GROUP WELFARE IS PRESENT-DAY INDUSTRY'S AIM — DEVINE

Says Collective Bargaining is Best Way to Win Workers' Good Will

"Industry today is moving in the direction of the development of a cooperative spirit to get the highest possible satisfaction for the group," said Edward T. Devine, former editor of the Survey magazine and founder of the New York School of Social Work, in a talk at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in 185 Bascom hall.

"To make the managers responsible to the good-will of the workers as well as to the stockholders in concern is the best way to bring harmony into modern social work," Mr. Devine continued. "The best way to bring this about is by collective bargaining. Cooperation and mutual principles of industrial relations should replace the exploiting principles which managers used to employ in their dealings with industrial workers."

Men Fear Crises

"Some of the old forces which influenced primitive man, such as fear of the sea, of the high mountains, and of the thunder have been overcome by modern man, but other great fears have taken their places. These are the fear of financial crises and panics, poverty, unprovided old age, and illness. As yet we have not learned how to get rid of this fear, but it can only be done by educating men to defend their standard of living, thus learning the difference between good and bad, learning what is worth the price and the value of possessing it."

"Another old force which used to motivate men in their industrial relations was that of greed," said Mr. Devine. "It used to be considered proper to exploit not only the animals and natural materials which were offered for man's welfare, but also human energy as well. Now we realize that human beings are not to be exploited, but are to be worked with and understood."

HIESTAND BURIAL TO BE TOMORROW

Rev. Barstow Will Officiate; President Birge to Give Short Talk

The funeral of W. D. Hiestand, for 38 years registrar of the university, who died Thursday evening, will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the home at 902 Garfield street. Burial will be at Forest Hill cemetery.

The Reverend R. W. Barstow will officiate at the services. President Birge will give a brief talk. Professors R. J. Roark, G. W. Keitt, G. S. Bryan, R. A. Moore, C. A. Smith, secretary to the faculty, and M. E. McCaffrey, secretary to the board of regents, will serve as pallbearers.

Dean G. C. Sellery, Professors G. Showerman, H. L. Smith, E. B. Skinner, E. R. Marer and G. L. Gilbert, bursar, will be the honorary pallbearers.

Mr. Hiestand had been ill for several months and was removed to the Wisconsin General hospital during the winter to undergo an operation. Due to the fact that the last news had reported Mr. Hiestand as improving, his death came as a distinct shock to his many friends.

As registrar Mr. Hiestand served during his 38 years under Presidents Thomas C. Chamberlain, Charles Kendall Adams, Charles Richard Van Hise, and Edward A. Birge.

No arrangements have yet been made for a temporary successor to Mr. Hiestand.

Frock Coats and Derby For Tumas Neophytes Today

Seventeen baby carriages, operated by 17 befrisked and bedecked neophytes are scheduled to find their way to the library steps at 12:30 o'clock today. Tumas, junior interfraternity society which holds its annual mock initiation today is the cause of the display.

The pledges are to appear in frock coats, derby hats, and white trousers, while the baby buggies are to be ornamented with a lengthy and decorative string of tin cans.

After being photographed on the library steps, the parade will proceed to that hallowed spot for such affairs—sorority alley, where the neophytes will attempt to prove their ability in lines of endeavor.

PROF. CORP IMPROVED; TO BEGIN WORK SOON

Prof. C. I. Corp, of the department of hydraulic engineering, who has been ill with the grippe at his home, 2114 West Lawn avenue, is much improved. It is expected that he will resume his work the latter part of this week.

SINGLE PLAN FOR CONTROL RAPPED BY MANY LEADERS

Project to Bring Activities Under One Governing Body Arouses Protest

The proposed plan of Fergus G. Chandler '25, president of the student senate, to bring all men's campus activities under one governing body, is meeting with a storm of disapproval.

In sounding out the reaction of the heads of various campus bodies last night, it was found that the resolution drawn up at the meeting of the senate Wednesday night will arouse much hostility.

The resolution urges a petitioning of the university regents for a "central governing board which will supersede the student senate, Union board, and the student court."

Another plan of the student senate is for a publications board, which would govern all campus publications. This plan, which was introduced by Hampson K. Snell '25, will be voted on at the student election May 15.

Huff Opposes Plan

Clifford Huff '26, president of the Badger board, is very much opposed to both proposals because, in his opinion, they would result in much harm.

"It is the prime purpose of each of the present individual boards to establish a close contact with those students engaged in certain activities," said Huff last night.

"Nobody would want to run for such a proposed board, because such a broad field of activities would come under the jurisdiction of the board. No man is interested in every activity. With too much centralization, the personal contact, so important in all student organizations, would be lost, and the activities would suffer accordingly."

Sporer Agrees

Harold Sporer '21, president of the Forensic board, agrees with Huff that the board proposed by Chandler would cause too much centralization.

"Students wouldn't be so much interested in individual activities as they are now," said Sporer. "Under the present system there is specialization."

Sporer is in favor of a modification of the plan. He favors a publications board and a union of the Forensic and Union boards.

Lester Kissel '25, president of the Union board, thinks that the present organization of campus activities does not function properly, and that some change in government must be made after the new Union building is put up.

"I don't think, however, that the time is yet ripe for such a drastic step as the proposed change," pointed out Kissel.

Chief Justice Lucius Chase '25, of the student court, favors a unification of all activities, but is not sure whether all governing boards would help the situation here very much.

PROF. CORP IMPROVED; TO BEGIN WORK SOON

Prof. C. I. Corp, of the department of hydraulic engineering, who has been ill with the grippe at his home, 2114 West Lawn avenue, is much improved. It is expected that he will resume his work the latter part of this week.

"Ivan Ho!" Pleases Large Audience in Second Engagement

By J. F. W.

Opening their last engagement of the season at the Parkway last evening, the Haresfooters were greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience.

The piece itself is admirably adapted to the capabilities of its interpreters. One thing would perhaps have improved it dramatically—the characters might well have had more to do; as it is, the burden falls on Ivan.

The charm of the whole thing is in its spirit, and a good natured audience smiles sympathetically at those intriguing awkwardnesses which are bound to creep in when masculine feet attempt to trip fantastically in high heeled slippers.

The performance will be repeated this afternoon and night.

SNELL AND GILES TO GO TO MEETS

Will Represent University at Eastern and Western Conferences

Student activities, government, and publications will be discussed by two members of the student senate at Eastern and Western intercollegiate conferences to be held April 30, May 1-2.

Hampton Snell '25 will attend the Western conference at Manhattan State Agricultural college, Manhattan, Kan. About 25 representatives will be present from various colleges and universities, including all of the Big Ten with the exception of Ohio State university.

As Wisconsin was asked to give information on specific activities, Snell will discuss the Exposition, Haresfoot, and the crew. These three activities are typical of Wisconsin, and are found in few other Western universities. Snell will also take copies of all student publications and talk on the student's attitude toward publications, athletics, and the problem of combining various boards.

Ralph Giles '25 will discuss the same problems at the Eastern conference to be held at Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y., to which approximately 40 or 50 colleges and universities will send delegates.

SENIORS TRY OUT FOR "DEAR BRUTUS" TODAY

Seniors will have another chance to try out for the senior class production, "Dear Brutus," this morning from 10:30 to 12:30 o'clock, in the speech department rooms, fourth floor of Bascom hall. Tryouts were held yesterday afternoon before a committee including Miss Ruth MacMillan and Miss Gertrude Johnson of the speech department, E. Ray Skinner, grad, Thomas Morony '25, Margaret Campbell '25 and Agatha McCaffrey '25.

BADGER HIGH ENTERS WHITEWATER CONTEST

Wisconsin high school's student musicians leave today for the district contest at Whitewater. If they are successful at this meeting they will be allowed to enter the final contest staged by the university. The school has entered its orchestra, its girls' glee club and boys' glee club, in addition to several solo performers.

MUST ORDER SENIOR PROGRAMS BY MAY 4

Seniors may order their programs now at the Kamera Kraft shop at the price of 40 cents each. Orders must go into the company by May 4.

Corrections of senior names for the invitations may still be made, according to Ellis G. Fulton '25.

Galleys proofs have already gone to the printer but seniors who have neglected to make corrections may yet do so at the Kamera Kraft shop by paying a small sum to cover the cost of the necessary changes. Deadline for these corrections is Wednesday, April 29.

L. FRAZIER '26 IS CHAIRMAN OF VENETIAN NIGHT

Athletic Council Also Names Gordon Walker '26 as Homecoming Chairman

The appointment of Lincoln B. Frazier '26 as chairman of Venetian Night and of Gordon R. Walker '26 as chairman of Homecoming for next fall was announced by the athletic council yesterday.

Venetian Night will be held May 23 this year in conjunction with the Wisconsin state interscholastic track meet which is scheduled for the afternoon of the same day. Last spring approximately 500 athletes from more than 80 high schools came to Madison for the event.

Direct Other Events
Varsity Night, when the freshmen celebrate with a bonfire on the lower campus, and the Varsity sing, inaugurated two years ago, will be conducted under the leadership of Frazier on the evening of May 22, the night preceding the interscholastic and Venetian Night. Appointments of committee chairmen to take charge of the various phases of the work will be made within a short time, according to Frazier.

Homecoming Early
The date for Homecoming next fall is October 17 when Michigan plays here. The only other home games aside from the two preliminary affairs are those with Purdue October 24 and Michigan Aggies November 14. That the early date of Homecoming nearly a month earlier than that of last fall, will mean that work will probably start as soon as school opens in September, was the prediction of Walker yesterday.

WILL ELECT TO BOARDS MAY 15

Students to Vote For Candidates to Governing Bodies, Taylor '26 Announces

Student elections will be held Friday, May 15, for officers of Union board, Forensic board, Athletic board, and the Badger and Cardinal Boards of Control, according to W. Jackson Taylor '26, recently elected chairman of the election committee.

There are to be two sophomores and two juniors elected to Union board, one of each having been recommended by the present Union board, the others chosen by open elections.

Several are to be elected to the Athletic board; a representative from the department of each major sport, and also a president and vice president for each; two non-W men; and one representative of minor sports.

There will be three elections to the Forensic board, two juniors and one sophomore. Only men are eligible for these offices.

Positions on the Cardinal Board of Control are held for two years. This year only one office will be filled.

A new Badger Board of Control is elected every year from the sophomore class. There are five offices to be filled, one of which is open to women. They are president, secretary, treasurer, and one member.

Seventeen Teams Now Entered In Relays; Schwarze, McGinnis Qualify At Drake

Schwarze, McGinnis and Mc-
Andrews to Give Special
Exhibitions

With the receipt yesterday of six more entries in the second annual Mid-West Relay Carnival to be held May 2 at Camp Randall, the total entries now number 17 high schools including the states of Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin. The high schools whose entries were received yesterday are Menominee, Mich.; Libertyville, Ill.; Janesville, Wis.; North Division high of Milwaukee, Oak Park high of Chicago, and Tilden high of Chicago.

Today is the last official day for filing entries declared the committee, and it is expected that a large number will be received this afternoon. Those in charge are also expecting that a large number of entries will be delayed and will not arrive till the Monday morning mail so that last year's entry list of 28 high schools will probably be surpassed.

Added features are being planned by the committee in charge. The two mile varsity relay team will compete against the freshman two mile team. Schwarze, McGinnis, and McAndrews will also give special exhibitions in their special events. There is a possibility that McAndrews' injury may prevent him performing for the high school stars at that time as Jones is anxious for McAndrews not to have any further injury to his foot, for which reason he was not entered in the Drake relays.

TENNIS PLAYERS START REGISTRATION AT GYM

Registration of tennis players for playing on the university tennis courts proceeded at a heavy rate yesterday at the Intramural office. Fully a hundred court artists registered yesterday for play during the rest of the week. The Intramural office is open every day but Sunday between 9 o'clock and 5:30 o'clock for those who wish to register. Games may be played on Sunday but no actual registration is done for that day.

Los Angeles Back From Bermuda In 20 Hours

LAKEHURST, N. J. — Exactly 20 hours and 43 minutes after she had sailed from Bermuda where she went Wednesday, the big U. S. dirigible Los Angeles bumped to earth at her home field here, at 5:40 o'clock this morning.

Aboard the giant aircraft were three sacks of American Mail from Bermuda brought here almost 36 hours sooner than a boat could have brought them.

Strong headwinds and generally rough weather accounted for the slow time on the return trip.

Hindenburg, Marx To Try Broadcasting

BERLIN—To enable Germany and the outside world to hear the radio campaign speeches of the two principal candidates, Field Marshal von Hindenburg and Dr. Wilhelm Marx, the ministry of posts has arranged to broadcast the addresses tomorrow through the Koenigs Wusterhausen government station on a wavelength of 1480 meters with a sending apparatus of five kilowatt capacity.

New Records Are Made in
First Day of Meet

(Special to the Daily Cardinal)
DES MOINES, Ia., April 24.—Schwarze won his way to the finals here this afternoon in the shot-put which breaks the relay record. He also won his way to the finals in the discus event with a throw of 136 feet. The record of the relays was broken when Richardson of Missouri threw the discus 140 feet 9 inches. The record which was 139 feet 6 1/4 inches, was also broken by Rinefort of Grinnell when he made a throw of 139 feet. McGinnis qualified in the high jump. Seven men got into the finals in this event with jumps of six feet.

Badger Crews Of Yore

"Such a ding-dong finish as that between Pennsylvania and Wisconsin has never before been witnessed in a four mile race in America—it is doubtful if it was ever duplicated anywhere.—Outing."

The words above expressed the comment of nearly everyone who saw the 1900 race at Poughkeepsie. Side by side the Badgers and the Quakers neared the finish and the spectators on the observation train believed the race to be a draw until the referee declared that Pennsylvania had won by three feet.

Imagine a present day athletic team selling lemonade in order to pay for a trip. That's what the 1900 freshman crew did hoping to partially pay for the Poughkeepsie race.

Overcast skies at Des Moines forecasted unfavorable weather for the 16th annual Drake relay carnival. A light shower covered the track Thursday night and further rain was predicted for today. The features on today's program include a battle for world honors in the 440 yard university relay, in which Kansas university, which shattered the world's record a week ago, will be opposed by Illinois, Nebraska and other crack teams. Harold Osborn of Illinois will attempt to equal his record of 6 feet 8 1/16 inches in the high jump which is a world record. Sixteen states are represented at the meet in which approximately 2,500 stars are participating.

Although the 1901 crew was declared by Andy O'Dea to be the fastest he had ever coached, Wisconsin finished third. The Ithacans set a new world's record of 18:54.

Cornell carried off the honors again in 1902 nosing out Wisconsin for the second time. A comparison of crews at the two schools showed that Cornell had every advantage, however. Wisconsin spent $3,000 on its crew making a trip East with that allowance, Cornell spent $6,000; Wisconsin had one coach who did all the repairing to the boats, Cornell had two coaches who did nothing besides coaching; and lastly, Cornell had opportunity to be on the water a month before Wisconsin.

A brilliant record indeed was Wisconsin's from 1898 to 1903, even though the Cardinal was never first across the line. In that time the Badgers had finished second three times, and placed third only once. Not a one of the other schools with the exception of Cornell had a record equal to that. In no race was Wisconsin more than 14 seconds behind the winning shell.

Walker Goes to Frisco To Train For Cooper Bout

NEWARK, N. J.—Mickey Walker, welterweight champion boxer, left Thursday for San Francisco, where he will meet Buck Cooper early next month. Walker said after the Cooper bout he will return east immediately to go into training for his title match with Harry Greb at the Polo Grounds June 19.

CAPTAIN OF GYM, FENCING SQUADS CHOSEN AT DINNER

Huxley '27, Freytag '27 Will Lead Next Year's Teams

With praise for the past, and much optimism for the future, the gymnastic and fencing squads closed the 1925 season with a banquet at the Hotel Loraine last night.

Walter Huxley '27, of Oak Park, Ill., was elected captain of next year's gymnastic team, and Elmer Freytag '27 of Chicago, Ill., was re-elected captain of the fencing team.

1925 Fencers Return

Huxley starred on the freshman team a year ago and placing in several dual meets this season, he has shown promise of being an excellent all-around gymnast. Freytag won his fencing matches consistently this season and with all of the 1925 squad back next year he has opportunity of leading a strong fencing squad.

"To my mind this is the finest kind of an award a man can win in the conference," said Coach Schlatter as he presented Capt. Herbert Schmidt the gold medal for winning the conference championship. "Huck," conference champion for two years received the lion's share of the awards, being presented a first place medal for the flying rings, a second place for the horizontal bars, and third for the parallel bars.

Masely Speaks

George Kress who graduated along with Schmidt was presented with a third place medal for his side-horse exhibition in the conference meet.

Coach Masely of the freshman gymnastic squad praised the work of the first year men saying:

"If all of you men are back and eligible, I believe I can predict a conference championship for Wisconsin next year, the following year, and the third year. We have some mighty good gymnasts in the freshman squad."

Leitz was the hit of the evening as toastmaster. Elmer Freytag reviewed the fencing season and Coach Schlatter the work of the gymnasts. Herbert Schmidt told of his four years with the gymnastic squad at Wisconsin.

BADGERS MEET ILLINOIS TODAY IN BALL GAME

Squad Goes Through Strenuous
Workout in Spite of Weather

Facing one of the year's hardest Big Ten baseball contests, the Badger diamond team will open its home season this afternoon against Illinois. The game is called for 2:30 o'clock, and it will be played on the varsity diamond.

Illinois is coming to Wisconsin with a string of conference victories, having defeated Purdue and Iowa by one-sided scores, and the Illini feel confident of conquering the Badger nine.

Pitcher Not Selected

Last night finished a strenuous week of workouts for the Cardinal squad. Although the field was wet, and rain came down at times, the Badgers practiced plays and went through a batting session.

Although the pitching selection has not been made, it is probable that Clausen or Shrenk will be on the mound. Behind the bat will be Lamboley with Wold to take his place if the occasion should arise.

First Base Uncertain

The first base position has not been definitely decided yet, either Feuchtwanger or Steen will play. Feuchtwanger has been used much of the time in practice, but Steen played a good game against the Michigan Aggies last Saturday and may get the first call.

Captain Ellingson will play at his usual position, second base, while Wieland will be at short, and Tangen at third base. In the outfield, Donagan will again play left. Larson will be in the center garden, and Edwards will covet in right field.

Illinois Arrives

Illinois will arrive from Purdue this morning fresh from a 14 to 1 victory over the Boilmakers. Although the Illini battery selections have not been announced, it is probable that either Kinderman or Hoffman will do the hurling with Kinderman getting the call. Behind the bat, either Erickson or Godeke will perform, the former probably carrying the bulk of the work.

There will be football practice for all candidates out for the varsity squad this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Should Shrenk and Clausen fail, Lustig and Stoll, both good hurlers, will be in readiness.

The probable batting orders for today's games:

Wisconsin

Donagan, lf.; Ellingson, 2nd.; Tangen, 3rd.; Larson, c.; Edwards, rf.; Lamboley, c.; Feuchtwanger or Steen, 1st.; Wieland, ss.; Clausen, Shrenk, Lustig, Stoll, p.

Illinois

Paxton, cf.; Jordan, 2nd.; Majors, lf.; Margolis, rf.; Simonich, 1st.; Erickson, c.; Kinderman, p.; Jester, ss.; Foulk, 3rd.

CREW MEN WORK NOW FOR SPEED AND CO-OPERATION

Vail Watches Shells Carefully
as Regatta Time Approaches

Four cardinal shells swept back and forth on Lake Mendota yesterday afternoon, each propelled by eight Badger oarsmen who have the fundamentals of rowing securely under their belts and are now bending their efforts toward speed and co-operation.

It seems that every day the crews go faster than the day before, and every day each combination of men looks more like a machine than it did the previous day. Silhouetted against a strip of water far into the bay which curves between the boat house and picnic point, it seemed yesterday as though the first varsity crew was flying along, so swiftly did the landscape slip by.

Coaches Careful

Coaches Vail and Johnson are ever on the watch of their precious charges, the hopes of Wisconsin at Poughkeepsie, and the coaching launches are ever in the wake of the flying crews, megaphones booming out order, praise, and information.

All the actions of the men are executed with a form and snap which savors of regatta days. From the moment the huskies carry their shells over head and out on the pier to the moment that their shells are once more on the racks after the afternoon practices, the little coxies are continually barking their orders and time with vigor and celerity.

Men Improve

There is a positiveness about each movement and each stroke that is bred from familiarity with rowing constant training. In other words, the men are in fine shape when one considers that the crew season for Wisconsin is only a month old.

But the Badger men have to get into shape with more speed than any other set of oarsmen in the country, for the Wisconsin crew must meet, with a few months training behind them, other crews who have been on the water all year.

ANNUAL CONTESTS AT PENN ATTRACT 2,500 ATHLETES

Foreign Entries Included in Large List of Competitors

Approximately 2,500 entrants from 300 schools and colleges of leading athletes of the East, Middle West and South, gathered at Philadelphia yesterday for the annual Penn relays which started yesterday and continue throughout today.

Foreign entries this year include representatives from England, New Zealand, Canada, and Cuba. Lord Burleigh, Cambridge, is England's representative. He was a member of the British Olympic team and is the leading hurdler on that side of the Atlantic, although he may not do so well in competition here.

A. V. Porritt, of Oxford, another foreign entry, is from New Zealand. He was the only member of the New Zealand Olympic team in Paris last summer and he had to work his own way to the games. Porritt is a good sprinter and if he is in condition he may win the 100 and 200 yard dashes. He has been consistently under ten seconds for the 100 yard.

However it is not expected that either of these men will be in the best of shape because they had an unpleasant trip across the Atlantic in the Homeric and have had only one day to get into training after being aboard the ship.

Five events of the decathlon, which was substituted this year for the pentathlon were held yesterday morning. Pennsylvania officials said ticket sales had been better than in previous years, and with a good break in weather expected the stadium should be filled today.

It is announced that the Pullman Car Company plans "all Pullman" air planes for long hops. More than two years ago it was announced here that Mr. Carr, head of the Pullman Company, had engineers working on the "lightest possible air sleeper."

It seemed premature then, but Pullman stock owners now know that Mr. Carr was not looking too far ahead.

This is the time of the year a man is too sick to work but still well enough to go fishing.

WILLIAM DIXON HIESTAND

The passing of William D. Hiestand, registrar of the university, marks the loss to the faculty of one of its oldest and most beloved officers. His worth proven by 35 active years in his position, he did more than the mere physical work of his task required, and won for himself a warm place in the hearts of both professors and students. Himself once a Wisconsin student, he found the happiness of his life profession in being of service to the new generations of students always passing through the university. His life will, in a small measure, be perpetuated by all those whose friend and helper he was.

THE SANE APPROACH TO THE SELF GOVERNMENT TANGLE

For some time it has been quite apparent that, while student self government is far from being a myth of this campus, it falls far short of being ideal, and leaves much room open for improvement. Those who have given consideration to the problem have failed to determine clearly the causes for the decline of self government here, but they have all agreed on the quite obvious fact that there is at present much dead timber and useless machinery in the self governing organization as it has been set up. The elimination or reorganization of these deceased or outworn elements is recognized as being both desirable and necessary.

The body which is nominally at the head of all campus activities for men is the student senate. By its constitution and charter from the regents of the university it exercises practically unlimited authority over men's activities. Its function is to control and legislate for undergraduate life in general. While its nominal authority is so extensive, however, its actual power has gradually dwindled or proved inadequate, until at the present time it is exceedingly weak and ineffectual. Its only constructive function at the present time is the management of the fall and spring elections.

The judicial powers held by the students are vested in the student court. The degree of success and prestige which it has attained may be judged by the almost total oblivion into which it has sunk. Either there is no need for such a court, or else the powers of enforcement granted it have not been sufficient for it to be effectual.

The social and recreational wants of the student body are put in the care of the Union board, as the executive body for the Wisconsin Union. Of the three major branches of self government listed here, this body alone has prospered and thrived, until at the present time it embraces a dozen or more important activities, and, in proof of its vitality, devotes its attention to many campus problems which cannot be pigeon holed as recognized, orthodox activities. It will act as the administering and governing body of the Memorial Union building as soon as it is opened, and thus seems destined to take its place as virtual head of the undergraduate life and interests.

With such great powers and with so many functions under its jurisdiction, it is to be expected that the board should be truly representative of the entire university, and should be large enough to adequately handle its task. At present there are only nine members, all except one of whom are in the College of Letters and Science. There is a real need here for reorganization, so that the Union board will be larger and more truly representative.

It has been known for some time that the student senate had under consideration plans for the needed reorganization, but no definite step was taken until Wednesday, when the following resolution was passed by the senate:

"Resolved, that the regents of the university be petitioned to appoint the members who hold over from the student senate and the Union board as a committee to reorganize campus activities in such a way that these activities shall be under the control of a central governing board which will supersede the student senate, Union board and the student court."

The Daily Cardinal is happy to see that the senate is eager to act on this problem, which certainly needs some solution. But the resolution passed on Wednesday seems rather unwise to this paper, and it presents its criticisms in the hope that a better plan may be found.

In the first place, there seems to be good reason to doubt the wisdom of ever vesting the powers of these three totally different bodies in one central governing group. The weakness of the senate and court cannot be ascribed to any individuals or external causes, but seems rather to be inherent in those organizations themselves. Perhaps it would be better to read the handwriting on the wall, and to interpret this weakness as meaning that there is no real need for a senate or a court at all. Isn't it possible that the fact that they are able to do nothing may indicate the fact that there is nothing for them to do? At any rate, to combine these two weak bodies with Union board could not in any way help the latter, and would probably weaken it also.

The resolution also provides that the existing boards shall pass out of existence. In the case of Union board, the Daily Cardinal believes that however it is reorganized, it should always keep its identity and its name. The committee in charge of the Memorial Union intends to put the building in charge of the Union board, and even now, as the head of the men's union, the board is certainly more effective than it could ever be as a sub-branch of some other body. While the reorganization of Union board will be necessary, the time to do it will be after the completion of the Union building, when the new duties of the board will be more clearly outlined.

One other objection remains. A committee of the whole, composed of all the members of the senate and of Union board would be greatly incompetent to handle the situation. The work already done by the senate proves this, for there certainly has been neither extensive nor careful enough investigation to warrant the step taken by the senate. Before permission is sought from the regents to effect any reorganization, a thorough going investigation should be made.

The Daily Cardinal recommends that a competent committee be appointed for this purpose. This committee should be composed of men who know the situation—seniors, unbiased by personal considerations, graduates, and faculty members. The report of such a committee would give a reliable basis for any future reorganization.

THE GREAT AMERICAN GAME

In spite of the increasing popularity of football and basketball, the old tradition still hangs on that baseball is the great American game. Skill, strategy, and sportsmanship are the ingredients which have won for it this merited distinction. Last year Wisconsin's baseball team had its most successful season for a number of years, and when the boys meet Illinois at Camp Randall this afternoon in the first conference home game of the season, they will take the field with the confidence that their earlier victory over Northwestern has given them. Illinois also knows how to play baseball, and the game promises to be fast. We wish the team unbounded success.

The Milwaukee Journal wisely brings out the fact that if Americans spent more money in developing a truly American art instead of playing the humbug by tossing away fortunes on foreign work of good, bad and indifferent quality, it wouldn't be the cables that would be telling us of the death of a great artist of our own blood such as John Singer Sargent.

AS WE SAID LAST FALL—
So we repeat: THESE ARE THE SOLES!

And the Lit is involuntarily holding open house on account of the humidity. The door is warped so they can't close it. Millions in priceless manuscripts at the mercy of the public!

HE HAD EXPERIENCE
Gem from yesterday's Deet: "Otis Wiese '26, was the center of another playlet in which there was a thrilling hold up scene and a hysterical woman."

The holdup scene probably refers to Badyear subscription raids, and the hysterical woman means, of course, the sistority goils who contested for the cup.

REMINISCENCES

We note that Outing club will spend its outing at Devil's lake again this year. Reminds us of the time that we went there on a geological trip. Upon alighting from the train and viewing the waste of barren rocks (talus slopes), the coltish boys, in unison, gave vent to a splendid revision of the plumbers' chant: "Well, well, well—so THIS is DEVIL'S LAKE,—oh, shux," or something like that.

Our house has a bathtub with heater attachment beneath, and a special faucet for boiling oil. And if anybody perks up to us in the wet and twitters: "It isn't raining rain, you know, it's raining violets," we are going to give him a nice bath in the nice hot oil.

Cooks are usually pretty congenial people; but they always snub strawberries.

We got slacks and Rab got some nice gaudy knickers, and now it has to go and rain, and we are cursing the Hub for giving us credit in such rotten weather.

Arg came in and read the deet's head: "Intense English Study Is Advised," and wanted to know, sezze, "In what tense?" He will be out of the infirmary in time to write his column next week.

Earle J. Barnes was recently made head of the combined departments of agriculture and conservation and development for the state of Washington. This makes him director of Washington's dairy and live stock divisions, horticulture, food, feeds, and drugs, weights and measures, grain and inspection service, forestry, hydraulics, geology and surveying.

SWAN SONG

The moon shone down upon the quiet waters and ionized it to a heavenly silver. Beneath the willow tassels the little canoe rocked gently with the soft splash of the waves, caused by the unequal oscillation in the variation of the midrib from the plumb.

The figure of Arabella seemed to melt into the shadowy outline of the Ph. D. The profile was in the manner of the post-silurian dauerotyp.

She spoke low, passionate words. "Pardon me," he replied adjusting his key, "but what is the modicum of your suggestions?"

MUSICAL NOTE (not a pun)

We've heard the awful caterwauling of the feline residents of our back fence back home in Bridge Switch, but never before last night did we so enjoy the Delta Zetas, in song and concert.

Special from Waupun (By our resident correspondent, Walt Frautschi): University student held on charge of battery has been released and returned to the great state university. Cousin Eugene went bail for $100, after which the shooting in the Bachelor Apts. ensued. (If any reader doesn't understand this mess, drop around to the office and we can assure him a good half-hour.)

A grad known as Carl Robbins, the baritone, and Otto Roehling, the chemist, has finally "abandoned" the test tubes and acids of his vocation for the "lyrical joy of his more beloved avocation." Mr. Roehling was graduated from here with honors in chemistry in 1912. From here he went to Germany to continue chemistry but took up vocal study. Since then he has done concert work with the Chicago Opera company and chemical work in rubber companies. Now he has definitely decided to do concert work "on his own."

Strand Will Present Old Time Show As Feature

Remember the movies in the old days when the show ran twenty-five minutes with a one reel picture, an illustrated song and perhaps a half-reel comedy? The Strand theater is going to bring all this back to Madison when it presents "The Old Time Movie Show" as a special added feature to Constance Talmadge's latest comedy drama "Learning to Love" which will be shown at the Strand for three days starting Sunday. The feature picture of "The Old Time Movie Show" will be Mary Pickford and Owen Moore in their first picture, a one-reel production. The illustrated song will be "My Little Kangaroo," sung as you used to hear it in the nickelodeon days while a special comedy, "The Runaway Leopard" will also be shown. There is a great surprise in store for those who witness the show and to tell more about it, would spoil it.

Dreams Lead to Big Things, Says Prof. Otto

CHICAGO—Dreams are important because anything worth while must be visualized before it can be acted upon, Prof. M. C. Otto of the University of Wisconsin said here today in an address at the final session of the fifth annual convention of Camp Fire Girls. "If more of the vague longings that we all experience could be interpreted and clarified this world would be a better place to live in," he said.

"Darwin as a boy of 13 was considered stupid and dull, but he was dreaming the dream that afterward made the theory of evolution a reality."

Blaine Approves May 1 As Child Health Day

Gov. Blaine today expressed approval of the observance of May 1 as Child Health Day. He sent a telegram to Mrs. Aida de Acosta Root, American Child Health association, New York, stating:

"May Day, traditionally a child's day, has come to be nationally celebrated as Child Health Day. It has been set aside as a day for community and family stock-taking of health conditions surrounding children, and for the consideration of the best means to advance the welfare of the child. Wisconsin is cooperating in the promotion of child health, through practically all health and welfare organizations of the state, official and voluntary. I heartily approve of the observance of May 1."

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Under the direction of Prof. Alexander Trout of the College of Engineering at the University of Michigan, a real estate course will be offered at the beginning of next year. For some time the Ann Arbor real estate dealers have favored the establishment of regular courses for realtors in the schools of the state.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—The sixth International Congress of Philosophy will be held at Harvard university in 1926, it was announced by the department of philosophy. In September Harvard will entertain the distinguished gathering, which will be the first important meeting since the war and the first one in which the members will meet in perfect amity.

URBANA, Ill.—A campaign to raise funds for the rehabilitation of the public and private schools destroyed and damaged by the tornado which swept across southern Illinois on March 18 will be launched next week by the University of Illinois, according to an announcement which was issued from the office of the dean of the College of Commerce. Every student will be asked to contribute and every member of the faculty will be solicited. The action came as a result of a plea which was sent out by the state superintendent of schools.

BERKELEY, Calif.—A post-graduate student in the evening school at the University of California drives a distance of 188 miles twice a week in attending his classes. In spite of unfavorable weather conditions at various times during the winter this ambitious student has not missed a recitation.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Women students at the University of Michigan have been divided into four groups according to the type of house in which they live. They are divided so that 333 live in halls of residence, 281 in sorority houses, 833 in approved houses, and 312 are permanent residents of Ann Arbor. An approved house must have at least five students, self government, an approved head and furnishings.

EVANSTON, Ill.—Funds for the new School of Commerce building, Weiboldt hall, which will be erected at Northwestern university, have been contributed by the Weiboldt foundation to aid in the university's program of expansion.

The fact that "of the twenty thousand men and women who have been trained in that institution all have become self-supporting citizens, many of whom are now regular contributors to the social service agencies of Chicago" was given as the reason for this donation.

Wieboldt hall will be built at a total cost of $1,100,000, said President Walter Dill Scott, who made the announcement.

RECORD IN HEAT HERE THURSDAY

Temperature of 82 Highest For This Time of Year Since 1915

Madison residents sweltered Thursday under the rays of a sun that sent the temperature up to a record mercury mark for a ten year period.

Official figures, by the United States weather bureau show that at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the red fluid was just topping 82, which it hasn't done since way back in 1915.

The coolest hour of the hectic period was at 6 o'clock this morning when a cooling wind sent the temperature down to 61. A heavy rain storm during the night also brought relief. Nearly .41 of an inch of rain was recorded during the storm.

Fair and cooler is the promise held out by the forecasters for today and Saturday.

Freak weather was reported from all over the country. In Milwaukee, the record for temperatures on April 23 was smashed for all time when the mercury reached 84 degrees. In Montana, snow fell to a depth of 24 inches. In the iron range region of Minnesota the beating sun was melting a blanket of snow which fell on the previous day.

Heat records were also broken in Detroit and Chicago. First fatalities of the year were reported from Minneapolis, where two persons died from the effects of the warm wave. Nebraska and South Dakota were visited by wind storms and a deluge of rain while Phoenix, Ariz., was enjoying a cold wave.

DISPLAY WELFARE WORK IN LATHROP

Accomplishments in Field Are Described on Bulletin Board

Accomplishments in the field of social welfare are being set forth this week on the bulletin board at Lathrop hall devoted to vocational guidance. This type of work is claiming thousands of college graduates every year and is becoming one of the most popular fields in which college women enter.

The bulletin board collection is designed to help those students who are considering this field as one which may be fitted to enter. The outlook for community work, health inspection, juvenile courts and the prevention of further child delinquency are among those aspects which are set forth.

One of the recent issues of "The Family," a publication which deals with social problems all over the world is on display. Articles in it concerning work in London and Russia give to the prospective social worker something of an idea of the extensive field in this work.

In this collection of material there is a bibliography of over fifty books on social welfare work, several of which are text books while the remainder are written for those not professionally interested in the work. These vocational guidance exhibits are changed weekly under the supervision of Mary Devine '25, chairman of the vocational committee.

PLACE CONTRACTS BEFORE COUNCIL

Big Paving Job Will Cost More Than $300,000; Issue Bonds

Bids on contracts amounting to $300,000, authorization of a second deputy city clerk, and temporary suspension of the smoke inspectors office will be among the matters to be considered by the city council to-night.

The ordinance asking the issuance of bonds amounting to about $260,000 for the completion of the 1925 paving program and awarding of the contracts to the lowest bidders will be acted upon. In addition to these bids, the council will consider the bids on the construction of filter beds at the Nine Spring sewage disposal plant and laying of the Wingra Park storm sewer.

A resolution asking that a third clerk be appointed will also be introduced. Members of the council declare that the amount of work in the clerk's office warrants the additional assistance. Appointment of Harry C. Buser, former city clerk as first deputy, will also be announced to the aldermen for confirmation.

A Yellow Slicker's Like a Yellow Dog

Great to have around, but there's no thrill of pride in ownership.

Yellow slickers are "college," and if you want a raincoat for a short time, they're fine. We have them for $6.

But think of a raincoat that's smart looking, so light you can hardly feel its weight on your shoulders, that will wear for years and look just as attractive as it does new, that you can easily pack when traveling, and that is as appropriate worn over an evening wrap as it is on the hill.

Then buy a transparent oiled silk coat—a blue, purple, green, brown, red or yellow one. They're made in Great Britain—and the English sure ought to know how to make raincoats.
