INDEPENDENT NURSING PRACTICE WITH CLIENTS

By M. Lucille Kinlein, R.N., B.A., M.S.N.E.

Nurses everywhere are talking about this extraordinary new book! In it the first American nurse to "hang out her shingle," tells how her independent practice came to be; relates her philosophy of independent nursing practice with emphasis on how it differs from medical practice; explains how she made various aspects of her philosophy operational; and in an extensive section on client examples, spells out the results of nursing judgements and shows nursing measures and their implementation. A book every nurse should have!
