Bonnie - Will CBC subscribe to Young Readers Review?

Preview of 1965 VACATION READING MATERIALS

There was such an enthusiastic response to the Council's first Vacation Reading Program last year that the CBC is again preparing display materials to help teachers, librarians, youth group leaders, and parents encourage summer reading. Because many people organize their vacation activities early, we plan to have all materials ready by February 1st. Order forms will be mailed to Calendar readers at that time.

The wise young man and his friend pictured in the new Vacation Reading poster (see front cover) know that one of the best things about long summer holidays is that there is plenty of time to read books. They—and their creator, Maurice Sendak—are strong advocates of the Council's slogan, "Vacation readers have more fun than anyone—except other vacation readers."

Because we wanted to share Mr. Sendak's drawing with you as soon as possible, we are showing you his preliminary sketch. In style and color, it is reminiscent of his Caldecott Award-winning book, WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE. We can guarantee that you will find the finished easel-back poster (75¢ each) even more delightful!

Mr. Sendak's poster will also be reproduced on bookmarks (100 for 50¢; 500 for $2.00) for vacation reading give-away.

New this year is Ed Emberley's airy mobile—a colorful collection of summery objects such as a tennis racket, watermelon, butterfly, and sailboat. (50¢ each). One of the pieces is, of course, a book whose open pages proclaim the Vacation Reading slogan.

Another "first" is the Vacation Reading Kit ($1.50), which will include a copy of the Sendak poster; 100 Sendak bookmarks; a mobile; a reprint of The Horn Book Magazine article on vacation reading, "No Eleventh Book," by Mary Amos McMillan (June 1964); and two blank, blue slit-cards.

Because many people were not aware of the Council's first Vacation Reading materials last year in time to include them in their summer plans, we are making some of the most popular items available again this year: easel-back posters by Robert McCloskey and Marcea Vasiliu (50¢ each); easel-back photographic poster plus a red slit-card reading "Your nearest library is at:" (25¢); bookmarks reproducing the Vasiliu poster (100 for 25¢); Reading on Vacation, a booklet of suggestions for encouraging children to read in leisure time (50¢); and decorated mimeograph paper by Vasiliu (box of 250 sheets for $1.25).

Please note that the prices given above are subject to change. Final prices and more detailed descriptions of the materials will be given in the Vacation Reading order form.

IN AND AROUND THE CHILDREN'S BOOK WORLD

A new book review magazine, Young Readers Review, edited by Phyllis Cohen, formerly the Children's Consultant in the Ramapo-Catskill (N.Y.) Library System and a lecturer in Children's Literature at the Pratt Institute Graduate Library School, will be issued monthly, September through June. A subscription is $5.00 for 10 issues from: P.O. Box 11, Homecrest Station, Brooklyn, New York 11229.

Two books by Cathrine Barr, SAMMY SEAL OF THE CIRCUS and THE RUNAWAY CHIMPS (Walck), are available in Initial Teaching Alphabet editions (i/t/a).

"Watch Your Language—You're Writing for Young People" by John and Patricia Beatty and "What The Horn Book Means to Me" by Marion Benasutti will be among the articles included in the February issue of The Horn Book Magazine.

Bookmark for Parents

"PARENTS . . . If you want your children to have the most satisfaction with books, here are selected lists and books about children's reading that will help you make good choices."

This is the invitation extended to parents, who are concerned about their children's reading, in the new Bookmark for Parents. Prepared in consultation with The Westchester Library System, the bookmark (red type on white paper) briefly lists some reliable sources for obtaining reviews and recommendations of old favorites and current books.

Single copies are available free from the Council if the request is accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope. The bookmark may be ordered in quantities of 100 for 25¢ by libraries, schools, P.T.A.'s, bookstores, and civic organizations.

The two young gentlemen pictured on the poster here are strongly in favor of the thought behind the slogan, "A Book is to Own." Although their reading tastes vary—one is reading a favorite children's classic; the other, a biography of a baseball hero—both agree that it's great to have their own books, which they can read whenever they wish.

So many librarians and teachers have requested copies of this easel-back, two-color poster, which was prepared originally for bookstores, that the Council now is making it generally available at 25¢ each. What a good way to show youngsters that reading is fun!

AWARDS AND PRIZES

The 1964 Hans Christian Andersen Award was given to René Guillot of France by the International Board on Books for Young People. The Medal was awarded to M. Guillot for all of his books, including THE FANTASTIC BROTHER and RIDERS OF THE WIND (Rand McNally). Canadian author, Sheila Burnford (THE INCREDIBLE JOURNEY, Little, Brown); English author, Pauline Clarke (RETURN OF THE TWELVE, Coward); and American author, Elizabeth Speare (THE BRONZE BOW, Houghton) were included on the Honour List. Madeleine L'Engle, author of A WRINKLE IN TIME (Farrar), was named as a Runner-up.

ISLAND OF THE BLUE DOLPHINS by Scott O'Dell (Houghton) received the first Nene Award (1963-64). Chosen by the children of Hawaii and named after the State Bird, the Nene Award will be given annually. Runners-up were CHARLOTTE'S WEB by E. B. White (Harper); and THE INCREDIBLE JOURNEY by Sheila Burnford (Little, Brown), which tied with OLD YELLER by Fred Gipson (Harper).

In the November 1, 1964, fall children's book section, The New York Times published its choice of the ten best illustrated books of 1964. The titles, with their illustrators and publishers, were named in the following order: THE CHARGE OF THE LIGHT BRIGADE, the Provencens (Golden Press); RAIN MAKES APPLESAUCE, Marvin Bileck (Holiday); THE GIRAFFE OF KING CHARLES X, Miche Wynants (McGraw); CASEY AT THE BAT, Leonard E. Fisher (Watts); THE HAPPY OWLS, Celestino Piatti (Atheneum); THE WAVE, Blair Lent (Houghton); EXACTLY ALIKE, Evaline Ness (Scribner's); THE LIFE OF A QUEEN, Colette Portal (Braziller); THE BAT-POET, Maurice Sendak (Macmillan); and I'LL SHOW YOU CATS, Ylla (Harper).

AWARDS AND PRIZES MATERIALS AND INFORMATION

The 1964/1965 supplement of Children's Books: Awards and Prizes, listing the most recent winners of more than 40 honors, will be ready for mailing following the announcement of the Newbery-Caldecott winners on March 8th. The supplement is 25¢; the original booklet (giving the background of each award and the 1960/1961 winners) is 50¢; and the 1961/1962, 1962/1963, and 1963/1964 supplements are 25¢ each.

The 1965 Newbery and Caldecott bookmarks will be shipped in time to reach you on March 8th (barring possible delays in the mail) if we receive your order before March 1st. Each briefly describes the history of the medal and lists the 1965 winner and runners-up as well as all the previous winners. Please be sure to indicate which bookmark(s) you wish to receive. Each is 100 for $1.00.

Newbery-Caldecott Display Kits, containing a blue and gold stand for the current winners and two slit-cards in the form of gold medals with blue ribbons to identify the previous year's winners, are still available for $2.00 each. Additional slit-cards are 75¢ a pair.

When placing orders on all of the above materials, please enclose remittance with orders under $5.00 and send them to the Children's Book Council. Please do not send stamps.

For an information sheet on the Newbery and Caldecott Awards, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Council with your request.

IN THIS SEASON

Only recently published books are highlighted in this column as we wish to bring new titles, which have not yet been extensively reviewed and circulated, to the attention of Calendar readers. There are, of course, many older titles available for each occasion.

The following symbols have been used to indicate approximate grade levels: P—Pre-reader; LE—Lower Elementary; UE—Upper Elementary; and J—Jr. & Sr. High School.

January • Scribner's suggests SUMI'S PRIZE by Uchida, LE, a story set in Japan, to usher in the New Year.

Three books for reading on Paul Revere's birthday are PAUL REVERE'S RIDE by Longfellow, illus. by Galdone (Crowell) LE; LET'S GO WITH PAUL REVERE by Wolfe (Putnam's) UE; and PAUL REVERE: The Man Behind the Legend by Green (Messner) J.

In 1959, Alaska became the 49th State. Exciting stories of this State include ROBBIE AND THE SLED DOG RACE by Machtetanz (Scribner's) LE; FISHERMAN'S CHOICE by Pedersen (Atheneum) UE; and TRAP PIRATES IN ALASKA by Erskine (Abelard) J.

Some fictional and factual books about the first U.S. balloon ascent and balloons are THE OTHER END OF THE STRING by Monath (Viking) LE; GEORGE WASHINGTON AND THE FIRST BALLOON FLIGHT by Lindop (Whitman) LE; THE BRAVE BALLOON OF BENJAMIN BUCKLEY by Wersba (Atheneum) LE & UE; and THADDEUS LOWE: Uncle Sam's First Airman by Sims (Putnam's) UE & J. And a section on balloons appears in AIRCRAFT AT WORK by Elting (Harvey) UE.

Books for honoring inventive Ben Franklin's birthday include THE KITE THAT WON THE REVOLUTION by Asimov (Houghton) UE & J; and THE MANY WORLDS OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN by Donovan (American Heritage) J.

Appropriate for reading during International Printing Week are PRINTING: Tool of Freedom by Dean (Prentice) UE; BEHIND THE HEADLINES by Faber (Pantheon) J; and THE STORY OF MODERN PRINTING by Simon (Harvey) J.

Macmillan suggests their edition of ALICE IN WONDERLAND AND THROUGH THE LOOKING-GLASS (LE & UE) for reading on Lewis Carroll's birthday.

On the anniversary of the opening of the first commercial telephone exchange, youngsters might find THE TELEPHONE by Brinton (Day) LE; YOUR TELEPHONE AND HOW IT WORKS by the Schneiders (McGraw) UE & J; and OUT OF SILENCE INTO SOUND by Burlingame (Macmillan) UE & J, interesting reading. COMMUNICATIONS by Colby (Coward) LE & UE, also includes a section on modern telephones.

Young politicians might wish to read TRIUMPHANT ADVENTURE, The Story of Franklin D. Roosevelt by Cavanah (Rand McNally) UE; or THE FDR STORY by Peare (Crowell) J, on Franklin D. Roosevelt's birthday. More on FDR appears in PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES by Lengyel (Golden Press) UE.

February • Among the books for aviation buffs to read on Charles Lindbergh's birthday are FLIGHT TODAY AND TOMORROW by Hyde (McGraw) UE & J; and American Heritage's THE HISTORY OF FLIGHT (Golden Press) J.

Good reading for the legendary "Babe" Ruth's birthday is to be found in HEROES OF THE WORLD SERIES by Silverman (Putnam's) UE; and STARS OF THE SERIES by Gies & Shoemaker (Crowell) J.

Cub Scouts may want to celebrate Boy Scout Week by reading CALVIN AND THE CUB SCOUTS by Martin (Putnam's) LE. ANYONE CAN CAMP IN COMFORT by Johnson (McKay) J, is also pertinent then.

Viking suggests THE SNOWY DAY and WHISTLE FOR WILLIE by Keats, P; and MY DOG RINTY by Ets & Tarry, LE, as appropriate books for the youngest readers during Negro History Week. Other books include

SWORD OF THE HAUSAS by Hennessy & Sauter (Washburn) UE; MARTIN LUTHER KING: The Peaceful Warrior by Clayton (Prentice) UE; TITUBA OF SALEM VILLAGE by Petry (Crowell) J; and TO THE TOP OF THE WORLD, The Story of Peary and Henson by Angell (Rand McNally) J.

Lothrop recommends reading THE WEATHER: From Ancient Times to the Space Age by Ross, J, in honor of the U.S. Weather Service, which was initiated in 1870.

JUST LIKE ABRAHAM LINCOLN by Waber (Houghton) LE; and LIFE IN LINCOLN'S AMERICA by Cross (Random) J, are among the many new and old books suggested for reading on Lincoln's birthday.

St. Valentine's Day—See section elsewhere in this issue for a listing of books appropriate for this holiday.

Older children who plan to be engineers may wish to read ENGINEERS' DREAMS by Ley (Viking); DELIGHTS OF THE SLIDE RULE by Clason (Crowell); and THE STORY OF COMPUTERS by Piper (Harcourt), all J, during National Engineering Week.

"Books—Eyes on the World" is the theme for the 1965 Catholic Book Week. Suggested titles for reading then are THE DOVE BOOKS, stories from the Bible, by Winstone & Warbler (Macmillan) P & LE; and A MIRACLE FOR MEXICO by Niggli (N.Y. Graphic) UE & J. Crowell also suggests the BEANY MALONE books by Weber, J.

During National Brotherhood Week, children with an interest in others of different backgrounds will wish to read DANCE, DANCE, AMY-CHAN by Hawkinson (Whitman) LE; THE STORY OF WILLIAM PENN by Aliko (Prentice) P & LE; MEET MIKI TAKINO by Copeland (Lothrop) LE; THE PEOPLE DOWNSTAIRS And Other City Stories by Bacmeister (Coward) LE; A BOY OF OLD PRAGUE by Ish-Kishor (Pantheon) UE; ONE SUMMER'S SECRET by de Jong (McKay) UE; HAPPY BIRTHDAYS 'ROUND THE WORLD by Johnson (Rand McNally) UE; THE LONG ESCAPE by Werstein (Scribner's) J; STRANGERS IN AFRICA by Davis & Ashabranner (McGraw) J; and A CASTLE FOR THE KOPCHEKS by Stagg (Macmillan) J.

March • Bookworms can join young artists in celebrating Children's Art Month. While the latter create, the former can read good books about art, such as LET'S IMAGINE COLORS by Wolff (Dutton) P & LE; WONDERFUL STUFF: The Story of Clay by Russell (Rand McNally) LE; GAINSBOROUGH and WINSLOW HOMER by Ripley (Lippincott) UE; WHAT IS A MASTERPIECE by Willard (Putnam's) J; A PICTURE IS A PICTURE: A Look at Modern Painting by Rogers (Harcourt) J; THE MEANING AND WONDER OF ART by Gettings (Golden Press) J; THE PANTHEON STORY OF ART FOR YOUNG PEOPLE by Ruskin (Pantheon) J; HOW TO DRAW COSTUMES AND CLOTHES by Zaidenberg (Abelard) J; and STORY OF DESIGN by Downer (Lothrop) all ages.

A biography for youthful physicists to read on Albert Einstein's birthday is ALBERT EINSTEIN: Theoretical Physicist by Forsee (Macmillan) J.

Small mother's helpers may spend Fannie Farmer's birthday reading THE SUGAR MOUSE CAKE by Zion (Scribner's) LE; while their older sisters may experiment with some of the recipes in THE SEVENTEEN COOKBOOK (Macmillan) J.

Young people who enjoy Robert Frost's poetry and wish to know more about him as a person may want to read ROBERT FROST: America's Poet by Faber (Prentice) UE. A celebration on his birthday might include reading his poems which are in ROOFS OF GOLD: Poems to Read Aloud, compiled by Padraic Colum (Macmillan) J.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

April 25-May 1, 1965

"Know What You're Talking About—Read"

We would appreciate your cooperation in bringing our mailing list up-to-date. If The Calendar is being sent to the wrong address or person, please drop us a typewritten or printed note, giving both the old and new listings. We want to make sure that you don't miss a single issue.

At The Top Of The Flatiron Building

Lorrie Lewis

Two friends of the Council from the Westchester Library System, Children's Consultant Anne Izard (left) and Public Relations Director Alice Norton (right), stopped by recently to tell us about some of their new projects.

They reported that Westchester County booksellers will receive equal billing with member libraries of the WLS in a new pamphlet, which is being prepared under the supervision of Adult Services Consultant David Turiel. This booklet, which will be distributed with the Council's "A Book is to Own" poster to member libraries, the 30 stores on the list, and other organizations, suggests to students and the general reader the advantages of buying books as well as borrowing them from the library.

Energetic Miss Izard has also acted as consultant for the Council's new Bookmark for Parents and the annual Awards and Prizes booklets. For the second year, she is serving as Chairman of the ALA—CBC Joint Committee.

Incidentally, the pictures on the wall behind them are photographs of some of the past presidents of the Children's Book Council.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY READING!

Many Calendar readers will undoubtedly be planning festivities for St. Valentine's Day, so we are listing below some recent books for young people about love and friendship.

The very youngest readers are bound to be enchanted by THE WAY MOTHERS ARE by Schlein (Whitman); MAY I BRING A FRIEND? by De Regniers (Atheneum); MY FRIEND CHARLIE by Flora (Harcourt); and THE TURTLE AND THE DOVE by Freeman (Viking).

Children of lower elementary school age love celebrating Valentine's Day by exchanging cards and having parties. Good for reading aloud during the festivities are: MISS FLORA MCFLIMSEY'S VALENTINE by Mariana (Lothrop); THE GREEDY ONE by Martin (Rand McNally); THE BEST OF FRIENDS by Aldridge (Parnassus); THE GENTLE KNIGHT by Schickel (Abelard); and THE BEST-LOVED DOLL by Caudill (Holt).

Valentine's Day books for the upper elementary age child include: BEST FRIEND by Simon (Lothrop); MY GREAT-GRANDFATHER AND I by Kruss (Atheneum); FARAWAY FRIENDS by Thompson (Holiday); and TURKISH FAIRY TALES by Ekrem (Van Nostrand).

Among the many romantic stories for young teens are: THE DEFIANT HEART by Montgomery (Duell); THIS THING CALLED LOVE by Knott (Follett); ANNUZZA: A Girl of Romania by Seuberlich (Rand McNally); YOUNG AND FAIR by Du Jardin (Lippincott); IF A HEART RINGS—ANSWER by Mead (Dutton); A HUSBAND FOR HANNAH by Holm (Abelard); and THE DIANE STORIES by Cavanna (Macrae Smith). A Valentine book for poetry lovers is LOVE SONNETS, selected and with commentary by Louis Untermeyer, and illustrations by Ben Shahn (Golden Press).
