THE SUMMER SESSION

RUSSELL JOHNSTON
Director

THE summer session was established at River Falls twenty-five years ago. It is now conducted for six weeks each summer and has become a regular part of the program of the college year. It offers opportunities to teachers in service to improve their educational background and to college students to continue their regular college work during a part of the summer. A wide variety of courses is offered by the members of the college faculty as well as instructors and lecturers brought to the institution especially for this session.

TRAINING SCHOOL OPERETTA

AMONG the outstanding entertainments produced during the college year was an operetta, "It Happened in Holland," presented by the junior high school students under the direction of Miss Vera Moss, junior high school critic, and Professor B. J. Rozehnal, director of instrumental music. The woodwind and string sections of the college orchestra provided instrumental accompaniment.

Tabea Foss, a pupil in the seventh grade, sang the leading role. She took the part of Julianna, the Burgomaster's daughter, called by her subjects "the Dutch Doll." Lloyd Sherman sang the part of the rich, old, gout-tormented Burgomaster, who has a great attachment for Gertrude the Cat, Irene Larkins.

Although Julianna is envied by the Dutch girls for her station and riches, she is envious of their freedom. This longing for release and the skillful persuasion of Arlene, a gypsy girl, played by Betty Dodge, led her to change clothes and homes with Arlene "just for a day" on the evening before the festival. Thus disguised as a gypsy, Julianna discovers a plot to destroy her father. Overcoming a series of difficulties, she saves her father from the gypsies and the town from a leak in the dyke.

Among the other children who had singing parts were Evelyn Smith and Dorothy Edkins as Hulda and Katrina, young Dutch girls, and Marshall Olson and Harold Edkins as Peter and Jan, Dutch boys. Mijnheer Katz, an eccentric old Dutchman, was impersonated by Gailen Christensen. Other characters were Gypsy Josh, Glen Anderson, Gypsy Jane, Muriel Griffith, and Hans, who saves the Burgomaster with his snuff, William Richardson. Still others as gypsies and guards were Robert Doplins, Robert Knapp, Lowell Wilcox, Carl Carlson, Howard Chinnock, and Richard Peterson. The remaining junior high school pupils were used in specialty numbers and in choruses of gypsies and Dutch villagers.

THE COLLEGE MASQUERS

THE College Masquers have as their aim the object of furthering interest in dramatics. This is done by selecting the personnel of the organization through a competitive process, by making studies of present day activity in drama, and producing a number of plays during the year to give the members opportunity to act in them.

This year a new system of adding new members was inaugurated. Preliminary tryouts were held early in the fall, through which a group of twenty-six "apprentices" was selected. These individuals served an apprenticeship lasting two terms. During this time they acted in or assisted in some other manner the plays coached by regular Masquers. This apprentice system is based on a scientific tabulation of activity in numerical values. Together with this the dramatic ability shown is given due consideration. At the end of the apprenticeship period the fourteen apprentices adjudged to have been most active in dramatic work, and to have shown most promise in dramatics were formally initiated into the Masquers organization. These new members raised the personnel to its constitutional limit of forty. Although this apprentice system is relied upon for providing most of the new members, any person may try out for a part in a play, and, if successful, he automatically becomes a Masquer.

The Masquers meet every second Thursday at 7:00 P. M. At these meetings various programs, usually featuring some aspect of dramatics, are given. Some take the form of reports on the presentation of plays in New York, or in the Twin Cities. Others include the reading of plays, musical numbers, and sundry feature events. At least once a term these meetings take the form of parties with dancing and refreshments.

In the fall of the year Miss Schlosser chose the three-act play "Double Door" by Elizabeth McFadden. It was cast and produced under her direction. It featured Olive Flathe in the leading role as Victoria Van Bret, an outstanding character presentation. As the production of a play of this nature is quite a complex affair, many of the Masquers not in the cast assisted by serving on the committees in charge of lighting, properties, staging, tickets, and advertising.

Twice during the year the Masquers presented one-act plays to the student body as assembly programs. The first of these was the play "The Goal," produced under the direction of Ruth Phillips; the second was "The Sacrifice," a play by Lewis Stone, coached by John Bradley.

The Masquers also presented a program of four one-act plays to the public on the evening of March 17. All these plays were coached by Masquers as part of their activity in the organization. These plays were "Heels" by Joyce Caraway, coached by Francis Haugh; "Land's End" by Dorothy Hughes, produced under the direction of Marion Hawkins; "Hotel Dilemma" by James K. Donovan, supervised by Niles Grunke; and "Thirty-three" by Hiram Gordon, directed by Joyce Leonard.

The Masquers are also active in other ways. At Homecoming time the Masquer float is always interesting and usually good. The Masquer stunt in the vaudeville secured first prize.

The outstanding social event of the year is the Masquer formal. This year the decorative design carried out a vineyard motif. The general effect created was that of a grape arbor.

The concluding event is a formal banquet. At this time the officers for the next year are chosen.

DEBATE

ON Armistice Day the River Falls State Teachers College opened its debate season with an international debate. Roman Zorn and Rolf Ordal debated Mr. Kay-Shuttleworth and Mr. Greenwood from Oxford University. The question under discussion was—Resolved: That this house prefers peaceful militarism to militant pacifism.

After this debate the regular Pi Kappa Delta question—Resolved: That Congress should be empowered to establish minimum wages and maximum hours for industry—was the topic of discussion throughout the debate season.

Twenty-one speakers represented River Falls in intercollegiate debates this year, which is a procedure in keeping with the democratic policy made possible by the expanded debating program.

On January 13, two debate teams went to St. Olaf College at Northfield. The members of the teams were: Frank Sirianni and Loell Larson, and Mae Nelson and Joyce Leonard.

On January 21, Zorn, Dykstra, Christianson, and Thompson traveled to St. Paul where two debates were held with Hamline. When Augsburg visited River Falls on January 22, Greene, Osborne, Benson, and Ordal entertained them.

The following day Zorn, Dykstra, Ordal, and Benson debated two non-decision debates with St. Thomas at St. Paul. A return engagement with St. Thomas (here) was held on January 26.

Four teams went to the Eau Claire Tourney on January 30. The teams were: Leonard and Nelson, Sirianni and Larson, Dykstra and Zorn, and Osborne and Gherty. Debates were held with Eau Claire, Stevens Point, Platteville, and La Crosse. Here River Falls won second as a school. Zorn and Dykstra won all of their debates, tying for first place as a team.

On February 2, Hawkins, Hickox, Webert, and Greene traveled to Macalester for another series of two non-decision debates.

During the latter part of the week Zorn, Dykstra, Sirianni, and Larson participated in the fourth annual Red River Valley Tournament at Concordia College, Moorhead, Minnesota. Over thirty colleges of the northwest and about one hundred seventy debaters were represented at the tournament. Zorn and Dykstra won four out of six debates, defeating Augustana, Concordia, Chadron, and Valley City. Sirianni and Larson received one decision. The Dykstra-Zorn team was honored by being chosen to participate in the special demonstration debate held at Moorhead College. Their opposition was St. John's University. River Falls received the decision.

Dual non-decision debates were held with St. Olaf at River Falls on February 9. Macalester teams were guests of Nelson, Leonard, Benson, and Iverson on February 11.

On February 13, Eau Claire brought four teams to River Falls.

The two women's teams motored to St. Catherine's College for the first intercollegiate non-decision debate with that college on February 16.

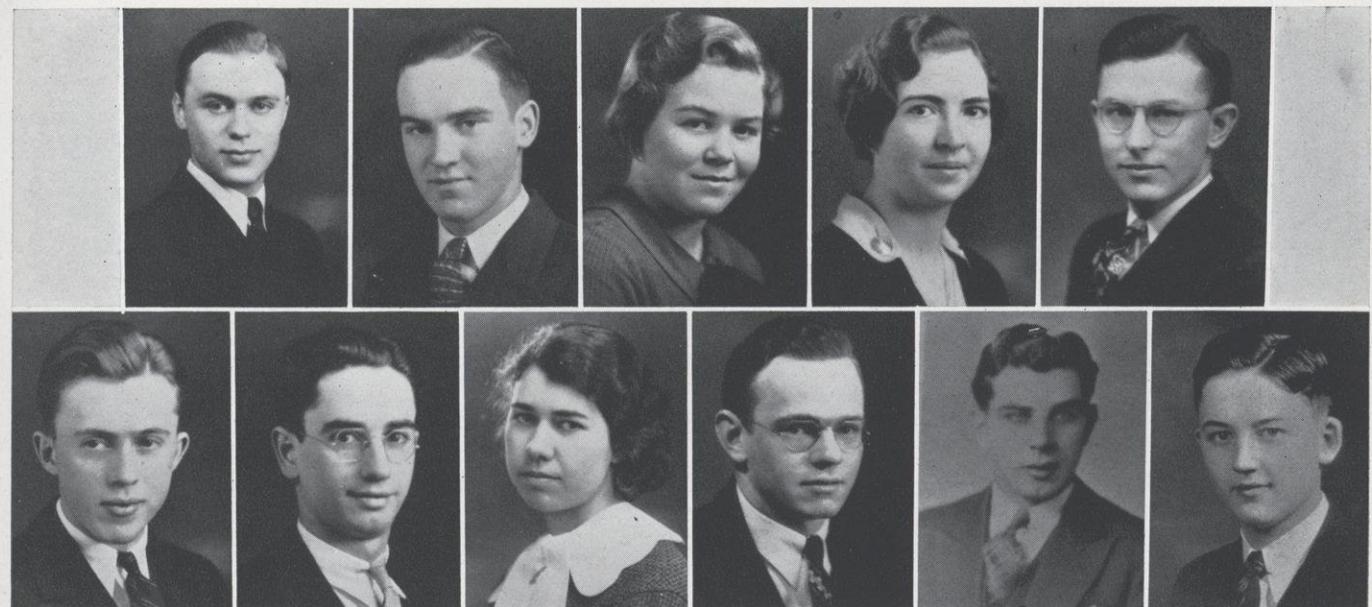

During the next week debates were held with Augsburg, Eau Claire, Macalester, and Hamline in preparation for the major engagement of the year, the Northwest Tournament.

On February 25, Zorn and Dykstra debated with St. Thomas College in an assembly debate in the River Falls auditorium. One member of the St. Thomas team was on the team which won the National Pi Kappa Delta Championship last year.

Then on March 1, 2, and 3, the Northwest Tournament was held in St. Paul. Zorn, Dykstra, Sirianni, and Larson entered the men's division at St. Thomas College and Leonard and Hawkins entered the women's division which was held at St. Catherine's College. In the tourney the Leonard-Hawkins team defeated Augustana, North Dakota Wesleyan, St. Olaf, Eastern Teachers, Concordia, St. Catherine's, and Oshkosh. At the end of the seventh round the River Falls team was the only undefeated team in the women's division. Leonard and Hawkins lost in the semi-finals to Augustana, South Dakota, thus placing third. Mankato Teachers and Morningside met defeat at the hands of Larson and Sirianni. Zorn and Dykstra defeated Concordia, Nebraska Wesleyan, Midland, St. John's, Chadron, and Northern Teachers. Zorn and Dykstra reached the semi-finals in each division. Both River Falls teams were defeated by the winners of the Northwest Tournament.

On March 13, 1937, the debate season closed with the River Falls Tournament. Eight colleges participated in this unique tournament, which was open only to the less experienced debaters who had not debated in the Northwest Tournament. Veteran debaters acted as judges. Webert and Nelson, and Gherty and Osborne won three out of four debates respectively. River Falls ranked third as a school in the River Falls Tourney.

This season was the most active debate season in the history of the college. The schedule indicates that one hundred fifteen debates were held. Of these debates sixty-seven were non-decision. The season's average for all teams was sixty-two per cent. A total of thirty-four colleges and universities were debated, and four tournaments were participated in.

Roman Zorn and Rolf Ordal, seniors, will be lost to the debate squad through graduation. Although these two fine debaters are a loss to the team, the remaining members of the squad are looking forward to an active, successful season next year.

PROVINCIAL SPEECH CONTEST

FOR the first time River Falls delegates attended the Upper Mississippi Provincial Speech Contest which was held at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa, on April 9 and 10, 1937. Rolf Ordal represented Wisconsin Delta, the local chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, in the men's extempore speaking division. Joyce Leonard entered the play-reading division of the convention.

PI KAPPA DELTA

THE Wisconsin Delta Chapter of the Pi Kappa Delta national forensic fraternity has successfully completed its first year of organization. Besides supporting the most active debate season in the history of the college, the chapter sponsored the league high school speech contest which was held on April 24, 1937.

Membership in Pi Kappa Delta is granted in four different degrees according to the extent of the intercollegiate debating done by the applicant. These are the degree of Fraternity, degree of Proficiency, degree of Honor, and degree of Special Distinction.

COACH LOWERY

COMING to River Falls after having had only two years' experience in the coaching field, Emmett P. Lowery has firmly established himself in the hearts of the Falcon fans. Upon graduating from Purdue University in 1934, where he was a star athlete in three different sports, football, tennis, and basketball, winning all-conference recognition in the latter, he received the position of head coach at Rochelle, Illinois, High School. After coaching one year there he became head coach at Mankato Teachers College, Mankato, Minnesota. He served there one year, and his football team won the Minnesota Teachers College Championship. He was appointed in the summer of 1935 to succeed Osborne Cowles, and in his first year here has proved an admirable and capable coach.

Besides doing a fine bit of work in intercollegiate athletics, Coach Lowery sponsored one of the best intramural programs ever carried on at the local college. Largely through his efforts a wide variety of sports was added to the program with medals awarded to the winners.

FOOTBALL 1936

SEVEN lettermen reported to Coach Lowery in his first call for football practice. They were Captain Merton Wulf, Walter Herkal, Leo Stenback, Donald Hart, Charles Cudney, Thomas Rendler, and Lawrence Selvig. The Falcon prospects were hit hard at the start of the season when eight lettermen who were counted on heavily failed to return to school. After two weeks of intensive practice the locals opened the season in a game with Macalester winning by a 6 to 0 score. This game was played on a rain soaked field and the score was no indication of the Falcons' superior strength. For River Falls Rendler, Wulf, and Marr, a freshman, played good ball.

Displaying a brilliant aerial attack the La Crosse Maroons handed the Falcons their first defeat of the season by a 6 to 0 score. The Maroons scored early in the second period on the execution of three pass plays which brought the ball to the Falcon sixteen-yard line. Here Binter, a Maroon halfback, scored on an off tackle run. The try for point was blocked by Carow, River Falls left guard. In the third quarter the Falcons made their only serious scoring threat, marching from midfield to the eleven-yard line, where the Maroon line held. Late in the fourth quarter the Maroons began a march on the Falcon goal which carried them to the locals' nineteen-yard stripe. At this juncture, however, the game ended, preventing all further scoring.

FOOTBALL 1936

LA CROSSE made eleven first downs to six for River Falls. Each team was penalized fifty yards. For River Falls, the play of Rendler, Wulf, Staley, Carow, and O'Brien was outstanding.

The second non-conference game was a night affair with St. Thomas. Again the Falcons showed superior football technique and came away with a 26 to 6 victory. A brilliant aerial attack and two long runs by Herkal were essential in the Falcon scoring. Coach Lowery, taking advantage of the large score, used every man on the Falcon squad. For the locals Herkal, Wulf, Frank, and Alfonse played fine ball.

In the Homecoming contest, a great Superior team made use of the breaks to defeat a fighting Falcon eleven 13 to 0. Superior presented a team with an exceptionally large line and a fast, tricky backfield. The first break came early in the game when Rich of Superior intercepted a Falcon pass, running it to the forty-nine-yard line where he was stopped. Here the Falcons held momentarily until third down when Gentile broke loose on a thirty-four-yard run to the fifteen-yard line. Two plays later he scored on a lateral pass from Rich. The try for point was missed. During the remainder of the half, the two teams battled on even terms with no further scoring. The Falcons made a strong bid for a score in the third quarter advancing to the Superior twenty-nine-yard line, where Superior took the ball on incomplete passes.

FOOTBALL 1936

SUPERIOR then began an uninterrupted drive of seventy-one yards to a score. The kick was barely good, making the score 13 to 0. On the following kickoff, the Falcons attempted a difficult lateral pass which was recovered by Superior on the River Falls' twenty-five-yard line. In the closing minutes, the Falcons fought desperately, but not in vain, to keep Superior from scoring. The play of the whole Falcon team was commendable, considering that they were playing the conference champions who had played together for three seasons.

Coach Lowery's Falcons came back in a big way after the defeat at the hands of Superior to spoil the Stout Homecoming by beating the Blue Devils 26 to 6. Rendler, Falcon fullback, led the onslaught on the Blue Devils by scoring three times. Captain Wulf scored once, and Cudney kicked two points after touchdown. Stout got her only score in the closing minutes on a pass. Nystrom made the longest run of the day to set the Falcons in position for their fourth and final touchdown. Wulf played fine ball; his punting was especially good, having an average of thirty-eight yards per kick. Coach Lowery used a total of twenty-five men, all of them showing up well. The Falcons made eleven first downs to eight for Stout. The play of O'Brien, Staley, Frank, and Wulf was outstanding for the Falcons in the line, with that of Nystrom and Rendler outstanding in the backfield.

After battling on even terms for the first half, which ended nothing to nothing, Eau Claire's powerful football machine got rolling to run up twenty-seven points and handed the Falcons their third defeat of the season. The first half appeared to be slightly in favor of the locals even though they made only two first downs to Eau Claire's three. Long runs by Cudney and Rendler were the feature of this half. The Falcons lost their best opportunity to score in the second quarter when Wulf attempted to lateral after he had caught a pass thrown by Herkal. Eau Claire recovered on her own sixteen-yard line and the Falcons never threatened again until the closing minutes.

In the second half a pass by Eau Claire, and interception of three River Falls' passes led to four touchdowns and a final score of 27 for the Zornadoes. River Falls outfought Eau Claire in the first half, but the failure of her passing attack in the last half led to the defeat. Outstanding for the Falcons were Wulf, Staley, Frank, and O'Brien in the line, and Cudney and Rendler in the backfield.

In the final game of the season, the Falcons played the Milwaukee Green Gulls, one of the strongest teams in the Southern Conference. The Falcons showed their superiority in every department of the game except passing, but were able to score only once. Rendler scored in the third quarter on a fifteen-yard plunge behind excellent interference. Again Rendler and Captain Wulf were the outstanding men on the field.

CUDNEY, MAY, WULF, NELSON

BASKETBALL 1937

COACH LOWERY'S call for basketball candidates was answered by a large turnout, including five lettermen from last year's championship five. These men were Captain Walter Herkal, an all-state forward for three seasons, Russell Nystrom, last year's all-state guard, James May, Stanley Torgerson, and Merton Wulf.

After two weeks of intensive practice, Coach Lowery sent his boys into action against Augsburg in a non-conference game. The Falcons got off to a fine start, defeating the Auggies by a 42 to 28 score. Herkal paced both teams in scoring with thirteen points. The Augsburg victory was followed with a win over Macalester, Minnesota State College Champions, by a 31 to 25 count. Herkal, again, led the scoring with eleven points, but was closely followed by Nystrom, May, and Wulf. The Falcons continued their winning ways by beating Oshkosh 55 to 39, and St. Olaf 54 to 30. In these two games, the play of Nystrom and Herkal was outstanding. In a return game with St. Olaf, the Falcons again won by the score of 33 to 32. To close the non-conference season Coach Lowery took his squad on a three-day tour of the southern part of the state, meeting Milwaukee and Oshkosh. The trip proved to be disastrous for the locals, as they were beaten in both games, 39 to 32 by Milwaukee and 33 to 27 by Oshkosh.

In the opening game of the conference schedule the Falcons were pitted against one of the strongest teams in the conference, the Superior Yellowjackets. In a sensational battle, the Falcons came out on the long end of a 40 to 38 score.

BASKETBALL 1937

NYSTROM and Herkal scored fourteen points each in turning back the highly touted Northerners. The defensive work of May was outstanding in that he stopped many Yellowjacket drives for the basket.

Following the Superior game the Red and White Cagers journeyed to Menomonie to play Stout. This was a slow, uninteresting game, which the Falcons won by a 26 to 17 score. The Blue Devils presented a fair defense, but not much offense. The defense did, however, succeed in holding the high scoring Falcons way below their average number of points.

After the victory over Stout, the locals met the strong La Crosse squad on the Falcon court, coming out this time on the short end of a 35 to 34 count. This game was featured by one of the most unusual freak shots ever seen on a local basketball court which proved to be the deciding factor in the game. Herkal and Nystrom again paced the Falcons in scoring, getting twelve and nine points respectively.

In the return game with Stout, the Falcons chalked up their third conference victory, turning in a 37 to 28 win. Coach Lowery used the whole squad in this game and each one played good ball. Individual scoring honors were taken by Nystrom, who scored fourteen points.

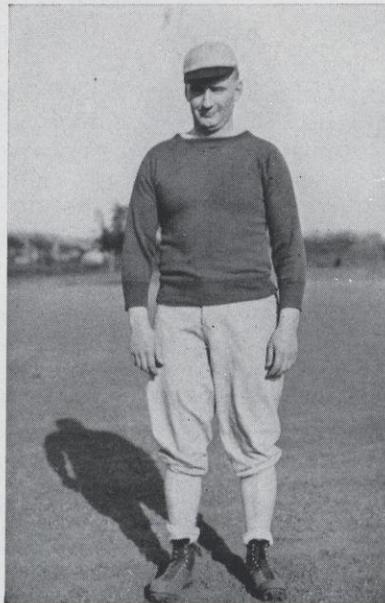

The Falcons suffered their second conference setback at the hands of the Eau Claire Zornadoes in a tight game by a 45 to 43 score. Mert Wulf paced the Falcon attack, garnering sixteen points. However, his loss on fouls with four minutes remaining, was probably the main reason for the Falcon defeat.

BASKETBALL 1937

JOURNEYING to Superior for a return game with the Yellowjackets, the Falcons again got the short end of the deal, taking a 40 to 34 defeat. The Superior lads, scenting a tie for the championship, were not to be denied. Herkal and Nystrom, the Falcon all-state stars, again played brilliant ball, getting fifteen and ten points respectively.

Playing one of the best ball games of the season, the Falcons handed the La Crosse Maroons their only conference defeat by a 34 to 28 score. The feat was the more remarkable in that the game was played at La Crosse. The offensive play of Herkal, Nystrom, and Cudney was outstanding; however, May and Wulf shared honors with them by turning in fine defensive performances.

A second half rally which scored thirty-eight points, paved the way for a 53 to 41 victory over the Falcons by Eau Claire. This game closed the career of Captain Walter Herkal, one of the finest players to ever represent the Falcons on the hardcourt. He led a courageous fighting Falcon team in a brilliant battle, but Eau Claire was not to be daunted. Nystrom turned in a marvelous game, scoring seventeen points which gave him conference scoring honors for the season. Cudney played the best game he had played all season, contributing eleven points to a lost cause. Mert Wulf also turned in a fine performance in the last game of his career. The whole team showed up well, but Eau Claire was hot and was not to be defeated.

FRESHMAN ATHLETICS

THE freshman football team was under the direction of Harold Segerstrom, former Falcon star. As usual the squad was a product of many different types of coaching, but under his able direction it was molded into a compact unit which provided excellent opposition to all opponents. Although there were no individual stars, many men gave promise of filling in the holes in next year's varsity left by those graduating this season. The frosh played two games with Red Wing Training School, defeating them both times by the score of 18 to 6 and 6 to 0. Outside of these two regular games a number of informal scrimmages were held with the local high school.

The freshman basketball team was one of the best in recent years. It played a schedule of seven games, winning six and being defeated only by Elmwood Class "C" Championship team from this district. The "Greenies" opened their season with a 30 to 22 win over Independence High School. They followed this by handing the Intramural All-Stars a 24 to 9 defeat. The third game was a 29 to 22 defeat at the hands of Elmwood. The local National Guard provided the opposition in the fourth game, being turned back 72 to 40 by the frosh. In a return game with the All-Stars the freshmen were again victorious by a 48 to 36 count. The sixth game was with the Hammond High School, and that team was given a 46 to 26 defeat. The final game of the season was played at Ellsworth against the high school of that city. This resulted in a 29 to 23 victory for the frosh. Besides these regular scheduled games the frosh scrimmaged the local high school and Elmwood to give these teams practice against outside opposition.

The men who showed promise and should be of valuable help to next year's varsity are Lansing and Reichardt, centers, Fisher, Nickerson, and Thompson, forwards, and Lystad, Lyga, and Blaisdell, guards.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

UNDER the leadership of Coaches Lowery and Setterquist and with able assistance from Tom Rendler, the college had one of the best intramural programs ever held in the history of the school.

Basketball was the first sport on the intramural program. Over one hundred and twenty-five men signed up for participation in this sport; they were divided into twelve teams under student captains. The captains of the teams were: Younggren, Nelson, Gettinger, Cass, Sletteland, Rendler, Isaacson, Hoey, Bartz, Jacobson, Knuth, and Crowley. A schedule was provided whereby each team played every other team once. At the conclusion of this it was decided to hold a tournament, the league winner and tournament winner playing for the championship. The Bartz and Jacobson teams ended the league season in a tie for first place, with Bartz winning the play-off. The tournament was won by Isaacson's team, a team which had finished the league schedule in the second division, but played fine ball to win the tournament. In the final game between Bartz and Isaacson, Bartz's team won by a 26 to 19 score. The athletic department presented medals to the members of the winning team.

MANAGER RENDLER

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

AN interesting feature of the season's play was the publication in the Student Voice each week of the ten scoring leaders. The leading point-getters for the season were Al Erickson of Knuth's team and Mel Erickson of Nelson's team, who scored 143 and 123 points respectively.

At the close of the basketball season ping pong, volleyball, and badminton were started. The ping pong championship was won by Russell Kurtz, who defeated Tom Ronnigen in the finals. Dr. Owens won the badminton championship, defeating Robert Platte. The volleyball championship was won by Gossen's team, which defeated Hehnke's team in the finals. As a fitting closing for the winter intramurals, the athletic department sponsored a sports show where the finals were played.

Kittenball was the closing event in the intramural season. Two leagues were formed, one made up of campus house teams, and the other of student teams, captained by students. Regular scheduled games were played in the evening on the south campus.

BASEBALL

BASEBALL prospects at the local school received a severe jolt with the announcement that Al Erickson, star catcher for the past two seasons, had signed a contract with the Columbus team of the American Association. Even on top of this came the news that Mert Wulf, star first baseman, would be unable to play because of illness. However, six lettermen, Herkal, Erickson, Nystrom, Johnson, Rendler, and Stenback, provided the nucleus for a fairly strong club. The showing of three new men, Moore, Marr, and Teebles, gave the Falcons a representative club. Regular scheduled games were played with Minnesota, Gustavus Adolphus, St. Cloud, and Mankato.

Jones, Mills, Alfonse, Staley, Kinney, Gherty

Nickerson, May, D. O'Brien, Sletteland, J. O'Brien

MINOR SPORTS

MINOR sports, which have been on a decline in state colleges the past few seasons, were given a big boost this season. Superior sponsored an inter-collegiate boxing tournament for Wisconsin colleges. The Falcons were represented by a team composed of Mills, Kinney, Alfonse, Staley and Gherty. The Falcons made a creditable showing, considering the amount of boxing experience team members had had.

Plans were being made to send a track team to Eau Claire to take part in the state meet there. Track has been badly neglected on the campus here, and an attempt will be made to arouse interest in it.

Prospects are good for a tennis team with Jim May, last year's school champion, returning. A tournament was to be conducted, and, if the material warranted it, regular scheduled matches were to be played with other schools.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

PERHAPS the most active women's organization in school is the W. A. A., one without whose existence school would be a dull affair. Here it is that the vigorous spirit of the women students manifests itself. This organization need put forth no effort to secure new members—all good athletes seek it out, and they need not fear being refused admission. The W. A. A. welcomes all women who are interested in and who are willing to put forth a little effort to further women's athletics. To be sure, once having joined the group one must live up to its standards, but they are not too high—fifty points a year being sufficient to retain one's standing as an active member. Points are awarded on the basis of attendance and ability.

The sports program is varied to suit individual tastes. Among the organized sports are basketball, hockey, baseball, volleyball, and hit pin ball. Of the individual sports, badminton, tennis, archery, and swimming have a considerable following. Several tournaments are run off in both tennis and badminton. In addition to this, the W. A. A. sponsors a spring camping trip. With such a program to choose from, a girl has every opportunity to participate in the activity that suits her best. These sports are supervised by Miss Branstad and the student sports heads.

Activity meetings are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4:00 P. M. The first activity meetings in each sport are devoted to an attempt to master skills and techniques. After a few practice sessions tournaments are run off in each sport—tournaments that are colorful and exciting. At the end of each tournament an honor team is selected from the best players in the group. Business meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month. The executive council, composed of the adviser, the officers and the sport heads, manages the affairs of the group.

Awards consist of a W. A. A. membership pin, attainable only when a member has accumulated 250 points, an "R," received upon the amassing of 500 points, and a Red Cross Life Saving Emblem, secured upon passing the official Red Cross Life Saving Test.

Endeavoring to have a sports program that will suit the taste of every member, the organization sponsors a spring camping trip at the Y. M. C. A. camp at Lake St. Croix for those who feel the urge to live close to nature. The camping trip is scheduled for a week-end in May. Swimming, boating, hiking, baseball, archery, and treasure hunts are all part of the recreation while in camp. For those who like their recreation mild, there is always an opportunity to sleep or read! At any rate, camp is a wonderful place to be in the spring, for it gives one a chance to relax after a long winter. It is one of the highlights of the spring program, and it is much anticipated by the W. A. A. members.

BASKETBALL

AN eternal gift of gratitude will be Dr. Nai-smith's for his invention of this popular game. During the winter months basketball is king. Thirty-five girls reported for the first practice of the year. The first few practices were given over to developing fundamentals and to short periods of practice play. After a few meetings three teams were selected, captained by Bernice Deiss, Ardyth Grupe, and Eunice Manske. A round robin tournament of eighteen games was arranged. The sharp-shooting Grupe team got off to an early lead in the tournament, which they held until the finish. Manske's team, which was slow in reaching its top form, placed second, while the jinxed Deiss team placed third. The games were colorful and exciting, played with a zip and dash that aroused interest.

In addition to the regular tournament games several games were played with the River Falls high school teams. Early in February the college women were hosts to the high school teams in the college gym. Three games were played, all three being won by the college teams. In March the high school girls returned the invitation. Again three games were played, and again the college women won.

The officiating for the games was handled by Miss Branstad and several of the girls. La Vernia Jorgenson was sport head for the season. The captains and sport head selected an honor team as follows: guards—Effie Tobiassen, Jeanette Griffith, Emma Svoboda, Edith Stewart, and Lucile Creswell; forwards—Stella Tobiassen, Ardyth Grupe, Bernice Deiss, La Vernia Jorgenson, and Eunice Manske.

Werts, Deiss, Creswell, Grupe, Branstad (Coach), Snow, Schorta

VOLLEYBALL

ABOUT thirty girls reported for the first volleyball practice of the year. The volleyball season was rather short this year as it was cut into by both baseball and basketball. Viola Granicia, Joyce Snow, and Edith Bauer were selected to captain the teams. A round robin tournament of nine games was arranged. Viola Granicia's team won the tournament, winning five out of six games. The sport head, Stella Tobiassen, and the captains selected an honor team as follows: LaVernia Jorgenson, Effie Tobiassen, LaVerne Jensen, Emma Svoboda, Marion Boles, Bernice Deiss, Lillie Ahlgren and Lucile Creswell.

HOCKEY

IN SPRING a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of—well, you guess; but in autumn a young woman's thoughts turn toward hockey. Synonymous with the opening of school is the opening of the hockey season. From then until Jack Frost comes the shrill cry of the referee's whistle can be heard coming from the hockey field on south campus. Because hockey is a strenuous activity, calling for genuine interest and physical endurance from the participants, not many reported for this sport. But for those who like it hockey is tops!

Two teams captained by Marion Boles and Mae Furbur engaged in a seesaw battle for hockey supremacy. Marion Boles' team won the first two games of the tournament. Not wanting to go down without a fight, Mae Furbur's team took the next two games, thus tying the percentage standings. The fifth game was a tie, neither side being able to score to take the lead in the tournament. The last game was a game! Amidst a mad, scrambled thrash of hockey clubs and players' legs, Marion's team succeeded in winning the tournament 2-1! It was with great reluctance that the teams put away their clubs, balls, and shin guards until the next hockey season rolls around.

SWIMMING

SWIMMING is rapidly establishing itself as a major sport in women's athletics in this institution. We have a fine pool, well-kept, which should receive a good deal of attention from the students. Swimming is an activity which can be engaged in long after one leaves school. It is a sport that can be enjoyed singly or in company. For these reasons more people than do should come out for swimming on Wednesdays.

Our school is not without good swimmers. Under the instruction of Miss Branstad several of these swimmers have worked until they have become eligible for the Red Cross Life Saving Award. To receive this award, a girl must be proficient enough in swimming to pass a rigid test of skill as outlined by the Red Cross organization. The following compose the Life Saving Corps: Betty Smith, Gertrude Peterson, Vivian Bach, Marguerite Lewis, Eunice Manske, La Verne Jensen, and Lucille Kay.

BADMINTON

Could you name three persons who have not heard of the new craze that has swept this school? It is badminton, of course. The game is a veritable whirlwind that has picked up players of all kinds and set them down on the badminton court in South Hall. Everybody's playing it! It is a fascinating English game introduced into this country from Canada.

No less than six tournaments were held this year, four of them sponsored by the W. A. A. In the women's singles elimination tournament, consisting of twenty-four entries, La Vernia Jorgenson defeated Miss Branstad for the title, three games to two. In the women's doubles ladder tournament, made up of twelve teams, that ran for a period of eight weeks, Elizabeth Mason and Eunice Manske were the winners. The Joos-Branstad and Peterson-Jorgenson teams were runners-up. The mixed doubles ladder tournament that lasted for seven weeks was won by Miss Branstad and Doctor Owens. The Williams-Manske and Setterquist-Mrs. Owens teams were runners-up. This was the largest tournament of all, twenty-four teams having entered.

Based on their final positions in the ladder tournament, mixed doubles teams were seeded for an elimination tournament. In the finals played on All Sport Night, Dr. Owens and Miss Branstad won over Elizabeth Mason and James May.

This was the sport sponsored by the W. A. A. that had the greatest number and widest variety of participants. Badminton has gained a prominent position in the intramural games. It was one of the features of All Sport Night, held this year for the first time, on April 19 in the North Hall gym. This night was devoted to the playing-off of title matches in the intramural sports that have gained the widest following.

BASEBALL

TO the baseball player, spring is the most welcome time of year. It means a rousing good time spent out of doors whacking the old limbs into shape for another baseball season. Chasing balls, catching balls, batting balls—doing anything with balls—bring delight to the baseball player.

The spring baseball season found two teams brushing up on their baseball form in anticipation of what they would do to their rivals. A schedule of five games was arranged between the E. Tobiassen and L. Jorgenson teams. As a result of heavy slugging and fine team work, Effie Tobiassen's team subdued Jorgenson's team to win the tournament. Elizabeth Hilyar was sport head.

ARCHERY

This time-honored sport was introduced in this institution this year. It promises to become very popular, as about thirty girls gave evidence of their interest in it. Miss Branstad is instructing the girls to shoot according to the Rounseville method. The good feature of this method is that one is taught six fundamental principles that enable one to correct his own faults and errors. After the period of instruction, a Columbia Round was shot.

HIT-PIN BALL

The W. A. A. introduced a new sport into its program this year—hit-pin ball. The game is developed on the combined principles of baseball and soccer. Played indoors, it is a fast, exciting game. Three teams of twelve players each were selected to play in a tournament consisting of fourteen games. Edith Stewart, Catherine Hogan, and Joyce Snow were team captains; May Heckel was sport head.

The tournament lasted for a period of seven weeks. The excellent team work and alertness displayed by Edith Stewart's team were sufficient reasons for it to win the tournament. The honor team, selected by the captains and sport head, was made up of the following players: Lillie Ahlgren, Marion Anderson, Lucile Creswell, La Vernia Jorgenson, Emma Svoboda, Effie Tobiassen, Stella Tobiassen, La Verne Jensen, and Eunice Manske. Because of the interest displayed in the sport this year, it will be added to the W. A. A. sport program.

TENNIS

Each spring and fall the W. A. A. conducts a tennis tournament. Because of the uncertainty of the weather, these tournaments are often much delayed. The finals of the fall tournament were played on a cold, windy day in October. La Vernia Jorgenson defeated Eunice Manske for the title 6-2, 8-6. Her superior drives and placements were responsible for her winning. Singles and doubles tournaments were held late in the spring.

THE primary aims of the Clef Club, whose meetings are open to anyone interested in the programs presented, are to foster a greater understanding, appreciation, and enjoyment of music.

This year the club programs have included reviews of current affairs in the music world and special topics of general interest.

The first program of the year, which was conducted by Miss Cara Wharton, consisted of a general historic review of the progress of vocal music from the early part of the Christian era down to the beginnings of opera in France and Italy in the sixteenth century. Illustrations of the fundamental types through the various stages of development were given by various members of the club—representative folk-songs, some hymns of Palestrina, and some of the early secular songs.

Subsequent programs have been devoted to later phases of music, taken up in chronological order. Studies of French and Italian opera were conducted by Bette Campbell and Harriet Campbell respectively. Selections requested by guests of the club were given by members and from records. Mr. M. D. Geere, adviser to the Clef Club, presented a program of the choral music of Johann Sebastian Bach. For this program the A Cappella Chorus sang two of Bach's choral works.

The German opera, as characterized by Richard Wagner, was the subject of the joint meeting of the German Club and the Clef Club in April. Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde" was reviewed in detail by Ardelle Hamlett, the approach being made from the combined dramatic and musical standpoint. The final meeting of the year, conducted by John Nelson, was given over to the vocal works of the Romantic composers, Schumann, Schubert, and Brahms.

ONE of the most unusual societies of the college is the History Club. Its singularity lies in the fact that it has no definite organization, roll of members, or dues. It is open to all college students whose interest in affairs of the world prompts them to attend.

The purpose of the History Club is to furnish a forum for the discussion and interpretation of current issues of state, national, or international scope. Topics of immediate and vital interest are presented by qualified speakers. Following the address, the students have an opportunity to discuss the topic or elaborate more fully upon it.

The activities of the club for the past year are as follows:

November 3: Election Party

November 17: Address, "My Analysis of the Presidential Election"—Dr. Justin Williams

December 8: Address, "The Spanish Situation"—Dr. Walker D. Wyman

January 19: Address, "Repercussions Arising from Spanish Conflict"—Dr. J. Henry Owens

February 2: Address, "Prospective Legislation in 1937 Legislature"—Senator Walter Hunt

February 16: Discussion, "Judiciary Reform Proposal"—Roman Zorn and Daniel Dykstra

March 2: Address, "The Russian Constitution"—Mrs. Elsie Stanton

March 17: Address, "Arctic Adventures"—Captain Albert Hasselt

THE STUDENT SOCIAL COMMITTEE

THE Student Social Committee is unique among organizations on this campus in that its membership is composed of representatives of each class and organization in the college. The class presidents each appoint two representatives, while each organization is entitled to select one member for the committee. Working in conjunction with the student group is a faculty social committee of which Miss Hathorn is the chairman.

The purpose of the Student Social Committee is to plan the all-school social program for the year. Under the leadership of Eugene Gossen, a senior who was elected chairman of the group, the committee has planned and carried out an excellent calendar of social activities. Bernice Jacobsen, also a senior, was chosen secretary and treasurer for the year.

In order to divide the responsibility for arranging for social affairs, each member of the organization was appointed chairman of a committee composed of several other members of the group to have charge of at least one event. Mr. Gossen, as general chairman, assisted each of the individual committees.

Social life at the college under the direction of the committee opened with a dance which was held Friday, October 2. Arnie Kuss and his orchestra furnished the music for this well-attended party. The committee voted that a uniform admission of ten cents per person be charged for this and succeeding school dances.

The social committee initiated what will probably become an annual custom in the college by nominating six representative senior girls for Homecoming queen. Nominations from other members of the student body were acceptable until the Thursday before Homecoming when the committee conducted the election in the college assembly. Adeline Larson was elected queen with Arduis Erlandson and Bernice Jacobsen elected to be her attendants.

The Homecoming dance, which was held October 22, was the first major event for which the Student Social Committee assumed responsibility. An unusually large crowd of old grads and students danced to the music of the Minnesota Collegians in the North Hall gymnasium, which was decorated with red, white, and blue crepe paper and balloons.

The Christmas party sponsored by the Student Social Committee was given after the musical organizations' Christmas program. The Yuletide spirit was carried out by a Christmas tree, the distribution of candy and apples, and group singing of Christmas songs.

As has become traditional, the committee sponsored matinee dances for the afternoon of registration day for the second and third terms. Throughout the year free dances and dime dances were held after basketball games and on other convenient occasions. Several parties at which cards and other games were played were very popular with the students.

Besides planning social affairs for the college, the group decided that some of its funds should be used for subscriptions to magazines not taken in the library, since this would benefit a large number of the students. Magazines were ordered for the Social Room, the Men's Union, and the College Infirmary. A ping-pong table for the South Hall gym and a new punch bowl were also purchased with student social activity funds.

The Student Social Committee has been successful in giving the student body one of the most varied social programs it has ever had. We hope the new committee which was selected this spring will plan a still more efficient and successful program for the coming year.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

THE purpose of the student Y. M. C. A. at River Falls is to foster active Christian interest among the men students of the college. During the past year the organization has had an unusually large membership, and it has carried on a varied program throughout the year.

Regular meetings of the Y. M. C. A. are held each Monday evening in the Men's Union. These meetings usually consist of musical numbers and talks on some subject of interest. Among the out-of-town speakers who addressed meetings this year were: Dr. O. T. Walter of Macalester, Dean Price of Stout Institute, C. Stanley Lamb of the St. Paul Y. M. C. A., and Ben Schmoker, executive secretary of the Christian Association at the University of Minnesota. Several faculty members also addressed some of the meetings. Among them were Dr. Wyman, President J. H. Ames, Dr. Karges, and Prof. W. H. Hunt.

Cabinet business sessions are held once a week, usually following the regular Monday evening meeting. The cabinet also meets twice a month for Sunday morning breakfast. At these meetings the time is spent in the discussion of some problem.

As usual, several projects were sponsored jointly by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. during the year. Among them were the freshman mixer, the Thanksgiving program, the Christmas program, and the Easter service. These programs were held on Sunday afternoons in the auditorium. The play given at the Christmas program, "Peace I Give Unto You," was repeated several times on later occasions.

A group of discussions was also sponsored jointly. These meetings were held during the first three weeks of February. During these discussions the organizations were divided into smaller groups so that each group could choose its topic. This series of meetings was closed by an address by Ben Schmoker of Minneapolis.

The freshman mixer held this year was a new activity. It was held in the evening of the opening day of school, giving opportunity for the freshmen and the faculty to become acquainted. The mixer was well attended, and it is probable that similar mixers will be held in future years.

The annual spring retreat was held at Big Lake in the latter part of May. Most of the cabinet members attended this retreat, and plans were made for the activities for the year. The fall retreat, held at the same place, was held during the first week in September. At that time, final plans were made for most of the year's work.

The student conference held at Lake Independence on May 16 and 17 is one event which is always well attended by River Falls students. At this conference the students have an opportunity to meet and exchange ideas with others from colleges in northwestern Wisconsin and in Minnesota. Each year some of the members of the Y. M. C. A. attend the student conference at Lake Geneva. This year Professor Jacobson, Le Roy Alexander, and Leonard Hermanson attended that conference.

The Y. M. C. A. also took an active part in the Homecoming activities. Instead of entering a float in the competition for prizes, the "Y" built the float on which the Homecoming queen rode in the parade. A Homecoming banquet was also held, and many former cabinet members attended.

The final meeting of the year was the installation banquet which was held at the Congregational Church. Rev. Gordon Amphlett was the speaker. Six new cabinet members were installed on this occasion.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

THE Y. W. C. A. on the campus is a branch of the national Y. W. C. A. The aim of this organization is very well expressed in the purpose which is as follows: We, the members of the Young Women's Christian Association, unite in the desire to realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God. We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people. In this task we seek to understand Jesus and to follow Him.

The governing body of the Y. W. C. A. is the cabinet with Miss Irma Hathorn as its adviser. The cabinet is organized in committee groups, the purpose of the committees as a whole being to fulfill the needs of every girl on the campus, in other words, striving for individual participation.

The Y. W. C. A. works continuously throughout the entire year. Each Monday night is set aside as "Y" night. On these evenings varied programs are presented. Some of the most outstanding programs of the past year were the Candlelight Service, Amateur Night, and various musical and discussion hours. A few meetings were given over to outside speakers.

On special occasions, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, joint worship services with the Y. M. C. A. were held in the auditorium. These programs were especially outstanding. At the Christmas program the play, "Peace, I Give Unto You," was presented, and at Easter the play, "The Things That Are Caesar's," was given.

During the month of February we held four meetings with the Y. M. C. A. These discussions were on the subjects, "What are we in college for?", "Is Campus popularity worth seeking?", and "Social relations between men and women." The fourth meeting was a large group meeting at which Ben Schmoker, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at the University of Minnesota, was the guest speaker.

In the fall the Y. W. C. A. jointly with the Y. M. C. A. put on a freshman mixer which was held during the first week of school. The Y. W. C. A. also promotes the Campus Sister Movement, which is an upper classman adopting a freshman girl and assisting her in the difficult process of becoming acquainted with the school and college life in general. Sometime during the first week the "Y" girls have a tea at which time the older girls bring their little sisters.

Homecoming, one of the biggest times of the entire year, found the Y. W. C. A. with a float in the parade and a luncheon for present and past members. The luncheon is outstanding in that it gives girls a chance to really see old friends and feel that they are still a part of the organization of the "Y."

Early in the spring is the annual Puff-Pant Prom which is the biggest social event of the "Y" year. It is a prom, yes! but only girls may participate. Men are strictly excluded.

During the year are two conferences of great interest to the "Y." One is at Lake Independence, Minnesota, in the spring. At this conference schools in the Minnesota-Northern Wisconsin area are represented. The other is our summer conference at Lake Geneva in the southern part of Wisconsin. This is a longer, more important conference at which Y. W. C. A. members from nine states are represented. This is the outstanding conference for this region. Here are speakers of interest; here plans are gathered and formulated for another year's work; here we may participate in recreational as well as mental and spiritual activities. Through this conference we may hope to bring back to our campus some of the fire and enthusiasm of what we call the "Geneva Spirit."

THE HONOR SOCIETY

AT the end of every term a list of the people who have made at least two and one-half honor points for each credit hour is published in the Student Voice. These people were honored, in the early days of the school, at a tea given them by the faculty. Later they entertained the faculty at a few teas, thus becoming a loosely organized group for the purpose of entertainment. The next step was in the direction of meetings two or three times a year. At these meetings they listened to some outside speaker.

Today the Honor Society is purely a social organization, endeavoring to give its members a few hours of recreation. It is now a regular organization with officers, faculty adviser, and regular scheduled monthly meetings.

This year the Honor Society presented a stunt at the annual Homecoming. It was a dramatization of the Martins and the Coys changed to the Falcons and the Hornets.

This season has been especially noteworthy for its excellent entertainment. Chairmen from among the members have been chosen by the president. These chairmen took charge of the various meetings by planning the entertainment for the evenings. Among the chairmen were Mary Junkman, Dorothy Arnquist, Phyllis Soderstrom, Russell Gettinger, Kenneth Wall, and Mary Katherine Prucha.

The first party of the year was a Bunco party held in the social room. It proved to be a successful way of starting a season of fun. It was followed the next month by a card party, also in the social room. Another meeting took the form of a sleigh-ride, after which refreshments were served. Later another party was held at which the members had a choice of skating on the college rink or playing cards in the social room. In the spring a progressive game party was held in the Men's Union. The games consisted of indoor croquet, indoor horseshoe, ping pong, and other indoor games. Another meeting was a scavenger hunt after which members met to elect officers for the next year. The last meeting of the year was a picnic. A large number attended, thus ending a year of excellent entertainment.

The Honor Society has as an emblem a small silver R pin, which each member is entitled to wear after having had his name on the Honor Roll for one term. If, at the completion of a course, he has earned two and one-fourth honor points for each credit hour and has no grade less than C, he is entitled to a gold R. Honorable mention may be acquired by having had no grade less than C and having earned at least two honor points per credit hour during attendance at school.

Faculty adviser for the group is Mrs. Eide who has made all feel welcome at the parties and who has assisted in making plans for the many enjoyable evenings.

THE RURAL LIFE CLUB

THE Rural Life Club is an organization which has been influential in the rural department for nearly twenty-five years. All students enrolled in the rural courses are members of the organization and are given an opportunity to develop the qualities of leadership desirable for teachers in rural schools. For the past two years its enrollment has been increased due to the adoption of a two-year rural course for all rural teachers. This gives the club the advantage of experienced members and an organization that is continuous from year to year. Miss Jorstad acts as faculty adviser of the group.

Regular meetings of the Rural Life Club are held the first and third Thursday evenings of each month. The early part of the evening consists of a business meeting, the primary purpose of which is to give practice in parliamentary procedure essential for conducting school societies and community meetings. The remainder of the evening is devoted to programs of education and entertainment.

The interesting educational programs which have been given are the results of the efforts of the chairman of the program committee and the cooperation of the members. Some of the students who have given talks on particular problems are: Velma Livingston, Joyce Snow, Edith Stewart, Mary McCardle, and Doris Nystrom. Such problems as rural community organizations, rural school programs, choral speech, and music in rural schools were discussed. Others who have helped with the programs this year are: Miss Louise Hilder, Miss Stella Hendrickson and Professor Malott. Attendance at out of town rural meetings has been featured. Most of the sophomore members of the club went to the Pierce County school board convention at Ellsworth in October. Several students accompanied Miss Jorstad and Mr. Malott to Eau Claire on May fifteenth and reported a very worth while rural convention.

Programs of entertainment other than informational activities were also included in the year's meetings. Early in the year a picnic to welcome freshman members was held in Glen Park. The first indoor meeting was also devoted to playing "get-acquainted" games; and, as in previous years, a feeling of interest and cooperation among the members of the department was established. The last meeting before Christmas was given over to the playing of games and drawing of names for the exchange of Christmas cards. In January the social entertainment consisted of a sleigh-ride party at which most of the participants were unceremoniously dumped into snowbanks. After the ride refreshments were served and the new officers were elected. These officers have very ably led the club during the last half of the year.

During the last half of the winter and the first half of the spring terms, the sophomore students spent six weeks in rural school districts which are located from five to eighteen miles from the campus. The last Rural Life Club meeting before leaving for practice was extended so that farewells could be made. However, after six weeks of practice experience in a rural school the students usually regretted leaving their younger friends and the rural critic who had indeed been a friend to each of the inexperienced "student teachers." The rural critics are: Miss Bernice Hawkins at the Hammond Central School, Miss Florence Jenson at the Herum School, and Miss Ruth Nelson at the Angel Hill School.

On April twenty-ninth the sophomore members were entertained at the home of Professor and Mrs. Malott. After dinner a very enjoyable evening was spent around the fireplace.

THE PALETTE CLUB

THE most evident activity of the Palette Club this year has been the sponsoring of a series of exhibits of contemporary American paintings. The exhibits have been open to the public and have furnished an opportunity for everyone to see examples of notable modern art. The four exhibits have provided a means for the school and public to become acquainted with the work being done by artists living today.

Included in the series were works by such outstanding artists as John Martin, Georgia O'Keeffe, Peggy Bacon, and Marsden Hartley. A small jury of distinguished artists and art critics selected the pictures for the exhibits from hundreds submitted to them during the past year by foremost American artists.

Using the paintings in the fourth group as examples, Miss Alberta Greene, head of the art department, talked before a meeting of the Palette Club on April 28, on "How to Look at Modern Pictures." The meeting was open to the student body and to the public. A number of people from the local community attended this program.

The student body was invited to another program at which a discussion of surrealism was conducted by members of the executive committee. Joseph Hyde reported the history of the movement, and Gertrude Peterson spoke on the emotional quality of surrealist productions. Using an exhibit of surrealist pictures gathered by Gertrude Stephenson, the group discussed their reactions to individual compositions.

In accordance with a basic purpose of the Palette Club, many of the meetings have been planned to furnish the members with an opportunity for the recreation derived from creative expression.

During the fall term members, choosing individual projects, made Christmas cards and handicraft articles for Christmas presents. Through the remainder of the year projects were outlined by the officers for the group to do together. This year projects have been chosen which would acquaint the members with the fundamental principles of various artistic and handicraft processes. Clay modeling, leather tooling, and wood carving, and portrait sketching were among them.

A friendly, unified spirit was fostered in the society early in the year when the club's adviser, Miss Greene, entertained the group at her apartment. On the first evening after Easter vacation the organization held another party, this time in the social room.

This friendly spirit developed further during the month of May when the club went on a series of sketching tours. With the aid of Miss Greene's rich sketching experience, the group found real enjoyment in recording their impressions of scenes in and near River Falls.

THE MATHEMATICS CLUB

THE Mathematics Club is a comparatively recent organization. It was organized three years ago for the purpose of studying those topics of mathematics which do not fit into any course offered, or which time does not allow the members to study in class. All people who take mathematics courses and have a C average in these are allowed to become members.

The organization meets every second Wednesday of the month when a few of the members talk on mathematics topics.

Several programs of interest have been presented this year. The first program of the year was held October 14, 1936. The topic of discussion by George Freier was "The Beauty of Mathematics"; "Magic Circles" was discussed by Ruth Nelson.

On December 9, 1936, the Mathematics Club had a party in the social room. Games, puzzles, and a play, "The Eternal Triangle," provided the entertainment of the evening.

On January 13, 1937, Nolan Isaacson demonstrated the use of the Trigonograph with which one may multiply, divide, and find functions of angles much more easily than by ordinary methods. The New Number System based on the number twelve was presented by Ralph Baker.

At another meeting complex numbers were discussed by Nolan Isaacson and non-Euclidean geometry by Russell Gettinger. Mrs. Eide gave at this meeting an interesting talk on her trip to the Council of Teachers of Mathematics at Chicago.

At one of the meetings Galen Meier discussed the history of  $\pi$ . Kathleen Fuller told about Descartes and his work on analytical geometry, which was published in 1637, thus making this year the three hundredth anniversary.

One of the best programs of the year was a symposium on numerology presented by the following freshman students: Loren Lund, Willard Klugow, Carl Miller, Ulrich Bents, and Donald Monson.

The last meeting of the year was in the social room. Reynold Pedersen and Everett Compton reviewed two recent books on mathematics, "Mathematics for the Million" and "Men of Mathematics." After this games of mathematics were played and refreshments served.

THE SCIENCE CLUB

THE Science Club was organized in the spring of 1935 by a group of students desirous of creating an interest in current affairs in science. Meetings are held twice a month in the chemistry lecture room at which time programs are given which should appeal to all students interested in science.

Membership in the club is open to all students who are either majoring or minoring in science and to all students who have had ten credit hours of science. The student body is, however, invited to attend the meetings. The college science teachers are honorary members of the organization. Mr. R. E. Spriggs is the club's adviser.

The programs are made up of talks and demonstrations by faculty members, students, and outside speakers and of instructive motion pictures. During the past year the programs named below have been given.

On October fifteenth Lawrence Hope, the district conservation warden, gave a talk on the conservation movement in Wisconsin and showed two very interesting Conservation Department films entitled "Propagating Northern Pike," and "The White-tailed Deer."

On October twenty-ninth an inspection tour of River Falls' new sewage disposal plant was made. This plant is new and unique and was explained by William Hagestad, consulting engineer.

On January twelfth Mr. C. G. Stratton, head of the geography department, spoke on the subject of the calendar. He gave the history and evolution of the calendar and discussed the various proposed calendar changes.

On the twenty-sixth of January A. W. Plahn, the district oil inspector, demonstrated and explained the inspection of oils and fuels. In demonstrating, he performed the inspection of gasoline, kerosene, and motor oil.

On February ninth Lawrence Peterson of the River Falls Motor Company showed an instructive group of films on the motor industry. These films showed the entire process in the manufacture of an automobile from the raw to the finished product.

On February twenty-third R. E. Spriggs of the college faculty, discussed the subject, "What Is New in Auto-Power Design." Among the new trends discussed was the interesting subject of Diesel engines.

Perhaps the most interesting program of all was that of April sixth. The five reel film, "Jewels of Industry," was shown. This film gave the complete story of carborundum and its use in modern industry. The film was preceded by a short talk by Dr. R. E. Karges, who described his visit to the carborundum plant at Niagara Falls.

At the business meeting which followed the last meeting officers for the coming year were elected. The following were elected: Leonard Hermanson, president; Ralph Baker, vice-president; Frederick Johnson, secretary; and Russell Gettinger, treasurer.

DIE DEUTSCHE GESELLSCHAFT

DIE DEUTSCHE GESELLSCHAFT is a club open to all students interested in the German language or in German customs, arts, and personalities. As such it is in no sense an exclusive organization, but is designed to render its services to a large group. Only a reasonable degree of familiarity with the German language is expected of its members.

A German club had not existed on the campus for many years, but this year so great a demand was evidenced for such an organization that Die Deutsche Gesellschaft was organized last fall. The primary aims of the society as stated in its constitution are:

1. To afford those interested in German an opportunity for social contact.
2. To develop skill in using and understanding spoken German.
3. To gain a knowledge of German life and customs.
4. To learn to appreciate German arts.
5. To promote an understanding of contemporary German history and an acquaintance with great German personalities.

Meetings are held in the social room of South Hall on the first and third Thursdays of each month at 7:30 p. m.

The new organization has had a very successful initial season. Group singing of German songs during a part of each meeting has been one of the most popular activities of the society. In this way the entire membership participates in realizing several of the aims of the club and at the same time enjoys a novel form of recreation.

Whenever possible it has been customary to play various German games to enliven the social period following each program. This feature has been much enjoyed and has brought about a spirit of good fellowship coincident with practice in the use of the language.

In order to encourage a wide membership the club has not assessed regular dues but has simply made small charges for refreshments and other incidentals as the need arose.

On February 18 the club presented for the public a colorful program of German music that was especially enjoyed. Every type of German music was represented from the compositions of the great masters to the rollicking airs associated with German student life and the "Bier Garten." Groups participating included Mr. Rozehnal, Rozehnal's string ensemble, Herr Fritz and his German Band from the River Falls high school, Miss Ardelle Hamlett at the piano, and a group of vocal soloists and ensembles.

Two other meetings of special note were held in the spring. At the first meeting Dr. Karges gave a very lucid account of the scientific achievements of Goethe, that giant of versatility. The other meeting was a joint session with the Clef Club. Miss Hamlett gave an inclusive review of the Wagnerian opera, "Tristan," following which both groups participated in a dancing party in North Hall gymnasium.

Much credit for the success of the club must go to Mr. Whitenack, whose versatile knowledge, ready wit, and linguistic fluency made him a favorite speaker as well as adviser for the organization.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

PROFESSOR JOHN M. MAY, head of the agriculture department, was largely responsible for promoting the collegiate chapter of the Future Farmers of America which was organized at the beginning of the year. Mr. L. M. Sasman, state supervisor of vocational agriculture, spoke to the men of the agriculture department on the value of a collegiate chapter during the organization period.

The agricultural students believed that an organization of this kind would serve the needs of prospective Smith-Hughes agriculture teachers better than the Agrifallian society which for many years had filled the needs of the agriculture students. Because every Smith-Hughes high school agriculture department sponsors a Future Farmers chapter, the men of this department wanted experience and information concerning this line of their work.

Collegiate Future Farmer chapters are chartered by and are under the authority of the state associations of Future Farmers of America. The sole purpose of such chapters is the training of prospective teachers of vocational agriculture in their duties as local advisers of high school chapters.

The activities of the local chapter must be in harmony with the purposes, principles, and ideals of the National Future Farmers organization; the meetings are conducted according to the national ritual. A constitution was drawn up by Donald Aderhold, Francis Haugh, Michael Reagan and Louis Zahradka. This constitution states the rights and privileges of the organization, which also includes a system of degrees designed to stimulate advancement by the members.

An organization of degree teams to confer higher degrees on eligible members of neighboring high school chapters, the conducting of a rural school day to provide educational demonstrations and entertainment for rural school children, and the conducting of an educational meeting on Future Farmer activities for officers of high school Future Farmer chapters are the main activities of the River Falls Collegiate Chapter of Future Farmers of America. These are the activities with which agriculture teachers in the field will come in contact. They give prospective teachers experience and at the same time give them a chance to come in contact with the types of boys and girls with whom they will be working.

THE G. O. P.

DURING the past year the G. O. P. has met bi-monthly, one meeting a month for business and the other for cultural programs. The cultural meetings consisted of talks by various people on the campus and in the organization itself. The subjects for the meetings were topics of interest to everyone, such as new books, music, drama, and art.

Besides the meetings, numerous social functions were planned during the year. A dinner at Miss Greene's apartment, for which she is justly famous, started the year. Soon afterward the organization started plans for homecoming. There was a stunt for the big mass meeting and the annual homecoming G. O. P. dinner at Mrs. Brundage's home.

Just after Christmas fourteen new members were taken into the organization with all the fun (for the old members) of initiation week. Immediately afterward plans for the winter formal were formulated. The dance took place in the North Hall gym which was decorated on the winter theme. It turned out to be one of the best formals of the year and the G. O. P. girls rightly were proud of the financial success.

The biggest event of the year was the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the foundation of the G. O. P. Its history from the time when it was an active pep organization on the State Normal School campus to the social group which functions on this campus is very interesting. Former G. O. P. members are scattered all over this section of the country, many of them even in more distant places. Every effort was made to reach these members and invite them to the reunion luncheon which took place on Saturday of commencement week. It was inspirational to have these women come back to their school, laugh, and talk over the organization which they knew when they were here. Their enthusiasm for the present organization was most heartening and enabled everyone to get a new enthusiastic interest in the work, fun, and future of the G. O. P.
