MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Madison, Wisconsin

Saturday, October 3, 1936, 10 A.M.

PRESENT: Regents Callahan, Gates; President Frank, Business Manager Phillips, Comptroller Peterson, Secretary McCaffrey.

President Frank presented the following statement covering additional instruction for the first semester:

✓ Formal approval of the Executive Committee is asked of the following appointments which have been made by the University Administration to cover additional instruction made necessary by increased enrollment. These appointments have been made under authorization of the Executive Committee by the following action on September 22, 1936:

Upon motion of Regent Gates, seconded by Regent Callahan, authority was granted to employ additional instructional staff needed for the first semester due to increase in enrollment, the net cost to be within the amount of the increased receipts.
