Wisconsin's Proposed Memorial Union Building, Backed by Alumni and Students as Campus Need

ORATORS COME OUT IN TRIALS

Tryouts Start Monday to Pick Contestant in N. O. L.

Oratory will come out for its share of the limelight tomorrow afternoon when the first trials will be held to select Wisconsin's representative for the Northern Oratorical league contest to be held here on May 7.

Practically the entire week will be occupied with a series of elimination contests that will select two winners from each class, except the freshmen, to go into the final contest Thursday night.

The public speaking department is especially desirous that there be a large turnout in order that Wisconsin may be more certain that its representative carry off the honors. The impression that women are ineligible to compete is erroneous. Two years ago a woman from Michigan won the contest and last year another woman from the same school took second place.

All trials will be held in 165 Main Hall. The following list of the tryouts has been announced by the Forensic board:

Sophomore open, Monday 4:30.
Junior exhibition, Monday 7:30.
Junior open, Tuesday 4:30.
Senior open, Tuesday 7:30.
Final contest, Thursday 7:30.

PROF. HALL IN TALK ON PARTY SYSTEM

Prof. A. B. Hall of the political science department will speak before the University Suffrage league on the subject, "Democracy and Political Parties," Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 in the S. G. A. room of Lathrop hall. The meeting will be open to members and a limited number of guests.

Architects' sketches and working plans of the proposed Memorial Union building are completed, and with the opening of the active campaign for funds amounting to $1,000,000 a pamphlet containing descriptive matter and typical views of the building is being distributed about the campus.

Arthur Peabody, state architect, is the designer of the plans for the proposed building.

The site suggested for the building is on Langdon street, west of the men's gymnasium, fronting on the lower campus. Such a location is considered ideal, for in time, this square will become the center for the most important buildings of the university.

Triple-Arched Entrance

The exterior of the building is faced in Bedford limestone designed to harmonize with the State Historical library to which it will stand adjacent. Delicate touches such as the triple arched central entrance will cause it to stand out pre-eminently as a true memorial. It bears similarity to the Pan-American building at Washington which stands foremost among the successful edifices of the world.

At the front of the interior will be located the memorial rotunda opening directly from the main entrance. This is the impressive feature of the building, about which the remainder of the edifice becomes a unit. It is two stories in height with an open gallery in which are to be located portrait busts, paintings, inscriptions, and flags. In this dignified lobby will be placed the gold star roll and the service records of Wisconsin students and alumni. The decoration of the rotunda will be made in marble, bronze and mosaic. Ornamental skylights in vaulting will illuminate the space below, keeping it continually bright.

Opening from the foyer is the theater, which extends to the north to the shore of Lake Mendota. Independent entrances are also provided, which permit the use of the theater without interference with the remainder of the building. There will be a seating capacity of 1,200, though this may be increased

TRACK MEN IN EASY VICTORY

Badgers Trounce Purple Team, 69-17, in Dual Meet

Badger track stars romped away from the Northwestern team in yesterday's dual meet at the gym annex, running up a big lead from the starting event. The score was 69 to 17.

The Purple contestants won but six places in the whole meet and only two of these were firsts, the 40 yard dash won by Poliack and the high jump won by Linn. Edwards of Wisconsin placed second to Linn and Mobley, Wisconsin, took third. Townley was high man for the visitors, with five points to his credit, and Spetz starred for the Badgers with a total of 9½ points.

Dayton easily outran De Swarte, captain of the Evanston squad, in the mile, forcing the latter to a third position. In the two mile, which was supposed to have been the Purple captain's best event, he failed to figure at all and the three places were taken by Crump, Brothers, and Meyers respectively.

Sundt heaved the shot 40 feet, 2 inches, beating Townley's mark by 2 feet. Captain Andrews won the 40-yard high hurdles and Stolley and Knollin tied for second. In the relay race the Badgers took the lead at the start and held it to the finish.

In the inter-college relay races which were held between events of the meet, the Engineers won the half mile and two mile races, while the one mile and four mile events were won by the L. and S. and Commerce teams respectively.

The summaries:

40-yard dash—Poliack, Northwestern, first; Spetz, Wisconsin, second; Gordon, Northwestern, third. Time, :04.3.

BIG PUSH FOR UNION STARTS IN MASSMEET

$100,000 Memorial Drive

Opens on Campus

Tomorrow

Wisconsin's biggest massmeeting, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 in the gym, will start the big push for the $100,000 campus quota in the Memorial Union drive. All 3:30 classes will be dismissed for the all-university convocation by order of President E. A. Birge.

"Al" P. Haake will preside at the pep session, which will start and close with high-powered Badger cheers. Both the First and Second Regimental bands will play, and the crowd will open the massmeeting by singing the "Varsity Toast" and "We'll Cheer for Old Wisconsin."

Two Student Speakers

President E. A. Birge will discuss the purpose of the big campaign, and W. J. Kohler, member of the Board of Regents, will present the views of alumni. "Red" Weston, varsity football and basketball star, and "Larry" Hall, president of Union board, will appeal for united student support to boost the campus campaign over the top.

Booklets describing the proposed plans for the Memorial Union building will be distributed, and "Al" Haake will close the big session with a plea for quick action in reaching the university goal.

Drive in Ten Zones

Campaign teams will start their intensive canvass at once at the close of the massmeeting. The university district is divided into ten zones for the drive, and members of Union board will act as captains of the campaign workers.

Women as well as men will be solicited for support of the Memorial Union building, although among the men the goal will be to pledge $24 from each individual. Many are expected to subscribe larger

4,000 INVITATIONS IS SENIOR ORDER

With the cover design for the senior invitations decided upon and the order placed, May 1 has been set by the invitations committee, under "Tony" Zulfer, as the last day on which reservations can be accepted. The E. A. Wright company, of Philadelphia, was the successful bidder on 4,000 invitations.

Reservations as in the past will be handled by the Kamera Kraft shop. Letters, posters and other advertising matter will be distributed this week and work on the biggest senior announcement ever published will begin.

Over 1,000 seniors will be listed by colleges. The program, commencement exercises and other details illustrated with campus scenes will go to make up the remainder of the contents. Since only 4,000 invitations have been ordered the possibility of a public sale is slight.

Led on by the promises in yesterday's deet, we bought an Octopus Highball. It was queer tasting, and we guess it wasn't all it should have been for on coming out we saw, or thought we saw, Dean Nardin and Dean Goodnight coming down State street in flapping galoshes, singing "Sweet Kisses," and announcing that they were on the way to a 5 o'clock the dansante at the studio. That was too much for us; we came home and have had squirmy sensations ever since.

In 1892, Dr. Grenfell began his work among the deep sea fishers of Labrador with a sailing vessel fitted up as a hospital. Believing that the bettering of physical and economic conditions are a necessary introduction to evangelistic work, he built four hospitals, a series of co-operative stores, several saw mills, an orphanage and a school. In 1897 he secured the Strathcona, a well equipped steel steam vessel, which is supported by the International Grenfell association.

GREEKS TO END NET SCHEDULE

Eight Frat Fives Play in Semi-finals Starting
Monday

The semi-finals in the inter-fraternity basketball tournament will be played this week. The schedule of games is as follows:

Monday

Zeta Psi vs. Delta Upsilon, 7 p. m.
Phi Beta Pi vs. Alpha Tau Omega, 8 p. m.

Tuesday

Theta Chi vs. Alpha Delta Phi, 7 p. m.
Kappa Sigma vs. Phi Kappa Psi, 8 p. m.

In the semi-finals and the finals, which will follow in about a week, all competing fraternities are warned not to use members of the frosh or varsity squads. Such action, said the committee in charge, will mean forfeiting the game.

Out of 35 teams which entered the race for the four cups which are to be given to the first four teams only 8 teams remain. In Division 1, the Alpha Deltas and the A. T. O fives have survived the onslaughts of their opponents. Division 2 still contains the names of the Phi Psis and the Kappa Sigma team, which defeated the Alpha Sigs, 12 to 8, yesterday afternoon. Phi Beta Pi and D. U. still remain in Division 3, while Division 4 still has Theta Chi and Zeta Psi in the race.

LIST BONDED DEBTS OF WISCONSIN CITIES

A preliminary report on the bonded indebtedness of fourth class Wisconsin cities has just been prepared by the municipal information bureau of the Extension division, in response to a request from a city that is considering the issuing of bonds for sewage disposal works and city improvements.

West Allis, with a bonded indebtedness of $849,000, leads the list of 115 fourth class cities; Waukesha ranks next with $440,000; Wauwatosa third with $270,500; and Grand Rapids fourth with $245,000; Fountain City has the lowest municipal indebtedness of any city on the list—$1,800; Pittsville is next with $2,050; Mondovi third lowest with $2,690; and Glenwood, fourth with $3,400.

The bureau is planning to include information on the 18 third class cities with this report later.

amounts and many will also sign up for smaller sums. All subscriptions will be given two years for payment and none will be binding unless the minimum sum of $500,000 is pledged for the construction of the building. Liberty bonds or War Savings Stamps will be accepted in payment of pledges.

Alumni Raise $900,000
Of the $1,000,000 to be raised in the campaign, the alumni and friends of the university are expected to contribute $900,000. The drives among various groups of alumni have been pushed during the past two weeks, and reports from different sections indicate that the Badger grads are working tooth and nail to meet their quotas.

Headquarters for the campaign are in the University building in Milwaukee, with A. L. Sommers, of Sheboygan, as campaign manager, and H. L. Ashworth, of Milwaukee, as secretary.

VARSITY OUT

TOMORROW is a red-letter, capital-letter day on the campus. The massmeeting at 3:30 will be the most significant in university annals. This is no exaggeration: there the ground will be broken for Wisconsin's Memorial Union building.

The building will satisfy a number of genuine needs. Its rotunda will be dedicated to Wisconsin's heroes, men and women, in the world war. Their deep sacrifices and sublime services will be commemorated as our gratitude demands they be commemorated.

The building will contain a trophy room, reading and social rooms, and dining rooms. Offices for student organizations, alumni headquarters, and faculty rooms will be provided. A theater of approximately 1,400 seating capacity will meet another long-felt need of the student body.

The massmeeting will mark not only the beginning of a big drive. It will indicate the amount of student interest in the project. It will show the alumni where Wisconsin men and women stand on a proposition vital to the upbuilding of the uni-

Every man and woman here should bear a share in raising the student quota. To participate in upbuilding Wisconsin will cost only $1 or $2 a month for the next two years. One-third of the money most students spend for social pleasures will put the drive over the top.

No stigma attaches to those who are actually unable to contribute. Their pluck in staying in school in spite of difficulties proves they have Wisconsin spirit of the truest type. But from students who can afford to contribute—and $24 payable in two years bars very few—that spirit calls for generous support of the Memorial Union drive.

The key position occupied by the students has been forcefully emphasized by the chairman of the Dane county committee. "What the students right here in the university produce will set the pace for the state of Wisconsin, and, in fact, for the entire country-wide campaign."

The Memorial Union drive succeeds or fails here. Wisconsin students will decide the issue.

The alumni are watching the university. With the spirit of loyalty which has always characterized them, they are eager to make the Memorial Union building possible. But they are unwilling to aid an apathetic student body. The response of the students will determine the measure of their assistance.

The massmeeting at 3:30 tomorrow will be the opening gun of the campaign. It should be attended by every student who can crowd past the doors. There will be a live program. The speakers include the president of the university, a number of the Board of Regents, and prominent alumni. Pep of the Wisconsin super-variety will charge the atmosphere. The campaign must start with a bang, and "carry on" with an enthusiastic rush.

WATCH THE FEVER

WITH spring only one week off, comes the warning to all students to guard against a malady which always makes its appearance about that time.

Spring fever is a type of affliction to which university men and women seem especially amenable. Somewhat unlike the situation at other colleges, Wisconsin offers a combination of fine weather and unsurpassed natural surroundings that go hand in hand to take a large toll of willing as well as unwilling victims.

The disease itself is of a most peculiar type. It is not listed in medical books. Everyone seems to know the symptoms, when to expect it, but least of all how to ward it off. In our circle it strikes at all classes, but takes its greatest toll among the new students.

For them the disappearance of snow and the coming of spring too often means a let-up in work. They forget that the first signs are but an introduction to later treats. Starting in too early to delve into the whims that accompany the season's initial warm breezes can only mean an abnormal amount of work at the end of the semester—when anything in abnormal amounts is least desired.

We haven't gone into the realms of science to discover a preventive for spring fever. Other mediums have unsuccessfully endeavored to do that very thing on numberless occasions in the past.

In the terminology of debate, however, we contend that now is the time to throw out your anchor and stay right with your work.

COMMUNICATIONS

A QUERY ON WISCONSIN SPIRIT

To the Editor of The Cardinal:

Is Wisconsin spirit measured in dollars and cents? This is the writer's first year at Wisconsin and so far his impression has been that what he needs in order to have Wisconsin spirit is a full pocketbook. If he does not take The Cardinal, pledge a Badger, help "send the band," contribute to "Wisconsin in China," or pledge $24 for the Memorial building, he has not the Wisconsin spirit. No exceptions have been made of the persons who feel that they cannot afford to back all these movements.

There are men and women in the university working their way through school who are not sure that they will be able to stay in school from one month to the next. The financial condition of many is such that they are unable to take part in any social affairs, which is a great part of anyone's education. If a person in this condition has a few extra dollars, what is he to do with them? Is he to put the money in the bank and perhaps have a few pleasures or is he to contribute to this or that order to keep from being branded as one who lacks Wisconsin spirit?

Also there are many bonus students, a great many of whom depend upon their bonus with what they have been able to save during vacation to carry them through school. They have sacrificed from three months to three years time for their country. How serious they are about this work was shown by an article published in The Cardinal of March 10. They are not only serious in their studies but they are also serious in other lines of thought. Surely the majority of them dislike to think that Wisconsin spirit is a matter of dollars.

If I am wrong, and I sincerely hope I am, will someone please explain what is meant by Wisconsin spirit? Let me suggest that in the future the solicitors for the different activities refrain from saying, "You haven't the Wisconsin spirit," when some student politely refuses to contribute; and that The Cardinal make no reference to Wisconsin spirit when speaking of money matters. The editor said that patriotism could not have a money value. How can Wisconsin spirit have such a value?

If I am correct, I can only say that a large per cent of the student body lacks Wisconsin spirit.

WOW!

Our idea was to encourage a lot of young literary idealists by printing their immature but earnest compositions in a great national magazine.

The cover design is a fair sample of how unsophisticated are these modern students.

Unsophisticated—hell! They're unprincipled young devils. Absolutely no restraint. They ought to be suppressed—not encouraged.

And gosh! The way they talk about girls.

They kiss a girl with about as much shy reserve as you would feel picking up a fat lady's bundle in a street car.

And drink! Why you would think prohibition had driven all the joy out of their lives—taken the edge out of college, as you might say. There, we thought up a joke all ourselves.

Say, but the kids are clever.

There's something about this wit of youth that gets you—a freshness—an irresponsible sparkle—something of the wild, untrammeled, devilish joyousness that older men feel when they slip off into the woods for a holiday.

We can't describe it—but nothing just like this issue of JUDGE was ever published before. In its way, it's a masterpiece.

We've caught on the wing the essence of that glorious, elusive something that makes old men long for one more golden hour on the campus—for the free true-hearted jollity of the days when good fellows got together—for the cynicism that was happy, the wit that didn't sting, the oath that didn't curse, the sin that didn't soil.

And art! There are at least thirty-nine different schools of art born in this issue.

All the regular JUDGE features of course—Walt Mason—foreign jokes—the theatre—"Bad Breaks".

Are you reading these "Bad Breaks"? They are great—a dollar's worth of laughs in this one department.

Miss Dalton plays a triple role and is said to have been afforded unusual opportunities to display her versatility and talents as an emotional actress.

 Through an error on the part of the advertising department of the New Strand theater, an announcement was made in Tuesday's issue of this paper to the effect that the first of Harold Lloyd's $100,000 stupendous comedy productions would be shown at that theater commencing Wednesday, March 10. Whitney Russell loan fund used for temporary loans, but will be used to assist men in case of emergency. The Whitney Russell fund is being used so constantly, that it is impossible to loan men amounts larger than $10.

The Burton Beach memorial fund will be of assistance to the men of the university, because it will provide for large loans. The men assisted by this fund will be fewer, but they will appreciate the assistance more because it will come at a time of real emergency. The fund is given to the Y. M. C. A., and is to be administered by the general secretary.

Vets Show 'Em the Nifty Steps, Even in Chow Line

"Please don't talk French to me. I don't understand it. But if you're asking me to dance — why, of course!"

And they went floating away to the soothing strains of "Venetian Moon." Who? Oh, just any couple at the Gun and Blade ball militaire which was staged in the gym and concert room of Lathrop hall last night.

The affair, which was not limited to any particular number, but was open to the entire university, was unlike any that has been given in Madison before. Just to prove that one needn't always dance in order to enjoy himself, a number of stunts were arranged for the benefit of non-dancers. The peppiest sort of evening resulted, from the time the door was opened till the mess-kits appeared and everyone lined up for chow.

The veterans were all there in full glory and they declared that they felt quite in their element amid the war-like surroundings which had been secured to give the place a trenchy atmosphere.

ENGINEERS COP BOXING HONORS

Win Easily Over College
Opponents in Ring
Finals

Engineers, with four wins, easily won the inter-college boxing finals held yesterday afternoon in the Gym. Agric and Commerce, winning one bout each, were the only other college to place. John Neuringer coach, refereed the matches, Coach Joe Steinauer acting as referee.

The first match was almost even-fought out between Jones, Commerce featherweight, and Buckstaff, engineer entrant. At the end of fourth round Buckstaff was renamed winner by a slight shade. Lightweight bout was a fast affair with Kojis, L. and S. man, by a narrow margin to Daws, Engineer.

In the welter class, Kanitz, Agric, demonstrated his superiority and took all three rounds from Fredericks, Engineer, by a wide margin. The middleweight match was an easy victory for Kelly, Engineer, who took three rounds straight, and the first. Kelly was fast for Wolberg, the Commerce entrant, and jabbed his way to a decision with ease.

It remained, however, for the tries to furnish the real thrill of the meet. With Koons, Commerce, facing Murdock, Agric, a fast start was assured for the fans. On the first second of the fight men began a slam-bang battle that sent the various gactions of the crowd to their feet with yells of approval. The fight was Koons', a wide margin, his remarkable feinting and feinting giving him an advantage that made a win certain.

12 Agrics, Cute Ones, Take a Chance on Home-made Pie

Pie! Home-made apple pie! To be served all day Tuesday by pretty girls.

Yes, pretty was the word. You may not know it, but there are pretty agrics in this school, 12 of them. "No, we aren't going to make the pies ourselves," laughed one of the foreaid pretty agrics in answer to a rather doubtful query. "We're real ag students, not home ecs, you know. So you can eat the pies without any fear."

"But we shall sell the pies, all day Tuesday in Agricultural hall. You see some weeks ago we 12 got together and formed the Agricultural Women's association. 'Pie Day' is our first effort as an organization."

It's Spotlight Glare for Hardened Hero of Chalked Field

Grease paint and spotlights and curtain calls for "Jimmie" Brader! That's the newest dope. Absolutely authentic, too. The latest word from the scene of combat is that this particular Wisconsin football star has signed for 16 weeks with an honest-to-goodness stock company and is playing melodrama—and everything else—to the natives of Aberdeen, South Dakota.

Quite a step—either way you want to take it—from carrying the ball down the gridiron, you say? But the proverbial little bird whispered to us that this is just what "Jimmie" always wanted to do and now he's out behind the regular footlights, making good in something more than Edwin Booth.

The boys tell us that he has definitely discarded the padded football trousers and war-worn jersey for the permanent dress suit and the make-up, and that the curtain ringler gets worn out giving him his curtain calls.

The way we figure it now is that if "Jimmie" could only educate the natives of Aberdeen to the good old Wisconsin skyrocket and the varsity locomotive things would be just like home for him.

CO-ED CLASS FIVES TO START TOURNEY

The women's inter-class basketball tournament will open Tuesday night at 8 o'clock with a double-header, seniors vs. sophomores and juniors vs. freshmen in the Lathrop gymnasium.

The games all promise to be close and snappy, although nothing as thrilling as the triple tie of last year is expected.

The freshmen are particularly anxious to make as good a showing as last year's frosh team did and are planning to work up enthusiasm by holding a massmeeting at 7 o'clock Tuesday night, preceding the games.

The tournament will last for three weeks, each team playing one matched game a week.

HARESFOOT IN TICKET DRIVE FOR BIG SHOW

"Mary's Lamb" to Be Formal Performance April 23 at Fuller

Tickets for the formal Madison performance of the 1920 Haresfoot musical show, "Mary's Lamb," to be given at the Fuller on the night of Friday, April 23, were put on sale yesterday, orders being received by Richard Tyrrell, manager of the production, at the Haresfoot loft in the Union building.

The formal performance will be the biggest pre-Prom event of the year. Fraternities are planning for dinners before the show and for dances following, attending the performance in groups. Blocks of seats are being reserved already by over half of the fraternities on the campus, and a record crowd is anticipated, since organizations of all kinds are making arrangements to take sections of seats.

In order that individual couples and parties will be assured of good seats, Tyrrell is reserving a large section for such parties. This section will not be given over to the organization sale, but will be held until a week prior to the performance when it will be opened for individual reservations.

In past years the formal performance has been the greatest spring "fussing" event of the year, and this year promises to keep up the tradition. The Haresfoot press book shows that the first formal performance was given in 1909, when Haresfoot broke over from straight comedy into the musical field with "The Dancing Doll," followed in 1910 by "Alesburg." These performances were counted as the greatest spring social event, drawing alumni and friends of the university to Madison as much as Prom.

Organizations planning to attend the formal performance can arrange for securing blocks of seats from Richard Tyrrell at the Haresfoot loft in the Union building, Fairchild 745, or at Badger 1108.

Co-eds Rise to Claim "Strolling Rights" and Late Curfew

BELOIT, Wis.—Members of the Women's Self-Government association of Beloit college have selected a committee of six to wait on Dean Tannahill and President Brannon and attempt to secure revisions in the present code of girls' rules.

The changes to be urged are: Ten-thirty "dates" for Friday and Saturday nights.

Ten o'clock "dead line" Sunday nights.

"Strolling" rights.

Under present rules, all girls in freshmen and sophomore classes are required to be in their respective dormitories Friday and Saturday nights. If they have "dates," the merry making must cease by the 10 o'clock hour. New requests ask for a half hour more of liberty.

Sunday nights, 9 o'clock is the deal line. The change asked for gives another hour of time.

The "strolling" ordinance enacted last year provides that "there shall be no strolling after dark." Girls are to request that would-be stargazers be allowed to wander Beloit streets in congenial company once more.

"The excellent social conditions in the college and city tend to minimize the needs for stringent regulations," the college paper said in an editorial. "The present rules were made during the height of the hoop skirt styles."

WASHINGTON—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday:

Region of Great Lakes: Some prospect of rain Tuesday and Wednesday otherwise generally fair, nearly normal temperatures.

HILL MEN WIN MAT MATCHES

Take Four of Ten Bouts in Inter-college Meet

Winning four out of ten bouts, the L. and S. college took first honors in the intra-mural wrestling meet held yesterday afternoon in the gym. Commerce and Engineers tied for second place with two victories each. All bouts were refereed by Herb Weeks, varsity captain.

The match between Culver and Schneider was the best of the afternoon, both men struggling out of many difficult holds. Seitz and Pier put up a classy exhibition, the latter winning out by a slight margin. Results of the rest of the matches follow:
