PRESENTATION

Since 1886 Beloit has not been favored with a fresh directory. The one then published by Messrs. Ebel & Co., of Terre Haute, Indiana, was a very faithful work, but it has served its day, and has long since become unreliable because of the continual change that has taken place in the population of the city. A dead town can use the same directory for three or four years and still find it in the main correct; but a city having the life and push of Beloit, outgrows her directory every year. Hence the felt want of an annual publication, which want, hereafter, the publishers propose to supply.

In preparing the present volume we have aimed to make it not only a complete directory for the convenience of business and professional men, but an every-day hand-book for the family. The new map, calendars, street and avenue guide, and general information concerning churches, societies, etc., we trust will make it an esteemed visitor in every home, and a valuable friend to every stranger who spends a day in our city.

Though we present one copy of this book to every shop, store, office, home, and study in Beloit, we feel assured that no one will count it "cheap" because it costs him nothing. The price published on the cover is merely nominal, so as to place the book within the reach of any who may wish an extra copy to present to a friend as a souvenir of the city. But let it be understood that 50 cents in no wise covers the actual cost of the book. If the book were made to sell, it could not possibly be furnished for less than $3.00 per copy. In receiving this present, you have the combined results of the liberal patronage of Beloit's business-men, and one hundred and eighty days (14 hours each) of hard-work by the publishers. Knowing, then, what the book costs, we trust that you will esteem it worthy of careful preservation and will make such constant use of it as shall make its actual worth realized.

In return for this gift we ask only this: That you read carefully the advertisements which appear in it, and observe who are the advertisers, a list of whom you will find on pages 13 and 15. These are the live and enterprising business-men of Beloit who have made this undertaking possible, and if this book is really a valuable present, you can show your appreciation in no better way than by remembering these men when you have any patronage in their lines.

We wish to thank the people of Beloit for the ready response we have received to almost our every request for necessary information. We do not claim that the directory is absolutely correct. A correct directory is one of the things which the world never has seen nor ever will see. Yet we have aimed at perfection, and wherein we have missed our mark we ask your forbearance. If an error of any sort appears in connection with your name, please do not "swear at" the publishers; they will be "cussed" enough without your assistance; but make it your personal interest to see that our census-taker is carefully answered next spring.

Our special thanks are due to Mr. J. B. Dow for valuable aid in preparing a correct map for this issue, and to the Citizen Publishing Company for the excellent execution they have given to the letterpress work.

Respectfully,

SHUMAKER & McCABE.

Not "the last rose of summer" then,

Dow has on hand,

He deals in more tangible

Things in the land;

The beauty, the fragrance,

Of a little lone flower,

He supplants with a homestead,

A hammock, and bower. [See page 33]

College Directory

The College Young Men's Christian Association has been accustomed, yearly, to issue an hand-book for the special convenience of new students, and at the end of the last college year it was voted by the Association to continue the publication for the year '89-'90. During the summer the publication committee were offered such generous terms by the editors of the Hand-Book of Beloit that they were enabled to publish the usual college information in this large and complete form. For this reason the Hand-Book of Beloit takes the place of the usual College Hand-Book. The Association hopes that the book may be of value to those students in whose hands it thus places the work. It hopes also to welcome a large number of those students into active membership in the Association.

Way down upon de old Rock Ribber,
Not far away,
Dere's wha' my heart is turning ebbor,
Dere's wha' de old folks stay.
All up and down de whole creation
Gladly I roam,
Since nothing like de old plantation,
Pleases like Beloit, my home,
All de world am sad and dreary,
Ebrywhere I roam—
Oh darkies, how my heart grows weary,
Sighing for Beloit, my old home.

EXPLANATORY.—Beloit is numbered according to the Germantown plan, with 20 feet as the unit of measure.

All streets running north and south, count from the state line, with the even numbers on the west side of the street. The first block begins with 100, the second with 200, the third with 300, etc., increasing by 100 with each succeeding block; but Bushnell street and Bridge street form a correction line, which corrects to 600.

All streets running east and west, count eastward and westward from Fifth street, with the even numbers on the south side of the street. The correction lines in passing eastward are Pleasant street, correcting to 500, and Park avenue, correcting to 900. In passing westward, Bluff street corrects to 300; Eighth to 700, and Hackett street to 900.

On streets which cross Fifth street, "w" is annexed to the number of each house west of Fifth street, thus: St. Paul's P. E. Church, 102 w Bridge.

*I love it, I love it and who shall dare
To chide me for loving that "old armchair"?
I've treasured it long as a sainted prize,
I've bedewed it with tears, I've embalmed it
with sighs;
'Tis bound by a thousand bands to my heart,
But how gladly I'd sell it to DOW for a cart.*

What's the Good of Advertising Anyhow?

Suppose We Make a Rhyme just for fun. Here goes it:

Not that we need so very much
To advertise, or any such,
But that our friends may always know
We are on hand with prices low,
And clean, fine work of proper shade,
The best that's in the City made.

We would not puff our work this way
But hear you what our patrons say:
"These pictures are the best we've had;
For such fine work we're truly glad."
Our place, remember, East Side you know.
Respectfully yours, Schurman & Co.

We will copy old pictures as cheaply and as neatly as is done elsewhere and you save the risk of trusting your precious old pictures in the hands of strangers. Do not send your pictures away for we

◉◉ Directory of Beloit ◉◉

In compiling this directory the publishers have made every effort to put all necessary information in the least possible space. Abbreviations have been adopted for companies that have a large number of employees, as: B I W for Beloit Iron Works. In many instances where other directory compilers use abrevations, we have accomplished the same end by using a fixed order, vis: (1) name, (2) residence address, (3) business, (4) business address, or place of employment; as: Vale C L 517 Prospect, Baker and Confectioner, 322 Bridge. Married ladies have "Mrs" annexed to the name, but, "Miss" is omitted except where initials only are given. A coma separates the name and residence address from the business and business address. Where residence and place of business are the same, the address is not repeated

How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood,
 When fond recollection presents them to view;
 No orchard, no meadow, no deep tangled wild-wood,
 Yet many loved spots which my infancy knew,
 Among them, and treasured, the College, the Campus,
 The River, the Island, the Dam and the Mills,
 The Avenue, (Sherwood's) and "Erinside" near it,
 The boating and fishing beyond the "Big Hills."
 (See page 82.)

And dear to my heart are the "chums" of my childhood.

Companions and toilers through life's busy years;
The Mayor "thrice Mayor," King David's successor,
And all of his Stellites, Solons and Seers,
And then too, the Lawyers, the Doctors, Professors,
The Merchants, the Mill men, with "Enterprise Rau,"
And royal among them as counsel, confessor,
Serenely and proudly walked JOEL B. DOW.

Down town in "J. B.'s" office by the old Rock River Shore.
 Where we've whiled many happy hours away. A thinking and a blinking by his "inside closet door" When we saw how his clients went astray: Oh it was a joyful sound as they madly turned around, Having spied that "string of chestnuts" hanging there. For DOW'S a business man and no one escapes his plan.
 Nor charges that with any he's unfair.

If we knew the woes and heartaches

Waiting for us down the road,

If we had a good Insurance,

Wouldn't it help the awful load?

Would we waste to-day in wishing

For a time that ne'er could be,

Or would we, with full insurance

Help our ships in from the sea?

Chorus—Dow'll scatter seeds of kindness,

Dow'll scatter seeds of kindness,

Dow'll scatter seeds of kindness,

For your reaping bye and bye.

 Strange we never prize the music,
 Till the sweet-voiced bird is flown;
 Strange we do not need Insurance,
 Till the "ways and means" are gone.
 Strange that men will wait, and waiting,
 Waste the time that God has given,
 To preserve a home and income,
 For the ones loved next to Heaven,
 Chorus—Dow! I scatter seeds of kindness,
Dow! I scatter seeds of kindness,
Dow! I scatter seeds of kindness,
 For your reaping bye and bye.

Discouragement was falling fast!
As through a Wisconsin village passed,
A youth who bore so wonderous nice,
A banner with this strange device,

"Dow's Office" Sir!

The people watched as he passed their door,
 Surprised at the banner which the youth thus bore:
 For the town of Beloit had not known him then
 As a Real Estate Broker so now and then

 Is the place where the homeless buy their homes,
 And the widow and orphan for counsel comes,
 Where people in countless numbers flock

The day is cold and dark and dreary,
 As I think of my "kids" and my own loved dearie;
 How the days pass by and will soon come my last,
 While the hopes of my youth fall thick in my path,
 And the day is dark and dreary,
 Be still fond heart and cease repining,
 For behind your cloud is the sun still shining.
 Insure your sweet life with Joel B Dow,
 Don't wait till you're sick but attend to it now,
 And your day will be far less dreary.

(See page 92)

*A farmer traveling with his load.
Picked up a horse shoe in the road
And nailed it fast to his barn door
That luck might down upon him pour;
That every blessing known in life
Might crown his homestead and his wife.
(The Homestead where the twain live now
Was bought for cash of J B Dow.)*

*But dire ill fortune soon began
 To visit the astounded man;
 His hens declined to lay their eggs
 His bacon tumbled from the pegs
 The rats and mice kicked up a row
 All on this Homestead bought of Dow.*

*His corn that never failed before
Mildewed and rotted on the floor
His grass refused to end in hay
His cattle died or went astray
The farmer swore and "jawed" his frau
All on this Homestead bought of Dow.*

*Next spring a great drouth baked the sod,
And wasted every pea in pod;
The beans declared they could not grow
So long as nature acted so;
Redundant insects reared their brood
To starve for lack of juicy food;
A bolt from Heaven killed the cow
All on the farm he'd bought of Dow.*

(See page 96)

*The staves from barrel sides went off
As if they had the whooping cough,
And nothing of the useful kind
To hold together felt inclined;
In short, it was no use to try
While this "Dow Farm" was in a fry.*

*One morn demoralized with grief,
 The farmer clamored for relief;
 And prayed right hard to understand
 What witchcraft thus possessed his land;
 Why house and farm in misery grew
 Since he nailed up that "lucky" shoe;
 Why he himself, his kids and frau,
 Should suffer thus in trade with Dow.*

(See page 98)

*While thus dismayed o'er matters wrong
This Dow, he chanced to trudge along,
To whom he told with wormwood tears
How his affairs were in arrears,
And what a desperate state of things
A picked up horse shoe sometimes brings.*

*Smiling, Dow asked to see the shoe;
 The farmer brought it into view;
 But when he looked and raised his head
 He laughed outright, and quickly said:
 "No wonder skies upon you frown
 You've nailed the horse shoe upside down!
 Just turn it 'round, and soon you'll see
 How you and fortune will agree."*

(See page 100)

*The farmer turned the horse shoe round,
And shooers began to swell the ground;
The sunshine laughed among his grain
And heaps on heaps filled up the wain;
"Ha! ha!" says he, "what think you now
About the deal we made with Dow?"*

*The loft his hay could barely hold,
 His cattle did as they were told;
 His fruit trees needed sturdy props
 To hold the gathering apple crops;
 "And this," says he, "my dear old frau,
 All comes to us through Broker Dow."*

(See page 102)

*His tulips and potato fields
Astonished natives by their yields;
Folks never saw such ears of corn
As on his smiling hills were born;
And many raised the question, how
All yields were good that sprang from Daw.*

His barns were full of bursting bins

His wife presented him with twins.

His neighbors marveled more and more

To see the increase in his store;

The farmer laughed and kissed his frau

Said he, "lets shake with J. B. Dow."

(See page 104)

*And now this merry farmer sings,
 "There are two ways of doing things;
 To happy be with chicks and frau,
 Your homestead buy of J. B. Dow;
 And when for good luck you would pray,
 Nail up your horse shoes the right way."*

So the teacher turned him out

But still he lingered near,

He knew that Dow'd insured his life—

He had no cause to fear,

(See page 110)

And then he ran to her and laid

His head upon her arm

He knew by this she would infer

Dow'd saved him from all harm.

What makes the lamb love Mary so

The eager children cried!

Because her husband's name is "Jo"

The little lamb replied.

(See page 112)

Have you heard of Dow's wonderful one-hoss shay,
That was built in such a logical way
It ran a hundred years to a day,
And then of a sudden, it—ah, but stay,
I'll tell you what happened without delay,
Scaring a parson into fits,
Frightening people out of their wits,—
Have you ever heard of that, I say?

Seventeen hundred and fifty-five,
Joel B Dow was then alive,—
That was the year when Lisbon-town
Saw the earth open and gulp her down,
And Braddock's army was done so brown,
Left without a scalp to its crown,
It was on the terrible earthquake day
That J. B. finished his one-hoss shay.

THE BELOIT SAVINGS BANK

THE FIRST AND ONLY REAL SAVINGS BANK IN WISCONSIN

RECEIVES DEPOSITS from 25 cents to $1,000 on one account in one year, which are entitled to interest from the first of the month after the deposit is made.

DIVIDENDS paid to depositors have been at the rate of 2½ per cent. on January 1st and July 1st, amounting now to over $10,500.00.

THE SURPLUS is steadily increasing, which belongs to the depositors, for they are the owners, and the officers are their agents.

THE OFFICERS are prohibited by law from hiring the money or being surety for it, and they contribute their services (except the Treasurer)—Why?—For the good of the community, and in that they have their reward.

LOANS are made, only after the securities are approved by at least three of the finance committee, and have been largely on real estate in town and immediate vicinity.

OFFICERS

R. J. DOWD, President

E. J. SMITH
C. D. WINSLOW } Vice Presidents

J. B. PEET
S. T. MERRILL } With the above,
Financial Committee

Office over the Postoffice, open from 2 to 4 P. M.

Cannot this Savings Bank be of service to you? Try it.

J. A. HOLMES, Secretary and Treasurer

Now in building of chaises, I tell you what,
There is always somewhere a weakest spot,—
In hub, tire, felloe, in spring or thill,
In panel, or crossbar, or floor, or sill,
In screw, bolt, thorough-brace,—lurking still,
Find it somewhere you must and will,—
Above or below, or within or without,—
And that's the reason, beyond a doubt,
Dow's chaise broke down but didn't wear out.

 But J. B. swore (as Yankees do,
 With an "I dew vum," or an "I tell yeou,")
 He would build one shay to beat the taown
 'N' the keounty 'n' all the kentry raoun';
 It should be so built that it couldn' break down:
 —"Fur," said J. B., "'t's mighty plain
 That the weakes' place mus' stan' the strain;
 'N' the way t' fix it, uz I maintain
 Is only jest
 T' make that place uz strong uz the rest."
 (See page 118)

So J. B. inquired of the village folk
Where he could find the strongest oak,
That couldn't be split, nor bent, nor broke,—
That was for spokes, and floor and sills;
He sent for lancewood to make the thills;
The crossbars were ash, from the straightest trees;
The panels of whitewood, that cuts like cheese,
But lasts like iron for things like these:
The hubs of logs from the "Settler's ellum,"—
Lest of its timber,—they couldn't sell 'em,
Never an axe had seen their chips,
And the wedges flew from between their lips,
Their blunt ends frizzled like celery-tips;

Do! I tell you, I rather guess

 But there stood Dow's stout one-hoss hay

Eighteen hundred:—it came and found
Joel B's masterpiece strong and sound.
Eighteen hundred increased by ten:—
"Hahnsum kerridge" they called it then.
Eighteen hundred and twenty came:—
Running as usual; much the same.
Thirty and forty at last arrive,
And then came fifty, and fifty-five.

Stated Monthly Meeting of Directors, 4th Fridays of each month

Annual Meeting, for election of officers, 3rd Friday in November

This Association offers advantages both to the stockholder and borrower second to none. It pays a larger percentage on the investment than any other banking institution, and gives to the borrower who builds himself a home such low rate of interest that when his stock matures he realizes that a home has practically been given him for simply the rentals he otherwise would have paid.

Any one who can save 50 cents a month can become a member of the Association, and be a sharer in its mutual benefits and profits, and can in time save, and own a home.

Stock in the Association can be purchased and applications for loans be made of the Secretary, at his office every day, (Sundays excepted,) and any information relative to the working details of the Association will be cheerfully given. Call on or address,

Salmon's Block, Beloit, Wis.

J. B. DOW, Secretary

The high standing and well known business integrity of the officers of the Association are a sufficient guaranty that its affairs will be conducted upon a safe and reliable basis.

Little of all we value here
 Wakes on the morn of its hundredth year
 Without both feeling and looking queer.
 In fact, there's nothing that keeps its youth,
 Like Joel B. Dow and immortal truth
 (This is a moral that runs at large;
 Take it,—You're welcome,—No extra charge.)

First of November,—the Earthquake day,—

There are traces of age in Dow's one-hoss shay.

A general flavor of mild decay,

But nothing local, as one may say.

There couldn't be,—for J. B.'s art

Had made it so like in every part

That there wasn't a chance for one to start.

(See page 127)

For the wheels, Dow claimed, were as strong as the thills,
And the floor was just as strong as the sills,
And the panels just as strong as the floor,
And the whiffletree neither less nor more,
And the back crossbar as strong as the fore,
And spring and axle and hub encore,
And yet, as a whole, it is past a doubt
In another hour it will be worn out! (See page 129)

First of November, 'fifty-five!
This morning a parson takes a drive,
Now, small boys, get out of the way!
Here comes Dow's wonderful one-hoss shay,
Drawn by a rat-tailed, ewe-necked bay.
"Huddup!" said the parson,—Off went they.
The parson was working his Sunday's text,—
Had got to fiftily, and stopped perplexed
At what the—Moses was coming next,
All at once the horse stood still,—
Close by the meetin'-house on the hill.

—First a shiver, and then a thrill,
Then something decidedly like a spill, —
And the parson was sitting upon a rock,
At half-past nine by the meetin'-house clock,—
Just the hour of the Earthquake shock!
—What do you think the parson found
When he got up and stared around?
Dow's poor old chaise in a heap or mound,
As if it had been to the mill and ground!
You see, of course, if you're not a dunce,
How it went to pieces all at once,—
All at once, and nothing first,—
Just as bubbles do when they burst. (See page 132)

End of the wonderful one-hoss shay.
Logic is logic. That's all I say.
And facts are facts too. "alle" same;
And Joel B. Dow is known to fame;
And the rolling-stock he keeps for sale
Like his one-hoss shay will never fail;—
At least his customers have no fears,
For he warrants his goods for a hundred years.

(See page 133)

*The work of the world is done by a few,
God looks for a part to be done by you;
And in your little part there should be no delay;*

*There is no to-morrow, it's simply "to-day."
So hustle and get there—alone, if you can,
If not, Dow will help you—he's a Real Estate man.*
