The Waterford Times.

Vol. 1.

WATERFORD, JANUARY 15, 1874.

No. 1.

Local News.

The Stock Fair held yesterday was a success, as was expected. A large crowd of people were in attendance, and considerable property changed hands. The next Fair will be held Feb. 14, 1874.

Business of all kinds is brisk. Weather cold and wood high.

MIL. & St. L. AIR LINE.---
It is now believed by many that this Road will be built, and Waterford finally have a Railroad. Good-by Easterly. You can't have any bonds from Waterford now.

A large amount of wheat is purchased daily by the Waterford Mills.

All the stores in town are crowded with customers. It is because they are selling their goods so cheap, they say.

The Taxes in the town of Waterford are nearly all collected. Those in arrears had better walk up to Capt. Sander's office and settle.

Butter is worth 25c. and Eggs 20c. No change in the price of beer.

The Legislature is now in session. Gab. Bouck, of Oshkosh, is Speaker.

We learn that the Sons of Temperance have a large Lodge, over McLeish's Store, showing that we are not behind in this respect.

Time will not permit us to notice any marriages this week. No politics until next election.

WATERFORD TIMES, JANUARY 15, 1874.

"Never get in debt to your shoemaker, and then you can say your soul is your own." We heard this remark made by a Waterford shoemaker, and took the hint that he wanted his pay for the last pair of boots we had of him,

We learn that J. Rice sold a team for $300 at our Fair.

For choice steaks, mutton chops, &c., go to Whitley's. The editor of this paper patronizes him and weighs 200 lbs. A word to the wise is sufficient.

We noticed a large number of boys on the ice, fishing minnies. They reminded us of the Chinese kneeling to his Idols.

Fish is beginning to come into market. Pick-erel is worth about 10c. per foot.

The largest crowd ever assembled in Waterford at one time, attended our Fair. We was glad to see that our Hotels had ample accommodations for all. The Fair next month (the 14th), will be largely attended, no doubt.

We are under obligations to Mr. Aiken for a sack of his best brand of flour. It can't be beat. Mr. Aiken always remembers the printer.

TO THE DESTONDING.

Take this for granted, once for all,
There is neither Chance nor Fate,
And to sit and wait for the skies to fall,
Is to wait as the foolish wait.

The laurel longer for you must earn,
It is not of the things men lend,
And though the lesson be hard to learn,
The sooner the better, my friend.

That another's head can have your crown
Is a judgment all untrue,
And to drag this man or the other down
Will not in the least raise you!

The taxes to be raised in the Town of Waterford
this year, for state, county and town purposes, amount to $6,532.56.

Several advertisements are crowded out this week for want of room.

"Kleider machen Leute."--
If this saying is true, you had better order a new suit from McLeish. He knows how to fit you. We ordered a suit from him once to go a courting in, and married the best looking girl in Waterford.

We noticed our genial friend Ole Heg on the streets again. He has been away buying goods.

The price of the Waterford
Times is only 5c. a copy.
