

Watertown, 20. July 1853

Esteemed Jakob:

I have the opportunity here with acquaintances, to start a small business with a small investment and to live off the profits. I am now claiming my credit of . . . . the accounting of which is in your hands, which we had agreed would be available on one month's notice.

I am asking you to write me about the crate which I could perhaps better receive and accept here, which agency would forward it from New York to Milwaukee; also about necessary documents to take possession of the crate, and send them on to me if you have any copies.

P. Prinzl

My address:

P. Prinzl Watertown, Wis.
