The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

[Faint handwritten text on aged parchment]

Handwritten text on a piece of aged, stained paper, likely a flyleaf or endpaper. The text is written in a cursive script and is mostly illegible due to fading and damage. Visible fragments include "1800" and "1801".
