Gun and Blade Presents Military Ball Play at Parkway

INVALIDS TO SEE SHOW

Final dress rehearsals will take place this morning for "The Bells of Beaujolais," the pre-Military ball play which is to be given by the Gun and Blade club at the Parkway this afternoon and evening.

Thirty victims of shell-shock, now under care at the Mendota hospital, have been invited to attend the afternoon performance. Local business men have made arrangements to bring the ex-soldiers to the city with automobiles.

250 Sing in Chorus

In addition to the 14 leads, 250 university women and the members of the Madison high school girls' glee club make up the chorus for the musical comedy. Under the direction of Miss Alice Keith '16, Chicago, the entire cast has been holding regular rehearsals since the beginning of the month. Miss Keith coached the cast for "The Maid and the Middy," the play given by the club in April last year. Although the club received repeated offers to give a second and third performance, the play was not given again because of the nearness to the end of the semester.

The cast for "The Bells of Beaujolais" was picked from among the best talent in the club and also from students in the School of Music. Olivia Fentress '23, as the Countess Marie, a rich widow, plays an exceptionally difficult part with ease. Florence Kohn '24 plays her part equally well.

Leads Have Lively Party

Paul Tobey '22, as the Duke of Beaujolais, and John Bender '22, as John Bender, a wealthy American and host of an excursion party, have two of the liveliest parts in the entire comedy. Eiel Myrlund '22 furnishes much of the comedy in the play in his part as the English valet.

An imaginary island off the coast of Normandy gives an opportunity for an elaborate setting for the play. A party of American tourists arrive at the island and are lavishly entertained by the duke. Several beautiful French girls vie with the American girls in the party in making love to two young Americans.

The duke himself is much attracted by Aunt Sarah Jessup, a widow, traveling with the party. By exchanging costumes a short time before a masquerade party given by the duke, the women succeed in involving the suitors in con-

German Club Will Bring Swiss Soloist

Miss Berty Jenn, soprano, of Basel, Switzerland, will give a program of German songs at a special meeting of the German club, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Lathrop parlors. Miss Jenny has made a special study of the composer, Brahms, and is to sing several songs by him. She will give compositions in four languages, French, German, Italian, and English.

"Miss Jenny comes with excellent recommendations," said Prof. B. Q. Morgan of the German department.

Three Schools Remain In Running For Prep Honors

ADVISORY HELP FOR FRESHMEN IS NEW PROJECT

Honorary Societies Will Aid Faculty in Case of First Year Men

It is being planned by a group of students, made up largely of honorary societies in the university, to form a student advisory system to aid freshmen in the College of Letters and Science during their first semester.

"The senior members of Phi Beta Kappa have taken the initiative," said Prof. F. C. Sharp, of the Philosophy department, president of the local chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, "and they have met to discuss the proposition of adopting the plan used in the Course in Commerce."

"This system, which worked admirably last year in the Commerce Course, would give freshmen the benefit of the experience of upperclassmen. Under the plan, each upperclassman who is interested would be the advisor of from five to ten freshmen. The first year men would live as near him as possible. He would give them his notion of how to study and would go through their examination papers with them and suggest means by which they might do better scholastic work."

Representatives of the campus honorary societies called a meeting last Wednesday, March 22, and appointed a committee to draw up a tentative plan of procedure. This committee will make its report at the next meeting of the group to be held Friday afternoon, March 31.

The men interested in this project are being assisted by Dean Roe's office.

Y. W. Faculty Drive Half Way to Goal

Three hundred seventy-five dollars have already been taken in in the Y. W. C. A. faculty subscription drive. The goal set is $700 and the canvassers expect to end the drive this week. A hundred girls have been seeing the faculty at office hours, but only about half of the members of the faculty have been called upon.

GLEE CLUB REACHES CLIMAX OF SEASON IN LAST CONCERT

The University of Wisconsin Glee club gave its final recital of the season last evening at Music hall before a large audience. The concert was one of the most successful entertainments of its kind which has been presented to Madison audiences this year, and made a fitting climax to the long and successful season that the Glee club has had.

Cecil Burleigh, violinist, of the School of Music, assisted in the concert and was accompanied by Prof. Charles H. Mills, of the Music school. Accompanists for the Glee club were Paul Sanders '22, and Robert Nethercut '24.

Burleigh played, among other pieces, five compositions of his own,

TODAY'S GAMES Consolation Series

Superior vs. Fall Creek, 10 a. m. Championship Series
New Richmond vs. Rhinelander, 11 a. m.

Fond du Lac vs. winner of 11 o'clock game, 7:30 p. m.

YESTERDAY'S SCORES

Fond du Lac 17, Wisconsin High 14.
New Richmond 29, La Crosse 17.
Argyle 14, Watertown 11.
Superior 33, Menominee 11.

The Fond du Lac high school basketball team last night eliminated Wisconsin high from further title consideration by a score of 17 to 14, while New Richmond kept itself in the running by handing La Crosse a 29 to 17 beating. Argyle and Superior defeated Watertown and Menominee respectively, in the consolation series games, held in the afternoon.

The Wisconsin high-Fond du Lac game was the feature tilt of the day. Hopes for a championship had been running high in the Badger prep ranks, but after the first quarter of play the Oshkosh tourney winners had things pretty much their way. By drawing the bye in tomorrow morning's games, Fond du Lac is assured of either first or second place in the tourney.

The work of Williams and Hawkins, of New Richmond, was largely responsible for the one-sided score

S. G. A. Calls Off Co-Ed Response To Serenaders

A ruling was passed at the last S. G. A. board meeting that there is to be no clapping for serenaders after 11 o'clock. A similar ruling was passed last year by the Pan Hellenic association and it was decided that a measure applying only to the sorority houses discriminated against them.

The girls at Chadbourne, Barnard, and the various rooming houses are especially anxious that the men observe the recent ruling as the girls do not want to be deprived of the musical overtures of the serenading gallantes.

"Fairy Sailing," "Coloring," "Village Dance," "Hills," and "Heave Ho." The selections were rather short, but in them were a wealth of feeling and expression that is found only in the compositions of a true artist who both knows and loves his art. His rendition of the "Minuet," by Beethoven-Burmester, was one of the most delightful presentations of the evening. From the standpoint of sweetness and melody it could hardly be surpassed.

The Glee club quartet, composed of Noel Stearns, grad, Earl Brown, grad, Thomas Dartnell '23, and Whitford Huff '23, sang the "Invocation to Thor," by Donizetti, and responded to three enthusiastic encores.

ST. PAT PAINTS STATE STREET GREEN TODAY

One Thousand Loyal Plumbers Follow in Wake of Famous Patron

WOE UNTO ALL LAWYERS

At 1:30 this afternoon, St. Patrick will pass down State street, followed by the famous Blarney stone, and 1,000 loyal engineers, who will attempt to entertain him, and casual onlookers by exposing the falsities of all institutions not directly related to engineering.

It is reported that many Saturday morning classes have been cancelled because of the inability of instructors to divert the thoughts of the engineers from their preparations for the big parade. Last minute inspirations are being whipped into shape with feverish haste, and the final artistic touches are being added to the large floats that have been prepared by the engineering societies and fraternities.

Music School to Get Organ

The Mechanicals say that they have constructed a pipe organ, which will exhibit in the parade before complete in every detail, which they turning it over to the Music school as a token of gratitude for the improvement of ideals among the engineers who have been taking the course in Appreciation of Music.

Reports from division leaders indicate that there are to be more and better entries in this year's parade than ever before, and if the weather man is kind, Madison people and Madison visitors will have an opportunity to enjoy all the thrills attendant upon the parade of a traveling circus without the usual accompaniment of painful money extraction.

Phantom Music to Thrill

Weird sounds, emanating from nowhere in particular, should not alarm, for it is reported that St. Patrick's Phantom band will be on hand, and will play music for the benefit of all who wear the shamrock. "Listen for it," said an engineer today, "during intervals of quiet that may occur, and if you happen to be one of the elect you will receive a surprise that you will not soon forget."

A special corps of student cops, under the direction of William J. O'Connor '22, will assist the Madison police in handling the traffic along State street and around the square, and every effort will be made to divert all traffic away from the line of march. "Rich" McCaffery '23, assistant manager of the parade, has also requested that no cars be parked on State street between 1:30 and 2:30, this afternoon, because of their interference with the movement of the parade and the view of those who wish to watch the passage of St. Patrick, and his loyal train.

National Secretary To Talk at Vespers

Miss Agnes Hall, national Episcopal student secretary for women, and former graduate of Wisconsin, will speak at Y. W. C. A. vespers on Sunday at 4:30 p. m. in Lathrop parlors. Belle Knights '24 will lead.

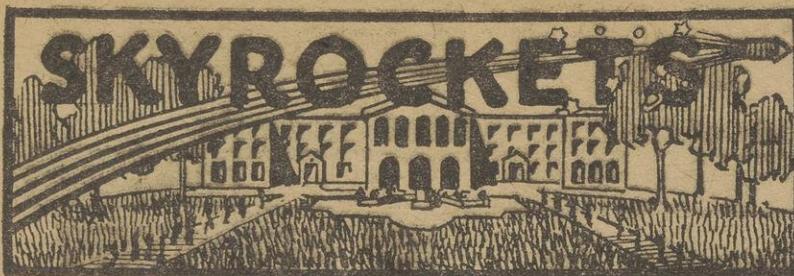

Miss Hall graduated from the university in 1914, and served as secretary of the Y. W. C. A. the year after. She has also been national Y. W. C. A. secretary.

SUGGESTIONS FOR SPRING GARDENERS

1. Heliotrope is an exotic plant that is gaining popularity in the West Indies, and with a little persuasion and the proper approach one may raise this plant with great success.

2. A most wonderful blossom is that found in the Stoughton spitoonia. One must guard them with care during the early life in order that they do not tarnish in the adolescent stage, and thus turn into a common Spitzburgian ga-boonia.

3. The raisin plant is another botanical specimen that is fast taking the country by storm. Most homes are in perfect ferment over this rare gem, and it is rumored that it will take the place of the well known rye plant.

4. The University pharmacy is offering for sale small packets of ham seed. With the instructions which accompany each package, one may raise the most beautiful hams imaginable. When the seed is planted with some wheat seed, one may be surprised to find some day in his back yard some full grown ham-sandwiches. Care must be taken in the mixing in order that the ham grow on the inside.

TODAY'S Saturday and there's nothing to do but wait around for someone to go in swimming. Now that George Martin has gone and we can't mention those who took first hours last year, it's hard to tell who will open the season unless Scotty decides to break the ice.

Personal
Rodney C. Welsh has gone to Canada. There is an editorial convention, and some international hockey matches, and then Canada is a nice place anyway.

Another Pre-Military ball dance was held at the studio night before last. The Smith brothers from Kentucky and Doc Dorward officiated. Jazz is what those boys played nothing else but. ENFORCING A TRADITION

WITH each spring there comes the recurring green cap problem. That it is a problem difficult to solve cannot be doubted when the experiences of last year are recalled. At that time were enacted scenes that reacted in a very unfavorable wave of publicity throughout the state against the university. The then Student Senate submitted referendums to student votes in an effort to ascertain student sentiment in regard to indiscriminate hazing and the abolishment of the green cap.

The results of the referendum were that the green cap was to be retained, but indiscriminate hazing was to be abolished. In this manner the buck was passed to the present personnel of student representative bodies. The problem now is to compel the wearing of the green cap, but with the teeth taken out of hazing.

Throughout the year members of the sophomore class, as well as members of the senate, have been striving to reach a happy solution. Their efforts have been seemingly successful. How successful, depends upon the fair-mindedness of the particular classes interested, and in a minor measure, of the entire student enrollment.

Briefly, the plan is that the green cap is to be worn as a symbol of the class and a badge of honor, not as a mark of inferiority or of humiliation. Members of the freshman class who so accept and wear this symbol will not be hazed. But those freshman who cannot realize the idealistic symbol of the green cap and who refuse or neglect to wear it will be tried by the student court and hazed as their cases merit. An elaborate plan is being formed whereby each freshman who does not wear the cap will be discovered and properly dealt with.

The penalties for offenses and violations of traditions are to be changed from the usual lake parties to punishments which are more dignified but fully as severe. The Student Senate has the power to remove the right of franchise in student elections, has the power to place on probation or the ineligible list any student who violates the traditions. It may recommend to the faculty that a student be given extra credits toward graduation as a punishment for violation of traditions. And punishments of this nature are those listed in the plan now in formation.

Lake parties are illegal. They violate a law which is superior to university law. They violate the right of freedom of person. As long as lake parties are given, just so long will the university be condemned as not law abiding.

Dumping a frosh in the lake is not harmful in its physical sense, but it is in the minds of those who are ever ready to criticize and condemn college practices. To this extent lake parties are a menace to the name of the university. If other punishment will have the desired effect, such punishment should be adopted is the belief of those who are working on the green cap problem.

It would seem that few frosh will ever need to be punished for refusing to wear the cap. If the cap is worn as a privilege, as a symbol of an ideal, it should be worn by every freshman who pretends to class spirit or who hopes some day to be accepted into the full brotherhood of varsity spirity.

The green cap problem is here. Its solution must be determined by student opinion and backed by student sentiment. The solution explained in this column seems to be a happy one. But student opinion must crystallize and make itself known before the next meeting of the Student Senate. Soap box orations and chartered halls might well be used as public forums until the matter has been discussed from every angle.

KEEP OFF THE LAKE

LAKE MENDOTA may be dangerous as well as beautiful. The number of deaths and near-deaths there each year are largely the result of carelessness. Venturing on the lake when the waves are high is simply daring Providence.

With the ice breaking up and danger imminent from every floating ice block, the lake should be barred from all would-be water sportsmen. Natural intelligence would seem to be a sufficient force to prevent premature canoeing. But evidently not, for this week has seen students on the lake, apparently oblivious to the danger existing. That they may have been competent to care for themselves in nowise limits the offense. By their example they are encouraging others, perhaps less able canoeists, to also venture.

The lake will not be open for some weeks yet, certainly not before April 1. Until the time when the lake is officially declared open for all, no one should venture on it. Capable canoeist or not, we should remember "Am I my brother's keeper?"

WHY CONCENTRATE ON THE WOMEN?

Such a tempest over the fads and foibles of college women! Press agents over the entire country seem bent on tracking her down and exposing her secret vices.

Such an epidemic of investigation and statements about dress, smoking, rouge and flirting! It's enough to make the careful college woman quake at every turn, lest she unwittingly attract the spotlight of publicity to her own pet habit.

Why not catalogue the men as to percentage of smokers, extravagance in dress, money spent at billiards, late hours, time spent in queening, etc.? Some interesting revelations might result.—A WOMAN.—McGill Daily.

Norsman Quits Post As City Clerk Today

Has Held Office Continuously Here Since April 1, 1890

O. S. Norsman submitted his resignation as city clerk today. Mr. Norsman has held the office 32 years. He gave as his reasons his inability to perform the duties of the office.

The resignation is to take effect on April 18. He was first elected on April 1, 1890 and had held the office continuously until about eight months ago when he suffered a stroke and has since been confined to his home.

The election of Harry C. Buser, for a number of years assistant to Mr. Norsman and acting city clerk since Mr. Norsman's retirement, is held certain in city circles. It is the wish of Mr. Norsman that such procedure be followed. Mr. Norsman declared that in Mr. Buser the city has a trust-worthy servant and a capable official. The long association of the two men in city affairs gave Mr. Norsman great confidence in Mr. Buser's ability. The letter from Mr. Norsman, which will be presented to the council tonight, follows:

"I herein submit my resignation as city clerk of the city of Madison, to take effect the third Tuesday of April, 1922. This action, you no doubt know, is necessary on account of my inability to perform the duties of the office.

"I want to take this opportunity to express my regret in thus being forced to sever my lengthy and pleasant relation with all through this office, and further to thank your honorable body for all favors and courtesies shown me during my term of office, as well as during my continued illness.

"I assure you all that my appreciation is far greater than my poor ability to express it to you at this writing, but I must no longer delay taking leave of the office.

"Yours very truly,
"O. S. NORSMAN."

February 4 is Date of City Elections

The city elections, taking place Tuesday, Feb. 4, will directly affect the students of the university living in the fifth ward, which includes most of the student quarter.

Henry Caeser and A. R. Rhode are running for alderman of the ward. Mr. Rhode was nominated to the position by the Fifth Ward Voters' league, which was formed last spring for the purpose of finding, backing, and electing a man as alderman of the ward who will be representative of the citizens of the ward. This league, although it was expected to be only a temporary organization, has turned into what will probably be a permanent institution. Prof. A. P. Haake, of the economics department of the university, is its president.

Carroll E. Robb '25, of La Crosse, who was also running for this office, received 95 out of 1,101 votes cast in the primary elections last Tuesday, March 21.

Agrics Hold Second Live Stock Contest

Several classes of live stock will be judged. All sophomores and juniors who are interested are requested to report at the university stock pavilion at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

EDITOR'S NOTICE

All communications submitted for publication in the Cardinal must be signed with the name of the student and be not more than 400 words in length.

Editor Daily Cardinal:

In the article on elections which appeared in Tuesday's Cardinal the statement was made that Adrian Scolten had resigned from the Cardinal Board of Control. This statement is an error as Mr. Scolten resigned from the presidency of the board and not from the board itself. Therefore he will continue to serve until the end of the year.

A list of the vacancies on the board that are to be filled at the coming elections will be announced in the Cardinal within the next few days.

FINAL GAMES
TODAY FINISH
PREP TOURNEYThree Schools Fight
For Laurels in Tilts
Tonight

in the second game of the evening. Their speedy dribbling and passing completely bewildered their opponents, and there was never any doubt as to the ultimate outcome of the tilt.

Wisconsin high went into the lead on a free throw, and made two more points via the same route before Fond du Lac began to score. Just before the quarter ended, Kenison brought the score up to 5 and 1. Then Fond du Lac hit its stride and began to climb upon the Badger preps. At the end of the half, the score stood 10 to 8 in favor of the former team.

Fondy Downs Badgers
Fond du Lac settled down to a cool steady pace, and the game was on ice from that time on. Holtzworth went back into the scrap, and started a temporary rally by caging two field goals from the middle of the floor. Then Fondy played a guarding game that was impossible to penetrate.

The La Crosse men fought hard, but were simply outclassed. Richland Center led at half-time by a score of 13 to 9, but the margin was gradually widened during the second period. Tobias continued his brilliant shooting game of the day previous, but his team mates were unable to keep pace with him.

ARGYLE WINS OVERTIME
GAME FROM WATERTOWN

In an exciting overtime contest which was not decided until the last seconds of play, Argyle defeated Watertown in the consolation series 14 to 11, yesterday afternoon.

The two teams were evenly matched and battled to break a deadlock which began early in the contest and lasted until the final gun. At the end of the first period, Argyle and Watertown were tied by a 5 to 5 score. They struggled on even terms in the second session, both squads alternating in taking the lead.

Argyle Wins in Overtime
Argyle stepped out ahead in the five-minute extra period when Carey netted a basket. Smith fouled, but Boettcher, Watertown forward, was unable to count the free throw. He shot a long basket from the side to tie the score with one and a half minutes left to play. Munich got his second basket of the game to net the winning points. Schultz, Watertown, fouled and Carey dropped in a free throw as the gun announced the end of the contest.

Both Shoot Poorly
It was a hard-fought game all of the way. Both teams had a hard time finding the ring, and the two bulky back guards kept the offense from working the sphere down to within a scoring range.

Jacobs, a reserve forward, played an aggressive game for Argyle. His two baskets came when they were most needed. Schultz was the high scorer with three baskets, two in the first period. Boettcher was the only other Gosling to break into the scoring column.

SUPERIOR CENTRAL WINS
FROM MENOMINEE MEN

Superior Central high school won an overwhelming victory over Menominee in the first game played yesterday afternoon, the northerners counting 33 points to 11 hung up by the team from the Stout institute district. Superior clearly outplayed the 1921 runners-up, and was never headed after it took the lead early in the contest.

By winning their second game after they lost to University high on Thursday, the Central baskeeters won the right to compete

Tie Inevitable in Bowling Tourney

A tie for first place in the women's bowling tournament is inevitable as the result of the games played Wednesday night, when the Juniors and Seniors, who were both defeated in the games last Monday, came out ahead. The Seniors beat the Freshmen the first two games with the scores 591-544 and 584-541, and the Juniors beat the Sophomores in the first two games 628-518 and 617-624.

The winners being a complete reverse, all the classes have one game won and one game lost. As each team has only one more game to play it will give two teams equal claim to the championship.

High scores were bowled by Cleo Parsley '28, 163; Katherine Fuller '24, 164, and Charlotte Voorhis '22, 170.

MICHIGAN HOLDS NOVEL
WIRELESS HOMECOMING

Alumni of the University of Michigan will attend a novel "homecoming" April 29 when the Detroit Radio news broadcasting service will send a "Michigan Night" program to all parts of the country.

Talks by M. L. Burton, president of the Michigan university, Fielding H. Yost, athletic director, members of the faculty, and prominent athletes of the school, will feature the program. The Varsity band, the Glee club and the Mandolin and Guitar club will offer selections.

Promoters of the event believe that it will be the greatest get-together event in the history of the school. Notice of the time and features has been sent to all Michigan organizations throughout the country. The program is planned to last two hours.

The crowds were well entertained between the halves of the Watertown-La Crosse game, not only by the 30 piece band which the Milwaukee district winners brought along, but by the antics of the Watertown cheerleader. The university may have its Gus Tuckerman; the Madison high school may have its Willie Sims; but never before has a Madison crowd been treated to such intricate steps as this young individual performed.

There was at least one midget player in every game yesterday. Bohn copped the honors in the first tilt, while McCreary was the principal midget performer in the evening. Both of these players are the main point getters of their teams.

The game between Rhinelander and Fall Creek yesterday afternoon was the first opener that ever resulted in a tie. This year would have been no exception had it not been for the fact that Fall Creek was lacking a free thrower able to make any kind of a percentage of his tries.

further in the consolation series. They will fight for place with Fall Creek, and Argyle.

Camp Starts Scoring
Camp, big center, started the Superior team on its march to victory. He dribbled down through the Menominee defense for the first basket. McCreary missed three consecutive free throws, but Whereatt dropped in two ringers and with the early lead gained, the winners put the game on ice.

Capt. Camp's outfit led at half-time, 14 to 3. Menominee's lone points were made on a basket by Pierson and a free toss by Peterson, his only successful shot in four tries.

Six baskets, three in each period, made Whereatt high scorer. The shifty little forward had an uncanny eye for the ring. McKenna counted two baskets during the short time that he played in the first half. Moore was another Superior man to break into the scoring column. He came up from his guard position to net a pair of scores.

Four Menominee tossers managed to count baskets, but none was able to get more than a lone tally. Pierson got his in the first half, while Bundy, Hardy, and Smith attempted to start a rally with their trio in the last session.

COMMERCE AND
HILL MEN GIVEN
EDGE BY CRITICSEngineers Are Dark Horses in Intra-Mural Meet Held
Today

The annual indoor inter-college track meet will take place in the gymnasium annex this afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp. The meet will be a hot fight for first place between the Commerce and Letters and Science teams, with the Engineers looming up as the possible dark horse, and with the Agric speedsters doomed to the cellar position.

Several of the Commerce entries are experienced men who are certain to count points, among these men being Gene Tuthar, freshman track captain; Loyd Valley, premier freshman distance runner; Porter Ragatz, Timm, and Head.

Engineers Will Get Hot

Letters and Science has some good men in Hurleigh, Hofacker, Sommers, Snell, Smothers, Bergstresser, and Hurley. The Engineers are sure of a slam in the shot put, as every entrant in the event is a representative of that school. Van Ells is the man who will toss the weight the farthest. Other possible point winners for the engineers are Kamm, Sneider, and Trier.

The weak Agric squad has been strengthened somewhat by the addition of Moorhead, varsity miler and two miler, to its ranks. Hill Perry, and Gunderson may also through for places.

Tuthar Individual Star?

Tuthar, freshman captain, stands a fair show of coping individual honors today, although he will be hard pushed by Smothers in the high jump, and by Porter and Schneider in the high hurdles. Last Saturday in the inter-class meet Tuthar and Smothers tied for first place in the high jump with the bar at 6 feet, the highest mark made this season outside of the varsity meets; Schneider lost to Tuthar by inches in the high hurdles and won the low hurdles from the same performer by a small lead at the start.

In the half mile Valley, who holds the track record for this season with the excellent time of 2:03:2, will undoubtedly lead the field, and may even lower his time if he is pushed, as he is in excellent condition.

The meet is to be concluded by an inter-college relay event which will give the Engineer and Agric teams an opportunity to revenge the defeats sustained by them in the inter-college relays that were held on March 12, when L. and S. and Commerce aggregations took a first apiece in the mile and two-thirds mile relays.

Milton Arranges

Four singles and two doubles matches between the University of Wisconsin and Milton college tennis teams will be played at Madison on April 28, it was announced yesterday. Milton accepted proposals for matches from Thomas E. Jones.

Besides Wisconsin, Milton will play the University of Southern California, Ripon, Campion, and Whitewater normal. The squad has been practicing indoors during the past week.

GYMNASTS TO ENGAGE IN BIG
GOPHER MEETSchlatter's Men Hope
For Place in Stiff
Contest

The Badger gymnastic team will stack up against the strongest teams of the Northwest tonight at Minneapolis in the twelfth annual meet of the Northwestern Gymnastic society. This is only the second time that Wisconsin has sent a team to these meets.

Coach Fred E. Schlatter's gym men, who took second place in the Conference this season, and the Minnesota team, which took third place, will be the only teams sent by schools in the Big Ten. The other teams which will enter the meet are from smaller colleges and also "Turnverein" teams which are composed of older men who are practically professionals, as many of them have devoted most of their lives to gymnastics.

It can scarcely be hoped that the Badgers will take first place in this meet against such competition, but with the record which they have this season, they will probably make a good showing.

Is Gym Meet Only

The competition in this meet is limited to gymnastics alone, and does not include fencing or wrestling, as the all-Conference meet which was held here last week did. This meet has nothing to do with the Conference records, and the only rewards from it are the prizes which are given in the meet itself. There are three traveling cups awarded as team prizes, and six as individual prizes in each of the six events: horizontal bar, parallel bar, side horse, flying rings, tumbling, and club swinging.

The following members of the Badger squad will be taken on this trip: Porth, Bumer, Leitz, Hanson, Stevens, Koch, Rand, Pfleger, Kitchin, and Kletzien.

The teams which are entered in meet are as follows: U. of Wisconsin, U. of Minnesota, St. Olaf's College, Luther College, Stout Institute, Augsburg Seminary, St. Paul Y. M. C. A., Minneapolis Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, St. Paul Turnverein, New Ulm Turnverein, Margaret Playground of St. Paul, Palace Playground of St. Paul, and South High School of Minneapolis.

Purple Captain to Be Kept From Sports

James J. Patterson, captain-elect of the Northwestern football team, will be unable to participate further in spring practice. He has been under the care of a doctor since Friday when he took cold during practice.

Patterson's condition will also prevent his playing on the baseball team. He probably will be ineligible for football next year unless special consideration is given his case.

If These Animals Are As Big As Their Names, Hunting Party Will Have Great Time

Expedition To Seek Megatherium and Glyptodon, Huge Extinct Monsters Generally Found In Nightmares Only

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO III.—One doesn't usually hunt 1,500 pound mammals with turtle-like shells and 10-foot tails except in bad dreams, but a party from the Field Museum will hunt for such an animal, and others as strange in Argentina, this fall. Elmer S. Riggs, curator of the department of paleontology, will head the expedition, and he means to bring back the megatherium and the glyptodon dead or alive—probably dead, as they are recorded as having been extinct a long while. The glyptodon is the creature with the charming tail described above; the megatherium, a variety of ground sloth is a fellow a few sizes larger than the elephant.

There are a few of the huge monsters Mr. Riggs will seek in the southern wonderland. He won't disdain, however, to look about for extinct animals as small as mice, and expects to find remains of a number of them.

Mr. Riggs' expedition will be one of five which the museum has begun to send to South America. A botanical party is already in British Guiana. Mr. Riggs will sail in the fall in order to be in the southern hemisphere when it is spring there.

Prof. Young Decries Criticism of Y. M. C. A.

"Irreverent, sanctimonious, and deceptive" is the way in which Prof. Karl Young of the English department described the criticism given the Y. M. C. A. by outsiders at the Fellowship meeting at the university "Y" Thursday evening. He said that while this may be true of some of the individuals, it certainly is not true of the organization as a whole.

"The 'Y' is performing a much needed function on the campus and is rendering a service of unestimated value," he said. "But far more important than this," he continued, "is that the 'Y' perpetuates the spirit of religion among all who come in contact with it, and does much to bring about a feeling of good fellowship among men on the campus."

"It is the duty of every member of this organization to keep ever before him the ideals of the Y. M. C. A., and to do whatever he can do to help it in realizing these ideals," Professor Young said in closing.

The Philomathia debate was won by the negative team consisting of John Holzman, Henry Hofacker, and Edgar Erickson. The affirmative was upheld by John Harrington, Henry Romberg, and Henry Klos. A discussion led by Sterling Tracy on the cancellation of war debts followed the debate.
