TO: Chief, Social Welfare Service of the North, Luang Prabang
FROM: Director General of Social Welfare and Labor.

Reference is made to the Education Service's letter No. 150 dated 6/8/1971 to Colonel Sichanh Thomavongs, Chairman of the Joint Committee for the Protection of Luang Prabang, to the effect that 3 teacher volunteer teams are going to set out to perform work during the summer vacation of this year to help the refugees and others, and that the Ministry is requested to consider the possibility of issuing equipment and foodstuffs to these teams for official use and consumption during their work performance. The Ministry and USAID have jointly considered this matter and agreed to issue the following:-

- Shovels	50	ea.
- Hammers	30	ea.
- Ripsaws	20	ea.
- Handsaws	20	ea.

All these items have already been delivered to Col. Sichanh Thomavongs in Vientiane.

You are requested to deliver the following items to Col. Sichanh Thomavongs for further issue to these teams:-

- Hoes	40	ea.
- Machetes	90	ea.
- Milled rice	20	bags.
- Salad oil	3	baxes.

At the same time, you are requested to advise these teams to help the refugees who have just returned to their home recently because the major part of their public facilities have been burnt down.

Please report to me of the action taken in this regard.
