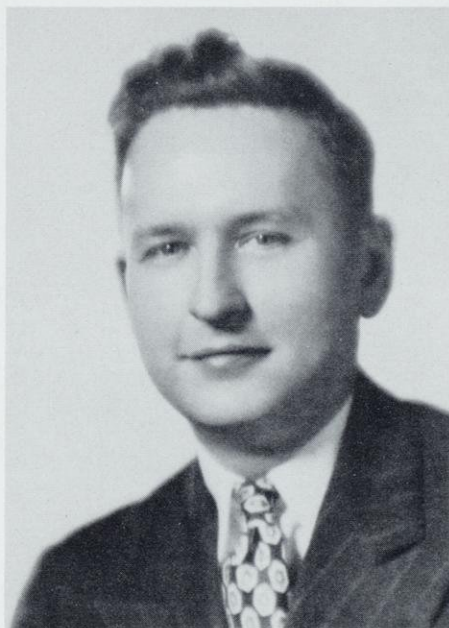

to Miss Cathryn Fisher

7O you, Miss Fisher, for devoting and sacrificing so much of your time to students, not only to us as a whole, but to us as individuals, each requiring different special attention; to you, for always being modern and up-to-date, not only in appearance, but also in your mode of teaching; for instructing the girls in the fine field of Home Economics and the very important classes of English; to you for having the talent of comforting us in time of trouble, willingly sharing and understanding our problems and easing them in every way possible; to you for the cheerful, pleasant smile which has greeted us so many thousands of times; for the many clever ideas at prom time, and any occasion that received the skilful attention you devoted; to you Miss Fisher, we, the graduates of 1951, gratefully dedicate our Emerald Annual.

ADMINISTRATION

Our Principal

Our principal, Mr. Ellis Evans, has been with us for three years. These years have been noteworthy for an advancement in understanding between the student body and the faculty. Mr. Evans believes wholeheartedly in pupil participation in all phases of the school program, and he stresses greatly the advantages of being able to speak well in public. He has helped make school life at Waterford High School more interesting as well as more progressive each year.

In the picture above, Robert Blodgett is really concentrating on the lesson being taught by Mr. Braatz. On the opposite page, the members of the World History class are busy making locations on their map of England. In English I, Ronald Dixon is giving a talk to his classmates on his hobby, Model Airplanes. Those enrolled in the Latin class are preparing for special fields of study in which Latin is a requirement, or they wish to have a good cultural background. In the picture below, the advanced shorthand class is taking dictation from Mr. Carlson.

Manual Arts is offered as a three-year course to the boys in any class group. In the picture below, students are making progress on something useful to the home. Hand woodwork and machine woodworking are the important phases of shop along with drawing and plastics. Mechanical drawing, which is the language of industry, plays a vital part in the industrial world. A one-year course in general mechanical drawing is offered as an elective to senior boys who are interested.

In the chemistry laboratory are re-enacted many of the techniques commonplace in industrial, medical, and biological research. For the intellectually curious segment of humanity, analyzing a compound is a stimulating procedure and has its peculiar satisfactions.

Two senior chemistry students, Richard Lukas and Richard Mutsch, are doing an experiment in electro-chemistry.

Math . . . Physical Education

The Advanced Mathematics class is composed of students enrolled in Plane Geometry and Advanced Algebra. Here a group of the students are putting several mathematical tools to work.

Classes in physical education help to ease the mental strain in the academic classes and also help to keep everyone physically fit. Boys like Jimmy Dahl and Russel Smetana enjoy wrestling, while girls such as Shirley Lindner and Marcia Dahl are perfectly happy on the basketball floor.

D. A. R. Award

June Van Valin was selected by the faculty as the outstanding senior girl of the year to be given the Daughters of American Revolution Award for 1951. Dependability, leadership, service, and patriotism were the important factors in making the decision.

Each girl named for the award submits answers to ten questions. Upon these answers is based the selection of the winner who receives a $100 U.S. Savings Bond.

Valedictorian
ELAINE BREUNIG

Salutatorian
CONSTANCE SAKOWSKI

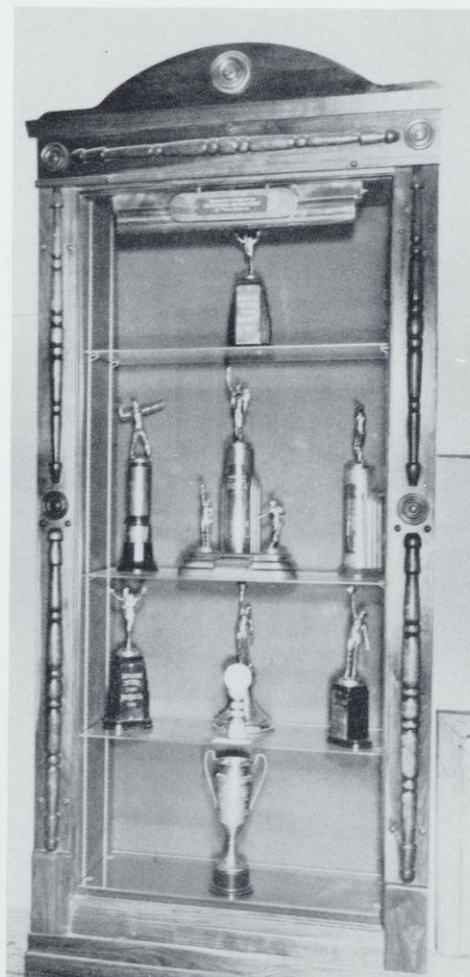

At the top of the list in the roll of honor for scholarship and achievement are two girls of the Class of '51 who have worked side by side in many activities for the good of the school — particularly, the EMERALD ECHO, the EMERALD annual, the Library Club, G.A.A., Student Council, and class offices. Cheerfully, faithfully, loyally — they accepted responsibility and merited the praise and affection of the faculty and the student body.

ROCKROHR-SKARIE AWARD

Occupying the center of attention in our beautiful display case is the athlete's memorial trophy to Jim Rockrohr and Hans Skarie of the Class of '46. Those who have received this honor so far are as follows:

1946	Clem Zebrowski
1947	Richard Beck
1948	John Greil
1949	Donald Lewis
1950	Jim Buenger

The award for 1951 will be made on Commencement Night.

Familiar Scenes

On the stairways, students pass each other, coming from and going to classes. What makes Don LaCombe look so serious? An extra-heavy assignment, perhaps? Oh, those teachers!

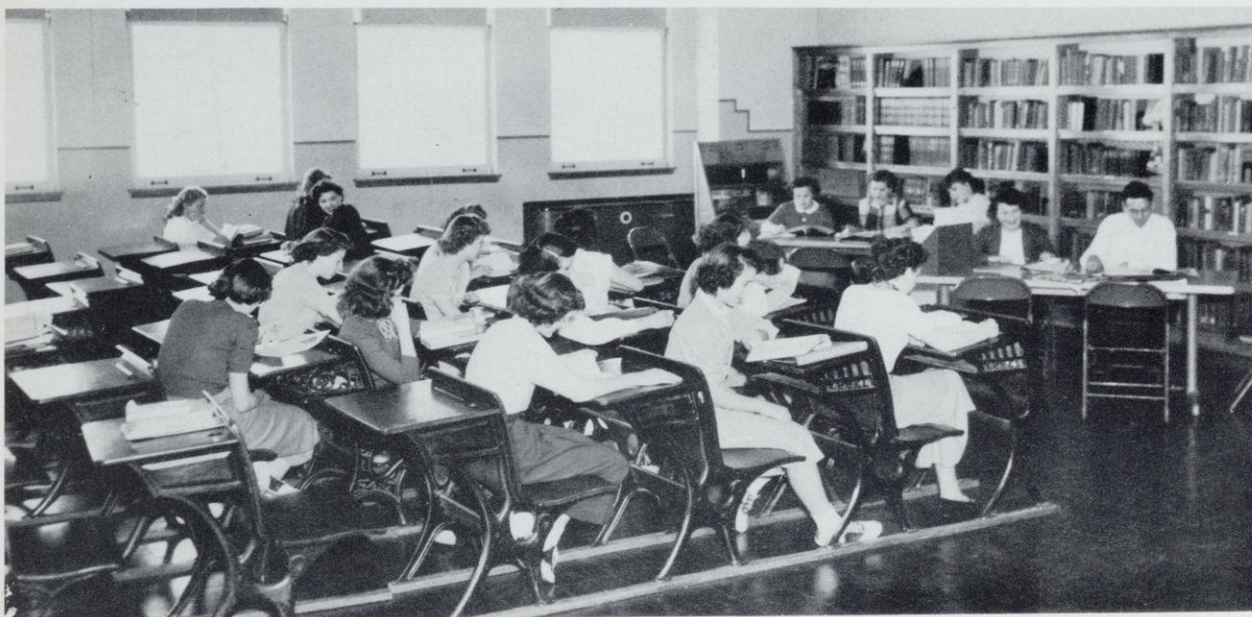

Office Monitor

The smiling office boy above is Richard Hart who is taking a telephone message for Principal Ellis Evans. He is often seen in the homerooms as the bearer of the daily office bulletin.

Now that lockers have been installed, a student has only himself to blame if his books or other possessions disappear. Keep that locker locked!

Library Club

In this club, members aid Mr. Kostrzak, faculty librarian, in checking out books to students and keeping the library in good working order. Mr. Kostrzak has added many new books, particularly in the biography and guidance field to enable us to choose our vocations wisely. President of the club is Elaine Breunig; vice-president, Connie Sakowski; secretary-treasurer, Shirley Lindner; reporter, Jane Beaumont.

Top Row: La Combe, Sakowski, Roder, Laupan, Kaun, Hegemann, Christensen, Boelter, Greil.

Sitting: Kopelke, Dettmann, C. Sakowski.

Emerald Echo

With Mr. Carlson as faculty adviser and Connie Sakowski as editor-in-chief, the sixth volume of our newspaper went into circulation, while the following people aided in the details of publication: Assistant Editor—Elaine Breunig; Business Manager, Larry Behling; Sports Editor—Ronald Kaun; News assignments, Donna Malchine; Rewriters, Viola Kopelke, Pat Onsgaard; Art—June Van Valin; and a host of reporters and typists.

Forensics

March is a busy month for the speech contestants who are preparing for the League Contest. This year it will be held at White-water College High, March 21. Last year, two senior boys, Larry Hall and Jim Buenger, progressed to the District and State Contest respectively. Peggy Widmer, a sophomore, also received a B rating at the District Contest in Serious Declamation and Irving Peterson entered in Original Oratory.

Top Row: Chapman, Paschen, Lukas, Pillat, Johncox, Woods, Rockrohr, Paulson.
Middle Row: Mehring, Lindner, Malchine, Christensen, Mitchell, Dettmann, LaCombe, Peterson.
Bottom Row: Hoover, Mahnke, Panzica, Rebstock, Thomas, Ketterhagen, Hegemann, Sarno.

Girls' Athletic Association

Girls who like to play volleyball, basketball, or baseball had a fine opportunity this year to take part in these sports at stated intervals in their after-school hours. Members who enjoy hiking or swimming or tennis may also earn points toward the coveted G.A.A. letter. Money for the organization comes from the concessions on milk and candy during the school year. The adviser is Miss Klemp.

Top Row: Johncox, Sarno, Lindner, Malchine, Dettmann, G. Paap, Shepard, Boelter, Snoddy, J. Van Valin.

Waterford High School Choir

The director for the choir this year was Mr. Donald Braatz. Practices were held twice a week during the first period in preparing for the special programs and contests of the year. The choir made a very favorable impression at the time of its first appearance—the Community Christmas Program—and again on a school assembly program. The Athletic Banquet and the Annual Music Festival at Whitewater were other activities that the singers looked forward to. Probably the most fun of all was in store for the twelve who were selected to represent Waterford at the annual Massed Chorus Concert held at the Burlington High School auditorium for the schools in this area, Monday evening, February 26.

Ranke, Dahl, Mitsch, Breunig.

G. A. A. Officers

These are the girls who kept the G.A.A. functioning smoothly this year. They kept the records straight and arranged for the games between the rival teams.

Standing: Paap, Becker, Paap, Kopelke, Schimp, Malchine, Sakowski.
Seated: Wells, Mitsch, Hulbert, Kaun, Breunig, Beaumont, Dettmann.

Waterford High School Notes

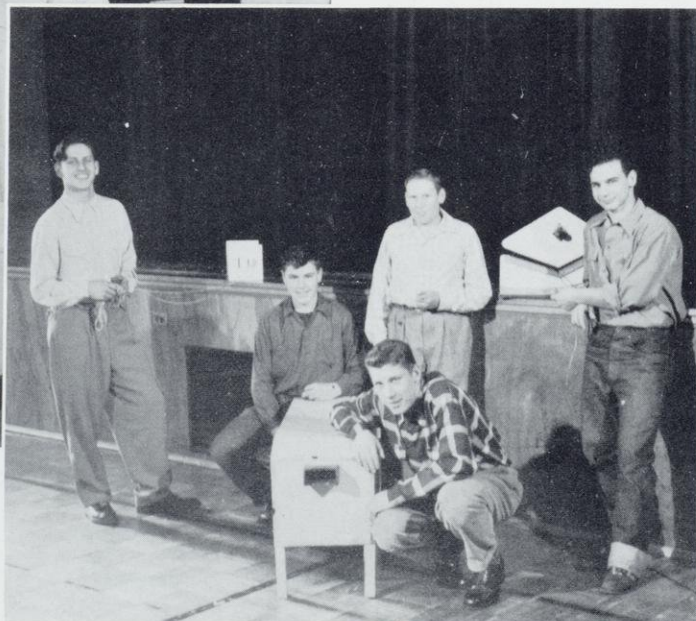

This column containing the interesting school news of the week and printed in our local paper, the Waterford Post, was written and typed by the members of the fifth period Senior English class under the supervision of Miss Handran. Every Monday, assignments were given out covering recent activities. On Tuesday, the articles were revised or rewritten and then turned over to our typist, Elaine Bruenig, so that the articles could be turned in after school and taken to the printing office for publication. Ronald Kaun was chosen by the class to write all the sports activities for the year.

Driver Education

This is a required course for all sophomores, Mr. Kostrzak teaching the girls and Mr. Daugherty, the boys. The state law requires a driver to be 16 years old or over to operate a vehicle on the highways. The sophomore group is made up of students who are nearest this age requirement. Testing students to discover driving faults is an important part of the course.

Standing: Greil, Billings, Hendricks, Christensen.
Seated: Mahnke.

Standing: Karczewski, Saltzman, Panzica.
Seated: Smetana, Daniels.

Background: Shepard, Krautkramer, Daugherty, Halbach, Chapman.

Foreground: Marquardt, Mealy, Lukas, Becker, Huening, Woods, Cahill.

Projector Club

The aim of the club is to train enough boys from the upper classes so that each one can operate the audio-visual machines for classroom use. Our up-to-date equipment includes the following:

16 mm. Bell & Howell Movie Projector

35 mm. Film-strip Projector

Tape Recorder

Portable Public Address System

Portable Record Player

Faculty adviser for the club is Mr. Daugherty.

Junior Class Play

"Our Miss Brooks", based on the radio program of the same name, was the delightful drama offered the public by the juniors under the direction of Mrs. Keller, instructor in social science.

The play begins with the Wilson High School having a class play. Miss Brooks (Georgia Paap) and the athletic coach, (Ronald Roepke) are at odds because both want the use of the gym at the same time. Miss Brooks finds herself in one difficulty after another, from each of which she manages cleverly to extricate herself at the last moment. Some of her trouble is with her pupils, but she seems to be a constant headache to her principal (Chesley Chapman) and to stir up jealousy in the music teacher (Nancy Lindner). The librarian, (Barbara Johncox), is always sympathetic and somewhat too helpful. In the end, Miss Brooks has her way, as most women do, by getting the gym and the coach right along with it — to the delight of her pupils and the applause of the audience.

Junior Prom

Mother Hubbard couldn't have been prouder of her shoe than the Juniors were of their prom. As the couples appeared at the entrance, a pleasant surprise was in store for them. They saw a huge shoe in the middle of the gym. Appearing from the windows were bright-eyed children. On each side of the shoe were straw covered houses that invited the couples for refreshments. On the walls of the gym were large painted replicas of fairy tale characters such as the kittens that lost their mittens. A large book covered with big, fat, jolly King Cole on one page and his fiddlers three on the opposite, formed the background for the musicians and you could almost hear old King Cole howl with laughter and impatience as the couples were lining up for the Grand March.

Suddenly dreamy music could be heard and as the clock was striking nine, King Pat Becker crossed the stage to crown his Queen, Elaine Breunig, thus starting the Grand March. It was a wonderful sight for the observers standing in the entrance of the gym.

Following the King and Queen were the members of her court of honor which consisted of Joanne Kolm, Gloria Mayer, Nancy Doyle, and Jean Sheard. As they gracefully descended the stairs, the other couples were lining up through the two gym doors and stepped in line with their partners as the King and Queen promenaded past the shoe and around the gym.

As the music faded away, little Jerry Hulbert escorted Peachy Haas to the end of the couples where they passed out the dance programs. The lights were then dimmed as Pat and Elaine started the evening of dancing. Everyone followed them as the orchestra played "Fairy Tales."

It was an unforgettable event and everyone participating will remember all the fun they had at the Junior Prom "Storybook Land" on May the fifth, 1950.

Senior Class Play

"THE PROFESSOR GOES HAYWIRE"

"The Professor Goes Haywire", presented by the Senior Class on March 16, was a big success. Gene Daugherty, as Scott Bunting, seemed absolutely irresistible to all the girls including Margaret Dettmann (Taffy, who finally landed him); Jackie Paap (Abby); and Pat Onsgaard (Ellen). Because of the misinterpretation of a chance remark by Froggy, Scott's friend (Dick Mutsch), that Scott had been a Golden Gloves champ, a fight was arranged between him and Socko Sullivan, the Slugger (Wilmer Peterson) who was the boyfriend of Jennie the maid (Shirley Lindner). To get Scott in condition for the fight, his two old maid aunts, Katie (Donna Malchine) and Lucinda (Jeanette Schimp) each separately trained him.

To add to complications, Dean Farrett (Richard Lukas) told Scott that Mrs. O'Brien, a wealthy widow (Bernice Paap) was coming to inspect the science department as she intended to donate money for a new science building. She expected to find a dignified science teacher but since it was "haywire" week at the college, during which the seniors run things, she found him dressed like a baby for a picture the seniors were going to take. Russ (Don Woods), Warren (Ronald Kaun), Millie (Diana Mayer), and Charlotte (Jane Beaumont) were only a few of the college students that were rooting for Scott. Jo, a city reporter (Vi Kopelke) and Hannigan, a photographer (Bill Minta) came to get a story for their paper.

All things ended well, though. Scott won the fight; he fell in love with Taffy; and the college got the science building.

Mrs. Keller directed and the make-up artist was Miss Handran.

The band has been playing to the best of its ability this year under the able direction of Mr. Donald Braatz. Though small in number, our band has been quite active throughout the school year. Each home basketball game found the band lending musical support to the players. In January, six representatives were chosen to participate in the annual Massed Band Concert at Burlington.

GUIDANCE CLUBS were organized this year in each of the freshman home rooms. Miss Handran's group elected Audrey Hegemann and Jean Ketterhagen to serve as leaders during the first and second semesters respectively. Every Monday morning there were readings, reports, and discussion on topics relating to personality and achievement in school and outside. Mrs. Keller's group, using a different leader for each meeting, met for a similar purpose every Wednesday morning.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders this year have tried out a new system — dividing the regular squad into three groups. There are four cheerleaders in each group. The A squad, consisting of upper classmen with Shirley Lindner as captain, led the cheers for the A teams and the B and C groups alternated in cheering for the B teams. Mr. Kostrzak is faculty adviser.

In the first picture of the entire squad we have in the top row: Panzica, Sakowski, Felton, Amann, Mehring, Greil; bottom row: Thomas, Whalen, Ranke, Lindner, Dahl, Hegemann; The A squad just below it has Ranke, Dahl, Lindner, Whalen; the B group under that has Amann, Mehring, Felton, Sakowski; and the C group below has Greil, Hegemann, Panzica, Thomas.

Football Season

In the football season of 1950 the Wolverines placed third in the conference. They won three and lost three in conference play. In the non-conference game the Wolverines won, which put their total for the season at four wins and three losses.

The first game of the 1950 season was a non-conference game with St. Mary's of Burlington at Burlington. The final score of the game was 19-13 in favor of Waterford.

Playing the Aggies, Waterford seemed to be stronger and came home with their first conference victory. The Wolverines trounced the Aggies by a score of 21-6.

The home-coming game was the most exciting game our fans witnessed. The game was hard-fought from the beginning until the end. The final score, a heart-breaker, was 19-18 in favor of Union Grove.

The following Friday the Wolverines took a long trip to play at Walworth. In that game the boys looked sharp and came back with another victory. The score was 20-7.

In another close game the Wolverines were on top by a score of 13-12. This game was played at Waterford with the Wolverines against East Troy.

The following week the co-champs of Wilmot came to invade the Wolverines. In this game the Wolverines were on the short end of the score, the final score being 25-0.

In the final game of the season the Wolverines traveled to Mukwonago. The Wolverines were the first to score more than seven points against the champion team for this year. The Wolverines lost by a score of 30-19.

Basketball Season

The scrapping Wolverine Quintet of 1950 and 1951 developed into a very fine aggressive team after starting the season with only three boys back from last year.

In the opening game of the season, a non-conference game with Lutheran High of Racine, the Wolverines lost by the score of 46 to 18. In the first conference game the Wolverines traveled to Union Grove. The local five lost a hard fought game in which the score was very close until the final period, the final score being 30 to 19.

The next game the Wolverines were playing Norris Farm on the local's floor. The game started with a bang and the boys had little trouble defeating the Norris team. There was some sharpshooting in this game by the local boys and they won to the tune of 68 to 34.

At East Troy, the highly-rated Trojans rolled over the Wolverines by a score of 51 to 35. We lost the next game to the Co-Champs Wilmot, 57 to 38.

The next foe was the Racine County Aggies. The Wolverines just couldn't be beat that night and they weren't. They won the game by 10 points. The score was 50 to 40. We lost a very hard-fought game to the Co-Champs Mukwonago, 50 to 36.

In the next game the boys retaliated and beat Union Grove by the score of 49 to 41. Then the Wolverines played Norris and beat them 48 to 26.

In the next game the local boys played a hard fought game and weathered the storm to beat the squad from East Troy 39 to 37.

On our venture to Wilmot, the Wolves were ahead at the half 28 to 22. In the second half the Wilmot five rallied and beat us 48-42.

In the Rochester game we were outplayed most of the way and lost by a pretty good margin, the final being 47 to 30.

In the final conference game the Mukwonago Indians beat us 47 to 34.

In the tournament we played host to Pewaukee and we beat them by the score of 36 to 28. Winning this game gave us the privilege of playing The Rochester Aggies in the final game. We were tied 31 to 31 when regulation time ran out, so we had to go into an overtime in which we lost 33 to 31.

B Squad Basketball

The Waterford B squad had a very satisfying season. The conference record showed six wins and six losses. The record for total games — conference and non-conference — was eight losses and seven wins. As a warm-up for the season, the B squad played a non-conference game against Racine Lutheran. This practice paid off as Waterford's B squad defeated Union Grove in the Conference season opener in the new gym at Union Grove. Continuing its win record, Waterford defeated Norris farm in Waterford.

The Waterford squad then suffered three straight defeats from East Troy at East Troy, Wilmot at Waterford, and St. Mary's in a non-conference game at St. Mary's. After these defeats, Waterford upset the conference-winning Rochester B squad at home in a very thrilling game.

After moving to Mukwonago where they were defeated, Waterford won three straight games, defeating Union Grove at Waterford, Norris at Norris, and East Troy at Waterford. This winning streak was broken by Wilmot at Wilmot. A non-conference return game with St. Mary's at Waterford ended in a victory for Waterford. The conference-leading Rochester B's then found revenge by defeating Waterford at Rochester.

The last game of the season was played at Waterford against Mukwonago. Waterford lost. The B's had their share of victories during the season and gained the experience needed for the varsity next year. All of the players want to thank Mr. Zernach for his wonderful coaching.

Baseball Season

The 1950 baseball season opened at Racine Lutheran. Fortunately, it was a non-conference game. The Wolverines lost to a strong Lutheran nine by a score of 15 to 1.

Three conference games followed the opener which left the Wolverines on the short end of the score.

Wolverines . . . 4	Union Grove . . . 7
Wolverines . . . 1	Wilmot . . . 7
Wolverines . . . 4	East Troy . . . 9

The next game was won by the Wolverines when they defeated Norris Farm, 5 to 3.

Three more games were lost by the Wolverines in succession.

Wolverines . . . 4	Mukwonago . . . 17
Wolverines . . . 1	Racine Lutheran 12
Wolverines . . . 4	Rochester . . . 7

The Wolverines finished the season with one win and seven losses. The loss of several lettermen contributed to the poor baseball season but experienced players are available now and the 1951 season should prove more successful.

The following lettermen are back for this 1951 season:

Bill Rader — first base
 Bob Cahill — second base
 Gordie Modrak — shortstop
 Dick Huening — third base
 Bob Schopp — left field
 Larry Krautkramer — pitcher
 Gene Daugherty — pitcher
