IN THIS 1933 STRIKE, AS TODAY, WOMEN HAVE PLAYED A FIGHTING ROLE IN THE STRUGGLE.

International Women's Day

-WORKSHOPS-

SUNDAY, MARCH 11-MEMORIAL UNION- TOP FLIGHT ROOM

1 PM: WOMEN'S LIBERATION AND THE WORKING CLASS

4 PM: WOMEN IN CHINA-SLIDE PRESENTATION

The March 8th Committee is an ad hoc group of women who have gotten together from various groups to work around March 8th, International Women's Day. Some of us are in the U.S.-China Peoples' Friendship Association, others are in the Revolutionary Union, and most of us are in the Madison Anti-Imperialist Organization (M.A.I.O.).

M.A.I.O. is a group of people who see how the fight of the Vietnamese people and other exploited nations, the struggle of Black people and other oppressed minorities in the U.S., the movement of women to gain control of their lives, and the struggles of working people are tied together. They are struggling against a system which exploits working people at home and around the world.

We are actively involved in these struggles as students, and are educating both ourselves and other to fight back!
