SOVIET CHILDREN'S ART

Theater Gallery, February 1 - February 29

These artworks came as the result of an exchange begun in 1984 by Anne and Frank Stoll of Madison and Mary and Sid Podell of Middleton on a trip to the Soviet Union. This is the last time this collection will ever be exhibited. These pictures are for sale, the proceeds to be used for medicine for children in the Ukraine or Russia.

NEW!

TERRACE SWEATSHIRTS

Just in time for the winter months, Terrace sweatshirts are now available. No longer will you have to fret about hiding that Terrace logo under layers of other clothing! With this 80% cotton, 20% poly sweatshirt worn proudly on the outside, you'll have everyone who sees you longing for those hot summer nights! Sweatshirts are available for $22 plus tax at the Memorial Union Service Center. Questions? Call Bill Mann at (608) 262-0887.

SMOKING AREA UPDATE

Union South is now 100% smoke free and Memorial Union will be totally smoke free soon. Smoking areas in the Games Room at Memorial Union have been eliminated, but smoking is still allowed in the Rathskeller. By the beginning of the summer session, 1992, smoking will not be allowed in either building.

RENOVATION UPDATE

Construction on the first floor Commons Desk/Lobby Area of Memorial Union is finally underway. Work began November 20 on the new women's restroom and will continue in the Deli/Commons area by the start of the new semester. "We're looking forward to Phase I being done by the middle of March with Phase II beginning in late spring or early summer," Dick Pierce, Memorial Union Operations Manager, said. The construction is not expected to cause any interruption of services.

Meanwhile, the air conditioning project that was started in Great Hall and Tripp Commons this summer will be completed in January, as will the refurbishing of Great Hall including new paint, new carpet and new drapes.

1991-1992 DISTINGUISHED LECTURE SERIES

Winona LaDuke

Wednesday, March 25, 1992
Wisconsin Union Theater, 7:30 p.m.

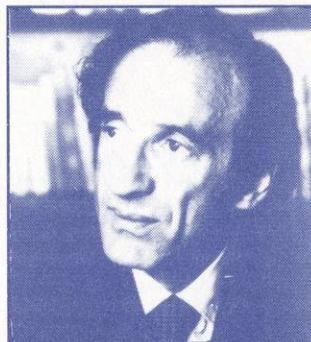

Winona LaDuke is an expert on issues of economic development, environmental issues, and legal issues related to Native affairs. Her books include Native Americans and Energy Development II and Indigenous Working Group for Indigenous Affairs. She has served as the president of the Indigenous Womens Network, representative to the International Indian Treaty Council, and representative to the Third World Coalition, American Friends Service Committee, Philadelphia, PA.

Elie Wiesel

Thursday, April 9, 1992
Wisconsin Union Theater, 7:30 p.m.

Nobel Peace Prize winner Elie Wiesel has worked on behalf of oppressed people for much of his adult life. His first-hand experiences in the Holocaust led him to use his talents as an author, journalist and storyteller to defend human rights and peace throughout the world. In addition to the Nobel Peace Prize in 1986, Wiesel's efforts have earned him the United States Congressional Gold Medal of Achievement and the Medal of Liberty Award.

Both lectures are free.

WISCONSIN UNION THEATER ENDOWMENT FUND NEWS

The Wisconsin Union Theater Endowment Fund was created to help bring unique, quality, cultural programming to the Union Theater by supplementing major artist's fees as well as increasing student attendance at Union Theater performances by underwriting student ticket prices.

The fund drive has been extremely successful. We are currently only $100,000 away from our goal of $600,000.

Barbara and Frank Manley, two longtime supporters of the Union Theater, recently announced that they have renewed the Fannie Taylor Challenge, a support fund honoring long time Theater Director Fan Taylor, and will match with one dollar every two dollars given to the Theater Endowment Fund in Fan's name until January 1993. With this opportunity to increase Endowment Fund contributions by 33%, we are more optimistic than ever about reaching our $600,000 goal.

If you are interested in supporting the Theater Endowment Fund, the Fannie Taylor Challenge Fund or other programs and facilities of the Wisconsin Union, contributions can be sent to UW Foundation, 150 E. Gilman St.; P.O. Box 8860; Madison, WI 53708-8860. Be sure to indicate which program you wish to support. All gifts are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.
