1991-92

Twenty-Fifth Edition

The Wisconsin State University Conference presents the twenty-fifth edition of its RECORDS BOOK as a means of informing the educators, writers, broadcasters and staff of the excellence of athletic competition displayed by teams and individual student-athletes of member institutions. This booklet is published annually to provide a record of all sports in the Conference-sponsored program.

It is the function of the Wisconsin State University Conference to encourage intercollegiate athletics on an amateur basis, with institutional control, and under the instruction of coaches who have faculty status, in order to assure maximum educational benefit from intercollegiate athletic contests among the member institutions.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM

The University of Wisconsin System marked its twentieth anniversary in the fall of 1991. The UW System is composed of 13 universities and 13 two-year UW Centers, and UW-Extension which provides outreach services from offices in every county. Although only 20 years old, the UW System was one of the first statewide higher educational systems in the nation and has pioneered in developing coordinated and high quality programs and services on a statewide basis. System administrative offices are in Madison.

Universities are at Eau Claire, Green Bay, La Crosse, Madison, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Kenosha (Parkside), Platteville, River Falls, Stevens Point, Menomonie (Stout), Superior and Whitewater. Centers are at Baraboo, Fond du Lac, Janesville, Manitowoc, Marinette, Marshfield, Menasha, Rice Lake, Richland Center, Sheboygan, Waukesha, Wausau, and West Bend.

Rob Neta of Oshkosh Football's MVP

Oshkosh wide receiver Rob Neta was the 1990 recipient of the Wisconsin State University Conference most valuable football player award presented each year by the Milwaukee Journal.

Neta, a senior from Shawano, caught 44 passes during the 1990 season for a school-record 992 yards and eight touchdowns. His average of 22.5 yards per reception and 99.2 yards per game led the WSUC and ranked among the leaders in NCAA Division III. PREVIEW OF 1991 WSUC FOOTBALL SEASON

"Balance" became the byword in WSUC football long ago, but that doesn't prevent coaches from picking favorites. This year defending champion Whitewater and runnerup La Crosse get most of the support when coaches assess the 1991 season. Those teams look good again because of their veteran players returning and overall depth.

Whitewater coach Bob Berezowitz lists 69 returning lettermen. Of course, he rewarded his squad last year because of their undefeated championship team but that large number also signifies a strong nucleus. It includes all-conference quarterback Dennis Bogacz and standout running backs Sunni Muqddim and Travis Talton, the latter coming back from a season-long leg injury a year ago.

La Crosse produced the stingiest defense in the league last year and River Falls coach John O'Grady said the Eagles "have the best defense I've ever seen in this league." A strong nucleus of that defense returns, including down linemen Jon Wiltzius and a pair of all-conference linebackers, John Mirasola and Jon Lauscher. Coach Roger Harring also has a quality quarterback in Dennis Goettl and a fine sophomore running back, John Janke, who made the all-conference second team as a freshman.

According to coaches, the balance begins after Whitewater and La Crosse. The race looks like a tossup from the No. 3 spot right on down. Even Superior, which has fallen on hard times in recent years, scares some coaches after the Yellowjackets' marked improvement in 1990 under first-year coach Ted Thompson. O'Grady sees Superior winning anywhere from three to six games.

Oshkosh is one of those teams that figures to improve. Coach Ron Cardo has quarterback Greg DePagter back with a year's experience under his belt. As a freshman DePagter moved into the vacancy left by the transfer of Bogacz to Whitewater and did a respectable job. He ranked fourth in conference total offense and by late in the season was operating like a veteran.

Platteville is facing a transitional season, trying to survive without versatile halfback Dave Shumway. But coach George Chryst starts the campaign with a seasoned quarterback, Eric Wixom, the WSUC total offense leader and No. 2 passer in 1990. Still, Chryst must fill a lot of gaping holes on both sides of the football.

O'Grady finds himself in the same boat with Chryst, and they aren't out there enjoying some nothern Wisconsin fishing. The ranks are depleted at Ramer Field and O'Grady must rush some of his highly regarded recruits into the breach possibly earlier than he wishes. The wishbone still will be there to bedevil opponents, but the Falcons must shore up their defense to remain competitive.

Stevens Point, like Oshkosh, has a sophomore quarterback, Roger Hauri, who should make giants strides this fall following his solid freshman experience a year ago. Hauri was the conference's third-ranked passer, averaging 190 yards a game through the air in 1990 while throwing for 10 touchdowns. Coach John Miech also has enough depth to make a serious run at the contenders.

Stout coach Rich Lawrence continues to struggle with the consistency factor. The Blue Devils won four of their first five games last season, their only loss being by three points to eventual champion Whitewater. Then injuries robbed them of their starting quarterback as well as some other key performers and the bubble burst. They lost their last five games. If Lawrence can build adequate depth, or at least shake that injury bugaboo, his Blue Devils might be able to make a run.

Eau Claire is coming off a nightmarish season and there will be a host of new faces in the Blugold lineup. But, coach Jim Lind sees his team as having "great chemistry and good leadership," some intangibles that might have been missing during last season's struggle.

Superior is going to be an interesting team to watch because of the giant strides made last year under Thompson. Anybody who lined up across the line from the 'Jackets last fall felt the new commitment and it showed up statistically.

Although Whitewater and La Crosse seem to be frontrunners, as Stevens Point sports information director Terry Owens put it, "Parity seems to become more of a reality each season in this conference. Teams have to be up every week or a loss is a real possibility.

PROSPECTS FOR 1991

The Bugolds cannot hit bottom any harder or be any more frustrated than they were last year when they were coming off a 7-3 season and tabbed as a contender because of a large senior class. A series of injuries and breakdowns caused the team to plummet to last place in the conference and finish 2-8 overall. The record was much harsher than the performance as the Bugolds dropped three games by three to five points and three more by nine to 11 points.

The offense will be missing five all-conference players with the departure of running backs Cary Osborn and Chris Herzog, lineman Rob Buck, wide receivers Dan Kelner and Pete Balistrieri and four-year quarterback starter John Clark, who rewrote the school's passing records.

Steve Rohrscheib, a former prep standout at Mondovi, which also produced one-time UW-Madison and Blugold standout Jess Cole, takes over at quarterback. Aaron Meixner is the type of all-purpose running back that fits well into coach Jim Lind's multiple pro offense. Redshirts C.J. Brantner and Matt Annis also can catch the ball in addition to being outstanding runners.

Bill Johnston, who has sub-4.6 speed in the 40, returns to wide receiver from the tight end position he played last year. He has caught 76 passes for 1,347 yards and nine touchdown in 27 starts over the past three seasons. John Finnigan, who started four games last year when Balistreri went down with a broken hand, Eddie Bray, who possesses 4.4 speed, and senior Travis Van Vleet, a prep teammate of Rohrscheib's, are other top receiving contenders.

In the offensive line, Tim Soley is healthy after being sidelined twice last season with knee problems. Guard Mike Mitra, tackle Mike Stolarzyk and center Don Gruhlke bring experience to the forward wall. Mitra, one of the strongest men on the squad, started seven games as a freshman. Stolarzyk started all 10 games as a sophomore.

The most experienced Blugolds on defense are linebackers Jeff Parris, Ty Glasser, Dana Strain, Guy Brown, Bob Miklesh, Jeff Hebert and Todd Hoytink. Brown and Miklesh are two of the fastest players on the squad, while Parris, Hebert and Strain rank among the hardest hitters. Redshirt Tracy Fox also could help on the defensive side. One of Lind's biggest concerns last year was an adequate pass rush, but he hopes to have found the personnel to solve that problem this season.

PROSPECTS FOR 1991

The Eagles don't have far to climb in their quest to recapture the WSUC football championship they last won in 1989. Coach Roger Harring's club slumped to second place last fall, losing only to champion Whitewater, 24-14, during the regular season. La Crosse earned a berth in the NAIA Division II playoffs for the third straight year, bowing to Peru (Neb.) State, 24-3, in the opening round.

Harring lost some high-powered offensive players, including all-conference tight end Bob Lowney, tackle Greg Daniels and running back Dan Bridges, a breakaway threat who was especially dangerous on punt and kickoff returns. The coach must also rebuild his kicking game, which will be without punter Eric Jahn and placekicker Chris Schumacher, both of whom earned all-conference at their specialties last fall.

On the plus side, quarterback Dennis Goettl, who led the Eagles to their 1989 championship as a sophomore, returns for his senior season. Goettl passed for 1,217 yards and seven touchdowns in eight conference games last year. Complementing him in the backfield will be John Janke, a 6-1, 210-pound running back who made the all-conference second team in 1990 as a freshman. Janke finished third in conference rushing with 677 yards in seven games, an average of 97 yards a game and 4.6 yards a carry.

Defensively the Eagles should show much of their traditional strength with down linemen Jon Wiltzius and linebackers John Mirasola and Jon Lauscher, returning for their senior year. All three received all-conference recognition last fall. Another returning down lineman, Joel Traimer, earned second-team honors. Missing from the defense, though, are end Andy Pretasky and cornerback Casey Campbell, both all-conference performers. Campbell intercepted four passes last season.

The key to the offense is Goettl, who has a 21-4 record as a starter. He struggled at times last year, throwing 12 interceptions. "Dennis has certain leadership and athletic qualities that you look for in an athlete, especially a quarterback," Harring said. "Last year he just tried to do too much on occasion." Junior Curt Hughes and senior Todd Schackelford are expected to back up Goettl.

PROSPECTS FOR 1991

Coach Ron Cardo is still trying to find the key that would bring Oshkosh its first WSUC football championship since 1976. The Titans shared fifth place with River Falls last year and wound up 4-5-1 overall. They weren't projected to finish even that strong after losing two-year quarterback Dennis Bogacz, who transferred to Whitewater.

Undaunted Cardo didn't waste time worrying about his misfortune but instead went about building for the future. This attitude and the emergence of freshman quarterback Greg DePagter from Sheboygan (North) helped make the season exciting and the return of DePagter this fall bodes well for the future. The 6-2, 190-pound sophomore displayed his athletic talents on the baseball field as well last spring and brings a new confidence to the Titan gridiron.

DePagter shook his freshman jitters quickly last fall and wound up completing 103 of 228 passes for 1,661 yards and 13 touchdowns. He will be complemented in the backfield by Chris Kujawa, who rushed for 546 yards in eight games last season, averaging 68.3 yards a game and 4.1 yards a carry.

Key returnees in the offensive line include center Todd Kultgen, guards Bob Czarnecki and Brian Vander Velde and tackles Bill Rotta and John Vergeront. Missing from this year's offensive unit is wide receiver Rob Neta who was named WSUC most valuable player after catching 44 passes for 992 yards and eight touchdowns last fall. That gave him an average gain of 22.5 yards for each reception.

Five of the Titans' six leading tacklers from last year return to bolster the defense. They include linebackers Torris Epps and Chris Campshire, tackle Jeff Rowan and defensive backs Jim Catalano and Rick Grable. The secondary should be solid with Catalano, Grable, John Jackson, Jason Kuhaupt, Mark Meyer and Jon Susitti all possessing considerable experience.

The Titans have three straight home games in the middle of the season against Stevens Point, Eau Claire and Drake, but road trips to River Falls, Platteville, La Crosse and Whitewater pose some real problems when a team like Oshkosh is trying to fight its way out of the middle of the pack and into a contending role in the highly competitive WSUC.

George Chryst faces a huge rebuilding job as the Pioneers prepare for the 1991 season. Not only has the veteran head coach lost versatile halfback Dave Shumway, who finished his brilliant career as Platteville's all-time rushing and scoring leader, but all those offensive grunts who cleared the way in front have completed their eligibility, too.

But, Chryst is no stranger to challenges. He faced them since his days as coach at Edgewood High School in Madison, as an assistant at the UW-Madison and the previous 12 years at the helm of the Pioneers. Easing the way is the fact that quarterback Eric Wixom returns following an outstanding junior season in which he led the WSUC in total offense and wound up as the second-ranked passer.

Although Wixom has lost three of his favorite targets, he still has the luxury of throwing to a pair of talented tight ends, Rod Johnson and Dan Runde. The two combined for 24 catches a year ago, with Johnson averaging a hefty 25.7 yards per reception. Randy Hughes is back at fullback but the search is hot and heavy to find additional running backs, especially someone with speed and football quickness.

Some holes also exist in the defense, although the problem is not as serious on that side of the football. Most difficult to replace are all-conference free safety Barry Baganz and linebackers Rick Verhaalen and Dave Rindfleisch. Key returnees on defense are end Jeff Keuter and nose guard Ken Nies, tackle Mike Vannoy and linebacker Mark Lehnher.

The Pioneers enjoyed a fine 7-3 season last fall. It might have been impossible for anyone to catch unbeaten Whitewater, but Platteville could have finished a strong second except for a pair of two-point losses to Stevens Point and La Crosse. These are the kind of lapses Chryst will try to avoid this fall.

Developing an offensive line rates first priority heading into preseason, followed by finding quality running backs and wide receivers. "We must develop quickly," the coach emphasized. "Playing Whitewater and La Crosse so early in the season, we'll either be in the thick of the race or out of it early."

PROSPECTS FOR 1991

Your've heard of "Air Eau Claire" and "Air Jordan," how about "Air Wishbone!" That's how Falcon coach John O'Grady laughingly refers to his run-oriented offense, which perennially leads the WSUC in rushing, whether Mike Farley is calling the shots or O'Grady, one of Mike's leading disciples.

River Falls will run the football again this fall and you can bet the house payment on it. Oh, the Falcons will pass once in a while for shock value. Actually, they completed 16 of 42 passes in eight conference games last year, about par for the course in O'Grady's scheme of things.

Missing from the offense this year, though, are all-conference running back Chris Krueger, who led the WSUC last season with 116 yards a game rushing and five yards a carry, as well as 300-pound guard Jim Schulenberg, another all-conference performer. Also gone is quarterback Chad Johnson, an integral part of last year's attack with his 60 yards a game on the ground.

Sophomore Eric Pearson of Kewaskum is the only returning quarterback but that never seems to cause problems at River Falls, where signal-callers usually develop quickly in O'Grady's wishbone. Back for his senior year is halfback Price Davis of McFarland, a 5-7, 175-pound speedster who gives the Falcons a breakaway threat. His touchdown runs of 50 yards against Stout and 46 against Superior attest to his explosive potential.

Graduation of all-conference Arlin Frank as well as Eric Elmhorst and Pat Murphy left three huge holes in the defensive line. Linebacker shouldn't be a problem, though, with John Golden, Kevin Hermanson, Kevin Klefstad, Jason Knutson, Mike Olson, Dan Purfeerst, John Rivard and Steve Walker available. The Falcons must shore up the secondary after yielding a conference-high 241 yards-a-game through the air.

O'Grady sees his team finishing in the middle of the pack in his third year as Falcons coach. Although he admits to having enjoyed the best recruiting year since returning to his alma mater, he adds, "Predicting this is harder than winning the lottery."

PROSPECTS FOR 1991

Stevens Point coaches and followers fretted at the start of last season about how the Pointer offense would fare without all-American quarterback Kirk Baumgartner. The outcome wasn't as traumatic as feared. Coach John Miech's charges compiled a 6-4 record in 1990, 4-4 on the conference. The Pointers discovered there is life after Baumgartner.

Going into 1991, though, Miech is wondering where his new defensive standouts will come from after losing the foundation of that unit, including all-conference linebackers Bob Bostad and Craig Verhagen. All is not lost, however, because of the presence of linebacker Andy Chilcote, all-WSUC honorable mention last fall, and defensive backs Jerry Olszewski and Kevin Schedlbauer, who had seven pass interceptions between them last season.

The nucleus of the defensive interior line could hardly be mistaken for refugees from a summer "Kiddie Camp." This unit includes returnees John Schmitt (6-4, 250), Dave Schepp (6-3, 250) and Eric McGath (6-0, 225). The Pointers ranked third in overall defense in the conference last fall and should do at least that well this year.

The Pointers appear healthy on offense, with sophomore Roger Hauri having nailed down the quarterback job with a strong showing during the second half of last season. The return of the squad's top five rushers, including Chris Moore and Jason Sicchio, also bodes well.

Hauri, 6-2 and 195 pounds from Richmond, Ill., ranked third in total offense and passing in the conference while only a freshman. He averaged 190 yards a game passing and threw for 10 touchdowns. His favorite targets return and this combination excites Pointer partisans. Scott Zwirschitz (6-5, 220) caught 30 passes in eight conference games last year and Sicchio grabbed 27.

The offensive line contains some voids because of the graduation of guard Tom Johnson and the departure of all-American tackle Pete Lucas, who opted for the National Football League draft following his junior year. The 6-4, 310 lineman was chosen by the Atlanta Falcons in the 10th round.

PROSPECTS FOR 1991

Coach Rich Lawrence faces a monumental task of replacing some high-powered performers on both side of the football this preseason but the veteran mentor approaches the challenge with his typical optimism. Lawrence always sees prosperity just around the corner and this fall is no exception.

Possibly his biggest chore centers around the quarterback position, which became critical at mid-season last year with the loss of senior Paul Lehmann due to injury. Freshman Brian Amundsen took the reins from Lehmann and performed well but it was on-the-job training which can be difficult in college football.

Amundsen returns and should profit from his freshman experience. Lawrence also added recruits Jim Miklesh and Steve Kramer, both of whom should add an interesting mix to fuel some competition at that position. The Blue Devils need a competent triggerman because they managed to score only 33 points in their last five games a year ago.

Equally perplexing is the defensive secondary where Lawrence will be without his son, Mike, and Mike Wilson, both all-conference last season. Also gone are Jack Trotter, another starting defensive back, and linebacker Anthony Fisher. Newcomer Brad Martin could bolster the secondary. Linebackers Andy Krueger and Darin Mrachek anchor the defense.

On the plus side offensively, running back Rich Vargas returns after averaging 92 yards a game and 5.2 yards a carry in four outings as a sophomore. Rod Boho and Chris Maurina also are returning running backs. Chad Halama and Stewart Veness return at wide receiver.

Lawrence figures, "This could be an interesting year in the fact that our offensive and defensive lines look solid. We could be a contender if the players in the program will mature. There is some talent."

If the coach's enthusiasm should rub off and make his Blue Devils over-achieve, this could be an interesting year at Menomonie.

PROSPECTS FOR 1991

A refreshing aura of optimism swept Superior last year with the arrival of Ted Thompson as new head football coach. He brought with him his own special brand of competitive zeal and changed the focus of Yellowjacket football. That all changed, though, when Thompson resigned suddenly in June.

Although the casual observer might not have seen the improvement, one glaring statistic illustrates the point. The won-lost records don't show it. The Yellowjackets were 1-9 in 1989 and 1-8 last season. But, the 1989 team gave up an incredible 50.3 points a game. Thompson's squad last fall allowed only 21.3 points a game.

The Yellowjackets lost by two points to Stout and three to Oshkosh and defeated Eau Claire. They learned what it means to be competitive and their intensity and confidence grew as the season progressed.

Thompson's successor, who wasn't selected yet when this book went to press, knows it's imperative the improvement must continue this year. The new coach will have 34 lettermen returning, including nine starters on each of the offensive and defensive units. Principal losses were quarterback Bob DeMeyer, split end Jim Carlson and linebacker Mark Nelson.

The new coach will be looking to develop a quarterback, whether to direct last year's wishbone offense or a new system. The attack wasn't exclusively wishbone but included options and variations of the I-formation. Key man in the backfield is fullback Tom Belanger, who averaged 88 yards a game rushing in 1990.

Defensively the Yellowjackets feature quality first stringers, headed by tackle Dale Mundie (6-4, 258), all-conference first team last season, along with linebacker Derrick Winn and cornerback Larry Thomas, both second team all-league. Thomas is a versatile performer who could play several positions.

Depth remains a problem at Superior. The Yellowjackets also must work to cut turnovers. They fumbled 40 times last season and lost 24 of those bobbles. The 'Jackets figure to improve this fall, but Thompson's sudden decision smothered the aura of optimism that seemed to be building around the program.

PROSPECTS FOR 1991

Coach Bob Berezowitz has the Warhawks on a roll. The defending champions have figured in three of the last four WSUC championships, including two undisputed crowns. Consensus among coaches lists them as favorites again this year, so they'll have to fasten their chin straps securely and gird for an inspired opponent every game.

All-conference quarterback Dennis Bogacz, who transferred from Oshkosh after the 1989 season, paid dividends from the outset while guiding the Warhawks to 8-0 in the conference and 10-1 overall. The one loss was a 24-23 heartbreaker to St. Thomas (Minn.) in the NCAA Division III Midwest Regional semifinal in Warhawk Stadium.

Bogacz heads a list of quality returnees on offense. He passed for an average of 182 yards a game last season and threw for a conference-high 12 touchdowns. He again will be aiming at Mike Bell, his favorite target last fall. Bell caught 30 passes in conference competition for 423 yards and five touchdowns.

Also returning are two outstanding running backs, junior fullback Sunni Muqqddim and senior halfback Travis Talton. Muqqddim finished as the No. 2 rusher in the conference last season, averaging 101 yards a game. He made the all-conference second team. Talton, who sat out last season with a leg injury, led the WSUC in rushing in 1988 and '89.

Center Brian Kuhnau anchors the offensive line. Problems to be solved include developing offensive line depth and finding tight end replacements for Keith Alling and Matt Turk. The latter also was the second-ranked punter in the conference last fall.

Defensively Berezowitz must replace defensive backs Shawn Eichorst and Bryan Tarrolly and down lineman Pat Crowley, all three all-conference, as well as linebacker Todd Van Doren, a second team all-WSUC performer.

Platteville's Bo Ryan Honored

William "Bo" Ryan, who guided Platteville to a 28-3 record and the NCAA Division III basketball championship, was named Kodak Coach of the Year for that division in balloting by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

The Pioneers, who finished second to Eau Claire in the Wisconsin State University Conference race, featured a hustling, end-to-end pressure style of play that produced a 97.4 scoring average, highest in the school's history. Other Platteville records set by this year's team were largest average victory margin (22.8), longest winning streak (15) and most games scoring over 100 points (14). Ryan's Platteville teams compiled a 141-55 record in seven years with WSUC championships in 1988 and '90.

Platteville defeated Otterbein, 96-94, and Franklin & Marshall, 81-74, for the championship in the Final Four tournament at Springfield, Ohio. Shawn Frison, who scored the winning basket in the Otterbein game and 20 points in the final, was named the tournament's outstanding player. He earned a spot on the all-tourney team along with teammate Robby Jeter, who contributed 45 points in the two games.

PREVIEW OF THE 1991-92 BASKETBALL SEASONWISCONSIN STATE UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

The coming WSUC basketball schedule should produce a season of surprises if the uncertainty prevalent throughout the league is any indication.

For instance, the top five scorers from last season are gone, headed by River Falls' twin terrors Dean Cook and Rick Montreal, who finished 1-2 in the scoring race last February. Only five of the top 17 scorers from last season are back and just seven of the top 20.

As one WSUC basketball "watcher" explained, "This is going to be a season of new faces and new stars." The consensus among conference coaches and the ever-present watchers, though, tabs Whitewater and Stevens Point as early favorites. They seem to possess most of the established stars returning.

Take coach Dave Vander Meulen's Warhawks. They start with last season's front line of Stacey White, James Hodges and Jeff Jones intact. Hodges and White made the all-conference team last March as juniors. Vander Meulen must find a point guard to replace Dodd Davey but he usually has the knack of developing that type of player.

Stevens Point lost team leader Chas Pronschinske but should profit from the return of point guard Andy Boario, who sat out last season with an injury. The Pointers also will be without Vince Nichols, their leading scorer a year ago who decided not to report this season.

Point coach Bob Parker still has guard Mike Harrison and forward Jon Julius back and they averaged 17.4 and 15.9 points, respectively, in the conference last season. The Pointers will be traveling to the Bahamas over New Year's for the Great Goombay Shootout and they play five of their first eight games at home. Parker is hoping for a fast start and an injury-free winter.

Nothing has been mentioned so far about defending champion Eau Claire and runnerup Platteville, which roared through post-season competition and annexed the school's first NCAA Division III national championship. No slight is intended here, but the fact remains both teams suffered massive graduation losses that would leave most coaches devastated.

Ken Anderson at Eau Claire lost conference most valuable player Mike Johnson as well as other starters Mike Prasher, Duane Bushman and Todd Oehrlein. These four accounted for almost 60 points a game for the Blugolds.

Platteville coach Bo Ryan bade farewell to all-conference performers Shawn Frison and Robby Jeter, as well as Sean Poole, Mike Jones, Delano Brazil and Tim Decorah. These six played a major role in the fabulous four seasons that saw the Pioneers compile a 102-16 record.

Despite these bleak observations from Eau Claire and Platteville, again those railbirds watching proceedings evolve in WSUC basketball caution against shedding too many tears for Anderson and Ryan. They seem to have a reservoir of talent from which to build contenders even during their darkest hours.

Rick Bowen should be singing the blues at River Falls as well without Cook and Montreal. He expects to be chasing Stevens Point and Whitewater but is not ready to concede. Bowen thinks his Falcons and Oshkosh have a chance to surprise and finish higher than anticipated.

Oshkosh's Ted Van Dellen has some solid returnees, while La Crosse, Stout and Superior face the roughest road. Coaches Randy Handel, John Muraski and Glenn Carlson don't expect to make giant strides this season but are gearing to establish their programs for the future. This is a building year for the Eagles, Blue Devils and Yellowjackets.

Coach Ken Anderson faces a massive rebuilding job of his defending champions with six seniors and four starters gone, including all-conference performers Mike Johnson, also the WSUC's most valuable player, Mike Prasher and Todd Oehrlein. All six contributed to the 59-7 record the Blugolds produced the past two seasons. Five were responsible for the 88-11 mark of the last three campaigns and four were around for the 111-19 log in the past four years.

Only two players who saw extensive (more than 55 minutes) time last season return to form the nucleus for 1991-92. One is sophomore Marcus Buckley, who started as a freshman. The other is three-year veteran Thane Anderson, who started the first nine games last season and then was used largely for his defensive prowess and averaged just 1.9 points and 2.7 rebounds per game.

Anderson has 13 players he expects to see on the floor for opening practice. Besides Buckley and Anderson, three other lettermen return, although none played more than 55 minutes last season. They include three-point shooter Chris Carroll, power forward/center Todd Stepanek and 6-11 Rick Markham, who never played high school basketball.

The Blugolds expect help from Mike Hatch, who transferred from Stevens Point, where he started 21 of 49 games in two years and averaged 7.3 point per outing, as well as junior college transfers Willie Green, a 5-11 guard from Kankakee Junior College, and 6-3 forward/guard Claudaire Motley from Spoon Valley Junior College. Another prospect is redshirt guard Billy Van Wie from Wisconsin Dells.

Coach Randy Handel struggled through a season of uncertainty in 1990-91 and hopes for a more consistent situation during the coming campaign. Ineligibilities wrecked his starting lineup and the Eagles struggled while trying to find the right combination. They tied with Superior for last place (2-14) and were 10-17 overall.

Another intense coaching job faces Handel with only four lettermen returning. They are Ryan Gannon, who averaged 10.4 points in conference competition last season, Tom Olsen (9.9), John Wittmershaus (9.2) and David Shaw (6.9). Olsen and Gannon ranked with the WSUC's better three-point shooters, Olsen hitting 30 of 68 (.441) and Gannon 44 of 100 (.440).

Mitch Hauser is the most experienced veteran lost by graduation and, with just four returnees, the door is wide open for newcomers to make their mark. Handel likes the work ethic of his four veterans and figures they will set a good example. He expects to be recruiting right up to registration.

The Eagles will run the motion offense again and the scope of Randy's rebuilding project becomes obvious when he says the major problems include lack of depth, rebounding and adequate defense. "We'll be a hard team to project because we hope to have some new faces," he said. Early speculation indicates one two of those "new faces" could turn this program around.

Ted Van Dellen heads into his second season as Oshkosh's head basketball coach looking for consistency from his Titans, who compiled a respectable 16-10 record last season, including an 8-8 mark in the conference. The inconsistency factor showed up, for instance, in two games against River Falls. The Titans trounced the Falcons, 116-81, in their first meeting at River Falls and then dropped an 86-79 decision on their home floor.

Most encouraging for Van Dellen is the return of his starting guards, Steve Derouin, an all-conference performer last season, and Kurt Woelfffer. Derouin finished fifth in conference scoring last season, averaging 18.6 points a game. Woelfffer averaged 13.6 points and sank 45 out of 107 three-point attempts.

Oshkosh finished second to Whitewater in team rebounding with 43.2 caroms per game and that would seem to indicate a better finish in the standings for the Titans but such wasn't the case. They were sixth in field goal average (.444) and eighth in free throw shooting (.683) and three-point marksmanship (.368). Those contributed to the team's lack of consistency.

Van Dellen hopes normal maturity will help some of the younger players who showed promise last season and the fact that he himself has a full season as head coach under his belt. He also will be looking with interest at a group of recruits he thinks can boost the Titans back into a contending role.

Coach Bo Ryan and the Pioneers are coming off an euphoric season in which they parlayed their end-to-end pressure defense that continually benefitted the offense into the school's first NCAA Division III basketball championship. Now the question persists, "What do we do for an encore?"

Gone is the foundation of four fabulous season that saw the Pioneers roll up a 102-16 record. That foundation included departing seniors Shawn Frison, Robby Jeter, Sean Poole, Mike Jones, Delano Brazil and Tim Decorah. Frison averaged 16.3 points a game and Jeter 15.6. Both earned all-conference recognition. Jeter and Brazil started 89 consecutive games and Frison was named most valuable player of the Division III Final Four tournament.

Three of the four returning lettermen benefitted from plenty of playing time in Ryan's busy rotation system and the fact that they practiced every day against those six departing seniors. Returnees include starting guards T.J. Van Wie and Carlton Jeter, who averaged 10.0 and 8.6 points a game, respectively, last season. Veteran centers are 6-5 Brian Gilmore and 7-0 Mark Macomber.

Ryan must develop new forwards and not just two. He rotates personnel frequently during games to keep them fresh. This philosophy enabled Platteville to win undisputed WSUC titles in 1988 and '90, a runnerup spot last season and, of course, the national crown. The Pioneers go into this season with more uncertainty than at any time in the last four years.

The good news is coach Rick Bowen has six of his top eight players from last season back. On the down side, though, two who are missing, Dean Cook and Rick Montreal, finished 1-2 in conference scoring in 1990-91.

Cook won the WSUC scoring title with a 23.2 average. Montreal finished second at 20.8. Both were selected on the coaches' all-conference team, Cook for the third straight year. They sparked the Falcons to a share of third place and an overall record of 17-12.

Bowen isn't spending time feeling sorry for himself, but expresses confidence the Falcons can finish in the first division again. He cites the improved play of John Quinn, Craig Mell and Chris Schmitt as well as the shooting ability of Kevin Larson. The latter averaged 11.6 points a game and hit 32 of 70 shots from three-point range.

Mell and Quinn stand 6-7 each and Schmitt 6-5. They also pack enough beef to hold their own around the glass. Somebody must fill the void left by Cook's departure. Even more difficult might be replacing the all-around tenacity of Montreal, one of the most versatile players in the WSUC. Bown is looking for some newcomers to step forward. He has hopes for Jason Ellis, a product of River Falls High School and one of his more promising recruits.

After a dismal start in which the Pointers dropped six of their first 10 games, several by lopsided margins, the squad rebounded to make the 1990-91 season a respectable one. The nucleus of that attack returns along with a crew that gained valuable experience due to an injury-plagued season.

Team leader Chas Pronschinske will be the toughest to replace. Pronschinske took over the point guard position after Andy Boario went down with an injury before the season started and gave an all-conference performance in his final year. Boario is back along with Mike Harrison and Buck Gehm. Another critical loss is Vince Nichols, a starter who decided to leave the team.

Up front, Jon Julius leads the way after another fine season. Jack Lothian, who showed great improvement down the stretch, Justin Freier, Scott Frye and Mike Dahlquist make up the other two positions in one way or another, all bringing experience. Bill Fraaza returns as well after missing most of last season with a knee injury.

Pronschinske's shoes will be hard to fill, but the Pointers, on paper at least, may challenge for the conference's top spot. Injuries, like those that plagued them throughout much of 1990-91, must be avoided.

PROSPECTS FOR 1991-92

The young Blue Devils struggled last season, finishing seventh and winding up 11-16 overall. Coach John Muraski has no seniors on the squad and last season's team leader, Troy Hamilton, is gone from the backcourt. He averaged 16 points a game in the conference last season.

Chris Korba (10.8) and Randy Neve (10.6) are the leading returnees. Neve is projected as the starting point guard and Korba the two guard. Front line lettermen include 6-4 Pete Binelass, 6-8 Jeff Blomster and 6-8 Ted Huppert. Newcomers who might help are 6-8 Eric Adlebert from Normandale Junior College and 6-5 Frank Goodman, returning after clearing up academic problems.

"We still will try to run a lot," Muraski said, "but we need to cut down on turnovers, take better high percentage shots and get everyone involved in the offense. We will be stronger and a better shooting team. I also believe we will be smarter and a lot closer as a team."

Assessing Blue Devil prospects, Muraski doesn't expect to contend because of the team's youth. He considers the most pressing problems will be creating an effective inside game and improving defense. "If we can make a commitment to team defense," he said, "we will be just fine in the conference."

PROSPECTS FOR 1991-92

Winning has been a struggle for the Yellowjackets. They experienced the long haul again last season, finishing last in the conference while winning only four of 26 games overall. Gone from that squad are center Kurt Chritiansen and guard Will Starks.

The Yellowjackets never seemed to generate enough consistent scoring to make a serious run. Ironically, they shot reasonably well from three-point range, hitting 135 of 345 attempts from that area. But, again, the one scorer who could provide 15 to 20 points a game was missing.

Coach Glenn Carlson is looking for some inside strength, rebounding, consistent defense and overall team quickness, although that sounds like every WSUC coach's wish list. Senior Glen Toewe is the only returning letterman over 6-5, so the search continues. Brian Larsen (6-4) and Dan Serkowski (6-5) do bring some game experience to the season.

Larsen and Serkowski both are sophomores who experienced a rough baptism in the WSUC as freshmen. Each should profit from the experience. Serkowski averaged 8.1 points a game in the conference. Carlson hopes things mesh this season and his team can win eight or nine games. This would mean respectability and lay the foundation for better things to come.

The Warhawks shared third place with River Falls (10-6) last season and compiled a 16-10 overall record. It developed into somewhat of a transition year for coach Dave Vander Meulen, who has enjoyed exceptional success at Whitewater, including two NCAA Division III championships in 1984 and '89.

First this year Vander Meulen must replace point guard Dodd Davey, who directed the Warhawk attack and averaged 14.9 points a game last season. Returning lettermen guards include 5-10 senior Tim Brown, who contributed 10.4 points a game in 1990-91.

The return of four starters and 10 lettermen give the Warhawks outstanding depth. Most WSUC observers predict Whitewater will rebound and contend this season, pointing especially to the return of the entire front line of James Hodges, Stacey White and Jeff Jones. White averaged 17.8 points and 7.5 rebounds last season, Hodges 16.4 points and 7.2 caroms, and Jones 7.3 and 4.1.

Newcomers who could give the Warhawks depth are 6-3 transfer from UM-Duluth Larry Dadian, 6-6 redshirt freshman James Jackson from Prentice, 6-5 Mike Janssen from Hartland Arrowhead and 6-4 Derek Evans of Walworth.

Hodges and White made the all-conference team last season and if they come up with the kind of performances Vander Meulen expects of them as seniors and a quality point guard develops, the Warhawks will be battling in the thick of the race again next February.

Stevens Point Skaters Repeat

Stevens Point won its third straight WSUC hockey championship under coach Mark Mazzoleni in 1991 and then captured an unprecedeted third NCAA Division III crown in a row. The Pointers scored a 6-2 victory in the national title game at Elmira, N.Y., over Northern Collegiate Hockey Association rival Mankato State.

The Pointers whipped Babson (Maine), 5-2, and Mankato eliminated host Elmira, 7-3, in the semifinals. Stevens Point center Paul Caufield scored two goals, including the game-winner on a penalty shot, against Babson and his school-record 39th goal in the championship game.

La Crosse Recaptures Title, Kelner Stars

La Crosse regained the WSUC outdoor track and field championship it lost to Oshkosh in 1990 by scoring a rousing 207 points in the 76th annual meet staged at the Titan sports complex in 1991. Host Oshkosh finished second with 122.5 points.

Double winners were Eau Claire's Dan Kelner in the 100 and 200-meter dashes and Oshkosh's Dave Lambert in the 5,000 and 10,000-meter runs. Kelner repeated his 1990 victories in the sprints as did Lambert in the 5,000, Oshkosh's Brad Olson in the 800 and Kris Williams in the javelin and Whitewater's Brian Knudtson in the hammer throw.

Kelner won both sprint titles for the fourth time in his remarkable career. The Irondale, Minn., athlete won the 100 and 200 in 1987 and '89 while at Superior. He transferred to Eau Claire after the Yellowjackets dropped track and won both events again in '90 and '91.
