If you will send a photo of yourself, or any member of your family. we will make you a full Life Size Crayon Portrait FREE OF CHARGE. The only considerations required of you will be that you exhibit the Portrait to your friends as a sample of our work, and thereby assist us in securing some orders; also, that you promise to get it framed in a suitable frame for a fine portrait, so that the work will show to advantage. We exact this promise from you, although it is unreasonable to suppose that you would allow a Portrait to stand around unframed and have it ruined.

We trust you will not consider this a scheme, as it is not, but an excellent way of placing a specimen of our work in your vicinity.

Be sure and write your full name and address on back of photo when you send it, as this will secure its safety. We guarantee its return, so have no fear of losing it. The better the photo you send, the better work we can do for you, as everything depends upon the small picture we work from. If you have not got a photo that you care to have enlarged, go to your photographer and get a negative made and send us.

We have shipping offices in New York City, Atlanta, Ga., and Toronto, Ont., and your portrait will be shipped to you by express from the office nearest you, and you will be notified from the Chicago office from which point you may expect the portrait to be shipped.

This offer is good for ten days. This will be a "Sample Portrait" worth $35.00, and as fine as can be made.

Hoping you will kindly oblige us, and use your influence in furthering our interests, we remain,

Yours truly,

FORT DEARBORN PORTRAIT CO.

N. B.--Be sure to address all correspondence and send photo to us at 103 State St., Chicago, Ill.

TESTIMONIALS.

The letters below are a part of those received by the Fort Dearborn Portrait Co., since June 1, 1889, showing how patrons are pleased.

Miss Alice C. Friend, Willimantic, Conn.—My enlarged portrait was delivered at my home this afternoon and is very highly appreciated by one and all. It far exceeds my expectations. Everything about it is perfection itself. Several have already been in to see it, and more are coming. I am greatly indebted to you for your kindness in giving me a life-size portrait of myself. Endorse above as her mother, Mrs. O. Waldo.

Louis A. Thomas, Veterinary Surgeon, Atlantic, Ia.—Portrait received yesterday, and am very much pleased with it; the work is fine and well executed. Please accept my sincere thanks and wishes for your success.

W. G. Taylor, Wingham, Ontario.—The picture arrived safely and is in every particular satisfactory, although enlarged from a very small and somewhat faded tintype. Am exceedingly well pleased with it, and think it a beautiful picture. Enclose an order for another, which kindly complete at your earliest convenience.

Mrs. J. Brin, La Crosse, Wis.—The crayon was received in good condition. Am very much pleased with it, and call it an excellent copy of the photograph. Shall refer you to all parties wishing photos enlarged. Many thanks for same.

Mrs. J. F. Sill, Georgetown, D. C.—Am still delighted with my crayon. Everyone else thinks the same as I do, that it is perfect. Never saw a better likeness in my life. Am more than pleased with it.

Mrs. J. L. Stotler, Audubon, Iowa.—Portrait received today. Am well pleased with it, and is better than we expected. Will show it to our friends, and will use our influence in securing orders for you.

R. Warner, Kansas City, Mo.—The portrait is lifelike, and therefore could not be improved upon. Will do all in our power to be of benefit to you. Some of our neighbors who received a circular from you had fears of the offer not being made in good faith; they are undeceived.

F. J. Currier, Amesbury, Mass.—Received the portrait in good condition, and was more than pleased, being assured that it is as fine a picture as can be shown in our town. Feel that it will bear the closest inspection, and that it is an exact copy of the picture sent you. Return my sincere thanks for this splendid present, and will call the attention of all to its merits as a work of art.

Frank Pratt, South Acton, Mass.—Received the picture today, and am perfectly satisfied with it. People who have seen it pronounce it to be a very fine portrait.

H. W. Sherwood, Ottawa, Ont.—Received my portrait all safe and in good order, and am very much pleased with it. Have it on exhibition in the store, and parties that have seen it and have not known me say it is a true picture. That photo was taken five years ago. Please accept my greatest thanks for the same. Please send price list.

N. Bouvier, Station Agent, St. Angele, Canada.—My portrait was received two days ago in good order, and is ten times better than was expected. Have put it in my store to show to those who come in, and all that have seen it say it is the finest and best finished portrait they ever saw.

Dr. Kun, Milwaukee, Wis.—Picture received in good condition. Thank you sincerely for the same and will try and reciprocate the favor.

E. Kirby, Rochester, N. Y.—Received portrait in good order, and am very much pleased with it. Think it could not have been done any better, and if I can do you any good I will most willingly do so.

Mrs. Jno. Bramblee, Pine Grove, Mich.—The portrait arrived safely, and pleases me very much. Everyone that sees it says it looks as if it might speak.

Henry D. Selby, Timber Agt., Staryer, Canada.—Have just received your free portrait, and am well pleased with it. All who know my father pronounce it a most lifelike portrait, and the execution unexcelled.

J. E. Barrett, Flour and Feed, Mount Vernon, Ia.—The crayon portrait of my wife is at hand, and it pleases me very much. Feel well paid for the delay in getting it.

C. H. Gross, Dry Goods, Clothing, &c., Clarkson, Neb.—Received by express, some days ago, the life-size portrait of my deceased wife, and it reflects great credit on the artist. Have it on exhibition in the store, and everybody expresses a most favorable opinion of it. Am sure there are none better made. Please accept my thanks.

T. H. Sturdevant, Howells, Neb.—Received the crayon picture a few days ago, and all that have seen it say it is a fine picture, and well done. Everybody that has seen it wants me to get prices for that kind of work.

Mrs. J. C. Cross, Protection, Kan.—Received the picture, and hardly know how to express my thanks. Consider it a fine piece of work, and am very much pleased with it. What are your prices for such a picture, and how many pictures will I have to send to have another one free, with a frame like this ($7.50)?

B. Kelly, Bradford, Pa.—We received the picture, and are very much pleased with it. Think it could not have been better. Will try and show it to the best advantage for your benefit. Thanks for what you have done.

Alice M. Sherburne, Lanesville, Mass.—Received my portrait, and am very much pleased with it; it gives perfect satisfaction.

A. G. Dickson, Paragould, Ark.—The picture received, and is very satisfactory. It hangs in a very conspicuous place, and the work has been complimented by many.

T. D. Stanton, Blue Earth City, Minn.—Thank you for promptness in forwarding picture. Need not say with what pleasure I look at it. 'Tis beautiful. At present, Mrs. Stanton objects to a more public exhibition than at home.

R. F. Reiter, Milwaukee, Wis.—Portrait received yesterday, and am highly pleased with same. Shall exhibit it in some conspicuous place, and will do all I can to repay your liberality.

A. Bredekamp, Washington, D. C.—The portrait arrived safely, and have shown it to many of my friends, who pronounce it a very fine picture. Could not be better satisfied, and consider the frame very good for the money.

A. R. Van Nock, North La Crosse, Wis.—Received the picture by express, and am well pleased with the work, as it is much better than the other company did. The expression is perfect, and, in short, it is a perfect picture of my wife. I have it in the store, and everybody thinks it perfect.

W. C. Warner, Caldwell, Kan.—The large portrait of myself came through O. K., and can say am doubly pleased with it. It is a well made picture, and if I could not get another would not take $50 for it. Many thanks for the reduced rates on picture and frame.

E. Dierolf, Milwaukee, Wis.—Received portrait last Saturday. Am more than pleased with it, and everyone that sees it thinks the work is perfect. My sister would like hers also, and some of my friends; so if you will please send prices as reasonable as you can, may secure you some orders. Accept my thanks.

L. H. Beck, dealer in Wool, Detroit, Mich.—Beg to acknowledge receipt of picture. My friends who have seen it think it a very good copy of the photo sent you. Accept kindest wishes for your venture.

C. F. Cook, Cheboygan, Mich.—The portrait came to hand safely, and we are well pleased with it. We will gladly recommend your work to anyone wanting something of the kind. Please accept my sincere thanks for the same.

B. Wells, Bay City, Mich.—The picture was received. Am very much pleased with it, and think that you improved on the photograph very much. Please accept my thanks.

Mrs. Anna Lay, Bayfield, Wis.—Received the picture short time ago, and am very much pleased with both picture and frame. Have shown it to several of my friends; they all think it just splendid.

J. P. Sizemore, Columbus, Kan.—Received the picture, and am highly pleased with the work. Everyone speaks highly of it. It has been examined by crayon artists of Columbus, and all speak well of it.

J. H. Worum, Wheeler Station, Ala.—Received the portrait two weeks ago today, and was just as well pleased as could be with it. A good many of my friends have seen it and pronounce it a perfect likeness, and I think the work and frame are beautiful. Accept thanks.

H. E. Moses, East River, N. Y.—The picture of my wife arrived all safe, and to say that it gives entire satisfaction does not half express it. It surpasses anything of the kind I have ever seen. Please accept thanks.

R. McMillan, Amsterdam, N. Y.—Your picture and frame received. Think it is splendid, and have shown it to several of my friends, who think it just right. Hope you will have success in your business.

Belle Wetzel, McGee's Mills, Pa.—The portrait was received the 27th, and must say I was surprised. The crayon is beautiful, and looks most like life and is the best crayon in the neighborhood. My sister got a crayon of the same picture and there is no comparison; she is sick of hers.

W. C. Thompson, Attorney, Butler, Pa.—The picture you made for me arrived safely yesterday, and it is as good a picture as I ever saw, and is cheap at any price. Feel under obligations to you, which will try and discharge by saying a good word for you whenever possible, and exhibit your work as opportunity offers.

Erin Bros., dealers in Clothing, La Crosse, Wis.—The picture ordered for you came duly to hand. We are well pleased with it in every respect, and could not be better satisfied. Everybody who has seen it admires it very much. Many thanks for same.

F. S. Steward, Architect, Kansas City, Mo.—My picture was received yesterday, all right, and to tell you I am pleased with it would not half express it; am most happily surprised with both the picture and the frame, for they both far exceed my expectations. Had I sat for the picture in person, it could not have been better. We have exhibited it to a large number of friends already, and they all pronounce it a work of art. My wife says $100.00 would not buy it. Shall consider it a pleasure to recommend your work whenever I can, and trust you may receive many orders through my picture.

I. W. Cornwall, Washington, D. C.—The picture and frame arrived all right. They give perfect satisfaction, and are pronounced splendid. Shall take pleasure in exhibiting it to all my friends. Accept many thanks from myself and family.

J. S. Strickland, Groceries, &c., Tuscaloosa, Ala.—The portrait received, and must say that I am very much pleased with the work. Everyone that sees it says it is a splendid piece of work, and several have promised to have work done as soon as they have photos taken.

Jabez Chesebro, Stonington, Conn.—Portrait received the 27th, and is an improvement on the photo sent, which was excellent. Am satisfied with it. Several have admired it.

James Keoughan, Calvert's Station, Ala.—Portrait received. We are highly delighted with it, and return thanks for same. Shall display it and do all in our power to select as many orders as possible. Everyone who saw it pronounced it a beautiful piece of art.

L. Beckham, Burton, Kan.—My mother received one of your enlarged portraits, and she is more than pleased with it. You can't fail selling such pictures.

Ezra G. Valentine, Attorney, Breckenridge, Minn.—The crayon of my father just received, and same is very satisfactory. Shall send you further orders later on, and shall take pleasure in recommending your company to my friends as an honorable firm, and No. 1 artists.

F. L. Mason, Druggist, Alpena, Mich.—The picture made for me is first-class, and will say that I am very much pleased with your work, and think you will receive some orders from here soon, as quite a number have expressed a desire for the work.

Mrs. Ed. Kempter, Bay City, Mich.—The picture of our father, which you made for us, is perfectly lovely. We are highly pleased with it. Many thanks for same.

B. O. Blake, Granville, Ia.—Have received the crayon portrait you made for me, and am highly pleased with it. It surpasses anything I have seen in that line. Accept my appreciation of your liberality.

C. H. Krumrine, Chambersburg, Pa.—Your portrait to hand. We consider it very fine, and a perfect image of the photo sent.

Aug. J. Bothe, Dry Goods, West Bay City, Mich.—The portrait copied from a photo for my daughter was received and gives entire satisfaction. I am obliged to you for same.

Millard F. Lynch, Washington, D. C.—Portrait and frame received in splendid condition, and I assure you they far exceed my most sanguine expectations. Have had a number of friends express their appreciation of your work and make inquiries concerning your prices, &c., to all of whom I gave your firm name and what information I possessed.

Mrs. E. H. Hoover, Curwensville, Pa.—Portrait was received and has proven satisfactory. We are indeed well pleased with it. The expression is natural and the work fine.

Fred M. Wetherbee, D. D. S., Milford, N. H.—The portrait ordered of you some time ago came last evening, and is highly satisfactory in every respect.

Geo. H. Potter, Tom's River, N. J.—Received the picture, and am very much pleased with it. I never saw a finer picture, and that is what all say who have seen it.

Rev. E. W. Gaylord, Wrightsville, Pa.—The picture with frame arrived in good order, and both the picture and setting have been admired by all who have seen them. My wife says she values it more than anything we have in the house.

Geo. Johnston, Carriage Manufacturer, Pinkerton, Ont.—We received the photo sent you and portrait of same and frame. We are well pleased with it, and will recommend you to all requiring that class of work.

W. W. Baker, Maquoketa, Ia.—We received the picture all right, and to say we are pleased with it does not tell half; we are more than pleased with it, and consider it one of the best of its kind we have ever seen, and all who have seen it agree with us.

Mrs. Bertha Weller, Adams, N. Y.—The life-size portrait sent me some days ago arrived safely, and I have neglected to write that I am very much pleased with both the picture and frame. Seems as though it must speak. I wrote you to finish up two of the same.

W. C. Dupre, Cote St. Louis, P. Q.—Received the portrait of Mrs. M. J. Greene came last week. I could not be better satisfied. It is as natural as life.

F. A. Deforest, Jackson, Mich.—The portrait came to hand, and I am under obligations for the manner in which you have treated me. The portrait is the finest I have seen, and is an exact reproduction of the photo sent. Am showing it to friends, who all say that it can't be beat. Shall do all I can to introduce your productions in this neighborhood.

J. B. Monlux, Sup't City Schools, Hastings, Neb.—The portrait has been received and is first-class in all respects. I am entirely satisfied with it. Please send terms, so that if I can get a chance I can send an order.

J. F. Warner, Pastor M. E. Church, Jermyn, Pa.—The portrait was received, and gives satisfaction. I have it on exhibition and shall continue to exhibit it for the next 30 days to the best effect I can. An agent for a Philadelphia house was here when it arrived and admitted that it was a fine picture.

Mrs. A. D. Greene, Tickfaw, La.—The enlarged portrait of Mrs. M. J. Greene came last week. All are delighted with it.

Wm. Wienbroer, Trinidad, Colo.—Our portrait is received, for which accept our heartiest thanks and good wishes. It is a perfect picture of both wife and child, and we are delighted with it. The frame is all that could be desired and well worth the price.

Phillip Unitt, Seward, Neb.—Received my picture all right last week, and am well pleased with it. Think I can get some work for you to do here.

J. E. Forrester, Adamsbury, Pa.—The portrait of Mr. Corbet, deceased, received, and gives entire satisfaction, especially from the tintype taken from. Thanks.

Wm. Hausworth, La Crosse, Wis.—Received your picture a few days ago, and am well pleased with it.

If you write to address given, be sure to enclose stamp for reply.
