SECRETARY

September 20, 1921.

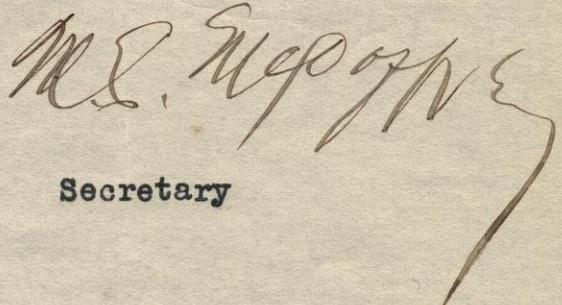

Mr. W. D. Hiestand,
Registrar.

Dear Sir:

Mildred Elizabeth Fish is applying for relief from non-resident tuition.

Miss Fish advises that her mother, Mrs. G. H. Fish, is a resident of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, having her home at 2603 Prairie Street; that in May, 1918, she went to Washington to accept a government position where she is still employed. She has been careful, however, to retain her residence in Milwaukee. J. G. Wray of Chicago is well acquainted with the family and verifies these statements. Mildred should therefore be allowed to enter the university at this time as a resident student.

Yours very truly,

M. E. McCaffrey
Secretary
