VARSITY EXPO TO BE READY FOR VISITORS

Many Workers Are Staying Through Vacation to Finish Up

Twenty-four hours early the entire exposition will be ready to receive the crowds of visitors who will throng Madison to view the exhibition of the University of Wisconsin which will take place Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, April 21, 22, and 23 in the gymnasium and annex.

With a large majority of the 700 exposition workers staying over the spring recess preparations will be speedily made and the work of the transportation committee will bring all exhibits to their respective booths to be there arranged by the department chairman.

Includes 75 Exhibits

A veritable cross section of the university will be the resulting effect of the 75 exhibits of everything from poison us gas manufactured in the chemistry exhibit to the cake baked in the home-economics department model cottage. "If there is any department or school in the university about which you know little or nothing the exposition will enable you to become acquainted," declared William B. Florea '21, general chairman of the exposition.

Arrangements for taking care of visitors have been made and lists of rooms available will be kept at the Park hotel. Information booths at the stations and at the exposition itself will give aid of any kind that may be desired to visitors. High school students will in many cases be taken care of at fraternities and sorority houses.

Everything in Decorated

Flags, flowers and 12,000 yards of cardinal and white bunting will decorate the booths which will fill the gymnasium and annex while dazzling electric lights following the outlines of the turrets and towers will give the appearance of a medieval castle at night. A huge lighted sign will welcome the 15,000 visitors expected.

Something will be going on all the time with entertainment consisting of specially planned feature acts taking place at various intervals. A Faun dance by Julia Hanks

SOCCER SCHEDULE TO BE ARRANGED

Inter-college Tournament Will Count Points Toward Nelson Cup

An effort is being made to organize a sufficient number of soccer teams to complete the schedule which, due to the lack of interest displayed last fall, had to be abandoned.

Gymnasium Instructor Schlatter is in charge of the plans, and, if they are successful, the schedule will be completed by April 21.

A plan is being perfected which will tend to even up the competition. At present the Engineers enjoy the advantage of having most of the Norwegian men in school on their team.

The points awarded to the winners will count toward the Nelson trophy, which is at present held by the Commerce school. Thus far this year, the Engineers hold a slight lead over the Agric, Letters and Science, and Commerce schools, but the points which are still to be awarded in baseball, rowing, track, and soccer will decide which school will retain possession of the cup next year.

Many Desire Positions in Varsity Life

Out of forty-five petitions filed in Dean S. H. Goodnight's office by candidates for office in the coming elections on April 29, twelve have been granted by default.

The offices to be filled and the candidates for them are as follows: Badger editor and business manager, both sophomores elected by the sophomore class — Three tickets; editor, Herbert H. Breckhausen, business manager, Arthur Trost; editor, Horace B. Powell, business manager, Herman Green; editor, Lee McCandless, business manager, Edmund L. Aschenbrenner.

Athletic board, all positions president and vice-president to be "W" men, one "W" man for each major sport, one "W" man for all minor sports, two non-"W" men who will be juniors next year:

Football "W" representative—Gustav Tebell, Default.
President — Albert Knollin, Default.

Vice-pres. — Carl Ceaser, Default, '22.

Basketball representative "W" — Rolland Williams '23, Default.

Cross-county representative "W" — Mark Wall '22, Default.

Crew representative — J. A. Platten '23, Default.

Minor-sports representative "W" — Ivan Peterman '22, William Collins '22.

Non "W" representative—Edward Scherneck '23, Wourth Schutlz, Ro-

RIFLE TEAM WINS ITS FOURTH MATCH

The University of Wisconsin rifle team won its fourth conference match at the armory Saturday afternoon by outshooting Iowa, Ohio, and Indiana.

The members of the team are: Ruffolo '22, captain; W. O'Connor '22, lieutenant; C. H. Lindber '23; Phil Deicher '23; and T. B. Godfrey '24.

Score:
Wisconsin 936, Iowa 906.
Wisconsin 929, Ohio 876.
Wisconsin 933, Indiana 906.

GRAD STUDENTS TO STUDY IN EUROPE

Elmer O. Kraemer, Madison, and Clifford N. Anderson, Scandinavia, Wis., graduate students in the university, have been elected for fellowships under the American-Scandinavian foundation for study in Scandinavian universities.

The fellowships are for $1,000 and offer the winners an unusual opportunity for study under the best European conditions. Kraemer will study chemistry in Sdenen and Anderson will work in hydro-electrical engineering in Norway.

OCTOPUS TO COME OUT DURING EXPO

The largest and most elaborate number of the Octopus that has ever been published will come out during the exposition, just after vacation.

It will still be called the "Bathing Suit" number, but it will be made more elaborate than was planned, in order that it may take its place in the exposition as a representative of Wisconsin's only humorous magazine, and work up a state-wide reputation.

Forty pages will be filled with a larger amount of art work and jokes than ever before, and the material will be chosen with great care, so as to make the best possible exhibition of Wisconsin's humor.

A cover by Frederick Sperry '21, will be a special feature of the next Octopus, and the art will all be unusually good. All the members of the staff are helping other contributors to produce exceptional material.

SAMP IS ELECTED TO CAPTAIN CREW

Arthur M. Samp '22, Cecil, Wis., was elected captain of the varsity crew yesterday afternoon after the first eight's regular practice. Samp who is a junior in the mechanical engineering course, will serve as captain for two years instead of one in order that next year's eight will have an experienced captain when it takes its expected trip to Poughkeepsie.

Samp is a brother of "Eddie" Samp, former stroke on Badger crews when they were entered in the Hudson regatta.

William F. Koch, a junior in the Ag. school is acting commodore of the crew owing to the absence of Harold Selva '22, former commodore, who has withdrawn from school because of sickness.

HARESFOOT TO LEAVE FRIDAY

First Performance Played at Waukesha on April 15

Leaving Madison on a special train over the Chicago and Northwestern railroad at 8 o'clock Friday morning, the Haresfoot club will begin its annual spring tour of seven cities in Wisconsin and Illinois. Fifty-five men, the largest number ever accompanying a Haresfoot show, will take the trip. There are 14 members in the cast, 16 in the chorus, 15 in the orchestra, and ten on the production and publicity staffs.

Joint rehearsals of the cast and chorus are being held daily under the direction of George Herbert, coach. Mr. Herbert believes the chorus to be the best in respect to voice and appearance that he has ever worked with in a Haresfoot production. The seventeen musical numbers, written for the show by Earl Carpenter '21, include five good comedy pieces, some excellent opening and closing choruses, besides the songs for the ingenue, "Miss Quita."

First Show in Waukesha

The club will present its first performance at Waukesha on Friday April 15 and from there will go to Milwaukee for two shows Saturday at the Pabst theatre. While in Milwaukee the club will be entertained at the "Ace of Clubs," dance Saturday evening after the show and Sunday afternoon will be the guests of the Wisconsin Player's at a reception at the club's rooms. The remainder of the itinerary includes performances at Racine, Kenosha, Rockford, concluding with the three performances in Madison on April 22 and 23. The annual formal first night performance will be given Friday April 22. The first floor of the Fuller alone will be formal that night. The matinee and evening shows Saturday will be informal. Group reservations for all shows must be secured from the Fuller box office by Wednesday April 20, at which time all seats will be put on open sale. Regular open sale for the Madison performances opens April 18.

Carl Bronson '22 is production manager for this year's show, Jean Juster '21 is directing the orchestra, and Walter K. Schwinn '22 is in charge of publicity.

BASEBALL MEN DEFEAT BELOIT BY 13-0 SCORE

Call Game After Seven Innings to Make Train

By LESLIE R. GAGE

Coach Guy Lowman's Badger baseball nine annexed the second game of their preliminary schedule at Camp Randall yesterday afternoon when they blanked Beloit college 13 to 0. Both Miller and Paddock pitched no hit ball for Wisconsin.

The team will leave for their annual spring training trip at 3 a. m. Wednesday to play Valparaiso at Valparaiso Wednesday and Thursday, and Notre Dame at South Bend Friday and Saturday.

consin, and in the seven innings but one Beloit runner reached second base. The game was scheduled to go nine innings but Umpire Smith was forced to call it at the close of the seventh round to allow the visitors to catch their train.

The hurling of the two Badger pitchers and the opportune hitting of the other members of the team were features of the contest. "Al" Miller was selected by Lowman to open, and for five sessions he pitched wonderful ball. Not a hit was scored off his delivery, and he struck out eight men, issuing only a single base on balls. Had it not been for a balk, not a base runner would have reached second during these five frames.

Paddock Sent to Mound

Paddock, a sophomore, was sent to the hill in the sixth, and he finished the game in equally great style. In the two innings that he worked he fanned half of the batters who faced him, and allowed no one to reach first.

Nine hits were gathered off "Lefty" Winkenwerder, the Beloit moundsman, and these were well bunched. Five were registered in the fifth round, when the Badgers batted around and counted eight tallies. Three of the safeties went for extra bases, all doubles. The Wisconsin infield played air-tight ball behind their pitchers, and showed an especially brilliant flash in the fifth inning when a double play, Elliott to Farrington to Jack Williams, retired the side.

Ruediger and Elliott Feature

Ruediger and Captain Elliott featured with the stick, each getting to Winkenwerder for a pair of

OUTING CLUB WILL PICNIC ON APRIL 21

Members May Sign Up Now on Lathrop Hall Bulletin

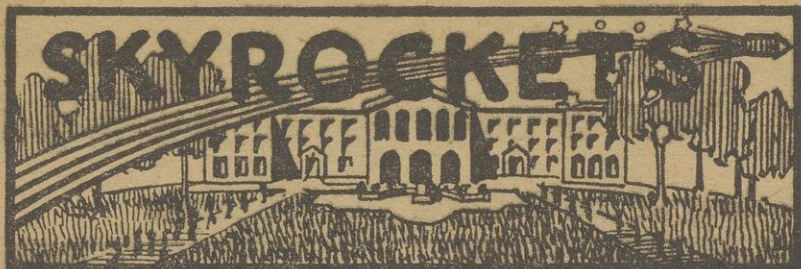

Ten hours Outing club credit may be earned during the spring vacation, according to Ellen Correll '22, president.

"No organized parties have been planned," said Miss Correll, "because not many of the heads of sports will be here. Individual work will count toward an Outing club pin, however."

Bag races, relays, three deep, and other games are being planned for the annual picnic of the club, which will take place Thursday, April 21, at Monona park.

Dorothy Ware '22 and Margaret Henry '23 are in charge of the party. They promise wiener and marshmallow-roasts, "as much cider as everybody can hold!" and many surprises in the way of entertainment.

A sign has been put up in Lathrop for those who want to attend the picnic to sign.

DO you remember the speech made at the Expo Convo which urged the co-operation of everyone in the school, men, women, and faculty members?

AND somehow, with no reason at all, that reminds us of a favorite story of Paul Gangelin's. Paul was standing in the Lathrop cafeteria line, and overheard Barbara and Anne discussing books.

"And have you," enthused Barbara, "read 'The Way of All Flesh' by Samuel Butler? It's adorable." "Well, no," answered Anne, "but I have, she smiled brightly, "read his 'Pigs Is Pigs'."

WE are in receipt of a letter from Los Angeles from A. Muse who calls our attention to two restaurants in that city, placed just opposite each other, and named respectively "The Little Hungary" and "The Royal Gorge."

TO make the contrib perfect, the letter might have been headed "It Gets You Coming and Going."

JUST a moment we stopped to read another chapter or two in "Moon-Calf" by Floyd Dell, which is one of the best tales we've hit this year.

ORPHEUM BILL IS LIKED BY CRITIC

By A. B. M.

A wicked eye and a twisted smile were all that Leo Beers needed to win the audience at the Orpheum last night in his singing and playing act. He was quite restrained, but he put a lot of expression into some very clever, but risque songs, and his personality made him stand out beyond the other acts.

"The Grand Army Man" was a funny, lively, rheumatically old man who reminisced, and jiggled, and "pulled the sob stuff" with the help of a fresh-looking boy, and did it very successfully.

An unusual combination of two women in "A Little Bit of This and a Little Bit of That," Dewitt and Robinson, was remarkably effective because the actors were perfectly natural, and both seemed to be having a wonderful time while they sang really very good songs in really very good voices.

The Choy Ling Hee troupe of gorgeously - gowned, marvelously magical Chinese "Wonder Workers" just trembled on the edge of breaking out into acrobatics every now and then, but managed to keep to thrilling feats of magic which pleased the audience far more.

Ernie Forrest and Grace Church presented the usual team work, veried by the use of a xylophone very well played, and assisted by the fact that the actors seemed to enjoy their work.

"Oh, My Darling" was a rip-roaring, slapstick, business-domestic comedy of the most ordinary type, but it seemed to amuse the audience a great deal.

O'Callaghan Ordered to Leave U. S. in 60 Days

STATE HISTORIANS WILL MEET HERE

The annual joint convention of the Wisconsin Academy of Science, Arts, and Letters, and of the Wisconsin Archaeological society, will be held in Madison on Friday and Saturday, April 15 and 16. Meetings will be in the auditorium of the Biology building, but the convention will end with a dinner at the University club Saturday evenings, when President Birge, who will then retire as head of the academy, will give a farewell address.

The colleges of the state, Beloit, Lawrence, and Ripon, will be represented, and delegates are expected from Milwaukee, Waukesha, Baraboo, and other Wisconsin cities. Lectures on research work in Geology, Archaeology, Botany and its allied subjects, and Chemistry, will be given during the meetings by eminent scientists of the societies.

BASEBALL MEN DEFEAT BELoit

safe hits. Both men counted twice in the course of the afternoon, and looked exceedingly fast on the bases. Each counted a double, with long drives into the outfield. Eddie Farrington also hit a long one that went for two bases. Vanderhoof, hitting for Snow, sent a neat single to the outfield, and scored a pair of runs in the remaining innings. Christenson also gathered one hit out of as many trips to the plate.

The only time that the visitors threatened was in the second session when with one man out, Beller lived on a wide throw to first. He was sacrificed to second by Featherstone but was unable to score. Miller struck out the last man, and retired the side.

Begin Scoring in Third

Wisconsin started scoring in the third, when they annexed a one run lead. Winkenwerder opened the round by walking Miller. Rollie Williams sent a high fly to the short stop. Miller went to second on Ceaser's infield out, and took third on a wild pitch. He counted when Whitehead messed up Davey's fast roller.

In the following innings Wisconsin hit around, and sent three tallies across. With one man down, Farrington slashed a double into deep center, and scored on Ruediger's double along the third base line. Both drives were hard hit and forced the Beloit fielders to go their utmost to stop them. Snow struck out, but Miller was again walked. On a fast roller Rollie Williams was safe at first, an attempt being made to catch Ruediger. Both runners were safe when Gardner failed to touch "Rudy." Ceaser lived on Gardner's error, and Ruediger and Miller counted. The inning ended on Davey's infield out.

Many Runs in Fifth

In the fifth the Badgers ran wild on the bases and crossed the plate for eight runs before Winkenwerder succeeded in putting three men out. Hits by Jack Williams, Ruediger, Vanderhoof, and Ceaser, coupled with several Beloit errors and wild heaves, were responsible for the rally. In the sixth Vanderhoof crossed for the final counter of the afternoon, after he walked, went to third on Christenson's hit and when home on an error.

This evening Coach Lowman and a squad of eighteen men will depart for the Badgers' spring trip. Games will be played at Valparaiso and Notre Dame.

DO YOUR PART

TODAY, the general exodus from Madison begins. Thousands of students will return to their homes to spend the spring recess. Upon the verge of the students' departure, a suggestion is apropos.

Above all, students who are returning to their homes for the coming vacation should not forget to play their parts in boosting the Exposition in the various communities where they live.

Newspaper articles, bulletins, signs, convocations, and the general talk pervading the campus during the past few weeks should have acquainted every student with the general facts concerning the Exposition. There is no excuse for any student's not knowing, in a general way at least, the purpose and the outstanding features of the great event of April 21, 22, and 23.

The publicity committee of the Exposition has had a big job in getting the facts that the students know throughout the state, and a bigger job in getting the people of the state to respond to these facts. The committee is striving to use every available means to succeed in the publicity work. There is no better agency in existence for successfully advertising the Exposition than the thousands of students who will go to every part of the state within the next two days. If every student who returns home this vacation constitutes himself a committee of one to boost the Exposition in his home town, and then gives a little energy to boosting, success is assured.

Here is a splendid chance for the genuine spirit of co-operation. The highest interests of the university demand that every student do his best in making the Exposition successful.

Wisconsin students must not forget their duty when they return home.

FROSH CAPS

BY order of the student senate, after the spring recess, any freshman who wears a seriously mutilated cap will be deemed guilty of violating university traditions. No mutilation of green caps greater than removing the vizor will be tolerated.

Many freshmen have so carved up their caps that the wearing of the remodeled hear-gear is almost as insolent as the down-right refusal to wear the prescribed cap. It is against the frosh who persist in utilizing their artistic abilities to appear disrespectful of traditions that the order of the senate was aimed.

This green cap order and the newly established police court system of the senate judiciary committee should make the wearing of the prescribed green cap in the proper manner the general policy among the men of the Class of 1924.

THE BRYAN LECTURE

THE Forensic board has announced the opening of the mail order ticket sale for the lecture by William Jennings Bryan on May 5. Students who wish to avoid disappointment by not hearing this noted speaker should place the orders for their tickets.

The lecture by Mr. Bryan is expected to pack the Armory. The people well know Mr. Bryan's qualities as an orator. He is the paragon of American lecturers. All varieties of opinions are held on Bryan's political views but in the appreciation of Mr. Bryan's powers of oratory, all minds concur.

Many persons in Madison have heard Bryan in political speeches of one sort another. Few have heard him in a lyceum lecture such as he will deliver here on May 5. The subject, "Brother or Brute," should give full scope to all Mr. Bryan's powers of eloquence.

The Forensic board has held the price of admission to fifty cents for the express purpose of making the lecture financially possible for all the students. Students should not be slow to take advantage of the situation.

The first orders will receive the most preferred seats, so students should place their orders with the Forensic board's representative, Mr. C. H. Laun, 211 North Murray street, before vacation if possible. It is the one way to avoid the rush and perhaps avoid disappointment. Almost every student and many Madison people will be wanting seats. The first comers will get the preference.

BULLETIN BOARD

SPRING RECESS

The spring recess will begin at the close of recitations on Tuesday, April 12, 1921, and will terminate on Tuesday, April 19, 1921. Regular work will be resumed on Wednesday, April 20, at 8 a. m.

Under the rules of the university, any student who shall be absent without his dean's excuse from the last regular class, quiz, laboratory, or conference exercise in each study preceding the recess, and similarly from the first regular exercises after the recess, will not be admitted to the examination at the close of the semester in the study or studies involved.

The above regulations apply to undergraduates in all colleges and schools and to graduates enrolled in undergraduate classes.

SOUTH DAKOTA CLUB

The South Dakota club will give a luncheon at the Woman's building the first Thursday after vacation. All those who wish tickets can secure them from Sam Weller, 614 Langdon, B. 2566. The price of tickets is $1.00.

There will be a very important meeting of the club on Wednesday after vacation to arrange for music program to be given Thursday night at the exposition. Penalty for all unexcused absences.

In addition to writing the music for the seventeen songs for Haresfoot's spring production "Miss 'Quita", Earl Carpenter '21 is taking the leading male role in the cast, playing Larry Drake, the young American mining engineer, who falls in love with the daughter of the president of Mexico, "Miss 'Quita", the ingenue.

DISPLAY ETCHINGS OF HEINTZELMAN'S IN MUSEUM EXHIBIT

Crisp etchings—landscapes, portraits, character studies—make up the collection of etchings by Arthur William Heintzelman, now in display in the art exhibit in the Historical museum.

There are beautiful children in pictures such as "The Pixie Baby" and "Youth and Age". There are reminiscences of Rembrandt in the character studies, particularly one called "Old Brass" and "Three and Ten" an etching which took four prizes, the Logan prize, given by the Chicago Society of Etchers, the First prize by the California Society Etchers, and the Logan medal of the Art Institute of Chicago.

Some studies have an almost post-effect, produced by the use of few lines and flat darks. There is a fresh clear quality in these pictures that is very lovely.

The landscapes often have horses in them treated in a manner which reveals the fondness of the artist for animals. Very fascinating are the trees in these landscapes, gnarled and twisted in a manner suggesting the Japanese. The composition is good, in its use of light and dark spacing.

AT THE FULLER

Priscilla Dean, queen of cinema crookdom, appears in the greatest characterization of her career, and her first feature since "The Virgin of Stamboul," in Tod Browning's melodrama of the underworld, "Outside the Law," which will be shown at the Fuller theater starting today.

As "Silky Moll" Madden, daughter and pal of a notorious but reformed San Francisco crook, she finds honesty irksome and seizes an opportunity to revenge herself on society after her father has been railroaded to prison. Even more of an enigma than most women, Silky Moll is wise with the wisdom of women, who live by wits, sweet with the heady sweetness of dry wine and with a heart as hard as it is pure. After her daring crime coup, in which a banker is bound and gagged to the music of his own dance orchestra and robbed of a $500,000 necklace within call of his guests, Silky Moll and her male confederate "hide out" in a Knob Hill apartment. During the long months of their voluntary imprisonment a great change comes to the soul of Silky Moll, through the influence of a chubby little kid from the next door apartment.

Tod Browning wrote and produced "Outside the Law," as a Universal-Jewel, at an expenditure of a quarter of a million dollars, and the result is said to be one of the most notable crime dramas of the decade, pictorially and historically. Lon Chaney, acknowledged the foremost character on the screen, is prominent in the star's support in two roles of astonishing dissimilarity; Wheeler Oakman plays opposite Miss Dean as Dapper Bill, a crook with the instincts of a gentleman; Ralph Lewis as the father, E. A. Warren as the Chinese philosopher, Wilton Taylor as the police inspector, Melbourne MacDowell and little Stanley Goethals are the other principals in the cast.

AXLEY AND MORSE TO CLOSE DEBATE

Ralph E. Axley '23, and Wayne L. Morse '23 have been elected by Hesperia as closers of the two debate teams recently selected to clash with Athena and Philomathia in the annual sophomore semi-public debates. Morse is a member of the Wisconsin team which will meet Minnesota on April 29 at Minneapolis, and Axley was a member of Hesperia's joint debate team this year as well as a participant in the recent intercollegiate tilt against Illinois. The other sophomores elected by Hesperia to constitute the semi-public debate are:

Francis Karel, Herbert Hentzen, Cyril Ballam, and Harold Hartwig. Suel Arnold and Elmer Hollensteiner were elected as alternates.

This election was the result of a keen competition between the 21 sophomores trying out for positions on the teams and it is expected, therefore, that Hesperia will present a strong showing in the coming inter-society clashes.

The eligibility of Arthur Frost, Marjorie Delbridge, and Ephriam Peterman, has been questioned, and they are requested to see Joseph Bolender, elections chairman, immediately.

The wave of cold weather reached the Atlantic coast Sunday night. Freezing temperatures are reported Monday morning as far south as Virginia and Tennessee. Weather is fair with rising temperature in the interior of Canada. The barometer is falling again in the Great Basin. Rain has set in in California.

A FEW DO'S AND DON'TS THAT WILL HELP

Don't attempt snap shots on cloudy days or in the shade with an ordinary camera.

Don't attempt a time exposure while holding camera in the hand. Set it on a tripod or a solid table.

Don't take a picture against the light, either sun or window.

Hold the camera absolutely still when making a snapshot. The object may move, but not the camera.

VARSITY EXPO TO BE READY

'21 and Eleanor Riley '21 heads the list of special acts. "Doc" Dorward '23 will put on a feature act. Other events scheduled are tumbling acts, a saxophone sextet, university men's glee club and Thompson's orchestra. A big stage is being built in one end of the annex where these entertainment acts will take place.

Campus Will Be Shown

Personally conducted tours over the campus will be started every hour from the gymnasium under the direction of two guides from each group, so that visitors will be able to see the main buildings of the campus as well as work actually going on in the laboratories.

The exposition will open with a formal address by Gov. John J. Blaine at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday. The doors of the armory will be open until midnight on the three nights. Thursday is Madison day, Friday is University day, and Saturday is State day, when the buildings will be open from 9 a. m. until midnight. The schedule of events will be contained in special 48-page programs which will explain the exhibits and give plan of the armory and annex.

The Exposition News sheet has been issued four times in as many weeks and sent out to the various schools throughout the state advertising the exposition. During the exposition itself the journalism department will issue the sheet two or three times daily.

The elaborate organization perfected by William B. Florea has made possible the enormous undertaking of the exposition. Under him are working two assistant chairmen, Harold Lamb '21, and Clarence Rasmussen '22, who in turn have under their charge the various committee chairmen and committee heads.

Publicity has been carried on throughout the state. Automobile banners, street car ads, posters and hand bills, together with news articles, editorials and display ads in the newspapers everywhere, will proclaim the fact that Wisconsin is having a University Exposition.

During the spring recess students will address high schools, normal schools, women's clubs, municipal clubs, and churches in order that all may know of the exposition and take advantage of the opportunity offered of seeing "Wisconsin Work."

"Talk the Exposition while you are at home," declared William Florea. "Urge people, high school students especially to come down and see the exposition. Bring visitors back with you."

Admission price will be 75 cents to adults and special price for children below twelve. Over 20,000 tickets have been printed and there will be no congestion of the crowd due to special arrangements of entrance and exits. "You can not see the exposition in a day," declared Jack Bigler, chairman of the admission committee.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETS IN MADISON

Will be Entertained With Dinners and Local Field Trips

The Mississippi Valley Historical association will hold its thirteenth annual meeting in Madison on April 14, 15, and 16 at the joint invitation of the State Historical society of Wisconsin and the history department of the university. The meeting is open to all members of the association and to any others who are interested. Conferences will be held in the museum on the fourth floor of the library.

An extensive program of entertainment has been planned for the association including a dinner to be given by President E. A. Birge and Miss Birge at their home, a dinner at the University club, and a trip to the Indian mounds and other points of interest which will be arranged by the Madison Chamber of Commerce.

The program of the meeting deals with various phases of historical work and addresses will be given by history professors from many of the middle-western colleges.

SIG ALPHA COOK IS INJURED BY AUTO

Barbara Kopp, cook at the S.A.E. house, was run down and painfully injured by an auto at the corner of Orchard street and University avenue, at 7:30, Sunday evening. Both of Miss Kopp's legs were broken between the knee and ankle.

Miss Kopp was preparing to board an inbound Wingra park car when the auto, which was driven by Frank Ryan, approached from the west and struck her. She was immediately removed to St. Mary's hospital where she is now resting comfortably.

For 12 years Miss Kopp has been cook at the S. A. E. house, and previous to that time she was in the service of various other fraternities about the campus.

Bring Your Folks Back After Vacation

Now is your chance to show mother and dad your University. Let them see for themselves how you live and work when away at school. Give them a glimpse of the teeming activity of campus life.

Urge them to make that long intended visit now when 7,000 students will help you entertain.

Behold the entire University cast as a miniature World's Fair at the UNIVERSITY EXPOSITION!. Under one roof 75 departments display fascinating panoramas of the work carried on in science, engineering, agriculture, medicine, home economics.

Minature World's Fair

Not in a week's tramping could you show the folks the work done in the 83 buildings which dot the 1,200-acre campus, as you can in a day or an evening at the Exposition.

No detail which can add to your pleasure or convenience has been forgotten. Even a daily newspaper, The Exposition News, will be printed three times a day to keep you posted on important events.

Back to School Again

Have the folks join in the fun from the time you leave home on the special train, to the making of classes on the hill. It will revive their youth. They will obtain a new viewpoint of the University.

They Will Like the Campus

Enjoy your beautiful campus with them—the lakeside drives, the shady walks, the sparkling lakes that have made Madison famous.
