The libraries provide public access to a wide range of material, including online exhibits, digitized collections, archival finding aids, our catalog, online articles, and a growing range of materials in many media.

When possible, we provide rights information in catalog records, finding aids, and other metadata that accompanies collections or items. However, it is always the user's obligation to evaluate copyright and rights issues in light of their own use.

Nursing at George Washington

Living in Washington and working at GW Medical Center has a special attraction. We're near the fascinating museums on the Mall, Kennedy Center and the White House, but still only minutes away from the quiet suburbs and scenic countryside of Maryland and Virginia. We're a special health care community with exciting challenges. In addition to three staff nursing levels — Staff Nurse I, II and Assistant Nursing Unit Coordinator — you'll have the opportunity to advance to Nursing Unit Coordinator or Nursing Education Coordinator.

Develop your nursing career in a city of professionals. Call us collect or write today.
